

On the Record

by Cameron Noakes

The boys from 96.5 Inner FM found themselves with a lot of time on their hands last week. Generally, after their VAFA match of the day they give their votes and review the game and, at about 5pm, they sign off.

But the problem last week was the game between Old Haileybury and University Blues did not have a quarter that went longer than 25 minutes and, as a consequence, they found themselves with an annoying 30 minutes up their sleeves.

Quite simply, games should not be that short and it is a problem the VAFA will investigate.

What has happened is the VAFA is now playing 20-minute quarters rather than 25 minutes as was the case last year.

There are two reasons for this and they are both sensible. The first one is to make sure the VAFA brand is streamlined with the AFL.

In fact, it seems almost crazy to think that our quarters were longer than the professionals.

The second reason is to prevent games from blowing out. In some games, quarters were running for almost 40 minutes because there had been injuries or whatever and this too is unacceptable.

Obviously, what everybody wants and expects is about a 28-minute quarter but time-keepers have to be diligent.

It is a problem the VAFA expects to iron out and it will be timing a cross-section of games to make sure everyone is on the same page when it comes to "time-off".

Last week all the games at Elsternwick Park went for an ideal length so we're not too far off the mark....but, yes, timekeepers are under the spotlight.

The VAFA will also look at other rule changes that the AFL has introduced such as bringing the ball back into the play after a behind is scored before the goal-umpire has finished waving the flag.

Whether you like the rule or not it probably makes sense to keep the rules the same. Strangely, the AFL likes to tinker and if you don't keep up one day you will suddenly find you have about 10 minor differences to the professionals and there will be confusion.

Players have every right to expect the rules to be uniformed.

VAFA chief executive Michael Sholly says the kick-in rule is likely to be introduced in the near future and the centre-circle rule for ruckman is also one the VAFA has to look at.

In representative games this year the Victorian ruckmen will have to adapt to rules they are not accustomed to.

But Sholly explains that some rules have to be different just because of the size of the ground and the logistics of implementing a rule change.

For instance, the 25-metre penalty will not be changed to 50 metres because many of our grounds are too small.

And a 50-metre penalty can be a very severe advantage and it also hard to measure, Sholly says.

The "sin-bin" rule is also not going to change and it is an important rule – and a good rule – for all leagues.

In fact, the AFL would do well to borrow that one from us.

St Bernards – The footy club that just won't go away Before I start, here's my favourite St Bernards tale from yesteryear...

Three quarter time, scores level, diminutive opposition coach launches into a speech about how much he hates his Mum's cauliflower. He goes on and on about it, about how she dishes it up every dinner time, forces it upon him, how he dreads going home these days. Eventually he reaches a crescendo, telling his bemused players "And there's only one thing I hate more in this ENTIRE GODFORSAKEN WORLD..... (gesticulating wildly towards the St Bernards huddle)....AND THAT'S THOSE $%$ %$* OVER THERE!!

Well, maybe you had to be there. But I was at Toorak Park on Saturday to see the latest batch of 'Pitters notch up a win there for the third successive year. Xavier just can't seem to work the locks at TP these days but the Bernies were mighty impressive. McLaughlin and McIntyre were hard as nails down back and Callan Potter and Nick Mitchell terrorised the red and blacks up the other end. They're pretty small, they have a few scrappers and scrubbers but geeze they have a go. And with Simon Madden, Garry Foulds, Steve Wallis and Tony Liberatore pulling the strings, they're right in it this year.

Oh, and Libba played. Started in a forward pocket, spent a bit of time on the pine, went back into the midfield, scrapped, pointed, barked out instructions, dished off some great handballs and basically didn't draw breath for the entire game. It really was something to see - a 40 year old Brownlow medallist shadowing Tim Ockleshaw, one of the better amateur footballers of the last decade.

Libba's stepson Chris played a cracking game as well while Justin Arnold starred for Xavs.

At the Badlands

Speaking of middle aged men, how long can Mark Seccull keep playing? The way he's going, the big man (he's 38 now) could keep going until he's 60. They say amateur football is a young man's game but Libba's yap and Disco's four goals would suggest otherwise. By all reports it was a fearsome contest (both sides had some sickening injuries) with Haileybury's talls reigning supreme. Apparently that Heath Hopwood can play a bit too!

Peter Nicholson spent the day on the back of an old ute, having relinquished his usual vantage point to the crew from 96.5 Inner FM.

Gerta, Set The Alarm Old Son!

Barry Price has been coaching Scotch schoolboy and old boys sides for decades and is not a wise man to cross. When James Gerstman gave training a miss, Price didn't hesitate to drop him to the dew kickers. Didn't seem to upset Scotch's balance too much though De La were on their heels all day. Charlie Tallent was best for the Cardinals while Ben Mannix (him again) and Timmy Silvers (back from the brink after his Caulfield Guineas Day exploits) bobbed up with four apiece.

Ivan Yo!

The Hoes looked gone for all money at three quarter time against Trinity but stormed home to leave the hedge-burners scratching their heads once again. The Ts kicked the first goal of the last to extend the lead to 29 points but the Hoes kept coming. A late goal to James Hope evened the ledger and then defender Brad Thompson muscled his way through a wall of Trinity players to kick the winning goal.

In the other game, Marcellin held off a strong finishing OMS. Daryl Marson, Brett Dobson and Simon Considine all good for the Eagles. Peter Toll, Anthony Voyage and Will Pantong got the plaudits for the Grammar.

Trivia

Name the A Section Full Back who cleaned up on Wheel of Fortune last year, winning 5 nights in a row. First correct answer to jonathan_g_horn@yahoo.co.uk wins a bottle of red from my cellar and a DVD pack "The Best of Maude – 1972-78".

Last week's answer: 5. Well done to Phil from Balwyn who won the beer and the Rackerman book.

Preview

Uni return to the scene of the crime, missing two of the best A Section defenders you'd ever want to see, James Hayter (ankle) and Luke North (busted jaw), with doubts over Paterson and Cassall as well. De La in an upset. I'll also go for an upset (of sorts) and select Bernards against the Badlanders in the match of the day at the Snakepit.

Tempting to tip Trinity against Xavs but hey, the game isn't being played at Toorak Park. Xavs, just.

Scotch to beat Marcellin and Ivanhoe to beat OMs.

MILESTONES

Old Ivanhoe would like to congratulate captain James Hope on reaching 100 games against OM's this week. James has already had one of the stellar careers at OIG, being a member of 2001 and 2005 B Section premierships teams, and BOG on both occasions, captain since 2004, a regular member of the State Representative side and club best and fairest twice. A stupendous mark, James is also a great athlete whose height and ability to move around the ground are a coach's dream as he can play in the ruck, take the saving mark in the backline, and also be moved forward to win the game with a specky and goal which he has done in many a tight match. Tremendously brave and also very fair, with the respect of both his teammates and opposition alike, James looks set to have one of the great amateur careers and hopefully lead OIG thru many a year in Section A.

Old Xaverians congratulate Simon McCarthy on playing his 100th game last Saturday against St Bernards at Toorak Park. From the college in 1997, he commenced with the Under 19s and is now a regular member of the Reserves. Simon was also recently appointed to the Executive Committee of the Old Xaverians. Congratulations and well done to Simon from all at the club.

Some interesting results this Round with a couple of very strange reversals.

REVIEW

The Blacks had looked impressive up to quarter time, until a change hit the game as MHSOB kicked 14 to 2 over the next three. Their running and backing up was terrific and their pressure forced many a Blacks error. Youngsters Will Taft, Andrew Lim, Ash Hogan and Josh Richmond ran like the wind and John Aitken kicked 5. Parko's swansong ended in disappointment, but Tom Purcell was best, with new boy Mick Battista also good and Matt Kempton up to his usual standard.

A wonderful first half down at South Road. Inspired by Teal with 5 to lemon change, the Grammar boys led into the last, but the fitness of the Tonners came to the fore and from trouble came success with twenty inside 50s to four, to bring home the bacon. Andrew Morley rucked well, Matt Gadsden slipped under the radar, veteran Nick Perry kicked 4 and Leigh Hendra was outstanding in the last.

After the horror show that was Round 1, Mazenod Coach Ben Robertson set a training night program straight out of the Tommy Hafey school - tough and hard. It certainly worked, as the Noddors worked hard and had a well earned buffer at the main break. The game opened up in the third with Whitefriars threatening, but the Noddors answered every challenge to erase the nightmare. Dom Dunne dominated around the ground, Nick Meehan had plenty of it, and Charmath Jayaweera although promising 5, kicked 4.

An arm wrestle for three quarters down at Shark Park saw Collegians come away with another good win. The Lions were pleased with the debut of Adelaide recruit Jason Casserley as well as the continued good form of Chris Blumfield and Andrew Baxter. Beauy can be well satisfied with their endeavour, along with the form of David Teasdale, Chris Graham and Adam Catlin.

Seems SKOBs didn't turn up for the first quarter, and had the Grammarians kicked straight they would have been a shot at the first break. Skevs managed to crawl back to within a goal during the second term, before the Fields bounced away to a handy lead that they were able to maintain for the rest of the day. Nick Tassell, Brett Sinclair, and Andrew Strain were all good for the Fields. Ex Under 19 Ben Dowd continues to impress the SKOBBERS as did Drinkwater and Keogh and a half fit Chardy.

PREVIEW

The Noddors visitors at Central Reserve will be interesting. Dave Murray back at his old stamping ground has a big task today in firing his side up and getting them off to a good start. I think Mazenod might take the points at their home away from home.

While I feel a win is just around the corner for Beaumaris, I don't think it will be today, as Whitefriars are just too hard to beat out at the picturesque Park Orchards, better known as Friar Park.

Old Essendon welcome MHSOB. The High have proved they can win away from home so won't be too daunted. Important for both sides to secure a win here to get momentum, and it might be the experience of Thompson, Cassell, and Fairchild that sees the visitors in front at the end.

Glenhuntly Park greets the Blacks with new Coach Michael Rizio at the helm. Grammarians I feel, are back in town and impressed all last week including my mate Foges, and at home just cannot lose.

Match of the year thus far at Harry Trott. The all conquering Collegians welcome the impressive Tonners. The key to the game will be whether the visitors can cover the loss of their injured big guys against the hot Lions. Speed and enthusiasm are covering their lack of height, but this may not be enough today against a side at home that have done no wrong.

Old Brighton Grammarians congratulate Andrew Van den Dungen on reaching his 100 game tally in last week's victory over Old Essendon Grammarians. Vanders has returned after a serious knee injury to continue his enigmatic and entertaining career, which began with his heroic last kick of the day victory goal over the Noddies, earning him cult status. The Pigeon is now concentrating on marking below his knees in an effort to prolong his career, and his research at the coming World Cup is bound to further hone his skills. Keep pumping Vandy!

CLUB CULTURE

Culture is a term that is bandied around footy circles but not often fully understood. Culture can be defined as "shared values and beliefs", an "accepted way of doing things" of more broadly as what is tolerated. Many VAFA clubs are well known for their good or bad cultures and often that can become a self fulfilling prophecy. Old Xaverians are famous for their "September" culture as was clearly evident in last year's finals series whilst other clubs have less favourable reputations. Does culture matter? Is it real? What are the indicators of culture? How do you change a club's culture? Whose responsibility is it to change the culture? The answers to these questions may vary depending on what Section your club is in. For instance, can the same commitment be demanded from a D4 reserves player as an A section senior player? Some coaches would argue yes! It must also be remembered that players are Amateurs and consequently often have other priorities in their life and a balance must be achieved that is acceptable to both parties. Often a club's culture is most evident on a cold Tuesday night after a loss. How is your player attendance? Are there club officials in attendance? Is there willingness for players to train hard and improve?

Coaches need to establish an acceptable training attendance policy and most importantly, enforce it.

Not all players can be treated the same but if a player breaches what is an agreed policy, then action must be taken. It can sometimes be one step back for two steps forward and coaches need to have the courage to make a tough decision for the long term benefit of the player and the club, even it means losing the next game. I have personally seen several players benefit from being disciplined and in a few cases, it has been the making of them. Last year we started a reserves game with 16 on the field and 6 on the bench, as a result of discipline breaches. We played the entire first quarter with 16. On another occasion, a player was left out completely after arriving late to a game and the team played one short. It was a case of redefining what was acceptable (we won both games!).

Off field issues can also be strong indicators of culture. Poorly organised match day help reflects poorly on a club and games without boundary umpires, water boys etc add undue stress on match day. There is often a correlation between success on field and a well run club off the field. The type of people you attract to your club can also reflect your culture. Despite VAFA rules prohibiting it, I have seen groups of people drinking in a car and then becoming loud and abusive. By tolerating it, your club is endorsing it and it becomes "accepted" behaviour. I would suggest that someone from the committee should inform them that their behaviour is unacceptable.

Changing culture is a long term process and the benefits may not be seen for years but I believe it is essential to long term success. It requires courage, collective will and all key stakeholders playing their part.

LUNCHEONS A HIGHLIGHT AT MHSOBFC

For the past 10 years the MHSOBFC has conducted home game luncheons for every home game at South Yarra. They have been most successful in every respect.

Visiting clubs have frequently remarked on the way they are set up, the way they are conducted, the outstanding quality of the meal and the superb raffle prizes.

(front) and Lyn McCully. The table layout and decoration is stunning and these people are to be highly commended on their work.

The major raffle prizes have been generously donated by Max Grundmann of Maxwell & Williams, with great support also from Bell's Hotel, the Victorian Club and Ted Lynch Agencies.

Substantial praise can be heaped on Mark Longmuir of Spitting

Image Catering as he has provided quality two course meals for many years.

It is customary for MHSOBFC to invite two members of the executive of the visiting club as guests and all other opposition members and supporters are most welcome.

When it is your turn to visit MHSOBFC make sure you plan on attending the pre-match luncheon. The price of $25 per head includes free champagne for the ladies.

The next luncheon is Saturday 13 May when we host Collegians. This is the annual Mothers' Day Luncheon and will feature excellent raffle prizes for the ladies. To assist with catering arrangements please book your place by phoning 9824 0480 by Thursday 11 May.

Luncheons are an integral part of the MHSOBFC social calendar. We look forward to your continuing support.

I was a very fortunate and thankful guest of the Ajax Football Club on Sunday at Sportscover Arena, where they put on a great spread, had plenty of entertaining speakers, a gathering of former club greats for a commemorative photo, and (most importantly) the current side put on a fantastic display in defeating Fitzroy Reds. Many thanks to Peter Kagan for the invite, and commiserations to Peter Hille and Greame Burgen, who permitted me into their rooms before the game to smell some liniment and absorb the Redders' pre-match atmosphere.

Sadly for the Reds, they left the hoo-ha back in the change rooms as Ajax put on an impressive display of dry weather footy which confounded the miserable conditions. They jumped out of the blocks and took control of the 'corridor' (much to the chagrin of the Fitzroy brains' trust). The Jackas dominated with Nick Gold and Jason Israelshon providing good rebounding down back, linking with Ari Lewski & Corey Jankie in the middle. Up front, Adrian Bloom's hands were sure and his boot was just as deadly. Whilst the Reds did improve after quarter-time, the damage was done with a 53 point half time lead petering out to a 6 goal win on the back of a late Redders' rally.

Elsewhere, the tight one was at Ormond where the hosts did their best to hand Monash the points, but managed to orchestrate a Great Escape in the end through accurate conversion and a dash of luck!! Monash started the better of the two sides, but several easy shots went begging. The late 4 goal flurry by Ormond before half time (including 3 to Rob Chisholm) set up a handy 27 point break. Whilst Michael Miller and Dwain Bailey were full of run for the 'Monds, Christian Gregory helped Monash trim the margin back to only 3 points by the end of the third term, setting the game up beautifully. The final term was a classic arm-wrestle where Monash simply couldn't quite get the ascendancy on the scoreboard. The younger Ormond side showed great maturity in a desperate last term to eke out a win which never looked likely until the final siren sounded.

Down at The Boss, the NOBSPC bus was driven by Scotty Sleep in a vintage performance, ably assisted by Dan Tonkin and Chris Hosking (back in his more familiar defensive role). The Hampton Rovers' crowd was vocal enough to keep their side in the hunt until midway through the final term. Three goals to Jeremy Yelland up front, and a great game from Sam Parkinson down back were highlights in an improved effort. Still not enough to get the chocolates, as the Combine's Bus rolled out with the 4 points.

Not a peep from out Bundoora way - I won't insult anyone's intelligence by attempting to interpret the best players and goals kickers - so feel free to peruse the Results on the right hand page.

Finally, at the Barn Yard, the travelling Vultures took on The OC and were the victims of the surprise upset of the round. After some hasty ground repairs (I think the Wellers McGoos were scuffing up the turf taking pot shots at goal), the match started at a cracking pace, with both sides putting their bodies on the line. The Wellers' backline were under siege and performed brilliantly denying Parkdale time and time again, and rebounding forward where the home side took their chances to lead by 7 points at the first change. From that point onwards, Old Camberwell began to gain the ascendancy around the ground and only their own attack of the 'yips' denied them a greater halftime margin. David Loats was proving more than a handful for Parkdale, who simply had to stop the supply in order to get back into the game. By the final change, staring a 35 point deficit in the face, Parkdale could've been forgiven for throwing it in. Instead they rammed home 3 quick ones and it could have been 'game on'. However, the home side then flicked the switch and kicked the last 5 majors to run out deserved 43 point victors.

TIPS

NOBSPC will host the winless Paradians at the Gillon, desperate for their first 4 points. Methinks it will be today for the green 'n purples, Raiders by 5 points in and upset. The Monders are staying put on the postage stamp, and should have enough in the tank to beat Camberwell by 3 goals. Bouyed by last week's victory, it will be an improved Ajax outfit which tackles STBMT, but it's the hardest assignment in C section, so the Tigers by 5 goals. Finally, Monash will return to the winners' circle by 22 points, as will Fitzroy by 11.

REVIEW

A nine goal to one first half set up Old Geelong for an emphatic victory over Banyule at Como Park. "The Hyphen," Mark Vickers-Willis was crucial up forward, but backmen Sandy Makin and BOG Marty White were most influential with their stifling defence.

Bulleen Templestowe defeated Emmaus St Leos in an entertaining clash at Bennetswood. The game was pretty close for its duration with the Bullants seven goal second quarter proving to be a major factor in them securing the four points.

Therry Penola made it two wins from two matches, overcoming Old Mentonians in a tightly contested encounter at Oak Park, with the defensive pressure from both sides the outstanding feature of the game.

Old Carey recorded a very good win over a disappointing Prahran outfit at Dunsheea Oval. After a close first term, the OC lifted a notch from last week with a couple of their U19s from last year in Tom Howgate and 'Raz' Day looking the goods. Northway and Walford stood out for the Two Blues.

Rupertswood won a close one at Salesian College Sunbury against Valley Valley OB. A tight contest all day, the tall Valley forwards were a headache for the home side, but the fresh legs from the Rupo midfield probably was the decisive factor come the end of the game.

PREVIEW

Old Mentonians host Old Carey at The Playing Fields, and hopefully we'll see some Old school football. After a tough loss to Therry last week, the last thing OM need is to front up to a rampant Old Carey unit. If OC continue to have players of the class of Willingham, Park, Tiras and Angus, among others, due to return, they will only get stronger, especially when allied to the form of a red-hot "Dolly" Parton. I choose Old Carey today.

Rupertswood travel to Toorak Park for their match against Prahran. Rupo have had a couple of close games to start with, but have come out the right side of the ledger both times. Prahran, to say they have gotten off to a slow start, is something of an understatement, if not being outright generous. The Two Blues need to capitalise on the quality ruckwork of Radywonik, especially given the pace and skill of the Rupo midfielders. Rupo have their tails up at the moment, and I tip them to make it three in a row.

Yarra Valley welcome Old Geelong to Domeney Reserve in another tough test for the hosts. Being out in the vineyard region, it may be a case of "More wine, waiter please" for both teams, but for contrasting reasons. OG have show no sign of a premiership hangover thus far, and are spoilt for choice as far as goal kicking options are concerned. Valley have been competitive, certainly on the scoreboard, in both their games so far, but this is where that could take a serious knock. All signs point to the blue and white hoops, so Old Geelong it is.

Banyule take on Bulleen Templestowe at Brockwell Oval, with the home side still looking for their first win of the season. After coming close in Round One, Banyule were pummelled by Old Geelong last week and will be looking for redemption. The Bullants won their first game in a shootout last week, and may need another bag from 'Waxy' Williams to get them over the line today. Hmmm.....ahh.....I'll take Banyule.

Emmaus St. Leo's journey out to John Pascoe Fawcner Reserve as they play Therry Penola. The Animals are looking to break their duck, but Therry have looked pretty special so far, and may have just made a believer of me, especially if their defence continues to hold tight. Also look out for Darren Goodwin to continue his early season form. Therry to win.

M I L E S T O N E S

A surfeit of milestones at Emmaus St Leo's: Tim 'Wiff' McCann, who reached the 150 game milestone in Round One. A courageous, versatile and mobile tall, 'Wiff' is senior captain for 2006, and was also a part of the 2002 premiership, a B & F winner in 2003, and R/U in the B & F in 2005; Damien Carey played his 50th game in Round One, and it was great to see DC reach this milestone after suffering what could have been a career ending injury a few years ago; Phil Carey joins the ranks of centurions, playing his 100th game in Round Two. This fearless dasher played in the U19s premiership of 2000 and continues to excite crowds in the seniors; and Ryan England also reached 50 games in Round Two. 'Rhino' is a big thighed key position player who adds plenty of strength to the side with an occasional run downfield. Congratulations from all at The Animals.

The Yarra Valley Old Boys Football Club this week celebrates Nathan Lear's 50th game. Nathan joined the club in 2003, and by 2004 he was making a regular contribution to the senior Bushranger midfield. Possessing scintillating pace and neat, deft skills, Nathan has reguarly captivated spectators with his turbo-powered runs across the Domeney turf. A versatile midfielder/forward, the Bushrangers look forward the next 50 games being of the same quality as the last.

The Old Mentonians wish to congratulate Ryan Alexander and Chad Twentyman who will both play their 100th game for the Club today against Old Carey. Both have been great players on the field and have been outstanding in their off field contributions. We salute two great clubmen and look forward to many more games and to more displays of Rhino's scintillating pace and Chaddy's freakish ability and sparkling repartee.

SUPPORTS THE VAFA AFCA/VAFA COACH OF THE YEAR

April Coach of the Month

Seniors – Pat Hawkins (Collegians, B Section)

U19 – Pat McKenna (Oakleigh, U19(3))

Pat Hawkins – Pat has been at the helm of Collegians since 2002. During his time the club has spent 2 years in C Section (02-03), 1 year in B Section (04 & current) and 1 year in A Section (2005). Pat started his coaching career at Old Xavs as U19 from 96-99, then Senior Assistant Coach on 2000 & 2001. Hard recruiting work from Pat and his team has seen 9 different players play in Round 1 from the last round of 2005. Pat is an accredited Level 2 coach.

CLUB WAREHOUSE RISING STAR NOMINATION

Chris Blumfield (Collegians)

Collegians on baller, Chris Blumfield is the nominee for the Club Warehouse Rising Star for Round 2. On leaving Wesley in 2002, Chris went directly into the seniors and this Saturday will be playing his 50th match for the seniors.

Last Saturday in their match against Beaumaris, Chris gave notice to Frank Dunnel and the selectors of the Under 23 rep team with a dazzling best afield performance. Chris does his best work midfield but can go unnoticed as he pushes into the forward line and last week finished off his work with 4 goals.

Chris last season won the Best and Fairest in the Clubs return to A Section and is the current vice captain. A quiet and humble young man, Chris is beginning to build a strong CV in the VAFA.

by Jono Healy

Well I thought this tipping was easy after getting five from five in the first round but I was taken back to earth with a thud after only correctly selecting two correct matches last round. I am confident of a better showing this week though.

Glen Eira AFC $1.60 v Williamstown CYMS $2.20

A great win was had by Glen Eira last round over Werribee and the boys from Packer Park will be looking to keep that momentum going today against a disappointing Williamstown outfit. Willy were completely outplayed by Oakleigh at Fearon Reserve last week from start to finish and need a lift from all players. The Saints will look for experienced players Alex Tsirogiannis and Andrew Sheedy to show the way today while Willy must get more from Shaun 'Lewfatt' McGuinness and Julian Hynes if they are to pick up their first points of the season. Tough match to pick. Willy by 8 points.

Salesian AFC $1.40 v Ivanhoe Assumption $2.70

Salesian will be happy to be back at Bosco Street this week after their young team was outplayed by the undefeated Aquinas last week. Ivanhoe Assumption were competitive for the first half against pace setter Peninsula but ran out of legs in the second half. Ashley Ross and John Nannes continued their good form in the back half for Salesian last week and will be relied on to provide continual drive into Salesian's forward half. Hoe's ruckman Chris Hunter was good once again last week with good support from Ross Toogood, Ben Galloway and Ben Garrard and coach John Garrard will have his side ready for the challenge today. However, at home I am selecting Salesian by 19 points.

Werribee AFC $3.50 v Peninsula OB $1.28

The Peninsula juggernaut rolls on to Soldiers reserve today in what would have to be close to the biggest road trip in VAFA football. Werribee were distraught after their one point loss at home last week and will be looking to extract some revenge today. Tom Rees and Gareth O'Connor-Price were amongst the better players in Peninsula's big win over Ivanhoe Assumption, but coach Mark Glenn will be aware that this trip to the Western suburbs will not be an easy one. Big danger game here for Peninsula but I think they will get the points but only by 12 points.

St John's OC $1.90 v Aquinas OC $1.80

I may have underestimated the boys from Doveton this year and once again they will be out to prove me wrong against an undefeated Aquinas outfit. Pack your parka's and your long johns for this one as I think it might be a nice cold day out at Thomas Carroll Reserve, the exact conditions that St John's thrive on. The Joc's have shown in the opening two rounds that they are a fit side with good last quarters in both matches. Gary Roberts tireless running on a wing was a feature last week on the big La Trobe ground and he will once again provide the Joc's the hard running style of play that new coach Rod Walker has implemented. It was great to see great clubman Matt Hunter back from a serious injury last week for Aquinas, and he will no doubt be better for the run. Hunter along with Shane Cooper and Bobby Moran will once again be the players to keep an eye on for Aquinas. I think that come 5:00 pm tonight, Aquinas will still be undefeated. Aquinas by 5 points.

Oakleigh AFC $1.33 v La Trobe University $3.10

Scammell Reserve is the location for this clash as the winless La Trobe take on Oakleigh in what must be said is a must win match for the boys from the Northern suburb of Bundoora. Oakleigh have been ultra impressive in the opening two rounds and what a great sight it was last week to see veteran Doug

LAST ROUND'S RESULTS – D2

McKenzie back from the wilderness, after missing twelve months kicking eleven straight majors and marking everything that came near him. It could be a good go for the goalkicking title down at Oakleigh this year between McKenzie and Trevor Bromley. La Trobe will need good games from Pruscino, Waterman and Fehring if they are to win this one, but I think at home the Krushers will have far too much firepower. Oakleigh by 37 points.

Thanks to the clubs that have been emailing me with feedback from their matches on the weekend. It is greatly appreciated. Please email me at jonathan.healy@hotmail.com by 5:00pm Monday with any details from your clubs matches, milestones, social events, etc.

M I L E S T O N E S

Adrian Foneca plays his 100th game for St John's today. AJ played in the 2005 reserve premiership side and currently boasts the worst haircut in the VAFA. From all at the club well done AJ.

The Glen Eira saints would like to congratulate Shane Hollow and Brad Clements on reaching 50 games with the club.

Salesian congratulate Matthew Forbes on his 200th game. He becomes only the 7th Salesian player to reach the 200 game milestone. Matthew has been a reliable contributor over the years, a member of the Premiership team of '96 and past captain of the Reserves side. He'd like to sneak under the radar with the milestone, but we could not let it go unnoticed!

Also, congratulations to Simon Sutherland who recently played his 150th game for the club. Who would have thought that after his emotional retirement speech mid way through last season, enforced by injury, that this stalwart of the club would clock up this milestone. His awkward kicking style aside, there can be no shortage of superlatives put forward about this man. A past club captain, he's always led from the front, playing his footy in a exciting, hard at it, high flying manner.

From Salesian again, congratulations also to Matthew Loughnan on reaching 50 games. Many tough games to come from this hard nut.

REUNIONS CONDUCTED LAST WEEKEND

Old Xavs 1981 reunion

The 1981 Old Xavs players celebrated a 25 year reunion of their A Section premierships last Saturday. Club legend Stephen Curtain told a humorous story about a conversation that took place in the coaches' box during the preliminary final match against De La. Kevin O'Shaughnessy, chairman of selectors, noted to the coach Michael Green that he looked particularly tired. Michael replied that he had had a terrible night as his son Richard had swallowed a 5 cent piece and they had spent all night at Cabrini trying to get the money out. In his typically slow drawl Kev replied, "Geez Mike, I know you're tight but that's ridiculous."

Ajax celebrates 50 years in the VAFA

Ajax are beginning their 50th year in the VAFA and to celebrate the occasion a photo of all Ajax players who had represented the club was taken in the grandstand at Elsternwick Park before their match against Fitzroy Reds last Sunday. Playing for Ajax are numerous sons of former players including two Jankie's, a Ritterman, Duzenman, Zemski, Feldy, Blusstein, Kagan, Bromberg, Shulman, Bloom and Nissen. This could be the start of another dynasty similar to their sensational rise from E to A section in the seventies.

Crossing Over?

Seen at a 50th birthday celebration on Saturday Night were two legendary St Kevin's players wearing Old Haileybury jumpers. Seems the birthday boy had always wanted to see his great mates in the Magenta and Black and the only way he was going to do it was by force and the bribe of free beer. It seems the fear of drinking mineral water had its desired effect.

Team Sheets and Results Notifications

Please make sure that anybody involved with these processes for each team make themselves fully aware of their requirements. The new "Instructional Guides" are located on the website under "VAFA Noticeboard". These guides have been updated this week in line with some changes that have been made due to club feedback. We thank those clubs for their feedback and look forward to a smooth Round 3.

Syndal Tally-Ho Celebrates 40 years

Syndal Tally-Ho AFC celebrates its 40th Anniversary tonight with a function to be held at the Grand Dandenong International. This is sure to be an enjoyable celebration of a football club that is a valued member of the VAFA. For all those attending it promises to be a great (and probably long!) night.

Certificate of Merit

Tony Naumoff

Tony started at the Hampton Rovers as a player in 1976 and played 158 games. In 1985 he was appointed Reserves Captain/Coach and in 1988 and 1989 took on the role of U19 Coach. Tony then took a well earned break from official capacities at the club but returned to take up the position of Assistant Coach to the Senior Team. Tony has held coaching positions at the club for the last 11 years from U17's through to seniors. Tony has been either Coach or Assistant Coach of four premierships teams including the 2004 Reserves Premiership side. To the end of 2005, Tony has coached a total of over 220 games for the Rovers over a period of 20 years. Tony is a Life Member of the Hampton Rovers AFC and a deserved recipient of a VAFA Certificate of Merit.

Representative Football 2006

Squads will be released this week for the U19, U23 and A-D4 Representative Teams for the upcoming representative season. The U19 Representative Team will be taking on the Queensland AFL U21 Rep. Side at the Gabba on June 10th, as a curtain raiser to the Brisbane Lions - Adelaide Crows match. The U23 side will have 2 representative matches this year. They take on Western Australia on June 4th and South Australia on July 15th, both at Sportscover Arena. Both these qualify players to be selected for the Australian Tour of Ireland in 2007. The A-D4 Representative Team again takes on the Southern Football League for the Cystic Fibrosis Community Cup on June 10th at Clayton Reserve, Haughton Rd Clayton. We are looking forward to all clubs getting right behind their players chosen to represent their State. It is a great honour and one that is cherished by participants for many years to come.

Cystic Fibrosis - Bangers and Cash 2006

Shortly, clubs will receive information about this years "Bangers N Cash" Challenge to raise money for Cystic Fibrosis Victoria. This challenge coincides with the Cystic Fibrosis Community Cup which is played between the VAFA and the SFL on the June Long Weekend.

Clubs are asked to hold a BBQ on either their Thursday Night training session (May 18th) or at their game on the Saturday (May 20th). Clubs have the choice of donating the proceeds of this BBQ to CF, or using the tins provided to ask patrons to make a gold coin donation for every item of food sold. We are hoping that each club raises at least $100 from this event. The club that raises the most money from the VAFA and SFL will win a BBQ from Barbeques Galore valued at around $1000. This was won by a SFL club last year, so come on VAFA clubs, have a go and raise some much needed funds for a worthwhile cause.

VAFA Office Re-Fit

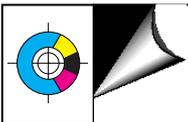

With the recent shift of the VAFA properties to Primary Edge Marketing and an increase in VAFA staffing space requirements, VAFA Headquarters has this week undergone a minor re-fit. Gone is the over-spaced Operations office which has been replaced with three open-plan office spaces. Credit goes to Kate Balme, who continued on her tasks through the dust, noise and constant banter from the workmen discussing Big Brother. Apologies to anyone attempting to contact Operations Manager Jeremy Bourke earlier this week, who due to his office being dismantled, had his phone lines disconnected for a period of time.

5 YEARS AGO - 2001

In A section Old Xaverians' slow start to the season continued at Elsternwick Park when Mazenod OC took minor control at half time, made it major control at the final break, finishing with a great win, 20.14 to 10.23. Umpires Rob Sneddon and Tim Sutcliffe controlled the game in fine fashion despite the frustration of the Old Xavs line-up who kicked no less than 2 goals 11 behinds in the final term. Best for Mazenod; Fisher, Harrison, O'Donoghue (9), Murray, Bayford and Lancaster. Xavs' best; Lethlean (3), Orlando, Kay, Clarke, Bowen and Landrigan.

In D2 Section Mentone Amateurs were sailing along nicely and dispensed with Oakleigh, 27.17 to 14.8 at Oakleigh's home ground. The redoubtable Tony Macegeorge led the way for the winners and, as captain coach, demonstrated his prowess with 10 goals. Other good players for the Vultures were T Barr, Stephens, Gallagher, Emmett and Perrin. Dooley, Schultz, Hunter (4), B Papadopoulos, Bremley and Mc Henry were Oakleigh's best players.

In Junior Section 1 it was a great battle between Old Melburnians and University Blues and there was little in it all day. The Blues finally ran our winners by 4 points 12.14 to 12.10. Best players - Nichols, Wilcox, Miller, Briggs, Cameron, Fricker (Uni Blues) and Smith, Horgan (3), Richardson, Selby, Burgess, Mathies (Old Melburnians).

Mark Jenkins and Vin Vescovi, who joined the VAFUA in 1991 and 1990 respectively, officiated in their 200th games. Both Mark and Vinnie were great ambassadors for the umpiring fraternity. In Umpires' Corner, the "What's Your Decision" section offered a prize. Winner for the week was Elsternwick's stalwart, Steve Bean, who secured two complimentary tickets to the MCG on match day.

Old Carey had named Brian Taylor as its senior coach for the season but BT had regrettably resigned on the eve of the season following more offers of work in the media. BT has gone from strength to strength as a commentator over the past 5 seasons! Chris Hickey had taken over the reins at Old Carey.

10 YEARS AGO - 1996

D Section scribe, Ken Bremner, pointed out that all teams in his grade had points on the board, a first in the competition for the season among senior teams. Caulfield Grammarians traveled to St Leos Emmaus, were brilliant in the third quarter with 6 goals to hold a 22 point lead at the final break before succumbing to the home team, whose 9 unanswered goals in the final term was a stunning display. Hendricus kicked 8 for St Leos and was joined by O'Meara, Burgess, Douglas, Pitcher and Bethune in the best players. Baxter, Synman, Will, Di Crosta, Lowe and Harrison (5) were strong for The Fields.

Old Melburnians were putting together a strong U19 squad in Junior Section 1 and dealt with North Old Boys in no uncertain terms, 22.22 to 7.5. Miller, Waddell, Jenkins, Berry, Sewell and Law were OM's best and Rutherford's 7 goals could not get him in the top six. NOBS were disappointed to say the least and failed to mention any good players. Coaches in Junior Section 1 were – Mike Zemski (AJAX), Neville James (Collegians), Terry Russell (De La Salle), Terry Mills (NOBS), Richard Duncan (OM's), Paul Digney (Old Paradians), Pat Hawkins (Old Xavs), Kevin Mahady (St Bernards), Geoff Porter (Therry) and Steve Carroll (Uni Blues).

The VFA's Certificate of Merit winners for 1986 included some famous amateur personalities. Ken Blay (Kew), Bruce Bourne (Ormond), Vivian Francis (State Bank), Harry Leigh (NOBS), Peter Selleck (Uni Reds), David Urquhart (Old Melburnians), Walter Johnson (UHSOB), Cliff Bastow (West Brunswick), James Fidge (Geelong), John Miles (Ivanhoe), Peter Nathan (St Bernards) and Graham Simpson VFA Umpires).

In an unusual feature of the VFA fixture, the first round opponents were to play again in round 3. Ormond, still smarting over their two first round losses traveled to the home of Caulfield Grammarians and turned the tables with a convincing 32 point victory. Tobin, Petering, Nash, Hill (5), McCooke (3) and David McDonald were great for the 'Monds. McClelland, Stone, Cooney, Morrissey, Collett and Nalder were best for the Grammarians.

30 YEARS AGO – 1976

De La Salle were the 'trend setters' in A Section and their seniors and reserves were both on top of the ladder undefeated. Reservoir Old Boys made De La work hard to gain the 4 points in the main game and it was only De La's 5 goals to 2 in the final term that sealed the game, 17.17 to 12.14. Hill (5), Fitzpatrick, Lyons, McHenry, Power and Mulqueen were the best players for De La Salle. For Reservoir, R Shepherd, Bates, Wilson, Dowell, Scott and Massey were the losers' best contributors.

A Section coaches were Graham Warfe (Coburg), Bernie Sheehy (DLS), Bill Harding (Monash), Shane Maquire (NOBS), Alec Gardiner (Trinity), Ian Cameron (Ormond), Brian King (Reservoir), Gus Mitchell (St Bernards), Peter O'Donohue (Uni Blacks) and Alan Salter (Uni Blues).

40 YEARS AGO – 1966

North CBC Old Boys and Monash Uni were now the only two undefeated teams in C Section. North only won against Old Brighton by 3 points, 11.9 to 9.18 and the margin was exactly the same as Monash 9.15 defeated Old Haileybury 9.12. The best players in these games were Kelsey, Drew, L Carney, Garland, D Adams and Thomas (North); D Myers, J Agar, Millis, Code, Berry and Pryor (Old Brighton); Cole, Message, Windust, Hone, Evans and Dixon (Monash) and Young, Bowring, Home, Mulvey, Langford-Jones and Burke (Old Haileybury).

Peter Booth celebrated his appointment as Captain of Old Paradians by playing his 150th game for the club. Peter's brother, John, had been appointed coach of the club.

50 YEARS AGO – 1956

The Power House Club were strong enough in numbers to field two teams, the "Greens" in B Section and the "Golds" in E Section. While the Greens were going along nicely in third spot, the Golds had yet to record a win but were very stiff to go down to Brighton by a solitary point. The Golds' scribe was magnanimous enough to thank Brighton for the game and also congratulate the umpire for his efforts.

Mark Marsden (University – E Section) was the highest goal scorer to date in the competition with 37.

The Junior Section was dominated by district teams, both in terms of the top four (Ivanhoe, Alphington, Hampton Scouts and Ormond) and in the make up of the section (only "old boys teams" were Old Scotch, MHSOB and Footscray Tech).

Review

Old Westbourne christened their new ground and clubrooms in style with a workmanlike win against Monash. With both Justin and Andrew Horsburgh on fire the game was put beyond doubt in a stunning third quarter that blew the game apart.

West Brunswick laughed off last week's loss with a stirring win against Kew at "the House of Pain". Lewis Martin starred across the backline for the Maggies and ensured the result was never in doubt as his side moved into the four with a great win.

Elsternwick as expected easily accounted for the struggling UHS-VU. The students were no match for good mix of the Wicker's "talls and smalls" and with Hunter on song the percentage was given a nice boost. Swinburne proved their critics wrong as Murchie proved he is still a match winner in a stunning display. While Ben Graetzer worked feverishly in the ruck for St Marys all day, it was not to be with the Saints now having to regroup if they are to stave off the relegation jitters.

Bentleigh could not back up last week's win as they let the Swans get the jump on them in a fiery encounter. While Chris Sharp stirred the Demons into action in the second quarter, the Swannies put the game beyond doubt in the third to keep their unbeaten record intact.

Preview

Bentleigh will be playing for more than just the four points as they try to rebound from last week's disappointment and also honor the great Ron Gordon who passed away on the weekend. While the Saints will be buoyed by the return of several stars who should provide plenty of fodder for Richardson who has showed a bit up forward, I think it will be another tough day at the office for the Saints. For my tip, I am sticking with the Demons to register a comfortable win.

UHS-VU host Swinburne in a match that is of the utmost importance to the club if they are to remain in touch with the rest of D3. It has been tough going for the Vultures who have relied on Dad's Army to get them through and they will be hoping that a fit Langendorf can resume to assist the cause. However, the Razorbacks look as though they will trouble a number of the top sides this season as Higgins and Murchie continue to rack up the goals and as such should have no trouble slotting away UHS in an easy win.

The Westies, having registered their first win last week make their hoodoo trip to Monash in a danger game for the club. While the scoreboard was not flattering last weekend for the Gryphons, they were not disgraced and as such are a real chance to surprise today. For my tip however, I cannot go past Hammers Heroes as Owayne Kritchley cuts them up again on the wing and leads the Maggies to a comfortable win.

The horror draw continues for Kew as they host the rampant South Melbourne. The Swans have surprised a few in D3 by their high scoring and tough play, however those in the know have expected as much from the club. Do not expect this match to be a blow out though, as both sides match up very well and a torrid affair could be on the cards. If Kew go down today, they will be hard pressed to make up the lost ground and therefore it is all on the line, however, I am going with the Swans to continue their winning form with a three to four goal win.

The match of the round pits unbeaten sides Old Westbourne and Elsternwick in a match that could go either way. The last visit the Warriors made to "Candle Park" resulted in the Wickers inflicting the only loss of the season on the club, and thus the home ground advantage is strong. Analysing the match, the form of the Mahoney boys and Justin Hunter may prove difficult for Leon "McManus" Fairfield, "Hairbear" Benn and their fellow defenders, however, the Elsternwick defenders will have as much trouble countering the dominance of D3 Enforcer, Stuart Balloch. For my tip I am going with the Warriors to lay to rest their 2004 demons as they win by under a kick.

Bentleigh: Saturday 6th May is the Ladies Lunch and Trivia Night. Guys get the girls along to this great lunch then we can all back-up for a great trivia night, see Jemmo for tickets and bookings but be assured both are great events.

MILESTONES

Last week, Steve 'Banger' Curtin laced up his boots for a superb 150th time at Elsternwick. The former club captain, like a good bottle of wine, has managed to mature well with age. Ever one for the big occasion, Steve was adjudged best on ground in last years Grand Final win, and has shown no sign of slowing down with another stellar performance in his milestone game. Everyone at Elsternwick would like to congratulate Steve, the peoples champion, on his monumental achievement, and hope that the next 150 games at Elsternwick are as exciting and joyous to watch.

Congratulations to Stuart Craven on 100 games in round 1 for Bentleigh. All would agree that Stewie's a great clubman, reliable at full back and one that always supports club functions. Well done from the players, committee and supporters.

ELSTERNWICK PARK GATES

The main gate (Glenhuntly Road) is open every match day.

The rear gate (off St. Kilda Street) will only be open when there are no matches scheduled for Elsternwick Park No. 2 Oval.

When parking in the area behind the grandstand please park in a manner that would allow cars around you to be able to leave.

Players and officials who do not produce tickets at the gates will be counted and the club invoiced accordingly.

Clubs are issued with an appropriate number of tickets for players and officials.

Clocking the k's

The great thing about umpiring in the VAFA is that your game can be anywhere in the length and breadth of Melbourne, so at one stage you can see the concrete jungle of Melbourne or the farming hills of the countryside. One such umpire to have this experience (in a way) in the last two weeks is Paul O'Loughlin who in the first week went out to Yarra Valley, last week the great road trip to Rupertswood this week he should complete the trifecta and go south to Peninsula. Paul you are from interstate so we're getting you to work your way around Victoria.

Emergency

Legendary goal umpire Bernie Hoare's job as a fireman requires night shift on the occasion and he leaves straight after the games (well, almost – with a traveller) to get to work like he did after the Old Trinity game a couple of weeks back. Come training on Thursday night it dawns on him that he has left all his gear back in the rooms at OT's, a quick phone call to the president to arrange a pick up the next night. Bernie did you rock up in the fire truck with lights and sirens blazing (as it was an emergency)? Did the president of OT's wash and iron the gear for you? All clear!!

RACV to the rescue

Goalie Bruce Stephens arrived at his game, got his bag of gear out locked the car then checked for his flags, problem 1 was, he left them in the car, problem 2 was his keys are next to the flags. Who are you going to call? The advisor could not help; he is at another game and doesn't carry spare flags. Congrats to the RACV who arrived in time to rescue the distraught goalie.

Golfing news #1

Seems that even the pros can have a bad day. Our resident pro and Goal Umpires Advisor Andrew (Tiger Snake) Barnes recently realised that he can actually throw a four iron further than his ball. Goalies – don't cross Barnesy if he tells you that you had a bad day with the flags. Who knows what he'll do with them?

Golfing news #2

Some off-season golfing news from senior list umpire Simon Olive. "It appears that some light-hearted umpire abuse can even take place over the summer. In the Haileybury Old Boys golf competition organised by Old Haileybury legend Matt "Whoppy" Armstrong and OHAFV President Tim Chegwin it seems that Olly was the shock overnight leader having shot a 78 off the stick up at the picturesque Howlong course. In what he later described as a 'murder suicide' strategy, Chief Handicapper Chegwin ensured that Olive presented in no fit state to compete the following morning. After a lawn bowls match that finished under lights and on the wrong side of 3am and several "lemonades", Cheggers compiled a score that would have made Dizzy Gillespie proud and faded quicker than StKilda in a preliminary final." While mentioning Cheggers the big fella took a stand last Saturday when OH's beaten opponents couldn't manage the trip into the club-rooms for an after-match bevvie (other commitments), he awarded the drinks that were to go to opposition's BoG to umpire Dave Le Pair to congratulate him on a great run in his A grade debut. Touché Tim, hopefully the message got through and hopefully a good precedent set to clubs who don't do the right thing post-match. A bonus for us if the man-in-white is the benefactor!

On time

Last week at the Caulfield Grammarians game the field and goal umpires got the shock of their lives when at no joke of a lie the two young boundaries arrived at 1.05pm. Well done to Ryan Morris and Daniel Mason but the look on their faces of "well what do we do know?" was priceless.

Milestones

As mentioned in this column last week, my co-scribe (Macca), will be umpiring his 500th VAFA game in Round 4 (May 13th.) The big game he has chosen (no great surprise) is De La Salle v St Bernards at East Malvern. After the game and what will be a long and profitable aftermatch for De La, we will be acknowledging this occasion, with a dinner at the Umpires' Function room at Elsternwick Park. On this evening we will also be honouring his great mate Anthony Damen who will be chalking up game number 350 around that time. We're sure Macca and AD would love as many people (especially from the clubs) to help celebrate with them. Tickets are $20 for dinner with drinks at bar prices. Any interested parties should contact Leah at Sue Leah@dodo.com.au, Simon Stokes at simonstokes@hotmail.com or Macca Steve.McCarthy@infotech.monash.edu.au RSVP by noon Monday 8th May. Thanks to VAFA sponsors Weatherson Catering.

News

Don't forget to contact either of us if you have an upcoming milestone and of course we'll give it the recognition it deserves. Any other news, views, hatches, despatches or quirky stories will get a mention as well.

Most influential result was probably Syndal's win against Bulleen. Power House confirmed what most people expected; that they will be at the top end of town whilst Box Hill North also showed signs of things to come with a strong win.

Round 2 Review

It was close all day as Syndal took on Bulleen. The host team hung on for a much deserved win with Dance their best. Ange Gencarelli kicked four for Bulleen who were also well served by Polites.

Power House got over the line against Hawthorn in a high class duel. The star of the show was 'Edo' Edwards up forward for the House who slammed on 9 goals whilst Taylor was also prominent. The Hawks best included Aitken and Ridley.

Eley Park broke through for a win against Richmond. Great start from the home side however Eley Park began to reel them in quickly. Dukic slotted 3 for Richmond who were also well served by Speakman.

Eltham made it two in a row as they accounted for Albert Park. It was close at half time before the Turtles moved into overdrive in the third quarter. Galvin and Foo were again dominant in the midfield whilst Conole was a target up forward. Albert Park was best served by McIndoe and Bennett.

In another game that was close at the main break, Box Hill North was able to assert their authority in the second half to record a strong win. Martini was the dominant player on the ground, bagging 11 goals. Irvine was also good for the winners. The Brunswick boys would have been disappointed with the result however they know they are competitive. Moose Boudoloh starred up forward with 5 whilst Boyd also starred.

Preview

A couple of intriguing games in store this week.

One game that looms as a great marker is when Box Hill North host Eltham. Both sides seemed to have improved from last year and will have eyes firmly on the final four. Odza and Manno in the middle will be up against the dynamic duo of Galvin and Foo, the star Turtles playmakers. Really close call however maybe Box Hill at home.

Syndal take on Hawthorn in another game sure to provide some form lines. No doubt that Syndal have the tough draw to start the season whilst the Hawks are battling with ground changes. It will be a great chance to see two veterans in Cahcia (S) and Avery (H) clash. Syndal for me, although expect the Hawks to get better as the year goes on.

Albert Park host Richmond. The home side were competitive last week and will no doubt welcome the return to home facilities this week. Richmond would have been disappointed with last week as they saw the game as winnable. Albert Park should hold too many aces.

Power House welcome North Brunswick with three in a row the aim. Very few weaknesses in the House line up with a good mix of tails and smalls. It has been a slow start for the Brunswick boys and alas it doesn't look like it will get much better this week. House for mine.

Finally, Eley Park play host to Bulleen. The rise to D4 doesn't seem to have phased the Sharks too much as a competitive first up hit out was matched with a second round win. Bulleen considered the loss to Syndal as one that got away and will be keen to atone. Still fancy Bulleen as a big player at this stage and they should bounce back this week.

M I L E S T O N E S

The Eltham Collegians congratulate Brendan 'Kanga' Evans on passing John Glare's club games record against Albert Park last Saturday. Kanga has been a tremendous contributor to the club, having served on the committee, played in two premierships (12 years apart) and given his all every time he has taken the field for the turtles. A life member of the club and reserves Captain this season, everyone at the club hopes that we will continue to make the journey down from Kinglake West for some time.

Syndal Tally Ho congratulate Anthony Dance on playing his 50th game. Dancey first played in 2000, a member of the 2001 premiership side. Balancing the challenge of finding time for both family and football has limited Dancey's time on the training track, but has no way diminished his contribution on a Saturday. Dancey has become one of those rare footballers that always seems to have time for a quality disposal. Well done on bringing up your 50th game for the Synners.

Syndal Tally Ho also congratulate Shawn O'Boyle on reaching 250 games. 'Poin' first played way back in 1988, and has been a consistent presence around the club ever since (aside from a brief stint in Sydney). An enigma on the field, he has been the source of much frustration to many a coach over the years, Poin has proven himself comfortable up forward or down back (has lead the goal kicking for the reserves on a number of occasions). Let's everyone get around and congratulate Shawn on this amazing milestone, and also hope that we see those long sleeves running around in the number 14 for many seasons to come.

F.I.D.A. REPORT

Round 1 Match Report

F.I.D.A. football began on Sunday the 23rd April with five games being played at Elsternwick Park. You could tell that football season was due to begin as the cold winds were blowing and rain threatened all day. The players were all keen to go and put into practise the skills they had been developing through their preseason training. The first game was between Broadmeadows Kangaroos 2 and Ringwood Blues. All of the experts had tipped the Kangaroos to win this game but the Ringwood Blues were to good on the day and won kicking 8.6 (54) to 2.5 (17). A promising start for the Blues to season 2006.

The next game played was a close affair between Moonee Valley Magpies and Mazenod Panthers 2. The Panthers held off a fast finishing Moonee Valley side Mazenod 2 booted 6.11 (47) to the Magpies 5.1 (31).

The next game was played in very windy conditions as the days weather took a turn for the worse. Kananook 2 and Broadmeadows Kangaroos 1 put on a good display of F.I.D.A football with Broadmeadows coming out with a strong win, 13.4 (82) to 1.5 (11).

The next game was a division 1 game between to new teams to that division. Mazenod Panthers last years Division 2 Premiers were playing Lara who have returned to the competition from our Geelong League. Mazenod panthers 1 continued their good form from last year wining 10.8 (68) to Lara 2.3 (15).

The final game to be played was a replay of last years division 1 grand final between Kananook 1 and Ballarat. It was great game to watch played very competitively and fair by both sides. Kananook 1 managed to reverse last years grand final result defeating Ballarat by 20 points. Kananook 1: 8.7 (55) to Ballarat 5.5 (35).

Their were to home venues for round 1 with port Colts hosting both Maribyrnong and Mambourin Tigers. Port Colts 1 were able to use their home ground advantage very well kicking 23.15 (153) to Maribyrnong 0.1 (1). Looks like a good year coming up for Port Colts 1. In the other game Port Colts 2 also had a victory in a hard fought game with Mambourin Tigers. Port Colts 2 kicking 6.4 (40) to Mambourin 3.7 (25).

The last game for the round was between Ovens And Murray 1 & 2 at home but the carrier pigeon is yet to land on my window sill so no scores can be printed at this stage. This week we have games at Parkville , Geelong and Bulleen. Moonee Valley could surprise against Port Colts 2 and Mambourin play a fresh Parkside who had a first round bye. Parkside should win a close one. Kananook 2 should just get over the line against Port Colts 1. Ringwood and Mazenod 2 could be the game of the round in division 2 with Mazenod 2 looking like giving the nod to the judge. Kananook 1 come up against the new kids on the block in Mazenod 1 and should be able to account for them with experience on their side. Broadmeadows 2 should notch their first win for the year against Ovens And Murray Jets 2. Ballarat will continue on their winning way against Lara and Bulleen Templestowe will be to strong for Maribyrnong who are rebuilding their team.

We wish all teams the best of luck and hope that all games are played in the true spirit of the competition.

By all reports De La and Old Xavs completed a blinder of a match at Waverly Park De La just got over the top in the end. End result a 2 point nailbiter. Surprise packet Rupertswood, won by a solitary behind. What a win....away from home, the underdogs pulled off one of the greatest wins in their U19 history. St Bernards cemented their spot as ladder leaders, pulling away from St Kevins to win by five goals. The drink with dry fell back down to earth harder than a Dale Thomas screamer after being given a solid five goal hiding from my early favourite Marcellin. In the last match of the round, Uni Blues braved the trek out to Viewbank (where is that?) and beat a lifeless Banyule. C'mon bears....give me some love.

Uni Blues play their second away game in a row in heading out to Camberwell sports ground against Old Scotch. Scotchys for me - unless the Blues can stop the Kitchen. Old Xavs will need to pull their heads back in against a weary Old Collegians. They may just crawl over the line though just in time. In other games Rupertswood at home against St Kevins (Giant Killers?), St Bernards to win by a point over Marcellin (dare I say it) and De La to thump a hapless Banyule (ouch). Good luck today lads. Ladies and Gentlemen, little to no feedback after two rounds. I would appreciate some help. Promise to mention anyone who shows me the money. Submissions by 5pm Monday please. beatonc@tabcorp.com.au

Round 2 or 'Let's Thrash the Opposition Weekend' was eventful and one-sided. The Raiders unfurled their flag in style, absolutely SHELLACKING the Wellers in an 86 point mauling. Cunningham provided great drive through the middle, while Stace was strong across half back. The Friars used Round 2 to belt the T's by 104. The formidable forward-line of Ben Torney (7), Simon Allemand (5), and O'Meara (5) slotted 17 of the side's 22 goals, while Keogh and Stafford starred in the guts. The Panthers thumped the Sharks, but 23 behinds suggest a bad day in front of the sticks. Ruckman Dave Elliott gave Marshall Bull first use across half forward, kicking 4, adding to his 8 in Round 1. The OM's took the Field's by 67 and are running full of confidence. The Blacks in their 2nd win beat the Tonners by 5 behinds in a physical encounter. This week the Sharks host Whitefriars. The Friars will be hard to beat after last week's 104 point drubbing, winners by 46 points. The Panthers pack the surfboards and sunscreen, travelling to Brighton where they will cruise through by 8 goals. The Blacks host the OM's. Although undefeated, I don't think the Blacks have been tested and will crumble against a powerful Melburnian unit by 29. The round's showdown by default is the Wellers vs Fields. Camberwell were bitterly disappointing last week and now leave me guessing. They meet a Fields side who are also in limbo. The Wellers by 8 points, but don't be surprised at another upset. My early final's roughie are Spinner's Raiders, who will account for a Trinity side missing a bit of mongrel. 49 points. bernecich@netspace.net.au

Under 19 Section 3 Review

Friday night under lights saw Ormond defeat Benteleigh in a close game, with Ormond's Aaron Holman and Ben McCarthy enjoying the vast spaces Sportscover Arena had to offer. St. Bede's/Mentone had little trouble with La Trobe at home with Mitch Bodinnar kicking 5 goals, while Ajax showed some good form disposing of Emmaus St. Leo's by 81 points. Oakleigh charged out of the blocks against Old Ivanhoe kicking 8 goals to 1 in the first quarter and the Hoers found it difficult to make any inroads into the deficit. Lee Barrand finished with 8 goals for Oakleigh while Joshua Derks-Revere was best afield. A good effort by Old Ivanhoe's Kyle Ellis who kicked 7 of his teams 11 goals. Melbourne HS Old Boys had a very comfortable win against with Old Essendon.

Melbourne HS Old Boys play host to Bentleigh this week. MHSOB's Nicholas Campbell and Steve Villani will be confident after their performance's last week, and in a testing game, the home team should take the points by 5 goals. Ormond and St. Bede's/Mentone should win comfortably against Emmaus St. Leo's and Old Essendon Grammarians respectively, while La Trobe host a tough competitor in Oakleigh, a game in which Oakleigh should get their third consecutive win. An interesting game between Old Ivanhoe Grammarians and Ajax will complete the Round 3 matches, with Old Ivanhoe having played well in the first couple of weeks without registering a win, and Ajax coming off a confidence-building win last week. With the game being played at Chelsworth Park I will stick with the home team, with Old Ivanhoe to get their first win on the board for 2006. Any match reports or news please send to al_vafa@hotmail.com by Monday.

U19 Blue - Review

Mazenod hosted Hampton at Central Reserve in the most anticipated clash of the round, and the home crowd would have liked what they saw after a 7 goal to 1 opening term. Hampton showed their fighting spirit by trailing by only 14 points at the main break, with Kyle "Hollywood" Pinto getting the ball out of the centre, ably supported by CHB gun Lachlan Batt and Jarred Schafer. Mazenod steadied the ship with Adam Weekes and Cameron Smith at the helm, eventually withstanding everything thrown at them to win by 6 goals. In other games, De La brought Oakleigh Clayton back down to earth with a comfortable win, while Old Haileybury had little trouble with the Monash Blues. Old Mentonians inspirational skipper Jake Moon helped his team to an easy away win against Parkdale, ably supported by Lumsden and Campbell. Powerhouse/South Mornington had the bye as unfortunately Salesian have forfeited for the entire season.

Preview

It is too tough to choose one game of the round this weekend so I have chosen a crowd pleasing double header that should see the turnstiles clicking over. First, head down to Boss James Reserve where poor old Hampton gets another tough game against the might of Old Haileybury. Old Haileybury will be tested for the first time this weekend, and while they are a finals contender, I am tipping Pinto and Go to get Hampton their first win of the season. The other must-see match has Old Mentonians hosting a fired-up De La. I will stick with Old Mentonians by the barest of margins. Mazenod should take care of Oakleigh Clayton by 8 goals while a nightmare game to tip between Powerhouse/South Mornington and Monash, sees me tip Monash because it is played at their home. Parkdale has the bye. Any match reports or news please send to al_vafa@hotmail.com by Monday.

U19 Red

Kew hosted Rupertswood in what ended up a convincing win for the league leader. The six goal margin at quarter time was the final result, suggesting that for 3 quarters it was a hard-fought contest. For Kew, midfielders Fultheim and Monaco gave the indirect kicking forwards first use, while the Woodsmen found solace in young guns Cheep, Godfrey and Plummer. Bulleen Temp and Aquinas fought it out as the Bullants took the points by 11 in a physical clash with casualties. Pocket Rocket, Dave Voglis was sharp through the middle, while Dan Tonelli was solid up forward. The Reds were intent on embarrassing the Lions as soon as the first bounce. A 16 goal to 6 first half sealed the damaging 109 point win to Fitzroy, who after a first up loss will be considering themselves final's hopefuls. North Old Boys/St. Patrick's made a solid start to the year in a 56 point drubbing of Old Westbourne. Round 3 opens with a ripper clash between two expected finalists, Aquinas and Kew. Both teams will throw everything at each other but Kew should be victors by 19 points (more if they kick straight). Another close battle sees Fitzroy travel to Ted Ajani Reserve to meet the Bullants. The Reds should just take the points, but not after elbows and fists are thrown between these two rivals. Reds by 7 points. The Woodsmen host the Old Boys and should easily run home winners against a NOBSPC team still easing its way into under 19's footy. 39 points. In the bottom of the table clash, XAVS travel out to Westbourne and it should be the visitors, fresh from their bye in a low standard contest. 28 points. Therry has the rest. bernechich@netspace.net.au

CLUB XVIII SECTION

by Norm Nugent

Already a marked division has appeared between the leading and lower placed teams in each division. Season 2006 is shaping to be a long one for some teams, while for others it is shaping as the season of fulfilled aspirations. Round 2 results, which yielded me an 80% success rate, served to give signs for future selections to help my quest for back to back Balme Cups.

Review

Section. 1.

Old Xaverians easily accounted for an inaccurate St Bede's Mentone Tigers with victory by sixty seven points.

An accurate St Kevin's again accounted for the inaccurate Prahran by twenty four points.

Old Scotch had a fifty four point buffer against Old Xaverians 2, who have found the higher standard difficult to attain in the opening rounds.

Inaccuracy prevailed in the Old Melburnians and University Blues match from which the Students emerged victorious by sixteen points. Wettenhall, Cooper, Barrett and Lawler were best for the Melburnians whilst T.and R.Girdwood, (no doubt about Bob, who would have given himself a vote!!) as well as Whelan and Ross were best for the University Blues. .

De La Salle defeated an improved Mazenod by thirty one points.

Section. 2.

University Blacks defeated Old Brighton by a mere four points in the closest contest of the round.

Collegians accounted for Mt Lilydale by thirty four points when they played at Albert Park.

The Whitefriars versus St Bernard's game saw a complete turnaround after quarter time as the visitors led by Vassallo (7 goals) who gave them stability up forward., overtook Whitefriars, whose better finishing efforts reduced their losing margin to 8 points. Sumner (ruck), along with defenders Isaacs and O'Dea also did well for St Bernard's. Arthursen, Neophitou and Collins were best for the losers.

Despite the huge two hundred and twenty three point victory by Monash Blues over Therry Penola, "Jan's Jottings" indicate a good standard match in which Therry Penola players never gave up. Hugh Petroni (ruck), Matt. Riddle (on ball) and forward, Tom Haines (10 goals) were best for Monash.

An experienced Fitzroy Reds line up had an afternoon out against Marcellin, who lost the 2 p.m. contest by one hundred and thirty one points.

Section. 3.

Under lights on Friday evening Old Geelong secured their first win of the season by defeating Beaumaris by thirty seven points.

The "Wright Report" indicates that Old Essendon Grammarians were never seriously challenged by La Trobe University, who finished sixty one points in arrears. The winner were well served by: Chris. Jones (who kept his feet), Brett Turner, Brett Papal and John Hughes. For La Trobe, President, John Dumaresq, Wilson, Wadley and Brooks were best.

Lack of a key forward cost North Old Boys/ St Patricks dearly in their ninety four point loss to Old Trinity. Around the ground the Combine proved competitive, but they faltered up forward. Their best included: Tony Egan, Paul Mahoney, veteran Adrian Trimboli and Mick O'Sullivan. Trinity was well served by: Tim. Cade, Rowan Hill, Anthony Dickenson and Jeremy Best.

Emmaus – St Leos defeated Old Scotch by twenty nine points At McHale Stadium, Caulfield Grammarians, despite indirect play, were far too good for Fitzroy Reds and won by fifteen points. Sam. Stevenson again starred for Caulfield.

Preview

Section. 1.

Old Scotch and University Blues will clash at Camberwell. The Blues may find the smaller ground restrictive to their running style, although I suspect they will prove strong enough to narrowly take the points.

Prahran have a golden opportunity today to score their first win at the expense of Old Xaverians 2, who also seek their opening success. I select Prahran, purely on their potential, which is not as apparent as in seasons past !!

St Kevin's should possess sufficient talent to defeat Mazenod, who showed evidence of improvement last week.
Long standing rivals Old Xaverians and De La Salle meet at McHale Stadium. For many seasons Old Xaverians have accounted for De La Salle except for the "General's triumphant day at Xavier College!! Today, I forecast another Old Xaverian win. St Bede's / Mentone Tigers should keep in touch with the top sides by defeating Old Melburnians, who will travel to Brindisi Street for the first time.

Section. 2.

The winner of the Therry Penola versus Marcellin match will leave the bottom of the ladder. As neither side has any form to recommend it, I fancy Therry Penola, purely because Marcellin must travel to Oak Park for the game.

Whitefriars are the least effected side by the travel to Mt Lilydale, where the locals have a distinct advantage. Whitefriars, Coach Norm. Elliott will want his players to end today with a bang and not the whimper they gave against St Bernard's. I believe he will be successful.

Long standing rivals, University Blacks and Fitzroy Reds meet in Royal Park for the Club XV111 division of the Stendhal Cup (Le Rouge et le Noir). I expect President Hille will receive the trophy from President Wilson (Ray. not Woodrow!!!)

All conquering Monash Blues face the long march to Niddrie to play the increasingly confident St Bernards. How good are Monash?? They have crushed the bottom placed sides but how will they fare against the third placed one? As our Editor wants daring, I will go against history and select St Bernards.

Section. 3.

Caulfield Grammarians face another road trip to play Emmaus / St Leos for the right to remain undefeated. I select Caulfield, who have a sprinkling of experience and the keenness of youth in their team.

Old Trinity should make it two wins in a row by defeating Old Scotch on the wide wings of the Hudson Oval. Trinity by all reports are much improved on what they did in 2005.

La Trobe University should be able to notch their first win over North Old Boys/ St Patricks. The Northerners floundered last week without a key forward and I reckon the big La Trobe ground will exacerbate this problem. Hence I select La Trobe. Victory by Old Essendon over Old Geelong will see them sitting comfortably in second place (at least). Despite the big ground testing their fitness, I reckon Old Essendon will have enough talent to win.

Two of last week's losers, Beaumaris and Fitzroy Reds meet by the Bay. To select the winner is difficult but Fitzroy defeated Old Geelong, who in turn defeated Beaumaris. Ipso facto Fitzroy Reds should win today. I feel they will.

Team Managers.

Ball Brief

Well done to debutant umpires James Donnelly and Nick Palfreyman, who debuted in Round 2. Each impressed with the whistle and should have a rewarding umpiring career ahead. There are ample opportunities for anyone who would like to join the umpiring scene. Please contact Brian Goodman 8531 8333.

Very chuffed to be in the photo spread in last week's Ammo record with John Bell who was named as one of the 100 greatest Australian entertainers for the Walk of Stars project. Thoroughly deserved Ringer. The same photo also prompted an immediate weight loss campaign via initially a consultation with Getta. Had the pleasure of being entertained at the Big E last Sunday by Foamer's Pres Pure & Simple and a cast of several father and suds – the latter group tipped to be the foundation of a third big era for the Foamers who enter their 50th season in the Ammos determined to re-create the glory days of the 70s.

Monica, Mokbel and Monash Blues

Attended a fund-raiser for the Deaf-Blind Association last Saturday – it's a charity I've supported for years. A day later and AFL umpires (who have regularly been depicted as requiring a white cane and Labrador) were being encouraged to visit an audiologist. Elsewhere in Tassie, fingers were crossed that the 49ers would be delivered. Let's hope Horatio Nelson is not involved in the rescue bid. Research reports that sex can improve your physiological and psychological health had Exec member, Mooshy Amad almost in tears of joy and feeling very justified for his stance over many years. The Exec passed the research report unanimously and all clubs will be issued with procedural guidelines very shortly. Non-compliance will mean hefty fines, etc.
