

Inside the VAFA

Mid Season Gongs

Yes, it's that time of year. With almost perfect weather thus far, it really has been quite a start to the season...

Club of the Year

How about Elsternwick, the boys next door, who have celebrated their 100th season in style, remaining undefeated at the halfway point with a percentage of over 200%. They capped their celebration with a Friday night win over Albert Park under lights, followed by a hugely successful Centenary Ball on the Saturday night.

Senior Team of the Year

Like Elsternwick, Old Geelong look unbeatable in D2 and knocked off their only serious challengers Rupertswood on the weekend to virtually book a spot in D1 in June. Higher up, anyone who's seen Old Xavs, Haileybury and Uni Blues this year would agree that the standard of A Section is as high as it's ever been.

Reserves Team of the Year

De La Salle always have good reserves teams, though amazingly the club hasn't won a twos flag in 14 years. Their dominance earlier in the year was almost laughable, with all four spots on the goal-kicking ladder occupied by players in yellow and blue. The senior team isn't bad either.

Player of the Year

Has to be that man Simon Minton-Connell, who looks a realistic chance for the 100, despite playing in a lowly side. In hot pursuit is Paul Corrigan of Haileybury, Paul Edwards of Therry and Adam Chatfield and Damien Lynch of Old Xaverians.

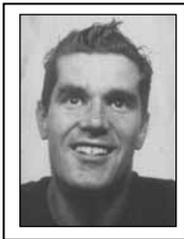

Individual Performance of the Year

In round 2, Scotch's James Gerstman came in nursing an injury and faced a date with the premier full back in the amateurs, Uni Blues' James Hayter. He promptly kicked 7 goals in the first 20 minutes and finished with 11 for the match. A month later, OM's Matthew Hicks caped off a cracking game up forward with a goal after the siren to herald the upset of the season over Old Xavs.

Coach of the Year

Hard to go past Uni Blacks' Tony Parkin, who has done what many thought was impossible; making a standout D Grade team the pace setter in C Section in less than a year. Could there be two Melbourne Uni teams in A Section within 2/3 years? Honourable mention to Haileybury's Peter Nicholson, who has galvanized the often enigmatic Bloods and St Bernards' Simon Madden, who has moulded a competitive unit after inheriting a team decimated by summer departures.

Young Player of the Year

Could well be Ari Lewski of Ajax (formerly of Sandringham), who sparked in the state match in Perth and topped it off with another best on ground game in the midfield for the Jackas on the weekend. Also in the mix is Joel Rice of Marcellin, Nial McGovern of Rupertswood and Caulfield Grammarians' full forward Brett Sinclair.

Fall From Grace of the year

Not long ago, district club Glen Eira were a serious chance to progress to B Grade but they currently languish at the bottom of D Grade with a percentage of just 40%. It doesn't help that half their team is in London (en route to Ibiza I believe) but they are a perfect illustration of how things can quickly capitulate in amateur footy when key personnel leave.

Umpire of the Year

Barrister Mark Gibson spent the summer in the United States working with prisoners on death row so the odd bit of lip from A Grade footballers would be water of a duck's back for the VAFA veteran. He has umpired some big games this year, including the Xavs Scotch match at Xavier College and always lets the game flow, whilst keeping things firmly under control.

Tipster of the Year

It's a hard ask topping Norm Nugent, who nailed 14 from 14 last week, but what about the gentleman who, in this very column, tipped the following premiers in March...Xavs, De La, Uni Blacks, Fitzroy Reds, Old Geelong and Elsternwick? I reckon that's the equivalent of tipping the straight six on Derby Day with a 50 cent ticket!

Tongue in Sheik?

The great man of the web gave his A Section Top 30 on the weekend, in which Mr Gerstman of Camberwell squeezed in at 24. Well, the Sheik may be a learned man but Gerstman should be top billing; he's on track to become the first top tier player to kick 100 goals in 25 years, despite missing several games with injury and hobbling about for the better part of the year. On Saturday, he demolished St Kevin's, albeit courtesy of some pristine delivery from upfield. Mark Gnatt is only a little bloke but is having a great year while McKenzie-McHarg returned to form with a cracking game in the ruck.

St Kevin's meanwhile, are starting to resemble the Sixth Army at Stalingrad. Garvey out for 4 to 6. Simpson, Travaglia and Duggan sidelined and Lucas twanging a hammy in the first 5 minutes. McKee nursing a sore back and about to go overseas. Garlick giving corporate speeches on game day and rarely available. Full back Nick Dowling (from Montrose) battling injury in a comp brimming with gun full forwards. It's hard to remember a club that is more cursed in A Grade in terms in injuries (it was exactly the same in 2002 & 2003). Some big names from yesteryear are in the throws of launching comebacks so stay tuned.

Damien Lynch rocked up to league headquarters sporting a preposterous new do but he kicked nine so you can't be too harsh on him. The Champ (Sheik top 5 member) and a bunch of blokes whose names mean nothing to me all took it up to the flag favourites, but the first quarter blow-out cost Trinity dearly. Adam Chatfield turned in another Best on Ground, with help from Ruyg and Ockleshaw (very contrasting on-batters but stars nonetheless). Trinity played well though and only lost through a few lapses in concentration.

Cam Kennedy was a star midfielder at Melbourne Grammar and in his early days at OMs but has barely been on the radar in the 21st Century after battling injury and going overseas. Though not known as a goal-kicker, he bobbed up with eight to spark one of the upsets of the season. Having said that, OMs have a pretty good record at the house of horrors. Plenty of scurrilous rumours doing the rounds regarding the imminent future of several OM identities but Saturday's extraordinary win would quash those for a while. Youngsters Sam Gooley (back from Nepal) and Ed Farquharson (back from serious shoulder surgery) played well for the visitors, while Bernard's wretched day was only brightened by teenage debutants James Stapleton and Mark Salvadore. OMs will lose star forward Mathew Hicks shortly however, as he is jetting off to Queensland for the rest of the year (as you do).

"Uni's Andrew Lowcock isn't the tallest bloke going around, but he has the rare knack of being able to slip away from and outmark taller Centre Half Backs"

Collegians were six goals the better at half time over Uni Blues but the reigning champs applied the blow torch and ultimately their midfield pressure overwhelmed the brave Lions. Uni's Andrew Lowcock isn't the tallest bloke going around, but he has the rare knack of being able to slip away from and outmark taller Centre Half Backs, while Paul Butko, Drew Solly (Sheik top 30) and Tom Rankin helped get them back in the game. For Collegians, Nathan Lockett continued his good form on a wing while Brock "Home Bloke" Mooney touched up yet another highly regarded full forward, keeping George De Crespigny goalless.

Space is precious, so I'll spare Marcellin fans the misery and just say that Haileybury won in a canter. It could have been worse; O'Farrell could have kicked a few...

This week's 3 from 5.

OK, let's kick things off and tip Scotch in an upset over Haileybury. I'll pencil Gerstman in for eight. Marcellin rarely lose following a pasting so I'll give them the nod in a close one over Trinity.

Bernard's have got buckley's against Xaverians, Collegians by a bee's bicep against OMs and to paraphrase Ed from the Naked Gun: "St Kevin's have got a fifty-fifty chance of beating Uni Blues....though there's only a 10 per cent chance of that happening". SKOBS have got no-one left, Uni by billions.

Old Scotch - congratulates Club Vice Captain Bruce Phillips on registering his 150th game with the Club last weekend. Bruiser has been a loyal and committed member of the club who always gives his best and is greatly respected by all. He has overcome injuries and maintained his fierce determination to see the club succeed. James Beaupaire also notched his 100th game with the Club last weekend and celebrated with 4 goals in the reserves. Buzz is great value on and off the field and here's to the next 100! Old Xaverians - congratulates Scottie Mollard who today plays his 100th game for the Red & Black. He joined the club in 1995 and played in our A grade Premiership team. He transferred to Collegians in '96, then went west to Claremont in WA. The journeyman returned to Old Xavs to play in the 2003 Premiership team, well done Scottie.

REVIEW

Caulfield Grammarians held off a fast finishing MHSOB to record their first home win of the year. Led by the courage of Mark Liddell, the Grammarians held sway for most of the day and only tiredness at the end allowed the High to add some respectability to their score. Al Green was best for the Fields along with Andrew Strain and Richard Foote.

A comfortable win for Old Ivanhoe now sees them sitting in second spot. NOBS obviously missed their star goalkicker but still were competitive. The Hoers are very unobtrusive just going about their business quietly and winning the games they should. Brad Thompson, Sjourke Price and Darren Payne all had an influence on the game.

The hoodoo at Brindisi Street continued for Whitefriars as they lost their third game in a row to the young Tigers outfit who played with plenty of spirit. Luke Terrell a stand out again with another five goals.

Mazenod wasted their chances with the wind in the first term which greatly contributed towards their loss. Although OEG ran away with the game towards the end it was a much improved effort from the young Nodders. Jayaweera created opportunities up forward, Linden good rucking and Nick Meehan was welcomed back.

Terrific game at Malvern. It was close all day with neither side totally able to break clear. Ten minute mark of the last and the Tonnors still held sway. But then the non stop running of the DLS side took over as they kicked the next 7 to win comfortably. Damien Rayson, Mick Duggan and Benny Mannix all dangerous, with Ben Oakley good in defence. Jon Perrett was Brighton's best while Jonny Edge crumbed well.

PREVIEW

North Old Boys welcome De La Salle to Gillon Oval. On form you would expect De La to win. And spurred on by club veteran Ben Mannix's 200th Game (Well Done Benny-TB) one would totally expect this to happen. Although as has been the norm NOBS won't go down without a fight.

St Bedes Mentone Tigers versus Mazenod at Brindisi. Both are extremely young and keen and looking for another win. Confidence is a huge thing in football the Tigers have gained a bit of this lately, and along with the huge home ground advantage sees me tipping them to win.

Old Ivanhoe at Chelsworth a tough nut to crack at any time. This game could be the last roll of the dice for the Unicorns if they wish to see some final's action. So they will certainly be motivated today but the Hoers strength overall the ground should be enough to see them through.

"This game could be the last roll of the dice for the Unicorns if they wish to see some final's action."

Caulfield Grammarians host the out of form Whitefriars at Glenhuntingly Park. Steve Wright has them playing a good brand of football now, while Pat Mannix will be looking for a lift in form from a lot of his players. Gee 4 bad ones in a row would be tough to take and much as I would love to pick the Fields I just can't today.

Not too sure if Old Brighton have ever been to Essendon Grammar but we will sure find out today as the pair clash out at Bomberland. OEG'S are on a roll looking for 3 in a row and at home are a real chance, but the Tonnors did not play too badly last week, will recover today and get back on the winning list.

M I MILESTONES E S

NOB's - congratulate Luke Boyle on reaching his 250 game milestone against Caulfield Grammar. Luke joined the Club in 1990 as an 18 year old and made an immediate impression. As a forward he was considered one of A Grade's premier goalkickers, 7 times he led the Club goalkicking... an amazing feat. His loyalty & dedication to the cause has been inspirational to all at NOB'. In his latter years he as refined his game to develop as an on-baller, culminating in his winning of the Club B & F in 2004. Luke you are one of the Club's all time greats. Your commitment to the cause has been sensational and everybody at NOB's salutes you. Well done, you will look back at this milestone on years to come with immense pride. Well done Muffler, you will go down as an all time great.

De La Salle - 100 games up to De La's Rohan Walmsley. Rohan started with the Under 19's in 2000. He won the Blues Coach's award in 2001 and has been a consistently high performer mainly with the Reserves team. His overall record stands at 13 Senior (7 "A" & 6 "B"), 35 Reserves and 52 U19's. Well done Rohan and all at the club look forward to your strong performances into the future.

Mazenod - Recent 50 games, Steve Balloch, Alan Bouchereau, Ben Chamberlain, Steve Stanley, Mark Davis (Club 18). Recent 100 games Daniel Nisbet. Last week, Nathan Little played his 200 game for the club. Nathan began in the Under 19s in 1990 and has played every year since apart from one year overseas. He has been a leader in our reserves for many seasons but now is an integral part of our club 18 side. He was a key figure in the Club 18s first premiership in 2003. This week Daniel Kelly plays his 100 game whilst Senior V/C Nick Parry plays his 200 game. 'Ned' Kelly is the reigning senior B/F winner and was a member of our Senior premiership in 2000. Ned's silky skills have been a feature of his game. Nick was also a member of the 2000 senior premiership side and has constantly been a most determined trophy winner. Often a tagger, Nick's courage, commitment and ferocious attack on the ball cannot be questioned. Both players have come through our Under 19s and are now key players in our senior team as well as being involved in many off field tasks. Well Done Ned and Paz on your achievements so far.

Team Flexibility the key to the Modern Game

In today's game there is very little specificity in terms of positions, there are few players when a team runs out pre-game who you can clearly say, oh there's a fullback, wingman, rover, back pocket. Apart from ruck, but not always, every other position could be played by almost any body type, size and shape.

Players are identified for the skills they possess and the strengths they bring to the game, rather than their body type, shape or physical size.

"Players are identified for the skills they possess and the strengths they bring to the game, rather than their body type, shape or physical size."

The game is changing and so are our attitudes as coaches to who plays in what positions. No longer are the skilful nuggetty, ball terriers given the job as rovers, and those less skilful left to "stop" players as back pockets and half back flanks.

Half back flankers were the meanest, toughest most feared players in most sides in the last decade, and they, nine times out of ten, played on the airy fairy half forward who on a good day would stand on your head and boot a lazy 6, but on most occasions would struggle to get into the game or have an influence.

Nowadays half back flankers are the play makers, the guys who run the lines, create goals from the backline and are more akin to kicking goals than saving them. They can be tall, short, wide or thin, but simply they must be able to carry the ball, read the play and make the right decision. A far cry from the days of the fearsome, tenacious eat 'em alive back flanker of yesteryear.

Forwards too, now come in all shapes and sizes. Gone are the days of a required "tall" playing full forward, put simply you must be able to find space, have a good pair of hands and be able to have confidence in front of goal. Now, depending upon your team structure, players available on the day, or even your opposition you can line up with a pint sized full forward.

Today's mid-fielders will come in all shapes and sizes as well, but all will possess the ability to run hard both ways and for long and extended periods, not unlike wingmen of previous times. In fact players from half forward through the centerline to the half back line, plus the three followers is what, in today's terms, is your "mid-field". They are expected to not only set up scoring opportunities, but to score themselves, they are also required to be accountable for an opponent when the opposition gets the ball.

Let's not forget our backmen who not only must restrict the scoring opportunities of the opposition, but they now are also required to run forward to create attacking options, as well as being able to set up play from deep within their own defensive zones. They are no longer the least skilful and the most hardened, instead they are the greatest risk takers and above all else the most reliable.

While flexibility in sides 5-10 years ago was a luxury, whereby a couple of players could play forward as well as take a hand in defence, and vice versa, in today's game flexibility is paramount, the greater the amount of flexibility you have within your team, the greater number of options you have at your disposal to find a winning formula.

Afterall, winning in more positions on the field than your opposition assures you of victory, in most cases, so the greater the flexibility in your side, the greater chance you have of finding a winning formula on any given day.

The trick is having the ability to think laterally about your players and their abilities, don't pigeon-hole them, challenge not only them but yourself. Back your judgment, believe in their strengths and abilities, watch them blossom and get ready to enhance your team's flexibility and hence their opportunities for victory.

Premierships are not won in April, May or June, but failure to perform in those months can really stifle a club's tilt at September glory, so where are we now that everyone's had an opportunity to size each other up? All sides can claim missed chances, but with the exception of Banyule whose task looks too great, the rest can feature in the playoffs, although Therry desperately need a win to keep touch with the pack. Blacks and Beauy can be satisfied with their work, as can the Vultures, who won two thirds of their clashes. The Wellers and OP won more than they lost, but injuries and consistency hurt. Hampton Rovers have stalled on 16 points and need to recapture some early form. The Ashers will be hoping for a run of victories, whilst Ajax is currently riding a crest of a wave they hope will propel them into serious contention. Where will we be in nine rounds time? It's tough to see the top two being dislodged from the four, Parkdale should be there, but they can't afford a wobble and the last place will be a reward for the team who can best combine form, injury prevention and general good luck. At the moment I think it might be the Jackas, but as the cliché goes, "there is still plenty of time, for all to stake their claim, if they're good enough."

REVIEW

In an opening demolition Monash amassed a staggering 26 scoring shots to four to have their "must win" game against Therry sewn up at the major change. The hosts O'Sullivan and Adamson along with the "Pay Man" reveled in the conditions, whilst TP's Bannisters and McWhinney fought gamely for the vanquished.

OC's Loats snagged nine in another quality performance and the visitors had the initial jump on the Blacks, before the home team was able to peg them back and eventually go away in the final term. Green slotted half a dozen, Batten was solid across half back and Goonan busy in another fine team performance. Credlin and Gladman helped OC but their efforts couldn't get their team home. KAPOW! Nine goals to zip from the Jackas in a near flawless opening stanza paved their way to victory in their clash against the Vultures. Lewski continued keeping on and he was aided by Berger and Klein. Parkdale won the next two terms but the damage had been done, Rochford and the Barr's were better players. Wet and slippery conditions greeted the Sharks and the Bears and accordingly it was the sea fishes that had the better of the contest. Beauy's Martin and Catlin were prominent and Wonnacott showed impressive skill on the muddied deck. Smith, Willmore and Morgan gave it their all for the Bears and their youngsters continue to get valuable senior game experience. An OP six goal second quarter blast split the game open in their clash against the Rovers. An otherwise fairly even match, Hampton Rovers could not repair the damage and slipped a game behind their rivals. OP's Tenson, Pratt and Maher worked hard while Browne and Corcoran were the green and gold's best.

CARLTON DRAUGHT

PREVIEW

I don't think much would need to be said around Bundoora this week as OP finally get the opportunity to avenge their Round 1 debacle against the Wellers. Eight games on and both have five wins, so today's victor will be in the four and the pressure will be on the loser to try and displace them. In a massive turnaround, OP to sneak home.

Monash need to keep winning and Beauy will be in for a real fight at Shark Park but the hosts are tough to go past at home and will narrowly have the edge.

Ajax missed many opportunities to grab the points in their encounter with the Rovers and whilst the Hampton Rovers were good enough on that day, the Jackas are flying and will win. In the other games, Uni should be able to hold out a determined Therry, whilst the gritty Bears will fall against the Vultures.

M I MILESTONES E S

Banyule - congratulate Brad Willmore on reaching 200 games this weekend. Brad started with the club in 1994 and has played 199 of these games in the seniors. Brad is one of the finest players that the club has produced. He has won 3 club best and fairests, a competition best and fairest and numerous state representative games. Brad has thrilled all with his hard hitting and tough style of play, he is also well known for his refusal to handball within 50 metres of goal. All at Banyule congratulate Braddles on his 200th and we wish him many more great games with the club. Well Done Braddles!!!

Old Paradians - congratulate Phil Pratt who chalked up his 100th game against Hampton Rovers last Saturday. We look forward to many more in the emerald and purple.

Nice snippet from D4 where Richmond Central reserves kicked one goal for the game recently and the goal was attributed to the wrong player. Easy to identify if you're the only goalkicker you'd say, especially if you're from Botswana, and it's your first goal ever kicked in only three games. Three cheers for Andrew Musey, may there be many more to come.

Tugger's stamina stands him in good stead

A top effort by Umpire Peter "Tugger" Pullen who paid his own way to umpire at the Narita Cup held in Tokyo, Japan over the Queens Birthday weekend. There were 6 teams in total (5 from Japan and Box Hill North from the VAFA). Peter showed enormous stamina in the summer time 28 degree heat to umpire 7 games on Saturday and 4 on the Sunday. It was great to have a professional, independent umpire which continues to lift the status of this tournament now in its 4th year. The winners this year were the Japanese University team The Samurai by 7 points over Box Hill North.

Right back at Yah Norm

Kew historian and regular historical sparring partner of Norm Nugent, Ian Job believes the following can be added to the list of VFL/AFL captains to have played VAFA footy.

William Dick (Brighton - Carlton), Gordon Rattray (Collegians - Fitzroy), Arthur Oliver (FTSOB - Footscray), Joe Scanlon (Leopold - South Melbourne), Paddy Scanlon (Leopold - South Melbourne & Footscray), and Brian Gleeson (St. Pat's Ballarat - St. Kilda).

Ian also reckons the following ex VAFA players coached VFL clubs: Joe Kelly (Old Xaverians - South Melbourne & Footscray), Boyd Gravenall (Collegians - Essendon), Rod Ohlsen (Old Scotch - Geelong), Frank "Checker" Hughes (Beverley - Richmond & Melbourne), Roy Cazaly (Carlton District - Hawthorn & South Melbourne), Colin Kinnear UHSOB - Carlton) and Wayne Brittain (Elsternwick - Carlton).

Captains of VFL/AFL clubs who have also played VAFA football and won Brownlow Medals are Bill Morris, Ross Smith, Dr. Don Cordner, Gary Dempsey, Neil Roberts, Ivor Warne-Smith and Brian Gleeson.

Extensive lists - we await your reply Norm!

CYSTIC FIBROSIS SAY THANKS

Saturday June 11 saw the Cystic Fibrosis Bangers & Cash promotion conclude. The competition saw VAFA and SFL club compete against each other. Simply the aim was to raise as many donations as possible from BBQ's held at clubs. The following VAFA clubs are thanked and acknowledged for their support Therry Penola ($1224.30), Parkdale Vultures ($250), Beaumaris ($301), De La Salle ($200) and the VAFAUA ($400). The overall winning club was Murrumbena (SFL) who received the BBQ's Galore BBQ and the Break Free Travel package. The winning club was determined by dividing the amount of donations raised by the number of teams the clubs fields.

VAFA & SFL players in action during the CFV Cup.

Thanks to the following clubs who supported Cystic Fibrosis Victoria and Bangers & Cash in 2005.

Reds and Monds are clearly superior & have to be happy with their 8-1 front halves, while the surprise packet Cs on 7-2, is well set up for a steady back half. Prahran, the only side to stop the Reds to date, will be hard to dislodge, but the Bushrangers, Animals, and Panthers are still close enough to challenge for the 3 & 4 spots!

LAST WEEK

Glen Eira didn't have the firepower to challenge Ormond as the latter wrapped up their 1st half season looking every inch Grand Finalist material! Clements, Tsirogiannis & Pryde all battled hard against huge odds for GE! Leigh Deledio, Diggs Keheler & Liam Murphy were on fire for Monds.

"Aquinas was chewed up by the Animals; leaving the Bloods with heaps to do to in the relegation avoidance task!"

Aquinas was chewed up by the Animals; leaving the Bloods with heaps to do to in the relegation avoidance task! Fennell, Tim McCann & Anthony Ballard all starred for ESL. Harkin, Haverin & Olarenschaw worked hard for Aquinas.

Prahran had a handy margin over Old Mentonians by the Q2 close and consolidated their fourth spot with a good win. Michael Scicluna at FB starred for the Two Blues, 'Nipples' Campbell did well in defence, 'Bunny' Bunnett burnt on his W, as also 'Buckets' James at FF. For the Panthers, David Cochrane was near faultless at CHF, Justin Costello had his usual high gets quota, & Ricky Ironmonger put pressure on opponents all day.

Yarra Valley overcame Bulleentemp in a terrific match to remain adjacent to the four. Norbury had a top game in defence for the Bullants, Daskalou was busy in the middle, with Chivers and Williams effective sharp enders. Paul Valoppi, Middlin, & Fuller had great games for Yarra.

Old Carey was unable to trouble Fitzroy Reds, whose Grand Final berth seems assured. Reds was very accomplished in less than ideal conditions, as Graham Burgen's on field machinery purrs along nicely. Pace, Rawlings & Bennie stood out in a very even Reds unit. For the Cs, Tom Evans was again prominent OtB, Chris Smith was his solid self in defence, with Al McQueen-Parton making a welcome return up forward.

TODAY

Old Carey should be too good for Glen Eira and win by a few goals.

Aquinas can't rely on Ormond's 'fenceless grounds' phobia like last year; Monds are on a mission and will win by 6-7 goals.

Prahran and Emmaus St Leo's will be an interesting rematch! The Animals belted the Two Blues in R1, but things will be different today with the home side taking a 4 goal win. Yarra Valley and Old Mentonians is critical for both clubs as both have the potential to be finalists. At home the Bushrangers should win by a kick or so.

Fitzroy Reds meet Bulleen-Temp, and considering that Reds only scraped home by a point in R1, it's hard to reconcile that with the ladder differential between the two. The Reds may be pressed but will win by 5 goals. Reserves winners should be: Cs, Monds, Two Blues, Panthers, & Reds.

M I MILESTONES E S

Prahran - John Killeen, who joined Prahran in '99 from the Gippsland area, today plays his 100th game. "Killer" has been a consistent player for the Two Blues over the years and invariably features in the B&F awards. Well doe Killer from all your mates at Prahran.

Emmaus St. Leos - congratulates David Pitcher on playing 200 games in Rd9, the underage champion played 5 years in the juniors with the Animals from 1981 before a 6 year break for study and travel. Pitch returned in '92 when the Animals joined the VFA and has played in Senior flags in '92, '95 & '02 in between overseas jaunts. A tribute to his fitness, ability and direction from his father Ken, Pitch continues to play top football and his long awaited 200 games were worth the wait. Well done Pitch. Mick D'Amelio 100 games in round 10, the Italian stallion started with a premiership in the U19's in 2000 and has established himself as a key defender in the seniors based on fitness and straight ahead play. Micky is quickly becoming a cult figure in the club and after his next 100 games will have reached legend status.

D2 SECTION by Andrew Wu & Peter Williamson

The eagerly awaited clash between the unbeaten Rupertswood and Old Geelong lived up to expectations in the first half with only nine points separating the two teams at the long break. But the Ogs showed their class in the second half booting 12 goals to four to run out impressive 60-point winners. While we have just reached the half-way mark of the season, the Ogs appear to have the flag at their mercy if they can continue their dominant form.

Williamstown continued its recent good form, winning its fifth consecutive game when they ran away from Oakleigh in the final term to win by 33 points. The Krushers led by 15 points at the first change and trailed by just five at the final break, but were unable to keep up with the Seagulls in the last term.

The Peninsula juggernaut continues to roll after the Pirates crushed La Trobe by 101 points. After winning their first four matches of the season the Trobers have now lost their past five and with uni holidays now upon us, they face an uphill task to snap that streak. In contrast, the Pirates have now won their past six matches and will prove hard to beat especially at home.

Swinburne's run of outs continued at Arthur Street when Bentleigh withheld a third quarter challenge to run away in the final stanza to win by 43 points. The Razorbacks trailed by 29 points at half-time but booted six goals to two in the third, trimming the margin back to five at the final break.

Ivanhoe Assumption was unable to celebrate Peter Rawley's 300th game in style, falling to Salesian by 76 points at Ivanhoe Park. Salesian led by 32 points at quarter time and was never threatened thereafter, despite the efforts of defenders Colin Brown and Elian Healy.

PREVIEW

Bentleigh host Rupertswood at Arthur Street. Rupertswood will keen to avenge their first defeat of the season while the Demons will be pleased with their win last time out, establishing a two game break on the relegation zone. Despite these results, I think these trends will be short-lived and that normal service will resume this week. Rupo to win.

Old Geelong travel to Bryan Martyn Oval to take on an ever improving Williamstown CYMS combination. The OGs established themselves as kings of the hill with their last round victory while the CYs gatecrashed the four for the first time this season. Old Geelong for mine.

welcome Oakleigh to Harry MacDonald Oval with both teams travelling in opposite directions. Oakleigh managed to continue their premiership momentum into the early part of the season, but have not managed to sustain this in recent weeks. Conversely, the Pirates had momentum from the other way, continuing to sink initially, but have been probably as good as any other team recently. I feel that these trends will continue in their present form, and so will go for a Peninsula win today.

“Oakleigh managed to continue their premiership momentum into the early part of the season, but have not managed to sustain this in recent weeks.”

Ivanhoe Assumption and LaTrobe University square up at The Boulevard with both sides in a trough. The Trobers' bright start has dimmed over the last month and a half, while the Hoes' season has yet to take off. Both teams got thumped last week so there is not much point in examining recent form. Although the Hoes' defence of Brown and co. will battle valiantly, I'll go for LaTrobe, just.

Swinburne University entertain Salesian OC at St. James Park with the home side still seeking their first victory of 2005. The Razorbacks continue to struggle with the continued absence of several key players, while Salesian will be looking to make it two in a row and establish a further gap between themselves at the relegation zone. If the likes of Fairbairn and Bobetic continue their form from last week, I can't see why this won't happen. Salesian to take the points.

Swinburne University AFC is celebrating a decade of existence with a function at the Canterbury Masonic Hall on July 30th. Past players and special guests will be in attendance and a "10-year team" will be announced on the night in a big celebration. Details and tickets (just $10 for entry with drinks at bar prices) are available from club president Shane Lee on 0418 178 423.

M I MILESTONES E S

Swinburne Uni - Matthew Higgins played his 50th game for in Round 8. "Mary" joined the Razorbacks in 2002 and immediately had an impact across half-forward where his strong marking skills have seen him an integral part of the Swinburne forward make up. Mary averages more than 3 goals a game for the Razorbacks and has kicked a number of big bags, his best being 11. Deputy Vice-captain and a real "lad" off the field, Mary is very well respected around the Razorback camp, and all at Swinny congratulate him on this milestone and look forward to many more!

Salesian OC - congratulations to Shane Oldfield on reaching 100 Games with Salesian. Oldie is our current Captain, a Club Best & Fairest winner, and D1 Section Best & Fairest Winner in 2003. An example to his team mates, he is also the most consistent trainer on the track, missing only 2 sessions in the past 3 seasons. Well done Shane, we all look forward to the next 100 games.

Old Carey v Fitzroy Reds

... Retrospective

by Geoff Reilley

5 YEARS AGO - 2000

Dirk Kramer and Graham Thwaites were the central umpires in charge of the MHSOB and Old Trinity game in A Section. It was a danger game for OT at the tight High School ground but they held a 5 point lead at the final break and with a spot in the top four at risk. Without gun forward Stickland, Trinity held on for a very valuable 9 point win, 12.12 to 11.9. Best – Clarke, D Burrows, Jarred, and Ward (Old Trinity); Pertzel, Eabrey, Taylor and Thompson (MHSOB). For Old Scotch, Andrew Speed (100) and Stuart Gibbs (200), both sons of Old Scotch AFC Presidents, recorded milestone games.

B Section match of the round was Old Brighton hosting De La Salle, both top four teams. A very even game until half time when only 2 points separated the combatants. Old Brighton ran away with the game in the second half to record a very strong 39 point win and McLaughlan, Tymms and the exciting Jackson (4) were great performers for the Tonners. Rogers, Toohey and McKenzie were best for De La.

It was a low scoring affair in C Section at Hampton when the Rovers held off Therry Penola 6.7 to 5.4. The muddy conditions made it a real slog and those to best handle the conditions were Davey, Boyd and Flahive (2) for Hampton and Carter, Robinson and Caccamo for Therry.

In D3 Section, it was a terrific comeback by Richmond Centrals hosting Williamstown. Three goals down at the final break, the Centrals not only won the game, 15.7 to 12.13, but took Willy's second place on the ladder. Frank Macak's 6 goals (4 in the final term) were instrumental in the victory and he was joined by Baden Holmes and Glenn Porteus as Richmond's best. For Williamstown, Benny Hynes, Chris Matthews and "Spudda" Case could not be blamed for the defeat. D3 Coaches were – Gary Hickey

(Albert Park), Marty Hook (Eley Park), Leigh Murphy (Elsternwick), Peter Tyson (Hawthorn Amateurs), Jack McDonald (Monash Gryphons), Kevin Barnes (Power house), Billy Dalton (Richmond Central), Bruce Mullens (St Johns), Pat Mackey (UHSOB) and Darren Williams (Williamstown CYMS).

Big game and big changes in the D4 Section ladder following the game at Benteigh against Syndal Tally-Ho. In heavy conditions Benteigh started strongly, Syndal fought back in the second, all square at three quarter time before Syndal TH forged ahead in the last to win 10.8 to 8.12. Benteigh had slipped from top to third and Syndal TH moved into the four. Best players; Hanneman, Rutter and Brown (Syndal TH) and Seely, Gold and Craven for Benteigh.

In Junior Section 1 Old Melburnians really clouded Mazenod to improve their ladder position and percentage with a 16.15 to 6.5 victory. Best for OM's were Grundy, Bromeley, Thomas Beecher, Alder (4) and Gallagher and for Mazenod; Veal, Heltman, Collins, Maskell and Fuller.

10 YEARS AGO - 1995

Leading goal kickers in A Section were M Simpson (Old Scotch) 45, A Lennen (Uni Blues) 37, P Kenrick (Ormond) 26, Heath (Old Trinity) 22, T Jess (De La Salle) 22 and J Gollant (St Bernards) 21. Umpires in A Section were Mark Gibson, Wayne Hinton, Rob Bell, G Fallett, Richard Eastwood, Steve McCarthy, Peter Gersch, Geoff Curran, Justin Toohey and Anthony Damen.

Old Haileybury travelled to Old Mentonians ground for the first time ever, found the conditions not their liking early in the game and trailed by 2 goals at the first break. Like all good sides, OH turned it on as the game progressed and finished well ahead, 18.19 to 9.10. Best players; De Mattia, Plecher, McKenzie, Orton, Armstrong and Phillips (Old Haileybury) and Olin, Nock, Lever, Patterson, Stanforth and Leonard. Tim Chegwin celebrated his 100th game for The Bloods. Known for his tireless ruckwork, endless encouragement of his team mates and great marking, "Cheggers" enjoyed his day.

"Tim Chegwin celebrated his 100th game for The Bloods. Known for his tireless ruckwork, endless encouragement of his team mates and great marking, "Cheggers" enjoyed his day."

Monash and St Bedes met for a game critical to avoiding the relegation zone in C Section. St Bedes wasted many opportunities in the first quarter but lead by 2 goals. The Ashers came back in the second term, it was even in the third and then a great last quarter by both ended in a draw. Both teams felt they had wasted the day and would have to work hard to avoid relegation in the second half of the season. St Bedes applauded the efforts of Lannan, Giaquinta, Lalor (3), Walsh (3), Thompson and Kinsella. Monash named Hipwell, Roche (3), Caldwell, Hurley, Farrar and Smith.

20 YEARS AGO – 1985

A Section coaches were Mike Zemski (Bulleen Templestowe), Bruce Ferguson (Collegians), John Pollard (De La Salle), Alan Salter (Ivanhoe), Jim Durnan (North Old Boys), Trevor Read (Old Scotch), Jack Clarke (Old Xaverians), Mike McArthur-Allen (Ormond), Paul Daffey (St Bernards) and Robert Lamb (Uni Blues).

In B Section Old Melburnians held their second place in the top four when they defeated Uni Blacks 18.15 to 16.10. Best players; Corder, Morphet, G Pattinson, J Thompson, Dawson and Baglin (OM's) and Alexander, Vaughan, O'Halloran, Doyle (5), B Pattinson and Harty (Blacks).

In E Section Uni Reds put up a great effort given they were on the bottom of the ladder and playing top team Preston. Although the Reds trailed all day they finished only 43 points shy, 17.7 to 22.20. Preston's best were Johnstone, Haysom, Bergin, Milner, Calcutt and Thompson and Robertson kicked 7. For the Reds; McGuinness (3), Forbes, De Thomas (6), Gay, Hutchins and Koop were valiant.

30 YEARS AGO – 1975

Monash Whites (F Section) were now the only undefeated team in the competition after St Kilda CBC and De La Salle Reserves both experienced their first defeats.

40 YEARS AGO – 1965

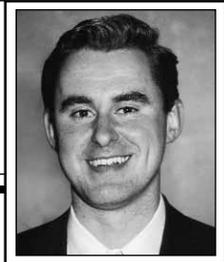

In A section Uni High School Old Boys won the battle of the "cellar dwellers" against Old Melburnians 11.5 to 7.16. Best players - Prosser, Leigh, Heaton, Keddie, G Cameron (4) and Migios (UHS) and Robertson, Dentry, Reid, Turner, Mitchell and R Knott (OM's). In B Section Footscray Tech Old Boys hosted De La Salle and won a physical encounter 11.13 to 9.12. Evenden (4), B McConnell, W Luke, K Luke, McDonald and Fletcher were best for (FTOB). Broderick, Heffernan (4), Tormey, Pearson, Eastwood and Tame worked hard for De La. Bob Sewell recorded his 150th game for Preston and had been a stalwart since the club's inception.

50 YEARS AGO - 1955

In A section the Blacks (fourth) defeated State Savings Bank (fifth). Among club reports in 'The Amateur Footballer' the Bank scribe, as was the way in those days, commented thus - 'Well chaps, the Blacks did us again and we congratulate them on their play, particularly in the last quarter. What a stumbling block their centre half back proved to be.'

Review

As was expected the Westies easily accounted for the Swans after a sluggish start. With Pietsch, Benjamin and Stinger all dominating in the second half, the Pies kept their unbeaten home record in tact with a thumping 38 point win.

The Warriors pulled off the upset of the season with a sensational 17-point victory against the previously unbeaten St. Johns. It looked as though it was business as usual for the Jocs at quarter time as they held a commanding 38 points lead. However, the Warriors piled on an amazing 36 tackles in the second quarter, which turned the game as Hodgson and Burra ran amok to keep the Warriors finals chances alive.

An amazing match between the two student teams as the Vultures played a blinding first quarter kicking nine goals to two. However, injuries took their toll, and Monash fought back to hit the front with four minutes remaining and kicking with the breeze. However, a timely goal from Tate steadied the ship as UHS held on for an eight-point win and possibly stave off the relegation demons.

Werribee all but ended the match in the first quarter to be fifty-three points up at the break against a hapless Syndal. With Palmington on fire in front of goals and Luke Carson moving the ball well, the Bees built on their percentage with a 92-point win.

Kew led at every change to comfortably defeat Power House in windy conditions. The Browns got the jump early to set up a handy 21-point lead at half time and managed to grind out a good away win. For Kew Brian Cullen did well while Benny White stood out at CHF for Powerhouse.

Preview

Power House have shown they can mix it with the best of D3, however, at times their concentration has let them down by letting teams kick a string of goals to put them out of the contest. If they can shut down the Westies run, they may be a chance today. However, I am staying well and truly on the Magpie bandwagon as their premiership odds continue to shorten with a solid 24 point win. It was hard tackling that upset St. Johns OC last weekend and no doubt coach Earl Henderson will be hoping his chargers can replicate that today. While I expect a good showing from South given the importance of the match to the club, I cannot see the flag favorites dropping two in a row as they charge home by 35 points.

The Gryphons have been thereabouts all year and took it right up to the Warriors on the last meeting, and are a 5 goal better side at home. However, this time of year often provides distractions for student teams with exams and holidays, and therefore it will be Westbourne by a whisker, say 8 points.

Syndal have taken it up to a number of sides, but like their fellow cellar dwellers UHS-VU, have not been able to put four quarters together. My prediction is that today will be the day for the Synners though, as they break the duck and re-ignite the faint hope of avoiding relegation with a heart stopping 2-point victory.

The Browns have the Warriors breathing down their neck, and a loss today could see them drop to fifth, while a loss for Werribee will leave the door open for the Westies to take second place in coming rounds. With all this pressure, it will be a tense battle and add to this the fact it is likely to be a wet track, a nail biting match is on offer. Today my prediction is for Werribee to keep their hands well and truly on that double chance with a tough 12 point win.

The Only Ball VAFA Players Fly For.

Promotions

Well done to first year boundary umpire Paul Carroll who last week ran his first A Section game at Old Haileybury, Paul looked very comfortable but after the game did his face match the same colour as his hair? Paul is another example of an ex-player turning his hand to a new career and succeeding. Paul was not only a handy player for St.Bede's Mentone Tigers but he represented the VAFA in a C/D representative team in Adelaide a few seasons ago. Also being promoted last week was last year's Best First Year Umpire Award winner Peter Angelis into his first C Section game. Hopefully Peter can follow in the footsteps of 2009 winner Peter Liddell who is now umpiring in A and B Sections. Peter A. had the good fortune of running with Jeremy Heffernan, which means that Jeremy had most of the play so that Peter could ease into the pace of the game.

10-year service and Life memberships

Don't forget that if you qualify for your 10-year service award to get your letter into the Secretary (Simon Stokes) quickly before the end of June. Also any nominations for Life membership must also be in by the end of June (an extension is likely), written nominations must have a second and must meet 2 of 3 criteria:

1. 10 years service
2. Representation on the VAFAUA executive (minimum 3 years)
3. Conspicuous service to the VAFAUA

These awards will be presented at the Annual Dinner at the Victorian Club on Monday 22nd August. Always a great night with an even greater after-party. Take note of the details provided with your last payslip in relation to attendance at this compulsory event.

Not so squeezee

How many umpires

can you fit into a change room? Last week at Old Haileybury we tried for the record, here's how it went. For the main game we have 2 field, 2 boundary and 2 goal then let's add the U/19 panel of 2 field and 2 boundary giving us a total of 10. But what the heck – let's chuck in 2 umpires observers in Shane Herbert and Brad Lowe to make it the even dozen. I suppose it would have been worse if they were all at Melbourne High. Can any one top that?

"Sitting there waiting for them was a punching bag and boxing gloves with a note attached, "A.D. you might need these for your pre-game warm-up, signed – Bubba!"

The gloves are off!!

Seems that our media-shy Past President Anthony Damen was finally a little lost for words last Saturday at Toorak Park (and no, not just because he was running with Rick Love)! As we all know, A.D. was recently in the news, so when he and Rick went into the Prahran change rooms before the game they were greeted with an interesting sight. Sitting there waiting for them was a punching bag and boxing gloves with a note attached, "A.D. you might need these for your pre-game warm-up, signed – Bubba!" Of course Bubba is the irrepressible Secretary/General Manager of Prahran AFC, Neil Wallmeyer. As a player he could always dish out a few (and not get caught), maybe he could teach A.D. a trick or two. The gesture was taken in the good humour intended. Great to see this sort of camaraderie between the clubs and the umpires in the VAFA.

D4 SECTION

The half way mark and time for the teachers report:

Elsternwick are top of the class, on their way to top spot, a double chance and likely promotion.

Bulleen and St Mary's have been great on their day but not quite able to match with the top of the class. Only a bit more consistency required.

Eltham and Hawthorn have had slow starts with a few non attendances however their second terms saw much improved results. A little more concentration might do the trick.

North Brunswick has had plenty of great results in some tough tests however their grade average might cause a few concerns down the track.

Box Hill North and Albert Park had great starts to the year but missed a few grades recently. Still plenty of opportunity to rise in the ranks.

Finally, Richmond continues to hold up the grade although improved performance from last year.

Round 9 Review

Big result was probably the Eltham big win against Box Hill North. The Turtles have gone from strength to strength in recent weeks, as predicted by many. Mann was superb up forward with 13 goals whilst Andrews dominated across half back. D Penny was again good for Box Hill.

St Mary's recorded another big win, this time at the expense of North Brunswick. Tagell was again in the goals, this time with 6. North were best served by Santacrose and Taleb.

Bulleen also staked their claim on a double chance as they comfortably accounted for Albert Park. Good news for Bulleen was the great spread of goal kickers. Albert Park battled hard with injuries causing mayhem. Sims and Borley were the best for the Falcons as they worked hard around the packs.

Finally, Hawthorn got in front of the ledger with a big win over Richmond. Lauletta and Dixon caused havoc up forward whilst L Collins was also good. Liuzzi was best for Richmond.

Preview

Who has dropped off and who is on the improve? The first two games in the second half of the season are always great guides as to who has the momentum going in the right direction!

Match of the season in the offering as St Mary's host Elsternwick. Certainly a likely prelude to final's action. The big query is how the Wicks will respond to a lengthy break? Pretty well I would expect. Wicks to make it ten on end!

"Match of the season in the offering as St Mary's host Elsternwick. Certainly a likely prelude to final's action."

Elsternwick	Pyman	-	21

Another great game as Bulleen host Hawthorn. The two sides had a great shoot out in round 1 and both enter the game with confidence high. Not much between them at all but maybe home ground advantage will get Bulleen over the line.

Backs to the wall job as Box Hill North and Albert Park clash. Whilst not terminal, a loss would place either side two games and plenty of percentage out of the finals. Really tough one to call as both sides suffer from injury problems. Albert Park for mine, but not with much certainty.

Finally, Richmond host North Brunswick. North have mixed it up with some of the best whilst thrown in a few wobblies as well. Richmond continues to battle away but hard to see them breaking through this week, North Brunswick for me.

Eltham have the week off.

U19 SECTION

by Fraser Cameron (U19 2, 3 & Blue)
& Cam Nation (U19 1 & Red)

Section One

Suburban football returned to Melbourne last weekend with the string of unpredictable results continuing to throw the Section One premiership race wide open. Once-favourites St Kevins slumped to their third defeat of the season, comprehensively outclassed at home by Collegians. Leading 6.2 to 0.1 at the first break, Collegians were simply too good for the home side, Tardiff single-handedly kicking the visitors to victory with an eight goal haul. In the round's other games, St Bernards recorded their second victory in as many weeks with a 16 point win over Old Scotch, University Blues continued their steady climb up the ladder with a 54 point win over Old Brighton, while De La cruised to a comfortable 64 point win over Old Xavs, with Rae kicking six.

At the halfway point of the home-and-away season just two wins separate first from sixth, with eight sides still in the running to secure a final's berth. After three weeks without competitive football, ladder-leaders Marcellin travel to St Bernards this weekend in a must-win game for both sides. Needing to maintain a four-point buffer at the top of the table, Marcellin will go into the game red-hot favourites, but face an inspired St Bernards side who will be determined to maintain their recent run of victories. A loss this afternoon will almost signal an end to St Bernards' finals aspirations, and although they have the capacity to stay with Marcellin until half-time, the ladder-leaders should be too strong. Marcellin by 35. In the round's other games, St Kevins to return to the winners list with a win over Old Xavs and Victoria Park, De La to be too strong at home against Uni Blues, and Old Scotch to record win number five of the season away at Old Brighton.

Section Two

Mid season Review

Tipped the card, golf clap for that...thank you kindly. Now to the Mid Season Review (finals odds in brackets).

Carey (no quote) - The OC #1 (Seth) have deserved their 9-zip record. Tiras and Laidlaw's form means book them for the second semi right now.

Camberwell (1/10) - The OC #2 (Ryan) are the main challenger, as Tolson, McGuigan and Morley are all class. Will play deep into September.

Banyule (2/5) - have too many forward options to contain, will enjoy the second half of the season.

Rupo (4/7) - Their running ball-carriers should survive the heavier conditions and secure a final's berth.

Caulfield (evens) - Deserve to be 5th, the return game against Rupo will be decisive.

Beaumaris (3/1) - a tad inconsistent and leaking heavily to the top sides.

Whitefriars (20/1) - stand-in coach produced the goals last week - will Daly survive the season??

Trinity (66/1) - improving, and may spring a couple of surprises in the heavier conditions.

Melburnians (66/1) - look good, feel good, but must put in 4 quarter performances.

Essendon (250/1) - some schoolboy influx could see them back on the park.

Tips

OC #1 by 3 goals over the Bears

OC #2 by 12 goals (from the Hillier boot!) over OMs

Friars in an upset by 22 points

Beauy by 6 goals over OTs

Rupo to have a break, or a 15 goal win.

Section Three

Review

Only Ajax's solid victory over the exam-riddled Monash prevented me from tipping the Section 3 card as well. Special mention goes to Parade who carried injured players into, and throughout the game against Blacks, but somehow produced 7 goals into the breeze in the last quarter to win by a mere 4 points over quality opposition.

Old Paradians (NQ) - Spinner's trophy cabinet has room for another one!

Uni Blacks (NQ) - clearly the major challenger, and exams last week would've made things harder against Parade. Keep safe.

Oakleigh (1/5) - just quietly going about their business, will be thereabouts.

St Bedes (1/2) - overcame an early slump, and are pretty much cemented already.

Bentleigh (10/1) - probably the only side with a chance to jump into the finals, but a long shot.

La Trobe (12/1) - expected to make more of their home-ground advantage, may have a few surprises left.

Old Ivanhoe (15/1) - disappointing, but would hope to finish better.

AJAX (25/1) - will enjoy the muddier conditions, could upset a few.

MHSOB (33/1) - harder to pick than a broken nose.

Monash (33/1) - brief flirtation with victories, but now back to plodding.

Tips

Blacks to belt La Trobe by e = mc2

Hoers to plough the Woodfull-Miller mud by 3 goals

The Raiders by a rural kilometre over Monash

Bentleigh over AJAX by 2 goals

Oakleigh to nudge out the Tigers by 10 points

Section Blue

Mazenod again impressed, but Hampton's big win over the Bloods has given them a generous buffer over the Pirates in the race for 4th spot. Salesian were happy with Jordan and Kalogiannis (welcome back!) as they negotiated a tough one.

Now to the mid-season form:

Ormond (1/4) - They have a good spread of goalkicking midfielders, and this means they're tough to keep quiet.

Salesian (1/4) - big surprise this season, have the guns up forward to make the final week.

Mazenod (1/4) - also developing great goal-kickers, especially Bogar. Methinks coach Regan has a few surprises up his sleeve.....

Hampton (1/2) - will be pleased with their progress after drifting down the divisions.

Peninsula (3/2) - Still in there punching. Don't write them off just yet.

Oakleigh Clays (10/1) - suffered a couple of heavy losses, no real consistency.

De La (2) (15/1) - would be hoping for an improved second half.

Old Haileybury (66/1) - time to unearth senior footballers and keep the school link going.

Tips

Salesian by 5 goals at The Boss

De La by 43 points at Dairy Bell

Mazenod by plenty at Oakleigh

Ormond to gun down the Pirates by 8 goals.

Section Red

Emmaus St Leos have firmed as premierships favourites after annihilating the previously-undefeated Aquinas by 103 points in their top-of-the-table clash last weekend. Billed as the match-of-the-season, Aquinas were comprehensively outclassed by Emmaus and showed few glimpses of the side that had previously notched together eight wins on the trot. With their coach away on holiday the Bloods were never in the hunt, the game over by half-time following a six-goal second term from Emmaus while kicking into a five-goal breeze. Despite a gallant effort from Aquinas in the third quarter, Emmaus turned on the party tricks in the last kicking seven goals to none and proving they'll go a long way in September. In the round's other games, Old Westbourne cruised to a comfortable 45 point win over Rupertswood, the home side recording fifteen scoring shots to one in the opening quarter, Kew notched up win number seven of the season with a 41 point victory over Old Scotch, while Fitzroy came back from a 16 point quarter-time deficit to defeat Therry by 73.

The second-half of season 2005 gets underway this weekend, as new ladder-leaders Emmaus enjoy a week off and bonus four points courtesy of the bye. Desperate to recapture their position on top of the Section One ladder, Aquinas travel to Old Westbourne in a danger game for the Bloods. Despite sitting in the bottom half of the table Old Westbourne cannot be underestimated, their first-quarter annihilation of Rupy last week testament to their ability to control a game from the opening bounce. However with their coach back home, Aquinas should be too strong, the Bloods by 7 pts. In the round's other games, Fitzroy to continue their mid-season renaissance with a win over Old Scotch, Kew to confirm their status as a top three side away at Bulleen, and Therry to run out winners at home against an undermanned Rupertswood.

CLUB XVIII SECTION

by Norm Nugent

Round 9 results , despite being fairly kind to me, have served to intensify the quest for a final four berth in each Section as the positions are now more open than for many seasons. My 86% success rate may cause me to lose pole position in the Connell Cup Competition.

Review of Round 9.

Section 1.

St Kevin's really had a day out against Mt Lilydale, who went down by one hundred and fifty seven points. "The Tyranny of Distance" is proving an almost insurmountable obstacle to Mt Lilydale in their quest for success on the field.

In a game where accurate kicking was a feature, Mazenod defeated Old Melburnians by thirty five points.

Leaders, Prahran consolidated their position when they defeated Old Scotch by thirty eight points.

Old Brighton justified my faith in their ability by defeating University Blues by thirty points.

De La Salle provided the upset of the season when they defeated a surprisingly submissive Old Xaverians by forty one points. The " Crosses" were Rudd(er) less while De La had big Shane controlling their forward line. A six goal burst in the second quarter really set up the De La Salle victory. Held goalless in the first half, the Old Xaverians really had no answer to the dominance of the resurgent Buick boys.

Section 2.

Inaccurate kicking marred the University Blacks and Old Xaverians game, which the Xaverians won by two points in the closest contest of the Round. Reports indicate the result could have gone either way in a tense finish. Best for the Blacks were; Merlo, King, Scott and Woolley. Collegians recorded a victory over Marcellin by twenty nine points.

Old Essendon Grammarians continued on their winning way through a seventy six point win over Terry Penola.

Old Trinity and Monash Blues staged an even contest, in which each side played its best football in the last quarter and where each team had dominant passages of play. Monash, who won by forty two points had good players in; Paul Coughlin, Luke Woods, Phil. Arnott and John Gaffney.

Eley Park Sharks dropped from the top four as a consequence of their twenty six point loss to a determined Fitzroy Reds on the windswept Ramsden Street Ground. The Reds defied my prediction that the Shark's pace would prevail. In reality the relentless Reds wore down the Sharks. Best for the Reds were; Eamon McCarthy, Bradley Gleeson in the ruck and my avid reader, defender, Nick Auden to whose judgement I should pay heed. For the Sharks, Sam Thomas and the consistent, Corey Cresswell were best.

Section 3.

Caulfield Grammarians took firm control of second position when they defeated Old Scotch by five points after an even contest. Caulfield set up their victory in the first quarter with four goals kicked into a strong wind. Their best included; Baxter, Minter and Nikos. For Old Scotch; Lachie Thompson, Ballan and Lacey were best.

An accurate Whitefriars maintained their unbeaten record with a nine point victory over Fitzroy Reds, who dropped to fourth as a result of their defeat. The Reds, who provided strong opposition were worn down by the persistent home side, whose two late goals sealed the result. Emmaus - St Leo's moved up to third place through their sixty point defeat of North Old Boys, who seem to have lost their way mid season.

La Trobe University won their first game when they defeated Old Carey by thirty three points. Old Geelong had the bye.

Preview of Round 10.

Section 1.

In a radical departure from my practice, I select St Kevin's to defeat Old Xaverians, whose confidence must be at an all time low following their display last week. On the other hand, St Kevin's will enter the game brimming with confidence. Matt Hall and David King will be the "Miracle Workers" if they can restore the Crocs personnel and form in a week.

I select St Kevin's to defeat Old Xaverians, whose confidence must be at an all time low following their display last week.

Mazenod should win again against the itinerant Mt Lilydale, whose form has tapered off.

Leaders, Prahran should be able to defeat Old Melburnians, who have little recent form to recommend them.

With increased confidence, Old Brighton will provide solid opposition to Old Scotch, who must win to stay in the top four. Scotch will prove too talented for Old Brighton as they did in Round 1. De La Salle were really impressive last week and the University Blues woes continue from week to week. I can only forecast more head aches for Luke Fulton today as I select De La Salle to win convincingly.

Section 2.

Fitzroy Reds are my selection to win well over Marcellin.

University Blacks should be able to defeat Collegians and thus maintain their top four status.

Old Xaverians journey to unfamiliar territory to play Therry Penola in Oak Park, where many visiting sides have been defeated over many years. However, Therry Penola, this season lacks the talent of its predecessors so I select Old Xaverians to win again.

Old Essendon Grammarians possess sufficient talent to again over come a determined Old Trinity even on the big Hudson Oval.

Eley Park Sharks should be able to defeat Monash Blues and so keep in touch with the leading sides.

Section 3.

Old Scotch, providing they keep their minds on the job, should be largely untroubled to defeat La Trobe University, even though the Old Scotch players are not used to such a big ground.

In a game, which could be a forerunner of the finals, Caulfield Grammarians journey east to Whitefriars. Home ground advantage will be marked, although inaccuracy has been a weakness of Whitefriars over many weeks. I select Whitefriars to win a close contest.

Another potential final preview will be the Emmaus St Leo's match against Fitzroy Reds at Bennettswood. The home side has proven me wrong several times as their lack of pace and numbers have prompted me to select against them only for Emmaus - St Leo's to win. Today, I select them!

Old Geelong and North Old Boys drew in Round 1. Since then North Old Boys form has fluctuated. Today they are in with a chance as Old Geelong have not played for three weeks. However as the game is at Como Park and because North Old Boys are up and down on form I select Old Geelong.

Old Carey has the bye.

Team Managers.

Farewell to a Legend.

Old Scotch stalwart, Simon Illingworth whose name and presence have been synonymous with the Old Scotch Club XVIII's over the past decade, has played his last game. Opponents, team mates and umpires all salute you Simon. We all retain memories of the big No 51 strutting around the Scotch forward line, striving and teaching. The 1995 premiership victory was a highlight in Simon's long and distinguished career. All involved in Club XVIII wish you well Simon. Ad multos annos!
