by Cameron Noakes

The Victorian Amateur Football Association will humbly place its tail between its legs this year after losing both its state under-23 games in what has been a wake-up call for the Vics. We find ourselves in the unusual position behind the eight ball in the three-year competition with just one win on the board after losses to the South Australians and Western Australians this year.

Thankfully, we are able to go back to the drawing board and have another crack next year and the VAFA is quite optimistic we can still take out the title.

But hats off to our opponents; the competition is alive and well and the VAFA can no longer expect a waltz in the park when it plays interstate football which is terrific for the competition.

There must have been some serious improvement from the South Australian and Western Australian amateurs over the past 24 months and the Victorians need to raise the bar, again.

The players from all teams must be applauded for putting on a great performance and I hope all players realise what an honour it is to be selected to play representative football.

Certainly, it is one of the few times in a team sport where you are allowed to feel proud that your efforts have been singled out and you have been recognised as one of the best in your competition.

There will always be debate about when to play representative football and unfortunately there is no solution.

You either have it and embrace it and congratulate players on their selection or, quite simply, you don't have it.

There is very little point in having representative football after a season when our interests are moving on, when premiership teams are still rejoicing and other players begin their healing process.

And I think we all understand why some people would prefer to scrap it altogether.

I would hate to be a coach and see one of my young stars cop a season-ending injury in a state game and jeopardise my team's premiership chances.

But it is important to remember we play amateur football, and there is a lot of super talent out there that are not recognised financially and this is one of the small ways we can acknowledge our stars.

If you are paying a footballer $700,000 a year to play for your club, sure, you have a right to keep your player at home...and you would expect he would want to stay at home.

Premierships come first and this philosophy is what ended state of origin football in the AFL. Clearly, there is a different mindset in rugby league.

I think in amateur footy we should think a tad differently as well – our great players get little recognition and representative football is a tremendous way to applaud our elite.

Now, some of you may have noticed on the VAFA website that "teams of the half season" have also been selected for each section.

The players who have been named also deserve a pat on the back but such an exercise, of course, mainly serves as a source of debate, rather than anything official.

Some of the names that have been left out of the various teams are outstanding and in A-section you could almost put together a second team (and include names such as Quinton Gleeson, Damien Rayson, Brett O'Farrell, Ben Mannix and Paul Corrigan) to rival the team that was selected.

What would be thoroughly entertaining is to see the teams of the season from each section play off in a carnival.

We'd all expect the A-section team to win but the B-section "half season" team looks pretty impressive and would surely give the top flight boys a run for their money.

Weak End @ Bernies

Remember when Rocky Balboa took a pounding at the hands of Clubber Lang and his crusty old trainer hissed in his ear “the worst thing happened to you that could happen to any fighter...you got civilized!” Well some of the old-timers at Bernards may be whispering similar sentiments after the rout that occurred there a fortnight ago. There’s no Chris Calthorpes, Jason Gollants or Shane Zantucks there any more, just some honest goers, an affable coach and a whole heap of guys in the injury room. And the way things are going, the Bernies are a red-hot chance to make the dreaded drop.

It was an imbecilic move tipping against Xavs at the Snakepit, given their remarkable record there and Bernards’ injury woes. Sam Johnston is having a great year and totally carved up the ‘Pitters and James Scanlon continued on his merry way with another best on ground performance. The red head could be a bit of a Woodrow Medal smoky (famous last words from this scribe).

While the rest of you uprooted to the snow or possibly lurked some of the state match, I went undercover, lurked in dark corners, sifted through garbage to bring you breaking news which could have a huge bearing on the Premiership battle and relegation scramble....

Marcellin.... Not Done & Dusted Yet

Big names rumoured to be considering comebacks at Marcellin. Crack on-ballers Glenn Cox and Jarrod Frazer will both grace the Buleen playing fields in the coming weeks while (I can scarcely believe I’m writing this) goal-kicking maestro Andrew Treganowan is also said to be in the throws of a shock return. They did knock off Uni at Parkville recently so write them off at your peril.

His Hips Don’t Lie

Haileybury’s Brett O’Farrell has retired. The big man succumbed to a shocking hip injury sustained against OMs (and a broken leg to boot) and will not play again. O’Farrell was a sensational footballer, a real game-breaker who saved his best for the Badlands. Few players copped such rotten luck with injuries. Question is, can Nicho pull off a flag without the services of the big Badlander?

Wheel of Misfortune

De La full back Luke Seager has also broken his leg and will sit out the rest of the season. The darling of the daytime TV set, Luke was having a great year, eclipsing Handley, Loewe and Lowcock, with only Scotch’s James Gerstman giving him grief. He will be a huge loss. Whilst on the subject, it’s great to see Gerta back firing; from all reports the Scotch/De La thriller was the game of the year to date and De La certainly lost no admirers despite being beaten on the bell.

Wasn’t Me

I didn’t pick the mid-season team of the year. So CEASE with your abusive emails!

The Footy Club That Can Break Your Heart

Here’s a prediction. With the finals race so competitive, what’s the bet that OMs (who are getting better each week) pull off a miracle win to totally stuff up the Premiership chances of one of the top sides? They did it to Scotch last year; all signs point to more heartbreak later in the year,

Today's Games

Ok. Massive game at the Uni. With the ground certain to be in a wretched state, I'll tip Scotch. The Snakepit will hold up a lot better and this will suit De La right down to the ground. Visitors by six goals. If Haileybury don't beat Trinity, Nicho would not be a wise man to cross at the after-match. Bloods in a thriller. Gotta be Xavs at the Junction and I'll tip Marcellin in a boilover over Ivanhoe.

M I L E S T O N E S

Old Ivanhoe congratulate Sjouke Price on reaching 100 games against Marcellin. Sjouke plays on and mostly beats taller and heavier ruckman each week, using a physique honed from years of waterpolo to barge into ruck duels and packs without any apparent fear to feed the ball out to OIG's running players. A member of the 2005 B-Section premiership team and a vital player in the club's quest for an A - grade flag, Sjouke never seems to tire and will often outrun his opponents especially in the latter part of the match and score the odd goal as well.

St Bernards congratulates Justin Evans who recently played his 150th game (8 sen, 106 res, 36 U19). Once described as one of the best ever reserves players in the VAFA, he has an excellent pair of hands and unique kicking style. Justin is a Reserves B&F winner and also played an important role in the 2003 Reserve Premiership. Well-done "BUCKETS"

St Bernards also congratulates Stephen Iannazzo on playing his 100th game (8 sen, 64 res, 28 U19) earlier this year. Stephen, son of legendary defender Mick, is a loyal clubman, courageous and well known for his strong marks floating across the back line. Well done SNAZZA

Old Xaverians congratulate DAN RUSH who today plays his 50th game for the club. Dan, second eldest son of Xav's Club Legend MICK RUSH - brother of Martin and Joe, is only the third player in the history of the Club to come straight from the College into the Senior side (2004). Playing at full forward a strong mark and accurate kick he was soon mixing it with the A grade competition's best. He joins a long list of the Rush family to play for the club. Well done Rushie, may there be many more to follow.

by Tom Brain

Back from a week's break fully refreshed and raring to go as we all tackle the last seven weeks with great trepidation as some enthralling games await us.

REVIEW

A huge crowd including me at the spiritual home of SKOB saw a terrific game of Ammo footy. Totally controlled by the home side early as they got themselves out to a 40 point buffer at the long interval. The Grammarians then found some touch and by half way through the last were some 15 points in front only to see it whittled away by the desperate SKOBS who managed to win by the barest of margins. Paul Greenham, Simon Garlick and Paul O'Keefe all terrific for SKOBBERS, as was Dylan Wissell who did a great job on Sinclair. Mark Pennycuick, Richard Foote, and Andrew Docker solid for the Fields.

Dog of a day and a disappointing loss for Mazenod out at Friar Park. Muddy conditions seemed to suit the Friars as they kicked seven of the first eight goals to set up their morale boosting victory. Mazenod tried hard to bridge the gap and at times threatened as they got within a goal in the last, but the Friars settled and kicked away again.

The Collegians unit at the Trott set up their victory with a 6 goal opening burst that had the Sharks floundering. From there the rest of the game was an even affair with Beauy being most competitive and ruing their slow beginning. The Lions were particularly happy with tall defenders Stone, Holst and Mooney, whilst Shura Taft remains in terrific form. Sean Coote was outstanding for the Sharks at CHB, Sean Lynch good on a wing and Luke McNicholas good against overwhelming odds.

A very hard tough good game of B Grade Football at MHSOB saw the Uni Blacks continue their improvement and take the points against the young MHSOB unit who did have a red hot shot. David Batten across half back was a great servant for the Blacks, Luke O'Connell is hitting his straps and Matt Kempton having one fantastic year. Matty White and Drew Fairchild never stopped encouraging their team and Luke Campbell and Simon Anderson played well too.

Old Brighton made short work of their slump and bounced back to the winners list with a terrific win against OEG who without a doubt put in their worst performance of 2006. The Tonners had done their homework and handed out 4 quarters of disciplined running enthusiasm and passion to squash OEG claims as the top contender. Brighton had some sensational efforts from Pat Phelan, Anthony Bristow, Tommy Jackobi and Blair Mason, while the Smooth One held a raffle and could only find Flaherty, Leask and Clifton worthy of a mention.

PREVIEW

Caulfield Grammarians, although disappointed to lose would have been buoyed by their return to form in the second half last week and if they can maintain that improvement today then they should have just to much ability for Mazenod who will be just desperate to win.

Likewise at the Trott, I think things will be tough for MHSOB as they try very hard to return to the winners list. Collegians as stated regularly have done nothing wrong have pride in their performance and with competition for spots in the side at a premium won't slip up today.

Old Brighton head to Friar Park with a full head of steam. They know they can win away from home but things and conditions at Friar Park are totally different to away conditions anywhere else. Friars buoyed by a good win will take it right up to their visitors but with a double chance beckoning it's the Tonners for me.

St Kevins welcome Beaumaris to their home away from home Sportscover Arena. SKOB have made a welcome return to form with the addition of some experienced players giving them good balance now and it is starting to show in their results. Beaumaris disappointed the last 2 weeks albeit against a couple of the top sides and would have regrouped during the break but may not be enough today as I feel SKOB will continue their resurgence.

Optus Oval welcomes University Blacks and OEG for the second time this season. Terrific game the first time round with OEG just taking the points in a close one. It will be a close one again today as both sides have improved remarkably during the season. In a close one again I feel the result will be the same OEG just.

100 Games Mark Pennycuik, Caulfield Grammarians

All at CGFC congratulate Mark on achieving this milestone. A dual Premiership player, he has developed into an integral team leader at our club. Marshalling the troops across the backline, many opposition forays forward have been repelled by "Penny". All at The Fields eagerly await his next 100 games.

Bonjour medames est monsieurs!!! In a tribute to Le Tour, this week's C section write-up will have a decidedly French influence, with a focus on where the teams are placed as we reach the final 6 stages of the regular season. So grab a cheeky glass of Bordeaux and your favorite slab of fromage and a crusty baguette from Le Boulangerie and read on.....

Le Review

The cash registers at the Nike, Adidas and Puma factory outlets would've been ringing all Friday as players invested in last minute 'screw-ins' to save embarrassment in the wet and slippery conditions which beset suburban Melbourne. It was truly a day for the Napoloeons' of the competition, the short little lads who scoot around picking the agate off the deck and banging it forward. Le OC were glad the conditions at Stade de Barnyard were tres terribles, and key forwards were never going to feature prominently. Ormond had more than their fair share of the leather, keeping OC defenders Dan Pike and Alex MacKenzie very busy!!! However, the visitors butchered many opportunities and trailed by 9 points at the main change. In the third term, Ormond looked to switch to the open side and avoid getting sucked into pack footy, which was playing into Old Camberwell's hands. Things remained tight throughout the final term until a strong mark in the Wellers' goal-square and the ensuing goal broke the deadlock. Viva Le Wellers!!!! Monash got back on the winners' list at the expense of Hampton Rovers, and one hopes the green 'n golds take a leaf out of Edith Piaf's play book with "Non Je Ne Regrette Rein" (trans: No, I have no regrets!!). Monash outplayed the home side early but were forced to hold firm in the second term before Andrew Vincent's retort after the half time bell kept their nose in front. "Spider" Smith was back to his best in a vintage half back sweeping role, and his third term 'double act' with Michael Davidson saw the visitors edge out to a handy 20 point buffer at the final change, with 2 crucial goals coming Le Freak's boot. After an initial scare, Monash steadied to run out 29 point victors. Let's face it, AJAX were damn good, but the Tigers had 30 shots to 18 and should've won by more. Some Jackas supporters will point to their massive injury toll (now including goalie Dennis Seidl with a broken ankle!), necessitating 4 more debutants, 3 of whom kicked goals with their first senior kicks. Lewski racked up 56 touches to Anstey's 42, whilst Beveridge mopped up well in defence. Darren Sutton and Jared Raleigh were tireless Jacka workers. As for the Tigers, in the wise words of Plastic Bertrand "Ca Plain Pour Moi", (it's going fine). In other games, the Reds succumbed meekly on the road to Parkdale and are now looking down as much as looking up. For the Vultures, everything went swimmingly with Tony Macgeorge controlling things at half back and they made every post a winner in a whopping 63 point drubbing. For Fitzroy, only one word need be uttered....merde!!! Another upset occurred at Bundoora where the Paradians tugged on the NOBSPC collar a dragged them back into the "Drop Zone" with some inspirational wet weather footy. They're just keeping things as tight as humanly possible, at the rear of The Peleton.

Le Preview

Overall Leader – STBMT – just in a class of their own and only a catastrophic accident involving a stray Pyrenees goat on a sheer downhill at 90kph could stop them from booking a seat at the final table. Guaranteed to hold the yellow jersey into September. Best Sprinter – green jersey sits on the Students' back as they've shown the ability within games, and within the season, to play hot and cold. More heat please!! I expect the weekend's win to kick start another surge. Best Climber – the spotted red jersey goes to Parkdale who have dragged themselves from 2/5 to 6/6 in the past 5 weeks' and are looking to be vastly improved after a very slow start. The Tigers' may hold them back this week, but they will be ready to climb again after that. Best Youth Rider – the pink one is between Le OC and (Greg) LeMond. I'll give it to Le OC, primarily because they've been ravaged by injuries and departures, whilst Ormond have managed to keep several wise veterans on the park to guide the youngsters.

It's All Downhill from Here?

AJAX are in the box seat for the double chance, but the remaining sides are all sitting close by, just waiting for a chance to make a break and form a chase pack. Two massive clashes are on the horizon with this week's Fitzroy –v- OC game likely to determine the immediate fortunes of those sides. Win and you're still a chance for finals, lose and you're battling relegation. I think one of the two spots in the Sag Wagon may be decided by round 15, when Parade play the Rovers, as NOBSPC have to play all sides above them, and will need a series of upsets to stay up for 2007.

M I M I L E S T O N E S

Old Paradians congratulate Daniel Hussey, Michael Patena, Robert Petrou, Robert Thomas (Bundoora JFC) and Marcus Solomon (Vice Capt. - Under 19s) on playing your 50th VFA games. All of these players commenced with the Under 19's in 2004 coming from Parade College and/or playing football with one of our junior affiliate clubs, St. Damians JFC or St Mary's Greensborough JFC. We look forward to many more great games from these dual Under 19 premiership players.

Old Paradians congratulate Matthew Spino on kicking his 200th goal for Old Paradians AFC last weekend. 'Spinner' achieved this milestone in his 87th game for the club, keep up the sharpshooting towards 300.

100 GAMES TO BIG AZZA AND TC

Two young Monash Blues colts take to the paddock for the 100th time this week against Parade. Great mates and premiership players in 2003, these two have developed into excellent senior players in recent times. The big ruckman, Aaron Williams has been a massive part of our side for a number of years and continues to impress all with his fitness, skills, courage and appetite for hard work. His improvement and ability to compete strongly with all opposition was recently recognized with his selection in the C section team of the year to Round 9 in what is the most important of all positions. Tommy Craven is enjoying another very productive year as a hard leading, high marking forward who has improved steadily over the years. With pace and great hands, Tommy is hard to match up on and regularly dazzles supporters with strong pack marks, often against larger and stronger opponents. All at Monash salute these two fine Clubmen on reaching this milestone. Well done Mahmood and TC, we look forward to you both chasing Spence's new record!!

REVIEW

Bulleen Templestowe scored a handsome 54 point victory over Banyule at Ted Ajani Reserve, continuing to strengthen their claims for a top two position come finals time.

Rupertswood returned to the winners' circle with a hard fought 29 point win over Prahran at Salesian College Sunbury, where the ducks had difficulty in deciding what was best, the pond or the main oval.

At Dunshea Oval, Old Carey adapted to the wet conditions better than Old Mentonians, resulting in a whopping 87 point win to the home side. Ruckman Matthew Austin and defenders Michael Watts and Paul Mevel were better players for a disappointing Old Mentonians combination, while youngsters Carpenter and Barton impressed for Carey.

Emmaus St. Leo's kept up their efforts to avoid the drop, beating Therry Penola by 66 points at a wet BSG. Holding the Lions to one goal in the first half, coupled with strong play from the half back (especially Tony McKenzie and Anthony Ballard) and centre lines, as well as the efforts of ruckman Stephen Ronchi were instrumental in this win.

In yet another wet weather slog, Yarra Valley OB maintained the pressure on the top four by pulling off a five point win over fellow finals contender Old Geelong at Como Park, their second win over the Hoops this year.

PREVIEW

Old Geelong make the short journey to Toorak Park for their match against Prahran. Players like Wil Walford, Dan James and Dan Ballard in the Two Blues defence can expect to be busy against a dangerous Oggers forward line containing the likes of Mark Vickers-Willis and Nic Casboul. It's a big game also for Oggers duo Hugh McCarthy and Tom Cannon, who will celebrate their 100th and 50th games respectively, so a little extra motivation there, just in case the chance to strengthen their finals claims isn't enough. Old Geelong for mine.

Last time Therry Penola and Old Carey met, both sides were undefeated. However, today's match at John Pascoe Fawkner Reserve sees two teams with contrasting fortunes. The Panthers have been the pacesetters or thereabouts pretty much all season, while the Lions have only won one of their last nine matches. Injuries haven't help Therry's cause, while Carey have been able to ride out their injury worries and look to be getting to full strength at the right end of the season. Therry's Andrew Forster-Knight may be a possibility to play on Al Parton if "Dolly" spends the greater part of the day up forward. Chris Battle will also be a tower of strength in the Carey backline. I'll take the Panthers today.

Two form teams square off at Domeney Reserve as Yarra Valley take on Bulleen Templestowe. The Bushrangers only difficulty is maintaining a settled line-up, with half a dozen or so changes seemingly de rigueur at the selection table from week to week. The Bullants though aren't in second place for nothing though. Look for either "Waxy" Williams or Matt Bain to kick a few for the visitors today, however. Tough call, but I'll go for.....the Bushrangers.

Old Mentonians host Rupertswood at the Playing Fields. The Panthers will be looking for redemption after last week's effort, and a win here is vital for their finals aspirations, especially given that Rupo are 10 points ahead in fourth spot. Ergo, it is a classic "eight point" game, especially for the home side. The Panthers cannot afford Michael Basile to have his second quiet game in a row, after being shut down last week. Rupo to win, just.

At the other end of the ladder, a relegation battle takes place at the Warringal Parklands between Banyule and Emmaus St. Leo's. The Animals leapfrogged the Bears into eighth position last week and should be confident of scoring a vital away win. Anthony Ballard has been in great form for the visitors recently and will be influential with his drive from the half back line. I feel the Animals have been in better form recently and I feel they'll take the points today.

M I M I L E S T O N E S

Old Mentonians wish to congratulate three of their players who are celebrating milestones. Last week's game saw Peter Flaskis play his 150th game. Peter joined the club from school, making an immediate impact in the U19s, leading the comp. goalkicking in 1994, and captaining the side the year after. Since moving up to the seniors, Peter has been a valued player, winning the Club Champion Award in 1999 and 2005. His commitment to and passion for the Old Mentonians are second to none, and we look forward to many more games from the big man in the #34 guernsey.

Aaron Wilson also played his 50th game for the club last week. Another product of the U19s, Aaron has worked diligently at improving his game, and has been rewarded with regular senior football. Well done Aaron, and we know sometime in the next 50 games, you'll take that "mark of the year." Finally, today's match against Rupertswood sees George Katris play his 200th game. Another member of the "Golden Greeks", George has been a quiet achiever over the years. Also a former U19 captain, George has been a regular senior player over the years, holding down the full back for most of this time. George has been dependable and consistent throughout his career and is a player who good work often goes unnoticed, but all eyes today will be on the Pete Sampras look-alike. Congratulations George.

Old Carey stalwart Travis Bull today celebrates his 100th game for the Panthers. Travis first played for the club back in 1998 while still at school, and returned in 2000 after a spell at the Oakleigh Chargers, winning Best First Year Player. For a well-developed man, he has great skills and agility, and it is this versatility that allows him to play any key position on the ground. A strong influence on and off the field, Trav is a past vice captain and VAFA rep. squad member. His recent return to action, asserting his tough and uncompromising presence will no doubt be welcomed by all Panthers fans. Well done Trav from all at Old Carey.

CLUB WAREHOUSE RISING STAR NOMINATION ROUND 12

GUY CRILLEY (PARKDALE VULTURES)

Parkdale Vultures ruckman Guy Crilley is the nominee for the Club Warehouse Rising Star Nomination for Round 12 after his best on ground performance against Fitzroy Reds last Saturday.

Guy started playing with the Parkdale Vultures Football Club in 2004. Guy is a natural athlete and excellent tap ruckman who has great skills at ground level for a person 6'7" and has worked extremely hard on improving his game. On the weekend Guy stood out on a day where conditions usually wouldn't suit a big man. His ruck tapping and work around the ground certainly set up a fantastic win for the club and kept their finals hopes alive.

D2 SECTION

by Jono Healy

Even this far out from the end of the season, I would say that there is only one spot up for grabs in the four, and that battle is probably between only Aquinas and Werribee. The relegation battle is still wide open though, with four or five clubs still trying to stay up in D2 next year. On to today's games:

Glen Eira AFC $1.60 v La Trobe Uni $2.20

How many times can Glen Eira win by one point during this season? Well, they have done it three times so far and now sit only two games out of the finals. Last Saturday against Williamstown they came from behind to record a one point victory with Steven Dyason on fire in the ruck and Brad Clements kicking three majors up forward. La Trobe were disappointing once again at home against Oakleigh, and are now well in the relegation race. Shaun Brooks and Stephen Pruscino battled hard for the students but they will need to play better football today to get the four points. This really could go either way, and I think it might be a tight one too. Glen Eira by two points.

Salesian AFC $2.70 v Peninsula OB $1.40

Both clubs continue to play good footy with Salesian having a hard fought win over Ivanhoe Assumption and Peninsula thrashing Werribee. Salesian were tested early by Ivanhoe, but two opportunist goals from Sean Logan in his first senior game of the year sealed the points for the boys from Chaddy. Peninsula relished the wet conditions at home, with spearhead Shaun Payze registering a lazy five goals, and Sam Murray best a field. This game is now to be played at Peninsula and although in the past Salesian have been somewhat of a bogey side for the Pirates, I think Peninsula will be too strong. Peninsula by 18 points.

Werribee AFC $1.33 v Williamstown CYMS $3.10

Its official, Werribee are on the slide. Four losses from the past five games sees them drop out of the top four for the first time since Round Four. Frank Dimasi and Andrew Tedesco battled hard around the packs all day, but had little support from their team mates in their 76 point loss to top side Peninsula. Williamstown suffered yet another loss by less than ten points, going down to Glen Eira in an exciting battle. Shaun 'Lewfart' McGuinness was everywhere for Willy and Ben Hynes did a good job down back. The one thing keeping Williamstown in the race to stay in D2 next season is their good percentage. However, towards the end of the season, it's more about getting the four points than anything else. I would say Willy need to win four of their next six games, starting today at Soldiers Reserve. Unfortunately for them, I expect to see Werribee come out breathing fire trying to get that spot in the four back. Therefore I make Werribee, 'Smooth Jono's Lock of the Week.' Werribee by 25 points.

St John's OC $1.70 v Ivanhoe Assumption AFC $2.05

The ramifications on this match are huge. The loser here will become the favourite for the second relegation position. The Joc's were outclassed by Aquinas and will be happy to be back in Doveton. The Hoe's gave Salesian a good run for their money but ran out of gas in the second half going down by eight points. Captain-coach John Garrard was in fine form up forward with four majors, including an amazing snap from the pocket in the last term. Travis O'Neill, Dave Neilson and

".." results weren't received. Any discrepancies may be due to non-submission of results by clubs.

Paul Harris all battled hard for the Hoe's in the loss, and coach Garrard has called on another consistent performance today to get his club the four points. Hunter and Garrard are the keys for the Hoe's today. Keep them quiet and I think the Joc's can get the points. I expect Kane Arnold and Brendan Rydquist will need to be on top of their games if St John's are to prevail. Hoe's by 9 points.

Oakleigh AFC $1.50 v Aquinas OC $2.40

Only poor kicking from the Krushers kept La Trobe in the game last Saturday, but a twenty point win in poor conditions is still a good win. Veteran Jon Rutter was tireless on the ball all day, and he had some help from Shane Kitts and Jason Reynolds. Aquinas comfortably defeated St John's by 66 points to snatch fourth spot on the ladder. A five goal to one second quarter proved the catalyst for the victory with Sean Leonard outstanding in the ruck. Leigh Toomey was impressive in the conditions and 'The Bowden Brothers' Tibb and Denbraber were elusive across half forward. Big game today for Aquinas. They snuck over the line against Oakleigh earlier in the year, and the Krushers will set out today for some revenge. I expect to see the Oakleigh boys celebrating a win at the Matthew Flinders hotel tonight. Krushers by 14 points.

Scott Kidd plays his 100th game with the Werribee Amateurs today. Scott is another who played juniors at the club before under 19's in 2001 and 2002 and then played in the 2003 reserves premiership, since then Scott has been a regular in the senior side and is usually the first to be handed a tagging role. Everyone at the club wishes Scott all the best.

Melbourne in Winter is truly reminiscent of the grand cities of Europe as you wander in your coat and scarf along its café filled lanes; across its Victorian lamped bridges; and past many a glass panelled heavy oak door through which you can hear people's voices engaged in lively dialogue.

And this culture and era is further evoked as you enjoy your complimentary hot chocolate 'n' marshmallows while relaxing in your luxurious Superior room at the Carlton Crest Hotel Melbourne.

• Disappointing End to Representative Season

Another loss by the Big V on Saturday brings to an end a disappointing year for Representative Football for the VAFA. Saturday's 17 point loss to South Australia was their first loss to them in 11 years and the first handing over of the John Dillon / Keith Simms Shield since it was struck in 1997. In terrible conditions at Sportscover Arena, South Australia held a slender lead from the start, kicking two late goals to extend the margin late in the final term. South Australia played the conditions much better than the Victorian side, preferring to kick long and direct giving their forwards maximum opportunity. Victoria on the other hand went looking for targets, creating for too many turn-overs and putting themselves under enormous pressure in the slippery conditions. When the Victorians did go long and direct they looked a very dangerous unit with plenty of firepower up forward ready to strike. But, just when it looked like they could take control of the match, bad habits crept in allowing South Australia to maintain its slender lead throughout the day. The Vics were hoping to atone for last month's loss to Western Australia and keep alive their chances of retaining the AAFC U23 Title. A huge win over South Australia next year and the right result out of the remaining match between SA and WA is required for the Vics to have any chance of retaining the title. Final match details:

VAFA	1.3	3.5	5.9	7.12 (54)
SA AFL	2.5	4.8	6.13	9.17 (71)

SA AFL: Goals: Jordan 2 Chadwick 2 Cutting 2 Farr Kells Geradis. Best: Jordan Radetti Cutting Gower Clarke Cooper.

VAFA: Goals: Handley 2 Pasceri 2 Lacey Carboni Rayson. Best: Dunne Handley Carboni Pasceri Chisholm Aurel-Smith.

Noel Rundle Medalist: D Cutting (SA AFL)

Umpires: T Sutcliffe (VAFA) M Williamson (SA AFL) (F) T Saunders (Emergency) M Jenkinson (VAFA) C Hoogendyk (VAFA) (B) K Segota (VAFA) D Napoli (VAFA) (G)

The AAFC Tri-Series ladder with two matches remaining:

	P	W	L	Pts	F	A	%
WAAFL	3	2	1	8	243	212	114.6
SA AFL	2	1	1	4	132	132	100
VAFA	3	1	2	4	205	236	86.9

• Ed Sill No 1 Scribe

D4 Scribe Ed Sill has been voted by the VAFA Community as its favourite scribe. The poll, listed on the VAFA Website, received over 2000 votes for the week with Ed recording an "approval rating" of 24%. Next in the poll was A Grade Scribe Jonathon Horn, closely followed by the U19 Scribes Charles Beaton, Adrian Bernecich and Alastair Dwyer, with Club XVIII Scribe Norm Nugent not far behind.

• Frank Dunell Resigns

VAFA U23 Coach Frank Dunell resigned on Saturday over his sides disappointing loss to South Australia. Frank made his announcement to the players after the game in a speech where he thanked them for their efforts, application and commitment to the cause. Frank was appointed in 2005 and was named as Head Coach of the Australian U23 side which toured Ireland in October last year. Frank is well respected in Amateur circles, coaching St Bernards, Old Essendon and North Old Boys in the VAFA over many years. The VAFA would like to thank Frank and his team for their efforts in selecting and preparing our Representative Sides and wish him every success in any future coaching endeavours he pursues.

• FIDA Puts On A Great Display

Anyone who got to the VAFA v SA AFL game early on Saturday would have seen a great exhibition of what footy is all about. FIDA (Football Integration Development Association), which caters for footballers with intellectual disabilities, held its City v Country match as a curtain raiser to the main game. The game was played in driving rain and freezing conditions but the kids had an absolute ball. The Country held on for a two point win after a late charge by the City side but the result was secondary. The spirit in which the game was played and the shivering smiles on the faces of the players after the game (from both sides) was a joy to watch.

• Monash Blue Breaks Games Record

The longstanding Monash Blues record of 240 VAFA games held by David Wood has been eclipsed by Monash stalwart Marcus Spencer. Kicking off way back in 1988, Spence has been a tower of strength, both on the field as a versatile, slow moving key position player and off ground as long-serving committee member, Reserves Coach and tireless servant of the Club over many years. A talented sportsman, Spence is a Life Member of both Monash Football and Cricket Clubs and a fantastic example of Club loyalty and dedication. Well done and the message from Monash is that hopefully they will get a few back from injury so that you can rest those old hamstrings in the coaches box next week!!

• Sarah Bone Fundraiser a Huge Success

Further to our recent story, the Sarah Bone Fundraiser Auction Dinner was held on Saturday 8 July and was an outstanding success. Due to the generosity of 650 family and friends of the Bulleen Templestowe Amateur Football Club and the Bone family in general, a substantial amount of money has been raised, providing significant financial comfort to Sarah's husband and two young daughters during this particularly difficult time.

With Sergio Paradise as MC (doing a sterling job in a very tough room), the night provided an opportunity for people to show their support in a variety of ways, not least with some frantic bidding on some valuable auction items, all of which were donated by supporters of the night. The Bone family would also like to thank all those from the VAFA family for the financial donations and kind wishes received over the last couple of weeks. The whole experience, although brought about by something so tragic and sad, has provided great comfort to the family and is greatly appreciated.

• Old Style Football Returns

Listen to any long retired footballer around the traps and they will tell you about playing conditions back "in their day". It has been awhile since we have had wet and heavy conditions for VAFA games but the matches over the weekend would have had those retired "legends" reminiscing about the "good old days". We have been spoiled in recent years with relatively dry winters and improvements to ground surfaces meaning heavy, muddy conditions are very rare indeed (except for cricket pitch areas). But every now and then I think every footballer loves to slide through the mud and make full use of a day they are "allowed" to kick torpedoes.

• Joke of the Week

A man boards an airplane, and takes his seat. As he settles in, he glances up and sees a beautiful woman boarding the plane. He soon realises she is heading straight towards his seat. A wave of nervous anticipation washes over him. Lo and behold, she takes the seat right beside him. Anxious to strike up a conversation, he blurts out, "So, where are you off to today?"

She turns and smiles, and says, "To the annual Nymphomaniacs Conference."

He swallows hard, instantly crazed with excitement. Here's the most gorgeous woman he has ever seen, sitting right next to him, and she's going to a meeting of nymphomaniacs. Struggling to maintain his outward cool, he calmly asks, "And what's your role at this conference?" She flips her hair back, turns to him, looks onto his eyes, and says, "I will be speaking, debunking some of the popular myths about sexuality."

"Really", he says, swallowing hard. "And what myths are those?"

She explains: "Well, one popular myth is that African American men are the most well-endowed, when, in fact, it is the Native American Indian who is most likely to possess this trait. Another popular myth is that Frenchmen are the best lovers, when actually it is men of Irish descent who romance women best, on average."

"Very interesting," the man responds.

Suddenly, the woman becomes very embarrassed, and blushes. "I'm sorry," she says, "I feel so awkward discussing this with you, and I don't even know your name."

The man extends his hand and replies, "Tonto. Tonto O'Sullivan."

... Retrospective

by Geoff Reilley

5 YEARS AGO - 2001

Two very fine victories for the VAFA capped off an excellent season for our representative teams and made it five out of five for 2001. Following on from the senior teams' victory against the SAAFL earlier in the season the VCFL also met their match at our hands. The entertaining match saw a final score of 23.24 to 14.8 in favour of the VAFA and best players were Denver Artz (4), Nigel Credlin, Daniel Donati, Ben Cranage, Luke Hawkins (7) and Dean Matthews. It was great that of the best six, Artz (Hampton Rovers), Credlin (Old Camberwell) and Dean Matthews (Bulleen-Templestowe) were representing B and C Sections thereby proving beyond doubt the depth of Victorian amateur football.

Our representative U19 team won its second match for the season when they had a great tussle with the combined VMFL team before running out winners 14.16 to 13.6 winners. Best for the Vic's – Scott Curatolo, Trent Hobart, Michael Mulgrew, Jack Healey, Craig Burns and Paul Gloury. The Combined C-D Section team had also won their game earlier in the season.

In D1 Section, Aquinas consolidated their fourth spot with a terrific win against second placed Ivanhoe Assumption. It was an arm wrestle from the opening bounce and early in the second term the Bloods took the lead and managed to hold it for the remainder of the game, despite the efforts of the "Hoes who had not been defeated for 8 weeks. A final winning score to Aquinas of 16.18 to 15.11 was a very deserving, away from home, victory. Best for Aquinas were Whitehead, Denbraber, Collover, Harkin, Glennie and Banbury (4). Ivanhoe were very disappointed and could fin only 2 good players to nominate; Morris and McFarlane!

'Umpires Corner' congratulated the following umpires chosen for the two representative games; VAFA versus VCFL – Tim Sutcliffe (F), Tim Dornom (B) and Bernie Jephson (G). for the VAFA (U19) versus VMFL – Luke Moncrieff (F), Nigel Woods (B) and Rob Parry (G).

10 YEARS AGO - 1996

There was a great battle for the top four in Junior Section 1 apart from the clear dominance of University Blues, undefeated and three games clear of the second and third teams Old Xaverians and De La Salle. Old Paradians in fourth spot were faced with the daunting task of defeating the mighty Blues' team to hold their spot. Although Paradians fought valiantly they fell further behind quarter by quarter with a final score of 14.11 to 5.6. Best players – Keily, Beltrame, Halligan (8), Wilcox, Brockley, McIntosh (Uni Blues) and Dintonosante, Baker, King, Gale, Woodham and Howard (Paradians).

In Junior Section 2 White, St Kevins were one game clear on top from Old Camberwell. The Warringal side, under the astute coaching of Harry Harisiou, secured fourth place with a good win against Old Geelong and may have made it hard for the OGGs to reach the four following the 13.9 to 8.6 result. Gloury, Yin, Attardi, Camilleri, Sheean and Rosiwel were Warringal's better players. Bingley (3), Pettig, Campbell, Wilson, Pooley and Beattie were good players for the OGGs.

An obituary appeared in The Amateur Footballer acknowledging the outstanding contribution of Fred Coldrey to the VAFA which spanned an incredible 70 years. In 1926 Fred became a founding member of the 1st Hampton Scout Troop football team which was later named the Hampton Rovers and Scouts Football Club. The rovers joined the VAFA in 1933 and Fred was their first VAFA delegate. During Fred's 70 plus years with the Rovers, he also served on the VAFA Executive from 1939 until 1982. Fred was instrumental in the Victorian Junior Amateur Football Association forming the backbone of the VAFA Junior Section from 1953 and was subsequently awarded VAFA Life Membership in 1958. His service to the amateurs continued on in many capacities until a few weeks before his passing; some few weeks prior to this round.

20 YEARS AGO - 1986

The biggest game in D Section was between Preston Marist Brothers Old Boys when they traveled south of the Yarra to Glenhuntly Reserve to take on the Balaclava Boys. Balaclava (third) needed to win to draw level with Preston (second) and they started as though they really meant it and but for poor kicking for goal would have held a better lead at the first break 2.6 to 1.1. Preston drew closer at half time and stayed in touch at three quarter time. They then kicked 6 goals to Balaclava's 3 in the last quarter but went down by a solitary point! The home club was over the moon and stated that all players were in the best in a wonderful team effort. Preston were more circumspect and gave the nod to Brydson, Bliss, Ryles, Johnstone, Yendall and Krause (4).

In E Section, Elsternwick made sure of their fourth spot when they ran onto the vast expanse of Como Park, home of Old Geelong Grammarians and ran out comfortable winners 16.14 to 9.10. Best players – Collis, Hill A Contin, Rosewarne, Bean, B Ramsay (Elsternwick) and Baillieu, Williams, Richardson, P Holloway, Thomas, Landale (OGGS).

Doveton kicked the sweep in F Section against St Leonard's, 29.25 to 8.7 and they weren't even in the top four. Although Doveton's publicity officer gave the acknowledgements to his team as "A Team Effort" they had plenty of goal kickers – M Polglaise (5), Ashwood (4), Goodwin (4), Germano (3), Mallon (3). St Leonard's' best were Miles, Goodman, Commerford, Sampson, Valentini and McDonald.

30 YEARS AGO - 1976

The top four teams were playing one another in C Section and at the final siren the competition had evened out noticeably. Fawkner (4th) defeated Old Melburnians (2nd) 19.21 to 16.20. Best players – F McMahon, Foley, Duggan, O'Mara, Ayres, Cash (Fawkner) and Brown, Pisarski, Whitton, Woodbridge, Urquhart, Stuart (OM's). In the other game top team Parkside proved too strong for third placed Old Haileybury, 23.26 to 11.7. Best players – Delaney, Howell, Mulholland, B Harvey, G T Dryden, Ridd (Parkside) and Bouris, Campbell, Cocus, Kane, Newton, P Poole (Haileybury). The top three were now even on points with Fawkner only 1 game behind.

Colin Wills was in his eighth season as a field umpire and had previously played football with Sandringham thirds and over 100 games with Mount Waverley. Colin had also been a Sub-District cricketer. Colin rarely missed a training session and was a great supporter of new umpires.

Evergreen Tony Borrack achieved his 300th game for Commonwealth Bank having started with the Bank's U19 team in 1959. In 1965 Tony had been the Victorian centreman after an outstanding season with the Bank in A Section. Winner of his club's best and fairest award on four occasions (1965, 1967, 1968, and 1973), premiership player and premiership coach, Tony had also become President in 1975. (Tony went on to also become President of Whitefriars in their formative years after following his son to that club.)

40 YEARS AGO - 1966

Old Geelong took top spot from Old Carey in D Section when Carey stumbled against St Patrick's OC and OGGS were too good for National Bank. C Blazey, Poolman, Mackie, Wawn, T Brown and Standisa were better players for OGGS. The Bank's best were McLeod, Sutherland, Philips, Richards, Taylor and Burleigh.

Rick Harley (MHSOB) was not only the leading goal kicker for the season in any section with 62 goals but was more than double any other player in A Section, an outstanding feat.

50 YEARS AGO - 1956

Alphington recorded a great win against second placed Collegians in B Section, 12.7 to 8.10. With Geelong's narrow loss to MHSOB, Alphington now occupied fourth place. Collegians had staged a fight back early in the last quarter but Alphington steadied and held them out. Bowker and Bob Smith did the jobs asked of them by the Alphington coach and Coogan and Shaw were solid. Collegians summed up by saying that Alphington played hard but fair and deserved their win. Collegians best were John McDonald, Barry Hutchens and Ian Unkenstein.

In C Section, Hampton Rovers (second) held a handy lead at half time over Teachers College (third) but the College lads played great footy in the second half to win 10.10 to 10.6. The gap between the two teams had now narrowed to 4 points plus percentage. Teacher's College applauded the efforts of Allan O'Neil for a consistent display and Graeme Allan who battled hard all day. Andrews kicked 3 goals for Hampton and other good players were Brooks, McLeod and Kelton.

Team Of The Half Year

I have had many comments about the team of the half year. Thanks for those, but to clarify it was a tough ask with only two days notice and no time to chat with my valuable correspondents. I think the players selected though were deserving, and I look forward to everyone's contribution towards the final team at season's end.

Review

Bentleigh reclaimed its spot in the four with a resounding 29-point victory over St Marys. In boggy conditions, the Demons jumped to a four-goal lead, which they held for the rest of the game. While Frank Dimmatina and Adam Pittito played well for Bentleigh, the highlight came in the third quarter when BOG Scott Lawry seized a free kick from half-forward. 70 metres out and holding a heavy, soggy ball he gave it all he could with a torpedo that sailed through the big sticks. I was told that the "House of Pain" was heavier on Saturday than the Flemington course proper before the infamous 76' Melbourne Cup where mudlark Van Der Humm saluted! Judging by the result, you would have to agree as West Brunswick kicked only one goal after quarter time and still won. Phil Gomizel and Luke Wilson played well for Monash, while Shannon "Knoll" Monagle and Kade King were good for the winners.

The trip to Artic Park is never fun for visiting sides at the best of times, however, Elsternwick must have thought they took a wrong turn at Albuquerque as they were greeted with almost blizzard like conditions. The match itself, while not pretty regarding marking and kicking, more than made up for it with the determination and courage shown by both sides. However, it was the Wickers who impressed, led by the brilliant Mahony lads they opened up a lead in the second quarter that they deservedly maintained for the remainder of the match to win by two goals.

No reports from the South Melbourne/Kew or Swinburne/UHS matches, but results were as expected. I am told though the Swans were again impressive with the debut of Adrian Bennison of particular note for coach Gerrard Harrington.

Preview

What a fixture we have today as Kew host St.Marys in a match that will go a long way to resolving the relegation candidates for 2006. Both sides are playing reasonable football at the minute and would have serious claims to take the points. While the Saints will be hoping Cam Armstrong can lift his team onto victory, I think it will be the Browns who will salute due to slightly better form and of course, the home ground advantage, and will now go a long way to remaining in D3 in 2007.

We also have another great match up at the top end of the ladder, as West Brunswick makes the trip to the small confines of Elsternwick. Elsternwick impressed me last week with not only the genuine class of players such as Brian Mahony and Jack Neill, but also the determination and discipline of players like Kim Cummins and Alan Patey. In picking my winner I am initially leaning toward West Brunswick, however, given the club's propensity to struggle on the tighter grounds as well as the fact that I believe they may find it a little harder to recover from such a hard slog the previous week, I will tip Elsternwick in a close but exciting match. Swinburne have continued to play entertaining football this season despite the fact they are in D3 "no mans land" with regard to their ladder position. I expect this trend to continue today as they take on a surging Bentleigh. To many, the jury is still out on whether the Demons can challenge South Melbourne for flag favouritism, and today's match may give the naysayers some more ammunition if the Demons fail to impress.

"-" results weren't received. Any discrepancies may be due to non-submission of results by clubs.

However, I will have nothing of this though as I pick the Demons to win and build the momentum with the likes of Brett Stevens continuing to develop and stars such as Brett Stevens coming through the Ressies.

The Warriors travel to Brens Oval to meet old foe UHS-VU in a must win match for both sides. The students have shown they are able to pinch one from the "Big Five" this season, and today's match presents the perfect opportunity as Westbourne appear to be off the boil at the minute. On the flip side, the Warriors must not only win, but they must win well, as percentage could prove to be just as vital come season end. For my winner, I am sticking with the Warriors, but not by the kind of margin that would please coach Fab Gatti.

The Monash/South match will mean little with regard to the make up of the ladder, and as such does pose somewhat of a danger for the Swans today. Monash have been showing significant promise later in the season, and are clearly a much better side on their home paddock. I dearly want to pick Monash as I think this will be their biggest chance to knock off a top side, however, how can I go past the great form of South at the moment? They have been brilliant, so I will stick with them in a close one.

Bentleigh congratulate Scott Lawry on 50 games. Scott is another Under 19 player that joined the senior ranks this year and makes up part of a great running brigade, already part of the leadership group Scott shows all the hallmarks of a being a great senior player. Congratulations also to Adam Ferris on 50 games. Adam is the first of three brothers to play with the club, a popular member with the players Adam can be found in a variety of positions but his reliable marking and steady kicking sees him handy around goals. Finally, congratulations to Ben Padgham on 150 games. Coming up through the Under 19's Ben has been a consistent performer and one player that rarely misses a game. A great supporter of the club and an attendee at functions Ben's only weakness is keeping his shirt on. The players, committee and supporters wish you well on this significant milestone.

ELSTERNWICK PARK GATES

The main gate (Glenhuntly Road) is open every match day.

The rear gate (off St. Kilda Street) will only be open when there are no matches scheduled for Elsternwick Park No. 2 Oval.

When parking in the area behind the grandstand please park in a manner that would allow cars around you to be able to leave.

Players and officials who do not produce tickets at the gates will be counted and the club invoiced accordingly.

Clubs are issued with an appropriate number of tickets for players and officials.

Golf Ball look

Goal umpires' advisor Andrew Barnes takes his job seriously and at the start of the year went out on a limb to say that no goal umpire will make a mistake this year. Well Barnesy, we are all human, and a mistake (or two) has occurred, so what did you do about it? You stayed true to your word and shaved your head. A great look! The cranium now looks as white as a golf ball and we can see a tattoo of Hot Dot #1 being added if anymore bets fail. All you goalies stay on your toes as we wouldn't want Barnesy to do anything too silly....or would we?

Tough break

We talk about umpiring with "blood in our boots" although a few younger ones these days tend to shirk the issue when they have a little nagging injury or the day is a bit too cold or wet. Not our own legend Kevin (Chilli) Segota, who has continued goal umpiring with a broken finger. It's in plaster with a pin inserted in it. Yeow! To add to this tough effort Chilli was appointed to last weekend's representative game and as usual did his Umpires Association proud. If you're wondering how he broke his finger – well, ask him yourself, it's an interesting story....

Mistaken Identity

While umpiring down at Whitefriars U/19 last week, a fellow supporter recognised me (Leah) and asked "we haven't seen you for a while Andrea", the reply was "sorry I'm the other one". Andrea hasn't umpired for a few years and it's good to see that her impression has not been lost. By the way there is a 30cm in height difference between Andrea and I for future reference.

Wet Wet Wet

We think you will all agree that last Saturday we really experienced what a winter sport is all about. Sloshing around in the mud and deep puddles in the torrential rain tested the umpiring skills to the max and obviously provided the players with challenges that they hadn't experienced this year. This made the hot chocolate provided to the umpires at half-time at Mazenod all that more welcome. To follow up, they were looked after again after the match with chicken noodle soup and bread rolls. Once again the hospitality of the Mazenod OCFC and the sensational Chris and Denise Kelly was second to none. Always a pleasure to visit Central Reserve.

Training nights

If you think that some of Rob Sneddon's Tuesday training nights are harder than others, then you can blame the Thursday night poker games. Rob at times gets a little bit upset at stages with the players and although he says he reckons he calms down we think he holds the grudge over to the next training night. So all you umpires need to "play your cards right" and you won't get flogged on the track.

RESPECT THE UMPIRE – RESPECT THE GAME!!

It had to end; the reign of the Turtles that started in April fell over in the rain of July! No excuses from the Turtles though, they simply dipped their lids to a wonderfully committed Box Hill North! All other games went to script despite the elements.

Review

With the rain falling, the wide expanse of Eltham College was a set up for an upset. Box Hill North, in probably their best win since joining the Amateurs, adapted to the conditions with aplomb. Currie starred in the ruck whilst Penny made light of the conditions and was his elusive best. Eltham's best included Runco and Ogilvie who both starred in defence.

Power House managed to escape with the four points against North Brunswick. The House were only a few goals up at the last break but the experienced ones came to the fore as Cooper, Grahek and the returning McRae got them home. Newton was dangerous up forward for NB with 3 goals whilst Pizzari was once again a star.

Big win for Albert Park as they accounted for Richmond. Payne with 5 led the grades goal kickers for the day whilst the reliable Baker was also good. Hibbins and Speakman were the best for Richmond.

Hawthorn got out to a 5 goal lead early in the second quarter before a defiant Syndal kept on hitting back. The Sinners threatened early in the last but the Hawks steadied for a solid win. The mobile Bingham starred around the ground for Syndal who were also well served by Healy. Mundy and Garlick were the Hawks best.

Finally, Bulleen hosted Eley Park and were able to record a solid win. Cookson and Orwin were the stars for the winners whilst Houlden and Kenyan starred for Eley Park.

Preview

With no relegation battle taking place, the interest lies in both the double chance and 4th spot.

Hard to see the top two falling over although one will be looking over their shoulders after they clash this week. A House loss might open the door for the Hawks but like Eltham, the Hawks winning streak might come to an end soon.

As for 4th spot, Bulleen would have been showering away on Saturday, fully expecting to be a game clear in fourth. The shock win by Box Hill North would have caused cold showers all round! Don't think it is a race in two however, Albert Park have a run home that gives them an outside chance. Looking at the draw, Bulleen will start clear favourite in two games (both away from home) and also face the top three (all at home). It's a tough draw from here! BHN on the other hand, will start favourites in at least 4 games. The smoky, Albert Park, need to win the next four. If they do, it is possible they will be equal on points with both Bulleen and BHN. Close!

Pivotal game would appear to be in round 14 when Bulleen host their local rival. No doubt the battle will go down to the wire!

Match of the round (if not season) sees Power House hosting Eltham. Both sides have cruised through the middle part of the season, getting ready to power up as the finals loom. Have chopped and changed on this one all day. The strength of the House against the pace of the Turtles? Home ground advantage? Tough to call, however Eltham by less than a goal.

Another pivotal game sees Albert Park host Bulleen. The Falcons are starting to get some momentum as they settle back into their home turf (no truth in the rumour that Coach Bedford is considering joining the Save Albert Park Protestors next year) and they will not get a bigger crunch game than against Bulleen this week. I liked what I saw of Albert Park and I fancy them this week in a minor boilover.

"..." results weren't received. Any discrepancies may be due to non-submission of results by clubs.

Eley Park and Syndal clash with both sides looking towards 2007 already. The Sharks have fallen of the pace in recent times whilst the Sinners aren't a bad unit. Syndal by a few. Hawthorn host North Brunswick in their fifth home game on the trot. Glenferrie Oval has become their castle and hard to see how North will have the keys to get in. Hawks by about 5 goals.

Finally, the all conquering Box Hill North welcomes Richmond with percentage a huge blip on their radar. Can't see any big game hangover for BHN as they further stake their finals claims!

Ball Briefs

This Sunday at the Ross Gregory Power House have their inaugural legends game. All past and present players are invited along with their families and any other VAFA supporters/players as we have clowns (non playing), face painters plus of course a legends game between our past players mainly made up from our '88 & '96 Grand Final sides & 2000 Premiership side.

VAFA legend Peter Hutchison will coach against 2000 Premiership coach and current Yarra Valley coach Kevin Barnes.

All are welcome to attend and make this a special day on the Power House calendar.

M I M I L E S T O N E S

Power House congratulate Mark 'Stormer' Driessen on his 50th game this week Stormer is having his best season this year after the last few seasons have been interrupted either by University/work or injury, perhaps it's the girlfriend's influence? Well done buddy from all at Power House

Bulleen Cobras AFC would like to congratulate Tim Orwin on reaching 150 games. Tim's hard work around the ground ensures he is a vital link in the Cobras team. Tim is a special character around the club and everyone is thrilled for him in reaching this milestone. Also Ben Cookson plays his 50th game. Ben is a damaging midfielder who over his 50 games with the club has shown why he is one of the best midfielders in D4, and he is a future leader at the club. Well done to both players from all at the Cobras.

As we slowly edge our way closer to the finals, the race narrows down to five teams fighting for glory and five teams fighting for a little respect and inevitably the end of the season. Old Xavs for me at this stage, but there are challengers.

Review

Match of the round and surely one of the lowest scoring games in history saw St Bernard's put Marcellin under the covers by two points. Marcellin, now well and truly out of the race, while SB consolidate fourth spot, Tom Caven best on for the victors in an impressive performance. Upset of the week – SKOBS pumping an insipid Rupo. Having turned their season full circle, the winners were well served by Matt Murphy (5 goals) who turned Rupo's day into a real nightmare. And it hurt, it really hurt.

Uni Blues continued their strong form, putting pay to Old Scotch easily while still managing to boot eighteen behinds. Henry Weddel was brilliant all day in a team that could be the dark horse come September. I suggest a big round of goal kicking practice this week at the Craw. In other games, Old Xavs easily accounted for Collegians and De La gave BV a lesson. The top two teams flexing muscle and delivering wins expected at this stage.

Preview

Match of the round, St Bernard's hosting Blues should be a cracker. Blues have come of age and sit one game clear of the hosts...let's see that margin extend. Hot Breds – I'm tipping the Blues. Rupo badly need a home game win against Marcellin. I'll tip you fellas but really, don't throw all the hard work away. Best of the rest – Old Xavs to thump SKOBS, Old Scotch just over BV and De La by a mile over Collegians. Bring on the finals. Lock of the week Freo to beat the Demons over at Subi on Sunday. Should get some decent odds. Any feedback - beatonc@tabcorp.com.au. Happy punting!

It was a wild scene for the Raiders and T's playing next to that water catchment known as Bulleen Road. Examples of the appalling conditions included water rapids down the boundary and buckets of hot water to keep blood circulating in player's hands. The Raiders attacked and pumped the ball forward from the start, running out 103 point winners and now sporting the league's best percentage. Ruckman McKenna dominated while Paul Watson was dangerous up forward. The Wellers took the ham by 7 points controlling possession in the last, with the gutsy Fielders close. The Friars toppled the Sharks by 33 with Allemand (2), Kaldor and Harris standouts. Carey took Brighton by 10 points as Parker looks to have taken over the reigns from injured Marshall Bull with 3. McQueen-Miscamble took the best on honours. While in the upset of the round, the OM's were displaced at the top of the tree in a 3 point heart stopper to the visiting Blacks, in conditions where a goal was worth 3.

The Sharks will host the inform Raiders this week, and with Parade having some big names returning from a mid season break, it's hard to see them going down. Parade by 45. The Tonners take on the Friars who have regained some of their early form. But the trip down the coast will be too much with Brighton 4 goal winners. The two bottom sides meet, but the Fielders are better than a side sitting 9th and should win with ease. The next two are headliners as firstly, the Blacks - after their huge win against the Melburnians - host new league leader Carey, and the visitors should bring the Blacks back to earth. Finally the Wellers at home have been a tough ask all year and with OM, firstly struggling against Caulfield and then losing to Uni, it should be Camberwell to make the top 4 very, very, very interesting after they have a win.

The top four looks nearly set after MHSOB continued their 'ducks and drakes' season by serving up a punishing performance against a hapless Bentleigh. Bentleigh, playing at home, blew their chance to stay in touch with the top four with a 37 point defeat at the hands of MHSOB, a team that is as predictable as the Melbourne weather. Bentleigh now sits 16 premiership points adrift of fourth placed Ormond, a task that is only mathematically a possibility. Oostveen and Evans were solid contributors for MSHOB, while Halliday was best for Bentleigh. On a typical winter's afternoon, wet weather football was the order of the day and the low scores of some teams reflected the conditions. Ormond thrashed Emmaus, Old Ivanhoe did it easy against Ajax, SBMT had their way against Old Essendon with my man Bodinnar kicking 6, while Oakleigh had little trouble with La Trobe.

Preview

Chelsworth Park is where you want to be this Saturday to see Old Ivanhoe and Ormond battling out for that crucial third spot. Ormond haven't been as impressive as Old Ivanhoe of late, but they have still been winning, a sign that they are a confident team. Old Ivanhoe on the other hand have taken on all before them recently, with their loss to SBMT in Round 10 sparking them into some devastating form. They should be too good for Ormond at home and will remain in that third spot for the time being. Oakleigh travel out to play Old Essendon and should return home with the four points, while SBMT also head away from home to take on the enigmatic MHSOB, but the Tigers should have their measure. Bentleigh will bounce back with a win against Emmaus after their disappointing loss last week, while La Trobe at home should beat Ajax, but not by any great margin.

Review

Powerhouse/South Mornington has finally broken through for their first win of the season with a convincing 41 point win against Monash. Tristan Marmo and Jessy Stanley put in stellar performances to see their team over the line, with Powerhouse/Sth Mornington holding Monash goalless after half-time. Old Mentonians got revenge on De La when they met again in difficult conditions on the weekend, with the first half providing a real arm wrestle with both sides struggling to come to grips with the conditions. Only 1 point separated the sides at half time, however, the conditions seemed to suit the smaller Panther players as they adapted better after the main break. Daniel Daparis was in everything up forward and inspired his teammates with courageous acts while Simon O'Halloran starred on the ball with a best on ground performance in their 21 point win. Despite the ordinary conditions, Mazenod opened the game against Oakleigh with some excellent running football and had posted 5 goals by _ time to put the game beyond doubt. They further added 6.13 to Oakleigh's 1.2 with Luke Castledine best afield with 3 goals. Old Haileyburians smashed Hampton while Parkdale had the bye.

Preview

A cracker of a game will see Old Mentonians play host to a rampaging Mazenod in what is a tipping nightmare for this scribe. Mazenod gave Old Mentonians a touch-up last time they met but that seems an eternity ago for Old Mentonians who have proven themselves as a contender since then. If this game was being played at Mazenod I would be tipping with more confidence, however, winning form is good form and while both teams have it, I am still sticking with Mazenod in a tight affair. Eleven different goal kickers last week for Old Haileyburians would make any opposition backline sweat in anticipation and unfortunately Oakleigh Clayton will feel the full force of this quality side this week. Powerhouse/Sth Mornington will be confident after their first win last week and should give themselves every chance against Hampton, however, Hampton are a proud club and should bounce back with a win at home. Parkdale are fresh from the break and play host to De La, a team with indifferent form of late, however in saying that, De La should still be too strong.

The Westies sink Xavs further into their midseason slump.

Not registering a win since round 8, the Xaverians cannot take trick going down to Westbourne at home by 28. In miserable conditions Daniel Sidwell continued his tally for the Westies kicking two. Two goals should be considered a bag in what were atrocious conditions. Rupo travelled to Ballarat to play the Old Saints, ironically more local than most of the city grounds. Unfortunately it wasn't close enough, going down by 20 points. Chris Ford and Anthony Torpy kicked two a piece for the victors.

Kew played host to Aquinas and in another low scoring affair the Aquinians demoralised the home side running home 27 point winners with Maaskant and Sean Ragozzini (2) leading the way. Finally the Reds made an example of the Bullants who drop out of the 4. Interestingly Fitzroy were the only side to score more than 10 goals at the weekend in their 63 point win.

This week Aquinas play host to the Old Saints and with percentage the only thing separating them from top spot, it seems the struggling Saints may edge them closer. Aquinas by lots. There hasn't been a better time for the Woodsmen to travel back down the highway to host a desperate Xavs outfit, given the latter's recent form. But I think the Xaverians will take it, having more to play for. The Bullants host Kew and will be looking to reverse the last result between the two sides. With Tonelli, Voglis and Illingworth in full flight, the Bullants should have little trouble at Ted Ajani. While the Westies host the Lions who are now in the 4, by default, having the break last week. Therry by a couple of straight kicks. The Reds take a week off, before their run for the flag.

CLUB XVIII SECTION

by Norm Nugent

The great leveler "rain" was to the fore last week, and along with changed line ups as well as different venues, made for another round of upsets and close finishes as scoring was at a minimum in many games. To achieve a 73% success rate was commendable (to me at least!!)

Section 1

Once again Old Xaverians proved too strong for De la Salle, as the "Crocodiles" in winning by 6 points dampened the De La reunion celebrations. Old Melbourne moved a step closer to the final four with a comfortable 29 point win over St Bede's/ Mentone Tigers. Leaders Prahran had the better of Old Xaverians 2 and ran out winners by 28 points. University Blues adapted to the muddy conditions better than did Old Scotch, who trailed by 10 points at the long interval. Although Scotch held the Blues to a solitary behind in the second half, the determined Blues hung on to the lead to win by 2 points. For the Blues, their A Reserve Coach Marcus Coleman starred across half back. St Kevin's virtually lost all hope for a final four berth when they went down to Mazenod by 5 points.

Section 2

Collegians "kicked the sweep" in defeating Old Brighton by 88 points in a one sided game at Albert Park. A very inaccurate Monash Blues proved far too strong for St Bernard's, who finished 39 points in arrears. Monash did find scoring difficult because of the elements and the determination of the St Bernard's defenders. Best for Monash included Todd Blasch, Steven Mentha, Gavin Prendergast and Donald Thomas. St Bernard's were well served by A.J.Matthews, Andrew Catterall and Tristan McGlade.

Marcellin recorded a convincing first win of the season when they defeated Therry Penola by 58 points. As a result Therry Penola have fallen to last place. Inaccuracy in front of goal by Fitzroy Reds proved a major factor in their 13 point loss to University Blacks, whose early ascendancy and greater accuracy were rewarded with victory and a four point buffer for their hold on fourth place. Best for the Blacks were George Allan (a fast bowler?), Glen Thompson and Corey Watts. For the Reds, Ronald Twigg, Adrian Marcon and Tim. Campbell were best. Mt Lilydale won their eighth successive match when they defeated an inaccurate Whitefriars by 27 points. Whitefriars started well on the muddy Domeney Oval but the bulk of Mt Lilydale defenders and "on ball" players saw them gradually gain the ascendancy. Best for Whitefriars were Peter O'Brien (3 goals), Paul Hennessy and Chris. Ryan.

Section 3

Old Essendon cruised to a 70 point win over Old Geelong, who found scoring very difficult. Old Geelong were short of players at the start but did field eighteen as the game progressed.

Maybe this was a problem as they scored their only goal early in the opening quarter and three behinds thereafter. Old Essendon's best included coach John Rush, captain John Hughes, Robert Appleton and Jason Goodger.

North Old Boys/ St Patrick's took an early lead over a depleted La Trobe University and continued to build it throughout the game, which ended with the home team 65 points in front. Best for the winning Combine were: veteran, Trevor Ludeman, James Bottomley and Anthony Egan. Despite marked inaccuracy, Old Trinity scored a 49 point win over Old Scotch at Camberwell Sports Ground. Caulfield Grammarians consolidated their grip on fourth place with a 34 point victory over Emmaus/ St Leo's. Beaumaris opened well against Fitzroy Reds and built a seemingly winning lead early in the game. However the Reds persisted and backed each other up as the ball skidded in the rain. Beaumaris, who failed to score after half time were overtaken as the Reds went on to win by 14 points. The Reds' best were Wayne Bahr, Tom Leske and veteran leader Greg. Box. For Beaumaris, Tim. Cotter, James Hogarth and Coach, Paul Sherman were best.

Section 1

Despite improved form shown last week by University Blues, I expect leaders, Prahran to again defeat them. Mazenod have been showing gradual improvement over recent weeks and I expect them to continue this form today by again defeating Old Xaverians 2. Old Xaverians should defeat St Kevin's for the first time in three meetings. Now that the Xaverians have regained second place, they will defend it with determination. St Kevin's recent form does not inspire confidence that they can again topple the Old Xaverians. De La Salle, who visit St Bede's/Mentone Tigers, will be all out to build percentage as they strive to regain second place. All form this season does point to a win by the Malvern based Old Boys. In another chapter of the longest running contest in Australian Football, Old Melburnians travel to Camberwell to play Old Scotch, who despite being considered the big improvers, went down last week. As fourth place will be the prize for today's winner, I expect a titanic struggle befitting these two long established rivals. Because the game is at Camberwell, I lean to Old Scotch to have a narrow victory.

Section 2

St Bernard's, the enigma of the competition, should score a win at home today by defeating Marcellin, who will offer spirited opposition. Although Old Brighton have a formidable home ground record, I suspect they will lower their colours today to Whitefriars, who still harbour thoughts of a final position. Whitefriars won the Round 4 game by 71 points; a margin I expect to be reduced greatly today. University Blacks should again receive solid opposition from Collegians, who failed by the minimum margin in Round 4. Today, on the Crawford Oval, with fourth place as a prize, I expect another close contest, which I favour the Blacks to win. Fitzroy Reds make the long journey to Oak Park to play last placed, Therry Penola. On the available evidence the reds should win comfortably. In the "game of the season", undefeated leaders, Monash Blues journey to play Mt Lilydale, who seem to be their biggest threat. Monash held the "Mountain Men" to a solitary goal in Round 4 but since that 99 point reverse Mt Lilydale players have won over the other eight teams...home and away.

Selecting the winner is no easy task as the Monash talent is offset by the Lilydale home advantage. I suspect the even talents of the Monash team will carry them to a narrow victory.

Section 3

For a semi final preview, Caulfield Grammarians travel north to Old Trinity, where they will find the big Hudson Oval a severe test on their ageing legs. I expect Trinity to win today. The two bottom sides, Old Scotch and La Trobe University, who were none too impressive last week meet at the University. These teams tied in Round 4 and another close encounter should ensue today. I select La Trobe as I expect the big ground will really test Old Scotch player's stamina. Leaders, Old Essendon journey to Beaumaris where the home side will offer strong opposition. Lack of team work did not help Beaumaris last week and they will find Old Essendon at least as talented opposition as were the Reds. Old Essendon have too much at stake to drop this match and I select them. Against Fitzroy Reds, in Round 4, Emmaus/ St Leo's hit rock bottom as they went down by 88 points. They can only improve but the Reds have too. Even at Bennettswood, I select them to win narrowly and further thwart Emmaus/St Leo's efforts to gain fourth place.

RESULTS OF INVESTIGATIONS

Tuesday July 18, 2006

Old Essendon charged with conduct unbecoming in that after the siren of their under-19 match against MHSOB on Saturday July 8 an unknown supporter entered the field of play and allegedly struck an MHSOB player.

Old Essendon, who were unable to identify the spectator, were found to be negligent in not controlling their spectators. Old Essendon under-19s to be put on a $500 bond for the remainder of 2006, forfeited on any re-occurrence of such events.
