

On the Record

by Cameron Noakes

Finals are looming. The competition is hotting up. The silly part of the season is upon us.

With just four games to go before finals (in A and B-sections) and three in the other sections, it is the time of the year where anything goes.

Do not be surprised to see some crazy upsets in the next few rounds as teams from the lower rungs of the ladder come out swinging in order to avoid the dreaded drop. The VFA is the biggest Australian Rules competition in the country and its relegation system adds intrigue to both ends of the ladder this time of the year.

I'm certain other football leagues are envious of our relegation system and I'm sure the AFL is one of them. The AFL has been dogged by the problem that the bottom teams have nothing to play for at the end of the season and are better off losing to gain better picks in the draft.

And they are. This, of course, has created the suggestion that teams tank games and I don't think anybody wants a competition where teams benefit from losing.

If the AFL had a relegation system the problem would be solved. No one wants to drop down a division, and, as is the case in England's Premier League, the financial cost of dropping out of the top flight league is devastating. In the VFA there is plenty to gain from staying up and moving up so it's gloves-off time and the odd results are starting to trickle through.

In A and B sections the top two teams, Collegians and Scotch, both posted losses last weekend and are both showing some indifferent form.

Collegians were undefeated two rounds ago and were expected to storm through the finals and into A-section next season.

Suddenly, the Lions have dropped their past two games and are now only half a game clear on top, with Old Brighton breathing down their neck.

Surely, after spending the entire year on top, they will not cough up pole position.

At the other end of the ladder, St.Kevin's, Whitefriars and Mazenod are locked on points in the relegation battle.

Incredibly, St.Kevin's and Whitefriars have played A-section in the past two years, one of them will be in C-section next year, which is just a reminder a how quickly life can change.

Old Scotch is in a similar boat to the Lions except the boat has a few more holes in it.

The Cardinals have spent more time on top than any other team in A-section but it has the worst percentage in the four.

Old Haileybury and Xavs are just one game behind the ladder leader and Scotch has Xavs this round and the Bloods in a fortnight.

It is quite possible the Cardinals could slip to fourth, or even miss out on finals altogether given that Old Ivanhoe and De La are on the same points as the Blues and also have better percentages than Scotch.

In C-section the St.Bedes/Mentone Tigers show keeps rolling on with a stratospheric percentage of 193.88. The Tigers are also undefeated and are looking the goods to be champions and premiers in what has been a stand-out year.

In D-1 section ladder leader Old Carey managed to gain some breathing space on Bulleen Templestowe last week, moving a game clear after Bullants went down to Old Mentonians.

Peninsula Old Boys and South Melbourne Districts have been brilliant in their sections, both on top with one loss for the year and in D-4 the top three teams, Hawthorn, Eltham and Powerhouse, are all locked on points and vying for the prize.

Potter Goes Higher Than Richard Pryor As Bernards Hang On To See Another A Section Year

Amazing club St Bernards. In disarray a month ago, they have regrouped, got their injured players back and last week rolled the ladder leaders Scotch to virtually ensure their spot in the tier. In hindsight, the signs pointed to an upset; they had been desperately unlucky not to beat two good sides in the last fortnight and have a good record at Camberwell. Congratulations to Callan Potter who pulled down what has been described as the best mark seen in Amateur footy for years while Josh Madden almost pinched his prize minutes later. More drama when Ben Loughlin, one of the most courageous amateur players I've seen, was blown halfway to Heidelberg as he was backing back Mark Harvey style into the oncoming James Gerstman. I was told from a young age that if you're suffer a serious injury in footy, do it when playing a Scotch or Geelong Grammar team 'cos chances are they'll be about a dozen doctors there. Low and behold, after being out cold, Ben was well looked after by a trio of doctors (one of whom was a Gyno!) and the various trainers and support staff. He will return next week and the Bernies will be back next year.

Quickly...

I left Kicksand Park at ½ time last week, thinking that Xavs were in all sorts. Ockleshaw, Chatfield and co then turned on a season defining third term that only Xavs could conjure up and in doing so may have turned a Premiership contender into midtable fodder. That 30 minute burst aside, I have to mention the ground, which claimed my spanking new pair of Italian tan shoes. Never again Hoes! (famous last words). Quinton Gleeson and Andrew Lowcock are having stellar seasons at Melbourne Uni but it's significant that some of the second stringers are stepping up: Chris Baumgartner (Boomer), Ben McConnell & Peter Steele. I'll 'fess up, I really want to see a replay of that 2005 GF and it's getting more and more realistic. David Beardsley and Damien Butler (in the best every game bar one this year) got the nod at the Trinity, whose supporters gazed wistfully at the lumbering figure of their captain sitting things out for the second week in a row.... Even more quickly, Haileybury belted Marcellin (the Badlanders are ticking along very nicely thanks you very much) and De La touched up OMs. Tim Silvers, better known as a full -back kicked four goals for the fourth time this year. I embarked on a bender with Tim last Spring Carnival and thought "well this bloke'll never play sport again" but he (and his side) has really reinvented himself this year, using his bulk and know-how to great advantage in the goal-square.

Hey Gerta, They Reckon You're A Lemon!

Well...maybe not a lemon. But there's no doubt that the folk at Old Xavs don't rate James Gertsman as highly as the rest of us. Overrated, some of them say. True, his record against the Xaverians is modest, as they always seem to match up well on him. Well if Scotch are to get that double chance, you'd reckon they have to beat Xavs today and Gerta has to turn one on. In what must rank as an upset, I'll tip Scotch to win and ensure they'll be playing two finals. Two weeks ago, Ivanhoe were playing for top spot. Today they will be grappling for a finals spot with a daunting trip to the Badlands. Too many big names out for Ivanhoe – Badlanders easily (though Ivanhoe have a tendency to make mincemeat of my selections). At the Snakepit, the white hot Bernies will officially cross Trinity off the list of finals contenders. 'Pitters just. The other two tip themselves....De La over Marcellin and Uni over OMs.

The Run Home

Scotch - Trinity, Hail (Badlands), Marcellin – Okish.

Haileybury – Xavs (TP), Scotch, Bernards – Awkward, next week's game is huge.

Xavs – Haileybury, De La (away), Trinity (Wick) – Tricky, but as if they'd miss.

Uni – Marcellin (away), Ivanhoe, De La (away) – Doable but two tricky road-trips.

Trivia

I didn't sleep for six nights trying to work out last week's trivia answer. As far as I can work out, Marcellin have the youngest list, closely followed by OMs and St Bernards. Haileybury have the oldest list, very closely followed by Xavs and Ivanhoe. Many tried by no-one had the correct answer.

M I M I L E S T O N E S

Old Xaverians congratulate Tim Maher on 50 club games. Tim has missed as many games as he has played through injury but is hoping he has now turned the corner and looking forward to the forthcoming final series - Well done Tim from all at the club.

Old Ivanhoe congratulate Nathan Pratt on 100 games. Nathan is a speedy winger in the resi's who loves to bounce and carry the ball and kick long to the forwards. A great clubman, Nathan is also a great performer at the club's social events too. Well done Nathan.

Uni Blues congratulate Luke North on 100 great games. After winning the U19 Section-1 Goalkicking in 1999, 'Pluggys' stepped up to the senior team and has developed into one of the premier defenders in A-Section. Luke was a key member of Blues' 2004 Premiership Team and was R/U in our 2005 B&F. After suffering a badly broken jaw earlier this season 'The Face' has returned to his best form. Well done Luke.

St. Bernard's congratulate Ben Hogan on 200 games (116 sen, 38 res, 46 U19). A dual U19 B & F winner, Hogi reached the pinnacle of his career in 2002 when he emulated his father Peter's achievement as a member of an A Grade Premiership team, and was also a member of the 2003 Reserves Premiership. WELL DONE HOGI 12.

Congratulations also to Liam "TURTLE" Wilkinson on 100 games (73 sen, 11 res, 16 U19). The big ruckman was rewarded with the Vice Captaincy last year and represented the Big V this year. He played in the 2002 Senior premiership, 2003 Reserves premiership and in the 2004 losing grand final. We look forward to many more years of "TURTLE" chants.

REVIEW

MHSOB proved their form of last week was no fluke with an emphatic victory over a disappointing SKOB outfit that for some inexplicable reason seemed to forget how to play. The young guns of MHSOB continue to improve and can now look forward with confidence to another tenure in B Section. Josh Richmond was on fire up forward with 5 majors that perhaps could have been 10. Roger McIntyre dominated the Ruck, Rhys Limbrick was just brilliant, and Simon Anderson was also good. On a sad note we all wish MHSOB veteran Drew Fairchild a speedy recovery from a serious injury suffered in Saturday's game.

The University Oval was rather muddy but not impossible to play on as the Blacks entered the top 4 for the first time all season with a hard fought 1 point victory over Collegians who lost their second game in a row. No cause to panic yet for the Lions, while the Blacks are obviously a force to be reckoned with. Judd Lalich back in the side after a stint overseas was outstanding, Matt Kempton led by example and kicked the winning goal, and Anthony Evans also had a good one. Clint Harris, Marty Williams and Ben Robbins all good for Collegians, and a terrific debut by Lions U19 skipper Andrew Scott. OEG got a bit of a reality check out at Friar Park, as with their season on the line, Whitefriars had come to play. Perhaps a bit of overconfidence from the previous week had the Bombers nearly paying the supreme sacrifice. Friars work rate was super and they outplayed their visitors for most of the day and were perhaps unlucky to go down in the end. An ugly win bit good sides win ugly. Dermie Kavanagh, Faisal Flaherty, Leask the Master Blaster and Trent Skurrie were the best of the OEG 22.

Beaumaris needed to back up last week's win and consolidate their position. And that's exactly what they did against a Mazenod side that as usual gave their all and never stopped trying. The Sharks, apart from securing their position in the Section have given themselves a slight chance of seeing finals action. Sean Coote and Luke McNicholas were again dominant performers, Calvin Barnes and Aaron Sakisbury were dangerous up front and David Teasdale gave great drive off half back.

Old Brighton was terrific again as the Fields threw everything at them and led by their young guns they took the lot and gave plenty back. A few of them finished the game a bit sore and with plenty of bruises. Leigh Hendra in the guts was sensational all day, his tackling, centre clearances and finishing especially in the last quarter were critical to the teams win. Toby Ewart continues his great season in the ruck, Matt Gadsden is hitting top form and Damien Hughes and Jonno Edge gave plenty across half back.

PREVIEW

Well worth going down to Shark Park on Saturday to witness a clash that could ultimately decide which side will see some finals action this year. Both have the chance to perhaps shore up that spot today. Both in good form with a couple of impressive wins in the last fortnight. Beauty at home are hard to beat but I feel today the Blacks will make it 7 out of the last 8.

Mazenod, after the heartbreak of the last fortnight, travel across town to tackle Old Brighton who are very keen to maintain that vital double chance. OB are very well organised at the moment and are giving their supporters great value that will continue today as I'm sticking with them to inflict yet another loss on Mazenod.

SKOB head out to Leura Road absolutely desperate for a win. OEG hopefully will have learnt a lesson from last week and will realise at this time of the year there are no easy games. This won't be easy either as Skevvies have plenty to play for and are desperate for some points but you just can't go past the Bombers at Essendon.

Poor Whitefriars now have to tackle the wounded Lions who, after two losses on the trot will be looking to bounce back today and get some confidence back for the weeks ahead. Whitefriars will certainly try their hardest, but the return of a few players sees me tipping Collegians.

MHSOB looked a quite impressive unit to me last week and at home will be certainly confident against the sadly out of form Grammarians. Needless to say with a tough run home today is the last roll of the dice for the Fields and to put it mildly, they must win. I think they will as MHSOB perhaps just do not have the height or experience to shut down the Sinclairs all day.

M I L E S T O N E S

Three of Old Brighton's stalwarts who began together in 2000, have all recently reached 100 games for the club.

Ross Stewart has the 2002 Senior B&F in the cabinet, and boasts a career highlighted by hard work in tough contests where he has often been asked to shut down opposing star players. Now that he has been officially tagged himself, spending last Saturday at the altar, the pressure is on Stewy to push to another ton! Good mates Chris Reddin and Cam McKimm have also given great service and are popular figures at South Road. Cam is often pushing into the Senior side and he will certainly be in the mix at finals time, while Redders, who won the Recess B&F last year, will be hoping that the Coy Boys can grab a pennant next month. Congratulations blokes, and we look forward to many more games in the Red and Blue.

All at Caulfield Grammarians congratulate Andrew Strain who notches up his 50th game this week. Strain has developed into a wonderful player who shows great poise and courage across the backline. We all look forward to many more games to come for The Fields.

WHAT DOES IT TAKE TO BECOME AN UMPIRE WITH THE VAFAUA?

I have been asked on a number of occasions, "What umpires do at training?!", followed by the predictable "...learn how to run backwards?!" Well not quite the case. The fitness of an umpire is extensive and a very serious component of their overall performances. Like a midfield football player, they would simply be ineffective and make wrong decisions if they were not capable of running to the correct position.

Recent statistics gathered by way of GPS of an AFL umpire (remembering they have 3 umpires) indicates that a field umpire runs an average distance of 14.5km per game. A boundary umpire runs over 20km a game. Estimates of an average 2 umpire system of 'A' or 'B' Grade umpires on grounds such as O.M.'s, Marcellin or Trinity would rate similar in overall distance. Of this distance, 15% is at top speed (over 20kph) and these top speed efforts range from 1 second to 15 second bursts. (these are time at top speed only and do not include the increase to or decrease from the top speed).

What does all this mean? It means that our umpires not only require a high level of overall fitness but also need to be capable of repeat efforts at speed and yes, they need to be able to run backwards at times.

The training program of umpires can be broken into a number of phases.

During the off season they maintain their own fitness by running, cycling or undertaking a number of other recreational activities. It is extremely rare for an umpire to have a complete rest during the off season.

Pre season training targets the base (endurance) fitness. It generally comprises of running drills of between 400m and 1km at moderate intensity and with equal or greater recovery. The overall distance of these drills varies between 6 to 10km.

As the season approaches, the overall distance will decrease slightly as we begin to increase our specificity training. Running drills will decrease in distance to between 100 to 400m efforts again with equal or greater recovery. These training drills will simulate what is more likely to occur in a real game.

During the season, umpire training is aimed at maintaining the base (aerobic) fitness level whilst increasing their anaerobic fitness combined with increase in skill drills such as purely specific running like trigger points (short intense efforts) or backward running drills.

As the season draws closer to finals football, umpires will have the benefit of a taper period in their training which will allow them to reach their peak in fitness for Finals Football, meaning they will be best equipped to physically and mentally cope with the football matches.

Significant Milestones at MHSOBFC

It is always pleasing to report on significant milestones at MHSOBFC.

Jeff Davis (top) rejoined the club this year after 3 years of post-graduate study in physics in the UK. Jeff returned to Melbourne to a research position at Swinburne University and has made a welcome return to the club. He has now played his 100th game and has been a stalwart defender in the Reserves. Well done Jeff and let there be many more games.

Kyle Harding (middle), now a pharmacist on the peninsula, played his 50th game against St Kevins in the Reserves last Saturday. Kyle has racked tirelessly this year after suffering major injuries in 2005. Kyle's future at the club looks very bright indeed and we know he will go from strength to strength.

Matt Hamilton-Ho (bottom), our "little chief", has also played his 50th game for the club. Matt is now making a significant contribution to the recent success of the seniors after kicking many goals in the reserves early in the year. Well done on your first 50 Matt and let there be many more!

Recovery wishes to Drew

All at MHSOBFC wish champion defender Drew Fairchild a speedy and full recovery after receiving an accidental blow causing nasty facial injuries in the game against St Kevins last Saturday. Drew's desperate courage and leadership has been inspirational for the whole senior team as it wins the fight to hold B Grade in 2007.

Three weeks from the end of the regular season and the top two are all but settled. Pencil in a Tigers -v- Jackas second semi on the 2nd of September. At the other end of the ladder, Old Paradians are almost dead and buried now following their loss to Hampton Rovers, who now sit equal with the Combine on 5 wins, but a fair way behind Fitzroy Reds. In between, there's so much drama and intrigue yet to come, so let's have a brief look at last week, before we park the peepers to the 1600 and get the race to the finishing post underway!!!

Review

Ormond -v- AJAX

A true see-sawing game saw the Jackas get over the line by 9 points, spoiling David Robbins' 150th outing for the Monds. Trailing by 5 goals at the main change, Ormond kicked 6 in the third term to leave the game up for grabs at the final change. However the Jackas dominated the first 15 minutes of the last quarter to put the game beyond doubt. Ormond kicked the last four goals of the game to add some respectability. Anthony Rosen was the dominant forward on the ground kicking a bag for the Jackas, who used Eugene Routman in a BOG effort going head-to-head with Miller. Ben Klein stood firm down back while Danny Markov proved a nuisance once again. For Ormond, there weren't too many passengers, and Luke Duthie impressed everyone as a good U19 prospect for the future.

Old Camberwell -v- STBMT

Nick Corda delivered a brilliant defensive job for STBMT as they went on a massive rampage after quarter time against a hapless Wellers outfit. Paul Wintle bagged 8 goals from CHF, whilst Andrew Hayes ruck-roved and slotted four of his own in a dominant display. For Old Camberwell, Damian Mc Guigan work hard all day down back, Stephen Derry's ruckwork was a standout, and the evergreen Anthony Hardenberg kicked 3 goals in a lone hand up forward. They are still some chance for finals action, but what will they do if they get there? Frankly, the 99 point demolition tells the competition what everyone already knows - the Tigers are simply unbeatable when they get going!!!

Monash -v- Parkdale

The Monash -v- Parkdale stoush had everything including a bit of crowd niggles towards the men in white after the siren. The second half was absorbing footy, man-on-man all over the ground. With Monash 11 points ahead as the clock ticked into time-on, Parkdale kicked a quick goal and then managed to get the ball again into their goal square, where Sam Hecker took a one-handed grab and converted with 51 seconds remaining. One point up, Parkdale couldn't stop Monash surging forward where the ball rolled into the teeth of goals before being rushed by a desperate defence. End result - 2 points apiece and both sides still in the thick of finals contention. Great to see George Smyth and Tommy Craven back to their best for the Ashes all day.

NOBSPC -v- Fitzroy Reds

Against the run of form, this was a fantastic win by the Redders to retain the RedNOB Cup. The Reds couldn't shake off the persistent NOBSPC in the first half, but their third quarter was critical. The final scoreline was deceptive as it wasn't until the last quarter that the Redders put the foot on the pedal. Kane Maghamez, Michael Grossman and Connor Dullard all came back from Willy, but the likes of Michael Louis-Gleeson and Chris Meighen were even more instrumental in what will be an important victory.

Hampton Rovers -v- Old Paradians

In what would always be a hard fought affair, Hampton Rovers' win has pretty much consigned Old Paradians to D Section for 2007. A melee entertained the crowd during the third term, but when the heat was on in the final stanza, the home side rose to the occasion, kicking 4 to 1. Not surprisingly, the Rovers' club song rocked the Boss James clubrooms following the much needed win. Unfortunately, it wasn't all good news for the Rovers, with a couple of injuries sustained, including another knee for Nick Greenwood. For Old Paradians, Luke Dore and Ryan Murray continued their pleasing form.

Monash couldn't possibly let another slip against Fitzroy Reds could they? I have a sneaking suspicion the Reds will keep the flame flickering for one more week at least, whilst saving their bacon in the process. Redders by 7 points. Traditionally the Wellers have struggled to toss Parade, but the motivation of 4th spot should be enough to consign that record, and Parade, to the history books. OC by 28 points. The Tigers will extend their club record winning streak to 16 and leave NOBSPC teetering in 8th. Tigers by 43 points. The Ormond boys have requested that I give them a wrap and I shall dutifully tip me lid in the favour against Parkdale today. Monders by 3 goals at the GGR. Finally, the Rovers are on a (one game) roll, but face a Jackas outfit which is seriously tuning up for a tilt at the flag. Provided AJAX don't get complacent about their 2 game buffer over 3rd spot, they should deliver by 25 points.

McGoos

Reds, OC, Tigers, Monds and AJAX (wow - pretty sure that's the first time all year I've tipped the same winners as the 1sts)

MINI MILESTONES

Old Paradians congratulate Steven Fantone on 100 VAFA games. Stevie is our Reserves captain, commenced with the club in 2001 from Parade College. Stevie has already played in our seniors this season and we look forward to many more games in the future from one of the leaders in our club.

Old Paradians also congratulates Aaron Serafin on 50 VAFA games. Aaron commenced in 2004 from St. Damians JFC. 'Azza' has overcome some injury problems this season and we look forward to many more great games from the dual U19 premiership player.

Ormond congratulates Garrin "Guru" Bailey on 150 games. Garrin played senior football for Echuca at age 16 in 1993. Beginning at Ormond in 1995, he took 2002/03 off to travel overseas, and is enjoying good form this year. Guru is always supported at games by his parents, wife and baby Keira. Well done Garrin from everyone at Ormond.

St. Bedes/Mentone Tigers congratulate the 'Z' Man - Steve Zakic on 100 games. Winner of the Senior Best and Fairest player in 1998, Steve travelled overseas for a couple of years and everyone at Mentone has enjoyed Zacka's return to his best form, and a club social event just isn't the same without the Z-Man in attendance!

REVIEW

A thriller in Keysborough saw Old Mentonians, despite some shaky goalkicking in the final term, pip promotion contenders Bulleen Templestowe by three points. Brent Fairbank with six goals, Peter Flaskis and 50 game man Blake Carroll were key performers for the Panthers.

Prahran won the battle of the cellar dwellers at Toorak Park, beating Banyule by a comfortable 38 points. After an iffy first quarter in front of the sticks, the Two Blues lifted considerably, with John Thwaites at half back, and midfielders Hamish Hodgson and skipper Leigh Northway particularly influential. Emmaus St. Leo's let a four goal lead early in the last quarter slip, after having turned around a four goal half time deficit, eventually succumbing to Yarra Valley OB by 7 points. Defenders Adam 'Maynard' Krebs and Jack Pascoe, and Phil Carey in the midfield stood out for the Animals, while Valley midfielders Phil Valoppi and Ash Drew continued their terrific run of form.

At John Pascoe Fawkner Reserve, Therry Penola battled hard, but Old Geelong proved too strong in the final term, overwhelming the Lions to win by 22 points. Andrew Forster-Knight continued his great form in the Lions' back half. Old Carey took the outright lead after defeating Rupertswood by 28 points at Dunshea Oval. A terrific all-round team effort by the Panthers, with the form of youngsters Stu Jessup and Christian Barton particularly encouraging.

PREVIEW

Banyule host Old Mentonians at R.J. Brockwell Oval. Old Mentonians continue to provide good nuisance value for the finals contenders, thus definitely being one of those teams that "shape the four", while the Bears will look to end their lengthy losing run and try to climb out of the relegation zone. It will be interesting to see whether Banyule's David Gayfer lines up on Michael Basile or Chad Twentyman, and if the rest of the Old Mentonians forwards get to exploit the extra opportunities that would otherwise be taken up by their key forwards. Panthers for mine.

Prahran make the journey to Domeney Reserve for their match against Yarra Valley. Prahran's form has been encouraging in recent times, and will still harbour hopes of escaping the drop zone whilst there are still enough games to play. On the other hand, the Bushrangers have been as good as any team in the comp in the last couple of months or so, and will see today as the perfect opportunity to further strengthen their finals claims. Each team still has something at stake, so all signs point towards a promising contest. I'll take the Bushies today. Bulleen Templestowe take on Therry Penola at Ted Ajani Reserve. Both sides still have plenty to play for, the Bullants still pushing to confirm a double chance come finals action, while the Lions continue to strive for preservation of their D1 status for the 2007 season. Look for the Bullants' Kai

Burridge to have a big game, while it was good to see Therry's Darren Goodwin return to form last week. I still feel that overall, Bulleen Templestowe have too many big guns across the park, and should return to the winner's circle. Bullants to win.

Old Carey travel to Como Park for their clash with Old Geelong. This promises to be a great contest between two of this season's pacemakers, and with the order of the final four (and in the Oggers' case, their actual position) still to be confirmed, plenty of interest is assured. Oggers backmen such as Al Munro, Marty White and Steve Landsdell will be kept busy by the likes of Al Parton and Travis Bull. At the other end of the ground, young defenders Jessup and Barton, along with old heads such as Chris Battle, will be tested by class players such as Nic Casboul and Colby O'Brien. Class abounds on both teams, but I have the feeling that the Panthers may be that bit better across the board. Old Carey to win.

Rupertswood and St. Leo's Emmaus face off at Salesian College Sunbury, in a must-win match for both sides. Again, another contest where both teams have plenty of incentive to win, albeit for different reasons, with Rupo losing their way over the last couple of months after looking a big show for finals after the first six weeks, while the Animals have salvaged some respectability over the last few weeks in their bid to stave off relegation. Both teams have had a similar run of form in recent weeks, but at home, this is a good opportunity for Rupertswood to get back in the saddle and resume their finals race. Rupo for me.

M I M I L E S T O N E S

A slew of celebrations for St. Leo's Emmaus. Tim "Twinkles" Tribe reached the 100 game mark in Round 13. Joining the club in 2000, he has established himself as a hard running senior player, still haunted by missing the 2002 premiership. "Fanta Pants" continues to give great direction on the Animals committee and should resume playing soon after corrective facial surgery. Steven Buckle played his 200th game in Round 14, having commenced in 1994 with the U/19's. "Bucky" has grown into a champion player, winning the C section Best and Fairest (L.S. Zachariah Medal) in 1999, VAFA rep. Honours 2000-2005, club Best and Fairest and premiership player in 2002, and joint club captain in 2006. Bucky is a talented linkman and ball carrier whose on-field leadership is a key part of the Animals game (unlike his off-field activities, which can be somewhat off-putting). Nic Robin played his 50th game, also in Round 14, and is a young player with heaps of potential who started in the U/19's in 2004, and won both the U/19's Best and Fairest and Best On Ground (T.M. Lyon Medal) in the Grand Final in 2005 (where he also picked up a premiership medal), and has continued this run of form into the seniors. Congratulations to you all from everyone at the Animals.

Old Geelong congratulate club legend James Legoe on 100 games last week. James has been a rebounding halfback in the reserves, but has also made the occasional senior appearance. In recent times, Jim has taken on the role of Club XVIII captain, co-incident with a move to full forward! Jimmy has also been a terrific contributor off-field, particularly with his work on the Oggers' website. Well done Jim from everyone at Old Geelong.

SUPPORTS THE VAFA
AFCA/VAFA COACH OF THE YEAR

SENIOR COACH OF THE MONTH – JULY

Peter Tyson – Hawthorn AFC

Peter has been at the helm of Hawthorn Amateurs for 9 years. In that time Peter has tasted premiership success in 1998, grand final defeat on 2002 and led the club to their highest position in the VAFA in 2003 when they competed in D2 Section. Peter is not only the Senior Coach but also a stalwart of the club. Peter played over 300 games for Hawthorn Citizens in the now defunct South East Suburban League and was Captain Coach of the club in the 80's. Hawthorn Citizens would later join with another local club to form Hawthorn Amateurs. In 2006 the club has been lucky enough to play most of their home games at Glenferrie Oval where they are currently undefeated. Hawthorn Amateurs lost 3 of their first 5 games but have not dropped a game since and are a firm premiership favourite in D4 this year.

CLUB WAREHOUSE RISING STAR NOMINATION ROUND 15

KELVIN BARNES (BEAUMARIS)

BEAUMARIS forward Kelvin Barnes is the nominee for the Club Warehouse Rising Star Nomination for Round 15 after his best on ground performance against Mzenod last Saturday.

Kelvin has come via Beaumaris's strong Junior club program. He spent last year overseas and returned to Under 19s where his excellent form warranted promotion to the Seniors. As a half forward, Kelvin presents himself as a target, has good hands and hits teammates upfield. His enthusiasm to improve will see him in the gym over the summer to put on those extra kilos required for B grade.

Kelvin's game last week was highlighted by the amount of one on one contests he won and his left foot enables him to deceive his opponents, finishing off with three goals. Kelvin is one of the reasons why Beaumaris has been able to push for a finals position in B Section this year.

D2 SECTION

by Jono Healy

Peninsula and Oakleigh look set to clash in the second semi final, but Aquinas, Glen Eira and Werribee are all still fighting it out for the last spot in the four. Down the other end of the table, Williamstown are out of the relegation zone and seem set to remain in D2 for another season. La Trobe Uni have taken their spot and face the possibility of joining Ivanhoe Assumption in D3 next season. However, there is still three more games remaining in which surprising things can happen.

Aquinas OC $1.40 v Williamstown CYMS $2.70

Aquinas came from behind early to record a handy victory over Werribee by 44 points to hold on to fourth spot on the ladder for now. Andrew Barrie played his best game for some time in the ruck, whilst Phil Cross dominated in the midfield and John Jess provided a marking option across half forward. Williamstown jumped out of the relegation area for the first time since Round One with a confidence boosting 95 point win over La Trobe. Timmy Wheeler was superb, booting seven majors, whilst the ultra consistent Craig Taylor chipped in with five of his own. Greg Evans from Aquinas probably gets first shot at Wheeler today. It was only a 9 point margin in the favour of Aquinas earlier in the season, and I think they will have too much to play for today. Aquinas to win by 22 points.

Ivanhoe Assumption AFC $2.30 v Werribee AFC $1.55

An important game for both clubs today as The Hoe's need to win to keep their survival hopes alive, while Werribee need the points to keep alive their finals hopes. Both clubs were poor last week. Ivanhoe were never really in their game with Glen Eira, eventually losing by 109 points. Coach John Garrard managed three goals, but was forced from the ground with an injury just before half time. He remains in doubt for today's game, and the Hoe's chances will be improved if he is cleared to play by the medicos. Dave Neilson, Damon Wood and Travis O'Neill all tried hard for the Hoe's but they were outclassed. Werribee started their game well managing the first three goals of the match, but from then on were no match for Aquinas going down by 44 points. Brent Morrow showed his class with five goals for Werribee, and Frank Dimasi found plenty of the ball. If Garrard plays then the Hoe's are a chance. This is really their last chance to stay up this season. However, I think Werribee will be too classy and win by 16 points.

La Trobe Uni $4.10 v Peninsula OB $1.20

La Trobe have slipped into the relegation zone after a 95 point drubbing at the hands of Williamstown. Stephen Pruscino and Adam Coulter tried hard but Williamstown were too desperate. Peninsula proved far too classy for St John's at home in a 86 point victory, with skipper Shaun Payze the star with ten goals on at least four different opponents. Payze received good support from Reed Powney, Stephen White and Cade Bannister and have now mathematically sewn up the double chance. Saying that, I think today's match is a danger match for the Pirates. Yes, they are in top form and La Trobe are in awful form, but the Pirates have nothing to play for, and La Trobe should be desperate. Still, I can't tip the Trobers. Peninsula by 6 points.

Salesian AFC $1.60 v Glen Eira AFC $2.20

Salesian let me down last Saturday going down to Oakleigh by 28 points, and ultimately killing any chance they had for the double chance in the finals. Ivan Bobetic and Nathan Pirouet were good for Salesian, but it was a few of the experienced players who had quiet games. Glen Eira continued their late run at the finals with a 109 point thumping of Ivanhoe Assumption. Chris Massis continued his great season, and he had many helpers with Scott Diamond and David Clarke also amongst the better players. This clash is going to be an extremely fiery encounter, and I will try and make it down to Bosco Street today to take in some of the action. Glen Eira have won five in a row and are playing some of the best football in the competition. Salesian, have been one of the top teams all year though and will want to cement their spot in the final four. Salesian should prove too strong but not after a few dust ups and a couple of reports. Salesian to win by 8 points.

St John's OC $3.10 v Oakleigh AFC $1.33

St John's are by no means certain to remain in D2 next season. They were outclassed against Peninsula going down by 86 points. Peter Walker, Kane Arnold and Corie Derrick all tried valiantly for the Joc's but Peninsula were too strong. Oakleigh showed their class with a 28 point win over Salesian and now seem to have second spot on the ladder all but assured. It was the experience of Shane Kitts, Simon Bando and Shaun Briggs which got Oakleigh over the line, although everyone in the team did their bit according to Coach David Gately. Joc's will be prepared for this match, and it certainly is a danger match for the Krushers. However, Oakleigh should prove too classy and run away with a 27 point victory.

M I L E S T O N E S

Aquinas OCFC – congratulate Greg Evans on playing his 100th game against Williamstown this week. Evo began with the Bloods in 2000 after transferring from basketball. A tall and solid backman, he has been a nightmare for key forwards and we wish him luck for his future with the club. Thanks for your hard work and good luck today.

SENIOR COACHING SPOT @ FITZROY REDS

The Fitzroy Reds are seeking expressions of interest from suitably qualified and motivated applicants for the Senior Coaching role following the decision of Graham Burgen to finish at the end of the 2006 season due to business commitments. Graham has done a marvellous job over 6 years and the new coach will have the opportunity to complete the Reds journey to sustained success in A Grade. A 3 year contract is anticipated.

Expressions of interest can be sent to phille@iprimus.com.au by August 25.

Head of a Man to Front Vafa Investigations Committee

The Vafa's expanding profile (eg D5 Middle East arrangements; David Hicks case, Getta & Ringer) has been further boosted by the referral to the Investigations crew of the NGV fakes and forgeries fiasco. Minister for Arts and former Redder Rod Kemp believes the Vafa's experience of weeding out dodgy names, falsified signatures, and bogus claims will sort it out from Gogh to whoa. Art Galleries all over the world are preparing affidavits and girding themselves for prescribed penalties. Meanwhile DNA suggests the Head belongs to Sailor legend Sambo Sampson with the parrot removed. Meanwhile Justa Gigollo has pulled the plug, Mel's thrown a wobbly, Thorpy's grown a belly and Yasmin's got the shove. The Cemetarians deny they were behind the Fawknor plot and the Rip Van Winkles have asked the Vafa to offer fund a $2M Dutch designed floating bed at Central Reserve. Single Malts all over the place on the A List, Purple Hearts having a little flat spot in B Cup but will bounce back. Circle Workers the big improvers in C matched by Winos in D1 and the Eddies in D2. Two Shots (D3) and Protesters (D4) need to win every game.

• Burgs and his Donkey

Fitzroy Reds Senior Coach Graham Burgen showed recently on a business trip to the north of Pakistan how perseverance can win the day. On the main highway leading to his destination, Burgs' hire car (and driver) came to a stop in heavy traffic. His driver got out of the car to discover that the bridge 500m in front of them had been blown up. Keen to get to his prearranged meeting, Burgs asked the driver to organise another hire car on the other side of the bridge and set off on foot. Burgs then hit another hurdle when arriving at the bridge, discovering that it had been completely destroyed and crossed a large ravine. Standing nearby was a man and his Donkey, who Burgs quickly employed to get him across the ravine and to his hire car on the other side. Thanks to a Donkey with a very strong back and Burgs' quick thinking, he was able to still make his appointment on time.

• Website Proving a Hit

With the added features and changes to the VFA website, it seems the levels of visitation are on the up. In the 4 months from April to July, the VFA website has had over 300,000 visits. With an average of 10 page views per visit, the website has recorded around 3,000,000 page views over this 4 month period. Last year the VFA website recorded 500,000 visits for the entire year with an average of 7 page views per visit. The VFA hopes to continue to develop more interactive features for the site and really showcase Amateur Football to people right around the world.

• Club XVIII Finals Begin This Weekend

Club XVIII finals begin this weekend in all sections with some slight differences in scheduling from previous years. This year sees the introduction of night finals for Club XVIII (3) to be held on Friday nights at Sportscover Arena. Finals commenced early for a number of sides in Club XVIII (2) last weekend, with Collegians scraping into the finals with the last kick of the day. Whitefriars managed to defeat Collegians by 33 points, but missed out on replacing them in 4th spot by 0.8%. A late goal by Collegians kept them in the finals. St Bernards and University Blacks also needed wins against Fitzroy Reds (2nd) and Monash Blues (1st) respectively to have any chance of making the final four. After a hard fought game, St Bernards went down by 5 points when the last kick of the day shaved the post, denying them a draw and a spot in the finals. Uni Blacks put it to Monash all day but in the end were denied by 4 goals. If Round 15 is anything to go by, this year's finals series promises to be one of the best yet.

• Therry-Penola are Number 1

As mentioned last week in the FLOTG section, Therry-Penola's massive effort of raising $2000 in the Cystic Fibrosis "Bangers 'n' Cash" challenge was sure to go close to winning. Well it has, with the club to receive the prize of a new BBQ thanks to Barbeques Galore. Their prize will be presented to them at Cystic Fibrosis Victoria on a date to be set and FLOTG will be there to capture some happy snaps. Well done again to all at Therry-Penola for a fantastic effort and we look forward to other clubs next year mounting a challenge to their title.

• Clubs Not Listed in Tally

Special mention to three clubs not mentioned in last week's tally of funds raised in the Bangers 'n' Cash promotion. They are -
 Old Paradians - $232
 Hampton Rovers - $61.25
 Old Carey - $81.30

Congratulations and thanks to these clubs for their effort, especially Old Paradians who finished 2nd to Therry-Penola in the final tally.

• Old Carey Boys Make Their Mark

Ex Old Carey Grammarian, and club cult figure, Cam "House" Howat became the second Panther alongside Michael Rix to join senior AFL ranks this year. He did so in dazzling style as well, picking up 22 possessions and kicking a goal in a debut for Richmond that earned plaudits from commentators. A silky onballer, Cam continues to be a valued member of the Carey community, regularly attending games and social functions. Michael Rix (pictured) has played 6 games in his debut season as a senior ruckman at St Kilda. Like Cam, Michael is an active member of the Old Carey Football Club community and is regularly participating in club events. Both players bucked the now conventional pathway to the AFL, plying their trade with Old Carey in the VFA and in the VFL before being drafted. Old Carey and the VFA would like to wish both players a long and fruitful AFL career.

• Ormond Win Round 15 Blood Bank Challenge

Ormond are the Round 15 winners of the VFA Blood Bank Challenge, having the greatest percentage increase in donations between Rounds 10 to 15. Ormond AFC win 2 brand new Sherrin Footballs for their efforts and are in string contention for the end of season prize of training jumpers to the value of $1000. The top ten from the latest challenge period is listed above and for a full list of VFA clubs, go to www.vafa.com.au.

• Winter Warmer Could Kostya

Last weekend umpire observer Bob Taylor and his wife took advantage of the Carlton Crest Winter Warmers promotion. After completing umpire duties at Como, Bob and Margaret arrived at the Carlton Crest. Their room had been upgraded to a "Lake View" and the view was spectacular. Arriving for dinner they were informed that the menu was "Seafood Buffet". Needless to say 2 dozen oysters, 12 prawns, 6 morten bay bugs were dispensed and Margaret made her choice the Atlantic Salmon and other delicacies on display. Dessert was massive with many cakes and mousses to be had. Breakfast was also a buffet and you couldn't eat everything on show unless you were prepared to spend the day. Highlight of the weekend was on Sunday morning when Bob ran into a very polite Kostya Tszu in the lift. Bob thoroughly recommend the stay for anyone wanting to get away from the kids, dogs or life in general.

• Umpiring Testimonial

John Kerr
 In 2002 I finished a playing career of some 17 years with Old Scotch. In that time I'd experienced the highs and lows that competitive sport bring to our lives and had learnt invaluable life lessons from each of those experiences. When I finished playing I actually felt lost on the weekends and the waistline began to expand alarmingly! I knew that the club was looking for Reserve Grade umpires and decided to help out. It was terrific. I was able to help the club, maintained contact with the sport, the friends associated with that and was still able to witness the passion and the commitment of VFA players. Most importantly, I began to appreciate the job an umpire does and how important it is. As a player I was often super critical of the men (& women) in white, especially in the Reserves, but I can now see why an umpire does what they do. I then joined the official ranks and enjoy the experience of officiating in 1st XVIII matches where the true VFA spirit of commitment and endeavour are on display every week. So, why do I do it? I keep fit, I keep involved in a game I love, I get paid some beer money which I can put back into the clubs(!) but most importantly to me, I'm helping players who play for the love of the game maintain that enjoyment - without an umpire, there's no game! So, give it a crack, you'll be surprised at how much fun it is.

• Reports Exaggerated

A report in the Sunday Herald Sun earlier in the week quoted Soccer officials complaining about their clubs not being allowed access to under utilised football grounds, allegedly forcing kids to be turned away from the sport and it's growth stifled. Ken Gannon, Football Victoria's Chief Executive, responded to this article (which did not get published by the newspapers) disputing the notion that venues hosting Australian Football are under utilised. "First and foremost, venues where Australian Rules is played are not under utilised. In fact, football would be well served if there were more grounds to meet our soaring participation numbers," Ken said. "While there was several facts and figures published about soccer's alleged participation numbers, there was no information, despite it being provided, of Australian Rules growth," he went on to say. Ken went onto to state that participation in Football is at record levels, despite the diverse nature of sporting pursuits available to young people today.

... Retrospective

by Geoff Reilly

5 YEARS AGO - 2001

In C Section, Glen Eira took their second big scalp in 2 weeks when they defeated Hampton Rovers at Hampton's home ground. It was a fair walloping too, by 8 goals (19.13 to 11.16) and Glen Eira were now almost certain of retaining fourth spot and, if their current form was any indication, maybe even a chance at the title? After Hampton burst out of the blocks, the lads from Glen Eira slammed on 9 goals in the second quarter and continued to increase their lead at the next two breaks. Better players – Neeson, Dimashki, Emmett, Gilmore (8), Vamvakas, Lewin (Glen Eira) and Browne, Wilmott, Natoli, Purcella, D Anderson, S Anderson (Hampton Rovers).

Two very well known and highly regarded players achieved their 250th games in this round. Old Mentonians legend, Tony Bournon, possessed of super skills, had kicked over 450 goals for his club, won a number of club best and fairests and had been honored with State selection. As I recall, Tony was still causing huge headaches for defenders in last season's final series! Prahran's Andre Pitts, a terrific player, also with best and fairest awards to his credit, played his 250th with his usual style. Andre was always highly sought by the State selectors and consistently gave of his best when wearing 'The Big V'!

Top team in D Section, Old Camberwell, met fourth placed Aquinas in a game that may have given an indication of the variance in the top four teams. Old Camberwell found themselves 4 goals down at quarter time and still almost 3 goals behind at the main break. Finally for Camberwell, Rohan Kapoor started to fire on his wing, Anson Brownless became dangerous up forward, Anthony Hardenburg took control of the ruck department and James Clyne helped to tighten up the defence and the Wells were back in business. They took the lead at the final turn and ran out easy winners 19.24 to 13.10. Andy Cultrera had been brilliant for Aquinas in the first half and wingers Brian Weekes and Mark Barnby were also among Aquinas' best.

10 YEARS AGO - 1996

St Bedes Mentone Tigers were making a real run for the top four and they got over the line against Hampton Rovers (9.16 to 10.5) in C Section. Only three points down at three quarter time and kicking with the wind in the last term, Hampton failed to grasp the opportunity. Best players – Saunders, Sebire, Macgeorge (3), Tully, Thompson, Hecker (St Bedes) and Le Grand, Doukas, Fletcher, Scarlett, Ferguson, Crawford (4) for Hampton Rovers.

In D Section, Southbank almost made a certainty of avoiding relegation when they hosted and defeated top of the ladder Caulfield Grammarians. Southbank were great from the start and booted the first 3 majors. They maintained the lead in the second quarter, increased it in the third and put a large dent in Caulfield's plans with a final score of 13.3 to 7.8. Best players – Perry (9), Rolfs, Pitts, Linford, Melican, Eastham (Southbank) and Royals, Cassidy, Whitmee, Williams, Brohier, Lowe (Caulfield Grammarians). Perry's 9 goals took him to the top of the D Section Sharpshooters with a total of 81, only 1 goal clear of "Doc" Inkster of Old Camberwell.

D Section field umpires were P Withington, A Flack, C Bratjberg, V Vescovi, C Keeton, A Ladd, W Henry, S Alger, B McKee and D Kramer.

20 YEARS AGO - 1986

The top four was settled in E Section and only fourth placed Peninsula Old Boys failed to win in this round. Peninsula, State Bank and Elsternwick would need to be at their absolute best if the undefeated Bulleen United were to be challenged. State Bank appeared to be in excellent form as they 'kicked the sweep' against fifth side St Bedes, 30.21 to 12.12. In this game the Bank's big guns were firing, namely Mathieson, Gneil, Hargreaves, Beare, Walpole and Jenkins (7). They simply got better each quarter with 4, 7, 9 and 10 goals as the match wore on. St Bede's best were Roberts, N Fitzgibbon, R Purcell, T Bryant, Berry and Smith.

In F Section, Whitefriars Old Collegians went

one step further to consolidating in the top four when they defeated Commonwealth Bank 14.17 to 8.7. Best players – B Dunn, Sutton, A McLelland, M McLelland, Blakey, Bonnyman (Whitefriars) and O'Keefe, Timothy, Watson, Young, R Henry, Nicholson (Comm Bank). Steve Lampard of West Brunswick played his 200th game and as club captain and number one ruckman, Steve was a huge contributor to his club. Initially playing second fiddle to the great Bruce Ivey, Steve took on the major role following Bruce's retirement. Dual club best and fairest, all West Brunswick supporters were looking forward to many more games from "Lampy".

30 YEARS AGO - 1976

In A Section, De La Salle produced a form reversal over ladder leaders North Old Boys compared to their previous two meetings. Their resounding victory, 18.12 to 10.12, meant that they remained equal second with St Bernards. De La coach Bernie Sheehy had his team full of running and they were scintillating in the first term with 7 goals to 2 and increased the lead to 8 goals by half time. NOBS' 6 goals in the final quarter gained them some respectability. Best players – Dunn, Lofts, Groves, Bothe, Crothers (4), Wright (De La Salle) and Hannaberry, B O'Connor, O'Keefe, Anderson, Hogan and Wigney (NOBS).

In B Section, Old Carey, without a win, looked certain to be relegated but who would join them in C Section the following season? Melbourne High School Old Boys looked the logical ones but seemed determined to make a fight of it as they defeated Geelong and went a step closer to saving their place! The game was a good one and MHSOB played very well early and had built up a handy 3 goal lead at the main break. Geelong came back in the third term and the last quarter saw a very tight contest before MHS held on to win by 7 points, 12.16 to 11.15. Best players – Silberberg, Tallent, W Harrison, Adams (4), Short, Grahame, (MHS) and Lowcock, Archer, Bullen (4), Davis, Wookey, Benci (Geelong).

Hampton Rovers congratulated big Don Scarlett on his 150th game. Don had commenced his amateur career in the juniors and was having his best ever season. A great worker off the field made Don one of the favourites at Rover land. Don was to go on to successfully coach the Rovers and serve on the executive of the coaches' association (AFCA VAFA) for a number of seasons.

40 YEARS AGO - 1966

In D Section, Parkside may have 'put paid' to Alphington's finals chances with a 14.11 to 8.11 victory. Alphington were now fifth and a game and substantial percentage behind Parkside. They were in the game until half time but the 'Red Devils' applied the pressure in third and final terms. Best players – Kingston, Welsh, Bolger, Johnson, K Burns (4), Coulthard (Parkside) and Day (3), Guest, Wilson, Phinikarides, O'Dwyer, Williams (Alphington).

In E Section, the two top sides, AJAX and Glenhuntly, won their respective matches making sure they would meet in the second semi-final in a few weeks time. Glenhuntly's performance against Elsternwick was particularly impressive. Apart from a scoreless second term, Glenhuntly stormed home to win 13.13 to 3.8. Best players were Denis McGrory, Bolt, Barry, N Valle, K Nolan, Rose (Glenhuntly) and Holt, Street, Sellers, Callacher, Heath, Everett (Elsternwick).

In Junior Section 1, Ivanhoe had all but secured the double chance with a good win over rivals Coburg, 9.17 to 6.7. Ivanhoe's seniors and reserves (B Section) were also sitting in second place and the club was enjoying a very successful season. In the Junior 1 match, best players were – Dean, Berry, Quinlivan, Jones, Riley, Withers (Ivanhoe) and Ellis, Beattie, Knox, Thomas, Willoughby, Pryce (Coburg).

50 YEARS AGO - 1956

In A Section, Coburg and State Savings Bank met to determine who would hold 2nd spot and, maybe even top spot by the end of the day, depending on the result of ladder leader, Ivanhoe's game. It was a very even game from the start and scores were level at quarter time. The Bank took a 7 point advantage by half time and extended it to 14 points by the final break. With a lot at stake Coburg were fantastic in the final quarter, got their nose in front in a very fast game and just held on to win by the barest of margins, 9.10 to 9.9. Among the best for Coburg were B Cook, P Rochow and C Mitchell. The Bank failed to mention their best but were concerned with injuries suffered by two key players, Neville Crowe and Don Douglas, both with severe ankle problems. Ivanhoe actually held on to their top spot with a narrow win over Old Melburnians, 6.10 to 5.7.

The leading goal kicker in A Section was G Dahlenburg (Uni Blues) on 54 from Hawthorne (Old Scotch) 42 and SSB's Cullen on 39.

Review

Bentleigh showed why they are section front-runners with a resounding win against Monash Gryphons. With Sharp unstoppable up forward and unlucky not to notch up his 100th in the last quarter, Bentleigh was a class above. Lee Wells was again Monash's most consistent player and Tim Bourbon impressed up forward, however, their side was outclassed as the Demons consolidated second position.

I finally picked an upset of sorts as Kew had a resounding win against the inconsistent Swinburne. In boggy conditions the game was even until late in the 3rd when Kew kicked 4 in a row and sealed the Razorbacks' fate. Woodhouse was again the star for the Browns in the back pocket and Looker dominant across half-back in a great win for the club.

As predicted, the Swans trounced UHS-VU, however, the match was not as one way as envisaged. At quarter time the students were taking the game up to the league leaders, however, the status quo was restored in the second quarter as South Melbourne took control of the match. The win makes South mathematical certainties to take out the minor premiership.

The Westbourne/West Brunswick match had all the makings of a final. After a nervous start by both teams, it was the Warriors who blew the game open in the second quarter kicking six unanswered goals as Smith, Baulch and "Crittter" starred. In the third, the Magpies bounced back hard and with Steven Smythe lifting his comrades, it was going to be a classic final stanza. Ultimately, it was the move of Justin Horsburgh onto the ball that proved the difference as he set up much of the play and his forwards answered the challenge to put the game beyond West Brunswick.

No report from the Elsternwick/St.Marys match, however, as predicted, the Saint's faint glimmer of hope of staying in D3 was snuffed out by a more highly skilled Elsternwick line-up.

Preview

The match between Bentleigh and Elsternwick is probably the most important with regards to the make up of the final four. Both sides have suffered some injury setbacks, though the Demons have had the worst of it of late with another big name, star defender Richard Pearce doing his knee last week. However, when it comes to the pointy end of the season, all sides are in similar situations and it becomes the team with the better depth who will prevail. With the added inspiration of Chris Sharp being two goals shy of the ton, it will be a big day for the Demons. At home, I think they should have too much class for the Wickers in what promises to be a classic encounter.

Cracker match number two sees the Warriors make the short trip over the bridge to downtown South Melbourne, and a chance to sure up their finals berth. In a familiar story for most clubs, both sides have their fair share of injuries, however, in this regard it is the Warriors who will be better off with much more depth than the Swans. Further, the Warriors have been the only side to have beaten the Swans thus far and will be brimming with confidence after last week's win. However, I believe the Swans will be keen to do their bit to snuff out the Warriors from the finals race, and the lads from the West may also be a little off the boil after last week's grueling match. Therefore I will go with the Swans in a hard-hitting match.

Given my predictions above, West Brunswick's against Swinburne is a must win for the club. Should they drop this, it may be season over for Hammer's Magpies. However, given Swinburne's form of late, there is little chance of this happening. My prediction is the Magpies in an all-important percent building win.

A question mark floats over the Gryphons' commitment to the senior cause at the moment, and today offers the club the opportunity to put to bed such guff by delivering a blow to Kew's ladder climbing aspirations. Kew is playing inspired football at the minute and will be hoping for another win to build some momentum into next season. I actually think they can do this especially at home as Bell continues his dominance in the ruck and Horne kicks another bag up forward as the Browns make their charge for sixth spot on the ladder and the prize of "best-of-the-rest". In a season both would rather forget, today's St.Marys/UHS-VU match offers the opportunity to regain some lost pride and perhaps enjoy one final "night on the sauce" celebrating a big win. For my selection, especially at home, you cannot go past the Saints. Enjoy the party All!

Finally, a special mention goes to the Reserves game between Monash and Kew with the winner likely to take out the minor premiership. Good luck to all playing in this match.

South Melbourne Districts hold their players cocktail party this Saturday night. The night is sure to be huge and players are encouraged to bring girlfriends and mates for a large celebration before the finals campaign gets under way. $50, open bar, music, finger food, 8pm at the club.

M I M I L E S T O N E S

South Melbourne's Andrew Lamerton and Steve McDougall played their 50th games last Saturday. Both played superb games and continue to serve South Melbourne Districts with distinction. Well done boys.

St.Marys – St.Marys VC Lachlan Armstrong plays his 50th match for the club against UHS-VU. A fearless defender, who creates plenty of attack from the back half, Lachy also tackles and spoils like a man possessed. A great contributor around the club and tremendous training ethos. Best of luck Lachy!

This week, Gryphons Club Legend Mark 'Piglet' Graydon becomes only the third ever Monash player to reach 200 games. A converted forward, Mark has been a valued member of the reserves over many seasons. A great clubman, Mark has held many committee positions over the past 8 years. All at the Gryphons give their best wishes to Piglet. Bring on the next 200!

Bentleigh congratulates David Gold on 300 games. Goldie joins an exclusive club as only the third player to play 300 games with the club, Goldie has been a valuable player in both the Seniors and Reserves. Goldie is an accomplished all round sportsman and well-respected member at our club. The Committee, Players and Supporters wish you well on this significant milestone.

SPORTSCOVER
VAFA MAJOR SPONSOR

ELSTERNWICK PARK GATES

The main gate (Glenhuntly Road) is open every match day.

The rear gate (off St. Kilda Street) will only be open when there are no matches scheduled for Elsternwick Park No. 2 Oval.

When parking in the area behind the grandstand please park in a manner that would allow cars around you to be able to leave.

Players and officials who do not produce tickets at the gates will be counted and the club invoiced accordingly.

Clubs are issued with an appropriate number of tickets for players and officials.

Finals are coming

With only 3 weeks to go until finals commence, all games are red hot as teams fight to survive relegation or try to make the final four. We as umpires will be put to the test as the pressure mounts and emotion comes into it. Remember that the most important game of the round is the one that you have been appointed to; good luck coming into the home stretch. All the best to the guys trotting around in the Club 18 finals this weekend.

Milestone

Congratulations to David Irons who recently clocked up his 150th VAFA game. Dave, who like many others helps out with the MSJFL on Sundays, has become a very popular figure within umpiring circles. He certainly knows how to enjoy all of those social functions. He had a bit of a concern at the start of his game last week when his umpiring partner was detained giving the pre-match speech at the lunch. We're sure Santo was only plugging Melbourne Sports Books anyway. Well done Dave and we all love you long time! (More raffle prizes for that free plug Santo?)

Who took it?

At his 500th game earlier in the year Steve McCarthy was given a Heineken beer barrel which had been won in the aftermatch raffle by De La Salle stalwart Barry Lyons. Barry (the best De La player ever – so he tells us) had to leave the after match function early as he was going overseas and another supporter picked up the Barrel and took it home (to look after it) and eventually drank the lot unaware Barry had given to Steve. Who was this mysterious De La supporter? Clue, he has a mop of red hair! Will Steve ever get to enjoy his present?

Superman

Sacha Koffman walked into training last Thursday trying to do his best Clark Kent impression with some new spectacles and a pretty sharp suit, all we needed was to see was if he wore his undies on the outside, and if so, where did he hide his cape?

Are you finished yet?

The good thing about having grounds side by side is the interest in seeing who will finish first. Last week at Bulleen the games at both Marcellin and Trinity started on time however the Marcellin game was completed 20min before the Trinity game. We think it was because Simon Stokes hadn't trained enough and was required to do more running than his partner.

Questions?

Noticed an interesting appointment in the under 19s last weekend with the return of a former umpire. "Border security" does it work between the apple isle and the mainland?

Who am I?

Which A grade coach was not his usual loud self last Saturday? Was it because his mother had come to the game to watch. The umpire's could say a few "HAIL" Marys for that one.

RESPECT THE UMPIRE – RESPECT THE GAME!!

Here comes Bulleen! Whilst the Power House Bulleen clash had a little threat of boilover attached, not many D4 groupies would have picked the result! Bulleen hadn't won a 'need to' game all year and what a time to do it! Plenty of ramifications as the House fall two spots to third whilst Bulleen hold onto fourth spot.

Third top side in the space of three weeks as the Hawks take over the hot spot!

Review

With a loss meaning a tough road home for Bulleen, the Cobras responded magnificently, never allowing Power House into the game. Bulleen continued to draw away as they game wore on with Cookson and Moore starring in what was a wonderful team effort. Burnside and Foster were the best for the House who no doubt will be stung into action over the next few weeks.

Albert Park negotiated a difficult one as they accounted for Syndal at the 'House of Sin'. The Falcons started well and held a good lead at the main break before the Sinners came storming in the third stanza. With so much to play for, Albert Park steadied and held on in a tight encounter. Bennett and Phillips starred for the winners whilst Syndal had winners in George and Sanders.

Eltham returned to the winners list as they comfortably dealt with North Brunswick. Three losses in a row had stung the Turtles however they reacted as goods sides do. Dillon was dominant at Half Forward whilst 'Muppet' Blagrove was dangerous with 6 goals. 'Moose' Boudoloh was North's best. The Hawks had a big win over a gallant Richmond. Lauletta continued to be the bane of Richmond's life as he slotted 14 goals whilst the Hawks were also well served by Monck and McGlenchy. Speakman was again grand for Richmond, culminating in winning the after match raffle!

Box Hill North got the job done as they accounted for Eley Park. The Hill Men were very disappointed with their loss from last week and bounced out of the gate quickly against the Sharks. Penny continued his fine season with four goals whilst Irvine and Manno were also good for the victors.

Preview

Two big games this week with results that could see all of the top 6 spots shuffle depending on the final scores!

The other big talking point in D4 is the expectation of 'Super Saturday', namely the last round of the year. The top six sides will square off against each other with the likelihood that every game will have a major impact on the season's final positions!

Match of the day sees Bulleen host Hawthorn in the 'Max McColl Cup'. Bulleen were fantastic last week but will have to butter up again this week as they take on a red hot Hawthorn, fresh from 10 wins in a row. The signs are good for Bulleen and the Hawks will be working out plans on how to quell Cookson, Fradkin, Badanjek and Arcoraci. Of course, Bulleen will have to work out the right combination for the twin towers in Lauletta and Tyson. Really close but maybe Hawthorn?

The other big game sees Albert Park host Box Hill North. The bandwagon that is the Falcons continues to gain some members with this game yet another last gasp for the home side. Still, a lot to like about BHN, who don't rely on any one player to win them games. Might have to go with some home ground advantage here, Albert Park for me.

Although not relegation impacted, the bottom two clubs square up as Richmond welcome North Brunswick to the KB reserve. Apart from a few blips, Richmond have improved this year (not to mention being financially secure, a strong past players network and plenty of numbers) and will view this game as extremely winnable. North will be looking towards the end of the year with some relief. Nuske is a real star whilst Speakman is probably the most consistent player in the grade (15/15 in the best players this year). Really tempted but North should be a little too good.

Eltham return home and welcome Syndal across the way. The Sinners were again solid last week and their percentage of over 100 goes a long way to showing how they have been competitive all year. Still, bit too big a task this week and Eltham should win.

Finally, Power House wander over too Eley Park, keen to make amends after last weeks loss. The Sharks are also looking for round 18 however will look back on the year with some pride as they took the biggest step in the VAFA, namely from Clubbies to two sides. No respite this week though, Power House to win.

M I L E S T O N E S

Hawthorn Amateurs are no doubt joined by the rest of the D4 amateur community in congratulating Jason Jackomos on his 100th game. 'Jacko' announced himself by kicking 6 goals on debut, a feat he is still aiming for 99 games later. A quiet achiever, a joy to coach and a man judged by his deeds rather than words, the Hawks wish him well on his way to the next 100.

Bulleen Cobras congratulate 3 players on reaching 50 games. Matt Mann works tirelessly around the club and has cemented his spot as a reliable backman, keeping the game's best forwards quiet in the last few weeks.

Pete Whitehouse is a reliable reserves player who has been able to work his way into the seniors, and as with all defenders loves getting up the ground and sneaking a goal. Kieran Kellett has also offered some much needed height and finesse to the Cobra outfit. Kieran has worked into the senior team and has now cemented his spot across the half back line. All three play a valuable role both on and off the field and the club wishes them the best.

Eltham Collegians congratulate Trent Duggan on 100 games last weekend. Trent joined the Turtles in 1995 and has contributed greatly to the club on and off the field. Trent has spent time away from the club and his return this year has made a great impact on the young playing group. A former committee member, everyone at Turtleland looks forward to Trent pulling on the shell for a few more seasons.

Pretty much as expected over the weekend. Only three games to go as the finals edge closer—the business end of the season is here!

Review

Match of the round saw top team and premiers favourites Old Xavs douse Blues of any double chance hope. A comfortable twenty point victory, the ever-reliable Benson booting four, while Alex Ross was adjudged best afield. Cracking game and sure to be an indication of an exciting finals series. Rupo put to bed any chance of Scotch extending their season. A five-goal win made easier by Brett Foley bagging four, alongside the in form Jarred Bradley. De La ensured the minor premiership was well and truly alive, beating Marcellin with consummate ease. Adam Kovarik cracked a bag of eight for the winners in a fine individual effort. In other games, Collegians just failed against St Kevin's and St Bernard's smashed BV (percentage could be the decider come three weeks time).

Preview

Easily match of the day sees the pits against Rupo at home. The winner is sure to take home the prized last finals spot, with tough games confronting both teams in the final two rounds (the home team plays Xavs and Del La while Rupo have BV and Xavs). I'll go St Bernards to all but snuff out a Rupo dream first year. University Blues play De La in a possible preliminary preview. Not quite up to Xavs, this is the tester for the Uni boys. I'll take them, but only on trust. Scotch should strip fitter for the run against raging Old Xavs. Look for them over longer distances – I'll take the favourite. In other games, Marcellin will take running down against Collegians, while St Kevin's will relish the heavy track in downing a miffed BV. Lock of the week goes the Cats. Stick with em and plonk your hard earned over 15.5 points. Good luck to all VAFA teams today (especially the Blacks) Any feedback to beatonc@tabcorp.com.au. Happy punting!

The Tonners give the Fielders and the Four a Rattle. Brighton confirmed their challenge for September action, smashing Caulfield by 12 goals. Reported as the hardest team in the comp, Lyttleton's men slammed on 14 goals to 2 after quarter time. Captain Betts dominated in defense while half-forward Ben Takle was best. The Wellers delivered a big win, before their ugly run home, with an 89 point discomobulation of the Sharks. Hillier kicked 6, taking him to the top of the table (51) - an average of 5.1. The OM's beat the T's by 56, but still don't convince me for finals. The Panthers coasted in against the Friars, 44 point winners. The desperate Blacks went into the main break leading against the Raiders with runners Miller and Napier pushing hard, but were never in the mix losing by 3 goals and probably more if the Raiders had kicked straight in the third (2.10). Cunningham, Gibbons and Mahoney were outstanding. Three teams are fighting for 4th. The undermanned Wellers must play the other 2 contenders and Carey, while aside from this week, Brighton have a cruisy run. The Blacks are in the same boat but are half a game down, so the Camberwell, Brighton game should make things clearer. Last time they met, the Tonners were too good, but there are other factors. Camberwell are a different proposition at home. Last time they didn't have Hillier or Clarke. The Tonners have a full list, including several stronger players and have won 7 of their past 11 games. Camberwell, coz if they don't they're in deep. The Blacks should take care of Caulfield. Beavy will beat Trinity but not relegation, while the Friars will upset the Melburnians. Spinners' Men vs Butch's Men. With both sides in superb form, it will again be a battle of the midfielders, but I like Parade's team balance, so it's the Raiders for me. bernechich@netspace.net.au

The King is dead – long live the King!! Oakleigh have been dethroned by the rampaging St. Bedes Mentone who now sit on top of the ladder. The game at Mentone Reserve delivered the goods and then some as two teams had a red-hot go in the highly anticipated clash. SBMT trailed Oakleigh by 9 pts at the main break and 14 at the last change, however, the SBMT steam train clicked up a gear and a 6 goal to 3 last term saw them hang on by 5 points. Craig Keenan and ever-reliable Brendan Neville were awesome for SBMT while Oakleigh's Stephen Doherty provided plenty of headaches with 5 goals. All games went to script this weekend as Old Ivanhoe kept third spot with an easy win over Bentleigh thanks to a 9 goal haul to Kyle Ellis, while Ormond had little trouble with Old Essendon. Patrick Fountain and co made sure MHSOB dealt with Ajax, while a low scoring affair at Uni saw La Trobe defeat Emmaus St. Leo's.

Preview

Round 16 offers no stand out blockbusters as none of the top four teams are playing each other, however, there is still interest at the lower end of the ladder. Emmaus St. Leo's haven't won a game all season and have their best chance to get one before the season finishes when they face Old Essendon at home this week. Old Essendon have won four games this season and have been quite competitive in other weeks, with Ryan Jones, David Benson and Skipper Damien Cerantonio all putting in stellar performances this season. That said, Old Essendon should be too good for Emmaus and record their fifth win of the season. The top four look set to stay in their relative positions from here on in unless one of them drops away dramatically. This weekend serves up percentage boosting wins with Old Ivanhoe to have no trouble against La Trobe, Ormond the same against MHSOB, SBMT to crush Ajax and Oakleigh in a canter against Bentleigh. Review

The game of the round saw us head out to Darling Park where the might of Mazenod took on the enigmatic De La Salle. De La opened the game with some very good running football and took an early lead, however, Mazenod worked hard to get themselves back into the game and at quarter time they were only 2 points down. At the main break Mazenod lead by 5 points. In the second half Mazenod took the foot off the brake and put it onto the accelerator, scoring 10 goals to 4 in a vintage display of football. Mazenod worked very hard for the win and their linking-up and run through the middle was explosive. Mazenod had 10 different goal kickers lead by Nicolas Bogar with 6 while Fredrick Deegan and Peter Stanley both put on polished performances. Adam McKenna was best for De La. Old Mentonians swept aside Powerhouse/Sth Mornington, keeping them goalless after half-time, with John Thompson and Piran Gartner in the best for the home team. Old Haileyburians crushed Parkdale in a damaging display of football with Nathan Waite best afield with his four goals, while the upset of the round saw Monash Blues thrash a disappointing Oakleigh Clayton.

Preview

No rest for the wicked as poor old De La face the rampaging Old Haileyburians. The game is being played at McKinnon Reserve which certainly won't help the situation for De La, who are facing their second loss in a row. Old Haileyburians should win by over 6 goals. Hampton will continue on in their quest to finish the season on a high with a win over a disappointing Oakleigh Clayton, while an interesting clash between the two bottom teams presents itself when Powerhouse/Sth Mornington host Parkdale Vultures. Parkdale won their Round 7 bout with ease last time these two teams met, however, Powerhouse/Sth Mornington are a different proposition at home and in a very tight affair, I believe the home team should get the points and consequently get off the bottom of the ladder. Monash buried Oakleigh last week in a very surprising result last weekend, but they will come back to earth with a thud when they take on the red-hot Old Mentonians at Monash Uni. Mazenod has the bye. All reports to al_vafa@hotmail.com by 5pm Monday.

UNDER 19 (RED)

The Reds got the jump in the 2nd and 4th against the inform Westbourne, in their 74 win. But for periods the Westies were extremely competitive. The visitors teased at a fightback but a final term 7-1 goal domination by the Reds put the result beyond doubt. The Bullants made a push for third spot belting Xavs by 12 goals. The visitors were complacent, not expecting a fast and physical onslaught, which saw the Bullants kicking 11-2 goals in the first half. The Bullants were able to put it away in the last in what ended, a heated affair. Rametta, Matz, Dave Voglis and Brad Gauci down back shun for the Bullants, who also boasted two competent 1st gamers. Kew got a scare from an inaccurate Old Saints side. The difference was nothing at the first two breaks and the NOBS were up at the final break, but Kew gave everything in the last kicking 6, getting up by a solitary 8 points. Wiltshire kicked 8 for the Old Saints, while Wang and Lucisano, were standouts for Kew. Aquinas took care of the Lions, even with key players pulled up for Senior duties. O'Donnell and Collin stood out in the 26 point victory.

Westbourne and Thery have the remotest opportunities to make finals, but it seems as if the 4 is set, with maybe 3rd and 4th interchanging. The Old Saints will host a big loss at Alec Gillon Oval to the Reds. Fitzroy by 52 points. The Bullants will burn Thery's chances of finals by 4 goals. The Woodsmen will be the Westies last chance to make a charge for finals glory. The latter will make the procession down the highway to the home of the ashes and some of the best rock festivals this country has seen, where they will take the win. While the Xavs will recover, knocking of their abysmal neighbour, Kew and attempt to hold 3rd spot. The Aquinians hang out at Eastland. bernecich@netspace.net.au

Semi Finals...

"And so it has come to this". (E. Kelly 11/11/1880) So too for six sides in each Section, albeit without the same degree of finality as befell "Ned". My success rate was an unspectacular 64% in the final Round.

Review

Section 1

The Old Melburnians versus Prahran game never reached a high standard as the leaders were never able to break away from their persistent opponents. Prahran, who led throughout, ended up winning by 22 points, in an unconvincing display. Old Scotch defeated Mazenod by 29 points. Old Xaverians 2 finished on a high note when they defeated St Bede's / Mentone Tigers by 44 points. For St Bede's / Mentone Tigers the best were: McGraw, Parker, De Groot and Captain Mifsud. De La Salle defeated St Kevin's by 18 points.

Section 2

The final four remained in doubt in this competition until the last kick in the 2. 00 p.m. match. Many calls were made around the grounds and more advance scouts than usual traveled to opposition games to report the realities of the day. St Bernard's lost to Fitzroy Reds in an exciting finish by 5 points. The "Bernie's" last shot shaved the post to deny them a tie and fourth place. Despite losing, Coach Andrew Vinacombe believes it was the best four quarter display by St Bernard's for the season. Their best were: Catterall, Stapleton, Rositi and Crouch. Old Brighton salvaged pride with a "Heinz" victory (57 points) over Marcellin. Whitefriars needed to defeat Collegians by at least 37 points to move ahead of the "Lions" on the ladder. Things looked good during the first half, which saw the "Friars" lead by 47 points at half time. Collegians fought back and at the last change Whitefriars led by 40 points. As his namesake wrote, it appeared Norm Elliott's team would "end with a bang and not a whimper" as the Coach booted two quick goals. It was not to be, as Collegians rallied and saved fourth place by .81% as they lost by only 33 points. Greg Oakley booted 7 goals for Collegians whilst Whitefriars were best served by Ward, Singh, and Atkinson. Monash Blues and University Blacks played a hard fought and closely contested match. Monash built an early lead before the Blacks gained the initiative to be within a goal in the last quarter. They missed an open goal, which gave Monash respite as the leaders went on to win by 28 points. Their best included Steven Mentha, Mark Woods, Mat. Riddle and Paul Coughlin. The Blacks were well served by Charles Beaton and Brett Murphy. In the words of Bob Lyons, the Therry Penola Coach; "Mt Lilydale were far too strong, disciplined, drilled and skilled for us". Therry Penola never surrendered but went down by one hundred and ninety seven points. Their best were; Chris. Bye (out of retirement), Dean

Boden and Captain Toohy.

Section 3

Old Trinity gained confidence for the Finals when they defeated second placed Fitzroy Reds by thirty three points. Trinity were well served by: Jonathon Cade, Justin Hickey, Romeo Ullangara and Samuel Di Pasquale. For the Reds; Tony Jackson, Jason Perry and umpire turned player, Jonathan Price were best. Emmaus / St Leo's won on forfeit from La Trobe University. Caulfield Grammarians had an 8 point win over Old Geelong after a high scoring game. In the early game, Old Scotch defeated Beaumaris by 2 points in the closest encounter of the round. In the Friday night game at the Gillon Oval, leaders, Old Essendon defeated North Old Boys / St Patrick's by 42 points. The leaders, who led throughout had a good practice for the night final's series. Their best were: B.Turner, R.Appleton (4 goals), B.Papal and C.Morgan.

Section 1

First Semi Final (Gillon Oval)

De La Salle won their only game against Old Scotch this season by 27 points. They also have the better record over the season and certainly will field the taller team. From my observation of the two teams, I favour De La Salle to win as I suspect they will be too fast for the "Cardinals", who have impressed many through their persistence. In Round 9 Old Scotch Star Andrew Millar booted 7 goals and his team still lost. Against this, De La Salle will miss the drive from forward Andrew Coffey, who has proven a dominant forward. I select De La Salle.

Second Semi Final (Sportscover Arena)

Prahran and Old Xaverians have met only once this season. The "Crocodiles", who lost the game administratively, will be all out to prove their superiority over Prahran, whose finals form has been their "feet of clay" for several seasons. Prahran did not impress last week as their kicking at both ends of the ground repeatedly missed the mark. Their star forwards, Butterworth and Cartledge were often astray against Old Melburnians. They must be on target for Prahran to be competitive against Old Xaverians. The Prahran defenders will have to be at their top to hold out Sayers, Hall and Rush each of whom can kick multiple goals. Michael Jones starred in Round 8 and should again do well today. The big Arena will test the Prahran stamina and with a four man bench Coach Anthony Lawrence will be restricted with rotations. Overall I forecast victory to the Old Xaverians through running fitness and depth of talent.

First Semi Final (Central Reserve)

Fitzroy Reds and Collegians have each defeated each other during the season. The Reds won by 26 points in Round 5 whilst Collegians won by 50 points in Round 14. Collegians' star forward Greg. Oakley could prove the match winner. He has kicked 11 goals in the last two rounds. Other good players for Collegians against Fitzroy have been Johnson, Gambaro and Day. Add Perkov and Hains to the mix and it is easy to see why Collegians are in with a definite chance. Over the season the Reds have the better record but they lost in round 14 (to Collegians) and just won against St Bernard's last week. Have the "wheels" fallen off or are they just loosened? It has been the overall evenness of the Reds that has placed them in the top bracket. I know Collegians lost last week but they persisted and really did not have the hard match that faced the Reds. This selection is my gamble but I feel Collegians will just take the points.

Second Semi Final (Sportscover Arena)

It is difficult to pick the winner here as each of the teams has really thrashed the other this season. Since losing to Monash Blues by 99 points in round 4, Mt Lilydale has won 11 consecutive games. On the other hand, their 94 point loss in Round 13 has been Monash Blues' only defeat this season. There are several queries regarding this game. How will Mt Lilydale fare on the big ground? How will Monash fare in a final as finals have seen the worst of Monash many times. If Batrouney and Coughlin win the ball in the centre and the boundary, Mt Lilydale defenders will be under unusual pressure. Conversely, the skill of the veteran Carolan, Rhodes and Roberts up forward will again present Monash with problems. Mt Lilydale come into this game from three consecutive one sided matches, which is not a good preparation for a final, where the pressure will be on. I know Mt Lilydale come into this game with an impressive record but so does Monash, whose season's form has been excellent. They are deserving of my selection, which I give them.

Section 3

First Semi Final (Central Reserve)

Old Trinity enter this game against Caulfield Grammarians in fine form with a decisive win over second placed Fitzroy Reds in round 15 and a meritorious win over Caulfield in round 13. It has been my impression the Caulfield Grammarian players are suspect on a big ground. I have seen them crumble against Trinity and Fitzroy Reds in these circumstances. Central Reserve is nearly as big as the Hudson Reserve, so the old Caulfield players could well be too tired to chase late in the game. For Old Trinity, Arrowsmith is a proven star up forward whilst Jonathan Cade and Sam Di Pasquale have hit form at the right time. Caulfield rely more on a team effort, which generally stands them in god stead. Today, I favour Old Trinity.

Second Semi Final (Sportscover Arena: Friday Night)

In a first for the V.A.F.A. this match will be played under lights, which makes selection harder through the unknown factors of ball handling and damp weather. Old Essendon have lost twice; each time to Fitzroy Reds in matches that have followed a pattern. The Reds have built an early lead, each time and Old Essendon although cutting the margin, has not been able to catch up. Providing Coach John Rush can rouse his players to an early ascendancy, Old Essendon should go on to win. They have consistent players in John Hughes, Luke Eddy and Sam. Evans. Conversely, the Reds are a more even team. Wayne Bahr, Nick Auden and Tony Jackson provide leadership on the field for the Reds, who suffered a rare reversal in Round 15. I expect another close game and select Old Essendon to win.

RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION HEARINGS

Tuesday August 8, 2006

Power House/South Mornington and Oakleigh Clayton charged with a major melee which allegedly occurred in their under-19 match on Saturday July 29 at Mornington.

Both clubs accepted the prescribed penalty of $200 (first offence within the last two years).

Ivanhoe Assumption and Oakleigh charged with a minor melee which allegedly occurred in their senior match on Saturday July 29 at Ivanhoe.

Both clubs accepted the prescribed penalty of $150 (second offence within the last two years).

AJAX and Old Essendon charged with a major melee which allegedly occurred in their under-19 match on Saturday July 29 at Elsternwick Park.

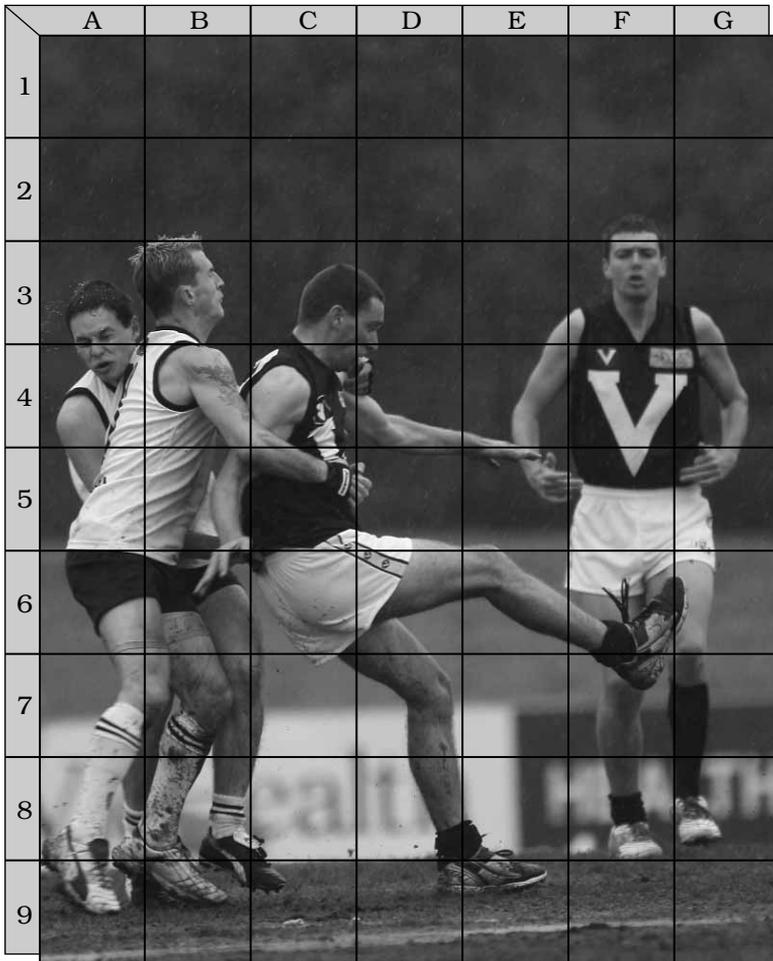

AJAX also charged with conduct unbecoming in that during the above match interchange steward listed as Yoel Rosenbaum (a registered player) allegedly pushed Old Essendon player no. 8, Ben Madden in the chest region during the alleged melee.

Both clubs pleaded guilty to the melee charge. Old Essendon fined $300 (second offence) and AJAX $200 (first offence).

Yoel Rosenbaum suspended for 1 match.

Old Ivanhoe charged with conduct unbecoming in that during their senior match against Old Scotch on Saturday July 29 Old Ivanhoe's president, Mario Christodoulou allegedly (1) approached the field umpires at the three quarter time break; (2) Abused the field umpire in the function room after the match.

Club fined $400.
