

Inside the VAFA

The Media Puzzle

A cursory glance at Paul Daffey's book "Local Rites" illustrates how amateur footy is rich with characters, stories and tribes. The chapter on Marcellin's quest to avoid relegation in 2000 is a must read for any amateur football fan, as is the reference to Mike McCarthur-Allen's rousing three quarter time address in the Preliminary Final and the profile of Old Xaverians preparing for a Grand Final. The challenge facing comps like ours is to tell these tales in a newsy way, to get our competition on the airwaves, in the sports pages and to make it interesting for those actively involved and those with only a passing interest in the VAFA.

In comparison to other local and country comps and even the VFL, the VAFA gets a reasonable coverage in the Melbourne daily newspapers, a fact not hindered by the seemingly endless array of sports journalists and editors who are in some way affiliated with amateur football.

In recent years, The Age has stepped up its coverage, particularly on a Sunday and Monday, with the odd feature thrown in (anyone with a quirky idea for a story email me!). The coverage of Anthony Carbone's 300th game by Geoff McClure is a further example of the dailies being willing to cover the local game, as long clubs are willing to be pro-active and push the point.

The Herald Sun is a slightly tougher nut to crack, though they cover an amateur match approximately once a month in their Monday sports supplement. Even Inside Football have joined the fray this year, providing tid bits and profiles in their weekly précis of the local game.

Once again, Leader newspapers are probably the best avenue for clubs in terms of garnering publicity. Generally, each paper will cover all the teams that bother to send in match reports (The Whitehouse Gazette, for example, reports on De La Salle, Old Xaverians, St Kevin's, MHSOB and Prahran Football clubs) and they are the most willing to use large colour photographs.

SEN's move to capture a South Australian audience this year has understandably reduced the radio coverage afforded to Victorian amateur football, though starting this week we will have a slot after 5.30 on a Saturday afternoon in which

Tom Brain will give a quick wrap of the day's events. Saturday's results can also be heard on ABC Radio after 6pm and likewise on.

Without question however, Inner FM are the undisputed leaders in terms of promoting the competition. Now in their eighth year of broadcast, the team from 96.5 FM comprehensively cover a game every week and allow each A Section club the chance to "Name a Game" which is invariably a boon to sponsors, supporters and players. Ken Petrucco (whose impartiality is assured unless the colours maroon, gold and light blue are involved!) provides the special comments and also hosts the morning show with Norm Nugent, in which senior coaches and other VAFA identities are interviewed.

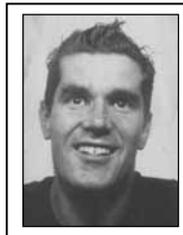

Southern FM's The VAFA Sunday Show at 9.30 am, have long been supporters of the VAFA and with Tom Brain and Steve McCarthy, they provide an insight into the Saturday results while interviewing club identities weekly.

Also in the mix is 98.9 North West FM, who provide an e x t e n s i v e coverage on Friday nights together with a wrap on Sundays. Next Sunday, kicking off at 6pm, they will conduct a media forum with participants from The Age, Inner FM and Southern FM as well as providing updates from the State Under 23 game which will be played in Perth as the show goes to air.

As Brett Connell from the VAFA says, "the quality and quantity of media coverage afforded to amateur football gets better by the year". By tuning into local radio, by delving a little deeper into the sports sections and by promoting your club and players more actively, hopefully this will continue for many years to come.

Remember when Bob Hawke tipped the upset Federal Election result in 1993 about 10 seconds into the Channel 9 telecast? Well, my form is so red hot, I'm so cock-sure and so pumped for Round 8 that I'm going to don the bathrobe, do a Hawkey, get in early and do it emphatically. Firstly let me tend to the formalities and tip St Kevin's at Righetti and OMs at the Junction. With even more confidence I give the nod to Marcellin at home over the enigmatic Cardinals and ditto the Blues, who will see off those pesky 'Pitters. Thus, I'll be 14 from 14 in recent weeks and strutting about like Maurice Greene, at which point I'll say that Xavs will get over the line against Haileybury in the match of the season to date. No doubts whatsoever?

No, it's not a reference to the message on the coffin of the recently departed Frank Gorshin (The Riddler). Rather it refers to the lingering question marks over some of the leading clubs supposedly in the final's mix.

Let's start with Marcellin, who were sitting pretty at the top of the table and were promptly spanked by a Xavs team oozing quality. Admittedly, Glenn Cox pulled out with a resurgence of his shoulder injury but the Eagles were beaten all over the ground, particularly in the third quarter. Luke Considine is a real goer and Peter Augustin did OK in his debut but they looked a long way off the pace and have a bit to prove. And though the Blues won an A Grade pennant without the services of a recognised ruckman, it remains to be seen whether Marcellin can do the same by rotating second stringers.

More question marks? How about St Bernard's, who apart from a brilliant second quarter and a stunning last four minutes, were barely sighted against St Kevin's? Yes, they showed a lot of pluck to win but they are all over the shop and need more consistency if they are to be a top four side. And like St Bernard's, Scotch are very hard to pinpoint. Superstars one minute, run of the mill the next. They have players coming in and out with injuries all over the place and seem to fluctuate wildly from quarter to quarter. Like the 'Pitters however, they are very much a wildcard capable of beating anyone on their day.

"Ruyg himself missed with a thigh injury so he'll be a handy inclusion for the Haileybury match."

Anyway, enough doom and gloom, for positives abound. Xavs' Damien Lynch is an absolute gem of a player (24 yrs old and a former runner up in the B&F at Sandringham), Ruyg's North Ballarat team-mate Tim Clarke likewise and they have class players on every line. Ruyg himself missed with a thigh injury so he'll be a handy inclusion for the Haileybury match.

Out at the 'Pit, Nick Mitchell played a cracking game (until injured halfway through the third), Callan Potter proved that he is just the man you'd want kicking for your life in a clinch and Tait Wilkinson did a stellar job on Steve McKee.

CARLTON  DRAUGHT

SKOBS did themselves proud with James Marchesani (not the quickest bloke but very shrewd and industrious in the middle) Ryan Chard at CHF and 150 gamer Robin Bowles among the better players on the ground. Sometimes footy's just a cruel game and they deserve a change of luck heading into their B Grade GF replay today.

Around the traps, Brock Mooney did a good job on James Gerstman but the inclusion of Andrew Crow for Scotch proved telling. They're certainly no Muppets those Lions, with Ben Couch on a wing and Jon Dixon up forward both doing well, but they just need a few more wins on the board. To top things off, Haileybury held off a plucky OMs while Uni disposed of Trinity with a minimum of fuss.

M I MILESTONES E S

St Bernard's - congratulate one of this year's vice captains, Chris Mitchell, on his 100th game last week against St Kevin's. Chris has been an integral part of the 1st XVIII since his first game as a schoolboy in 1999. He won the most determined award in 2000 and has played in four A grade Grand Finals, including the premiership of 2002. "Clang" is having a great 2005 and again he was among our best players in last week's thrilling win. Best of luck for the next 100 Chris.

Old Haileybury - congratulate David Mason on playing his 150th game against Old Melburnians last week. David first played U/19s in 1996, has played mostly as a key forward (190 career goals) and picked up a reserves premiership medallion in 2002.

This milestone has set a record that may never be achieved again at the Bloods, father (Peter 1968-85 - 164 games) & son to both play 150 games for the club.

Well done 'Mase' from all at the Bloods

REVIEW

MHSOB improved their status with a convincing win against OEG out at Essendon. Amazingly after an 8 goal second quarter the High only had 1 more scoring shot for the game but still good enough to greet the judge. Ash Hogan is in stellar form at the moment as are Jaydn Pertzelt and Anthony Cassell. Just goes to show how a good start can set up a victory. 5 goals into the breeze had Caulfield set up at the first break. From then on despite Minton-Connell's best efforts the Fields held sway to record a welcome 32 point win. Ash Bruhn, Gav Winter and Andy Lawson all good for the fields.

As predicted by this scribe Mazenod took the game right up to Old Brighton down at South Road. It was only a 7 goal third term that allowed the Tonners to shake off the persistent Nodders. Andrew Macgillivray, Robert Kent and Leigh Hendra excelled for the victors with Scott Veltman, Dave Chamberlain and Dan Kelly good for the visitors.

A pretty scrappy game at the tight confines of Brindisi Street saw Old Ivanhoe take the points against the Tigers who none the less were competitive and made the visitors fight for every goal. Luke Lochran made a stunning return from injury, James Hope excelled in the air and Brad Thompson up back repelled many attacks.

The second term told the tale of this game where DLS with a 6 goal burst appeared to have the game sewn up at the half. Attack and intensity at the ball a big difference in the sides. Ben Mannix played a great 150th. Damien Rayson unstoppable and Michael Brown a revelation as a crumbing forward.

PREVIEW

Traditional rivals Mazenod and De La clash out at Central Reserve. The Nodders will take the game right up to their more fancied rivals so a fine spectacle ensures. But you just can't go past DLS at the moment as their form is excellent.

Old Brighton welcomes NOBS down South. Consider this to be a bit of a danger game for the Tonners and they would not want to take their visitors with the best forward in the comp lightly. But home ground advantage a huge plus here to get OB over the line.

Old Essendon fast becoming the enigma of the Section travel across town to tackle Whitefriars at Donvale. The Friars rarely lose two in a row and are extremely hard to beat at home. OEG need to find some consistency in their game to progress up the ladder, but will perhaps have to wait until after the break as Friars at home for me.

MHSOB in good touch and with a few returning from injury start the game nominal favourite. But the young Tigers are still full of spirit and are quite capable of taking the game right up to the High. Tough won to pick but MHSOB found a bit last week and this momentum gets them the nod just.

Caulfield Grammar improving each week after a slow start goes across the city to greet Old Ivanhoe at Chelsworth Park. Always a tough nut to crack out there although 2 losses at home this year do dispel this theory. The Fields are certainly not without a chance but the Hoers have too much talent all over the field to let another slip at home this season.

Here is a summary of an interview by Geoff Reilley with Russell Barnes, senior coach at St Bedes Mentone Tigers.

GR - Russell, can you give me details of your coaching background and achievements?

RB - I am in my ninth season as a senior coach with this being my 5th season with St Bedes Mentone Tigers and during that time we have been promoted from C to B Section. I was previously with Hampton Rovers for three seasons during which we won the 1998 C Section premiership and elevation to B Section. I also coached Old Brighton in B Section in 1994.

GR - What is your playing background?

RB - I played mainly at Ormond for 12 U19 games and 255 senior games.

GR - Russell, I know you enjoyed a lot of success as a player, can you give me some details?

RB - I was captain of the 1985, 87 and 88 Ormond premierships in A Section and played in the 1990 A Section premiership. I also played 11 State games.

GR - I am aware that you were very seriously injured in 1989. Did that have any effect on your football future?

RB - Actually it had a profound effect and played a considerable part in my football development. Firstly it meant that I missed playing in the 1989 premiership but it also cost me the captaincy in 1990, no doubt because it was thought I may not be up to it as a player anymore. As it turned out I probably played at my best in 1990 and learnt to deal with the loss of the captaincy, but, I never lost my focus to be part of a successful team. From that experience I also subsequently learnt to deal with being replaced as a coach before becoming a premiership coach at another club. I believe these experiences have enabled me to have a better empathy with players who receive their share of disappointment, even for minor disappointments such as spending time on the bench.

GR - So what is your basic coaching philosophy?

RB - To develop senior players to play a successful brand of football at amateur level. I have a game plan based on determined and disciplined play from defence culminating in the quick movement and using the ball to the best advantage. I also have an undeniable belief in the players at my disposal.

GR - Can you tell me about other coaches you admire and why?

RB - I was with Mike McArthur-Allen at Ormond throughout his journey which had a challenging start to say the least. He taught me and others the value of persistence, discipline and attention to detail and has remained a mentor to me. I admire former Beaumaris coach, Brett Marchant, a fierce rival, for his courage and demeanor as a leader.

"I don't really use particular players as role models, rather, I ask all players to be able to look back on their career knowing that they got the most out of their ability."

GR - Which AFL players do you use as role models for your players?

RB - I don't really use particular players as role models, rather, I ask all players to be able to look back on their career knowing that they got the most out of their ability.

GR - Any particular comments about coaching in the VFA or about the VFA in general?

RB - I am a product of amateur football and I have an enormous respect for most that administer, play and coach in it. I have loved my involvement as a player and have valued my opportunities as a coach. After losing the coaching role at Old Brighton, I returned to Ormond as Assistant Coach, resumed playing in the reserves and I developed further from guiding younger players at that time before subsequently returning to senior coaching and enjoying success.

GR - Russell, thank you for your time and best wishes for the remainder of the season and beyond.

by Glen Harrison

It took seven rounds, but finally the sun made way for frigid wintry and blustery conditions. The winning teams all either kicked with the wind in the final term or outran their tiring opponents (maybe a little of both) as collectively the winners in the last quarter outscored the losers 32 goals to 9.

REVIEW

The Jackas are back in business! Winless after round 5 they now sit two games from a place in the top four after upsetting the Sharks. A very even contest before Ajax ran over the top in the final stanza. Lewski continued to impress with supporting performances from Sutton and Klein. Beauy led by 29 midway through the third, but could not deny the Jackas, although Martin and Ensor tried.

The Wellers miserable May looked set to continue as Therry set up a 27 point final change advantage only to be overhauled, as OC found the form that has eluded them for many weeks. Batzloff and Cheffers were great for the winners, whilst that man Edwards did it again booting nine for Therry, well supported by Forster Knight.

After a slow start Blacks moved into overdrive leaving the Vultures in their wake kicking 16 goals to five after quarter time. Another even Blacks team performance with Evans and Geister impressive and Bevacqua and Barlow continuing their good form. Macgeorge picked up plenty of the footy for Parkdale when moved into the middle, but the visitors had few winners in a disappointing day.

Banyule entered the game with a new coach and there was some encouraging signs but OP always seemed to have the edge and an eight goal final quarter blitz settled the match. Boundy found plenty of the pill and Harford and Curran worked hard at the clearances. Smith, Davies and Gayfer amongst the Bears best.

The Ashers upset the Rovers and managed to keep touch with the top four. An always tight encounter, 200 gamer Paul Farrar was the hero sealing the game with a goal late on. Ashers Renton and Buckets Blackley were superb. Hampton Rover's Anderson and Zampaglione battled hard in the wet and slippery conditions.

PREVIEW

Uni Blacks fresh from their powerhouse performance last weekend and now the ladder leaders square up against a Hampton Rovers side attempting to arrest their two game streak. So far in '05 the green and golds have won their opening two, lost the next couple, rebounded with back to back wins and lost in Round 7, if you follow the omens and I will today it will be successive losses for the Rovers.

The Wellers look to consolidate the winning feeling when they welcome Monash who also returned to the winner's list. This game shapes up as a must win for both sides as they pursue finals football. With the woes of May behind them, I think OC will commence June in the best possible manner.

Paradians trek to Parkdale and the hosts will be keen to maintain their unbeaten home record. OP's form has been very difficult to track all season and they remain the only team to have topped the Blacks, so they are certainly capable enough but on their home patch, I will stick with the Vultures.

Beauy make the trip to Therry and the home side will be looking for some retribution against the Sharks, as their loss to the Jackas, thrust Therry into one of the unwanted relegation slots. The visitors will need to be mindful of the supply to the home teams key forwards, but they should have enough midfield strength and goalkicking prowess to prevail.

The new glamour team of the competition, Ajax, has the opportunity for three in a row when they confront the Bears. Banyule have had a change at the helm and the Bears will look to continue last week's encouraging progress, but the Jackas are on the prowl.

Beaumaris - congratulations to Tim Collins on his 100th game and Adam Catlin on his 150th. Both played junior football with the Club and graduated up through 19s to be regular seniors players. Both are solid Clubmen who are fine example to the younger players coming up through the ranks.

U19 Rep football returns

On Saturday June 11 at Sportscover Arena VAFA U19 representative football will return to the field when a combined Northern region team takes on a team from the Southern region for the inaugural VAFA U19 North v South Shield.

The match will be played as a curtain-raiser to the VAFA Cystic Fibrosis Community Cup match played between the VAFA and the SFL at Sportscover Arena, and will take place at 10.30am.

The (46) U19 teams have been divided loosely upon geographical location and the following squads will train over the next (2) Wednesday evenings (June 1 & 8) and Old Carey Sports complex (North - 32 C10) and Waverly Oval (De La Salle OC home ground) (South - 69 A2).

The North team will be coached by former Old Essendon and Therry Penola Senior Coach Chris Bye with Harry Harisiou (Bulleen Templestowe), Phiv Demetriou (Banyule Viewbank), Mark Spinoso (Old Paradians) and Tim Bell (Fitzroy Reds) assistant coach/selectors.

The VAFA would like to acknowledge the wonderful support of all of the U19 coaches who have nominated players for the initial training squads and look forward to a great exhibition of VAFA U19 football on June 11.

Jordan Goalkickers

In Round 6 Anthony Jordan, eldest of the 3 Jordan boys, Ben and Dan formerly of St. Bernards kicked 10 goals for Rupertswood Reserves in D2 against Salesian OC. Father John Jordan bagged 11 goals for Old Paradians '76 and 12 goals for North Old Boys in '82 in A Grade in senior games – John is a co-founder of Rupertswood FC and currently a Football Victoria Director. Dan booted double figures on several occasions in A grade and now older brother Anthony slotted 10 to join the family. Midfielder Ben's best bag for St. Bernards was 5, but then again he never went to full forward! Has there ever been 3 members of one family kick 10 goals or better in VAFA games?

Way off line

In Round 6 Whitefriars in Club XVIII (3) booted 32 behinds against Old Carey, does this rank with the most inaccurate score ever? In VFL/AFL there have been only 3 scores of more than 32 behinds Hawthorn '77 (41), Geelong '81 (35) and Melbourne '40 (34). In '81 both St. Kilda and Fitzroy each kicked 32 behinds. One Whitefriars player kicked 0.5 in the first quarter, another booted 2.7 on the day. Coach Norman Elliott could not criticise as his tally was 4.5! In retrospective recently Geoff Reilley referred to Bullleen Templestowe's 56.52.388 to Old Paradians 1.3.9 in '85. It was a long afternoon so Norm Nugent tells us, he was the goal umpire, but adds it too was a small ground too, much like Victoria Rd where the Friars lost their bearings!

All rep squad players are requesting no more photos in the Amateur Footballer after Liam Holloway (Monash Blues) and James Beaumont (Old Melburnians) photos appeared they withdrew shortly after – the squads will be poorer after recent top line performances from each, however where one door closes another one opens.

In a post R6 chat with YVOB's coach Tim Killworth, Prahran featured as a side to watch if summer ever finished. In the past three weeks the Two Blues have lost to the Cs by only 4 points, beaten YV by 37, and now, by 11, knocked off the mighty Reds!

LAST WEEK

GE made OMs earn the points in the season's first wintry weekend. The conditions closed the game up but with Michael Basile celebrating his birthday with 9 goals & Costello & Mitvalsky firing, OMs always looked the goods. GE had fine efforts from Sheehy, Lyons & Massis.

Monds was too strong for the Animals at the Buxton, but wasn't able to break clear until Q3! Simon Keheler (45 possessions!) in defence, plus Michael Miller & Matt Jones Otb, shared the Monds' honours. Anthony Ballard, Ryan McCann & Tim Tribe couldn't be faulted for the Animals.

Bloods was competitive for 3 Qtrs but the Bullants raced away in Q4 for a convincing win. For the Bullants, Mark Pietryk was solid in defence, while Waxy Williams & Lea Thomson presented up forward. Craig Glennie starred on his W for the Bloods, Sullivan did well at HF, as did Chris Wooden up forward.

Prahran and Fitzroy Reds did play a ripper! Prahran bolted away in Q3 and held off Reds comeback with the wind in Q4. Michael Radywonik continued his outstanding form in the ruck for Two Blues, well supported by Craig Hall in defence, and Gerard Beven in the pivot. Mitchell, Rawlins & Zano got mentions from Reds. The Cs & YVOB was close throughout, with the Cs opening up a break in Q3 and surviving Yarra's spirited challenge in Q4! Tom Evans continued his amazing form OTB, Eamon Halliday was strong in defence and Travis Bull dominated wherever. For YV Dave Stevenson was strong across HB, Mike Rockicki at HF, and Phil Valoppi on his flank.

TODAY

Emmaus St Leo's should account for Glen Eira by 5-6 goals.

The Ormond & Old Carey match could be a classic if the weather is kind. The Cs have been many players short of their best side since R3, still, Steve Maus's youngsters continued winning & will push Monds to the limit, but, on the Buxton, Monds should win a thriller by a few points.

"...on the Buxton, Monds should win a thriller by a few points"

Old Mentonians are too strong round the ground for Aquinas just now & will win by 5-6 goals.

Bulleen-Temp v Prahran will be an interesting tussle as both sides are the big improvers over the past two Rnds. After last week though, I have to go for the Two Blues by a kick.

Fitzroy Reds & Yarra Valley will be another great contest. Graham Burgen will have Reds fired up after the R7 loss and they'll win by 4 goals.

Reserves winners should be: Animals, Monds, OMs, Two Blues, & Reds.

Correspondents contacts: 9889 1979, & bhi98371@bigpond.net.au (New) or bhickey6@bigpond.com (This address being retired after Rnd 9)

M I MILESTONES E S

Bulleen-Templestowe - congratulates and wishes all the best to the following players.

Luke Norbury played his 50th game in Rnd 3. Luke started in the Reserves in 2002 and was 4th in the B&F. In his 1st year of Senior footy he was instrumental in the 2004 Flag win! Jimmy Frangos played his 50th in Rnd 7. He started in the 2002 reserves and has been a consistent member of the team since. Lea Thomson played his 100th game in Rnd 7. He started in the Seniors in 1998, where he has since played 79 matches. In 2004 he was 3rd in the B&F, Vice-Captain, and had a key role in the Senior Premiership win. Greg Chivers played his 200th game in Rnd 7. Greg started in '95 winning the U19 B&F, and has now played 122 Senior games. In 2003 & 4 he was the Senior B&F. 2004 was a great year for Greg; Captaining the Premiership side, winning the Anthony Fellowes Medal (GF BOG) and making the VAFA Rep. Team. A great character round the Club, especially at story time, and renowned for his strong marking and incredible enthusiasm on the field. Stewart Smith played his 250th in Rnd 7. Stewart began in the U19 in 1989, finishing 2nd in the B&F. A member of the 1990 Reserves Flag side, he made his Senior debut in '93 and has played 189 Senior matches since. A valuable defender over the years and a Senior Premiership player in 2004, Stewart is very consistent and gives his all each week! (And a reliable Amateur Footballer match reporter to boot!!). Dean Tulloch played his 300th Club game in Rnd 5. Dean came through the Juniors and played U19 in '90 & '91. His Senior debut was in '92 when he was 4th in the B&F, and he has now played a total of 203 Senior games making him only the 3rd player in Bullants history to do so. Dean won the Senior B&F in '93 & '98, and was runner up in 2000 & 2002. A great person to have around the Club with his positive attitude and still shows his great skills on the park each week, at which all at the Club still marvel!

Yarra Valley OB - congratulates Bart Drew & Leigh Morris on playing their 100th games today. Bart has played all his games with the Reserves & U19 and was a member of the 2002 Reserves Premiership team. He was appointed Reserves Vice Captain in 2005 in recognition of his on going improvement & leadership. Leigh started with the U19 in 1996 and only injuries have prevented him from playing many more games. He is a fearless competitor with great skills and strength for his size, and constantly presents as a target.

Rupertswood and Old Geelong remain unbeaten after Round 7 with important victories over fellow premiership contenders La Trobe and Oakleigh.

The Woods controlled the game during the first half but the Trobers hit back in the second, overcoming a 34-point half-time deficit to hit the lead midway through the final term, before the Woods booted the two final goals of the game to get home. The Woods were well served by Brennan, who booted six goals, while for La Trobe Brooks was good all day and Adamthwaits' blistering final term almost got them over the line.

In an ominous warning to the rest of the competition, the OGs thumped the Krushers by 84 points, kicking 25 goals despite champion spearhead Mark Vickers-Willis only contributing one.

Ivanhoe Assumption, a finalist last season, remains winless after a 27-point loss to Bentleigh. The Hoes flew out of the blocks for a 25-point lead at the first change, with Keiren O'Dwyer booting four of this team's seven goals, but the loss of the dynamic Johnny Isefo unsettled the Hoes, with the Demons rattling six goals to one for an 11-point lead at the long break. But despite the efforts of Ben Frew, Paul Harris and David Neilson in the middle, the Hoes were unable to finish the game off.

Swinburne is also winless despite the return of superbout Jason Murchie and the form of Moorison, Piotrowski and Fidler. The Razorbacks' shocking run with injury continued against Peninsula, reduced to 17 men in the final quarter when the Pirates did as they pleased.

In other results, a best-on-ground performance by Williamstown superstar Dave Lee got the Seagulls over the line against Salesian.

PREVIEW

Oakleigh host Rupertswood at

Scammell Reserve in a rematch between 2004's D3 Grand Finalists. This promises to be a fantastic game with some class players on both teams (Bromley, Briggs and Rutter versus Brennan, West and Flinn, anyone?). Like a broken nose, this is hard to pick, but despite the long haul from Sunbury, I think the spread of talent in the Rupo unit should be enough to see them over the line.

I think the spread of talent in the Rupo unit should be enough to see them over the line.*

The juggernaut that is Old Geelong take on Bentleigh at Como Park in a match that would appear to be a mere formality for the home side, especially after comfortably dealing with the Krushers last week. Bentleigh's Paul cannot do it himself up forward and would love a second forward who can make healthy contributions to the scoreboard, like the upper echelon teams. At the end of the day, all signs point to Old Geelong, so the OGs for mine.

Williamstown CYMS make the trek to Bundoora for their clash against LaTrobe University. Both teams are pretty sound defensively, also LaTrobe arguably packs more in attack. With this in mind, and with the home ground advantage, I'm going to plump for the Trobers to reverse their recent losing streak and take the points (but I am looking for Sean "Lewfatt" McGuinness to have an impact).

Salesian OC welcome Peninsula OB to Bosco Street in a contest between last year's D1 relegates (if that's a real word). On current form, it's hard to go past Peninsula, so Peninsula it is (especially if they kick straight!).

Finally, in what some may argue is the match of the round, albeit for perverse reasons, is the battle of the cellar dwellers between Swinburne University and Ivanhoe Assumption at St. James Park. Despite their respective standings, this could actually be a decent game to watch if both sides can get the majority of their key players on the park. Toss of the coin stuff here, so Swinny.

C SECTION ACTION

Monash Blues v Hampton Rovers

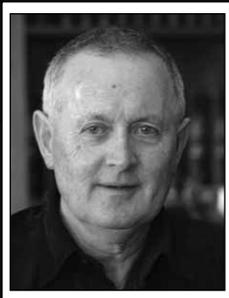

Round 7

... Retrospective

by Geoff Reilley

5 YEARS AGO - 2000

CEO Phil Stevens used his editorial to remind all amateur people of the "World No Tobacco Day" during the next week. The VAFA's SmokeFree incentive competitions were directed at a 95% club SmokeFree rate and the current rate of 85% was a source of pride for the VAFA. Phil declared the aim was for the VAFA clubs to be 100% SmokeFree by the end of the 2001 season!

One of the more extraordinary A grade results for some time occurred at St Bernard's home ground (the Snake Pit) when ladder leaders, Old Scotch, were completely demolished by the home side 30.16 to 5.6. It was an embarrassing result for the Scotchies and a revelation for St Bernards' partisan members. Their best were many but in the main - Merrington, Jordan, McKeon (5), Taylor, Joe Mount and McLaughlin (5). Scotch managed to find six best players in Hume, Blenheim, Angus, Lillingston, Parthenidis and Wigney. St Bernards were now clear on top, Scotch had dropped to third and their percentage "copped a belting".

Closest game in B Section was the 10 point win to Mazenod at Central Reserve over De La Salle, 7.11 to 6.7. De La had been travelling comfortably in the second term before 5 unanswered goals to Mazenod turned the game around and they fully deserved the win. In C Section Hampton Rovers trailed for the greater part of the game against bottom of the ladder Bulleen Templestowe. BT's Matthews, Tulloch, Bare and Schneider were leading the way but the Andersons, Stephen and Drew and Adam Power lifted their fellow players and 7 goals to nil in the final term got the Rovers over the line, easily in the end, 13.6 to 8.7. The win meant the Rovers took over Therry's third spot.

Caulfield Grammarians did not have it all their own way in D1 Section out at Carey's Bulleen Campus. Shutie, Vasilopoulos and Bull were strong for the home side but the greater consistency of Vella, Amiet (5) and Pearce (3) gave the Caulfield lads a comfortable victory, 12.12 to 9.10, despite a goalless final term. Carey were starting to lose touch with the top four while Caulfield were now only out on percentage.

"Coaches' Clipboard" declared the U19 Coach of the Month award to Ormond stalwart, Tim Hille. Tim was coaching Ormond's U19 team in the Section 2 (Blue) group and his team had now fought their way into the top four. Tim had already achieved premiership honours (4 flags) with his club as a senior player (1987-90) following his playing career in the VFA. He had accepted the new challenge of the U19 job after coaching the Ormond reserves to the 1998 premiership. Tim's coaching ambition was to produce as many senior players as possible for the 'Monds.

10 YEARS AGO - 1995

In A Section Old Trinity were away to Old Scotch and needed to prove that they were capable of getting clear of the relegation zone. Trinity were strong in the first half although down by just over a goal at half time before Scotch unleashed a run of 8 unanswered goals to gain the ascendancy at the final break. The final score saw Scotch comfortable winners 23.11 to 14.9. Best players: Stokes, Steele, Laird, Nettleton, Millar (7) and Price (Scotch) and Norman, Sueling, Harris, Hodder, Oldfield and Dalrymple (Trinity).

Match of the day in B Section was at Beach Oval where Therry travelled to meet fellow top four team Old Brighton with top spot up for grabs. It was described as a "great advertisement for amateur footy” and it was close from the opening bounce until the final siren when Therry emerged winners by the barest of margins, 16.15 to 16.14. Best players were Crotty, Tadinac, Wrigglesworth (6), Ramsay, Brundell and Reddick for Therry and O'Connor, Mercer, Pryor, Talbot, Skelton and Atkin for Brighton.

In D Section second placed Southbank CBA hosted third placed Hampton Rovers with plenty at stake. The Rovers, after an even start, gained a 3 goal lead at half time and then really accelerated to run out very easy winners, 21.16 to Southbank's disappointing 8.14. Wright, McKellar, the Andersons D & S, McDonald and Melnjak were Hampton's best and Panagiotidis bagged 7. Southbank named Beare, Elkington, Van Loon, Treyvaud, Melican and Stephen as their better players.

20 YEARS AGO – 1985

In A Section it was an important game for both Bulleen Temp and North Old Boys with a place in the top four a possibility for the victors. Bulleen Templestowe were coming off two successive defeats but put the pressure on NOBS from the start. NOBS refused to give in and were only 7 points down at half time. BT got a couple more ahead at three quarter time and then kicked 9 in the last to easily account for NOBS in the finish, 20.16 to 11.13. Other results meant that there were now 5 teams equal on top in points; Collegians, Scotch, Ivanhoe, Ormond and Bulleen Templestowe.

In B Section Caulfield Grammarians travelled to Old Parade and after the first quarter, held sway for the rest of the game with a final score of 17.12 to 10.18. Neither side named goal kickers or best players but it was worth noting some milestones for the Grammarians. George Voyage began with Caulfield Grammarians as an under nineteen player in 1970 and reached his 200th game as the most experienced current player for Caulfield. Known mainly as a rover and goal sneak, with over 600 career goals. Never one to handball close to goal, George was nevertheless a team player and already a club legend. Mike Sisson played his 150th for Caulfield and had been a permanent member of the senior team since winning an under 19 best & fairest in 1976. Mike earned great respect from fellow players and club supporters alike for both his skill and “courage under fire”.

30 YEARS AGO – 1975

In B Section University Blues (top) were at home to the hapless and winless Old Haileybury and looked forward to the opportunity for a percentage boost. The Bloods had other ideas and led at every change before the Blues lifted their work rate in the last term, peppered the goals and got over the line by 17 points. Nicolas, Shauble, Standish, Lyle, Church and Rabone were best for the University. Schapter, Langford, Paul, Lingard, Galt and Langford-Jones gave Haileybury every chance but it would be a long haul to avoid relegation.

Marcellin's coach, Ray Walsh, was a profiled identity in the footy record where it reminded all that Ray has enjoyed a remarkable run of success. In his 5 years with the club to date he had his team in 5 grand finals for 2 premierships.

“Well known St Bernards identity Mick Perrett became the first St Bernard's player to play 50 consecutive games.”

40 YEARS AGO – 1965

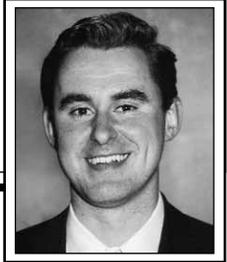

In A Section Commonwealth Bank upset Uni Blues and after leading at each change held off a challenge from the Blues to finish six points up at the final bell. Tony Borrack had been brilliant for Bank and was supported by R Thompson, Comben, Jenkins, Edwards and Soraghan (3). Best for Uni were Wilcox, Clark, Major, Hooper (4), Wettenhall and Crisp. The Bank were not so fortunate in the Junior Section when Caulfield Grammarians ran out easy winners 18.12 to 8.9. Caulfield's best were Capuano, Coffey, Herington (6), I Mathieson, McGowan and Rayson. O'Shea, Stevens, Athans, Dodd, Marsh and Milo tried their best for the junior bankers.

Well known St Bernards identity Mick Perrett became the first St Bernard's player to play 50 consecutive games.

Just when you think you have it all worked out, football has a habit of throwing it all back in your face. D3 is no exception with a few upsets last week keeping it interesting.

Review

The Westies, lead by “Stunning” Steve Smythe, had a comfortable win at the “House of Pain”.

The students, lead by Rose, Gorringe and Hall got the jump on the Maggies, but after half time it was a different story as WB kicked 11 goals to two to cement themselves in third spot.

The Warriors went down to South Melbourne having snatched the lead early in the final quarter in a seesawing match. With newcomer Damien Trauslove playing a blinder for Westbourne, it appeared the match would go to script, however, the Swans came from behind to win and keep their finals hopes well and truly alive.

In the match of the day, the Jocs blew the game apart with an awesome third quarter as Phaedonos and Diaz went to town. While the undermanned Werribee gallantly fought out the final quarter, keeping St. Johns goalless, it was not to be as the Jocs went clear on top with a 21 point win.

The Browns recorded a convincing away win against the Gryphons sealing the match in the first half. Cullen on the half back flank was clearly BOG and even chimed in with 2 goals himself to bring Kew within striking distance of the top four.

Power House recorded a much-needed win against the winless Synners. With Patrick Haseler and Brad Phillips starring, PH got the jump in the first half, and it was catch up from then on. “Super-Pres” Ian McKenzie inspired his team to come back, and they got close, but fell 13 points short.

Preview

It is crunch time for the Warriors as they host the rampant Magpies at Artic Park. The Warriors are yet to beat a team outside the bottom four and their credentials have been put into question with their recent loss to the Swans, while West Brunswick are travelling along nicely at the minute and a win today will see them well placed going into the half way point. Picking a winner is tough, but I think today the Pies will have too much experience for the young Warrior side as they run out comfortable 22-point winners.

“South was great last week and showed that they are still well in the hunt for a top four finish.”

The Swans are “back in town” and today host a Power House unit keen put some space between them and the bottom two. South was great last week and showed that they are still well in the hunt for a top four finish. As such I cannot see them dropping this match, especially at home, as they keep in touch with a 28-point win.

Things have not gone well this season for the students, and it is going to get a lot worse today as they host the unbeaten St. Johns. The Saints have taken all in their stride so far this season, and will undoubtedly widen the gap today at the top of the ladder. For UHS-VU, it is imperative they do not cop a thrashing today, as percentage will play a vital part in who gets relegated. My pick, Jocs by 65 points.

The Gryphons continue to show promise, but are still struggling to deliver on the scoreboard and are unfortunate today to meet a Tiger side on the rebound. At home in front of the infamous "Truckersaurus" Monash will not know what hit them as Keogh, Addamo and Spry run amok and see the Bees home by 45 points.

Kew has been one of the surprise packets of D3 and will again show us today they are made of final's material. It is a danger game for the Browns as the Synners have shown they are close to their first win with Robinson and Tua giving heaps. However, with Gridley and Mainsbridge providing plenty of run and delivering countless opportunities to McDermott it will be the Browns by 38 points.

St. Johns - Adrian Hall plays his 100th game this week. 'Hally' has been with the club since 2000 and is a reserves premiership player. A solid on baller and with his newly discovered ability to handball we can expect even more from him in the future.

The Only Ball VAFA Players Fly For.

Thanks Marcellin!!

Vin Vescovi and Peter Teasdale wish to thank the Marcellin Football Club for their hospitality as they both celebrated big milestones at Bulleen last Saturday. Always a favourite venue for umpires over the years and a popular choice for big occasions. Thanks for the way they were looked after at half-time and especially for the presentation after the game. Who was that headline-grabbing umpire who bobbed up as a guest at their pre-match lunch.

Promotion

Into the senior squad for his first B grade game in the field last week was Brent Woodhead. "Little Woody" (son of former umpire adviser Brian Woodhead) has improved rapidly and has moved up the ranks to be umpiring in a higher grade than his father at the moment. What is also sad is that umpiring with Brent on a Saturday and knowing that over twelve years ago you might have played kick to kick with him as a toddler. Must be getting old. Anyone else returning to B grade last week? Hello Jason. Mac's back!!

A look into the retrospectoscope.

One of our members recently dug into his archives and came up with some copies of Umpires Corner in the '90s. (Macca - what's with that mo?) In 1992, Macca was writing the column with legendary goal umpire Mike Murray and they announced the 1993 VAFAUA office-bearers.

Where are they now? President - Mike Murray, Vice-President - Peter Keogh, Secretary - Andrew Kilner, Assistant Secretary - Peter Harris, Treasurer - Steve Hopper, Assistant Treasurer - John Kelly, Social Secretary - Richard Simon, VAFA Delegate - Kevin Segota, Executive Members - Justin Toohey and Wayne Henry. We're sure some of these heads will pop up at the PUMPS function next weekend.

And in a column from 1995 (when Macca's co-columnist was Anthony Damen) they congratulated field umpire Vinny Vescovi (mentioned above) on his promotion to the D Section panel. Don't times change?

Radio star

Great to hear Mark Gibson on the airwaves of Southern FM last Sunday morning. Plenty of feed back on how Gibbo brought some sanity to the usual mayhem that happens with Macca and Tommy.

Social

Due to lack of numbers the beer/wine tasting night planned for tonight has been cancelled. Come on all - get behind your social committee!!

The next social event will be the PUMPS (Past Umpires) Lunch at the Umpires Rooms on Saturday 11th June prior to the VAFA vs SFL match.

See Peter James for details.

Round 7 Review

Another interesting round of results with North Brunswick's win probably most defining as the season goes. Not much at all separating third and eighth with speculation mounting as to what will be required to make the finals. I get the feeling that 11 games will just about guarantee a win whilst 10 wins and a healthy percentage might just about do the job!

Great win for North Brunswick as they accounted for Box Hill. They got off to a great start, were pegged back by the home side but managed to regroup and record a strong win. Sammartino starred for North Brunswick whilst Sinfield was Box Hill's best.

As expected, a fairly tight contest out at Eltham as they hosted pacesetters Elsternwick. The Wicks only really broke away in the last term with their fortunes aided by the Mahony triumvirate of Brian, Shane and Craig. The Turtles were best served by Andrews and Stockdale in defence.

Albert Park accounted for Richmond although they returned to their competitive ways of early in the season. Thompson starred in the midfield for the Falcons whilst Collins with 8 goals was also a standout.

St.Mary's continued their march towards final's action as they disposed of Bulleen in an entertaining game. The sure handed Purcell starred for the winners who were also well served by Tagell up forward with a lazy eight.

Preview

Match of the round sees top of the tree Elsternwick hosting third placed Box Hill North. Whilst the cricket like scores has dried up a bit in recent weeks, the Wicks remain the dominant force in the grade. Whilst they have a number of notable stars, it's the next rung of players that are the key and they seem to have particularly strong depth. Box Hill has lost the last couple and face the threat of dropping from the top four. Can't get of the wagon yet, eight straight will be the call on Saturday evening.

"Box Hill has lost the last couple and face the threat of dropping from the top four."

Eltham host Albert Park with the Turtles desperate to get back on the winner's list after consecutive defeats. The Falcons have quietly gone about their business and sit in the top four. Real crunch game for Eltham. Lose this one and they won't have too many left up their sleeves. I still think they might be a bit of a smoky and expect them to win at home.

Hawthorn host St.Mary's in a local derby of sorts. Interestingly, the clubs have never played each other before so it will be a learning experience for all concerned. The form line through the Saints has been excellent in recent weeks whilst the Hawks need to start to string some together. This may well be the tightest of this week's games however I expect that the Saints will start to cement their second position.

Finally, Bulleen welcome Richmond with a kick start to their year required. They haven't been disgraced but will be looking longingly at a win. Richmond was extremely competitive for three quarters last week before falling off the pace. Hard to see them beat the Bulls this week.

Great efforts from the scribes as I heard from all bar 2 clubs. Keep it up!

M I MILESTONES E S

Albert Park - congratulates stalwarts Mark Phillips and Nick Pastras on their 200th games and Steve Fairfield on his 50th game.

St Mary's - Adam Ballantyne plays his 100th game this week. The likeable larrikin is a great asset to the club both on and off field. He regularly takes on the opposition's best forward and does so with a minimum of fuss.

North Brunswick - 50 Games Dave Newton.

Well done to Junior for reaching his 1st milestone with North Brunswick. A clever goalkicking forward with a bag of tricks up his sleeve he has shown that he is a valuable asset to the Green & Gold forward line. One of the leaders at the club his knowledge & tactics about the game is well respected by all his peers. Although he, I am sure, harbours thoughts about going into the midfield his ability to produce bursts of goals will see him continue in the forward line. Well done. (Well done, keep those VFL releases coming Dave - Ed)

Section One

Seven rounds in and just one win separates the top four, St Kevins continuing to set the pace at the top after a win at home over Old Scotch last weekend. Kicking five goals to one in the opening term St Kevins never looked in doubt, O'Rourke's six majors guiding the side to a 23 point victory. Marcellin move into second after a remarkable win over Collegians, Marcellin kicking 14 of the last 15 goals to run out 61 point winners. Having lost three games in as many weeks, Collegians drop out of the top four for the first time this season, their loss coming despite having nine scoring shots to two in the opening term. In other games, De La Salle cruised to a 62 point win over St Bernards despite trailing at quarter-time, while Handley kicked ten goals in Old Xaverians 94 point win over Old Brighton.

Match of the round this weekend takes us to Marcellin College, as the home side take on ladder-leaders St Kevins. With top spot and premierships favouritism up for grabs, both sides will be desperate come away with the four points in a game that could well be a Grand Final preview. St Kevins have been the form side of the competition to date, however Marcellin's recent string of impressive results cannot be underestimated. Marcellin by 7 pts. In the round's other games, Old Xaverians should be too strong away at Collegians, Uni Blues won't be troubled when they host St Bernards, while reigning premiers De La Salle should enter the top half of the premierships ladder with a comfortable home win over Old Brighton.

Section Two

The Bears earned their place in the leading pack, with another bag of 10 from Tsingarlis. His performance wasn't too cool for Toull, who was BOG. The Wellers mercilessly mauled an insipid Rupō unit, who trailed by 52 points at the first break and barely gained any respectability thereafter. Sadly, the Bombers handed the points to the Friars, who were well rested for the club ball!! Elsewhere, the Fields had their hands full at the last change, but steadied on the back of Noblett and Price to finish 19 points ahead. Finally, in blustery conditions, Trinity kept pace for 15 minutes of each term, but plenty of 'red time' OC goals cut deep, especially those from Laidlaw and Tiras. For Trinity, Bicknell and Bayliss were brilliant down back, but

The Bears earned their place in the leading pack, with another bag of 10 from Tsingarlis.

Stewart's 3rd goal cost me $400 in panel beating.

Tips

Short 'n' sweet: Bears by 4 goals over an improving OMs, and Beauty only just (10 points) over a fresh Friars. The Fields should push the OC, but the top team should win by 5 goals. Meanwhile out west, it'll be 'Blow Out City' in favour of Rupō and Old Camberwell.

Section Three

It took a big final quarter from the Demons to pass La Trobe. With an horrific 4.12 on the board, the visitors needed to lift up forward and Morrison and Fidler came to the rescue. Think I struck a raw Tiger nerve last week and they burst from the change-rooms and ran wild. To their credit, Old Ivanhoe rallied, but were never able to bridge the gap, losing by 14 points. The close one was at the High where the Blues flew home with Cruikshank at the tiller and outlasted a game Unicorns outfit by one point! Ajax put in a great first half effort against Uni Blacks, but started leaking goals in the 3rd, and could patch up things in the last. Finally, 'twas a good old-fashioned physical clash at Oakleigh. The Raiders asserted their influence after quarter time, attacking the ball hard, with good running passages of play. After halftime Oakleigh attacked their goals with purpose, but the Raiders defence rebounded brilliantly.

Tips

Blacks and Parade should tune up for next week's Showdown by trouncing the Hoers and Ajax respectively today. In the closer games it's the Tiges by 32 points, Benteigh by a solitary goal, and Oakleigh by 26 points.

Section Blue

Review

The Pirates caught Mazenod napping down at Mt Eliza, but a rejuvenated Nodders played their best in the third, to trail by 8 points. Unfortunately, they couldn't go on with the job, as Peninsula cleared everything from the middle, scoring freely from direct play. Better players for Mazenod included Micallef and Cramer. In trying conditions, the Scorpions started well and got some midfield drive early in the game. Morsello was damaging and the backline repelled almost all Bloods' attacks. To keep Haileybury to 3 goals was a credit to the Scorpions' teamwork. The Rovers bounced back with a big upset over the O'Clays at The Boss, and Ormond were just awesome, as Chisholm, Calvert and Bailey continued on their great form, with a brutal display at Dairy Bell Central.

Predictions

Ormond -v- Salesian could see a record-breaking combined score, as EP (Sportscover Arena) won't be able to contain the goal-kicking power of Bailey/Chisholm and Singh/Jordan. Final score: Ormond 328 to Salesian 327. The Pirates will string two together over the Bloods, whilst Hampton will have their work cut out against the Nodders, who should win comfortably. Finally De La should be good enough to beat the O'Clays.

Section Red

Nearing the halfway point of the season and still no side looks capable of matching Aquinas, the ladder-leaders notching up win number seven of season 2005 last weekend. Thrashing Old Scotch by 96 points, Geddes, McGregor and Adams were once again at their best for the premiership favourites. In the round's other games, Rupertswood kicked three-goals-to-one in the final term against Bulleen Templestowe to record a come-from-behind 8 point victory, Emmaus St Leos comprehensively defeated Therry Penola by 90 points with Lalor kicking six, and a six-goal-to-none third term by Old Westbourne secured a 36 point win over Fitzroy.

Seven rounds in and Aquinas look unstoppable, the ladder-leaders hosting Bulleen Templestowe this weekend in a fixture that is likely to transpire into a very one-sided contest. While Bulleen were gallant last weekend an unlucky not to record their first proper four points of the season, Aquinas are simply a class above, the ladder-leaders to win by at least 10 goals. In the round's other games, Emmaus St Leos to stay in touch with Aquinas with a win over Rupertswood at Salesian College, Kew to easily account for the unpredictable Fitzroy at JJ Higgins Reserve, and Therry Penola to get up by the smallest of margins against Old Westbourne in a game that could easily go either way.

CLUB XVIII SECTION

by Norm Nugent

Today the season reaches the half way mark, with likely final four teams now asserting their skill. None the less surprise results continue each round, to confound the tipsters. Round 7 results saw me achieve a 79% success rate.

Review of Round 7.

Section 1.

St Kevin's showed their strength with a seventy eight point thrashing of Old Scotch, who dropped from first to fourth as a consequence.

Mt Lilydale proved me a poor judge when, according to Coach, Karl Conlan, despite injuries and lack of numbers, their players, showed great character and determination to defeat Old Melburnians by twenty two points.

Mazenod jumped to fifth through their thirty two point victory over the disappointing University Blues in a game marred by inaccurate kicking by both sides.

Prahran defeated old rivals, De La Salle by twenty five points and moved to the top spot on the ladder.

Old Xaverians moved to second through their eighty two point win over Old Brighton.

Section 2.

Old Essendon Grammarians were never in trouble against Marcellin, whose best effort was in the last quarter when they virtually doubled their meagre total as Old Essendon cruised to victory by eighty one points. Best for the winners were; John Chapman, Brett Papal and Ben Overman. Marcellin had good contributors namely: Paul and Mick Symes as well as David Gill.

Collegians caused the surprise of the Round when they inflicted the first defeat on Old Xaverians, who went down by thirty four points. University Blacks outplayed their Monash Blue opposition to record a twenty three point victory. Although the game was played in windy conditions, the standard of play was high. For the Blacks, none was better than Ross Green, while for Monash, Plehn, Arnott, Coughlin and Gaffney all were good contributors.

Eley Park Sharks survived their long westward journey and easily defeated Therry Penola by eighty four points. For the Sharks, key forward, David Viola booted 13 goals which feat equalled the Club record. The consistent, David Payne and Jason Broadbear also played well.

At Punt Road Oval, Fitzroy Reds were able to defeat Old Trinity by forty nine points.

Section 3.

Old Scotch showed their strength by defeating North Old Boys by fifty five points at the Camberwell Sports Ground. North now find themselves two games outside the four.

Caulfield Grammarians continued their upward surge as they pushed Fitzroy Reds from second place through their twenty eight point victory.

Emmaus - St Leo's had a day out as they defeated the undermanned, Old Carey by one hundred and seventy points.

The enigmatic, Old Geelong were impressive against La Trobe University, whose players never gave in despite the O.G.'s superior play. Old Geelong won by sixty nine points after leading by fifty four points at half time. John McCarthy stood out for the winners.

Leaders, Whitefriars had the bye.

Preview of Round 8.

Section 1.

On form it would appear St Kevin's will prove too talented for Old Melburnians, who are struggling to meet the standard required to win in this Section.

Old Xaverians should defeat Mt Lilydale, who are playing under conditions never experienced by the "Crocodiles". I believe that the depth of the Old Xaverian talent will carry them to victory after a fairly intense encounter.

Mazenod have found form of late and Old Scotch appear to have left their form behind. I suspect the key factor in determining the outcome will be the home ground advantage of Old Scotch, whom I select to win narrowly.

Prahran will be playing on new territory when they meet University Blues on the Crawford Oval. Although the Blues will have a fitness advantage, talent will triumph and the leaders, Prahran have it in abundance. I forecast a big Prahran win.

De La Salle have the opportunity to salvage some pride today when they play yet to win, Old Brighton. At home I select De La Salle to win well.

Section 2.

Old Xaverians have a marvellous opportunity to return to the winning list because Marcellin lack the depth of skill to trouble the second placed side especially at Victoria Park where the "Silks" like to display their smooth skills!

Fitzroy Reds, who now find themselves outside the top four, face a danger game against Collegians, who did so well last week. The Reds, who play a more physical game than do the Old Xaverians, will contest throughout the game, which I feel they will win narrowly.

The Old Essendon and University Blacks game will give us all a better guide to their comparative August chances. Today I favour Old Essendon, who have a tremendous home ground advantage as well as having a balanced team, whose members combine well.

Monash Blues should return to the winning list at home by defeating the undermanned, Therry Penola.

Eley Park Sharks will defeat Old Trinity and so consolidate their top four position.

Section 3.

Fitzroy Reds and Old Scotch will provide a final's preview. The sides are evenly matched when judged on their performances so far this season. I expect a close encounter and suspect the Reds will prove too determined for the "Cardinals" and so take the points.

"Caulfield Grammarians should continue their inexorable march into the finals with a big win over La Trobe University..."

Caulfield Grammarians should continue their inexorable march into the finals with a big win over La Trobe University, who although short on talent do contest with determination.

The result of the North Old Boys versus Whitefriars game could go either way. Even though Whitefriars remain unbeaten, North on their day are capable of winning. The problem for my selection is, when will their day come? Consistency of play, prompts me to select Whitefriars. Please insure your players wear the right boots, Norm!!!

Old Geelong can move closer to the leaders by accounting for Old Carey today. On last week's form there would seem little reason to expect anything but an Old Geelong win.

Emmaus - St Leo's have the bye.
