

On the Record

by Cameron Noakes

In On the Record last week there was a discussion about representative football and the somewhat thorny issue of player payments was raised.

In what has increasingly become a dollar-driven society, the amateurs is unique because we don't pay our players.

What that means for our competition is that our stars are vulnerable to tempting offers from rival clubs and if you have a look at various metropolitan leagues and country leagues you see a lot of great VAFA players running around.

But what happens when players sign at a club with a financial agreement and they don't perform?

Basically the answer is, pressure builds.

I have discovered that it is not uncommon for some players who come to the VAFA just to be relieved to play for free.

Although it sounds clichéd, there is something about playing for the love of the game that can make a professional footballer feel good about football again.

There is certainly a philosophy out there from some players that it is a relief to play for love and not feel guilty about whether their performance warranted their fee.

We have seen this year a number of players who left the competition to play in a professional league, didn't like their new environment and have returned to their VAFA clubs in the same season.

If you look at the recent events in the AFL, it would be fair to suggest big bucks build big egos.

And when one ego becomes bigger than the team, it can be incredibly destructive.

I always believe the best teams have an energy about them that is tangible.

You can see it when the team is playing, you can see it when they walk on the ground, you can sense it at training.

That doesn't mean all the players are best mates but it means all the players understand their role in the team.

I'm not even sure a coach can create such a bond with his players. It just happens.

But what the coach can do is control the playing list and if there is an individual – no matter how talented – who doesn't fit in, the coach should give that player the tap on the shoulder.

There is no point persisting with troublemakers and not one player is bigger than the team.

Yes, every team has its stars and maybe the stars needed to be treated differently at times, but all stars realise that there are other blokes in the group that helps them shine.

If your champion player doesn't realise the game is not just about him, it is time to ask him to move on.

You never know, at another club the player could pull his head in and everyone might think the coach was fool to axe him. At the end of the day, you have to realise your decision was made for the greater good...the good of the team.

A SECTION

Old Trinity – You're having a laugh!

Once again I put my hand up in shame. The only senior A Section side to remain undefeated since May has been sadly neglected in these esteemed pages. Every week Trinity kick their regulation 7- 10 goals, every week they just scrape in and every week I mutter to myself, "They'll fall over soon". Perhaps influenced by the pasting they received at the hands of Uni Blues and mindful of their low 90s percentage, I gave them short shrift.

But they're in this comp right up to their eyeballs. Half-back Damien Buttler, always a consistent performer in years gone by, is probably the form player of A Section. Deadly small forward Andy Cultrera ices games week after week and is very difficult to match up on. Full-back David Beardsley looks like he spends a lot of time in the sauna but he is virtually never beaten. My memory is tenuous but I can recall only Dan Cullinan and Dan Jordan giving him grief over the years. Speedster Tom Eckersley is arguably the rookie of the year to date.

And then there's Phil Gaut, very much the Costello to Leigh Carlson's Howard over the years but now a respected senior coach in his own right. Gaut has the Ts playing accountable, defensive football and has turned an unheralded list into a pretty scary outfit. On Saturday, he did his homework and shut down most of the Haileybury prime movers. Gaut will be sweating on Ramsden's tribunal appearance (at the time of writing= result unknown) but he should be mighty proud of his efforts.

An A Section Premiership Anyone?

Everyone I speak to talks up Uni Blues as if they are a first starter at Murray Bridge showing $37 on the tote with little to no trial form. "Hornet", they say, "I reckon the Blues could be a smoky in the run to September". Well Sherlocks, stop bugging me, we all know what the students are capable of. Ask Old Scotch. Another 30+ possession game to Mark Paterson, while Quinton Gleeson (having one of his best seasons) and Dirk Heinz (I have a look-alike for you Dirk, it's been playing on my mind for two years and when it comes to me, you'll be the first to know) both turned the ladder leaders inside out. The Cardinals were blown off the park against Xavs and managed to regroup so expect them to bounce back quickly. Meanwhile, expect the Blues to scare the living hell out of all the top teams as they chase their second flag in three years.

But they have to make the four first....

And so do Xavs. You could argue that their 2006 list is the strongest in years. Any team that can afford the luxury of Damien Lynch down back is not exactly struggling for numbers. But they mix their form and haven't yet conquered their Toorak Park demons. It's unlikely but not beyond the realms of possibility that Xavs, Uni or Haileybury (or all three!) miss the four with a percentage of 130+.

If De La makes it (and, at face value, they have the easiest run home) it will be through the agency of their mosquito fleet, particularly Duggan and Rayson. De La were a bit undermanned going into the game at the House of Horrors but just hung on, despite a plucky effort from the home side. Brett Cook, in only his 2nd game of amateur football, was best for Bernards while the very consistent Aaron Shields got the nod at De La.

And don't even get me started on Old Ivanhoe. Where did I tip them to finish in March? Holy Moly, what a dingbat. On Saturday it was former Sydney Swan John Stevens who was the spark, kicking five exquisite goals. There's mixed reports on the availability of James Hope but all signs point towards his imminent return.

Get your dartboard, loosen the figures, take aim, close your eyes and try not to decapitate anyone in the immediate vicinity. It's an extraordinary season and anyone's flag....

Selections

Speaking of that dartboard, my tipping has taken a decidedly shambolic turn of late. Time to get some credibility back in my life and tip Trinity over De La, Uni over Bernards, Haileybury at the Badlands, Xavs (deep breath) at Toorak over Marcellin

(who have a great record there). And in a sentence I never thought I'd write two months ago, Old Ivanhoe to move to the top of A Section after disposing of Old Scotch.

Trivia

Last week's answer...1892... Congratulations to Gladys Chips of Kew East who snail mailed the correct answer. Serious one this week, if you get it, I dips me lid... Which current A Section senior footballer has collected the most Woodrow Medal votes in his career? First correct answer to jonathan_g_horn@yahoo.co.uk wins a bottle of red.

MILESTONES

Old Ivanhoe congratulate Marty Veal on 200 games this week (250 as a whole for the Ammo's with his 50 at Banyule). Two time premiership winner in 94/95 in sections D & C , club captain in 93,96 & 97, B & F in 95 & 97, and a member of the The Team of the Century. A superb reader of the game, Marty was always ahead of his time as a counter attacking half back flanker who can cover an amazing amount of territory and punish the opposition with long runs and raking accurate kicks to the forward line. Still playing the odd game in the Seniors , maybe he can add the ultimate prize of a Section A medallion to one of the great careers at OIG.

St.Bernards congratulate David Blunt (39 sen, 9 res, 2 Club 18) a gritty onballer in the seniors who runs and runs all day, and Andrew Smith (36 res, 8 U19, 6 Club 18) a consistent performer over the years, who have both recently reached 50 games for the club.

Old Haileyburians' congratulate Ben Langford-Jones on 100 games for the Bloods last Saturday. Son of VAFA legend Andrew and another Old Haileyburian to achieve the father/son 100 games milestone, first played in 1994 whilst still at school helping out the U19's and Reserves. Missed season 1999 and retired at the end of 2001 but has come back this year to accomplish this significant milestone. Well done 'Beanie'.

Old Haileyburians' also congratulate Laz Siapantas on 50 games for the club last week. Recruited from Monash Blues in 2003, Laz immediately made an impact around the packs with his explosive bursts of speed and his willingness and ability to get the hard ball, assets which earned him VAFA selection in the AAFCC Carnival team. Missing the last half of that year overseas, Laz returned in 2004 and has not looked back and all at the Bloods look forward to many more games from this exciting player. Well done 'Laz'.

REVIEW

After a good opening term kicking into the breeze, Caulfield opened up a handy lead, but Mazenod were getting plenty of the footy and but for inaccurate kicking could have been in front at the first change. The Fields came out with all guns blazing in the second, kicking 6 twins to have the game sewn up at the half. Pretty nondescript second half with neither side gaining too much but the Noddors perhaps playing a bit better. Benny Carboni carried on from his state game with a blinder, whilst Mark Pennyquick and Brett Sinclair acquitted themselves well.

Old Brighton very happy to win out at Friar Park against a Whitefriars side who looked better than their ladder position belies. Tough hard first half with lots of strong tackling until the Tonners slipped away in the third term when their mid field stepped up the gas.

The young guns Scott Oliver, Andrew Paroissien, and Damien Hughes were excellent for the Tonners as were Phelan and Matt Gadsden.

The resurgent St Kevins continued on their merry way with an important victory over a competitive Beaumaris. The Sharks had all the play early and had a 4 goal break until St Kevins forced their way back by playing great team orientated footy and despite the best efforts of their opponents managed a good win. Paul Greenham continued his purple patch of form, and Matthew Murphy made a fine debut. Sean Coote and Mark Ensor as usual solid for Beauy and Justin Heath roved well.

Another good win by Collegians in front of their heroes of 1956. They got off to a good start ran well and kicked to position to overwhelm MHSOB who acknowledged they were beaten by a better side. Richard Hosking and Nick Harrison are both in terrific form and Dick Henebery snapped a couple of good ones. Young Tom Bartholmew was best for the Unicorns supported by Stu McCully and Rhys Limbrick.

It was a case of who made the least mistakes as Old Essendon coasted to a regulation 5 goal win over University Blacks who must rue their wasted opportunities in front of goal which in all reality probably cost them the game. Better players for the winners were Full Back of the century Skurrie, young Roscoe Tanner, Boomer Clifton, with a special mention to the up and coming Trevaskis. For the Blacks, Sam Jess, Matthew Watson, Evo, and the Colonel all had a crack.

PREVIEW

A couple of season defining games this week.

Old Brighton welcomes

St Kevins to South Road. Promises to be a beauty this one, both in good form and an important result for them both. Both have been aided by some pretty good inclusions in the past couple of weeks but Hendra and Dawes add a new dimension to the Tonners. This, coupled with the home ground advantage has them just winning.

Just down the road at Shark Park another good game is sure to take place as the Caulfield Grammarians make the short trek across town to visit their hosts. Beaumaris have struggled a bit against some of the bigger bodied B Grade sides in the past weeks and may find the smaller faster running Caulfield side more to their liking. The Fields have a bit too much at stake though today to drop this one.

To say that Mazenod must win today is an understatement. They do display patches of good football but need to maintain it for the full 4 quarters to trouble the Blacks today. The Blacks too will be desperate to win to keep the pressure on the Fields and even though it's at Central it's still the Blacks for me.

Cannot see the loser of the MHSOB versus Whitefriars clash surviving in B Section in 2006. So the stakes are high. In fact so high they will be going to extraordinary lengths to take the 4 points. Both have played well in patches in the past month so it should be a cracker of a game. Would love to tip a draw and am not sure who to tip so will stick to my tried and true home ground trick and go with the High.

The Match of the Season takes place today as Old Essendon welcome the unbeaten Collegians. Both are excellent sides in top form so it should really be a ripper of a game. Collegians have largely been untroubled all year and have yet to be put to the sword. But they know they will have been in a game today as OEG would absolutely love to be the first to claim their scalp. They certainly are a chance but I just don't think that the visitors will drop one today against a likely finals opponent.

M I MILESTONES E S

When the Beumaris F.C. joined the Amateurs in 1995 Chris Martin made an immediate impact as a key member of that season's U/19 Premiership team. In the eleven years since, he has become one of the most respected leaders and players we have seen at the club. Senior Captain for the past three years, Club Champion in 2002 & 2004 as well as four placings in the B & F, V.A.F.A. Representative player, a leader of the 2003 Premiership side, Chris has left an indelible impression on everyone who has been involved with the club during that time and we heartily congratulate him on playing his 150th game this week. This has been a milestone achieved by courage and persistence and with the help of a very supportive family. Well done Marty!

DON'T OVERLOAD YOUR PLAYERS

It was fascinating to see the recent technological advances in AFL footy with St Kilda FC the latest to purchase Ipod type devices for players to view highlight packages at their leisure. Coach Grant Thomas explained that players absorb information different ways. Obviously we haven't the same circumstances in the Amateurs, but we still have to be careful we don't "overload" players' minds with too much information in the small amount of face-to-face time we get with them.

Quite often when we are winning games, everyone tells us we are a genius and we remain comfortable with the players' progress. It's when we start losing, or maybe leading up to finals, that we start 'covering our bases'.

In my second year at Therry when we were on a losing streak, I was guilty of providing players with excess information, which ultimately confused players and blocked some of their instincts. This led to players 'second guessing'. When a reliable confidante pointed this out, I held short meetings after training and limited the time I spent prematch, resulting in immediate results.

That said, there are a number of ways we can get around bombarding our troops with ideas before a game. (Many of the following you will already have considered or used)

- * Hold a short meeting after training for specific set ups e.g. opposition players, kick ins etc
- * Have a pre-game meeting at another venue (particularly valuable for 2s and Club 18 who tend to feel 'second best'). A breakfast meeting ahead of an important game makes the players feel special and can give them bragging rights to their mates]
- * Discuss specific goals to specific groups (e.g. For the backmen; no opposition marks inside 50m, 5 shepherds etc). The captain of the backline or the back coach can keep players who are shifted to the back line informed of these goals.
- * Give specific goals to specific players that the group in general may not need to know (e.g. in a poor side a player at half back may be told to try and carry the footy 15m and then kick to a team mate in a dangerous position. It's no good telling Charlie Bloggs this as he may not have the talent to carry it out).

*Display charts around room where players can refer to set ups and goals. This may save you verbalising.(e.g. 'Look at the chart re kick in zone' or 'Look at our 1% targets today') which will save you a lot of word usage presuming the players have already been briefed in these areas.

* Have your Specialist coach give a short presentation to the side before leaving oval on a training night. If the Ruck coach is doing some stoppage work with the Under 19 onballers get the whole team together at the end of the session so he can quickly explain what they have been working on. Emphasis here is on 'quickly' as it's more important the specialist group has a deeper understanding of the set ups than taking the risk of overloading the whole team with in depth information.

* Use different people to present some information instead of the players always hearing your voice. (e.g. Use. your leadership group to present a short report. If your captain is a forward he may present some words on how important it is to keep forward line open, run lines and centre footy which saves you preaching this for the umpteenth time. Use your other staff to present information. This also helps validate their role.

* Perhaps you could time your prematch so you don't go overtime.

- Handouts are always useful for players to take away and think about. You could make them accountable by asking a few questions at your team meeting to see who had read it. In the long term it may ensure players read it if they know they may be questioned on it at some stage.

There are many more ways of 'mixing up' presentation of your plans. Some will work and some will fail but at least you are giving your players a chance to take in the main thrust of your game plans. You are only really limited by the use of your imagination.

This C Section column is proudly brought to you by the letters "R" and "F" and the number "6". R is for Relegation battles and Reality checks, whilst F is for Finals aspirations and Fitzroy's fate. 6 represents the number of teams in contention for both finals and relegation. Well, at least that narrows the field somewhat from recent weeks!!

REVIEW

The OC's win over the Reds casts Brunswick's season in a whole new light, despite the promise of early season. The Redders have pretty much gone win/loss each week up until the last three, which they've dropped, and now face the UnBedeables (thanks PK). Last week they coughed up valuable percentage to a rejuvenated Old Camberwell side more desperate in defence. Fitzroy missed some straightforward chances, kicking 10 straight points before their first major, and may look back on this game as the turning point of their season (one way or the other!). For the victors, Damian Mc Guigan was fantastic on the last line of defence, Stephen Dery stood tall in the ruck all day and Sam Peasnell celebrated his birthday with 5 goals.

Tom Roberts, Chris Nihilli and Tom Spurling have hitherto been support acts for NOBSPC, but they all played great games on the weekend, showing the increasing depth at the Gillon Oval. None however could overshadow the commanding effort of Mick Barker, who was back to vintage goal-kicking form bagging 9. At the other end, Yaron Rappaport provided the goalkicking avenue which, given Bloom was well held and Rosen unavailable, gave his team a fighting chance. Whilst the Jackas, on the back of Corey Jankie and Jared Raleigh, managed to get within a goal early in the last term, the Combine rallied brilliantly to kick the last 7 majors of the game.

Monash celebrated Semester 2 with a huge week on the track, roaring out of the sheds to snuff out the contest by the end of the first term. Game over - thank you linesmen, thank you ballboys. Aaron Williams was superb in game 100, and Luke Creamer had one of his best in the pale blue guernsey. Make no mistake, the Ashes are going to be "Fearsome at Frearson" for the remainder of the season. For Parade, Dean Richardson has been great since his elevation, and Adam Curran would be a good tip for their B&F, but they need more support from their team-mates from here on in.

Way down south Parkdale tiptoed around the corner to Brindisi St to face STMBT, and kept pace with the home side in the early exchanges. Trailing by 3 goals at the main break, the Vultures were in with some sort of chance, until the Tigers decided to smarten themselves up. Aaron Sawers has found his feet at senior level, roving with pace and bagging the BOG votes award whilst Andrew Hayes kicked 3 off a forward flank and made a welcome return to top form. Down the other end, Steven Kidd is playing the best season of his career. In the end, the Vultures lacked enough midfield options to match the Tigers, despite honest efforts from Guy Crilley and Corey Stephens.

Finally, Ormond held off a fast finishing Hampton Rovers unit and secured the Buxton Cup for the trophy cabinet. After calling correctly, 3 late goals to Duane Bailey, Ash Russel and David Robbins delivered a 20 point buffer. Despite Ryan Martin cleverly threading an early major into the wind, Hampton were able to respond well to cut the margin to 3 points. Ormond should've shut the gate in the third term as they controlled the play and Matt Martinov was on fire, but the 7 goal margin at lemon time may not have been enough. Daniel Gribbin and Matt Terech were working overtime as the Rovers got close, but not close enough. Some missed chances were costly for the Rovers as Ormond held on for grim life.

PREVIEW

Hampton Rovers need a win after 3 straight losses, but The OC are in better nick and have the likely return of some key players to bolster their line-up. Whilst it's at Hampton and they have everything to play for, I can't see them stopping the Wellers. OC by 26 points.

The Reds are in a similar predicament but only the most optimistic Red Roy could back them to unseat the STBMT lads. If they do, we won't hear the end of it for a long time. Tigers by 29 points.

NOBSPC against Parkdale is an intriguing match-up as both sides have improved in recent weeks. Parkdale will have to recover their composure and may relish a slightly less formidable opponent than last week. In a toss of the coin, I'm favoring the Combine to continue their push by 7 points.

"-" results weren't received. Any discrepancies may be due to non-submission of results by clubs.

Ormond have been doing enough to get the points and challenge AJAX for the double chance. Parade simply didn't wake up until it was over last week, and are running out of opportunities. Here's another going begging, Ormond by 19 points.

Finally, Monash -v- AJAX is on again and the key here will be the Ashes ability to nullify the home sides' midfield. If Ant Rosen returns to face his alumni, I think the Jackas can bounce back. If not, then its the Ashes. With absolutely no confidence, I'll slot in Monash by 11 points.

M I MILESTONES E S

Old Camberwell congratulate Chris Munro, on 100 games for the club in Round 13. Chris started 2000, and proved to be an integral part of the 2001 Premiership Team that season. During the past few years Chris has developed into a fine Ruckman. Congratulation Chris on reaching this mark.

NOB/St Pat's congratulate Michael 'Booba' Barker on 150 games last week against, when he had a great day kicking 9 goals. Booba joined his older brother Joe at the club in 1998, soon establishing his spot in the senior team. Booba a prolific goal-kicker earned the 'best kick at the club' title from our #1 ticket holder Mike Sheahan. Appointed VC this year Booba is held in high regard by his team-mates and is enjoying one of his best seasons sitting second in the goalkicking in the league. A winner of 4 club goalkicking awards Booba looks to have many great years ahead. Congratulations Booba!

David Brady plays his 50th game for NOBSPC this week. David arrived as an 18 year old proclaiming he was a better player than older brother Tony. In support of David's early claim he has backed it up by playing every possible senior game since, including 50 consecutive senior games. As coach Tim Killworth pointed out earlier this year, "hes one of the most courageous kids I've seen". Well done David!

Old Paradians congratulate Ryan Bugeja and Daniel Giddings on their 50th games. Ryan, our U19 captain, commenced in 2004 from Parade College. Daniel commenced in 2003, also from Parade College as captain of the school 1st XVIII team. We look forward to many more great games from both these U19 premiership players.

REVIEW

Emmaus St. Leo's kept up their recent hot streak with a 66 point win over Banyule at R J Brockwell Oval.

Bulleen Templestowe halted Yarra Valley's winning run, and continued their own impressive record, overcoming the Bushrangers by 49 points at Dorney Reserve. Valley's James Keem had his best game of the year with seven goals, while Bullants skipper Greg Chivers gave the home side headaches all day.

Old Carey continue to wreak havoc, this time defeating Therry Penola by 58 points at John Pascoe Fawkner Reserve in an efficient display. Defenders Jason Harmes and Jarrod Bannister stood out for the Lions, whilst their opposite numbers in Christian Barton, Chris Battle and Stu Jessup were key performers for the Panthers.

A sensational result at Toorak Park saw the struggling Prahran combination pull off a eight point upset over Old Geelong. The Two Blues got off to a hot start, before the Oggers replied in kind in the second term, this trend being mirrored in the second half. Jamie Bell's four goals in the last quarter was one of the few positives for the visitors, while Northway, James and Scanlon stood out for the Two Blues.

An entertaining contest at the Playing Fields saw Rupertswood score a much need victory, their 28 point win over Old Mentonians all but snuffing out the finals hope of the Panthers. Highlights for the Panthers included Justin Vick's five goals in the third quarter. Jarret Plummer, Leigh Brennan and Ryan Monzel stood out in a well balanced Rupo combination.

PREVIEW

First game up is at Como Park, where Old Geelong play host to Old Mentonians. The Panthers are still a mathematical chance of making the finals, being 10 points behind the fourth place Oggers with five matches to play, which makes this game another of those "eight-pointers" we love so much. Old Geelong appear to have a case of the staggers in the second half of the season thus far. O'Brien, Casboul, Bell, Kimpton and Vickers-Willis should keep the Panthers backline busy. It will be interesting to see if the likes of Palmer, Ball and Carroll can rise to this challenge. Up the other end, the Oggers defence, led by Landsdell and Munro, won't have it all their own way, with Basile and Twentyman capable of causing plenty of mayhem. Despite this, I'll keep faith with the Oggers.

Prahran travel to Ted Ajani Reserve for their match against Bulleen Templestowe. After last week's heroics, the Two Blues will believe anything is possible, and if skipper Leigh Northway can rally his troops, well why not? A month ago, I would have guessed Prahran would've played out the rest of the year with one eye on 2007, and continue to blood more younger players. However, the possibility of escape appears stronger than in recent weeks, so it will be interesting to see what happens in this regard. The Bullants were impressive in disposing of potential usurpers Yarra Valley last week, all but confirming their finals spot in the process. With all their big guns firing at once, they appear to be unbeatable, so the Round 17 clash with Old Carey looms with much interest. Bullants for mine.

Banyule take on Yarra Valley OB at R J Brockwell Reserve. I'm loath to choose anyone to look for in the Bushrangers line-up this week, as there always seems to be a few differences betwixt the team announced Thursday night, and that which actually runs out on the Saturday. The lack of a settled line-up appears to be Valley's main obstacle to making the finals, though they appear to have more depth than they were given credit for at the start of the season. After some encouraging form early in the season, the Bears have slipped into the bottom two, and recent results do not appear to indicate any changes in this situation soon. I'll tip the Bushies to bounce back and maintain their push for a finals berth.

"-" results weren't received. Any discrepancies may be due to non-submission of results by clubs.

Therry Penola go north to Sunbury for their game against Rupertswood. After starting the season impressively, the Lions now appear to be candidates for the drop. Injuries to many key players have tested Therry's strength of depth, and consequently they have struggled to get wins on the board. Meanwhile, Rupo looked to have turned the corner after some indifferent results in the last couple of months. However, the likes of Collins, Boxall and Shaw in the Rupo backline should have an easier time of it than the last time these sides met, especially with the prolonged absence of star Lions forward Corey Bannister. With their side full of young, running talent, and playing in the friendly confines of Salesian College, Rupertswood should be too good. Rupo to win.

Old Carey welcome St. Leo's Emmaus Oval in a match between two of the form sides of recent weeks. Although they are not safe from the drop just yet, the Animals' form has been better than many of the teams around them. Steven Ronchi will be good value in the ruck for the Animals, but Carey should have a few options up their collective sleeve to counter him. Al Parton also continues to do the business for Panthers, no matter where he plays. I feel Carey will pour cold water on the Animals' hot streak today. Yes, I'm taking the Panthers.

M I MILESTONES S

Old Carey wish to congratulate Chris "Flash" Battle on reaching the 150 game milestone this week. Flash joined the club from the school 1996, and has established himself a fearsome reputation for his tackling, spoiling and other defensive efforts, despite his attempts to convince his coaches he is really a forward. Flash was a member of the 1998 premiership side and is regularly given assignments on key forwards, and despite his relative lack of size, he has been quite successful at this. A great servant off the field also, Flash has held several committee positions and been a key figure on several end of season trips. Well done Flash, from everyone at Old Carey.

SUPPORTS THE VAFA AFCA/VAFA COACH OF THE YEAR

U19 FOR COACH OF THE MONTH – JUNE

David Lappage – Old Haileybury

David was appointed coach of the Old Haileybury U19 in 2004, resurrecting a side which had been in hiatus for two years. Being a teacher at Haileybury College, David was able to recruit school leavers to the Old Boys and build a nucleus for the side. David's hard work over the past two years is beginning to bear fruit, with his side still currently undefeated in U19 (Blue) section. David was a highly regarded footballer for the Old Haileybury AFC over many years; a dangerous forward with an accurate kick and a premierships player in 1995. David retired from football after the OH's 2002 Grand Final loss, returning briefly in 2003. David is highly regarded by his playing group and a worthy winner of Coach of the Month.

CLUB WAREHOUSE RISING STAR NOMINATION ROUND 13

AARON SHIELDS (DE LA SALLE)

De La Salle utility Aaron Shields is the nominee for the Club Warehouse Rising Star Nomination for Round 13 after his best on ground performance against St Bernard's last Saturday.

Aaron is in his 3rd season having started with the De La U19 Blues in 2004. After just 2 games with the Blues, he played his 1st SENIOR game at age 18 in A Section in Round 3. All told Aaron has played 43 games (26 Senior).

Aaron is a tenacious on baller who is the archetypal team player as evidenced by his average of 8.6 1%ers this season. Aaron's performance in last week's game at the Snakepit was exhilarating with 31 disposals to go with his 13 1%ers. Congratulations Aaron and continue your rich vein of form to assist De La's goals for the remainder of the season.

D2 SECTION

by Jono Healy

Williamstown are off the bottom of the ladder and may still be in D2 next season. La Trobe and Ivanhoe Assumption would seem to be battling out the relegation spots with Williamstown, but there is still a long way to go. In the battle for the final four, Glen Eira are in good form and are making a late run at the finals. They face a huge challenge today, and must win to keep their finals hopes alive.

Aquinas OC $1.55 v Glen Eira AFC $2.30

Aquinas are holding on to fourth spot and need a win here to cement their spot. Last Saturday they lost by 41 points to Oakleigh but it must be said that four of their starting 18 had gone down injured by half-time. Robert Moran marked superbly all day, and Cliff Lyng and Shane Cooper tried hard, but Oakleigh were too good. Glen Eira had a 20 point win!!! Yeah, I couldn't believe they won by that much either, considering how many times this year they have won by a smaller margin. Steven Dyason was once again superb, and Brad Clements proved elusive in front of goals with six majors. If the Saints can get up today, then they are a real shot to grab that fourth spot on the ladder. If Aquinas get the points, then it's goodbye Glen Eira in terms of finals for season 2006. I expect this to be a hard fought and fiery game. Glen Eira will throw everything at Aquinas, but I will side with the home team by 11 points.

Williamstown CYMS $2.70 v Peninsula OB $1.40

McGuinness finds Wheeler on the lead again. This must have been heard in the Western suburbs of Melbourne at least half a dozen times last Saturday as Williamstown moved off the bottom of the ladder for the first time since Round 3 with a 15 point win over Werribee. Skipper Timmy Wheeler was on fire with nine goals, and Shaun McGuinness must have had close to 40 possessions in a dominant display. Peninsula continued their fine form with a 38 point win over Salesian in an excellent display of D2 football. Reed Powney was back in fine form for the Pirates along with Josh Davis and Cade Bannister. After talking to Scottie Palmer on the phone last night, he told me that if the Pirates don't win the flag this year they will all drive their 4WD's into Canadian Bay. At this stage they are short price favourites for the premiership but we all know that they have failed before in September. Huge danger game for the Pirates today. Willy are playing good footy, and will be full of confidence of their survival hopes. Ben Hynes must get the job on Payze I say, and if the rock god can keep the Pirates skipper quiet and Wheeler is in form up forward, then Willy must be a chance. My A-Grade value bet of the week here. Willy by 2 points.

Ivanhoe Assumption AFC $3.10 v Oakleigh AFC $1.33

The Hoe's are officially in trouble, slipping to the bottom of the ladder with a disappointing 71 point loss to St John's. Dave Neilson continued his solid form across half forward, Matt Wilson tried hard at centre half back and Travis O'Neill found plenty of the ball, but it was an unhappy day for the Hoe's.

"..." results weren't received. Any discrepancies may be due to non-submission of results by clubs.

Oakleigh proved too strong for Aquinas with a solid 41 point victory. Peter Holden was back to his best across half back, and was well supported by Chris Lamb, whilst onballer Jon Rutter was highly effective. The Krushers are playing good football at the moment and are determined to stay in the top two, to get the double chance come finals time. The Hoe's should put up a fight today (for at least the first half) but Oakleigh will be too strong. Oakleigh by 33 points.

La Trobe Uni $2.05 v Werribee AFC $1.70

La Trobe were never winning chances against Glen Eira last Saturday and are now well and truly in the relegation zone. Stephen Pruscino was in fine form, but he does have a trip to the tribunal which could put him in doubt today. Werribee are on the slide, as reported in this column last week, and could not get past a dogged Williamstown side. Andrew Tedesco and Nathan Addamo in the midfield were amongst the better players along with Marcus Brown and Cameron Lee in the back half. Another important game for both clubs. The boys from Werribee will be keeping a close eye on the result between Aquinas and Glen Eira, and I expect Werribee to get the points by 23 points.

Salesian AFC $1.33 v St John's OC $3.10

Budding superstar Ivan Bobetic was a notable absentee for Salesian in their 38 point loss to Peninsula. Liam Kelly and Phil Dolman tried hard, but Peninsula proved too strong. St John's were in scintillating form with a 71 point win over Ivanhoe Assumption. Gary Roberts was on fire on the members wing with four goals, and John Ryan was unstoppable up forward with six majors. I still rate Ryan as one of the best marks in this section and the Salesian backline will need to keep a close eye on him today. Unfortunately for the Joc's, I think Salesian will be too good. Salesian by 41 points.

• Blacks Honour Jack Clancy

A tremendous crowd of 150 witnessed a great occasion for University Blacks and Amateur football in general when the Blacks' pre match lunch last Saturday honoured Jack Clancy's 50 years of service. VAFA patron John Winneke and former patron-in-chief Don Cordner, both former Blacks greats and members of the MUFC Team of the Century, headed a guest list which included many VAFA life members. MUFC Coach of the Century Frank Dunin made the pilgrimage from Perth, being only one of many who travelled long distances to be part of it. A surprise guest was Bill Stephen, Jack's coach at Fitzroy in the 1950's. Bill handled the pressure of recounting Jack's senior career with the Lions with aplomb, given it consisted of one game spent entirely on the bench.

Former Blacks player Terry Forrest QC had even less trouble convincing the audience that Barry Hall is a sweet softie than he had convincing the tribunal last September that Barry should play in the Grand Final. He also added new riches to the list of language maulings by coaches (you know, pair off in threes etc) by running through many gems of a Blacks coach of years past, Ken Fencham. Among others – "Fantastic today fellers, the forwards attacked like the Rocket of Gibraltar", and "You six backmen are just playing as individuals, there's no copulation out there".

As the stories flew it is no wonder that every Blacks player you ever meet says his time there was the best time of his life. But Jack Clancy, having clocked up 50 years of continuous service, has been proclaimed the "greatest Blacker of them all". From everyone in Amateur Football, well played Jack.

• Blood Bank Donations Required Urgently

As noted a few weeks ago  Australian Red Cross Blood Bank is in urgent need of donations (blood donations) due to a critical shortage. It should also be noted that donations from VAFA members are down by over 450 on those recorded at the same time last year. The Blood Bank Challenge has been going for many years now and has been traditionally well supported by the majority of VAFA clubs. It's disappointing to see the numbers of donations reaching such low levels and we ask the clubs to get behind the Challenge for the rest of the year. Your donation could not only help win some fantastic prizes for your club, but also may just save a life. So please, if you have previously been a regular donor or have never donated before, make contact with the Red Cross Blood Bank on 13456, mention your VAFA club when you donate and encourage friends and colleagues to do the same.

• Finals and Relegation in the Air

As August approaches there is definitely tension in the air as teams not only compete for finals contention but also to avoid relegation. A side effect of this historically tends to be an increase in investigations and reports of both players and officials, who lose control as the pressure mounts. This is a trend the VAFA is not keen to see happen this year and warns that any behaviour deemed unacceptable will be treated very seriously by the VAFA. You may have noticed that negative reports regarding football leagues have become increasing popular items on "rumour files" and in tabloid newspapers. The VAFA has a fine tradition in promoting and conducting games in a safe, family friendly environment and anyone who goes against this will be dealt with severely.

The beauty of our competition is there is never really any "dead rubbers". Teams always have something to play for, whether that be for finals places or to avoid relegation. Enjoy the ride, but make sure the spirit of Amateur Football is maintained.

• New Coaches Boxes at Sportscover Arena

New Coaches and Players boxes have been completed and installed at Sportscover Arena, replacing the old run-down boxes which had become dangerous and outdated. The boxes are the first in a few small projects to update and enhance our showpiece ground. There are many other things that need updating and with the help of Bayside City Council, hopefully these will be completed in the near future.

• Brian Tobin Shines at St Bedes/Mentone Lunch

110 guests at St Bedes/Mentone Tigers enjoyed a great lunch last Saturday, among whom was long time VAFA favourite of the Tigers in Peter Harris. Guest speaker after lunch was Brian Tobin OAM, who with over 45 years of his life dedicated to his love of the game of tennis, entertained the audience with his incredible knowledge of the game, it's players and events such as Wimbledon. Brian was a more than handy tennis player of course reaching a National ranking of No. 8 himself, behind as he put it some very handy players of his era! He has been a member of Tennis Australia since 1964 and served as President from 1977-1989, overseeing the building and opening (1988) of the current stadium for the Australian Open. He is a Lifetime Honorary President of the International Tennis Federation, and a received an Honorary Olympic Order in 1999 amongst his list of amazing achievements from his service to the game. What we didn't know he was born in Perth and actually played 8 games in the WAFL as a teenager before following his chosen path in tennis. Brian has two grandsons playing at St Bedes/ Mentone Tigers in Claye (U/19) and Jesse (U/16).

Also surprised was past player Bill Waldron and his family who were at the lunch, when he was inducted into the Tigers 'Hall of Fame'...Bill who was one of only six players who played in all Len James coached junior sides that won triple premierships from 1950 to 1952 for the Mentone FC, losing just one game in that period. Bill went on to play Melbourne Reserves and had two seasons with St.Kilda seniors before playing with Moorabbin in the VFA and local rivals Parkdale, his presentation in keeping with the local derby theme of the day.

• Cystic Fibrosis Receive Proceeds from Representative Match

Cystic Fibrosis were last week presented with a cheque for $750 by the VAFA and SFL. The money was the match day profit from the Representative Match played between the leagues on June 10th. As part of the promotion of the match, club were asked to hold a BBQ to raise funds for Cystic Fibrosis Victoria. These monies are currently being collated and a full list of monies raised by each club will be published next week. The club with the highest tally will receive a new BBQ from Barbeques Galore. The VAFA and the SFL are hoping to raise over $5000 from the promotion, money which is very much needed to assist people with this debilitating disease.

• "For The Love Of The Game" goes online

As from this week "The Ammo Show" will be known as "For the Love of the Game" – online edition. The title encapsulates what Amateur Football is all about and the spirit of our Association, so it is fitting that our online football show also carries this name. The suggestion for this name was sent in by former VAFA scribe Brad Bietzel, who wins a dinner for two and drinks at the Rising Sun Hotel in Richmond for his efforts. This weeks show will be hosted by A Section Scribe Jonathon Horn with Co-Host C Section Scribe Fraser Cameron. The boys will have plenty of insights into this weekends matches as well as fantastic prizes to give away. Clubs are asked to send to videos of goals, marks or anything in general that can be shown on the weekly show. We will be announcing prizes for the best goal, mark and play of the year shortly, so send in your videos to be in contention.

• Joke of the Week

A couple was golfing one day on a very, very exclusive golf course, lined with million dollar houses. On the third tee the husband said, "Honey, be very careful when you drive the ball- don't knock out any windows. It'll cost us a fortune to fix." The wife teed up and shanked it right through the window of the biggest house on the course. The husband cringed and said, "I told you to watch out for the houses! All right, let's go up there, apologise and see how much this is going to cost."

They walked up, knocked on the door, and heard a voice say, "Come on in."

They opened the door and saw glass all over the floor and a broken bottle lying on its side in the foyer. A man on the couch said, "Are you the people that broke my window?"

"Uh, yeah. Sorry about that," the husband replied.

"No, actually I want to thank you- I'm a genie that was trapped for a thousand years in that bottle. You've released me. I'm allowed to grant three wishes-I'll give you each one wish, and I'll keep the last one for myself."

"OK, great!" the husband said. "I want a million dollars a year for the rest of my life."

"No problem-it's the least I could do. And you, what do you want?" the genie said, looking at the wife.

"I want a house in every country of the world," she said.

"Consider it done," the genie replied.

"And what's your wish, genie?", the husband said.

"Well, since I've been trapped in that bottle, I haven't been with a woman in a thousand years. My wish is to sleep with your wife."

The husband looks at the wife and said, "Well, we did get a lot of money and all those houses, honey. I guess I don't care."

The genie took the wife upstairs and ravished her for two hours.

After it was over, the genie rolled over, looked at the wife, and said "How old is your husband, anyway?"

"Forty five," she replied.

"And he still believes in genies - that's amazing!"

... Retrospective

5 YEARS AGO - 2001

Junior 1 Section had twelve competing teams and therefore a final five. After round 14 there were only 6 teams who could realistically fight out the final series. Who would be the sixth side? Old Brighton dropped off the pace slightly into the sixth spot when they looked promising against second placed St Kevins at half time but fell away with SKOBS winning 8.13 to 5.10 at the Beach Oval. Best players – Duggan, Cox Knuppel, Mulgrew, Bare and Dempsey (SKOBS) and Reddin, Edwards, Homann, Battista, Hunter, Evans (Old Brighton).

In D3 Section, it went right down to the wire in the match between Monash Gryphons and Elsternwick. At three quarter time the Gryphons were in danger of losing their spot in the top four as Elsternwick threw out the challenge and held a slender lead. The entertainment for the supporters continued in the final quarter before the siren sounded leaving the Gryphons 4 points winners and hats off to the Wicks for their effort. Best players – Gross, S Bourbon, Blandford, Wells, Goold, Flowerday (Monash) and Curtain, D Byrne, C Mahoney, B Mahoney, Neill, Missaglia (Elsternwick). D3 Section coaches were John Ahern (Albert Park), Ron Gordon (Bentleigh), Leigh Murphy (Elsternwick), Graham Burgen (Fitzroy Reds), Peter Tyson (Hawthorn Amateurs), Jack McDonald (Monash Gryphons), Gavin Hall (Richmond Central), Bruce Mullens (St Johns), Peter McBreaty (South Melbourne Districts) and Pat Mackey (UHSOB).

10 YEARS AGO - 1996

Ormond kept their faint hopes of avoiding relegation from A Section with a spirited win over St Bernards at the Snake Pit in a see-sawing affair. St Bernards would rue the loss as a win would have placed them in the top four. It was a great first quarter for the Monds as Garrin Bailey proved an excellent target up forward. Jack Overman and Luke Gollant got the Bernies back in the hunt and by half time the home side had a narrow lead. Ormond kicked again in the third courtesy of Darren Edgell, Paul McDonald and Michael Shepherd. In the last quarter, it was a desperate Ormond who, in the last 4 minutes, repelled numerous forward thrusts by St Bernards and held on to win 11.10 to 10.13. Other good players were – Anderson, Ryan (4) and Comito (St Bernards) and Hille, Orr and Connell (Ormond). Three great players of the 80's and 90's had reached important milestones – 250 games up for former premiers captain Russell Barnes of Ormond and Chris Pollock, Collegians' star ruckman. Joining them was another Collegian, Steve Laussen, who reached his 200th.

20 YEARS AGO - 1986

It was a high scoring A Section affair between North Old Boys and University Blues. The win to NOBS, 18.19 to 17.7, may have put paid to the Blues finals' chances but ensured that they themselves could have a real crack at the double chance in the coming weeks. The Blues had been in front at half time but the commitment of the NOBS' players confirmed that they could be "the real deal" and apart from their poor conversion rate (9.9 in the second half) they looked great. Best players – Wright, Considine, Walters, Brown, Egan, Borcich (NOBS) and McInnes (9), Allen, Angel, Tyquin, Polkinhorne, Ashton (Uni Blues).

Fawkner kept in touch with the B Section top four when they defeated St Bernards at Fawkner 21.19 to 15.10. It had been a tough affair and although Fawkner held a 6 goal break at half time they were unable to extend it. Best players – Mitchell, Buckley, G Busst (3), Horvath, O'Leary, Virtue (Fawkner) and Carey, A Purcell, O'Dea, Wood, R Purcell, Comito (St Bernards).

UHSOB acknowledged their "Old Man of Football", Paul Bain, on reaching his 150th game. Always known as the "Vocal General" in the backline, Paul had also contributed superbly off the field including the position on senior coach in 80/81, co-founder of the "Annual bush Dance" and Club President from 1982. All players and supporters sincerely congratulated Paul for his contribution.

Warren Tuckey, ANZ's popular big man, reached his 200th game against Commonwealth Bank. The many injuries suffered by "Tucks" over the years failed to stop the milestone and the big fella had been awarded life membership to add to his many other achievements over the years.

30 YEARS AGO - 1976

No less than six leading teams were defeated in this round including AJAX (D Section) who suffered their first loss for the season. Others to go down were North Old Boys (Junior 1), Caulfield Grammarians (Junior 2), and three reserve teams; Hampton Rovers, Old Brighton and West Brunswick.

The loss by AJAX, although unexpected by most, was against top four team Old Camberwell at Camberwell's ground. The winners were simply too strong and committed and their best were Watkin, D Steven, McCallum, Hewitt, Horton and Healey. Best for AJAX – Rozen, Segal, Schulberg, Lemish, Bialek (3) and Kagan.

North Old Boys' ruckman, Damien Maguire, played his 200th game against traditional rivals St Bernards. Damien joined NOBS in 1966 and played in four grand finals, 1966, 67, 71 and 75. In 1975 Damien won his club's most determined player award in his finest season to date. He was also contributing to his club as its member to the V.A.F.A.

Reserve grade coaches in A Section were – John Taylor (Coburg), Colin Glover (De La Salle), Stuart Schneider (Monash Blues), Tony Arthurson (NOBS), Noel Waters (Old trinity), Neil Le Page (Ormond), Alan Shepherd (Reservoir Old Boys), Paul Daffey (St Bernards), Glen Saines (Uni Blacks) and Bruno Scarella (Uni Blues).

40 YEARS AGO - 1966

The previous season's premiers, University Blacks, gave notice that they were not out of the race in this season when they caused an upset by defeating Caulfield Grammarians, courtesy of a strong opening quarter with 5 goals in trying conditions. It had been a critical early break for the Blacks as only 17 points were scored in the second half as the game became a real slog in the mud. The final score was Blacks 6.7 to Caulfield's 4.9. Best players – McLeod, Whitford,

Tuck, Sinclair, Hill, Saunders (Blacks) and Barker, Hore, Herington, Caspers, Cayzer, Greg Tootell (Caulfield). The Blacks had now joined two other teams to match Caulfield (3rd) on 7 wins; Old Paradians (4th) and Collegians (6th).

The ordinary conditions at this time of the season produced an extraordinary result in Junior Section 2. There was not much riding on the result in terms of finals participation in the game between AJAX (8th and 6 wins) and National Bank (9th and 1 win) but AJAX won the game without scoring a goal. At half time in the terrible conditions, the Bankers held a 1 point lead, 1.1 to 0.6. AJAX continued to miss opportunities in the third term with 5 behinds to no score. In the final term, National Bank did not add to their first quarter score of 1.1 and AJAX has secured the game with a remarkable no goals 19 behinds!

Brunswick paid tribute to a young reserves' player who, after playing in bitterly cold win and rain, had a quick shower and went back to face the elements as goal umpire in the main game. That sort of dedication was to be admired. The young lad was none other than Brian "Benny" Goodman, our current V.A.F.A. Umpires' Coach who went on to play over 100 games with Brunswick and subsequently officiated at many games as one of the V.A.F.A.'s top Field Umps in later years. In between Benny has been Chairman of Selectors at a number of A Section Clubs!

50 YEARS AGO - 1956

In D Section, Bellfield gave themselves a chance to make the finals after defeating second placed FTSOB 12.9 to 7.8. They had now drawn closer to fourth place but would still have to make up a game and percentage. Bellfield announced this was their best game for the season but reminded their players that the arguing must cease and that 'playing the man' was not the way to go. Best for Bellfield – A Singer, W Getson, G Annand, E Getson and R Comino. Footscray said "full honours to Bellfield, the better side won on the day". Bellfield applauded Kaye, Stubbs and Barker and thanked the U19 players who filled a few gaps.

National Bank drew level with Monash Blues at the top of the ladder after defeating Old Trinity 7.20 to 3.7. Best players – J Corby, R Sellick, J Lewis, A Dick, A Leslie, G Kelly, D Ferguson (National Bank) and Peter Birrell, Bruce Wardop, Geoff Brown, Ian Robertson, Bruce Heard and Graeme Spry all stood out for Old Trinity.

FINALS ANALYSIS

With results as expected, it would appear that the relegation debate has been decided, barring some miracle. However, at the other end of the table, it is anything but clear. As such, I thought that we could dispense with the regular review and instead briefly analyse the remainder of the season for the top five teams.

South Melbourne

To play: Elsternwick (H), UHS-VU (A), Westbourne (H), West Brunswick (A), Swinburne (H).

Should Win Games: 2

50/50 games: 3

My guess: 4 out of 5

Finishing Position: Top with 16 wins

My comments: Have been the best side all season, and may drop one or two players if they decide to rest some weary legs before the finals. They certainly hold the key for both Westbourne and West Brunswick.

Elsternwick

To play: South Melbourne (A), St.Marys (H), Bentleigh (A), Kew (H), Monash (A).

Should Win Games: 3

50/50 games: 2

My guess: 4 out of 5

Finishing Position: Second with 14 wins

My comments: Have found form at the right time of the year and a win against Bentleigh will ensure a double chance.

Bentleigh

To play: Kew (H), Monash (A), Elsternwick (H), UHS-VU (A), Old Westbourne (H).

Should Win Games: 3

50/50 games: 2

My guess: 4 out of 5

Finishing Position: Third with 14 wins

My comments: With a danger game against Monash, it will likely come down to the final match against the Warriors, though a win against the Wicks could see a top two finish.

Old Westbourne

To play: Swinburne (H), West Brunswick (H), South Melbourne (A), St.Marys (H), Bentleigh (A).

Should Win Games: 2

50/50 games: 3

My guess: 3 out of 5

Finishing Position: Fourth with 12 wins

My comments: The key is the home game against the Magpies. Win that, and they have some insurance against Bentleigh in Round 18. Lose, and it will take a miracle. Could still miss out by percentage should the Magpies flog some of the lower ranked teams.

West Brunswick

To play: UHS-VU (H), Westbourne (A), Swinburne (H), South Melbourne (H), St.Marys (A).

Should Win Games: 3

50/50 games: 2

My guess: 3 out of 5

Finishing Position: Fifth with 12 wins

My comments: As mentioned above, beat the Warriors and they should make it. A loss would mean that the games against the lower ranked sides are of huge importance, not just for the four points, but the percentage. Have those calculators ready for Round 18 Magpie fans!! The South match could also be a smoky for the side.

PREVIEW

With the Browns earning some much needed breathing space, they travel to the Bentleigh hoping to throw a spanner into the works of the rampant Demons. Bentleigh easily accounted for Kew in their previous meeting, and with the likes of Scott Lawry and Amir Banks seemingly getting better each game it is not going to be pretty today. Hopefully for Kew Horne and Woodhouse can fire again for their side to keep the damage to a minimum, however, I am expecting a nice percentage booster for Bentleigh.

Two games and percentage behind Kew, this would seemingly be St.Mary's last chance to even get a sniff of staying in D3 especially since they're at "the Stamp". The Gryphons, however, have been thereabouts this season, and given their desire to build momentum for next season, they will be looking for a good win today. I am inclined to agree here and pick them to win by a comfortable margin.

In what many D3 pundits are now predicting to be a GF preview, the all-conquering Elsternwick make the trip to the lake to take on South Melbourne. I mentioned earlier that the Wickers had to beat Bentleigh to secure a double chance, however, a win today could see them buying some insurance for that big game. While I expect the Swans to begin resting players in the final couple of rounds, their hand has been somewhat forced by injuries. On the flip side, the Wicks have stars returning each week and continue to build momentum. Who to pick is really a toss of the coin, and it has landed on heads, which means the Wicks by a point!

West Brunswick host UHS-VU in a match that can only go one way. It has been an awful year for the students, and with percentage as important as the four points for the Magpies, if it is a dry day there will be no better opportunity to bridge the percentage gap. Coach Hamma will be looking to the likes of Jason Ward to continue his good form in what will be at least a 10 goal win for the Magpies.

Finally, Westbourne host Swinburne in a match that has danger written all over it for the home side. When these sides last met it was the Warriors by less than a kick, and with the injury to D3 strongman Leon Fairfield, the Warriors will be looking to the younger brigade to fill the void. In the Warriors favor though is Swinburne's propensity to rely on only two players to score the majority of their scores in Higgins and Milano, and with arguably the best defense in the league, lead by "Hair Bair" Benn, that should be enough to secure the win for the Warriors.

Grins like Cheshire Katz

Congratulations to Lionel and Karen Katz who were pleased to announce the arrival of Samantha Ingrid Katz, born at 3:10pm last Monday afternoon (24 July) at Cabrini Hospital. Sammy is a height of 48.5 cm (19 inches) and weight of 3.755 kg (8lb 4oz). Mother, daughter and big sister Becky are all doing well. Proud dad Lionel will probably have a day off this weekend to catch up with some sleep. If the Katz' can add a few more girls to the litter they'll be well on the way to their own netball team. Thanks to the officials from Prahran AFC who were holding Lionel's mobile phone last Saturday, just in case.

Santo's World Cup

No, our own Santo Caruso hasn't done a "Mokbel," he's been missing because he's been travelling around Germany experiencing the World Cup. Santo managed to squeeze fourteen matches into his tight schedule travelling to all parts of Germany and supporting the Soccerroos. We wonder how the hairy little Australian with the Italian name felt when the Aussies were awarded that controversial penalty. It was the trip of a lifetime and something he'll never forget. As a warning to other world travellers out there, unfortunately Santo picked a mild case of DVT (Deep Vein Thrombosis) after the long trip home via Singapore. Luckily Santo's case wasn't too serious and he's back running again. Get yourself some air flight support socks or tights! When he was first diagnosed he wasn't exactly sure what Deep Throat Thrombosis was. All of us who know what a shrewd business owner Santo is, (Melbourne Sports Books) wouldn't be surprised to learn that when he was told of DVT, of course he thought it stood for Dodging Victoria's Taxes.

Lesson number 1; don't get off the House bandwagon for no good reason. Lesson number 2, the hunch on Albert Park might be right but still plenty of hard yards yet for the Falcons!

REVIEW

Match of the season saw Eltham travel to Power House, keen on cementing top spot. The House came out smoking with the Turtles struggling to get the ball across the halfway mark early on. Things tightened up in the second quarter and it looked set for an epic second half. The House had different ideas as they took control in the third quarter, keeping the Turtles goal less. Hill and Foster were the stars for the House with the reliable Edwards slamming 6 goals. Runco was the standout out for Eltham.

Great win for Albert Park as they beat Bulleen. The Falcons held sway most of the day with league B+F smoky McIndoe once again controlling the airways. Payne was the dominant forward, helping himself to 5 majors. Disappointing day for Bulleen with Daley and Conn the best.

The bandwagon that is Box Hill North continued, this time comfortably accounting for Richmond. Ball and Riscalla were the winners best however it was an even spread across the ground. A few new names for the Richmond (another good sign) with Matheson kicking 5 and Hibbins also playing well.

Hawthorn also had a comfortable win over an injury depleted North Brunswick. Gebhardt again showed he was up to senior class with a fine performance for the Hawks who were again well served by Mundy. Adams and Boudoloh were the best for North.

Finally, Eley Park got back on the winners list as they accounted for a disappointing Syndal Tally Ho. Viola boys were again stars whilst Payne also dominated through out the day. Bingham was valiant for the Sinners.

PREVIEW

Hasn't the battle for the double chance hotted up in recent weeks? The House might have done enough barring any unexpected loss whilst the other spot could be decided down at Glenferrie Oval this week. Box Hill North are now odds on to make the other spot but still have some wins to tick off before they can start their finals plans. Last role of the dice this week for Bulleen whilst Albert Park will look to keep the candle burning!

Hawthorn host Eltham in the sixth of a seven home game run at Glenferrie. The Hawks have quickly settled into their temporary home and have a six nil record on the historic ground. A few stumbles in recent times for the Turtles although not quite bad enough to get the sirens sounding just yet. Some great duels are in the offing with McLaren (E) taking on Avery (H), Gebhardt (H) and Foo (E) battling on a wing and Galvin (E) and Aitken (H) locking horns in the middle. Could go either way but maybe the Hawks just!

Almost do or die as Bulleen welcome Box Hill North down the Eastern freeway. Bulleen have been a bit stop start all year and last weeks loss will make claiming a finals spot very difficult. BHN are flying high right now and hard to see them getting beat here, particularly with a win casting aside their major rival for fourth spot. BHN for me.

Albert Park, like the Hawks, are enjoying some games at home and this week host Eley Park. I quite like what I saw of the Falcons in recent weeks, a hard working side with some guns mixing it up. Eley Park will have been pleased to get a win on the board, particularly as they season had been going pair shaped for a little while. Firmly on Albert Parks bandwagon though, Falcons for mine!

Changed my mind about 3 times on the result of North Brunswick and Syndal. North have a horrendous injury list, one capable of forming a reasonable side alone whilst Syndal were a tad disappointing last week against the Sharks. Not sure, must revert to rule number 1, take home side when in doubt. North but just.

Finally, Richmond and Power House meet in a game unlikely to produce too many surprises. Still, Richmond's output continues to be solid however with the imminent return of Richardson, the House should continue to go from strength to strength and win well.

Unlucky for some, round thirteen is over and out. Time to get serious in the "busini endis" (business end of the season in Spanish – thanks Baxter).

REVIEW

In the round of the goalkicker, some seriously solid performances across the board. Two players bagged five, while a haul of eight and the big one resulting in ten were achieved during an impressive round. Match of the round saw Uni Blues put a stamp on third place over Bernard's. From all reports a quality game with James Van De Pol best for a rampaging University. Full marks on getting through the Uni holidays boys. Rupo kept their finals aspirations alive with a mammoth win over Marcellin. Matt Quigly landed five rolls, while Trav Smith was all over the place, causing much havoc. Old Scotch keeps improving every week, this time pummelling BV in a fifteen goal win. Tom Slattery bagged eight for the winners who are clinging to the smallest of hopes that the footy trip won't come early. Leaders Old Xavs accounted for St Kevins (Richie Benson taking home ten of the best – well done lad). At Waverley, De La doused Collegians. Josh Oakely kicked five for De La, but best on ground honours were awarded to a valiant James Crowe.

PREVIEW

The big one for me this week pits Uni Blues against Rupo at the Craw. What's at stake I hear? Uni want the double chance badly, Rupo want a slice of September. For me after watching an impressive training session last week. St Bernard's need to win against an improving Old Scotch. An upset will see Old Scotch claw closer to finals action. It's hardly Essendon versus Carlton but BV play Collegians for battle of the wooden spoon. I'm always a fan of BV, so I'll stick with the lads to notch win number three. In best of the rest, Old Xavs and De La will continue their battle of the percentage (so intriguing) against a very hapless opposition. Lock of the week this week after being victorious with the Dockers, I'll go the Dons to notch up win number two against an Ackerless Lion outfit. Any feedback to beatonc@tabcorp.com. Happy punting!!

UNDER 19 (2)

The OM's got that winning feeling back, trumping the Wellers at Camberwell. Hopkins kicked three, and Caine Hillier bagged another 5 for the home-side. The Raiders overcome early adversity, turning it on at Beauy with a 7-1 goal 1st half. Cunningham succeeded in getting it to Devine and then to Solomon and Adam Cox up forward. The Fielders made a mockery of the T's by 62. The drive was too much for the Friars as the Tonners won by 51, while the Panthers consolidated top spot, giving the Blacks a 57 point hiding.

The Run Home – Final 5 Rounds

Carey – OM, Friars, Parade, Caulfield, Camb = 26
Melburnians – Carey, Trinity, Friars, Beauy, Parade = 29
Parade – Brighton, Blacks, Carey, Friars, OM = 20
Uni Blacks – Friars, Parade, Caulfield, Camb, Trinity = 34
Camberwell – Trinity, Beauy, Brighton, Blacks, Carey = 29
Brighton – Parade, Caulfield, Camb, Trinity, Beauy = 35
Whitefriars – Blacks, Carey, OM, Parade, Caulfield = 19
Beaumaris – Caulfield, Camb, Trinity, OM, Brighton = 32
Caulfield – Beauy, Brighton, Blacks, Carey, Friars = 26
Trinity – Camb, OM, Beauy, Brighton, Blacks = 25

*Points system – Highest team played (Carey) = 1, Lowest team played (Trinity) = 10

*Team with highest points has the best run home.

PREVIEW

The Wellers host the T's to re-mark their territory after the OM loss. Camberwell by 10 goals. Losing to Brighton last time, Parade will salivate at the chance to square that ledger. Parade, 5 goals. The Fielders host the Sharks and I'll say Beauy in a thriller. The Friars host the Blacks who will bounce back. Another top of the table clash sees the Melburnians fight back for the throne, but to no avail as the Panthers charge clear, holding top spot for another week. bernechich@netspace.net.au

REVIEW

Chelsworth Park, was the place to be last Saturday as Old Ivanhoe battled Ormond in the top four clash. Ormond stormed out of the blocks with a 3-goal lead at quarter time, before Old Ivanhoe scored 5 goals to 0 in the second quarter. Good work from Dan Frazier and Richard Keane saw Ormond trail by 4 points heading into the last quarter, but the class of Workman, Hondromatidis and co got Old Ivanhoe over the line by 16. A tight affair saw La Trobe hold off a gallant Ajax by 11 points with Joel Oviss best afield in the losing side, while Oakleigh held their position on top of the ladder with an easy win over Old Essendon, Barrand kicking

6. SBMT demoralized MHSOB, keeping them goalless, with a paltry 3 points all MHSOB could muster. Brandon Hunt's 9 goal haul helped Bentley defeat Emmaus without much trouble.

PREVIEW

My tipping has seen me situated first on the scribe ladder, and the games this weekend suggest an easy task to remain there. Old Ivanhoe will demoralize Emmaus, Oakleigh will beat MHSOB easily, SBMT will have little trouble with Bentley, Ormond will bounce back against La Trobe, while in the closest game of the round, Ajax v Old Essendon, Ajax should be too good at home. With only 5 games left and the top four looking settled, it is now all about pride for many teams. This weekend's battles allows the teams outside the four to stand up and play some part in shaping the finals. Most of all, playing amateur football is about playing hard, playing fair and enjoying the ride. Good luck to all teams for Round 14.

REVIEW

The game between Old Mentonians and Mazenod lived up to the hype as a glimpse of finals football was on display. In a fierce battle, the first half honours went to the Panthers. Some hard running and ferocious tackling by onballers Matthew Campbell and Jacob Moon saw a 14 point lead into half time, while Jesse Prowse was in everything at CHF. However, good teams never say die and Mazenod are a good team. They got their running game going in the third and looked dangerous, slamming on 7 goals to 2. When Mazenod kicked the first goal of the last quarter to hit a 4 goal lead the game looked over. The young Panthers then dug deep and fought back magnificently with a 7 goal final quarter to get up by six points in a West Coast type comeback. Bogar kicked 7 for Mazenod while Cramerer fought hard all day for the losers. Parkdale provided little resistance against De La with Adam McKenna best afield, while the usual suspects in Criticos, Smitsdorff and Wright got the job done in Old Haileyburians win over Oakleigh Clayton. Hampton took out their frustration of a season gone by when they thrashed Powerhouse/Sth Mornington, Hampton with 11 goal kickers, and BOG Nick Lyall bagging 3 of them. Monash had the bye.

PREVIEW

Choo-Choo, all aboard the Old Mentonians band wagon, express to Premiership station. Old Mentonians have proved they are a force to contend with after beating Mazenod and I am one scribe jumping on board for the ride. However, there is one team with grand plans of their own. This team is a force to contend with, have bigger bodied players, are well drilled, have multiple star performers and they haven't lost a single game. They are the mighty Old Haileyburians and they are one team that will be trying to derail Old Mentonians' season. I am wary of tipping against Old Mentonians, but against the might of Old Haileyburians at home, I think to claim two quality scalps in two weeks may take a Herculean effort beyond most teams, but it should still be a great match. Meanwhile, Mazenod will take their loss to Old Mentonians out on Parkdale, while Hampton will reverse the result they had against Monash earlier in the season with a win away at Monash Uni. Oakleigh Clayton were far from disgraced last week against the ladder leaders and they should get home against Powerhouse/Sth Mornington. De La has a week's rest.

UNDER 19 (RED)

Bulleen Temp pushed Kew further down the rabbit hole with a 15 point victory. Similar to the corresponding Carlton-Bombers clash it was open, fast and accountable footy. Bullant Anthony Radatti was solid in defense, while Marc Carfi licked 5 including a Daicos-like sausage roll, 40 out. Lucisano (4) was good for Kew. The Westies have started a late run at finals, with a 71 point thrashing of finals contender Therry. Whyte booted 4 while Matt Williamson was instrumental with 3. Aquinas made a mess of the Old Saints by 89. The Xavs got back on the winners board very shakily. The Woodsmen held a 2 point lead a _ time and were unlucky not to take the points.

The Run Home – Final 5 Rounds

Aquinas – Xavs, Therry, BYE, OW, Rupō = 33

*Points system – Highest team played (Aquinas) = 1, Lowest team played (BYE) = 10

*Team with highest points has the best run home.

PREVIEW

This week the Old Saints host the Bullants. The visitors should have no trouble and should take it by 37 points. Kew will welcome the Reds onto their ground and then be trounced by a pretty big-figured sum. Fitzroy, lots. Therry need a win to stay within range of BT and to keep Westbourne at bay. The Lions, because they want it more. Finally the Xavs are not looking convincing at the moment and coming up against the top side, it will surely be season making or breaking. Having said that, the Aquinas will have just too much. 32 points. The flying Westies re charge before playing the Reds Saturday week.

CLUB XVIII SECTION

by Norm Nugent

Some results again surprised, especially the margins such as the first loss by Monash Blues to Mt Lilydale by 94 points. My success rate was a modest 73%.

Section 1

Leaders Prahran doubled the University Blues' score when the "Two Blues" won by 55 points. Old Xaverians 2 drew away in the last quarter from an injury depleted Mazenod and won by 28 points. Old Xaverians really extracted some revenge from St Kevin's, when they defeated the reigning premiers by 94 points. De La Salle defeated St Bede's/Mentone Tigers by 40 points after a fairly high scoring game. Despite their loss, St Bede's/ Mentone Tigers players were pleased to have kicked their highest score of the season. Their best were McColl(4 goals), Lynch, Porter (3 goals) and Mattingley. In the closest game of the Round, Old Scotch through greater accuracy defeated Old Melburnians by 2 points.

Section 2

St Bernard's remained in the struggle for fourth place when despite a slow start, they gained momentum especially in the second half as they powered to a 93 point victory over Marcellin. Best for St Bernard's were Basarabra, Matthews (5 goals), Briganti and Couch. Former St Bernard's ruckman Mick Dowling was best for Marcellin. Although they were defeated by 82 points, Old Brighton players never capitulated to the dominant Whitefriars team, who still see themselves as likely finalists. Best for the victors were Brett Vey, Pete Tatterson and Peter O'Brien (5 goals in game No 300). For Old Brighton, W. and G. Earl along with C. Trim were best. University Blacks were disappointing against Collegians, who triumphed by 94 points and so took fourth position from the Blacks. Second placed Fitzroy Reds cruised to a 128 point win over Therry Penola, who are not enjoying a successful season. In the sensation of the round, Mt Lilydale turned the tables on the undefeated Monash Blues with a victory by 94 points. Mt Lilydale actually gave a 193 point better performance against Monash than they did in Round 4. The game and its ramifications really have made the quest for the premierships much more open. Best for the "Mountaineers" were; Hadyn Moyles, the evergreen, Patrick Carolan and Luke Hickey. For Monash; Mat Johnstone, Keith Perry, Gav. Prendergast and Damien West were best.

Section 3

Old Trinity started better than Caulfield Grammarians who fought back in the second and third quarters to trail by just 2 points at the last change. The overall depth of talent coupled with their greater fitness saw Old Trinity go away in the last quarter to win by 28 points.

In the battle to avoid tenth place, Old Scotch opened brightly against La Trobe University as the "Cardinals" lead by 27 points at quarter time. This advantage set the tone for match, which Old Scotch won by 35 points. Old Essendon Grammarians survived a real scare against Beaumaris, who failed to topple the leaders by a mere 4 points. In fact a goal for Beaumaris with the last kick of the game would have brought victory. It missed!! Beaumaris certainly had opportunities to wrest the lead but inaccuracy told against them in the end. Best for Old Essendon were B.Turner, John Hughes and P.Barry. Beaumaris were well served by Danny George (centre), Rob. Scrivenor and Tim. Fitzgerald. North Old Boys/ St Patrick's won their fourth game by defeating Old Geelong by 20 points after a closely fought and spirited encounter. The winners had good players in veterans, Trevor Ludeman and Tony Egan as well as winger, Chris. Dynon and Peter Gill. For Old Geelong: Michael Hyde (who arrived from Amsterdam on Saturday morning), Chris. Stevens and William Reed. Fitzroy Reds again outplayed Emmaus / St Leo's. This time they won by 63 points. Their best were: Damian Schliebs and as usual, Tony Jackson. For the losers, their stalwart, 'Gus. Contessotto was again to the fore.

Section 1

I select the "Crocodiles" to again win the intra Old Xavierian clash, even though the "Thirds" (read 2) won last week. St Kevin's should have enough talent to defeat the improving St Bede's / Mentone Tigers. Old Scotch have a tenuous hold on fourth place and in Prahran they face a formidable opponent. Prahran do not have quite the same pressure today but they will not want to lose to a possible final's opponent on a likely final's venue. I select Prahran. University Blues should prove talented enough to defeat a competitive Mazenod. In a potential final's rehearsal, Old Melburnians visit De La Salle. After their near miss last week, the O.M.s can expect another tough game. De La Salle must win to insure they remain in the mix for a top two position. I select them.

Section 2

Monash Blues should again score a win over Old Brighton and thus put themselves on track for the final series. Marcellin will not be able to halt the inexorable march by Mt Lilydale to seeming final's success even though the "Mountaineers" must play on inner suburban soil. St Bernard's will be all out to build percentage at the expense of tenth placed Therry Penola. St Bernard's will win this one but they must make it a big win to remain in final four contention. The enigmatic University Blacks journey out to Park Orchards, which is unfamiliar terrain. Hosts, Whitefriars need victory to remain in final four contention. So do the Blacks, who made their task much harder last Saturday. I select Whitefriars, who are playing more consistent games of football. Collegians, who hold fourth place, play second placed Fitzroy Reds, who must win to hold second spot. No doubt this is the "match of the day". The Reds, may lack the stars who always shine for Collegians, but they compensate with eighteen hard triers, who team well and back each other up. I favour the Reds to win narrowly.

Section 3

Old Scotch looked good last week and at home I favour them to celebrate past player's day with a win over Old Geelong. Caulfield Grammarians will appreciate playing at home against tenth placed La Trobe University. I watched these two teams last week and was a lot more impressed by Caulfield Grammarians whom I select today. Victory to Emmaus / St Leo's over Old Trinity would keep them in the quest for fourth place. Old Trinity are a very good side, whose match fitness is a definite asset. I select them to win. Beaumaris seem the big improvers although North Old Boys / St Patrick's have won in successive weeks. Even at the Gillon Oval, I select Beaumaris, whom I feel have a greater depth of talent than does North Old Boys / St Patrick's.

As a precursor to the Second Semi Final, Old Essendon (first) play Fitzroy Reds (second). The only loss sustained by Old Essendon was to the Reds in Round 5. That day the Reds were clearly the better side. Both teams have improved as the season has unfolded and a high class match should occur. At home, I favour Old Essendon to take the points.

M I MILESTONES E S

300 up to Whitefriars "Bomber". All connected with the Whitefriars Club congratulate Peter "Bomber" O'Brien who played his 300th match in Round 13 against Old Brighton. "Bomber", who started with Whitefriars Under 19s in 1987 has represented all four Club sides with distinction. In 2005, he was an integral part of the undefeated Club XV111 premiership team. With 482 goals, he is the leading goalkicker in the history of his Club. "Bomber", who has just become a father, is highly regarded as a person at Whitefriars as well as being a great Club man over the twenty seasons he has played. Congratulations "Bomber". Long may you wear the Whitefriars jumper!!

Middle East Could Become D5 – Molly

With the Ammos history of expansion and a fondness for bayside clubs the Middle East looms as a potential D5 as early as 2007. VAFA Supremo Molly confirmed this week that life members Pete Idunnowho and Mansells Seashells have come back from a fact-finding mission full of optimism about the following sides joining the Ammos – Damascus, Tripoli, Tel Aviv, Cairo, Gaza City, Tehran, Haifa, Sidon and Beirut. All are very competitive units and each has plenty of fanatical supporters ready to get behind their clubs. Recruitment looks rosy and re-instatement straightforward. Molly wants to promote the top two rated of the Middle East sides straight into D4 in 2007 which puts a fair amount of immediate pressure on the Foxes, Tipsters and the mighty Stationmasters. Stay tuned.

Clancy’s Lunch Overflows

Last week the Clydesdales celebrated 50 years of Ammo service by stalwart Jack Clancy. More than 150 guests were at Optus Oval to honour the gentle giant with MC Ray “Wheeler” Wilson in fine form. Jack donated with yours truly the Rouge e Noir Cup for competition between the Reds and the Blacks several years ago – his wife thankfully is a world renowned French translation expert which assisted the engraver. The lunch was addressed by former Noir and Rouge utility Terry Forrest QC who regaled the crowd with quotes from 70s Reds coaching legend Kenny Frencham. Here are a few: Boys go straight down the middle – if you can’t go straight down the middle, go straight around the wing! Boys it’s a simple game – it’s not rocket surgery! Boys it’s a team game – I need more copulation from the forwards! I have a couple of gems to add from training : Boys come over here under the light where its warmer! Boys tonight I want you to line up alphabetically in order of height – it took an hour and a half and then we knocked off ! All at the Ammos congratulate Jack Clancy – the Blacks & Reds and Blues thank him for his massive contribution.
