

On the Record

by Cameron Noakes

In my first year of writing about the VAFA for The Sunday Age it was decided - because there were so many close calls - that on the best-and-fairest night the votes from the last few rounds of the season would be counted down.

It was a fascinating evening and extremely entertaining and I haven't missed one since.

Being a punter, I like having a couple of small coins on the Brownlow Medal and, obviously, I always try to predict the winner of the Woodrow Medal.

I do much better with the Brownlow. In fact, I think I was on Old Trinity's star big man Andrew Ramsden every year except last year when he won it.

And last year I was confident Old Haileybury's energised midfielder Paul Corrigan was going to give it a shake except he was, oddly, nowhere near it.

And what is it about that Marcellin jumper? The Marcellin boys have been on the podium five times in seven years, with Joel Rice sharing it with Rambo in 2005.

A Section scribe Jonathan Horn has already predicted another Marcellin boy to feature heavily in the count this year, Brett Dobson.

And everyone is talking up the chances of Old Ivanhoe's James Hope. Hope is in superb form and his ability to read the play is sensational.

I wouldn't be surprised to see big Rambo in the mix again, either, and Old Haileybury's star recruit Heath Hopwood was certainly eye-catching in the early part of the season. And his team-mate Andrew Jenke seems to be figuring in the best on a regular basis as well.

In B Section, Old Essendon's David Biggs has collected the previous two G.T. Moore medals but his defection to the VFL now gives someone else a chance.

B Section scribe Tom Brain favours the blokes from winning teams to win the medal, so he wouldn't be surprised to see Collegians trio Nicholas Harrison, Chris Blumfield and Jono Dixon all in the votes.

What last year's Brownlow Medal told us, when Ben Cousins and Dan Kerr finished one and two, is that players from the same team can dominate a count.

Ex-St.Bernard's midfielder Chris Goulet is enjoying a stellar year with Old Essendon, and Uni Blacks captain Matt Kempston is always outstanding.

In C Section, the season is all about St.Bedes/Mentone Tigers and scribe Fraser Cameron likes the Tigers' centre-half-back and captain Luke Wintle.

But Fraser also expects Ajax on-ballers Ari Lewski and former Sandringham player Jason Ritterman to feature in the votes and Ormond midfielders Leigh Deledio and Michael Miller.

D1 Section scribe Peter Williamson believes Therry Penola star Justin Crotty is a big show, and Old Carey captain Al McQueen-Parton, as a goal-kicking onballer, is certainly eye-catching.

Bulleen-Templestowe captain Greg Chivers has also been in terrific form for his team and should poll.

In D2, scribe Jono Healy is thinking about Ivanhoe Assumption ruckman Chris Hunter, who is having a superb year, and Aquinas key defender Stephen Tibb, who has been in vote-catching form.

Peninsula Old Boys captain and the section's leading goal-kicker Shaun Payze should also be in the votes, but as we all know, key forwards find it hard to attract the attention of the umpires these days.

But in D3, Gavan Flower says Bentleigh brilliant forward Chris Sharp has to be thereabouts. He is the sharpest of sharpshooters, booting an incredible 61.4.

Gavan also thinks West Brunswick pair Ben Batters and Bill Irving are also a good go.

And in D4, scribe Ed Sill also thinks power forward Ed Woods is certain to capture the eyes of the umpire with some big bags of goals, including one of 17 and another of 10.

Loony Blues

Well I can't work it out, can you? Saturday's University Blues line up featured the following players... Torney, Wilcox, North, De Crespigny, McKinnon, Paterson, Gleeson, Clarke, Lowcock, Kordick, Sturrock. Off the top of my head, that's nine premierships players, one Woodrow Medalist, one comp MVP, one Jock Nelson medalist, six state players, six best and fairest trophies. And they lose to last year's B Grade premiers. And they're equal ninth. Go figure, it's amateur footy, it's a comp designed to do your head in.

But let's not sell Ivanhoe short. The heavy track at Chelmsworth suited them to a tee and it was their brawnier players, Scott Curatolo (won their last two B & Fs), Sjourke Price and Brad Thompson who reveled in the bog. Their season is comparable to their 1999 campaign, when they came up from B Grade to figure in the finals straight away.

Match of the day was at Camberwell, where the unfancied Cardinals hung on in a very high standard game against the Badlanders. Ben Doherty, hamstrung by journalistic commitments the week before, slotted back and made an immediate impact while former Banyule player Shaun Lorenzini continued his stellar season, drifting forward to snag two majors. Scotch is right in the mix, despite barely a peep from James Gerstman.

Bernards fielded a pretty handy line-up against Marcellin with cagey half forward Tate Pearson returning to the side and VFL player Michael Hooper 'Pitting up for his first VAFA game since the 2003 Grand Final. Very much an enigmatic team the Bernies; when they're on their game they're as good as anyone but they really seem to draw the short straws injurywise. Congratulations to first gamers Grant Basesgego and Joseph landomenico.

Xavs were mighty impressive against De La. Tim Clarke was deadly around the goals, his Ballarat mate Travis Ruyg (could we make those shorts a bit bigger perhaps Ruggy?) ran hard all day and Mark Graham played his best game for the club at CHB. They looked bigger, tougher and better organized. Still a very hard team to catch tipswise however.

De La were very disappointing and looked a bit light on around the packs. Leigh Harrison, probably their most dangerous player behind Rayson, did miss however and should return this week. Luke Seager did a cracking job on the big man Handley. Oh and Benny Mannix has retired, with his dodgy back finally taking its toll. Ben was one of the most entertaining players you'd ever want to see; his effort on debut in 1994 to help De la avoid relegation will be talked about in amateur circles for decades. Best game I ever saw him play was against Ormond, when he kicked six in the last quarter (after almost falling asleep in the rooms at half time), three of them from marks taken whilst lying on his back!

On Sunday, Trinity were coasting to a massive win before the Grammar turned on an eight goal to three second half to just fall short. James

Beaumont led the charge for OMs, while Andrew Cultrera was on fire early, kicking five first half goals. Richard Burrows and Andrew Prowse were the respective best players. Tim Horn (a fine surname at that) was the latest in a long line of kids to play his first game for OMs

Shortened Quarters

Well it's just getting ridiculous now. Change! Change! Change! Last week, I dropped into the Orrong Hotel for some half-time refreshments and as I ambled back for what I assumed would be three quarter time, Xavs were belting out their theme song!

Crowd Pullers

Good response to last week's question. General consensus seems to be that Haileybury, Scotch and De La attract the biggest crowds in A Section.

Today's Poser

Who is the A Grade player of the year thus far? Answers to jonathan_g_horn@yahoo.co.uk

Today's Tips

Haileybury at the Badlands. Lock.

Scotch over OMs. Lock.

Ivanhoe over Bernards. Lock(ish).

Uni over Xavs. Upset.

Trinity over Marcellin. Toss of the coin.

Ladies and Gentlemen, it's anyone's flag this year.....Have a nice day.

M I MILESTONES NEWS

Old Haileyburians' congratulate Andrew Jenke on his 100th game today. Andrew began his career in 1999 with the Under 19's and gained senior selection that year. Won Senior Coach's award in 2001 and has developed into one of the best top ruckmen in the competition. He is also one of the most prolific marks in the VFA notching double figure tallies each week and in recent years has become dangerous around goals with a career tally of 60 majors. Well done 'Jenks'.

Cameron Home also plays his 100th game for the Bloods today. Son of first OHAFC Captain, Andrew Home (1961-1981, 245 games), Cameron began his career in the Under 19's whilst still at school. Went overseas in 2002 returning the following year when in round 4 playing his 99th game, and injured his ACL, keeping him out of football until today. Hopefully Cameron has retained his uncanny judgement for marking in packs and adding to his 104 career goals. Congratulations 'Homey'

Congratulations also to Andrew Baker who played his 50th game last week. Former Haileybury School Football Vice-Captain, Andrew began with the Unders in 2002 winning Runner-up Under 19 B & F award that year, has played mostly in defence during his career, is a good kick, a strong mark, is hard at the ball and challenges the most opposing forwards. Well done 'Bakes'.

Old Xaverians congratulate Daniel Higgins on his 50th game today. From Xavier College in 2002, he commenced in the under 19's and after a year off is finding top form in the Reserves. Well done Daniel from all at the club.

De La Salle congratulates Simon Conway and Tommy Molan on 100 games. Simon commenced with the Juniors in 2001 and since has played 34 MSJFL, 37 Blues, 2 Club18, 25 Reserves and 2 Senior games. Simon made his senior debut in Round 4, 2005 and capped off a great year by being Reserves "Best in Finals" in that premiership team. A fine contribution from an emerging Senior player. Tommy commenced with the Golds in 2000 and since has played 14 Golds, 39 Blues, 37 Reserves and 10 Senior games. Tommy made his Senior debut in Round 2 2003 after Blues "Most Consistent" in 2002 and the same award for the Reserves in 2004. Both Simon and Tommy are tall mobile defenders who have strong potential to be good, consistent Senior players.

Marcellin OC congratulate Richard Frisina on 200 games. 'Fris' has had an extraordinary career including a Reserve and three Senior Premierships. Fris is famous for his silky smooth skills and damaging left foot. He has spent the majority of his career at half-back but has been effective in the midfield and sneaking forward to kick goals. Fris is a popular clubman and it is appropriate that he now becomes eligible for Marcellin OC Life Membership. All at Marcellin wish Fris all the best on this big occasion.

B SECTION

by Tom Brain

And so we pass the half way mark with a slightly different slant appearing on things in the past couple of weeks. Beaumaris are bearing down the Fields' necks and at the other end of the scale many interesting scenarios await us in the next 9 weeks.

REVIEW

Seems both sides were on drugs down at South Road, Uni Blacks on speed and Old Brighton on heavy speed. What a turnaround for the Blacks and a huge win in the scheme of things. The Blacks' defence was terrific, all six of them, and with their tall forwards Savige and Battista on song, the Tonners just had no answer. Whitehead and Dowsley were also good for the victors. The Edge Brothers, Toby Ewart and Paddy Phelan all battled hard for OB.

Close for Mazenod on Saturday but still no cigar. After a close first half where the Mazenod defenders held the dangerous OEG forwards, sleepiness set in for a patch of the third where the Bombers got totally on top to go off with comfortable 35 point buffer at orange time. But the home side woke up in the last and got to within 5 points into the last couple of minutes until the Bombers steadied like a good side should, to win by 11.

The handy inclusions of Simon Garlick, Paul O'Keefe and Paul Greenham obviously strengthened St Kevins' resolve as they greeted the judge for the first time this year in a strong and impressive performance at Sportscover Arena. For the first time in 2006 they finished full of running, as the 6 goal last quarter shows.

A furious game at Shark Park with both sides going goal for goal. Even the umps reckoned it was as quick as they had witnessed all year. By the final change the Sharks had totally exerted their authority, aided by accurate kicking and so took a 6 goal lead into the last. MHSOB hit back early in the last, but Beauy stuck to the game plan to win comfortably. Sean Coote and Dougie Ensor were terrific down back, Calvin Barnes continues to impress, as did Lawrence Ferrari. For MHSOB, who are disappointed with their form at the moment, Cal McGrath, Lachie Evans, and Luke Campbell stood out.

A couple of pretty handy inclusions for the Fields made life tough for Collegians early, but the Lions settled well, moved the ball with precision and put scoreboard pressure on the Fields who, apart from a burst in the last, did not recover. Richard Hosking and Nick Harrison were in everything, Nick Stone led a dominant defence and Shura Taft returned with a handy six goals. Andrew Strain again a model of consistency, along with Andy Lawson and Mark Pennycuick, who both competed all day.

PREVIEW

Beaumaris welcome Old Essendon to Shark Park in what should be a beauty. The visitors did not lose a game in June, while the Sharks have gradually been getting better and playing some good footy. So this match promises plenty, both have terrific players in all the correct areas. Rather than try to keep my lead in the tipping contest I'm going to go with a gut feel and select the home side to get over the line.

"..." results weren't received. Any discrepancies may be due to non-submission of results by clubs.

Two totally out of form sides clash today at South Road in a tipster's nightmare. Both were excellent early but have not seemed to hit a form slump. Whoever comes out of it first will take the points and although Andy may disagree with me, I will give the Tonners one last chance because it's at home.

The much improved Mazenod welcome the unbeaten Collegians to Central. While I think the result of Round 1 will remain the same, the margin will be considerably less, as Mazenod are in better shape now and will take the game right up to the Lions at various stages, but the cigars will have to wait.

Although out of form and a bit down on confidence, the Caulfield Grammarians at home will turn the tables on Whitefriars who have to travel south for the second week in a row will just find it a bit hard.

A big game at the Uni Oval between two sides who would be totally buoyed by their form of last week. It was a close encounter last time, with Blacks on top courtesy of a great last quarter. SKOBs appear to have rectified all flaws in their game and now have some good ones on the paddock, and will test the Blacks. But at home I must stick with the Uni Boys.

AN INTERVIEW CONDUCTED BY AFCA VAFA EXECUTIVE MEMBER, GEOFF REILLEY, WITH ST BERNARDS' SENIOR COACH, SIMON MADDEN - PART 1

One of the Champions of Essendon (fifth on the list of 25), Simon played 378 games with the Bombers from 1974-92. A dual premiership player, Norm Smith Medalist (85), Club Captain (81 & 80), Best & Fairest (77, 79, 83, 84), leading goal kicker (80 & 82), All Australian (83, 84, 87, 88) and top 5 Brownlow vote getter (83, 84, 88), Simon brings a wealth of footballing experience to one of our pre-eminent clubs and to the VAFA in general.

GR: Simon did you intend to pursue a coaching career after you finished playing with Essendon?

SM: When I finished playing AFL I didn't see coaching as the right direction for me at that time. I had opportunities to get involved in AFL but turned them down. I enjoyed playing football immensely and didn't think I would get the same enjoyment out of coaching as I did as a player. Over the last few years I have grown to enjoy the coaching side greatly; hence my involvement in St Bernard's.

GR: What was your first impression of amateur football, and has your opinion changed since you commenced coaching at St Bernards?

SM: I hadn't really watched any amateur football until my son, Joshua, played a few games in 2003. I was impressed with the standard. I still think it is a good standard but it is still a long way from AFL.

GR: How many coaching support staff do you have and how do you spread the workload?

SM: I have three direct support staff, reserves coach Andrew Bryson, assistant coach Garry Foulds and boxing coach Dominic "Rio" Degennaro. Both football coaches have input into training and preparation. Garry also works on young players' development and with the Under 19s. Rio works directly on player fitness. I also have a strong link with Greig Wood our Under 19s coach and Andrew Vincombe our Warriors coach.

GR: Does your role include any liaison with St Bernard's College football program and if so what is your involvement?

SM: I am working on developing a stronger link between St Bernard's Senior Club and the Junior Club as well as the college. I believe there is a great opportunity for St Bernard's, as a football community, to develop programs that will produce better footballers who will enjoy their football greatly and gain great benefit from their involvement. Presently I am looking to the club to appoint a player development/liaison officer to coordinate this.

GR: Have you adjusted your coaching style since you commenced at St Bernards due to the particular nature of "ammo" footy?

SM: Yes I have and I believe I will continue to do so. Coaching is evolutionary. The constraints of part time football along with the changing nature of the game and the outside influences on young peoples' time and their viewpoint will continually challenge you.

U19s: The Future of any Club

MHSOB congratulates U19 coach Paul O'Connell (right) on the way he is shaping our senior players of the future.

So far this season there have been seven U19 players who have played, or are currently playing in the senior team. This augurs well for the future of the senior club. Whilst the demographics of the school have changed considerably over the past decade or so there is still an impressive group of young footballers coming through the school into the Under 19s and then into the senior team.

Some of these young players making a mark in the seniors include Lachlan Evans (captain of the U19s), Josh Richmond (captain of the VAFA U19s side to play in Brisbane recently), Andrew Lim (2005 VAFA representative side), Steve Villani, Stephen Wrigley, Joel Kiteley and Daniel Wiseman.

Paul clearly sees his role as nurturing his young charges so they may take their opportunity in the senior ranks when called. At the same time, the U19s need to remain competitive as a team in Junior Section 3, and this they are doing well.

No doubt there will be more opportunities for others as the season progresses. This club remains committed to providing pathways to our young men as they further their football careers, ensuring maximum enjoyment at the same time.

Well done Paul. Keep up the good work.

The scoreboard in the C section halfway hut has got to be one of the most bemusing sights I've seen in my 15 years of ammo footy. If we doubled each and every club's results to reach the end of the season, 4th spot will go to a side which loses 2 more games than it wins, and relegation will come down to percentage between 3 sides that are only 2 games out of the finals!!!!

But enough of the stats, what about the weekend's results – weren't there a couple of surprises?

Monash Blues –v- NOBSPC

First and foremost, the VAFA forums are buzzing with resurgent NOBSPC fans talking up their mob – and why not? It was a truly gutsy effort by NOBSPC in a very low scoring game, with Barker's 4 goals for the Purple People perhaps providing the perfect polish. Heath Maplestone shone again throughout the day, ably assisted by Glen Maxton and David Brady. Keen mathematicians will note that Monash won 3 of the 4 quarters on the scoreboard, more scoring shots, and 10 more inside 50's, etc, etc, but concede that the better side on the day won the game. Big Azza Williams was outstanding in the ruck for Monash, who are officially in "uni holiday" mode and are making a habit of losing the close ones!!!

Old Camberwell –v- AJAX

The soft track out at the Barn Yard made for a tough tussle, which was won by the Jackas' ability to make more of their opportunities up forward. Greasy conditions meant clean ball-handlers stood out, and here's where the Jackas were at their best, with their highly talented midfield trio (is it me, or do they use a permanent rubber stamp with those same names each week?) continually providing one-touch gathers and delivery up forward. Aaron Bloom provided 3 critical goals and Bradley Nissen's ball handling was as slick as his sublime hairdo. For the Wellers, Greg Tolson worked hard all day, both up forward & later when swung into defence, whilst Stephen Derry played well in the ruck.

Hampton Rovers –v- Fitzroy Reds

You could hear the sound of crickets chirping at Brunswick Street as the Rovers "burst the bubble" in a 5 point thriller at The Boss. Those inseparable old mates Nip and Tuck were prominent throughout with no more than 2 goals separating the sides up until the final bell. Ronke took a 3rd quarter screamer for the Reds, defying the otherwise tricky conditions, but this still could kick-start a real surge. In the final stanza Hampton Rovers created and then frittered numerous chances, while the Reds had an attack of the fumbles, but would never give in. With a couple of minutes remaining, Fitzroy reduced the margin to 5 pts, then a superb chain of kicks and thrust forward looked to set up another easy shot at goal. To their credit, Hampton read the incoming ball better and a match saving mark gave them valuable time to let the clock run down. Everyone was jumping for the Green and Gold – how apt!!!

Ormond –v- St Bedes Mentone Tigers

Could it be? Just maybe? Is there a chink in that armour? Ormond can take great heart out of their performance in almost slaying the Tigers, despite trailing by more than 6 goals just after half time. The Deledio brothers kicked into gear to help out Michael Miller and Simon Keleher. With Ash Russell (5 goals) proving a handful up front, it was 'game one' when Matt Martinov threaded one from the boundary on the siren. The Monders chipped and chipped away as the deficit was reduced to 7 points deep into the final term. Still, the Tigers aren't that good for no good reason, and they held firm to maintain their clean sheet for the entire first half of the season.

Old Paradians –v- Parkdale Vultures

It was always going to be tricky for the Vultures, with the long trek out to Bundoora, but the Raiders handed victory to them on a platter through some woeful kicking for goal. Plugger and Andrew Tenson chimed in for a couple for the home side, who were well served by Dean Loney, but to fall 28 points shy with the amount of ball they managed is unforgivable. Still, they're only a game and % off 4th!!!

Tips

OK, now we turn for home and we can officially roll out the old

8 POINT GAME chestnut – and they're everywhere I tell ya. With Monash on semester break, it's a perfect chance for The OC to re-gather their thoughts with a 19 point win. AJAX are made of stern stuff this year and will not let this one slip against the Vultures – Jackas by 5 goals. The Rovers are next in line to have a crack at St Bedes and guess what? Pucker Up – the Kiss of Death is here – Hampton Rovers by 11 points. NOBSPC is on the rise but face an Ormond side keen to build on last week, with the EE Gunn (sorry Buxton Oval) in vintage winter condition, it's Monders by 3 goals. Finally, a wise man pointed out that if Parade could pinch one against the Reds, it's mathematically possible to have seven sides equal 4th and equal last at the same time. Stranger things have happened ..... nup, I'm not that silly. Reds by 22.

M I M I L E S T O N E S
AJAX congratulate Adrian Lewin on his 100th game against Old Camberwell. Lewy missed 2004 with a serious injury but has fought back well to be a regular with the seniors. Starting in 2000 with the Under 19s and was part of the 2001 group that won the flag that year. The next two years Lewy played all games in either seniors and reserves before injury put him out for a season. AJAX looks forward to Lewy reaching more milestones.
The great No.7 Paul Farrar broke yet another longstanding record at the Frearson Oval when he played his 200th senior VAFA match for Monash Blues last Saturday. Universally admired and still one of the first picked (or at least the first named in a back pocket), Faz keeps getting better with age and experience. Blessed with exceptional talent and a resilient body, there is every chance he can get to the magical 300!! Well done and thanks Faz, we've loved every minute of it.
Monash Blues salutes Conor O'Sullivan on reaching 100 games in the turquoise and silver. After starting in a blaze of glory in the Under 19s, "Condor" was absent for a few years trying his luck as a male model before returning as a key member of the senior side and 2003 Premiership player. A versatile and strong player, Condor has worked hard on his game and has added consistency to his natural flair and ball magnet ability. Congratulations Conor on reaching this special milestone and we all look forward to plenty more great games from the No.9.

REVIEW

Despite a quarter time lead against Old Geelong at the BSG, the good times couldn't last for Emmaus St. Leo's who were overrun in the middle part of the game. Colby O'Brien and Ed Bayles continued their good form for the Oggers. Therry Penola had the asendancy, albeit slightly, over Yarra Valley OB for the greater part of their game at John Pascoe Fawkner Reserve, before the Bushrangers got over the line to win by seven points. Jarrod was the Bannister to star up forward this time for the Lions, while Andrew Forster-Knight had another great game down back for Therry. Prahran got off to their best start of the year in their match at Keysborough against Old Mentonians, managing to stay in front until late in the third quarter, where the Panthers' Dave Cochrane kicked five goals in nine minutes to nudge the home side in front. The last quarter was quite tense, with the Two Blues falling seven points short of their first win of the season.

In other results, Old Carey prevailed over Banyule by 22 points, and Bulleen Templestowe bought home the bacon by eight points against Rupertswood, who suffered their third straight defeat.

PREVIEW

"Oh, we're halfway there...." So said the great New Jersey philosopher formerly known as Jon Bongiovi. Some of my pre-season prognostications have gone to plan, whilst others have panned out pear shaped. Old Carey and Old Geelong are amongst the front runners, and Therry Penola, Yarra Valley and perhaps to a lesser extent Rupertswood are this season's surprise guys. At this stage, at least three of the four finals spots look taken, while as many as four teams are in contention for that last position. At the other end of the scale, Prahran are still likely to exit D1, just not in the direction that I, and many others would have expected.

Emmaus St. Leo's host Old Mentonians at the BSG. OMs still have finals pretensions, being only two games out at the halfway stage, and will need to keep winning to put the pressure on those in front of them. The Animals have their own aspirations at the other end of the table however, and would not be willing to relinquish their D1 status in a hurry. Good to see youngster Gareth Snow amongst the goals for the Panthers last week, and with plenty of players sharing the goals in the forward line, is a good chance to add to that tally today. Panthers to win.

Old Carey take on Yarra Valley OB at Dunshea Oval. This promises to be an entertaining contest, with the Panthers continuing to be among the pacesetters, while the Bushrangers are only a game outside the four at the turn. Although Andrew Kent will be missed for Carey, they still have plenty of emerging youngsters such as Tom Howgate, Jens Glynne, etc. to cover his absence. The possibility of a duel between Valley's Dave Stephenson and Carey's Chris Battle is also a mouth-watering prospect. The Bushrangers will need to control the game in their back half to give themselves their best chance of winning, especially if the Panthers are still compelled to play with a smaller forward set-up. OC for me.

Therry Penola welcome Prahran to John Pascoe Fawkner Reserve. The Lions will rue the missed opportunities that have passed them by so far this year, especially if it counts against them at the business end of the season. Today's game at home is a great opportunity to return to winning ways. The Two Blues' defence, led by Hamish Hodgson, will have it all to do, while Matt Harrison and John Thwaites (Prahran) should provide a stern contest in the middle of the park for the likes of Therry's Justin Crotty and Darren Goodwin. Therry for mine.

Banyule make the trek to Sunbury for their match against Rupertswood. Rupo have their much vaunted running game, but look for Timmy Boxall, Kurt Shaw and David Collins to marshal their defence to a match winning effort. The Bears have their share of talented players such as Scicluna and Nick Taylor, but this is a good opportunity for the home side to arrest their current mini-slump and return to winning ways. I'll go Rupo.

Finally, the game between Old Geelong and Bulleen Templestowe at Como Park assumes D1 Match of the Day status. Both teams are 7-2, and first and third respectively, so top spot is very much up for grabs in this contest. OG's defence, led by the likes of Steve Lansdell and Al Munro, will have their hands full trying to contain dangerous Bullants' full forward 'Waxy' Williams. On the other side of the ledger, you cannot play an Old Geelong team and ignore players of the ilk of Nic Casbout, Henry Legoe and David Kimpton. This has the potential to be quite a shootout (well, as close as you can get to one in mid-winter, anyway) Tough call, but at home, I'll pick the Oggers.

M I L E S T O N E S

Yarra Valley OB youngster Ant Russell this week celebrates his 50th game for the Bushrangers. A hard worker on and off the field, Ant has established his spot in the seniors this season, forming an effective ruck tandem with fellow giant Simon "Toohas" Fuller. Not one to shirk an issue, his hardness, competitiveness and presence at the contests ensure a multitude of opportunities for his teammates at ground level. Congratulations Ant on 50 terrific games.

Old Geelong skipper Steve Lansdell brings up his 100th game for the club today. No one is harder at the ball than Steve, as evidenced by his constant running out of defence with the ball. He was also awarded the Tony Fellowes medal for his best on ground performance in the 2005 D2 grand final. Steve is also a great mentor to the younger players at the club, and admired by all for his off-field attitude and friendly demeanour.

Another Ogger, Cam Teague, played his 50th game last week. A constant force in the reserves' midfield since joining the club in 2003, Cam co-captained the reserves in 2005 as well as winning their Best and Fairest. This year has seen him step up to the seniors and take this transition in his stride. Well done to both Steve and Cam from everyone at Old Geelong.

CLUB WAREHOUSE RISING STAR NOMINATION ROUND 9

JACK CRONAN (STH MELBOURNE DISTRICTS)

South Melbourne Districts rover Jack Cronan is the nominee for the Club Warehouse Rising Star Nomination for Round 9 after his best on ground performance against Swinburne University last Saturday.

Jack Cronan started his football career in WA playing for East Fremantle before playing for Miranda in NSW. Jack joined the South Melbourne Districts Football Club in 2001. In his first season he represented the club in the U17 tour to NZ to promote Australian Rules Football.

In 2005 Jack received the Clarke Shields Football Scholarship for this outstanding commitment to the club.

Jack has electrifying pace and tremendous courage for his size (177cm & 62.5kg). On the weekend had a day out kicking 7 goals and taking the mark of the year. As he propelled himself into the air on his opponents back, Jack's first thoughts were of his coach yelling at him to get in front!

Jack is looking forward to second half of the year and hopefully his first 'seniors' finals campaign. Beyond that Jack hopes to see South climb the VAFA division ladder

Well, it's half way through the season so it's time for your mid season report card:

On to today's games:

Aquinas OC $1.33 v Ivanhoe Assumption AFC $3.10

Aquinas battling for fourth spot and I don't expect them to lose it today. Should be a good battle in the ruck between Sean Leonard from Aquinas and Chris Hunter from Ivanhoe. Aquinas by 33 points.

Williamstown CYMS $1.70 v St John's OC $2.05

This is a must win for Williamstown if they are to stay up this year. Timmy Wheeler needs to have a big game. Peter Walker probably gets the job on him. Willy by 22 points.

La Trobe Uni $1.85 v Salesian AFC $1.85

Fifth plays sixth but importantly the match is in Bundoora which will favour the home side. La Trobe skipper Terry Ludeman is in fine form. Maybe Bonnici gets the tagging job. La Trobe by 12 points.

Peninsula OB $1.18 v Glen Eira AFC $4.30

Peninsula at home have been good all year. They will prove too classy for the boys from Carnegie. This is my 'shoe in of the week.' Peninsula by 47 points.

Werribee AFC $1.60 v Oakleigh AFC $2.20

Werribee have been great at home all year, and I expect that to continue today. Should be a cracker of a game. Dean Whitten and Scott Kidd for Werribee versus Jon Rutter and Trevor Bromley for Oakleigh will be the onball matchups to watch closely. Werribee by 7 points.

Top Four Predictions – looking back after R9

Great win by the Drifters to give their season a sniff of recovery even if they might struggle to make the top four which I thought they would pre-season. In A I am looking okay with Single Malts & Uncannies but Skies and Threesomes would have to get a wiggle on. I didn't include the Purple Hearts in B due to brain failure but might get Beach Boys and Windfarmers up. My C picks were Triads (unbeaten), Foamers, Philanthropists & Socialists who are all in the mix – as is every team in C. DI had Brewers and Exclamations who are leading the pack with Winos an outsider & Chapels bound for D2 where I safely have Sailors & Sandbelts but misfired with Governors & Understandables. D3 is looking okay with Emeralds, Backyard Boys & Feathers travelling well. The Cemeterians are in a grave situation however. I was spot on with the flawless Artists in D4 and the Charmers are close but went astray with Flakes and Protesters. No protest re the Baden hospitality last Saturday where I mingled with Matriarch Sue Anderson and the Cavemen at the Reggie Memorial Bar.

COMMERCIAL HOTEL

An Exclamation and a Socialist got together early this century and set up a business that provides all the maintenance and capital improvement services you require for your private or investment properties. Save time and money by securing the best tradespeople at JDR – Jobs Done Right.

Charlie Hosking played 178 games for the Reds including the 1980 premiership, was Captain of the club and President for 2 years. His business partner Quentin Thomson played a few years at Old Geelong before returning to his beloved Mansfield Eagles where he has done much to revive this club. This connection led to the purchase of the Commercial Hotel Mansfield. The Commercial is available for mid-week or weekend packages throughout the year and is a proud sponsor of the Fitzroy Reds. For accommodation packages or for property Jobs Done Right contact Charlie on 0400 349348 or charlie@jobsdone.com.au & Quentin on 0418 337 267 or quentin@jobsdone.com.au

FOR THE LOVE OF THE GAME...

• Bangers Thanks

Cystic Fibrosis Victoria and the VFA would like to extend their appreciation to Ralph's Meats for their generous donation of sausages for their recent Bangers and Cash promotion. James Ralph, a passionate Old Xaverian's supporter, supplied the meat for Cystic Fibrosis to run a BBQ at the recent representative match against the Southern Football League. This BBQ enabled CFV to raise much needed additional funds to meet the needs of their clients. We are blessed to have members of our community who give freely when asked, without seeking recognition or reward.

• Big Stories Break Here

Over the last couple of weeks stories have been appearing in the major newspapers after articles in this column. FLOTG recently brought you the stories of the Somalian Refugees playing at Glen Eira and the U19 boys playing tricks on ex-CEO Phil Stevens. So for all the latest VFA news, gossip and stories, keep your eyes on this page.

• Ormond Supports Zaidee Foundation

Last Saturday all of the Ormond senior and reserves players wore Zaidee's Rainbow Shoelaces to raise awareness of organ and tissue donation.

Zaidee Turner, daughter of former Ormond player Allan, aged 7 years and 22 days old, died suddenly on 2nd December 2004 from a cerebral aneurism and donated her organs and tissues as were her wishes. Zaidee however, in 2004 was the only child in Victoria under the age of 16 years to donate her organs and tissues. In that year 160,000 Australians died but only 218 were Organ and Tissue Donors.

The Zaidee Rainbow Foundation was developed by Allan and Kim and in the last 12 months alone all the major sporting codes in Australia have started supporting the Foundation by wearing Zaidee's Rainbow Shoelaces. Most recently the Australian Woman's soccer team the Matildas, wore the laces against Mexico at the MCG on 25th May to add to the long list of sporting clubs including NRL teams, basketball teams the Opals and Boomers, and our national netball and softball teams. Mike Brady of 'Up there Cazaly' fame has even written a song called "Zaidee's Gift" in her memory.

At the luncheon, attended by over 130 from the Ormond community, Allan spoke of the foundation and of the need for the community to get behind the cause and assist those who were waiting for transplants.

Ormond Amateur Football Club welcomes all those from the VFA, whether football supporters or not to show their support for organ and tissue donation by purchasing a pair of Zaidee's Rainbow Shoelaces.

For information on Zaidee's Rainbow Foundation itself contact Allan Turner on 0412985211 or visit the Foundation website: www.zaidee.org

MELEES - BEWARE A MELEE IS

• Did You Hear?

Which well known umpiring identity has been forced the "walk the extra mile" after losing his licence for being "a little bit over"? With the risk of being reported for using abusive language towards an umpire, I must say - "bloody idiot!!"

• Did You Hear? - Part II

A number of high profile names being registered this week across a number of sections in case they become available later in the year. Stay tuned.

• Coaches Leading by Example

A number of coaches in the Amateurs have also applied for playing status before the June 30 deadline for a number of reasons. Some have registered to help their ailing team because of injury, holidays or poor performance. Others have simply been bitten by the bug which has re-ignited their passion to play. One notable registration this week was Whitefriars Coach and VFA Legend Pat Mannix. Pat was forced to retire his distinguished VFA career due to the effects of Chronic Fatigue Syndrome. Now recovered somewhat from the severe effects of this disease, Pat is looking to etch out some more games before completely calling it quits.

• New Ground Signage

The VFA would like to thank Langford-Jones Homes and BOWENS Timber for their support of the VFA though their Ground Advertisements at Sportscover Arena. Both families are long time supporters of the VFA (through Old Haileybury and Old Xavs) and we thanks them for their support of the Association as a whole.

• South Melbourne Presents Scholarship

South Melbourne is holding it's annual Clarke Shields luncheon this weekend where player Sam Atherton will be awarded the Clarke Shields Scholarship. The award was set up by Clarke's widow to help a player who may need assistance for their educational requirements.

Sam is held in high regard around the club as this testimonial from his captain Matt Hannan will attest.

"Sam's quiet domineer hides his relentless passion for our club, his team mates and the game. He is courteous and ruthless at the same time. His desire on the field is second to none. I believe this award will be the encouragement Sam needs to become a fantastic leader at our club. He can and should be a 150 game player. He is a terrific example of what all young players should aspire to."

Congratulations Sam and well-done to all involved with this initiative.

• Parade Honours Past Heroes

Old Paradians AFC celebrated the 40th Anniversary of the OP'S 1966 A Grade Premiership Team at their Past Players Day Luncheon last Saturday. Guest Speaker, VFA Executive Member Tom Brain said it was great to see so many "Green Greats" including John Booth, the Coach of that side after celebrating his 70th Birthday the night before.

There were many players from the premiership side in attendance and also Parade Legends from the 70's, 80's and 90's. Tom actually attended the school during this successful period in the OP'S history and enthralled the large audience about his escapades at Parade before duly honouring the Team of 1966.

Brian Weyman responded on behalf of the team, before introducing John Booth who spoke passionately and humorously about the club and what it has meant to him over the years.

Paul Luby was also presented with his Life Membership by President Sean Simpson. Another highlight of the Luncheon was a terrific one on one interview by Ryan Murray which gave a great insight into the thoughts of current OP'S Captain David "Rowdy" Boundy.

Pam and Tom Brain would like to thank all at Parade for the reception they received and the hospitality they were shown. Special thanks go to Sean and Peter Simpson, the irrepressible Peter Gilmartin and everybody else involved for helping to make the day such a success for the Past Players and especially the 1966 Team.

... Retrospective

by Geoff Reilley

5 YEARS AGO - 2001

In Section D2 the final four may well have been settled after 10 rounds. Mentone Amateurs were undefeated on top, Salesian and Williamstown were second and third respectively. Parkside were fourth but 2 games plus percentage clear of fifth place, even after copping a hiding in this round at the hands of Mentone, 25.11 to 9.3. Salesian and Williamstown also met in this round with the result maybe indicating who would be the best to eventually challenge the mighty men from Mentone! After an even opening quarter, Williamstown played some great running football and although the Salesian lads never gave it away the Towners won 18.11 to 14.9 and looked to be the best challengers to Mentone based on results to date. Best players – Twist (4), Ferris, Gilmartin, Monkhurst, Williams (4) and Featherston (Williamstown) and Bobetic, Stevens, Campbell, Brown, Grace (3) and Sutherland (Salesians).

In Section D3 the top four had yet to be settled but Fitzroy Reds were hot favourites and undefeated after 10 rounds. South Melbourne Districts, one of the challengers for a top four spot, came up against second placed Bentleigh but following Bentleigh's victory South's task looked more forlorn. Bentleigh burst out of the blocks with a 9 goal to one opening term and did not slow down in the second quarter to have the match totally under control by half time, twelve goals up. The final score of 24.16 to South's 6.12 confirmed Bentleigh as main challengers to the Reds. For the winners, D Martin, A Pittito, Henry, Eyles, Ireson and Mickleston were the best six. South named D'Andrea, King, Stepnell, McFarlane, McGee and Luxford. The Senior Squad for the coming match against the Victorian Country Football League had been named and would compete for the "Brian Molony Cup". Those selected to wear the 'Big V' were Adam Simpson (MHSOB), Andrew Ramsden, Lincoln Reynolds, Matthew Greig, Chris Frost, Glenn Hatfield, Colin Phillips (Old Trinity), Mark Browne, Glenn Cox, Bernard Dineen, David Waters (Marcellin),

10 YEARS AGO - 1996

It had been a tumultuous time in A Section with the Old Xaverians (ninth on the ladder) having recently replaced their coach Simon Meehan with Nick Bourke. Against Old Melburnians the Xavs made their newly found form clear to all, especially their opponents by trouncing the third placed Old Melburnians 27.16 to 14.12. A Section scribe, Don Blackwood, stated 'The change of coach factor shouldn't account for that victory, but Xavs took the bit between their teeth'. Don also reminded us that ironically the turnaround occurred against the last A Section club to replace their coach during the season (1995). Dan Richardson kicked 5 for the Xavs and Wood, Holmes, Jones, Ockleshaw, Sassi and Landrigan were outstanding for the winners. Rabbit, Kennedy, Thompson, Theodore, Ellinghaus and Hewitt were best for OM's.

Big turnaround at the Gillon Oval in Brunswick as North Old Boys (ninth) easily accounted for Old Brighton (third) whose journey north over the Yarra left them very lethargic. In perfect conditions NOBS kicked 5 and held Brighton goalless in the first term. The next two quarters were fairly even but NOBS kicked clear again in the last and finished solid winners, 16.12 to 8.14. Gravina (5), Abrahams, O'Farrell, Leigh, Mikunda and McKay were terrific for NOBS. Alderton, Kryzwnik, Nikas, Howdern, Prior and Shippen (5) were strong for the Tonners. Personality Pars revealed some milestones for Paul McDonald (Ormond) 200 games and Ted Van Den Akker (St Leos Emmaus) 300 games,

20 YEARS AGO - 1986

Old Essendon were motoring along nicely in F Section with another comfortable win at the expense of Footscray ITOB 28.23 to 5.1. Essendon had many good players but named Wilson, Willaton, Allan, McKenzie Parker and Egan and Simmons kicked 9. Footscray failed to nominate their best!

Two top four teams in Junior 1 Section, MHSOB and De La Salle competed with MHSOB emerging easy winners at the final siren 26.17 to 14.9 therefore consolidating their second place. Best players – Drummond (8), Matsoukis, Reid, Webster, Wilson, Moody (MHSOB) and Dwyer, Donlon, Smith, McMahan, Lyons, Mannix (De La Salle).

The Victorian team had been successful in Adelaide with a strong win over Western Australia 28.13 to 7.19. Best players were Meehan (4), Considine, O'Brien (9), Gleeson, Mehrten and Kingston for the Victorian team.

30 YEARS AGO - 1976

Old Haileybury were undisputed leaders in C Section and in the match of the day they met their main challenger, second placed Old Melburnians. By quarter time it was almost all over as Haileybury accumulated 7.10 to nothing. In the second term Melburnians kicked 12 behinds and frittered their only chance to make a game of it. The difference was 9 goals in Haileybury's favour at half time. The top side held the margin in the second half with a final score of 12.20 to 5.22. Best players – Code, Curry, Galt, Hattam, Roberts (3), Kane (Old Haileybury) and Gray, Knight, Stuart, Pisanski, Brown, Mitchell (Old Melburnians) In E Section St Kevins Old Boys were playing Commonwealth Bank and it was an appropriate time to acknowledge the outstanding contribution of Les Radford having played 258 games with these two clubs. Les commenced with the Bank's Juniors in 1962. In 10 years with the Bank's seniors Les competed in A, B, C and D Sections. He was the Bank's Best & Fairest in 1970, runner up in the D Section Best & Fairest in 1973 and was nominated for interstate selection in 1968 and 1970. Les was appointed Captain Coach of St Kevins in 1974 and won their Best & Fairest in that season. After handing over the coaching position to Andrew Olie, Les remained Captain of the club and continued to service with distinction.

40 YEARS AGO - 1966

In E Section ES&A Bank met Old Trinity at the bank's home ground, number 2 oval, Albert Park. It was a very torrid affair and the lead changed a number of times during the course of play. The Bank held a 2 point lead at the final break and went on to a 14 point win with some stirring stuff in the heat of battle. Dick Auhl's 3 goals for ES&A were vital and he was ably supported by Bob Virgona, Col Blanch and Jimmy Ryan. Trinity's best were D Cox, Ladner, McLean and C Martin.

The "Ball Briefs" column paid a tribute to Old Brighton's 'blond bombshell', Mark Millis, who turned in his best game for the year. His determination and the brilliance of Doug Wood on the other wing brought their side from behind to win.

50 YEARS AGO - 1956

Three of the leading teams among the five senior sections are no longer in existence in the VAFA. State Savings Bank (A), South Melbourne City (C) and Footscray Technical School Old Boys (D) have since folded although it should be said that the SSB became firstly State Bank (1977), then State Commonwealth Bank (1991) as the State Bank and the Commonwealth Bank merged, then renamed Southbank (1994) and finally became Prahran in 1999. In fact, of the 49 senior clubs in 1956, there are only 23 remaining in the VAFA in 2006!

The Junior Section was proving to be a fantastic section with the four leading teams, Ivanhoe, Ormond, Hampton Scouts and Alphington all on 32 points. Victoria again proved the Premier State by defeating WA, SA and Tasmania in the Carnival in Hobart. Geoff Hibbins (Collegians) earned the Best and Fairest Trophy at the Carnival.

After two weeks cheering on the Soccerroos in Germany, I am back on board. Special thanks must go to the "three amigos" that filled in for me last week.

Review

Westbourne suffered its worst defeat in four seasons as they struggled to match arguably the best side in the competition, Benteleigh. The Demons with superior skill and physicality matched the Warriors all over the park, with Paul Dimmatina and Paul Holmesby starring. Also of note was again Chris Sharpe who is in line for the ton after another bag of goals. West Brunswick easily accounted for the crippled St.Marys in a percentage-boosting win. In a fiery encounter, the Magpies dominated play with Benny Batters starring and Sam Pietsch playing well up forward in what I am told will be his only foray past the HF line for the season. For the Saints Adam Lane and Mark Purcell were valiant but overwhelmed by the classy Magpies.

South Melbourne also won in a canter against an undermanned Swinburne outfit. Jack Cronan put in a big one for the Swans, assisted by the regular contributions of Cheevers, Washington and Aquilina, and the result was never in doubt.

No reports were received from the Kew / UHS-VU or the Elsternwick / Monash Gryphons matches (come on guys, help me out here!!). However, results were as predicted which mean that UHS are now in serious relegation strife while the Gryphons, although going down, have shown they are going to play a part in the formation of the finalists for 2006.

Preview

UHS-VU host Monash in a match that is a must-win for the club. The Vultures still control their own D3 destiny, while the Gryphons are still a mathematical chance to make the finals. For my winner, it is a tough pick as the Gryphons have not won on the road and do tend to find the larger grounds a tougher proposition, while UHS have been competitive against the bottom 4 sides. As such, I am going for the upset and picking UHS-VU to register win number two and liven up the relegation battle for the remainder of the season.

Things continue to go wrong for the Saints, and there will be no respite today against the league leaders, South Melbourne. The Bloods are travelling along nicely at the minute and will be looking to consolidate their lead at the top against the hapless Saints. It is not the result that is in question today, but rather the margin, so I will have a dip at that and say Swans by 79 points.

It is a season defining match today as my preseason (and still current) premiership favorite in Benteleigh travel to West Brunswick in a match that could see the loser drop outside the four. The Demons impressed in their previous encounter with the Magpies, however it is a different proposition at the "House of Pain" with an outfield similar to that of Flemington Racecourse wreaking havoc to visiting clubs. Benteleigh will be looking for further improvement from youngsters Chris Fidler and Brandon Hunt, however, I am led to believe that "Cunning Coach" Hamma may have a few surprises up his sleeve for the visitors. As such, I am sticking with the Pies to win in a cliffhanger.

The tipping does not get any easier as Elsternwick travel to Swinburne in what is a danger game for the Wickers. Elsternwick were made to work very hard last week against Monash, and realistically the result may be decided at the Razorback's selection table in that if Murchie and/or Higgins play, they are a much better chance to win. Given that the former has not played since May, and the latter has missed the last two, I can only presume they will not start and as such will stick with the Wicks in a tight win.

Westbourne host Kew in a match that is a must win for the club considering their fall from the top four. Kew has lifted in these fixtures in recent years, and as such should play above their current ladder position as they attempt to rain on the Warrior parade. However, with a return of a number of Warrior stars, I think that the supply will be plentiful to "Jucka" and he will duly convert a bag as the Warriors march home in a canter to salute for Platters' 200th.

M I M I L E S T O N E S

Marty "Dirk Diggler" Davies celebrates 50 games with St. Marys. The man with the bizarre mutton chops, porno moustache, quiet demeanour and witty one liners has been a great servant to mainly the reserves and is a coach's dream as he can play any position on the ground with aplomb and gives his absolute all every week. Truly liked by his teammates, a well-deserved milestone.

Old Westbourne congratulate Leon Fairfield on 200 great games. Debuting in 1994 as a skinny, long-haired loon, "Platters" quickly became an off-field cult figure. With maturity, fatherhood (and the loss of his wig) the party days are now well behind him. His football feats have been outstanding as the Warriors' defensive anchorman for a decade. A club Captain for five seasons (inc. Premiership Capt) and a B&F winner, Platters gives his all and is a Warrior to rely on. His incredible overhead ability being the standout. Well done to a true gun.

Patrick Hannan plays his 100th game and Ross Mitchell plays his 50th game for South Melbourne this week.

Elsternwick congratulates Melbourne's 'Latté plumber' Marty Cunningham, who polished his boots and did his hair for the 100th time last week. An outstanding general in the backline, Marty only came to Elsternwick in the second half of his career. This has not stopped him from contributing on and off the field more so than most do in a lifetime. Last year Marty juggled coaching the seconds and dominating in a premiership backline, a sensational effort in any language. His dedication and love for the red and black is only matched by his generosity, humble nature and sparkling personality. A true champion in every sense of the word, everyone who has played a game of footy with Marty will be better for it and simply enjoyed being in a team with him. Congratulations Marty as everything, including a milestone like this, that has come your way is more than deserved.

Cairan Higgins plays his 50th game for Swinburne University AFC this week. As a premiership player, Cairan has proved that you don't need a left or right boot to be able to win a flag. Well done Higgs.

Congratulations to Swinburne University premiership player and ex-coach Adrian Fidler and his lovely wife Lara who welcomed the arrival of their first child Tia Amelia on the 6th of June.

The main gate (Glenhuntly Road) is open every match day.

The rear gate (off St. Kilda Street) will only be open when there are no matches scheduled for Elsternwick Park No. 2 Oval.

When parking in the area behind the grandstand please park in a manner that would allow cars around you to be able to leave.

Players and officials who do not produce tickets at the gates will be counted and the club invoiced accordingly.

Clubs are issued with an appropriate number of tickets for players and officials.

Big Milestones

Some pretty significant milestones in umpiring circles at the moment.

A couple of our goalies slipped quiet milestones past us all last weekend. These two guys intend celebrating these achievements together in the next couple of weeks.

At Marcellin, Kevin (Chilli) Segota umpired his 550th VFA game. A sensational effort Chilli, with a combination of games as a boundary, field and now goal umpire. I wonder how many people can boast A section grand finals as both a field umpire and then as a goal umpire. Chilli missed 2004 with a bad injury, but is now well and truly back and hoping for another big one in September. Not forgetting he's got a bigger one coming up in November – his wedding!

At Camberwell with the Scotchies and Haileybury, another flag-waver, Bernie Hoare quietly (?) celebrated his 500th VFA game in style as well. Bernie, whose 500 games have all been in the goals has become a well-known character at many, many clubs over the years. He celebrated after the game by breaking the VFA's Smokefree policy with one of his field umpires in the change rooms and was later presented with a bottle of wine by the Old Scotch Football Club. Thanks, Mac. We can all look forward to that joint celebration in a few weeks time.

And we've got one of our veteran field umpires clocking up his 400th VFA game today. David (Ball Tearer) D'Altera will be celebrating the big day at Allard Park for the D4 clash between North Brunswick and Albert Park. "Tearer" will be running with his old mate Kenny Brewer. Tearer joined us from the VFA in 1985 with the legendary Ronnie (OFTS) Smith. He maintains his fitness by running in school games during the week as well as games with the Yarra Valley juniors. Due to a few overseas trips it's taken Tearer a while to get there, but he can now be proud of being a member of the 400 club. Tearer mentions his win of the "Andy Carrick Award" in 2003 as one of the highlights of his career. Well done Tearer, all at the VFAUA wish you well for the big day and we're sure you'll enjoy the "pleasantries" afterwards. We also appreciate the hard work that yourself and others do in supporting us all by running around in the lower grades week after week. If you have an upcoming milestone or any other interesting news, please let either of us know and we'll inform the troops via this column. As a reminder our email addresses are sue\_leah@dodo.com.au or Steve.McCarthy@infotech.monash.edu.au

Unfortunate record creates debut

Due to all sorts of reasons, excuses and last minute injuries we had a record high number of unavailable umpires last weekend. Over twenty-seven umpires were unable to turn out for us, putting our boss Brian Goodman – Manager, Umpire Operations under extra stress he really didn't need. Luckily he could turn to his office colleague, the VFA's Jeremy Bourke – Manager Football Operations to don the whites and help us out by running an under 19s game down at Parkdale. Thanks Bourkey, maybe a few more members of the VFA Administration or Executive could help us out again in the near future. Hopefully this flu epidemic will pass and all the university students can return to Melbourne to relieve the pressure this weekend.

RESPECT THE UMPIRE – RESPECT THE GAME!!

Primary Edge Umpire of the Month - May

Robert O'Gorman – Up and coming young Umpire who was rewarded with the U23 Representative Match on June 4. Small in stature but making a big impression.

Primary Edge Umpire of the Month - June

Russell Davidson – Leads by example with fitness, commitment and attitude. He was rewarded with the U19 Representative Match in Queensland.

D4 SECTION

by Ed Sill

First up, congratulations to D4 umpiring legend, Dave D'Altera who celebrates his 400th game with the North Brunswick V Albert Park clash. A job well done!

Half way mark and school results are in.

Eltham A+ : Plenty of class across the park. Great semesters work.

Power House A : Consistently in the top echelon. Proven performers

Hawthorn B : Got better as the semester went on.

Box Hill North B : Proven they are in the top half of the class, now need to prove they can match it with the dux of the school

Syndal Tally Ho C : On a good day as good as anyone but plays truant occasionally. Wildcard in semester 2.

Bulleen C : Some stars have missed a few too many days. A bit of luck might see their fortunes change

Albert Park C : Suffered from having to study at a friend's house whilst theirs was being repaired. Expect a better second semester

North Brunswick C- : Slow start but potential there. Can't afford too many mistakes from here

Eley Park C- : Sparkling start before depth started to take its toll. Not out of their depth

Richmond C- : Improved on last year's performance. Continued hard work will eventually pay results.

REVIEW

An injury ravaged Power House managed to draw away from Box Hill North after a close first half. Haseler dominated in the ruck whilst Driessen off a back flank and Edwards up front with six goals were the best whilst Bell and Liston played well for BHN.

Hawthorn managed to keep Albert Park at bay in a dour struggle at Glenferrie Oval. Good start to the Hawks whilst the Falcons never tossed in the towel in a keenly but good spirited affair. Collins and Ridley were the Hawks best whilst Borley and Morgan were AP's best.

Rags to riches for Syndal as they recorded a big win over Richmond. Captain Cachia was dominant for the winners slotting 12 goals whilst Robinson also starred. Once again, Nuske and Speakman were Richmond's best.

A bit of momentum for North Brunswick as they beat Eley Park. Great start for North set up the day who had stars in Pizzari and Robertson. Broadbear and Silvers were the Sharks best.

Match of the day was living up to its billing as Eltham and Bulleen were close at the last break. Bulleen looked to have the momentum, despite losing some players to the dreaded yellow card. Good sides win from these circumstances however and the Turtles slipped into overdrive to record a solid win. The returning Turner jagged four for the Turtles whilst Foo was yet again amongst his side's best.

PREVIEW

Probably last roll of the dice for both clubs as North Brunswick host Albert Park. As expected North have got on a bit of a roll in recent weeks and are only two games out of the four. Same for Albert Park who must be rueing the disruption caused by the Commonwealth games. North should win at home.

Eley Park travel to Eltham, desperate to regain some early season form. Not exactly who you would want to bump into in those circumstances! Ten on end (starting to struggle for ideas!) for the Turtles.

Hawthorn host Box Hill North. The Hawks are going along OK at the moment but will be meeting a fired up BHN, eager to retain their top four billing. Really close but maybe Hawthorn just.

Richmond welcomes Bulleen and will be keen to put on a better display than last week. Bulleen will be just keen to get back on the winners list. Hard to see Bulleen being defeated here.

Finally, Syndal welcome Power House in what promises to be an epic struggle. The first clash of the year was a tight one and with the House having a few injury issues, I fancy an upset might be in the offing. Syndal for me!

M I L E S T O N E S

Power House congratulates, Damien Boland played his 100th game for the club last week. This week he is joined by Warde Elliott who plays his 100th game. Damien 'Smithers' Boland has won a Senior B & F and played a pivotal role in our Premiership in 2000. Smithers is a real Mr. Fix It & plays all over the place week in week. A perfect coach's player. Warde has also enjoyed success with a Reserves B & F & a member of two Reserves Grand Final sides. Warde, better known for his tough, hard approach to the game that many an opponent over the years has finished the game with more bruisers than kicks. Well done to the both of you from all at Power House.

Bulleen Cobras congratulate David Trinchi on his 150th. A former captain who is always hard at the ball, his commitment to the club over good and tough times has never been questioned. Hopefully that elusive premiership will come soon.

Also from the Cobras, Ian Mcleod played his 200th in Round 7. Another Bulleen 'lifer' who has given the club great service both on and off the field. Dangerous around goals and never short of a word – particularly to the umpires! Congratulations from all at Bulleen.

Albert Park congratulates Paul Shoppee on his 300th game as player, coach and club Life Member.

North Brunswick congratulates Sandy Famulari on reaching 100 games. Lost to the game for a few years, Sandy has been a welcome inclusion to the North Brunswick backline and the club in general. A well liked and affable young man, his attack on the ball and the man is never questioned. Often playing on opponents out of his weight division, his application and concentration on the task at hand is well respected. His ability to make position and run off his man when necessary makes him a safe option in clearing the ball out of the backline. Everyone at Allard Park congratulates Sandy on his milestone.

F.I.D.A. REPORT

Well here we are, round 7 of 2006, on the short path down to the finals. First and foremost, congratulations to all teams on their excellent performances in the games so far, the boys have really turned around and played some good, hard footy.

This week at Elsternwick we are hosting four games; three division 3 games and one division 1 game.

Port Colts 2, the second side in division 3, are playing out of form Mazenod 2; who, coming off a bye are hungry to get back in the swing of things in a hope to make it into the top four and give themselves the momentum needed to play finals footy.

Mazenod 1 should continue their great form and pull away with a win against bottom of the tally Lara in 1st division.

Both Oven and Murray Jets teams should be too strong for their opposition Mambourin Tigers who play O & M's 1 and Moonee Valley who play O & M's 2, and secure their spots on top of the ladder, in third division and give them that extra push to propel themselves into finals just a few weeks down the track.

AT HOME THIS WEEK

Kananook 1 plays host to 2005 premiers Ballarat, which should go down as match of the round, with both sides in superb form with Kananook trying desperately to stay at the top in 1st division and Ballarat just as keen to knock them off and go back to back premiers and attempt to move ahead of Mazenod and plant themselves in second spot.

At the end of the day Kananook should walk away with the four points, but only after a nail biter.

Kananook 2 takes on the formidable force of Port Colts 1, who stand at 6 wins 0 losses and are most likely to carry on this tradition this weekend.

Bulleen Temp come up against the undermanned Maribyrnong Bulldogs, who are stuck down at the bottom with things looking grim once again for the boys this weekend, as Bulleen are showing good form and will be a tough task to overcome on Sunday.

And last but not least, Parkside take on the Boxing Kangaroos from Broady, a very likely scenario is that both teams will throw everything at one another as both sit middle of the range and a good strong win will be exactly what they need to give them the push in a bid to play finals in 6 weeks time.

This week Broadmeadows 1 and Ringwood get the rest, and the four points.

UNDER 19 (1)

The half way mark passed quietly. Several teams have a head of steam while many are running on a treadmill slowly coming to a stop. "I think I've got the black lung pops...its not very well ventilated down there", has been heard coming from such teams as SKOBS, Collegians and good old BV – all of whom are battling the cellar right now.

REVIEW

Old Scotchy pulled off win number three for the year, beating an inaccurate Collegians by twenty points. Ben "Dim" Sims was good for the winners, while Nick Lawrence was steady for the losers.

BV kicked three goals ten and ended up just three goals askew of Marcellin. Improving every week, Dean Scholes, and Devor Lucavic played well for the losers.

In surprise of the round, Uni only just scrapped over the line against SKOBS. The holidays are hitting hard by the sounds things. Could be a tough few weeks down at the main.

Xavs assumed second spot by thumping Rupo. Dom Quinn was BOG for the Xavery while Rupo are relying on too few each week. The name Matt Quigley coming to mind. Mental note: shut M Quigley down and Rupo may prove far easier to beat in the future.

In the last game of the round De La put pay to St Bernards in comfortable fashion continuing their impressive form.

PREVIEW

Match of the round will see Rupo travel to Waverly Park up against top of the table De La. Should be a cracking game but the leaders will hold on for a good win. St Bernards need to chalk up a win to stay in touch of a finals birth. A comfortable win over Collegians should do the trick. Meanwhile back at the ranch, Marcellin host Uni Blues. Crunch game for both, but it's an upset for me - Marcellin taking advantage of the Uni exam period.

In other games, Xavs will run over BV and Scotch to boot SKOBS into next year.

Lock of the week - Portugal to beat England. Keeping it simple but there was too much lacquer on that thing last time in. Any feedback to beatonc@tabcorp.com.au. Happy punting!

REVIEW

The Panthers-Wellers clash was an 8 point thriller, with Carey holding on after a late Camberwell charge. The top two sides battled in a physical slugfest that saw Parade jump to an early lead, however, several spiteful incidents allowed the OMs to finish victorious. Parade now know they can match it with the best, even for a half. In a low scoring affair the Blacks narrowly conquered a very inaccurate Trinity by 3 points. Caulfield won the ham against the Friars, while Brighton took care of the Sharks at home.

MID-SEASON REVIEW

Sharks - 4/5. Only unit to have knocked off the top side, but need more consistency to play finals. Brighton - 4/5. Like the Sharks, Tonners haven't been convincing, winning in rounds 5, 6, 7, but then going down to the bottom side. Camberwell - 5/4. Up & down, but have been able to hold fourth. Though, with contenders on their tail, seem apart from top 3. Raiders - 7/2. Still my flag roughie. Surprising Carey and giving OM a scare, this young side has the talent across the board to at least move up next year. Caulfield - 3/6. Fielders are struggling and pose no real threat. OM's - 8/1. Powerhouse, excluding the hiccup in round 8. Favourites. Panthers- 6/3. Same situation as Parade but should have beaten OM. The flag is within reach if Bull and Elliot continue to fire. Trinity - 1/8. Disappointing, will be hoping some good prospects come through schoolboy footy. Blacks - 5/4. Started strong, but fell off against stronger sides. Will only be able to knock the Wellers out. Friars - 2/7. Dismal. Showing early potential, have succumbed to losing players to the senior side.

PREVIEW

The second half of the year starts as the Blacks take Beaumaris by 12 points. Parade will have no problems reversing their Round 1 loss to the Fielders. Melburnians will have their way with Brighton, in a 40+ point annihilation. The second Bulleen derby will have the same result as the first. Carey by a lot. While the Wellers will find some form away, when they travel out to the sticks to play the Friars.

UNDER 19 (3) REVIEW

A second quarter blitz by Oakleigh saw them dismantle another top four challenger in Ormond and stay atop of the ladder undefeated. The boys from Scammell Reserve have every reason to feel confident of finals success later in the year, and if they keep their core group of players together, they will be mighty tough to knock off in a big one. St. Bedes Mentone is the obvious challenger, and despite their loss to Oakleigh earlier in the season, on any given day this team could do anything. An easy win against Emmaus St. Leo's sees them retain second spot, while the team that is 'red-hot' at the moment, Old Ivanhoe, accounted for MHSOB. The Grammar boys will be looking to take their winning mentality all through the season and into the finals, and they are not without a chance of knocking the top two from their perch. La Trobe will be sniffing around for that elusive fourth spot Ormond currently hold, and a win against Old Essendon has seen them string a couple of wins together. Benteigh also want that fourth spot, and while Ajax at home proved an easy task last weekend, they will need to lift against teams above them on the ladder.

UNDER 19 BLUE REVIEW

Mazenod hosted Powerhouse/Sth. Mornington in an early start at Central Reserve and it was a game of two contrasting halves. Mazenod shot out of the blocks kicking eight goals to one in the first half to set up their 46 point win, however, a very gallant opponent in Powerhouse/Sth. Mornington actually outscored Mazenod in the second half. Mazenod's Bogar led the way up forward with 5 goals whilst Klavins and Davis each kicked 3, while Smith and Stanley provided Mazenod with scoring opportunities all day. O'Brien was best afield for Powerhouse. De La thrashed a hapless Monash at home in a great team effort, while 6 goals from Jesse Prowse and 5 from James Dodd saw the Old Mentonians take care of Oakleigh Clayton. Sajenko tried hard for the visitors. Hampton were morals to beat Parkdale when I jumped off them last week and the one tip I got wrong came from this game. Hopefully the win can lift the boys from the bay to play some quality football for the remainder of the season. Old Haileyburians had the week's rest.

UNDER 19 RED REVIEW

Cross and Stewart dopped 6 each for Aquinas in their 179 pantsing of the Woodsmen. Rupo have passed the point of no return as far as respectability goes. The Bullants took care of the Westies in a 99 point trouncing at 'TAJ'. Pete Voglis booted 8. Therry crawled in against the Old Saints by 3 points in the round's closest, while the top of the table clash saw the Reds run out 21 point winners in a tough contest. Halliwell kicked 5 for the victors, while 'MC' Lee added 3 for XAVS.

MID-SEASON REVIEW

Aquinas – 7/2. Have been solid, knocking off the league leader early. Sitting in the 4, but not sure they are a premiership contender. Therry – 5/4. Have been up and down. Round 7 drubbing by the Bullants showed flaws. Can still make finals. NOBSPC – 3/6. Good re-entry into the comp. Have proved they can play but not quite in the mix. Bulleen-Temp – 5/4. After a slow start, have been able to stamp claim in the 4. Good midfielders and strong forwards, will hold them in good stead should they make it. Fitzroy – 8/1. Apart from the Aquinas loss have been unstoppable. Ligris has been fantastic. Xavs – 7/2. 2nd in their competition return. Lee looks to have the goods and they will again battle with Reds come finals. Westbourne – 3/6. Disappointing thus far. Seem to hold the same position on the ladder year after year. Rupertswood – 3/6. Have lost the plot. Haven't been able to play their natural game since Round 1. Kew – 4/5. Biggest let down to date. Originally, championed as a premiership contender, have dropped off the raider. Midfield needs to improve to make finals.

PREVIEW

Rekindling memories from Round 1, Kew should get back on the winners list against the Westies by 4 goals. The Bullants will turn their 7 point loss in R1 into a 25 point victory against the Woodsmen. The Xavs will account for Therry by a generous margin. The Reds should be too much for the Aquinians, but the latter will fight it out and perhaps give Fitzroy a, mini-scare. NOBSPC are at the pub.

CLUB XVIII SECTION

by Norm Nugent

Now that each team has played all competitors, we have a clearer picture of the strength of each team. It seems that few are certain finalists and that a real contest will unfold over the next six rounds to determine who will participate in the final series.

My tipping success rate in Round 9 was 71% as not all matches went the expected way. I found this especially so in Section 2 where only one of my selections saluted.

REVIEW

Section 1

An injury depleted St Bede's/ Mentone Tigers, despite the efforts of coach Mifsud, Beasley, Rose and Kelleher, were no match for Prahran, who ran out victorious by 88 points.

Leaders De La Salle raced to an early lead against Old Scotch, who fought back to within three points in the last quarter before De La steadied to kick the final four goals to give themselves victory by 27 points. The match was of a high standard, worthy of a final. Best for the winners were Matthew Nichol, Aaron Powell and Jonathan Stinear. For Old Scotch, coach Andrew Millar, Dave Johnston and Michael Whytcross played well.

St Kevin's returned to the top four through their 17 point win over University Blues, who are steadily falling down the ladder.

Old Melburnians put themselves right up with the leaders through their 60 point win over Old Xaverians 2. Old Xaverians' victory over Mazenod by 80 points came despite spirited endeavour by the vanquished.

Section 2

MT Lilydale proved me a really poor judge because they recorded a 56 point win over Old Brighton at Brighton Beach Oval... never an easy place for a visitor to win. Surely now we know the easternmost side in the competition is a sectional power to be reckoned with.

St Bernard's found form (and confounded me) with a 40 point win over University Blacks, who nonetheless cling to fourth place. Coach Andrew Vinacombe was pleased with the fact that all of his players contributed to the victory. Best were Couch, Saleme, Catherall and Vassallo.

Collegians had a percentage building victory over Therry Penola by 94 points.

The Fitzroy Reds versus Monash Blues match started at a furious pace as each team struggled to gain the ascendancy. For the first half, won by the Reds by three points, each defence was dominant. At half time, Monash coach Luke Columbies stung his players to perform better, which they did. At the last change, Monash led by twelve points. They finished the stronger and won by 28 points to strengthen their claim to Premiership favouritism. Best for Monash were Paul Coughlin, Gavin Prendergast, Jarrod Parsons and Matthew Johnstone.

Marcellin forfeited to Whitefriars, who won a "scratch match" by 51 points.

Section 3

Old Geelong defeated La Trobe University by 33 points at Como Park.

In the morning match, Old Trinity proved too strong for Beaumaris and won by 17 points to consolidate their top four status.

Old Essendon Grammarians defeated a depleted Emmaus/ St Leo's by 54 points. The Old Essendon performance pleased their leadership group, who look forward optimistically to the remaining games. Best for Old Essendon were Sam Evans, Chris. Grant (the Bulldogs didn't play!), John Knox and Jeffrey Walker.

"-" results weren't received. Any discrepancies may be due to non-submission of results by clubs.

Caulfield Grammarians were untroubled to defeat North Old Boys/ St Patricks by 64 points.

Fitzroy Reds scored over Old Scotch by 68 points at McHale Stadium. The Reds were well served by William Watson (a good test cricket name), Tony Jackson and Daniel Barr. For Old Scotch: ruckman James Barnett (a famous O.S. name) and Phillip Ryan were best.

PREVIEW

Section 1

The result of the Old Melburnians and Old Xaverians match should be much closer than that in Round 1 as the O.M.s are close to a top four place and as the "Crocodiles" would love to maintain the double chance. I select Old Xaverians to win.

Leaders De La Salle defeated third placed Prahran by fifteen points in Round 1 and should be able to do so again today. The talent in the Prahran team is beyond question but their match fitness against strong opposition has been proven suspect over many seasons. Hence my selection of De La Salle.

Now that St Kevin's hold a top four position, they can see off a challenger today by defeating Old Scotch, which I select them to do.

Since Round 1 when University Blues defeated Old Xaverians 2 by fifty five points, their form has slipped. Today, without any great confidence, I select Old Xaverians 2 to win their second match of the season.

St Bede's/ Mentone Tigers opened with a victory by nine points over Mazenod. Neither side has enjoyed much success since and today, at home I select St Bede's/ Mentone Tigers to win despite their run of injuries.

Section 2

At home, Fitzroy Reds have the chance to consolidate after successive defeats. I select them to repeat their first round victory over Old Brighton, although not by sixty six points.

Mt Lilydale still can grab second spot so I expect them to defeat University Blacks again today to establish a clear psychological advantage should the teams meet again in a final.

Collegians have improved greatly since they went down to St Bernard's in Round 1, whereas St Bernard's have not played consistently. The result, which could have a marked bearing on the composition of the final four, I expect to be in favour of Collegians who should move into the four as a reward.

Whitefriars should have the talent to defeat Therry Penola at home and so remain a serious threat for the final four.

Monash Blues should again record a big win over the hapless Marcellin, who face another long trek south east.

Section 3

Fitzroy Reds should possess sufficient talent to defeat Old Geelong.

Beaumaris faltered last week but they should be able to defeat La Trobe University by day or evening, depending on when and where this game is played.

Old Trinity visit Old Essendon for a potential final preview. Leaders Old Essendon won by seven points in Round 1 and will be confident at home. Trinity won well last week to maintain third spot, but I wonder if they bolstered their side with A Reserve players? Old Essendon are much more comfortable at home on their smaller ground and I select them to win as Old Trinity prefer wider spaces to exploit their speed.

Emmaus/ St Leo's travel North West again to play North Old Boys/ St Patrick's, who lost in Round 1 by fourteen points. Emmaus/ St Leo's have a great chance to edge closer to the four with a win today. I expect them to do this.

Caulfield Grammarians should again defeat Old Scotch to maintain their top four billing.

Team Managers.

OVER 35?

Still want to play Aussie Rules?

FEDERAL BAYSIDE SUPERULES is looking for players NOW!

- Missing your footy but can't commit to full time training and playing every week?
- Always wanted to play with a mate or a brother but never had the opportunity?
- Maybe you would just like to get fitter, what better way to do so than having a kick!

If you are 35 or over, or turn 35 anytime this year, then you are eligible to play Superules Football OR if you are 40 or over then you are eligible to play Masterules Football.

What's Superules? The Superules competition is played every second Sunday. In total, there are 11 matches plus finals each season. Federal Bayside Superules has been in the Victorian Metro Superules Football League since its inception in 1982. The club plays its home games at the Hampton Football Club, Peterson Street Reserve in Highett (Mel 77 B8). It doesn't matter what team or league you have played for in the past, everybody is welcome at the Federals!

So, if you would like to be a part of a sociable club and really enjoy playing footy, then come along to training on Wednesday nights at 6:00pm, or contact Andrew Howes on 0425 768 407 or Paul Housden on 0408 031 116.

2005 saw Premiership success for the Federals! GO FEDERALS!
Find out more about the club at www.federal.mafv.com
