

On the Record

by Cameron Noakes

I like what's happening at Collegians in B Section. The Lions went to the top division last year, struggled a bit, but worked hard off the field in the off-season to make the team stronger and the results are showing.

Collegians are unbeaten this year and most tipsters are pencilling them back in A-section next season.

I like the fact that they are on top because they did the work to get the players. They made the call and that's how you prosper in the VAFA. Don't die wondering. Make the call, get the player.

And what about Old Scotch in A Section.

The Cardinals are also four from four which has to be pleasing for their new coach Barry Price.

The Cardinals have promised so much in the last few years that it's not surprising to see them up there but maybe with fresh hands on the wheel they can be steered into the finals on cruise control, rather than their customary "bat-out-of-hell" race for September that we often see.

It has also been a terrific start to the season for St.Bedes Mentone Tigers in C Section. They are also undefeated, one game clear of Ormond, and haven't the Reds been impressive to claim third spot in their first year up from D Section?

In D1, Old Carey and Rupertswood share the top spots after perfect starts to their year but in D2 it's a dog fight at the top with three teams all on 3-1, Peninsula Old Boys, Aquinas OC, St. John's OC.

South Melbourne District is enjoying the limelight in D3, unbeaten with a percentage of 244 and Eltham OC sits alone on top of the D4 ladder with a 0 in its loss column.

The word is there has been some good footy coming out of all the grades and C Section looks like a terrific competition this year.

The general consensus in Ammo circles is that there is reason for concern about the depth of players, judging by results in the reserves in all sections.

Even great clubs like St.Bernard's are struggling for depth and as a consequence its A Reserve team is third bottom, one win for the season and a percentage of 65.98.

But even more of a concern in A Reserve are Old Haileybury and Old Melburnians. The Bloods are on the bottom with a percentage of 18.02 and OMs are also winless with a percentage is 40.06.

A percentage of 50 and under is pretty much unacceptable and it means, unfortunately, there are plenty of teams that just can't compete in their reserves competition.

In C Reserve poor old Parkdale Vultures are winless and have a percentage of 2.24. And although Hampton Rovers have a win, their percentage is 24.01.

In D1 Reserve, the Yarra Valley Old Boys and Prahran are both winless with percentages under 41.

Three teams are winless in D2 Reserve, with Glen Eira AFC on the "very bottom" with a percentage of 23.45 after scoring just two points last week.

As I said, it shows an unhealthy lack of depth at clubs. Strong reserve teams mean strong senior teams and to see so many clubs struggling in the reserves is alarming.

A couple of years ago the Uni Blues' reserves were unbeatable. This year they have one win for the season and are fourth bottom. Keeping your numbers up is hard work but once again, the work has to be done in the off-season and clubs have to make that call.

James Hope – Are You Ready For Love?

Last year I talked up Brett Dobson's Woodrow Medal chances to such an extent that he sought a restraining order. Well step aside old son, there's a new kid on the block. Mr James Hope of Ivanhoe. Thus far, he has towered over A Section football, with a succession of eye catching and match winning performances. Not much to say about Marcellin, who bore the brunt of his dominance on Saturday. All the glamour Eagles have moved on but they're still hanging in there.

De La's Damien Rayson was recently rated the best player in the comp on the Xavs website but in the first three rounds had little impact. Given a looser reign on the weekend, he carved up the Snakepitters, matching Leigh Harrison's five goal haul. Coming with huge wraps, Harrison didn't really flatter in A Section last time, so he really needs to shine this time. On Saturday, he and Rayson were clearly De La's best while CHB Tait Wilkinson was the premier 'Pitter.

Was kicking myself for not tipping De La on the weekend but what can you do?

Scotch held off Uni at Camberwell with big men Tom Wigney, Lachlan and Nick Thompson standing tall. Peter Steele kept Gerstman to 3 and Joe Sturrock provided drive off half back. The Blues are fielding a lot of new players (Tyson Hunter, Will Fitzgerald, Zane Coventry all look the goods) and may take a while to get going but they're worth sticking with.

Despite an early fright, Xavs saw off OMs by ten goals. Matt Handley kicked six from his first six kicks in senior football, just another in the seemingly endless production line at Xavs, while Ben Hackett also acquitted himself well on debut. It's no use bagging a team full of kids so best of luck to Dean Rice and OMs but it's going to be a long year (and it hasn't even started snowing yet).

Haileybury, with Brett O'Farrell rampant, demolished Trinity at the 'Lands. It's nigh on impossible to win there these days.

No Foo Road? - The Importance of the 2nds.

Reserves players are often to forgotten heroes of Amateur football. As the grounds get boggy, players go down with injury and the ability to pluck half a dozen quality players from the 2s is paramount. Look at Xavs and Scotch. Both often start the year slowly but invariably have enough depth in their ranks to offset the inevitable hardships at the business end of the season.

There are some cracking ressieys players running around, who, for various reasons, have never nailed down a senior spot. Matt O'Donnell and Dom McInerney at De la, David Walsh (Nordberg) at Xavs, Justin Evans and Steve Ianazzo at St Bernards, to name a few.

Which leaves us with Haileybury. Assuming Haileybury's top ten players are easily the best in the comp, could they win an A Section flag with a reserves team with a percentage barely above room temperature? Oh how they miss Chris Efsthathiou, the Biggest and the Baddest of the Badlands, the man who once threw me the length of the goal square in a school match. Haileybury are Foolless and bottom of the table in the 2nds but their seniors are the obvious benchmark. Go figure.

Selections

After two years of humiliation, wearing hooded tops, giving fake names to girls in bars etc, this tipping caper gets easier and easier. Trinity's Fraser Cameron is a broken man, Andrew Wu cracked under pressure and hung up the cue, The Quill is in hiding and the new Under 19 punks are not coping at all. If I can nail 5 this week, Messrs Nugent and Flower will be looking over their shoulder...

Bernard's haven't beaten Uni for ages but you'd have to give 'em the nod at the Pit.

De La have a pretty average record against Trinity but should be too strong for the home side.

Xavs will be far too good for Marcellin at Premiership Park.

Haileybury by billions against OMs

Ivanhoe to upset Scotch and move to equal top position.

Last week's answer was three (!) hours. Congrats to Greg from the Terminus Hotel who won the wine and Bain book.

M I L E S T O N E S

Old Melburnians congratulates skipper Cam Kennedy on 150 games this week. Cam has shown tremendous leadership in a tough beginning to 2006. A member of the club's losing grand final team in 1999, Cam went one better in the club's 2002 success and was our leading goalkicker last year. Well done Kenno!

Old Ivanhoe congratulate Rowan Weddle on 250 games this week and Scott Curatolo 100 games last week. Rowan, equal record holder at the club for premierships with 4, sections D & C in 94/95 and section B in 2001/05, has also captained the club from 2001-03, voted as fullback in the club's team of the century and also achieved state representation. Let's hope he one day wears a section A medallion to top of a great record. Scott, the B & F winner for the club in the last 2 years, was a member of the B premiership teams of 2001/05. Totally fearless and seemingly indestructible, we are sure he will have one of the great careers for the club.

Old Xaverians congratulate Nick Hart on his 100th game. Nick has played in four Club XVIII Premierships and won a club Best and Fairest in Under 19-(2) in 1999.

Old Xaverians congratulate Chris Santalucia last Saturday played his 50th game. Chris began in the Under 19's and is now playing regularly in the Seniors. Well done Santa, and we look forward to many more games to come.

Xavs also congratulate Matt O'Hanlon who played his 50th game in Round One. Currently out injured, we wish you a speedy recovery Matt and that you are back in the side very soon.

Uni Blues congratulate Joe Sturrock on 100 club games. Joe's career has included State representation, Club Senior Best and Fairest, Reserve Coaching appointments, overseas travel, terrible luck with injuries and a Brian Blood Award. Well Done Joey.

Old Haileyburian's congratulate Reserves Captain, James Bell, on his 150th game today. The 'Rock' began his career in 1997 and captained the Under 19's in 1998 winning runner-up B & F Award that year.

A member of 2001 Reserves premiership team, and Captain of the side 2002/05/06. Well done 'Belly'

REVIEW

A heart stopper at South Road. After being some 48 points up during the third quarter, the Tonners stopped to a walk due to some slack work and funny occurrences giving the Friars a sniff and some confidence which nearly got them over the line. Blair Mason was good early, Toby Ewart strong in his 150th, young Scott Oliver had a crack but injuries are hurting.

A sign of a good side is one that can win when not playing well, which is what OEG did on Saturday. One would have thought that the Blacks with a 4 goal lead had the game won at long interval. But the Bombers, with the handy inclusions of Flaherty and McPherson slowly edged back to hit the front with minutes to play. Skurrie was terrific, young Tanner popped up and Leask solid as usual. Colonel Sandiford the Kemptons and Whitehead were good for the Blacks. Even first quarter out at Central Reserve before the Fields hit their straps in the second to blow the Noddors out of the park. Despite a bit of a comeback in the third, the Fields were too good. Brett Sinclair was on fire up forward, Andy Will turned back the clock and Ben Carboni racked up possessions. Not surprisingly, defenders Sam Reed, Dave Hansen and Steve Oldman were the Noddors best.

Vital game for both sides at Shark Park to get on the scoreboard in 06. The Sharks got out to a 16 point lead in the last but SKOB, whose form was miles better than last week, clawed their way back to be just behind at siren time. Mick Atkins, Aaron Salisbury and Luke McNicholas' rucking drove the Sharks, SKOBS impressed with debutant Matt Sherman and Plugger Lynch who, if he gets to fire up forward with Chardonnay Skevvies will see happy hour again. MHSOB tried very hard but readily admit they were beaten by a quality side.

A six goal third stanza broke the game open for the Lions who were pleased to win in Brock Mooney's 150th. Jono Dixon on his old man's stomping ground was outstanding, Shura Taft was among the goals with Grant Rowston having his best for the year. Will Taft and Lachie Evans the young guns of the High gave their all.

PREVIEW

Beaumaris make the short trek up the road to tackle the Fields at Glenhunity Park. They will be full of confidence after breaking the ice last week but the Fields are a strong unit and will be just too hard to beat at home.

University Blacks welcome Mazenod in a must win game for both. Blacks threw one away last week, but if they can recapture the form of that first half they should just get over the line.

Friar Park is a tough ask at any time. Neither side was disgraced in their performances last week so this promises to be a good game. Both have good mixes of youth and experience but at Park Orchards the Friars walk taller and play a lot better, and in an evenly contested game will just win.

St Kevins are starting to get a few good players back on the paddock while the Tonners are losing a few, so this evens things up a bit. They are desperately keen to break the ice today and are paying no heed to Cameron Noakes' dreaded 'R' word. But I think they may have to wait another week as OB at Sportscover will be too strong.

Collegians and OEG clash at the Trott in a beauty.

Can't fault the home side at this stage while the Bombers who are slowly getting their better players back into the lineup, have only had a minor hiccup. Darren Handley has impressed all at OEG, and has the players supporting him as they have found some consistency in their game. But at home the Lions who are a classy unit will just greet the judge.

M I MILESTONES E S

Caulfield Grammarians congratulate Chris Fagan on his 100th game last week. "Fages" whose first season in 2001 included an U19 Premiership, has developed into a terrific player, person and committee member at our club. "Bunsens" straight ahead approach and precision kicking has been a trademark in all of his games, as all at The Fields look forward to his next milestone.

Beaumaris Football Club congratulate Andrew Spence on his 100th game this week against Caulfield Grammarians. Spence has been a popular member of the club since he joined us from the Prahran Dragons in 1999 and after starting with the Under 19s he progressed quickly through the reserves to become a regular senior player renowned for his dash and disposal skills. Career highlights include making the Under 19 rep squad and being an important member of the 2003 senior premiership side. We also thank the entire Spence family for their great contributions to the club - father Graham a committeeman, sister Laura a trainer and mum Chris a very keen supporter - well done to all of you.

PLAYER FEEDBACK

As a coach you will be asked often by your players. How did I go? What did I do wrong? What can I do to get better? There are several ways you can offer feedback to players. Each player is different in the way they like to be told that they have done something well and / or something wrong.

It is my belief as a coach that you should always be approachable and be able to provide your players with frankness and honesty, regardless of the medium you decide to use to give this feedback.

There are three major forms of feedback used by coaches which can be provided to players. Each form has its positives and negatives.

Video: –

Pros

- It's a visual medium
- It can be used to bring team together
- Easy to store and access

Cons

- It can't be kept by all the players on most occasions
- It doesn't show everything, e.g. unrewarded running
- Finding a reliable and competent video operator

Video is a fantastic way to show your players what they are doing correctly and what they need to improve on. As a coach, it is easy to show players the video and provide this feedback. Videos are also ready with very little coach input.

Written Reports: – Pros

- Players get to keep the reports
- Easy to understand
- Ability be detailed with the reports

Cons

- They aren't dynamic
- Time Consuming
- Some player don't read or understand them

Written Reports are a time consuming process, but I think they can be more than beneficial to players. Providing you give the players meaningful feedback, I have found it better to have a standard template to use each week. Use keywords as measurements and provide a consistent scoring scale. Always ensure that you explain to your playing group how to achieve a higher score e.g. what constitutes a seven out of ten?

Verbal: –

Pros

- Easy to do
- Can be comforting for players
- It's quick

Cons

- Can be forgotten quickly
- Can cause tension if correct words aren't used
- Needs to be done in the right forum.

Verbal communication is the most common form of feedback used by coaches and is the easiest to implement. Verbal communication can be used to talk to players during and after games to let them know how they are playing. It can be used also during the week when following up with the players, to check their availability or injuries that may make them unavailable for the next game.

Every player like to be told when they do something well. However your choice of feedback is entirely up to you as a coach.

Good luck for the rest of the year to all the coaches in the VAFA.

Regards,
Matt Embling

PROUD OF OUR YOUNG LADS

Since the start of this season the senior side has played a number of young Under 19 lads who impressed greatly in the pre-season. Each week they continue to improve and a couple of weeks ago they were most influential in our win over University Blacks.

Several of these lads have been named in the U19 VAFA representative squad and we wish them well in their endeavours: Lachlan Evans and Josh Richmond have both played in the seniors, whilst Joel Kitley continues to impress in the U19s. Other youngsters to have played in the seniors include Andrew Lim and Stephen Wrigley.

In addition, Ash Hogan has made the Under 23 squad and Johnny Aitken has been leading the B Section goal kicking. Will Taft continues to play well on the ball each week.

The future of this club, as with any VAFA club, lies in developing its youth and blending it with mature established footballers to provide winning combinations.

We will continue to provide opportunities for our young lads to pursue football at the highest possible level. They are the lifeblood of MHSOBF.

In a few weeks time we look forward to the opportunity of welcoming the current school team into MHSOBF in a home game luncheon.

One month in and it's time to see where all clubs stand. Who's hot? Who's not? Let's do a quick run down before we move to the game reviews and tips.

Firing on all 4

Gotta be the Tigers, without question. All preseason talk has been backed up and it looks like daylight to second. Throw in Ormond who suffered their first loss on the weekend, and even the Wellers who have shrugged off predictions of doom and gloom, squaring the ledger on the back of some key position dominance.

Halfway up the creek, without the paddle

The Combine has only saluted once thus far, and have the Vultures right next to them on a 3 game losing streak too. I'm not as concerned about the Raiders though - I feel they're piecing things together, but none of these teams are out of contention just yet. Let's wait until after the long weekend to look at key games to win and stave off the R word.

Now to the matches in brief:

Hampton Rovers -v- Ormond

Despite the low scoring, this clash between the VAFA's two oldest district clubs proved an absorbing tussle. It was nip and tuck in front of a large crowd until the final break, when the home side held a slender advantage. Ormond managed the first goal, but Hampton took control thereafter with Nick Greenwood, Nick Henry and Gerrard Woods seeing them home by 13 points.

Old Paradians -v- Monash Blues

Monash extended their advantage exponentially out at Bundoora, before Parade reversed the trend in a last ditch attempt to win the match. Christian Gregory was in great touch, giving the State Selectors something to think about, whilst Michael Davidson's duel with Boundy was a ripper. Aaron Williams was also in the thick of it, but he was well matched by the Cruiser, who was a plucky Paradian performer.

Parkdale Vultures -v- St Bedes Mentone Tigers

The seriously Southern derby at Parkdale saw the Tigers putting their former Federal League counterparts to the sword after half-time. Were it not for Luke Wintle's ordinary conversion the game would've been over by the first change. To their credit, the Vultures bounced back through careful ball use and clean hands. After the main change, Scafidì and McColl took control whilst Kinsella took a couple of screamer to compliment James Tyquin's four goals from the wing. The final quarter was just 'junk time' with StBMT cruising home in 3rd gear on the back of Michael Wintle and Matt Hilton.

Old Camberwell -v- Fitzroy Reds

This was a top notch C section contest with two fine midfields doing battle and creating opportunities for their forwards. 11 goals from a key forward (Loats) will be hard to beat, but Old Camberwell's key defenders in De Sanctis and Craven got the job done down their end too, meaning the 7 goals to 1 second term would be the vital period of the match. Fitzroy came out breathing fire after half time, and trimmed the margin back before the Wellers steadied courtesy of Trent Angove in the ruck and their quality on-ball division.

AJAX -v- NOBSPC

The Acronym Showdown saw a much improved performance from the Jackas, with an even output across their selected 22 pleasing the coaching staff. The Jackas certainly use the Sportscover Arena space well with Eugene Routman, Ari Lewski and Jason Ritterman running hard all day, feeding off Jared Raleigh and delivering to Aaron Bloom (4 biscuits) and the veteran Yaron Rapaport (5 large). NOBSPC rallied in the third term through David Stribley, Mick Barker and Chris Hosking, but AJAX had enough to steady for a 6 goal win.

Preview

The Crunch Game has to be at the Gillon where NOBSPC host Parkdale. Parkdale have been honest, but failed to post the results they'd be hoping for. A tough opening month should hold them in good stead here. Vultures by 3 goals. Ormond should have it all over Parade by 6 goals, whilst the traditional Monash -v- AJAX clash will bring many memories of classic D grade finals flooding back. On the Frearson, I'll lean to the Students by 14 points. The improving Rovers trek up to face the equally improving Wellers, but I doubt they'll be able to quell the big fella in the goalsquare. Wellers by 22 points.

Finally, the Redders need to start playing consistent footy, and I think this weekend they'll find that, with their second consecutive loss!!! Sorry lads, but the Tigers at home is worse than a 4 hour flight to Subiaco to face West Coast, STBMT by 33 points.

M I MILESTONES E S

NOBSPC Congratulate Heath Maplestone and Jack Nihill on reaching 100 and 50 games respectively last weekend against AJAX.

Heath 'HEATA' Maplestone played his first two seasons 1999 & 2000 in the U/19s. Known for his athleticism and strength, he is a strong marking player who takes contested marks every week. One fan recently recalled his 65m torpedo goal at the Junction in 2001 as their favourite Heata highlight. Passionately supported at the games by his dad Col, Heata is also a great character of the club and one of NOBSPC's favourite sons.

Chris 'Jack' Nihill arrived at the club in 2003. In this short time he has established himself as a regular senior player and leader at the club. Not afraid to take a bounce, Jack is a quick, skilful half back flanker with great courage despite his light frame. Jack has also contributed to the club off-field and played an important role in our recruiting.

Congratulations from all at Old Paradians AFC to Peter Brabender on his 350th VAFA game. 'Plugger' Brabender has not played a reserves match in his career, playing 53 Under 19 games & 297 games in the 1st XVIII. Two decades of service to the club on and off the field, Life Member, Captain 1993-98, multiple club best and fairest winner, VAFA Under 19 representative, member of the OPs 'Team of the Century' too many other achievements to list. Thank-you to 'Plugger' and his family, particularly his parents Peter & Mary, for their outstanding contribution to Old Paradians AFC & VAFA football. We wish you the very best for the rest of your playing career.

Congratulations from all at Old Paradians AFC to Stephen Corcoran on his 100th VAFA game. Stephen commenced with the club in 2000 and we look forward to many more games 'Corca'.

Old Paradians also congratulations David Salvatico and Steve Rehlicki on playing their 50th VAFA games. Both players commenced with the club in 2003 and we look forward to many more games from them both.

ROUND FOUR REVIEW

Banyule broke their season duck with a convincing away win over St. Leo's Emmaus at Bennettswood.

Old Carey scored a comfortable victory over Therry Penola in a clash of the unbeaten table toppers at Dunshea Oval, to sit in first place on the ladder. Therry started well, but Carey shut down their runners in the second term, and indeed asserted their own running game in the second half. Andrew Kent was particularly influential in this regard, as was Al Parton, before his move forward.

Old Geelong returned to form with a handsome defeat of Prahran at Como Park. The OGs started well with an eight goal to one opening term, before the Two Blues responded with seven to two in the second. Ogs then doubled the home side's score in the second half.

Rupertswood continue their fine form, and moved to second spot with their thrashing of Old Mentonians at Sunbury. Rupo were much more committed and polished with their much revered running game. The only shining lights for the Panthers were Danny Field, Rowan Ball and the ever consistent Anthony Palmer.

Bulleen Templestowe are still bothering those in the top four, putting away Yarra Valley by 37 points to put a two game gap between themselves and the 6th placed Valley side. New boy Batsanis impressed with three goals, including a corker in the third term.

ROUND FIVE PREVIEW

Old Carey have a real chance to extend their season-opening winning streak to five this week, when they come up against the winless St. Leo's Emmaus at Dunshea Oval. Although the Panthers lost three players due to injury last week, they can expect full back Lovelock, and vice captain Chris Angus to return. Bottom line, I think Old Carey have too many weapons. Hard to go past Carey, so Carey it is.

Yarra Valley host Banyule at Domeney Reserve, with both teams having recorded only the one victory each in the first month of the season. I'll also be interested to see if the Grant Fikaris – Trent Prior tandem will work for the Bears again today. This shapes as a season-defining match for both teams, I feel. I reckon Banyule will be buoyed by last week's victory, and I'm gonna pick them today.

Therry Penola take on Rupertswood in the northern derby at John Pascoe Fawkner Reserve, with a minimum second (and possibly first) place at stake. Two young, exciting teams full of dash, a great antidote to the tedium seen all too frequently in the AFL these days. I'm struggling, quite frankly, to make a decision there, but Rupo have been fantastic so far, so I'll tip them again, in a thriller.

Old Geelong travel to Keysborough for their match against Old Mentonians. The Oggers bounced back to their true form last week and can expect more of the same. The Panthers need more from their second and third tier players to be a chance, but can take heart from Yarra Valley's efforts against the same opponents a fortnight ago. Not easy though. As long as the likes of O'Brien, Vickers-Willis and Casboul are on fire in front of the sticks, Old Geelong are very difficult to beat. OG for me.

Bulleen Templestowe are Prahran's opponents at Toorak Park. Pietryk continues to be an imposing presence in the Bullants defence, while Tommy Waters' and Greg Chivers' class knows no bounds. The Two Blues will look to the likes of Radywonik to give them first use of the ball out of the middle and capitalize on these opportunities. I'll plump for the Bullants for this one.

M I L E S T O N E S

Old Carey wish to acknowledge and congratulate both Allister "Dolly" McQueen-Parton and Tim "Collo" Collins on reaching their 50th game for the Panthers this week. In his short time at Carey, Dolly has definitely made his mark, having previously won an A Grade flag at Old Xaverians. Club captain for the last three seasons, he has also been a premiership player, VAFA representative and competition Best and Fairest. A tremendous clubman and popular leader, we hope to see the best of Dolly for many more years. Collo has shown his prowess over several years, and has recaptured his top form after an ankle fracture that could have ended his football career. A former U19s captain and Best and Fairest winner, Collo is known for his top notch skills and ball winning ability. Once again, well done Dolly and Collo from all at Old Carey. Congratulations also to those D1 players nominated to the initial training squad for the A-D4 rep match against the SFL on June 10 (published elsewhere in this week's Amateur Footballer). Well done and hopefully as many of you as possible get to don the Big V on the big night.

SUPPORTS THE VAFA AFCA/VAFA COACH OF THE YEAR

April Coach of the Month

Seniors – Pat Hawkins (Collegians, B Section)

U19 – Pat McKenna (Oakleigh, U19(3))

Pat Hawkins – Pat has been at the helm of Collegians since 2002. During his time the club has spent 2 years in C Section (02-03), 1 year in B Section (04 & current) and 1 year in A Section (2005). Pat started his coaching career at Old Xavs as U19 from 96-99, then Senior Assistant Coach on 2000 & 2001. Hard recruiting work from Pat and his team has seen 9 different players play in Round 1 from the last round of 2005. Pat is an accredited Level 2 coach.

Pat McKenna - Pat was Oakleigh AFC senior coach in 2005. He coached Oakleigh Reserves 2003-04. Previously coached at Moorabbin West in the SFL and is now a strong advocate of the VAFA. Regarded as a great clubman at Oakleigh, Pat is a wealth of football knowledge.

CLUB WAREHOUSE RISING STAR NOMINATION

BRETT SINCLAIR (CAULFIELD GRAMMARIANS)

Caulfield Grammarians' young spearhead, Brett Sinclair, is the nominee for the Club Warehouse Rising Star Nomination for Round 4. Brett was in sensational form last weekend against Mazenod OC, taking 14 marks and finished with 8 goals straight.

Brett has continued his outstanding form of 2005 and has been rewarded by inclusion in the VAFA U23 squad. Brett's high level of fitness and mobility allows him to also play as a follower and across the centerline. Brett was appointed to the leadership group for this season, following his brilliant football career at Caulfield Grammar where he was captain of the 1st XVIII.

Brett (Class of 2002) has joined the flood of young Grammarians at CGFC who are contributing noticeably to their club's aim of again becoming a power in A Section. Brett believes strongly in being part of the club on and off the field and loves the camaraderie and social involvement that amateur football brings.

Peninsula are back on top of the ladder once again, level on points with St John's and Aquinas. Still all teams remain in the hunt for a finals berth with only Williamstown yet to record a win this season. Only two from five last week for me with my tips. The Joc's let me down. On to the games:

Glen Eira AFC $2.05 v Aquinas OC $1.70

Last season's relegated teams from D1 clash today in a crucial match for both clubs at Packer Park. The Aquinas boys were out celebrating their win until all hours last Saturday night over Salesian and will be keen to cement their spot in the top four. Glen Eira were competitive for a half but fell away against La Trobe in the second half. Daniel Den Brabner and Adrian Williams will be looked at by Saints coach Terry Walsh as being the key players to match up on. However, forward Chris Wooden could be the game breaker for Aquinas. Scott Diamond and Chris Massis will need to play well like they did last week, if the Saints are to get the points. I don't see there being a lot in this match. Aquinas to win by 8 points.

Peninsula OB $1.08 v Williamstown CYMS $6.50

I shouldn't have jumped off Peninsula last week at their bogey ground at Salesian College but they were too good, running away to a 21 point victory even though Shaun Payze was held to just two six pointers. Reed Pawney was unstoppable all day, and Timmy Madder worked hard. Willy continue winless despite good games from Shaun McGuinness (as suggested last week) and the short price favourite for the Willy best & fairest Ben Hynes. They were not helped at all from Timmy Wheeler being a late withdrawal but coach Dene MacLeod knows his team will have to work hard for the rest of the season if they are not to fall into D3 next season. Does Coach MacLeod take Benny Hynes from centre half back to play him on Payze? I think he will need to today, otherwise Payzey could be in for a big bag of goals. It could be a long trip home back over the Westgate for the Willy boys today. I expect them to get through at least four slabs on their way home, but I don't think they will be going home with the four points. Peninsula by 82 points.

Werribee AFC $1.40 v La Trobe University AFC $2.70

Two wins in a row for Werribee as they trounced local rival Williamstown last Saturday. Dean Whitten is having a great year thus far, and he along with Luke Carson were the main destroyers. La Trobe too were back in the winners circle with a five goal victory at home. Francis Caldwell and Stephen Pruscino were dominant all day on the spacious ground and proved too strong for Glen Eira. Werribee are generally hard to beat at Soldiers Reserve, and I see no reason why this won't be the case today. Werribee to win by 32 points. Expect the Lee's to be amongst the goals once again for Werribee.

St Johns OC $1.80 v Salesian AFC $1.90

The Joc's will be pleased to be back to Thomas Carroll Reserve today after suffering their first loss for the season to Ivanhoe Assumption last week. Each week the Joc's have won tight matches but last round was a different story, going down by 13 points. Ice and Walks were again amongst the better players. Salesian were close all day to Peninsula but got run over in the last term to go down by 21 points. Ash Ross continued his good form along with youngster Harmit Singh and Ivan Bobetic. Big game for both clubs here. Will be tight.

Should be a good battle on ball between Andre Bonnici and Spider from St John's. St John's by 2 points.

Oakleigh AFC $1.33 v Ivanhoe Assumption AFC $3.10
 Oakleigh will be keen to atone for last Saturday's loss to Aquinas today at Scammell Reserve. Oakleigh led for the first three breaks but were run over in the last stanza against a determined Aquinas side. Star forward Doug McKenzie was held to only three majors while Peter Holden and Ben Gately continued their good form. Playing coach John Garrard was the star for the Hoes last Saturday with their hard fought win over the undefeated St Johns. He snagged eight majors and along with another solid performance from ruckman Chris Hunter, the Hoes racked up their first four points for the year. The Hoes trip to the south eastern suburb of Oakleigh will be another test for them today. If Hunter can dominate in the middle, then the Hoes are a chance. However, with taking the home ground advantage into consideration, I will select Oakleigh by 23 points.

Apohis is in line to kick 160 goals if he can maintain his early season form and is likely to take the Ednas to September action. Meanwhile the pacesetters continue to be the Single Malts, Purple Hearts, Triads, Brewers, Sailors (sort of), Emeralds and Artists. Signs of improvement coming from Threesomes, Windfarmers, Badens, Scrooges, Governors, Cemeterians and Chalmers.

Biggles Grollo did aerial backflips over Mt Hotham whilst the turnups in the Ammos included Metrognomes over Barrells and the Ides of August over the Briefs. Clubs to break their duck included Metrognomes, Beach Boys, Scrooges, Ides of August and Cemeterians. Bibles have been banned in hospitals and Karen got the flick whilst relegation looms for John Batmans, Drifters, Chapels, Understandables, Eye Charts and Bells.

FOR THE LOVE OF THE GAME...

• Cameron not Carey

Last week the FLOTG section ran a story on Peter Carey umpiring for Mt Lilydale OBAFC. This was incorrect, as the former VFL/AFL umpire now officiating for Mt Lilydale is in fact Peter Cameron. Peter also brings a wealth of experience to the umpiring ranks and Umpires Adviser David Windlow described umpiring with Peter as "an absolute pleasure". Peter officiated in over 300 games of League Football including 3 Grand Finals and was well respected by his peers and players. FLOTG would like to sincerely apologise to Peter Cameron, Peter Carey and Mt Lilydale AFC for last weeks' misrepresentation.

• Certificate of Merit

Steve McCarthy
Known to all as "Macca", he officiated in his 500th VAFA game last weekend. Macca has been a stalwart of the VAFAUA, joining it's ranks in 1984. Popular with Players, Spectators and his Peers, Macca has presided over 22 Grand Finals including the 1998 A Section decider. He has also represented the VAFA in 2 Representative Matches both against South Australia. Macca has held numerous Office Bearer positions over his time with the VAFAUA and is currently Co-Writer of Umpires Corner in the Amateur Footballer. Macca was named VAFA Umpire of the Year in 2004 and was granted Life Membership of the VAFAUA in 1993. He is also Co-Host of the top rating show VAFA Sunday on Southern FM. Macca has been a loyal servant of the VAFA for 22 years and a deserved recipient of a VAFA Certificate of Merit. Congratulations Macca.

• Williamstown CYMS celebrates 120 years

Williamstown Catholic Young Mens Society (CYMS), who celebrates their 120th anniversary this season, boasts a long and proud history that includes appearances in 18 grand finals. Success has allowed the club to build a proud history of promoting sport within the local community, from its headquarters at the Fearon Reserve, in Osborne Street, Williamstown. Past premiership president Dan Henry says that, despite numerous on-field successes, the fact the club has competed for 120 years stands out as its greatest achievement. "Our club has been really successful over the years," he says. "However, for me, what's important about making it to 120, is the fact that history is recorded. We made it to 100 when I was president in 1986, and now it's our responsibility to show people what has gone before and to put together a history." To celebrate their 120-year milestone, and to remember the past, the club is holding several commemorative events throughout 2006, the highlight being a 120-year celebratory ball to be held on Saturday, July 1, at the Williamstown Town Hall. The club will recognise the achievements of past players by selecting three teams of the best players within three distinct periods of the club's history. The team will be announced at a team of the century presentation dinner, to be held on Saturday, August 26, at the Royal Victorian Motor Yacht Club. Contact Bernie Tuck on (03) 9397 7744 or email btuck@albright.com.au for more information on planned festivities.

. . . Retrospective

by Geoff Reilley

5 YEARS AGO - 2001

A Section scribe, Jason Frenkel, was of the opinion that the ladder was 'finally taking shape in the form of two packs'. He cited the top three teams, Scotch, St Bernards and MHSOB as being a touch better than the next 'pack', Marcellin (fourth), St Kevins, Old Trinity, Old Xavs and Mazenod, all on 2 wins and two games behind the 'leading pack'. The game of the round was Marcellin versus Mazenod and the Eagles meekly surrendered a 29 point lead at the last change to be overrun by a rampant Mazenod. Jason confirmed that Mazenod's 'last gasp win' took plenty of courage and on-baller, Simon Fisher, continued his scintillating form for Mazenod. Lancaster and Hanley, with 4 and 3 goals respectively, were also very strong contributors for the winners. Marcellin's gun forward, Treganowan, was well held, Purcell stepped up to the plate and slotted 6 goals and Johnston and Goodwin were also good players. Mark Jenkins and Peter Simpson were the field ump's in charge of this terrific contest.

Mazenod's reserves' captain, Tim Smith, had recorded his 250th game and since starting with the club in 1986 had been a sensational clubman. Tim was a premiership player, had served on committee as Treasurer and all the Mazenod faithful wished him well and hoped he would reach the coveted triple century.

Very interesting ladder in B Section with three clubs sharing the lead on 4 wins, Old Ivanhoe, De La Salle and Old Haileybury. Old Haileybury got a real fright at McKinnon when local rivals Ormond, down by 4 points at three quarter time, kept the pressure right on the Bloods until the home team broke away to record a hard fought 8 point victory, 17.13 to 16.11. Lappage's 7 goals for Haileybury were critical to their win whilst Steve Grace with 6 majors kept the 'Monds in it. Other better players were Byrnes, Ad Hilton, Jenke, George and Harrop (OH) and McConvill, Hall, Bailey, Keleher and Black (Ormond).

St Bernards were the pace setters in Junior Section 1, had yet to lose a game and trounced Marcellin in this round 21.17 to 6.6. Coach Larry Davis would have been very pleased with the all-round performance of his lads. Whelan, Elliot (6), N Smith, B Calleja and Mitchell were the Bernies' best. Honorable mentions to Marcellin's Gartner, Strempel, Salce, Consodine, Gale and McMillan.

10 YEARS AGO - 1996

Old Haileybury were making the jump from B to A Section seem relatively easy. Haileybury were in third position behind Old Melburnians and Collegians and dealt with De La Salle at the D's home ground, 12.13 to 8.11. It has been a pretty tough affair with a goalless last term which confirmed the significance of the match. A six goal third quarter enabled Haileybury to take out the match and Nick Morey's 4 goals were critical to the Bloods. Mark Orton and the smooth running Gary Phillips were also excellent performers for the winners even though coach, Neville Taylor, applauded a great team effort. Without Ben Mannix, who had signed with East Perth the week before, De La struggled to score enough to win although Andrew McIntosh and Drew Jackson were outstanding. The pressure would now be on De La in the coming rounds.

The Old Haileyburians acknowledged the milestone of Michael Constable who recorded his 150th game against De La Salle. Mick had overcome many setbacks and injuries, including a ruptured spleen, but nothing had stopped the skilled player from reaching this goal.

Stephen ‘Spa’ Ingram recorded his 250th game for St Leos Emmaus and his career to date consisted of a great playing record including 4 premierships plus his outstanding service as a committeeman. The club hoped ‘Spa’ would play another 50 at least!

20 YEARS AGO – 1986

Max McColl’s well balanced Bulleen United team, undefeated on top in E Section, trailed Uni Reds early but ‘stepped it up’ after the first break to run our easy winners 19.9 to 11.12. Les Quarrell’s 4 goals were the key to Bulleen’s victory and other leading players were Brown, Sharp, Mayne, Hounahan, Empey and Creighton. Chitty, with 7 majors for the Reds was clearly their best, backed up by Beames, Roughhead, Duffus, White and Eastwood.

The barest possible margin decided the ‘Bankers Derby’ with Commonwealth jumping out of the blocks for 4 lead at quarter time, losing their way in the second and third terms before holding on for dear life against ANZ. Timothy, Abrahams, O’Keefe, Shacklock, Carey and Barclay (4) got the nod as best for the winners. ANZ named Anstis, Grundell, McFerran, McManus, O’Brien and Phillips (6).

30 YEARS AGO – 1976

North Old Boys’ Under Nineteen’s were taking all before them in Junior Section 1. They certainly took the Ivanhoe boys ‘to the cleaners’, 14.22 to 7.7, to maintain their unbeaten record and excellent percentage of 400 plus. Similarly in Junior Section 1 Thomastown were undefeated with a huge percentage of 600plus.

Umpires in A Section were Brian Goodman, Graeme Simpson, Phil Rowell, Fred Grubb and Ken Jorgenson, all true legends of their fraternity and gentlemen to the hilt!

In milestones, Old Paradians acknowledged the outstanding careers of John Tudor and John Mount for their 250 and 200 games respectively. Ray Street, 200 game player and great off-field worker for Elsternwick was cited as an excellent example for all younger players.

40 YEARS AGO – 1966

The word was ‘who is going to stop Melbourne High School Old Boys as they sat on top of A Section, two games clear after 5 rounds? Well Caulfield Grammarians had a real crack at them, albeit in wintry conditions and fell only 5 points short, 7.13 to 7.8. It had been a see-sawing affair with Caulfield holding with a handy three goal lead at the final break in a low scoring game. Caulfield were seemingly in a great position but the High School boys held them to a final quarter tally of only 1 behind while scoring 3.6 themselves. Best players – Turnbull, G Dick, Arthur, Lee, Birch Bowater (MHSOB) and G Tootell, Vorrath, Caffyn, Potts and Cable (Caulfield).

Personality of the week was Old Haileybury’s Andrew Home. Andy was a foundation member of his club and captained the side in 1961, 64 and 65. He had become the first member of OH to record 100 games and along the way had gained the reputation of always being the last to leave a party! Such a reputation was very much a part of the amateur football scene then and now!

50 YEARS AGO – 1956

In C Section South Melbourne City were the only undefeated team although they only scraped in by 2 points against Teachers College, 13.14 to 13.12. McKillop (5) and Reeves (4) were the main goal kickers for South and other better players were B White, Lewis, Robbins, Somerton and Egan.

Footscray Tech Old Boys were challenging De La Salle at the head of the D Section ladder as they disposed of Bellfield, 12.22 to 10.8. Best for FTSOB were Lester, Stubbs, Wildie and Williams. For Bellfield, best were D Pollock, L Morris, Annand, Kelly and Spencer.

A special thanks to Ivan Board and Derek Horsburgh for their invite to Old Westbourne's pre-match lunch on Saturday. It was my first look inside at their new facilities, which I have to say are very impressive and certainly put the club in a strong position for the future.

Review

Watching the match from behind the glass at "Artic Park II" hid the fact that the wind was quite strong, and both sides were struggling to come to terms with its influence. The Warriors were being troubled by UHS-VU's pressure at the stoppages by Cracknell and Gorringe and their better use of it up forward and deserved to be within the three kicks at the orange break. However, no one would have predicted what was about to transpire, as the Warriors delivered one of the most devastating quarters seen in recent years piling on 12 goals 14 to zip, with "Jucka" and Stuart Balloch running amok to deliver an 18 goal win.

Kew's season bounced back as they got an 8 goal jump on St.Mary's and it was catch up from there on in as Craig Horne dominated. Al Dwyer battled hard for the Saints though and his side managed to peg back the lead. However, the lead was always out of reach as Justin Saunders and Sean Hennessy turned the screws for the Browns to register an 11 goal win.

Swans coach Gerard Harrington did well to slot four new players into a side that has dominated thus far, and while many would have predicted a whitewash against the Gryphons, it was not to be early on. The class of the "Bloods" ultimately shone through as Matt Hannan and Ben Joske went to town in their team's 13 goal win.

West Brunswick upset Elsternwick (not me though, I am on the Magpies bandwagon!) at the "House of Pain" as Lewis Hayden (or is that Hayden Lewis) put in a good effort. In what was described as "the most entertaining and highest standard match in D3 this season", the Wickers got off to a flyer machine with Justin Hunter the star, only to be hauled in by the Magpies. The Magpies kicked away after the break and perhaps it was the fact that Elsternwick had not really been tested in recent times that they struggled to fight back? This will be something left for Wicker coach Dennis Grace to ponder as the Maggies ran out six goal winners.

No report from the Bentleigh/Swinburne match, though some spies at the game commented on the Razorbacks looking undermanned and no match for the Demon's Chris Sharp who kicked eight majors in a valuable win for the club.

Preview

Swans make the trip up the road to Sportscove Arena to face an Elsternwick side on the rebound. The Swans have taken all in their wake thus far, and will I am predicting they will be dishing out the "Bloods" form of discipline in this match. Some in D3 have questioned the Swan's ability to keep up with the more athletic sides such as Elsternwick, and I am inclined to agree as I "Pick the Wicks" to bounce back hard.

West Brunswick makes the short trip up the road to the Vulture's Nest to take on a UHS-VU side keen to make up for their terrible last quarter the week before. The Magpies have made many sit up and take notice as the likes of Kade "Special K" King have shone. While I expect many of the student stalwarts in Cracknell and Gorringe to stamp their influence, they will not have the endurance to stifle the Magpie machine. As I grab the reigns of the black and white bandwagon I pick WB to win by plenty.

St.Mary's season has gone from bad to worse, and it does not appear it will get any better as they travel to Monash to take on the Gryphons. While I have been impressed by the efforts of "Big Al" Dwyer, he has lacked the backup around him to convert his efforts into wins. Even though Cam Armstrong will battle hard for the Saints across halfback, I predict the students will rack up win number two today and pull themselves out of the "R-zone".

Kew's season is back on track after a much needed win last week, however, it is imperative for the club to maintain this momentum against Benteleigh if they are to be a realistic finals chance. While the likes of Azza Carman has stamped himself as a bona fide senior footballer, he and his teammates are playing in a mini-final today and must deliver. This fact will not be lost on the Demons who want to stay part of the main group and as such will be tough to beat. For my winner, I am expecting a gallant fight by the Browns, but ultimately Benteleigh's class should shine through for a well-earned win.

Old Westbourne makes the trek to "The Pen" to take on a Swinburne outfit keen to a) answer their doubters and b) more importantly, keep up with the "breakaway pack" at the top of the table. It is a hard game to analyse as the Warrior's form has been patchy at best, and may struggle on the tight confines of "the Pen". In picking my winner, I am sticking with the Warriors as I think the "Westbourne Whippets" King Kade and Mighty Mickey should have too much pace and endurance for the Razorbacks.

M I L E S T O N E S

Benteleigh: Congratulations to Marcus Hayes on 50 games, Haysie joined the club a few years ago and can be counted on to give his best week in week out. After a slow start to the season, Haysie is starting to find his form, well done and good luck.

South Melbourne: Paul Cheevers was recognised last week for playing 100 games. Paul is a true clubman, he is always at the club, injured, playing, social, he is Mr. South Melbourne. Paul has come through our juniors and his family is still very much involved at the club.

Milestones notched up in recent weeks at Kew include 50 games for popular Reserves winger and DVC Brenton Burnett and also a 50 after six seasons, the oft injured John "Showbags" Cronin.

ELSTERNWICK PARK GATES

The main gate (Glenhuntly Road) is open every match day.

The rear gate (off St. Kilda Street) will only be open when there are no matches scheduled for Elsternwick Park No. 2 Oval.

When parking in the area behind the grandstand please park in a manner that would allow cars around you to be able to leave.

Players and officials who do not produce tickets at the gates will be counted and the club invoiced accordingly.

Clubs are issued with an appropriate number of tickets for players and officials.

THANKS

Macca (Steve McCarthy) would like to thank De La Salle for their hospitality last week on his milestone of 500 VFA games. Let's have a look at how the day unfolded - firstly being picked up at home by Chilie and The Fireman, did not leave until a change of shirt from really casual to smart casual followed by a shot of sports drink made by a new supplier in Jim Beam.

Prior to the game he had the opportunity to briefly speak at the Presidents lunch, then onto the game, which was umpired by Macca (15%) and Spider (85%). A really short hand over came with the cry of "yours Leah, I'm stuck in the mud". At the end of the game Past and Present umpires, players, officials and supporters were seen to drink merrily with the boy. Bar sales at De La were boosted for the night. A function at the umpires' rooms at Elsternwick Park to honour the man was put to bed by what is best to described as the thank you speech to end all thank you speeches (timed at 35min) where Macca was last seen being dragged out by Cheryl his wife as he tried to start the second half of the speech.

Thanks Leah. Seriously I would like to thank John Corin, Barry Lyons and the rest of the crew at De La Salle for making the day a memorable one. I can't forget all my mates from St. Bernards as well, who, even though they were suffering after a defeat still had the time to pass on good wishes a share a few quiet ones with me. To my crew on the day – all legends, well done. And to those who attended the function and endured my boring speech (transcripts are available, ha!), thanks for sharing it with me. Special thanks to Tom Brain, Anthony Damen, Andrea Colvin, Leah Gallagher and of course Cheryl, Daniel & Stephanie for putting up with me between March and September. – Macca.

Where are you?

Last week field umpire Cameron Davidson rocked up to his game on time at Old Ivanhoe, just down the road at Ivanhoe Assumption Ken McNiece is looking for his partner to arrive (getting the picture?) At 1.30pm the two field umpires for the A grade game make mention to Cam "are you the boundary umpire?", a quick "no, I'm here to umpire Ivanhoe Assumption." On your bike Cam, and up the hill where Kenny was wondering if it is was going to be his first one-umpire game this year. Cameron's promotion to the senior panel will just have to wait a little longer.

Trivia

Trivia night is on again on May 27th at the umpire's rooms; get your name on a table lists as they are filling fast.

RESPECT THE UMPIRE – RESPECT THE GAME!!

D4 SECTION

by Ed Sill

Normally you would get a sense of who belongs where after four rounds, however I must admit to struggling to get my mind around it at the moment. A few facts: Eltham are the real deal. North Brunswick is by far and away the best 0/4 side in a long time. Richmond still has a long haul in front of them however with 70% of their list new, the journey has just begun. Finally, no doubt that the grade is providing a better standard than in previous years. Would love to hear from around the traps views on the final four composition!

Review

Match of the day was over fairly early as the rampaging Eltham shot out to a 6 goal lead at the first break and held that margin for the rest of the day. Turner and Hargreaves were the stars for the Turtles whilst Power House was best served by Boland at full back and midfielders Brady and Sosic.

Stirring come from behind victory as Syndal slammed on 8 goals to get the points over a gallant Eley Park. Healy and Cachia were the Sinners' stars whilst Eley Park was again well served by the Viola boys and Cresswell.

Hawthorn returned to the winners list as they accounted for North Brunswick in an entertaining duel. Close most of the day, the Hawks managed to hold on for a solid win. They were best served by McVeigh and Garlick whilst North's best included Taha and Perry.

Bulleen was another side returning to the winners list as they beat Albert Park. It was close early before Bulleen was able to make a match winning lead in the third. Daley and Cookson were the standouts whilst Albert Park has great games from Cain on the wing and Baker (again) on ball.

Finally, Box Hill North had a big win over Richmond. Dan Penny was the stand out, slotting a lazy club record 13 goals whilst Ball was also good. Morrison was the best for Richmond.

Preview

An absolute log jam as only 4 points and a little percentage separates 2 and 8.

Match of the day status probably goes to Box Hill North and Bulleen. BHN have had only one bad day, however that was against Eltham and that form is starting to stack up. Bulleen are still missing a few big names and their return is key to their form. Have fancied that BHN will be one of the big improvers and will go with them in a close one.

Hawthorn and Eltham clash in a fixture that always has plenty of vigour on the ground and plenty of beer afterwards. Great start for the Turtles although their level headed President, Graham Leys, is still taking it one game at a time. The Hawks are still suffering from a nomadic life and will improve as the year goes on. This week, Mr Jackomos needs to be reminded of a great Elvis hit, A Little less conversation a little more action! Eltham, but just.

Syndal welcome North Brunswick to the House of Pain, hoping to cement their spot in the four. They'd better not take North too lightly though. A few recruits in the last bit has seen North improve significantly. Not sure their first win will come this week though, Syndal for mine.

Power House host Richmond, desperate to get back on the winners list. Hard to see Richmond troubling them however I am encouraged that Richmond has a clear plan to rebuild. House for me.

Finally, toss of the coin stuff as Eley Park travel down to Albert Park. Both sides would have been relatively happy with their starts to the year although the Sharks will be kicking themselves about the last quarter fade out last week. Not sure so therefore will revert to rule number 1, home ground advantage and thus Albert Park for mine.

We had a 'Nadia' this week as all 10 clubs reported in. Great stuff. Remember, ed.sill@locker.com.au or 0418348723

Richmond Central's are having their Wizard Trivia Night tonight at the Dover Castle in Bridge Road, Richmond on Saturday May 20th. Lots of prizes on offer and all D4 clubs are more than welcome. 7pm start.

VALE

The Bulleen Cobras football club would like to pass on our condolences to the Snape family on the passing of Allan (Tiger) Snape. Tiger was a great supporter of Bulleen United (before the merge with Canterbury), with his son Brian a previous captain of the club pre-merge, our thoughts are with his family.

M I MILESTONES N E S

Power House congratulates Cameron 'Nugget' McLeod on his 200th this week. Nugget has been a terrific clubman both on & off the field for well over a decade. His 4 B & F awards in the Reserves and Captaincy of a Grand Final Reserves side are testament to his willingness to give it his all every time he pulls on a Power House jumper. So for this week and many more to come, best of luck from all at Power House - Go Nugget!

Yarra Valley Old Boys congratulate Brad Peake, club captain of the 2002 D2 Premiership side, best and fairest winner, and dual premiership player, who takes the field for the Bushrangers for the 200th time. Brad captained the club superbly through his successful tenure as captain, as his leadership on and off the field helped the Bushrangers climb to D1. A terrific reader of the play with exceptional kicking and disposal skills, Brad started his career in the forward line before moving to the midfield and half-back where his searching passes found many a leading forward. To this day, Brad forms an important part of the Bushrangers midfield mix, and the club wishes Brad all the best on this special day.

Albert Park congratulates Dave Borley, who played his 50th match v Bulleen Cobras, and Trav Green who will play 50th v Eley Park Sharks.

Sensational day for football and some surprise results now starting to sort the hay from chaff to kick off round 4 of amateur football. Rupertswood travelled to the home of one time premiership favourites Marcellin and dished out an all mighty walloping.15 goal win to Rupy cements their spot in the four with a now healthy percentage. Jared Pretty on fire with ten and young Spinner on top all over the ground. I was fortunate enough to play in the curtain raiser to DLS and Collegians. Some big lads out there (whos feeding those boys?) De La won in a canter with the lack of a Collegians bench hampering the home team in the long run. Having said that, DLS were missing key big man Cameron Ball with a shoulder injury. Nevertheless, De La might want to concentrate for 120 minutes instead of fielding party tricks if they are going to win the big ones (that's a word of advice). Greg Hesse, James Hansen and Will Fenton best for the winners. In other games, Uni put St Bernards down a peg or five, Old Scotch stole the points from BV and the Xavery pumped St Kevins at Righetti.

Review

In match of the round, Rupy host Uni Blues out in "sunny Sunbury". Rupy to get home for me, led by their powerhouse spearhead and tough on ballers al al Matty Quigley. Xavs will cement second spot and beat a withering Marcellin. BV may just get up for win number one over Collegians (actually I think I'll pick the purple jumpers), while St Bernards and DLS should cruise home in comfort.

Any feedback by 8pm Monday thanks. beatonc@tabcorp.com.au Happy punting!

SECTION 2

The S2 ladder is starting to resemble an hourglass, 2 teams undefeated, 5-6 in the middle and 2-3 making up the numbers. The spirited Raiders trounced the Sharks by 89, with Watson and Donald dominating through the middle. Parade, hampered by early injury, buried the struggling Sharks after the final break, amassing a 7 to 0 goal last quarter. In the weekend's closest battle, the OT's came within an 'Ant's Pancreas', going into the last quarter with a handy lead. A strong finale from the Fielders was enough to produce a courageous Caulfield comeback with Hyland and Wolkow solid.

The OM's defeated the Wellers who found a bit of fight in the third to come within 5 goals. The Friars accounted for the Tonners by 51 and the Panthers are suggesting the premiership is a two-horse race, beating early hopefuls the Blacks by 22. Bull added 4, taking his tally to 20 for 06.

The Sharks host the Fields and I'll say Beaumaris, simply for the home-ground advantage. Brighton plays the Raiders, who should take the points by 7 goals. The Blacks take on the Friars and I can't decide so...eeny, meeny, miney – Blacks by 8 points. The improving T's host the Wellers at Hudson Oval, but I'll say Camberwell after finding that blood-pumping red thing last week.

And to date, the 'Match of the Season'. That's right it's the OM's and the Panthers. The Melburnians, who I very ashamedly wrote off pre-season have surprised, while the Panthers have been solid. Bull and Elliott's mob have been red hot, and I think they might have too much for the likes of O'Shaughnessy and Playfair. Carey by 9 points in a ripper. bernechich@netspace.net.au

A weekend of titillating results saw Ormond display a small chink in their armour with their first defeat of the season to Old Ivanhoe Grammarians. Old Ivanhoe shot out of the blocks with a five goal to one first quarter and were never really headed after that, with Dunnett kicking 7 goals and Madigan and Young very good performers. They now move to fifth on the ladder and look the danger team outside the top four. Not sure what to make of the MHSOB result. They were massacred by St. Bede's Mentone, managing to score only 8 points and letting in 235. Are SBMT that good or did MSHOB just have a Barry Crocker? I know for a fact that SBMT are a strong unit, home and away, and with Mitch Bodinnar continuing to score goals with the help of Swain and Jones, they will continue to be hard to beat. Bentleigh beat Emmaus St. Leo's comfortably as did Oakleigh against Old Essendon, with the game of the round coming from the closely matched La Trobe and Ajax. La Trobe was leading throughout most of the day until a last ditch effort by Ajax nearly saw them steal the points. La Trobe's Brenton Hunt and his 8 goals proved the difference as De Bono's lads held on for a deserved 7-point victory.

Preview

Pack the car, picnic rug and all, and head out to the beautiful surrounds of the Bentleigh Recreation Reserve to see a glimpse of finals football in May. I know it's still early, but Bentleigh versus St. Bede's Mentone should be a great display of young talent in our game, with both teams up and about. This is a tough one to pick, and while SBMT will have to keep an eye on Ilya Fridman after his 9 goal heroics last week, I think SBMT are just going to well to ignore at the moment. SBMT to win but not by much. La Trobe will be confident heading into this week's game against Ormond, who in contrast will be looking for redemption after their performance. La Trobe will be competitive at home, but Ormond should take the points and get their names back on the winner's list. Oakleigh head out to play MHSOB at the Yarra Street School Oval, and with Pound-Gow getting amongst it last week, should look to take the win against a demoralized MHSOB. Old Ivanhoe will beat Emmaus St. Leo's at Chelsworth Park, while Old Essendon Grammarians are a chance to knock off Ajax at home for their first win. Not sure how far apart these teams are, but Ajax seem to be going well enough to clinch this one in a tight game. Send info into al_vafa@hotmail.com

Review

The chasm that divides the top teams from the rest grows ever larger each week and it seems only the fourth spot will be up for grabs come finals time. Old Mentonian's occupy fourth spot at the moment, but all teams are within striking distance if good enough. Hampton Rovers welcomed their first four points of the season with a gritty away win against the Parkdale Vultures. While Nathan Coy bagged six for the home team, Hampton skipper Lee Smith made sure they took the points with Tom Mitchell dominating in the centre. The Mazenod juggernaut continued after steamrolling Old Mentonians in an impressive display. It was an even first half, but Mazenod put the foot on the accelerator with Nick Klavins kicking 7 majors and Jeremy Arnold and Nicholas Graham the best in an even team effort. De La, led by skipper Robert Breda, thrashed a hapless Parkdale, with the Adam Kovarik show continuing in earnest with the goal kicking machine booting home 12 goals to take his tally to 32 after just four rounds, well on track for the magical 100 mark. Old Haileybury had little trouble with Oakleigh, with Lyle Smitsdorff and Bradley Dorman more than serviceable. Monash had the week off.

Preview

While De La has a well earned rest this week, there will be some fascinating games to be contested in a round which will see teams needing to grasp at their chance to get a win on the board. Monash Blues travel to Boss James Reserve to tackle Hampton, and after a week's rest they are a definite chance to knock Hampton off. While Hampton registered their first win last week, it was far from convincing, and they will need to put together a four quarter effort to defeat Monash, and I believe they will do enough to get the points. Unfortunately for Parkdale, a team still trying to find its feet in U19 competition, there will be no let-up with the rampaging Mazenod to do some damage at their home ground, while an interesting clash between Oakleigh Clayton and Powerhouse/Sth Mornington presents itself. Powerhouse/Sth Mornington were very competitive last week and they will take it up to Oakleigh Clayton, but as the game is at Clayton Reserve, I will stick with the home team who seem to find another leg in their own surrounds. Old Haileybury head out to play Old Mentonians and while Lewis Mitchell was super impressive last week, Old Haileybury should have little trouble staying on top of the ladder. Send info into al_vafa@hotmail.com

U19 (RED)

Two surprise upsets this week. In the sludge, Rupertswood couldn't match it with Xavs. A disaster from the get-go, the Rupo scoreline read 1-7 at half time. Up forward, for Xavs, Lee (5) and Fazio (3) starred. Bottom of the ladder Westbourne ran out 37 point victors against Therry. Sidwell kicked 6 for the victorious visitors while Templeton and Gardy were outstanding.

Kew and Bulleen Temp threw everything at each other playing with optimum heart and intensity in a see-soaring battle. Casualties fell and tensions were high as early as the third. Pint-sized Wyley and Wang were great for Kew, while Fultheim (4) and Monaco (4) with strong hands brought the win home in the last. At the other end, Pete Voglis kicked a courageous 8, while Captain Coulston, Rametta and Chance Burridge worked all day. Aquinas took care of NOBSPC in a convincing 63 point pantsing.

This week, Aquinas will bring the Xavs back to Earth and taking the points by 4 straight ones. Rupertswood need to bounce back against closest neighbour Therry and should win by 31 points. Bulleen Temp host NOBSPC and will have too much for this newly merged entity, running out 19 point winners. Fitzroy have Kew in this week's showdown and I'm tipping Fitzroy fresh from a week off. Kew although winners last week, will be a lot sorer, and will go down by 2 goals. The Reds are my roughie for the finals, with a hard-working midfield and strong forward-line - Barnett and Ligris. Westbourne have the holiday. bernech@netspace.net.au

CLUB XVIII SECTION

by Norm Nugent

Round 5

In what is shaping up as the most competitive season on record, surprise results continued a plenty and sent my success rate plummeting into the Heinz range i.e. 57%.

Section 1.

St Kevin's salvaged some pride for their Club when they inflicted a 7 point defeat on the top side; Old Xaverians. The Xaverians led early and well into the third quarter they were 50 points in front. Injury to Nick Rathgaber was followed by a St Kevin's revival which saw another come from behind victory as the Xaverians were overrun in the last quarter. Best for the winners were: Robin Bowles (6 goals) and youngsters Powell and Petrou.

De La Salle moved into second place with a 155 point victory over St Bede's Mentone Tigers, who are finding the required standard difficult to meet.

Prahran put their season back on an even keel through their 47 point victory over an inaccurate University Blues in heavy conditions on the University Oval. Dave Butterworth was a star up forward for the victors.

Old Scotch slipped three places down the ladder through their 49 point loss to Old Melburnians, whose form is improving each week.

Mazenod recorded a 59 point victory over Old Xaverians 2, who remain the only side yet to record a victory this season.

Section. 2.

Whitefriars bounced back to score a 71 point win over a disappointing Old Brighton, who fell further behind as the game progressed. Whitefriars' best were: Collins, O'Brien (5 goals), Atkinson and Singh.

Tenth placed Marcellin, in their best performance of the season, lost to fourth placed, St Bernards by 13 points. Marcellin players tired in the last quarter as they surrendered a four goal lead to the faster finishing St Bernard's who received a real scare. Best for the winners were: Salemm, Couch, Byrne and Weir.

Monash Blues continued to be the benchmark for the section when they defeated Mt Lilydale by 99 points. According to "my man at the match", Monash set up their victory with a dominant opening quarter and although Mt Lilydale proved competitive thereafter, they could not convert their opportunities. Best for Monash were: Nick Costello, John Gaffney and Gavin Prendergast.

In the afternoon match, Fitzroy Reds continued on their merry way with a 124 point defeat over Therry Penola.

Collegians gave University Blacks a three goal start before clawing back to a three goal lead into the last quarter before surrendering the lead to University Blacks ,who won by the minimum margin.

Best for the Blacks were: Club Secretary, Charles Beaton, Fahrudin Silajdija and Nathan Poyner. For Collegians, Dave Perkov, Justin Gay and Matthew Day were best.

Section. 3.

Old Geelong had a day out in Brunswick with a 77 point win over North Old Boys / St Patricks, who now languish last on the ladder. Could this be the season when Old Geelong discovers the secret to consistent form??

La Trobe University and Old Scotch played a thrilling draw although the "Trobers" had the more scoring shots. It must have been encouraging for Old Scotch officials as their players showed no signs of shell shock from their Round 3 heavy defeat.

Caulfield Grammarians now lead the section outright as a consequence of their 31 point win over Old Trinity who still cling to fourth place.

Fitzroy Reds supporters pointed out the scoreboard to me several times during their team's 87 point crushing of Emmaus St Leo's, who failed to score after half time. The dynamic Red's duo; Tony Jackson and Nick Auden were best for the winners whilst Kim Findlay and Gavin Dixon battled hard for the Combine.

Beaumaris forfeited to Old Essendon, which was a disappointment for the returning Dave Hoy.

PREVIEW OF ROUND 5.

Section 1.

Prahran and Old Scotch, each with top four aspirations meet at Darling Park. Prahran did well in the wet last week and with their evergreen stars like: Butterworth, Storer and Macpherson leading them, the "Two Blues" should defeat the "Cardinals".

University Blues were jolted into reality last week. Today they face another challenge on Central reserve as Mazenod must win to stay in touch with the leaders. I favour the Blues to bounce back with another victory.

The long awaited clash between the Old Xaverian sides happens today. Intra College games were often the toughest the students from Xavier played in their A.P.S. days. A lot will be at stake but all form points to a good win by the pace setters, the "Crocodiles".

St Kevin's should consolidate their top four billing by accounting for the struggling St Bede's, Mentone Tigers.

Old Melburnians, who showed marked improvement last week, face another tough assignment against De La Salle, whose form over the four rounds warrants me to select them.

Section 2.

St Bernard's should score another comfortable victory at the expense of Therry Penola.

Mt Lilydale will appreciate their return to home soil and should score their second win at the expense of Marcellin, who are struggling to reach the required standard for victory. University Blacks host Whitefriars in a match whose result could have August ramifications. The Blacks must put in a consistent four quarter display to defeat Whitefriars, who regained lost momentum last week. Under pressure I suspect Whitefriars will emerge victorious.

Fitzroy Reds, who are proving an impressive unit, host Collegians, who failed by a point last week. As the Reds have the more impressive record, I select them to defeat Collegians for whom the Peterson Oval will be new territory. Leaders Monash Blues will not have the elements in their favour at Brighton Beach, but their football skills should enable them to continue on their winning way against Old Brighton Grammarians.

Section 3.

Judged on my observations over the last two rounds, Old Trinity will prove too talented for Emmaus – St Leo's, who really struggled last week.

Caulfield Grammarians veterans will be tested on the vast spaces of the La Trobe University Oval, which should be heavy. However the Caulfield players' skills should enable them to win well.

I have no confidence in selecting the unpredictable Old Geelong to win. However the spaces of Como Park will prove more difficult for Old Scotch, who did not handle space at Trinity well in Round 3. Really Old Geelong does have the more impressive record and who knows their first final could come in August, 2006!!

Beaumaris should record their initial victory by defeating North Old Boys / St Patricks, whose record is no better. I select Beaumaris simply because they are playing at home. Second place will be the reward for the winner of the Fitzroy Reds / Old Essendon Grammarians match. The Reds have improved as the season has progressed and although Old Essendon will provide strong opposition, I select the "Perspirational's" (Hille speak) to win at home.

M I MILESTONES E S

Old Xaverians congratulate Nick Silk who today plays his 50th game for the Club against the Thirds. From the College in 2003, Nick is currently a regular in the Club XVIII-(1). Well done Nick from all at the club.

De La Salle congratulate Shane Rudd, who who started at De La in 1988 played his 250th game last Saturday v St Bedes Mentone Tigers. He becomes only the 5th player in the Club,s 52 years to reach this milestone. Shane was the VAFA Club 18 leading goalkicker in 1995 for which he was awarded the Club,s Senior Outstanding achievement & 1998. He was Runner Up Warrior B&F 3 times (.95, .97& .99) finally achieving B&F in 2000. Shane was the Club,s Best in Finals in 2001 which demonstrates his remarkable consistency over the seasons.

F.I.D.A. REPORT

Round 2 Match Report

It was a wet and windy day at Parkville as round two was played on Sunday 7th May.

The first game played was between Ringwood and Mazenod 2. Both these teams had won their first round games and were confident of a victory. It was a very close game with Mazenod 2 kicking 5.6 36 to Ringwood's 4.0 24. Moonee Valley Magpies played Pt Colts 2 with both teams showing that they can play wet weather football. PortColts 2 kicked 2.12 24 to Moonee Valley's 2.2 14. Mambourin Tigers played Parkside in a very close game. Parkside led at the first break but Mambourin were able to peg them back and eventually came out on top 2.4 16 to Parkside 1.7 13. It looks like Parkside will be doing some goal kicking practise this week on the training track.

Kananook 2 took on Port Colts 1 in what I had picked as the close game for the day. Kananook 2 just could not keep up with the Colts who played very good wet weather football, kicking 12.9 81 and keeping Kananook 2 scoreless. So much for my judgement!! Broadmeadows Kanagarooos 2 played Ovens And Murray 2 and struggled to adapt to the wet conditions scoring only 1.2 9 to an impressive Ovens And Murray 2, 8.19 67. The final game at Parkville was between Kananook 1 and Mazenod 1 who have been promoted after being Division 2 premiers in 2005. Mazenod had no answer for the more experienced Kananook who played inspired wet weather football. Kananook 1 kicked 11.7 73 to Mazenod 1, 1.3 9. Mazenod will learn from the experience and will be a different side when the weather improves.

Next round in FIDA Football brings another interesting round of games. Port Colts 2 play Ringwood Blues. Ringwood should bounce back and cause an upset. Port Colts 1 play Broadmeadows 1 and should continue on their winning way against a determined Broadmeadows. Mazenod 2 play Ovens And Murray 2 with both teams coming of a win in round 2. Mazenod could prove to be the team to beat this season and may just get over the line in a close game. The final game at Elsternwick is between Broadmeadows 2 and Ovens and Murray Jets 1. Broadmeadows 2 should win this game but will have to come to play as the boys from Albury will push them all the way.

Our away games for the round are between Ballarat and Mazenod 1 in Ballarat. Ballarat should be too experienced and will use their home ground advantage to give Mazenod 1 their second loss for the season. Mazenod 1 will improve as they gain valuable experience as the season progresses. Kananook 1 play host to Lara and should be to big and strong for the new Lara team who are still finding their way after returning to the league this year. Kananook 2 play Bulleen Templestowe and with the home crowd behind them should post a much needed win. The last game for the round is between Moonee Valley and Parkside. I had to toss a coin and it came up heads giving Parkside their first win for the year.
