

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

by Bruce McTaggart

Having the opportunity to write the editorial for the Amateur Footballer this weekend gives me the opportunity to do a something of update about the VAFA in 2006.

As I go about my day to day activities, I am asked constantly "how are the Amateurs going?"

I almost invariably reply that, in my opinion, the VAFA continues to go from strength to strength. This is shown not only by the standard of football through all the grades – as good, if not better than it has ever been. It is also shown by the fact that our Under 19 competition grows stronger and more popular, and by the fact that our Club XVIII is the envy of other leagues, in that it provides the opportunity to many "part time" footballers to continue to participate. In 2006, we have seen clubs which have been promoted making the most of their opportunities in higher grades, and in recent weeks, we have also seen clubs at the lower end of the ladder recording good wins to give themselves the chance to avoid relegation. Undoubtedly, we have to develop to remain strong, but it seems to me that our principal task is to maintain the attributes that the VAFA presently has – providing excellent football at all levels for all who want to play, in an atmosphere that encourages participation both on and off the field, and providing the opportunity for all players to fulfill their potential as footballers.

We complete this year's representative football this weekend with our Under 23 game against South Australia. While the results in 2006 have not been as good as we might have hoped, the strength of representative football continues to grow. The WAAFL Under 23 team defeated us quite soundly in June, and although that result, if taken in isolation, is somewhat disappointing – we play to win - that is a much better result than the extremely one sided result that occurred some years ago at Subiaco when WA failed to score a goal (and which led to the development of the Under 23 competition), and which in turn led to the opportunity for an All-Australian side to tour Ireland at the end of 2005 – another venture that the Australian Amateur Football Council intends to continue. Similarly, the fact that our Under 19 side was beaten by an AFLQ Under 21 side in drought breaking conditions in Brisbane was, in some ways, secondary to the fact that we now have the opportunity to establish an ongoing relationship with the AFLQ, and to provide our Under 19 players with strong representative football each year. Our only success was in the game against the Southern Football League, under master coach George Voyage, and then we only just scraped in.

We are committed to continuing representative football, as it provides our players, and in particular our Under 19 and Under 23 players with the opportunity to play at the highest level possible with in the Amateurs, to showcase their talents and to go back to their clubs as better players.

Enough of the boasting about the VAFA – but then again, why shouldn't we? Good luck to all our C-D4 clubs who are playing today, in games that will almost invariably impact on final or relegation (or in many instances, both – the beauty of the system), and good luck to each of the teams and the players playing for their state at Sportscover Arena. May the better side win, although it is clear that football, and in particular amateur football, will be the winner.

REP MATCH PREVIEW

by Tom Brain

The VAFA Under 23 Representative side eagerly await their clash with the SA AFL at Sportscover Arena today.

The final game in a busy and perhaps disappointing Representative year for the VAFA with only the A-D4 side coached by George Voyage thus far greeting the judge.

The Victorians will be out to make amends and restore some pride after a fairly dismal performance against WA where they lacked the physical presence to handle the stronger bodies of their opponents and did not seem to have the answers to the challenges that were thrown at them.

A jolt back to reality is what any side needs to spur them into action, and Frank Dunell and his coaching panel have left no stone unturned to ensure that the lack of responsibility and dignity for the jumper shown in the previous game will not be on show today. A committed, hard at the ball Vic side will be on display.

A training camp at Jan Juc last weekend has made the players strong in their resolve to play for each other and their state.

Injuries to some key players have forced a couple of changes to the side, lessons will have been learnt and some height and marking power is sure to be added to a side that will be keen to turn the small v tag they are now wearing back into a Big V.

Make no mistake however, the Bob Cross led SA will not make things easy for the home side. Considering they are young and still developing and don't have the same physical size as their WA counterparts, they will be encouraging their players to run and use their skills, which should mean a free running open style of football from both sides well suited to the vast expanses of Sportscover Arena.

The VAFA'S Tim McKinnon and Huw Lacey form a strong leadership group and must lead from the front, while SA Captain Ric Giles and his deputies Anton Geradis and Simon Brooks are sure to be doing their best to lead their side and unravel any of the Vic's plans.

SA boast some good players in defenders Jacob Selfe and Toby Bowman who will need to be at their best to handle the likes of Brett Sinclair, Matt Savige and the season's sensation, Matthew Handley, who certainly give the Vics plenty of firepower up forward.

In the middle, Robert Baddeley will need to continue the form from his impressive debut and feed the ball to Lacey, Damien Rayson and Charlie Tallent who will come up against a couple of talented SA midfielders in Chris Radetti and Greg Farr. These SA players will endeavour to get the ball down quickly to talented forward Paul Christoris who is sure to give the VAFA defence a few headaches with his fast leading and accurate kicking.

SA's aim is to run the ball and be more effective with their entries into their forward line. This is the key to them winning the game, but this may just play into the hands of the Vics who, when on song play this type of game to perfection.

In what should be another terrific showcase of U23 Representative Football, the Victorians stung by the happenings of a month ago will come out like a wounded bull, with a much more committed effort, and will attack the ball with feeling, will play on at all costs, will take risks, as they set out to make amends and restore some pride in themselves and the competition.

This coupled with the home ground advantage in front of their family and friends sees me tip them to just pip their young South Australian visitors who nonetheless will take the game right up to their hosts.

Enjoy your day.

Ordinarily it's the premiership quarter which sees winning sides making their moves. However on the weekend, it seemed most waited until the final change to click into gear. Is this a case of mid-season fitness fading for some sides?

All and sundry agreed that Parkdale were too good for The OC on the day. After winning the toss and kicking with the wind in the 1st quarter the Wellers lead by 12 points at the first break. From then on it was all Parkdale as they won the following 3 terms by 5, 4 and 8 goals respectively. For Old Camberwell, Mark Jury and Steve Harrison were hard workers all day, whilst Ben Craven was switched from the backline to provide a focal point with 3 goals. The Vultures feasted in the final term

North Old Boys/St Pats College belted out the song and drank the bar dry after a crucial win at Gillon Oval. It was a hard fought victory which was built on the back for 4 goals from Brandt Fleming and the continued form of Glenn Maxton and their two "Half Team of the Year" boys in Heath Maplestone and Scott Sleep. After several good reserves performances, Lachlan Batt shone in his return to the Rovers senior side, and was ably assisted by Sam Parkinson and Gerrard Woods.

A huge crowd flocked to Tigerland to watch STBMT put Old Paradians to the sword. Brenton Schwarze debuted for the home side (supported by his AFL-playing brothers in Troy and Ben), and his team-mates didn't disappoint, racking up a 116 point win. Midway through the second term, Parade were only a goal adrift, but sparked into action when Luke Wintle left the ground and went on a rampage thereafter. Anthony Scafidi put in a stellar performance with 37 touches, shaded only for BOG honour by Paul Wintle who ruck-roved tirelessly all day. On a dark day for the visitors, Brett Dintinosante justified his return to the seniors with 3 goals, and Adam Curran put in another outstanding performance. Monash are well and truly in their mid-season slump after Ash Russell's 8 goals for Ormond sent them packing by 40 points. The Monders again started brilliantly with Mick Miller and Simon Kelleher dominating. In the second and third terms, Monash chipped away to within striking distance, thanks again to Aaron Williams in the ruck, Michael Davidson off half-back and "The Freak", switching into the middle to generate a bit of run, finishing with 4 goals for the game. Still, once they were threatened, Ormond settled and kicked away to assert their superiority.

Outrageous scenes at Brunswick Street where AJAX refused to give in when all seemed lost and pinched a miraculous victory from the jaws of defeat (I've been waiting all season to throw that one in). With 3 players off for the game in the first quarter, another off to hospital, and looking at fielding 16 fit players for the second half, the Jackas seemed out of calculations. The Reds had a slight breeze advantage going into the last and, only trailing by 4 points, were primed to finish off the better. With minutes remaining, Damien Ritchie had bagged 3 and Tim Davis was back to his best as the Reds surged to a 22 point lead. Then it all went pear-shaped.....

From out of nowhere, AJAX turned the tables and took total control. Jason Israelshon and Elliot Janover proceeded to launch attack after attack and, whilst Aaron Bloom's new boots were proving troublesome, Anthony Rosen snapped a miracle goal but the proverbial dagger through the Redders heart was delivered by debutant Warren Sevel. In a Boys Own Annual display, Sevel marked strongly and calmly slotted a Stephen Kernahan-esque mongrel from 30 m out to snatch the lead, and the all-important 4 points. Ouch!!!!

Tips

It'll be a desperate Rovers unit hosting a Monash side which is slipping out of calculations. Can the Students arrest their (negative) development? Methinks not - Hampton Rovers by 21 points.

Parade will need to bolster their ranks with some inclusions if they're to knock off the ever-improving NOBSPC. If they can't pull this one off, they'll be 2 games and % adrift. Massive stakes here, and I think the ghosts of Garvey will howl as Parade win a nailbiter by 5 points.

Parkdale on the up, Reds on the down, but smarting from last week's shattering loss. Can the Reds steady? I think they prefer the white shorts and should salute over the Vultures by 2 goals.

Ormond should have the midfield advantage and superior firepower to overcome the OC at the GBO by 25 points.

Finally, the Match of the Season (thus far) looms large on Sunday as an AJAX unit, which is continuing to overcome injuries and silence the doubters, faces their biggest test against the Tigers. The Top Two, at HQ, is bound to be watched by a massive home crowd. Will it be enough??? Nah, they'll be game, but the Tigers will show everyone in C section just how good they really are, and finish up 34 point winners.

M I MILESTONES E S

Monash Blues congratulate Matt Tinkler on 150 games today in the turquoise and silver. Tinx is a terrific ball player who loves it when the going is at its toughest and he can burrow in and create havoc. Well done Tinx on this great achievement and may you grace the Frearson Oval in many more games.

Congratulations to Paul 'Rat' Wintle on his 100th Senior game for St Bedes/Mentone Tigers last Saturday. Rat's return to the Tigers coincided with the improved Tiger fortunes in 2006. The Tigers' 2004 Club Best & Fairest winner, Rat's ability and courageous style has endeared him to his fans at Mentone. Joining him this Sunday for their 100th Senior games are Rat's little brother Michael 'Mouse' Wintle and Dave 'Head' Kinsella. Mouse, like a 'frangipani in the sun' has earned a number of VAFA Representative jumpers, as well as the Tigers Best and Fairest Award in 2002 & 2005. Kinna's journey towards 100 senior games with the Tigers has been longer but just as eventful. Head played with the Tigers from 1992-1998 when his journey left Brindisi Street for interstate, overseas and higher VAFA grades before returning in 2006. A quiet, unassuming type on field and off, Kinna's experience and leadership qualities have shone through as he strives to drive the Tigers forward this season. Well done to all three terrific 100 game players from all the supporters at Brindisi Street.

Chris Hosking and Sam Butcher played their 100th games last week for NOBSPC against Hampton Rovers. Hosk arrived in 2001 from Stawell, establishing his spot in the seniors and becoming known as the best full back in B-grade (some said the VAFA). Since moving to CHB, he has controlled games with his marking and set ups. Not content as one of the competition's best defenders, Hosk tried up forward last year, and dominated. "If only we had a Hosk at each end" was a common cry. Now in his fourth year as VC, Hosk has had another stellar season, as acknowledged by State selectors. He has been one of our best this decade and is also one of the most popular blokes at the club. Well done to the Kildare Kid. Sam Butcher also arrived in 2001 (via Newman College), becoming a vital team member during the famous Juggernaught era. His dodging and weaving runs through the midfield were a joy to watch, and he quickly became the coaches pet of Herald Sun journalist Mark Robinson. Robbo was so moved by his midfield maestro that when asked who his favourite player was he whispered in his husky voice, "definitely Butch". Sam broke through to become a regular senior player as a tagger, and whilst unpopular with some high profile B & C grade midfielders, he has been invaluable for the team. Sam's work off field is something to behold, as the driving force behind the new improved COBs website. Congrats on the century, Sam.

REVIEW

Yarra Valley boosted their finals chances with a 45 point win over fellow finals contender Rupertswood at a chopped up Domeney Reserve. Half backs Sam Savage and Cam Britt provided plenty of drive, which was instrumental in setting up a key victory.

Old Mentonians kept their finals chances alive with a great, come from behind 18 point win over Therry Penola at the Playing Fields, all but mathematically eliminating the Lions in the process. Andrew Forster-Knight and Jason Harmes continued their good form in the Lions' back half.

Old Geelong returned to form with a 70 point thumping of Banyule at R J Brockwell Oval. A good team effort by the Oggers, with the goals evenly spread. Henry Legoe, Nic Casboul and Al Munro impressed once again for Old Geelong.

St Leo's Emmaus gave it a good shake against Bulleen Templestowe at Ted Ajani Reserve, before the Bullants' class shone through, the home side eventually prevailing by 40 points. Phil Amico, Eddie Mitchell and Adam Krebs did well for the Animals.

Prahran were competitive in the first half in their match against Old Carey at Toorak Park, but were unable to sustain that form, eventually succumbing by 53 points. Defenders Dan James and Michael "Ziggy" Scicluna, as well as playing coach Leigh Stafford stood out for the Two Blues, while for the Panthers, Howgate, Laidlaw and Maslin were all influential.

PREVIEW

Emmaus St. Leo's face Therry Penola at the BSG. The wind may have been knocked out of Therry's sails following their defeat to Old Mentonians last week. The Animals will be looking to escape the drop zone and catch the Lions whilst they look vulnerable. Therry themselves are now closer to relegation than the final four. Defenders Andrew Forster-Knight and Jason Harmes are names that have been prominent in recent weeks for the Lions, and will be tested by With home advantage and the Lions in the doldrums, I'm going to tip the Animals today.

Old Carey take on Old Mentonians at Dunshea Oval. Despite being in the friendly confines of home, Carey won't have things all their own way. I anticipate an entertaining contest between Old Mentonians' spearhead Chad Twentyman and Old Carey hard man Chris Battle. In fact, this duel will probably be a barometer of the match in general. Carey's Al Parton and James White played only a half each last week, so should be well rested for what looms as a key game for both prides (or whatever the collective is) of Panthers. Hard to go past Old Carey, so Old Carey it is.

Yarra Valley travel to Como Park for their match against Old Geelong. The Bushrangers have had something of a purple patch lately, and with a few more players expected back during the business end of the season, cannot be dismissed from finals calculations at this stage. The Oggers have been less consistent in recent times, but for their sake last week's win will restore their momentum. Yarra Valley actually won by 50 points in the corresponding fixture earlier in the season, so the Bushies I imagine will be fairly confident. Should be a good game, but I have the feeling the Oggers will be too good. Old Geelong to win.

Rupertswood will be looking to return to winning ways in their clash with Prahran in Sunbury. Rupo have had a nasty case of the wobbles in recent weeks, and looking at the current ladder, appear in danger of being overtaken by Yarra Valley and/or Old Mentonians. This week, especially given the draw, is the perfect opportunity to re-establish some distance between themselves and those chasing them. Prahran I'm sure will take heart from their first half performance against Carey last week, and will look to turn that into a four quarter effort this week. If they do so, Rupo will have a tougher than expected game on their hands. However I think the overall class and talent of the home side should prevail in the end. I'll take Rupo.

Finally, the contest between Bulleen Templestowe and Banyule takes place at Ted Ajani Reserve. The Bears have yet to put together a run of form of any great significance, as shown by their current spot on the ladder. Coming up against a local rival may well bring out their best, as evidenced by their last encounter, where the Bears only lost by six points. On the other hand, the Bullants, after an indifferent start, have been great pretty much all year, and their good run should continue. Bullants for me.

Until next week,

Have a great VAFA weekend,

"The Quill"

M I M I L E S T O N E S

Prahran playing coach Leigh Stafford addresses his players for the 50th time in this week's match at Rupertswood. Leigh, who generally plays up forward, took up the reins at Toorak Park at the start of 2004, joining the club from Balwyn. Congratulations Leigh from everyone at the Two Blues.

Old Geelong's Richard Herd reaches the 50 game milestone today. "Herdy" has been a regular in the reserves backline since debuting in 2003, and is always prepared to get the hard ball. A member of the 2005 reserves premiership, he also managed to get a couple of seniors matches in along the way. Well done Herdy, we look forward to the next 50.

Yarra Valley wish to congratulate Greg "Coutta" Couits on reaching the 100 game milestone. The popular Couitta came up via the U19s and reserves to become a tough and versatile member of the current senior outfit. His main talents come to the fore at club functions, however, where he can boast of four Pub Golf championships and at least one other contentious near miss. The Bushrangers also wish to congratulate former captain and triple premiership player Brad Peake on breaking the club record of 205 games this weekend. "Peakey", who played his 200th game earlier this season, has been in sparkling form on the field this year, and his contribution to the club over the years sees him as a worthy games leader. Well done Couitta and Peakey from everyone at the Bushrangers.

A clutch of milestones for St Leo's Emmaus – firstly, tough, uncompromising on-baller Gavin "Gomez" Simondson, who racked up his 200th game in Round 11 after starting with the U19s in 1995. As well as being a top footballer, he is also a great clubman, the construction of the Animal Bar a monument to the work he has put into the club. Antony Auliso, a straight ahead defender, reached his 150th game. Another graduate of the U19s who started in 1995, his Auliso pasta dishes are famous on Thursday nights. John Gay played his 150th game for the Animals in Round 10. "Stungay" started in the U19s in 1994 and played in the 1995 reserves premiership, and has provided great service in the ruck throughout his career. Nick "Axel" Foley, who played his 100th game in Round 11, began with the U19s in 1998, and is a strong key defender who loves wrestling with opposing forwards. Finally, Chris McCluskey played his 50th game in Round 10. A plucky rover who played with the U19s, he returned in 2004 to continue a family tradition. Well done today from everyone at the Animal Enclosure.

CLUB WAREHOUSE RISING STAR NOMINATION

JARROD CARLSON (MARCELLIN)

Marcellin Old Collegians midfielder Jarrod Carlson is the nominee for the Club Warehouse Rising Star Nomination for Round 11 after his best on ground performance against Old Melburnians last Saturday.

Jarrold is a strapping young man and genuine all round sportsman. As well as being a talented footballer, Jarrold also plays Premier Cricket with Carlton, regularly opening the batting in the First XI.

On the weekend, Jarrold accumulated 33 possessions including 12 defensive stats. He possesses clean, sure hands, has good evasive skills and is a penetrating kick on both sides of the body. Jarrold has been selected in the VAFA U23 squad this year and hopes to represent the association this weekend in their match against South Australia.

While enjoying his footy is Jarrold's main aim, he is also focused on being part of Marcellin's success in the future and ultimately their next A Grade premiership.

Salesian have emerged as a contender for the premiership this season. Peninsula remains out in front and still the one to beat though. Down the other end of the table, wins to Glen Eira and St John's have helped both clubs, whilst La Trobe have been dragged into the relegation battle. This week's games are:

Aquinas OC $1.33 v St John's OC $3.10

Three losses in a row for Aquinas, including last Saturday's 64 point loss to Salesian makes today's home match against St John's extra important. In truth, Aquinas were very competitive against Salesian for the first three quarters, but ran out of legs in the last stanza. Tim Olarenshaw showed great dash on the wing, Trent Harkin was solid in the back pocket and Greg Evans had a good game at centre half back. And, the modest Glen Whitehead continued his good form. The Jocs were back in the winners circle (finally) coming from behind to post their first win since Round 3. Youngster Aaron Abela was impressive in front of goals, and Kane Arnold showed his class. Jocs will have taken some confidence from their win last week, but I feel that Aquinas will bounce back today. Aquinas are Looney's 35 star special. Aquinas by 44 points.

Williamstown CYMS $1.80 v Glen Eira AFC $1.90

Willy nearly caused a major upset against Oakleigh last Saturday, closing to within a kick in the last term before Oakleigh steadied. The rock god Benny Hynes was back to his best, holding leading goalkicker McKenzie to just two majors and Craig Taylor and Shaun McGuinness were good all day. Glen Eira had their second one point victory over Werribee for the season in what was the biggest comeback this season. The Saints trailed by 24 points at three quarter time, and were trailing by just as much with as little as ten minutes to go, before five quick goals in succession gave Glen Eira a much needed win. It was back to the good old days for Glen Eira with the old heads of Steven Dyason and Alex Tsirogiannis combining beautifully in the centre square to give the Saints plenty of drive in the last term. It was great viewing as I snuck into the confines of Packer Park in Murrumbeena late in the match. Big game for both clubs today. Have a hunch that Williamstown will have targeted this match as a must win, and I think they will get it. Willy by 23 points.

Ivanhoe Assumption AFC $2.40 v Salesian AFC $1.50

Only 16 points down at three quarter time against the top team in the league and the Hoes gave themselves a big chance of an upset. However, Peninsula proved too good in the last stanza running away with the victory by 65 points. The early loss of Round Ten Club Warehouse rising star nominee Chris Traeger certainly did not help the Hoes cause, but the Hoes were unlucky not to hold a half time lead as their kicking in front of goal let them down. Hoes spearhead Matt Knight continued his good form in front of goal with four majors, whilst wingman Dan Patience ran hard all day. Salesian were ultra impressive in their 64 point demolition of Aquinas. Salesian showed their depth with both Andrew Thain and Michael Hazell starting on the pine. Ivan Bobetic continued his good form down back and Co-captain Ryan Stevens was inspirational up forward. Salesian look like they are hitting top form, and could be the smokey for the premiership even this far out. I expect them to be too strong. Salesian by 31 points.

La Trobe Uni $2.10 v Oakleigh AFC $1.65

La Trobe will be seething after losing a match they should have won against St John's. Stephen Pruscino was back in form for La Trobe, and Adam Coulter was marking well up forward but coach Zoran Colovic knows that does not equate to getting the four points. Oakleigh did enough to knock off Williamstown at home, but will need to play better today in what looms as a danger match for the Krushers. Peter Holden continued his good form against Willy, and he will appreciate the large surrounds of the La Trobe ground. I have a suspicion that La Trobe will be ready for this match. Ludeman is due for a big match and I think La Trobe can cause an upset, especially if Bromley and McKenzie's influence can be limited. La Trobe by 8 points.

Peninsula OB $1.33 v Werribee AFC $3.10

Peninsula senior coach Mark Glenn's masterstroke move of star forward Shaun Payze to full back in the second half last Saturday worked wonders, but I think he might be back and roaming around the forward line today. Peninsula made hard work of Ivanhoe Assumption for three quarters before a dominant nine goal to one last quarter gave them an easy win. James Coghlan played well in the boggy conditions as did Josh Davis and Eiv Bowen. Werribee had a heartbreaking loss against Glen Eira and will fancy their chances of an upset against the top side today, having already beaten them earlier in the year. Not sure where Dean Whitten was last Saturday, but if Werribee are a chance, they will need him playing as the Lee's cannot do it all themselves. The most interesting aspect of today for the boys from Werribee might be if they can make it back to the Racecourse Hotel in Werribee before the cover charge starts at 10:00 pm. Peninsula to get revenge on Werribee and win by 38 points.

FOR THE LOVE OF THE GAME...

• Last Representative Match for 2006

This Saturday (15th July) sees the VAFA U23 side take on South Australia at Sportscover Arena. This is a must win for the Vic's after their surprise loss to the West Australian's last month. A win will see them remain in second spot or possibly move to the top of the AAFC ladder. A loss will see any chance of the Vic's retaining the AAFC title disappear with South Australia to play two games next year and WA and Victoria playing one each. The table with 3 games to go is as follows:

	P	W	L	Pts	F	A	%
WAAFL	3	2	1	8	243	212	114.6
VAFA	2	1	1	4	151	165	91.5
SA AFL	1	0	1	2	61	78	78.2

• Jan Juc Jaunt

In preparation for their big clash against South Australia this weekend, Coach Frank Dunell and his selection panel took the squad into camp at Jan Juc last Saturday Night. The night provided the opportunity for the boys to get to know each other and to plan for the upcoming match. Although there was strictly no alcohol allowed, plenty of laughs were had and many previously unknown talents revealed. University Blacks big man Matt Savige showed off his fire juggling talents and Old Xavs forward Matt Handley impressed with his word for word rendition of Hamlet. One of the highlights though was Old Scotch's Adam Routledge, whose performance showed that hair clippers can be handy for areas other than the top of the head!!

• The Ammo Show

• Blood Donations Required Urgently

The Blood Bank has reported that donations from members of the VAFA community are down by 200 on those at the same time last year. Also they have reported that donations across the board have been down on last year, leading to a now critical shortage in supply. The VAFA would like to strongly urge all members of the VAFA community to consider donating blood if you have never before, or to continue to make regular donations if you are already registered. Your donation could save a life.

• O'Farrell Retires

Former AFL, VAFA and Old Haileybury star Brett O'Farrell has been forced to retire after complications from an injury suffered six weeks ago. Brett sustained a serious injury to his hip in a marking contest which required reconstructive surgery. During the procedure to repair his hip, doctors discovered that he had also broken his leg in the incident which will require further surgery to repair. Brett is no stranger to injury, having to endure three knee reconstructions during his AFL career and a near career ending knee injury in Round 18 of last season. Brett will now concentrate on his business, Aussie Golf Club, which organises and runs corporate golf days and tours.

• Tribute Lunch for Jack Clancy

There are numerous stalwarts of Amateur football who give magnificent service to their clubs and the game, but the ranks thin a bit if 50 years of continuous service is the measure.

Jack Clancy has done just that for University Blacks and Reds, the MUFC and the VAFA. You name it, Jack has done it. Star player, premiership captain and coach, member of Fitzroy (University)

Reds team of the century, president of both the Blacks and the MUFC, VAFA selector and tribunal member – the list goes on.

The Blacks are honouring Jack's illustrious half century at a luncheon prior to their game against Old Essendon on July 22. It is at MC Labour Park (Optus Oval/Princes Park), so there is plenty of room for a big gathering in air conditioned comfort. Guest speaker is Terry Forrest QC, who will entertain with stories from, among others, his involvement with the AFL tribunal.

The wider VAFA family is already well represented, but if you would like to join those paying respects to one of Amateur football's true gentlemen, contact Blacks president Ray Wilson on r.wilson@bigpond.net.au, or 0418 533 358 (mob) or 9663 3408 (bus).

• Joke of the Week

Two blokes playing golf where getting frustrated at being continually held up by two ladies in front of them.

"Go down and ask them if we can play through", one guy said to the other.

As he walked toward the ladies he stopped, turned around and returned to his playing partner.

"I can't", he said, "one of them is my wife and the other is my mistress. You had better go".

As the second guy headed toward to the two ladies he also stopped, turned around and returned.

"It's a small world", he said.

... Retrospective

by Geoff Reilley

5 YEARS AGO - 2001

In A Section Marcellin regarded its “come from behind” win to defeat Old Xaverians as its biggest win since their 1998 B Grade premiership. For the Eagles it was about as good as it gets; playing at Xavs home ground and against the reigning premiers who were on another winning steak and at top strength. Xavs took the early points with 6 goals to 2 in the first quarter, Marcellin got within 10 points at half time and almost equal Xavs in the third even though kicking against the wind. When McCarthy kicked his fourth for the game for Xavs it looked as though his team may join Marcellin at the top of the ladder but the Eagles had different ideas and absolutely stormed home to kick 9 goals to Xavs’ solitary six pointer. For Marcellin Mark Browne had been an excellent link man as well as a ruckman. Cox and Treganowan (6) were other major contributors to the great victory. Maybe the excellent win by Marcellin’s reserves against the previously undefeated Xavs line-up also provided inspiration? None were better than Gowers, Sassi and McCarthy (4) for the Xavs. Marcellin were certainly looking the “real deal” and now had a 6 point break over second placed St Bernards OC.

Old Paradians congratulated Kevin (KJ) Jenkins on playing his 200th game against North Old Boys in B Section. KJ had commenced his career with OP’s in 1990 at under nineteen level. KJ was a member of the OP’s Jenkins ‘family of footballers’ as father (Ted) was Club Secretary and brothers Adrian and Stephen had all been footballers at the club.

In C Section, Glen Eira consolidated their position in the top four with a win over a persevering Prahran. They remained two games clear of fifth placed St Bedes Mentone Tigers but two games behind the equal leaders, Collegians, Old Essendon and Hampton Rovers. Some undisciplined football by Glen Eira in the first half would not have pleased their senior coach, Paul Beddoe. The half time score, 8.8 to 7.8 in Glen Eira’s favour was due mainly to an excellent first half by Richie Gilmore, one of the most consistent performers in this section. An overall improvement after the main break saw Glen Eira take fuller control to finish 20.15 to Prahran’s 14.10. Other good players to support Gilmore were M Dimachki, Ryan, Hayes-Dewar, Grey and Govan (Glen Eira). Prahran had some committed players who continued to strive throughout the game; namely Pitts, Herridge, Ballard, St Clair, Rhodes and Beech.

10 YEARS AGO - 1996

In E East Section the top four was controlled by old school teams in that region, Aquinas, Yarra Valley and Old Carey although Old Carey were now 3 games behind the joint leaders. Eley Park were sitting in fourth place and there was not much chance for the rest to feature in the finals even with 6 games to go. Aquinas’ goal kicking prowess was again evident against the hapless Swinburne University; final score 23.21 to 4.2. The Livingstone brothers and Cultrera were a very dangerous combination for opponents each week and again contributed to the massive percentage advantage that their team held. Best players – Cultrera (4), J Livingstone (7), Denavi, Phelan, Vankerkhoven, Tarulli (Aquinas) and Swinburnes’ disappointment was confirmed with no one recommended for honors.

Williamstown and La Trobe University were fighting for top spot in E Central Section. The Williamstown boys just managed to hold their one game advantage when they managed to sneak to the front against Old Essendon in a real nail biter and win by the narrowest margin, 9.9 to 9.8. Willy’s crack forward, “Killer” Kurkowski was outstanding with 6 goals and was on top of the section’s sharpshooters with 57 for the season. Lee and Weir were also great for the winners and Hexter, Hutchinson and Steven were Essendon’s best.

The top four looked settled in E South Section and it was a big game at the Pirates’ lair where Peninsula hosted the in form Power House and in the heavy conditions it was going to be close all day. A point the difference at quarter time followed by an excellent second term by Powerhouse that gave the visitors a 2 goal lead set the scene for a thrilling second half. Peninsula then proved their worthiness as ladder leaders when they kicked 4 goals in the bog in the third term. The “House” refused to submit and snatched back the lead in the dying moments before Drew Warne-Smith marked, kicked a behind to level the score and the siren sounded. Great contest by two top teams. Best players – Trewhitt, Dentry, Landry, Angus, Bowen, Marshall (Peninsula) and McCardel, Evans, Friend, Devlin, Richardson, Hall (Powerhouse).

The President’s message in The Amateur Footballer saw John Dillon congratulate all Victorians involved in recent Carnival win in Adelaide. Having lost the Carnival in the previous season the Vics had gone all out to make 1986’s efforts worthwhile. Dominic Spillane (Old Paradians) deserved special mention as Captain and the Coach, John Fisher, was also congratulated for his effort although he insisted that the result was a credit to every player and official that contributed.

In B Section, cellar dwellers, Old Brighton, almost caused the upset of the round in heavy conditions against Uni Blacks at the University Oval. With the Grant brothers leading the way the Tonners grabbed a handy 2 goal lead at quarter time, increased it by a goal at half time before the Blacks were jolted into action to get within 3 point at “orange time”. With a place in the four at stake, the Blacks restricted Brighton to 2 behinds in the last and bagged three goals to win 9.9 to 7.7 after a very tough game. Best players – Warren (4), Marks, Keilar, Doyle, Hyett, Pattinson (Blacks) and Hendry, Tony Grant (2), G Bennett, Peter Grant, Lade, Murray (Old Brighton).

Match of the day in C Section was between Thomastown and Old Trinity, second and third respectively. When the final siren sounded out at Thomastown, the muddied Trinity boys had reversed the ladder position with a very good win, 10.5 to 4.16. David O’Shaughnessy kicked 4 for the winners and their other good players were Norman, Wardop, Dobson, Phillips, Robinson and Alibon. As expected Thomastown stalwarts; Sinni, Pavera, La Rosa, Tony Fellows, Assetta and Agosta were better players.

30 YEARS AGO - 1976

In B Section, Marcellin were hot on the tail of ladder leaders Caulfield Grammarians and made sure they kept the pressure on when they controlled their game against fourth placed Collegians, 14.13 to 8.12. Marcellin enjoyed a brilliant first term with 8.1 to 1.2 and this allowed the control until the final siren, 14.13 to 8.12. Best players – Price, P Cullinan (4), C Mahon, J Crimmins (3), P Gartner, Milaszewicz (Marcellin) and Roach (2), Wagstaff, Mason, Shinkfield, Lee, Nethersole (Collegians). The loss for Collegians meant they lost their fourth place to Old Paradians.

The multi talented Old Scotch Captain, John Anderson, played his 150th game. Best first year player in 1968, followed by club best and fairest in 1969, 1970, 1973 and 1974 gave a fair indication of John’s value to his club. His many skills allowed him to be equally at home in the centre, on the wing or at half forward and the Victorian selectors regularly honored John with state selection.

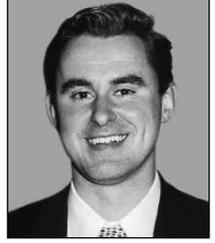

40 YEARS AGO - 1966

No less than 6 top teams were defeated in this round. One instance was in B Section when Ivanhoe at home kept the reins on the highly fancied Kew to run out winners 9.14 to 7.5. Best for Ivanhoe were McWhinnie, Blackwood, Whittaker, Sproule, Atkinson and S Patterson. For Kew; Stokes, Blay, Crowe, Wienert, Clay and Bennett had a ‘red hot go’.

Old Brighton secured a place in the C Section top four when they defeated top team North Melbourne CBC 10.4 to 7.13. Mark Millis, James Agar, Peachey, Walker, Morris and Don Agar were Brighton’s best. Verek, L Carney, Drew, L Murray, B Sheehy and Elderfield were best for North.

50 YEARS AGO - 1956

Old Carey forced their way into the fourth place in E Section after disposing of top side Melburnian Blues, 10.5 to 4.7. Dunshea, Harding, Yuille, Cleary, Bentick, Adamson and Lyall were terrific for Carey. The Blues could only find three good players; Koch, Webb and Secull.

Congratulations to the lads at St.Marys on breaking the duck, and in doing so opening up the relegation battle with 7 games left. While at the other end of the ladder, that win, combined with the downfall of Monash has ensured it is now a 5 horse race for finals action.

Review

As mentioned, St.Mary's registered their first win for the season against Swinburne. Word on the street is that scouts from the Saints watched the Razorbacks last week, and the research paid off in spades. With the Saints' never say die attitude coming to the fore, lead by the unstoppable Patrick Murphy in the middle and combining with the elusive Cam Armstrong, it was a win to behold.

Meanwhile, the Warriors used their second 'get out of jail free' card for the season against a determined Gryphons outfit. While the Warriors took a quarter time lead, the Gryphons totally dominated play for the next two and deservedly went into the final break full of confidence, leading by 21 points. However, coach Fab rung the changes and with Eddo playing the powerhouse role and Tex running rampant the Warriors banged on 5 unanswered goals to keep their finals chances alive.

Kew improved on last week's effort and showed a lot more promise in their defeat to West Brunswick. The Westies got an early break and then did enough to hold on for the remainder of the match. One comment made about the Browns was that they were "the best 3:8 side I've seen in a long time", which really hots up the relegation battle. Best for the Magpies were Sam Peach and Rob West.

The Elsternwick win against UHS-VU was as expected, however, particularly pleasing for coach Dennis Grace was the fact the boys did so with a "horrendous injury list". Grace continued to say that he was particularly pleased with Alan Patey's consistent form and also Nathan Hodskiss who is now taking some powerful marks as he gets fitter.

No reports from the South Melbourne/Bentleigh match, however, the gossip was that it was a cracker of a game with Bentleigh in it until the last quarter. The result pretty much ties up top spot for the Swans with them having to drop three out of the last seven to give up the minor premiership.

Preview

It should be a cold dose of reality for the Saints as the Demons travel to the "Postage Stamp" on the rebound. While they took it up to the league leaders last week, they just did not have what it took on the day, and with percentage likely to play a role in the placings of 2 to 5, today's match takes on increased importance for the club. Apologies to the Saints, but I cannot see you getting close to Bentleigh today, and it is percentage that will be the major interest in the match.

Speaking of percentage, how about those Swannies? Their percentage of 207.98% is second only to B Grade's all conquering Collegians, however, given the glowing comments about Kew last week, it may decrease after today's match. That is not to say the Swans will not win, as they will do this in a canter, however, I am hoping that the Browns can build on last week's momentum and keep it to under 10 goals.

West Brunswick are traveling along just nicely at the minute, however, they face one of their bogey teams in Monash Gryphons who will be shattered after last week's narrow loss. With the Wickers playing the Warriors today, the Magpies have a chance to open up a one game lead on one of those sides and some much deserved breathing space. While I expect Monash to take it right up to the Westies, I cannot see them toppling the lads at the "House of Pain". Westies by under 5 goals.

Swinburne, still reeling from last week's defeat return home to face a deflated UHS-VU side. The Vultures have been disappointing this year, and will be hard pressed to turn around the 3-goal loss they suffered at home against the Razorbacks in Round Three. That day, Higgins was the difference with five goals, and there is little doubt he will be amongst them today again. My prediction? Swinburne by a lazy five goals.

Match of the round is the Warriors hosting the Wickers in what could well decide the finals fate of both clubs. Westbourne were far from convincing last week, while Elsternwick continues to play well despite their growing injury list. On the cold, blustery confines of "Arctic Park II" the Warriors are a 4 goal better side, and the Wickers will need to adjust quickly if they are to match it with their hosts. With Elsternwick welcoming back more of their stars each week, this match will go down to the wire, however, I will stick with the Warriors due to the home ground advantage.

Old Westbourne - The 'Chief', Trav Edwards, dons the boots for the 50th time at Warrior Park today. Adding a touch of class to the senior line-up, Trav has been a fine contributor over 3.5 seasons. Always difficult to man-up on due to his height, pace and deadly galkicking, C.C was rewarded with a premiership in '04. May there be many more scintillating games and much more success.

ELSTERNWICK PARK GATES

The main gate (Glenhuntly Road) is open every match day.

The rear gate (off St. Kilda Street) will only be open when there are no matches scheduled for Elsternwick Park No. 2 Oval.

When parking in the area behind the grandstand please park in a manner that would allow cars around you to be able to leave.

Players and officials who do not produce tickets at the gates will be counted and the club invoiced accordingly.

Clubs are issued with an appropriate number of tickets for players and officials.

Do it for the kids

If you're looking for something a little special to do on AFL Grand Final day this year, here's your chance to experience something different and do your little bit for the community. The Royal Children's Hospital is holding a major fund-raiser for its Neonatal Unit in the form of a Family Fun Day which will be held at Brens Oval in Parkville (the home of UHS-VU AFC). The Neonatal Unit provides highly specialised care to the sickest newborn infants from all over Australia and the Pacific Islands. It supports a UNIQUE group of babies with UNIQUE needs and is the only Unit of its kind that can assist babies who require treatments not available at other Neonatal units in Victoria and other parts of Australia. The day, which will provide all sorts of fun for the kids will also have plenty of big screens around if the mums and dads want to watch the two interstate teams battling for the big prize. Major supporters and organisers with this event are our own Training Supervisor Robert Sneddon and his wife Kerryn. Rob and Kerryn have had first hand experience with the Neonatal Unit at the RCH when their daughter Elise was born in March last year. Unfortunately it was not to be a happy ending as little Elise lost her battle with a serious spinal injury after only 17 days of life. The Elise Sneddon Foundation has been set up in her memory. The Family Fun Day is seeking not only a big crowd, but as many sponsors as possible to assist with the fundraising and success of the day. There are various levels of sponsorship packages available, so if you as part of the VAFA family have a few bucks to chip in, contact Rob on 0423 022 312 or email elisefoundation@optusnet.com.au A worthy cause!

Representative Game

Well done to the umpires who've been lucky enough to be appointed to the VAFA v SAAFL, they are:

Field umpire	Tim Sutcliffe
Emergency umpire	Tim Saunders
Boundary umpires	Matt Jenkinson & Cameron Hoogendyk
Goal umpires	Kevin Segota & Dominic Napoli

A/B Bye

With the rep game on this week we have no A and B Section games which allows the senior squad of umpires to filter down through the lower sections. This is a good opportunity for both clubs and umpires to get used to each other, if teams are looking at finals aspirations they can take the time to get to know each other, look for the way teams play a certain style, and teams, the way umpires allow the game to progress. All this will enhance future games and avoid confusion come finals.

Quote of the week

Comes from Lisa Wardrop wife of umpire Grant Wardrop. When Grant spoke to his lovely wife on the phone about staying back after training to play poker, Lisa asked, "Around what time will you get home?" "When I go out" was Grant's reply. "So you will be home early!" was Lisa's quick come back. Keep him honest Lisa.

Stocktake

A bit of nasty luck for Phil Callil running in a game with Max Wittman at Toorak Park last week. As the coin toss was about to take place on the ground, Max's son and his mate were mucking around with a grid-iron ball nearby. As one of the lads let fly with a place kick Phil just happened to turn around and from about a metre away copped one fair and square in the well you can guess, are your eyes watering? Phil went down in a screaming heap yelling blue murder at the culprit. Was that his umpiring partner Max suggesting that he should stop rubbing them and just count them? He recovered in time to umpire the game. We hope that Phil has enough kids in his family now, as any future prospects in that area may be compromised.

RESPECT THE UMPIRE – RESPECT THE GAME!!

D4 SECTION

The Hawbies record a good win against an injury depleted Power House whilst Box Hill North return to form with a thumping win over North Brunswick. A two game gap has opened up between 5th and 6th and whilst still plenty of games to be won, the likes of Syndal and Albert Park might have to win all 7 from here to make the finals!

Review

With over 20 players unavailable, Power House were up against it as they met an in form and injury free Hawthorn. The House couldn't get into the game with S Avery doing the job on Edwards. Lauletta starred up forward for the Hawks with 7 whilst Hill and Hasler were the best for the House in a game they will quickly put behind them.

Clinker of a game when Eltham travelled to Albert Park. The Turtles managed to hold sway for most of the day before a defiant Falcons outfit stole the lead late only for it to be snatched again by the Turtles! Great game! Blagrove led from the front with 5 goals whilst Galvin was again in great form. Ryan and McIndoe were the standouts for the Falcons.

Morale boosting win for Eley Park as they accounted for Richmond by 6 goals. The Sharks' form had dropped away in recent weeks however nothing like a good win to get the spirits firing. Broadbear and Creswell were the Sharks' stars best whilst Nuske continued his fine form with 6 goals for Richmond. Once again, the 13 goal tally was a positive for Richmond.

Box Hill North recorded a big win over North Brunswick with the size of the defeat the main surprise. Marcakis starred for BHN who were also well served by the returning Penny who slotted 6 goals. The grand veteran Boudoloh was the best for North.

Finally, Bulleen contined their march for the four as they accounted for Syndal Tally ho. Good start for the Sinners however they were gradually overhauled by the home team. Classic 8 point game! Fradkin was great up forward with seven goals whilst Kellett also starred for the victors. Bingham was again amongst the best for Syndal.

Preview

Match of the day sees Eltham host Box Hill North. A bit of a scare for the Turtles last week, however good sides win in those circumstances. Great return to form for BHN however bumping into Eltham at this point is not the preferred option. Riscalla and Galvin are the engines for these sides however the Turtles forward line is awesome and should get them the points.

Power House travel to North Brunswick looking to make amends for a rare lapse last week. One ordinary day can be consigned to the waste bin, particularly when the form prior had been incredibly consistent. On the other hand, North served up their first shocker for the season as unavailability's hit the squad. It has been a season that has never quite kicked for the Brunswick boys and alas hard to see it happening this week, House for me.

Hawthorn host Syndal and will be trying to avoid the big match hangover from last week. The Hawks season has been building and with a low injury count, pressure at the selection table has been immense. Syndal have been pretty good all year without ever being able to get a big run on. Hawks for mine.

Bulleen host Eley Park in a game that a win will strengthen their spot in the four. The return of a couple of stars won't hurt their case either. Great to see the Sharks fire up for a win last week as the season was threatening to get out of control. Hard to make it two in a row form here though, Bulleen for mine.

Finally, Albert Park host Richmond. The Falcons almost pulled of the unthinkable as they led late against Eltham. It is a long haul for them to make finals form here however it is certainly not out of the question. They will win this week.

F.I.D.A. REPORT

Before I give my tips and games review, I must make an announcement that no writer or person for that matter ever likes to make.

On Sunday July 9th, Glenn Dean of the Broadmeadows Kangaroos 1st side sadly passed away. He was taken from the ground with chest problems which resulted in things taking a turn for the worst and thus the loss of life. The FIDA executive offers our deepest sympathies to Glenn's family, friends and fellow players of the Boxing Kangaroos.

A special mention goes to Port Colts's first aid personnel, Alan Underwood of Mambourin Tigers and to the paramedics who desperately tried to resuscitate Glenn.

Games:

It has come down to the crunch, folks.

With round 8 now come and gone, we have come down to the most serious weeks of the season- the last two.

For many teams this may mean that they'll go into these games knowing that 2006 was not the season for them and others thinking "geez, we're still in this".

With many great games of hard fought footy being played on the weekend, this writer is left pondering what the outcome in the next few weeks might be. As we have already been shown, regardless of where a team may sit on the ladder, any other team can come along and bump them right off.

This weekend the 16th of July every team has the bye as two teams do battle. City, made up of Kananook, Port Colts, Bulleen/ Templestowe, Parkside, Maribyrnong, Broadmeadows, Ringwood, Mazenod and Moonee Valley, take on The Country side, consisting of players from Ballarat, Ovens & Murray, Lara, Mambourin and the Gippsland, Goulburn Valley and Wimmera leagues, in the annual City Vs Country match. This game will prove to be a blockbuster, as some of the best players in the FIDA competition and other country leagues battle it out. Not to mention that not only is this game quite an extravagant event in itself, but it is also acting as a Curtian Raiser to the VAFA'S under 23 match against SAAFL. Therefore a large crowd should be present to watch the boys of FIDA and supporting competitions "Strut their stuff."

This game will be run much the same as other matches; it is scheduled for 12pm on Saturday afternoon and should prove to be very exciting. I encourage all those interested in another side football to come down and cheer on the boys/ girls in what should be a great day of footy.

A friendly reminder,

Since teams are still yet to submit scores and reports I am unable to post any of the results this week in the Amateur footballer but hopefully I will have heard something by the end of the week and will be able to post them up on the FIDA web site, which is linked through the VAFA web site, and in case you're unsure of the address it's www.vafa.com.au

And finally congratulations to all players selected by their teams, and also to the two coaches;

City- John Haller of Broadmeadows

Country- Cory Becker of Werribee

Keep Kicking.....

Proudly supporting FIDA

Another week over and popularity tests aside, its time to move on to the real thing.

Review

Match of the round and a test for De La finished with a triumphant Old Xavs beating their chests with Gusto. Too strong in the first quarter, Xavs were decidedly hard to catch for good old De La. Whoa! Your stock just went up in my book, my friends. James Glen and Andre Bonnice were solid for the winners who are proving more and more every week that they are the real thing - ready to take on the world.

Not too many other cracker games, but good to see Scotch keep the dream alive, putting away Marcellin. Tom Slattery bagged four, putting in a near best on performance for the Scotch who may just be starting to think finals are a small chance. In the battle of the Saints, Bernard's comfortably accounted for St Kevin's at ye old snakus pitus. Josh Ryan continued his solid year providing many winning moves for the victors. In other games, Uni Blues smashed BV (the likes that haven't been seen since a Uni Blacks v Bulleen Temp side some five years ago musses the scribe) down at the Craw, while Rupo were told to take the points on forfeit against Collegians?? How can a section 1 side forfeit? (you tell me)

Preview

Match of the round for me pits Old Scotch at home against a rampaging Uni Blues. Old Scotch has been the big improvers of late, but will find the Blues far too hard coming into the business end of the season. Down at Harry Trott, Collegians front up to mission impossible against Old Xavs, who will be looking to boost percentage and keep that top spot. Xavery easy, enough said. Marcellin will host a struggling St Bernards who must win to keep in touch with September action. Bernard's for me. In other games Rupo should gain a bit of confidence after a wrestle with SKOBS and De La will obliterate BV keeping in touch with coveted a top two birth. Lock of the week St Kilda to beat Essendon by over 60. Any feedback to beatonc@tabcorp.com.au. Happy punting!

Defiant Wellers not good enough for triumphant Raiders in a BRUISING BATTLE Parade and Camberwell clashed in a physical and at times spiteful contest. The Wellers jumped to an early lead with Caine Hillier (7) dominating up forward. But, in a 7-1 goal second quarter, the Raiders took control. The remainder of the game was played with no mercy for either side as Parade crawled home 28 point victors. Returning from injury, Parade's Leigh Cataggio slotted 5 and Kandilakis 4. Backs McKenna and Redmond were steady, while Khoury and Gibbons provided drive out of the guts. The Melburnians held off a spirited Fielders unit, running home 14 point winners, with Caulfield trailing by only 5 points at the main break. Price kicked 3 for Caulfield. James O'Meara added another 5 as the Friars crushed the T's by 133. The T's will not escape relegation after the dreariest of seasons. Ex-defender Glen Parker backed up his 10 goals last week, with 6 for the Panthers who took care of the Sharks by 64, while the Tonners upset the Blacks by 13 points. With 5 sides still contending for that elusive 4th spot, this week is sure to be a cracker. The Fielders host the Wellers. Caulfield were good against the OM's but the Wellers will take it, still smarting from the Parade loss. The Raiders host the T's and Trinity will struggle to come within 10 goals of the home side. The OM's play the Blacks who are still in the 4 by half game. The Panthers should have too much for Brighton at Bulleen. While two teams with the smallest of finals hopes left - Friars and Sharks - will shoot out in the 'Match of the Day', out at the sticks. Home side by a couple.

Oakleigh have succumbed to their first defeat, losing by 4-points to Old Ivanhoe, suggesting that the finals won't be a one horse race. Each team only kicking 4-goals apiece would suggest that it was not a free-flowing game, but tight football can be just as enthralling and I have a feeling these two will meet again in the first week of the finals. Alex Bolzan and Hayden Dekretser were best for Old Ivanhoe while Oakleigh's Stephen Doherty was the only multiple goal-kicker in the game. That was the only surprise in Round 10, however, it was good to see Old Essendon notch up their third win, but only just. They held on by 4-points against MHSOB with Dylan Moore in everything and Skipper Damien Cerantonio leading from the front. SBMT took control of their game against La Trobe Uni kicking 8-goals to 1 in the second half after only leading by 3 points at half-time, with the Swain boys featuring in the best players. Ajax held off a determined Emmaus for only their second victory, both against Emmaus, while Richard Keane's 8 goal haul saw Ormond defeat Bentleigh.

Preview

Only seven games to go and already the top four looks set in place. Ajax, after coming off only their second win, they may find Old Ivanhoe a tough task, especially with Old Ivanhoe coming off such a fantastic victory of the ladder leaders. The likes of Frost and Fridman should see Bentleigh take the points at home against MHSOB, while Ormond should have no trouble against Emmaus, despite Emmaus's Jeremy Chun and Simon Mills gallant performances the week before. SBMT now eyeball Oakleigh on the top of the ladder, with only percentage now separating the two, and this battle for top place should be intriguing over the final rounds. The SBMT juggernaut will roll on against Old Essendon this weekend as will a slightly wounded Oakleigh against La Trobe, so for the time being they will remain where they are. Review

No upsets and large margins was the order of the day in Section Blue as the chasm between the top four and the rest grew ever larger. Mazenod ventured out to the lovely surrounds of Hampton and the game was over at the first break. Mazenod would have been determined to make a good start to the game following some poor starts of late and they came out like men possessed scoring 8 goals in the first quarter with some good running football. The well oiled machine that is Mazenod decided to call it a day with 28 goals to their name. They had 12 goal scorers led by Bogar who kicked 8 and Klavins with 5, and in an excellent team effort they were ably led by Johnson, Stanley, and Smith. Old Mentonians asserted their authority early in their game against Parkdale with some strong tackling and superior use of the footy through the corridor. Mitchell, Thompson and Fairbanks dominated across half back and shut the Vultures completely out of the game while Speers and Prowse were lively up forward despite being outnumbered. Old Mentonian on-ballers led by Campbell, Moon and Wilton continually put the ball forward as well as nullifying their opponents and this team effort saw them to 55 point win. Both De La and Old Haileyburians had easy wins over Oakleigh and Monash respectively.

Preview

Game of the round billing sees a top four clash between De La and Old Mentonians taking place at Darling Park. Only percentage separates the two teams in what should be a high-class affair, however, with the likes of Gill and Kovarik in top form and the fact that it is being played at De La, they should take the points in a close game. Old Haileyburians currently look invincible and with players like Criticos, Johnson, Dolman, and Wright backing up every week they are an extremely good unit. They always have an even spread of goal kickers and rarely rely on the one individual to win, a sure sign of a good team and Hampton will be their next victim this week. Mazenod will have little trouble with Oakleigh at home, while Powerhouse/South Mornington should give themselves every chance of beating Monash at home and I believe they will notch up their first win amidst chaotic scenes as they celebrate their first 'non-bye' four points. Parkdale have a week off. Please send match info/social events to al_vafa@hotmail.com

Rupo get back on the winners list, as Kew sink lower at the home of the Ashes. The Woodsmen held the lead at every change, running out 19 point victors. Jared Pretty dished five for the winners, with Travis Smith receiving the 'Best On' honours. Kew's only shining light was Nathan Monaco, up forward kicking 7. Aquinas hosted the Bullants, who are desperately trying to hold fourth spot. The lead was held by both sides at different stages, but Aquinians walked off smiling. Chris Williams kicked 2 in the low scoring affair. Dan Tonelli (3) and Rowan Matz were standouts for the Bullants. Ligris booted 6 more as the Reds bounced back from last week's loss, beating a very competitive Lions side – within 8 points at the final break. They have been up and down all year, but should be happy to be sitting just outside the 4 on percentage. An inaccurate Westbourne took their 4th win of the season against the Old Saints in what could have been more than a 46 point belting. Anthony Whyte kicked 5 for the Westies, while Chris Ford booted a bag of 7 for the Old Saints. With 7 rounds to play, it's time for all sides to starting hitting their straps for that final straight. The Old Saints host a revived Rupo, but I think the home side will take home the goodies this week. A landslide as Aquinas belt Kew in an obliteration. The Reds host the Bullants who will be competitive but won't have enough come the last. The Reds by 17 points, where the forwards from either side will steal the show. Finally the Xavs host the Westies and I'm picking that it'll be a waste of costly petrol for Westbourne, with the Xavs taking control. 5 goals Therry put the feet up and sit on the couch. berneckich@netspace.net.au

CLUB XVIII SECTION

by Norm Nugent

With four rounds to play, the shape of the top four teams in each section is becoming clearer. It would seem there are three safely ensconced sides in Section 1 and Section 2. In Section 3 the top two sides seem safe. My Round 11 success rate was 80%.

Review

Section 1

Old Xaverians built their lead over St Bede's /Mentone Tigers by more each quarter, before winning by the Heinz margin...57 points. For the Xaverians, Sam Sheedy was active up forward.

At half time, top side Prahran led defending premiers St Kevin's by 11 points. The second half saw Prahran assert superiority as they built their lead to 38 points by game's end. For Prahran, Dave Butterworth controlled the forward line, David Green was a good defender and Justin Geri was a creative on ball player. For St Kevin's good players included: "The Duck", a.k.a. Paul Halpin, whose four last quarter goals lifted the spirit of his side as well as Ray. Short and Dominic Dunn.

Second placed De La Salle returned to the winning list with a 41 point win over Mazenod.

Old Melburnians now lie fifth and could move higher following their 17 point win over the University Blues. Only inaccuracy prevented a bigger win by the O.M.s.

Section 2

Whitefriars recorded a meritorious 30 point win over St Bernard's who slipped to sixth as a result. St Bernard's led narrowly at half time and at the final change the scores were level. Their greater desire for the ball saw Whitefriars edge ahead in the last quarter to take the points. For the winners: Clint. Collins, Sam. Ward and Peter O'Brien (5 goals) were best. Best for St Bernard's were: Gray, Catterall, Briganti and Yoshi.

Second placed Fitzroy Reds defeated last placed Marcellin by 69 points.

Leaders Monash Blues continued on their high scoring and winning way with a 169 point win over Therry Penola.

Section 3

Emmaus / St Leo's remain in the final's race through their 13 point win over Old Scotch.

Despite their inaccuracy, Old Trinity was able to inflict a 31 point defeat on North Old Boys/ St Patricks.

Old Essendon set up their big victory over La Trobe University with six unanswered goals in the opening quarter. Dean Podger, the best afield with nine goals, kicked all six. Only in the third quarter did the Students quell the Section leaders as Old Essendon went away to win by 109 points. Other good players for the winners included: John Hughes, Hugh Lovell and John Knox.

Straight kicking Beaumaris defeated the inaccurate Old Geelong by 55 points at Como Park.

Caulfield Grammarians, who lost to Fitzroy Reds by 33 points, can blame inaccuracy for much of their deficit.

Preview

Section 1

Traditional rivals De La Salle and Old Xaverians meet on Waverley Oval with the double chance as the spoils of victory. Although Old Xaverians don't seem to be enjoying the dominance of season's past, they easily accounted for De la Salle in Round 3. Today I select them to win again.

Old Melburnians should continue on their winning way at the expense of St Bede's /Mentone Tigers, who will not have any extra players available to them. Leaders Prahran should defeat Old Xaverians 2. The Prahran stalwarts seem to be able to find extra skill when under pressure and in Butterworth they have a sure avenue to goal.

Fourth placed Old Scotch journey to play University Blues on the University Oval. The Blues, who won in Round 3 by 19 points have slipped since then whereas Old Scotch have improved. Today, I select Old Scotch to win.

St Kevin's should again defeat Mazenod, who went down by 43 points in Round 3.

Section 2

Collegians should be strong enough to defeat Old Brighton on the Harry Trott Oval.

Monash Blues should be able to defeat the enigmatic St Bernard's at the University. St Bernard's are my hoodoo side, when I select them they seem to fail... and win when I least expect them to be successful. Today they could field Reserve players to top up their flagging fortunes.

Today Marcellin should win their first game for the season. They can field a full complement of players whereas it will be more of the same for their opponents, Therry Penola.

Unless University Blacks field a lot of B Reserve players, I can't see them defeating Fitzroy Reds in the Club XV111 version of the "Rouge et Noire Cup". The Reds do need the win to retain second place just as the Blacks need it to hold fourth. A titanic struggle should ensue but I favour the Reds to win.

Way out east, a potential final will be staged when Mt Lilydale venture to the plains of Donvale to play Whitefriars, who will be strengthened by players from B Reserve. Mt Lilydale, who have not lost since Round 4 must be due for a lapse (many leading teams fail around this time of the season!) Whitefriars need victory more to insure they can finish fourth. They are my selection.

Section 3

Old Essendon should win well at home against Old Geelong.

North Old Boys/ St Patrick's should score a rare victory at home by defeating La Trobe University who won by two points in Round 3. Of late North have displayed the better form.

Old Trinity may take time to settle on the small ground against Old Scotch (either Camberwell or St James Park!). However their greater depth of talent should see Trinity emerge victorious and so hold third place.

The winner of the Caulfield Grammarians and Emmaus/ St Leo's game will hold fourth place tonight. Caulfield, despite inaccuracy triumphed in Round 4 by seventeen points. Caulfield may be stronger today but I still have concerns over their match fitness and kicking ability. That said, E.S.L. were none too impressive when I saw them go down to Fitzroy Reds in Round 4. At home, I favour Caulfield Grammarians.

Fitzroy Reds should be able to again defeat Beaumaris, whose form is hard to follow.

Teddy Out Offers to Pay for Tolling as Bells Ring Out at Last – great joy with the Bells recording their duck-breaker against the Swingers in D3 leaving all of us hoping the mighty Stationmasters can snag one before season's end. As well the Drifters gave themselves a chance of survival in B with a narrow win over Clockers who are being pressed for finals action by the improving Clydesdales. A grade is hectic with even the Cork Poppers within 2 games of the four. In C, 9 teams are still in finals running but I'll stick with my original picks – Triads, Foamers, Philanthropists and Socialists. In D1 the sides giving themselves a sniff are Merry Oldes & Winos putting pressure on Angelas. D2, 3 and 4 have cut down to 5 teams with a chance of the finals. Relegatees at this stage will be Batmans, Chapels and Understandables

Did Molly Offer Top Job to Pammy – Getta says He did

Uneasiness at the Big E with Getta Brain's claim that VAFA Supremo Molly had promised to hand over the role after one term to long-time Ammo administrator Pammy Anderson. Getta proffered scribbled notes on a beer coaster as proof that the promise was made after a Badens luncheon late last season. Molly laughed it off when this column asked the question this week saying he would serve as long as there was a party that wanted him to attend. Pammy refused to comment beyond saying that she would email every club a copy of the beer coaster.

TV Favorites prompt Memories of Coolaroo Rovers

Prisoner was named this week as one of the top 50 Australian TV shows. I recall Ross Stevenson (3AW) in his days as a dynamic HFF for the Reds casually asking the Coolaroo coach pre-match what he did to assist the rehabilitation of prisoners in his role as a social worker. The coach replied he got them to play for Coolaroo. Ross was a late withdrawal that day with an inexplicable hamstring injury sustained on his way to the amenities. The Reds were 4 short in total.

RESULTS OF INVESTIGATIONS

Tuesday July 11, 2006

Both clubs accepted the prescribed penalty. University Blacks $150 (second offence within the last two years) and St. Kevins $300 (third offence within the last two years).

Old Ivanhoe charged with conduct unbecoming in that during their senior match against De La Salle on Saturday June 17 Old Ivanhoe's president, Mario Christodoulou allegedly, on occasions, disputed the goal umpire's decisions. Club fined $100.
