

On the Record

by Cameron Noakes

Football has been a slowly evolving game over its life time but in the past 15 years the game has gone through a revolution.

Let's be honest, it wasn't too long ago that football was pretty basic – centre the ball and kick it to the big bloke up front.

Denis Pagan changed all that when he pushed the forwards up and invented the famous “paddock” for Wayne Carey to play in.

It was brilliant plan built around the super skills of one player but, when you think about it, “Pagan's paddock” was really just a jazzed up version of Tommy Hafey's “long bombs to Royce”.

Basically, the idea was to get it to the big bloke up front. Since then we have seen floods and super-floods that have had many people concerned about the state of Australian Rules at the elite level and now it is possession football that is raising eyebrows.

I guess the question for us in the Victorian Amateur Football Association is, will these trends set by the professionals filter through into grass-roots football?

The answer is yes.

Although the general consensus at the moment is that our players do not have the skills to carry out such strategies, I beg to differ.

One day a coach will come into the association and he will organise his team to execute these game plans. And if that coach wins games he will be a genius.

I don't care what some very experienced coaches say, football is about winning. There is no point looking pretty when you get belted each week.

The possession game that we're seeing more and more of in the top level may look ugly but it takes discipline, organisation and good foot skills to pull off.

And frankly, I would rather see a game that is a contest rather than a 100-point flogging

When people kick up a fuss about possession football generally what they don't like is the kick backwards.

And let's face it, 20-years ago, kicking backwards and across goal was a major “no-no”.

But what we're seeing now is a player's first instinct is to look across and backwards, rather than forwards.

At times it seems some players are relieved to have delivered the ball to a mate because it is no longer his problem.

When the hysteria of possession football simmers down, people will realise it is not vastly different to what has been happening for years.

You can see teams implementing the first steps of this in the amateurs today.

When the centre-man swings out of the middle and sees his half-forward on the lead and in space he will try and hit him.

Why? It's better to go to him and keep the ball than it is to kick to a pack and run the risk of giving up the pill and allowing your opponents to counter-attack.

Kicking to a bloke on his own is nothing new in football – it is the going backwards and sideways that is the supposed problem.

If you have ever watched good teams play this way it actually can be exciting when the ball is eventually delivered to the speedster who has the licence to break the lines and set up the goal or slot one from 50 metres.

Football is in great shape and it's only a matter of time before coaches start trying a variety of different tactics in the amateurs.

They are experiments, and sometimes they will work and sometimes they won't but what will never go away in football is your big bloke up front. And when he is taking marks the best policy has – and always will be – kick the ball to him.

Xavs & Scotch Unearth Unlikely Gems.

Apparently more Xavier College school-kids play soccer than AFL these days. It's an extraordinary stat; a bit like being told that Nickleback is the most widely played band on Triple R. Even more amazing is that another Barkers Road heathen, a RUGBY PLAYER, has emerged as the key to their old boys' side. Matt Handley is 20, built like Brutus Beefcake's brother in law and played rugby union at school. With minimal footy experience, he won the Under 19s goal-kicking last year, kicked a swag of goals in the seconds in the first few rounds and waltzed onto the senior scene with bags of 7 & 9.

As incongruous as a union player in a Xavier footy jumper sounds, it barely holds a candle to the sight of an AGE JOURNALIST (le horreur!) dominating across half forward for Old Scotch. Ben Doherty, late of the Canberra Times, more recently of the Spencer St Soviet, was mighty impressive in his first senior game (after kicking 7 in the twos the week before). He didn't figure in the best but a wise man of the amateurs let me know at a nutted Sunday session in Richmond that he is one of the most exciting talents to run around at Camberwell for many a year. Ivanhoe weren't disgraced but lost Toovey to injury and didn't get much out James Hope, who was tagged out of proceedings.

Speaking of excitement machines, it's hard to top the mark of De La's Jarrod Maloney, who I'm told took the greatest hanger seen in A Grade footy since OMs' James Miller put a foot on myself and Tim Silvers' head in 1999 and rose vertically. Haven't seen them thus far, but there's a bit to like about De La. Duggan & Rayson are tearing up the midfield, Harrison & Mannix (sensation) are on song up forward and Corin looks impenetrable at CHB. They have a cosy month ahead and people are starting to talk them up. Andrew Ramsden was easily Trinity's best.

People are also taking up Messrs Potter and Hopwood, of St Bernards and Haileybury respectively, who both had day outs in front of goal on Saturday. Potter led the Bernies to their first win over Uni in donkey's years while Hopwood's eight was another nail in the coffin of the struggling OMs. Important to note Carl Steinfort's good game for the Bloods while the Snakepit now rivals the Badlands as Amateur football's very own house of horrors. Joe Sturrock was best for Uni, who are still a factor, but increasingly (and oddly) losing touch.

Selections

Right, De La will annihilate Old Melburnians, no question about it.

Uni should, and must, defeat Old Trinity at the Varsity.

Xavs, with more players back, will touch up Ivanhoe at Toorak Park.

Haileybury will demolish Marcellin on Sunday.

So there's four....

The match of the day the the 'Pit is much tougher. Scotch have done nothing wrong, have a forward line brimming with talent and a combined height advantage of about six kilometres. But the Bernies play their home ground to perfection and may have a little bit more run on what is a big ground and excellent surface. Home side by a goal.

Trivia.

Which A Section footballer is also a champion surf life saver and recently competed in the National Championships on the Gold Coast? No prizes this week. Last week's answer: The Foo was a champion shot putter and discus thrower, as well as being a handy golfer, lower order pinch hitter on the cricket field and (incredibly) a nimble and reliable WICKET KEEPER for the Haileybury's First XI. Former nemesis Damien Joyce, from North Old Boys, wins the lunatic soup.

M I MILESTONES E S

Old Ivanhoe would like to congratulate Sam Morris on reaching 100 games this week. Sam, a solidly built on-baller/wingman with good hand and kicking skills, has been a stalwart player in the reserves and an all-round great clubman as well.

The Old Scotch Football Club congratulates club captain Tristan Beranger for playing his 100th game with the club last Saturday. Tristan leads the club with distinction both on and off the field and has made a great impact in his time at the club. He leads from the front and a great team effort was a fitting reward for Bear's milestone. Old Scotch also congratulates Charles Swan, Tom Collie and Adam Routledge who have all played their 50th game for the club this season.

Old Xavs congratulate Simon Lethlean who today plays his 150th Game - Simon joined Old Xavs in 1997 and has played in 5 A grade Premierships and proudly represented Victoria on 9 occasions. Well done Simon from all at the Club.

by Tom Brain

Two by Two has equated to eight for Old Brighton in the past fortnight while for the hapless SKOB it has equated to absolute zilch.

REVIEW

Another heart stopper at the Park for Old Brighton, which is doing nothing for Andy Mullett's heart palpitations. Controlled it early did the Tonners, until half way through the second quarter, when SKOB took control of the air and the clearances to hit the front and look the likely winners. But it was the class and experience of Nick Perry and Adam Pirrie in the end that helped Old Brighton win. Marcus Dollman made a fine return from a bout of appendicitis.

Mazenod reckon that if I can still kick a goal I should appear at training, as their lack of forwards are costing them dearly. The Blacks led all day and returned to the winning list but a 10 goal return on a perfect day for football says something for the tightness of the Noddies defence who were all brilliant. Matt Watson, Pat Barry and Dan Costello who is having a great season were all good for the Blacks. Nick Lewton, Dave Chamberlain and Luke Morgan all did well.

After a good opening term by Caulfield, Beauy struck back, and but for some shabby converting could have been right in the game at the main interval. The floodgates opened in the third as the classy Fields slammed on 7 twins to put the contest beyond doubt with a 10 goal buffer at the end. In no particular order Strain, Wright and Winter were all good Fields. Mark Ensor kept Brett Sinclair goalless in a superb performance, and Mark Boon was good, as was big Luke McNicholas.

OEG versus Collegians was a good one to watch with plenty of contents in the air from two tall sides. Was it a Grand Final preview I wonder!!! Tom Bull and Shura Taft kicked vital goals for the Lions when needed, and deserve to be in the best along with defenders Andrew Baxter and Clint Harris. Stand out for OEG was Julian Kavanagh down back, Chris Goulet was ferocious with Leask and Skurrie against his old club also prominent.

Whitefriars returned to Friar Park after the disappointment of last week looking for a win to mark Ben Janson's 100th. But is was not to be, as a combination of inaccuracy, ferocious tackling and a powerful MHSOB midfield saw the Unicorns come away with the 4 points in a great result. Youngsters Lachie Evans, Tim Dunne and Will Taft were well backed up by the experienced Ewan Thompson and Roger McIntyre. Better ones for the Friars were Janson, Hill and Stafford.

PREVIEW

Beaumaris and Mazenod clash in a must win game for both club's at Shark Park. Both sides have been pretty competitive but have been struggling to score enough goals to win. Today it will be the defences who will control the result by limiting the chances of their opponents. Tough one to pick but perhaps the class of Aaron Salisbury and a parochial home crowd will see the Sharks over the line.

Never easy to beat OEG at home no different for the Friars today. OEG have perhaps underachieved with the list they have at their disposal and will be looking to turn it on today for their home supporters. It will just be a bit tough for the plucky Friars to win.

Collegians are certainly the form side and are looking forward to Parko's return to the Trott. The Blacks have been showing some improvement of late but will need to show a lot more to totally trouble the Lions who are such an even combination. It's the Lions for me. MHSOB greet the ever improving SKOB at the school oval. Two heartbreaking 2 point losses must have devastated the young Skevvies, but they are a resilient lot and will continue to fight. But the High with their young guns showing the way have a bit of a sniff now and in a close one I'm expecting my hosts of the day to win.

A ripper awaits at South Road as the Fields make the short trek across town to tackle the Tonners. Good test for both sides as it will show us all where they stand in the pecking order. It is particularly hard to tip against Old Brighton at home but I just have a feeling that with a few players still to return to their lineup, they may struggle and that the almost full strength Fields might do the impossible and win at Brighton.

Whitefriars OC Football Club wishes to congratulate Ben Janson on his 100th game last weekend. After debuting in the Under 19s in 2000, BJ made his senior debut in 2001, and has since been a fixture in the senior team. This has included the C Grade premiership of 2002, and the push to A Grade for the first time in 2004. A player with rare skill and tremendous courage, he is a favourite of the Friar Faithful.

Congratulations from all at Old Brighton to our brave Reserves skipper, Chris McNicol who chalks up his 100th game for the club today. One of the most popular and dedicated men in Red and Blue, Chris is now in his seventh year at Old Brighton, and his determined attack on the ball is a continuing inspiration to his team. A Reserves Best and Fairest winner in 2002, Chris is enjoying another excellent season and he will hopefully enjoy some finals action this season. Well done Noodle. Best wishes from all of us and good luck for the next ton!

INTERVIEW WITH THE GLOVE

Former long standing and highly respected player at Richmond Football Club, Duncan Kellaway, now playing with Caulfield Grammarians, agreed to this interview with Geoff Reilley.

GR: Duncan, when did you play your last AFL game and what have you been doing in the interim to stay in shape?

DK: My last game was about round 14, 2004. I have stayed generally fit with a bit of running and the occasional weights session and swim. I was reasonably fit but footy fitness is a different kettle of fish and I needed to become involved in pre-season at Caulfield, especially to get the body used to physical contact again.

GR: Did you think when you retired that you may play again at a lower level?

DK: The thought was in the back of my mind but I knew I was going away to travel and work overseas in 2005 so I wasn't sure if I would get the opportunity to play again. On returning home my good mate, Andrew Will, current Caulfield Grammarians Club Captain, was going around for one more year and my body felt good so I thought why not.

GR: What was the determining factor in deciding to play with Caulfield Grammarians?

DK: I am a past student of Caulfield Grammar and therefore knew quite a few of the guys at the football club. Although the majority of my closer schoolmates have retired, they still follow the club and turn up to most matches. I consistently watched my mates play with the Grammarians throughout my AFL career and therefore had an ongoing affinity with the club.

GR: You are one of three brothers to play in the VFL/AFL. Was there any one coach who had a particular influence on you, or your brothers Lochie and Andrew, to pursue the game at the elite level?

DK: Not really. We all just loved playing footy and aspired to play the highest standard we could. The support of our parents all the way through our footy careers has been instrumental in us all doing well.

I should also say Peter Schwab really assisted me in making the transition from U19's and reserves to playing senior AFL footy

GR: What do you regard as the most important quality in a coach?

DK: Definitely honesty.

GR: What do you think is the key element for worthwhile training in amateur football given there is usually only two training sessions per week?

DK: Good lights at the ground! I have been spoilt by training during the day for the past 10 years. The intensity of training also needs to be high given the relatively limited time available for training.

GR: As a qualified physiotherapist and a player who suffered numerous, serious injuries, do you have any suggestions for coaches regarding player management, particularly at amateur level?

DK: It's a good idea to have protocol in place to provide guidelines for players and staff to follow. Having contacts such as a sports physician and physio that you know and can refer players to is also important.

GR: Which AFL player/s, past or present, do you regard as the ideal role models?

DK: I think Chris Judd, also a Caulfield Grammarian, is as good a role model for either young or experienced players as there is going around these days. A great player, fair and, importantly, also pursuing interests away from football

GR: You spent some time in the UK recently. Was it to further your professional career and did any aspect of sport in the UK impress you?

DK: I worked in a sports medicine practice for a few months and applied for jobs at Fulham and Tottenham. I received interviews with both clubs but was not successful in getting a placement.

I have to say that the ball control of the Premier League soccer players is really incredible and they also have great speed.

GR: Do you have any thoughts of coaching Australian Rules in the future?

DK: Happy to just have a kick this year and will see where I am at when the season finishes.

GR: Duncan, welcome to amateur football, thanks for your time and good luck for the remainder of the season.

(The support group for Australian Rules football at Caulfield Grammar School is named the 'Kellaway Club' and acknowledges the outstanding playing careers of Lachlan, Duncan and Andrew and the exceptional contribution by their parents Peter and Annette. Lachlan is in his second season as Assistant Senior Coach at Caulfield Grammarians. Peter, Annette and Andrew are regular supporters at Caulfield's matches).

MORE MILESTONES AT MHSOBFC

Congratulations to two of our senior players on reaching their first 50 game milestone for the club.

Ryan Czwaro played his 50th against Whitefriars last week and formed part of an excellent backline that restricted scoring opportunities.

'Rhino' has played most of his football in the Resssies but after a committed pre-season he was given his chance of playing in the seniors. He has grabbed this opportunity and not looked back. Well done 'Rhino', may there be plenty more at MHSOB.

Luke Campbell plays his 50th game today at home against St Kevins OB. Luke is an integral part of the on-ball division and always runs in straight lines. His ability to break open packs and drive the ball into the forward line is an important factor in our young team's performances. Luke comes from a great sporting family, his father Blair and brothers all playing quality football and cricket. An excellent effort Luke.

Monash -v- AJAX

The Students hosted the Jackas on a beautifully manicured surface which should've suited the visitors. No wind tunnels to speak of which (in my own experience) is extraordinarily rare. AJAX jumped out of the blocks with the first 3 snags, but then went into their shell as the Ashers started to gain the ascendancy after quarter time. Tim Blackley held firm down back and the home side's defence only let one goal through in the second term, meaning Monash were back in the hunt. After the main break, the Students lit the torch on the back of Andrew Costley in the ruck (well matched against the impressive Jared Raleigh) and Tom Craven, who rammed through 3 majors to gain the critical advantage. They 'won ugly' thereafter by choking the Jackas runners and denying their forwards room to convert.

Old Camberwell -v- Hampton Rovers

It was a fast paced, intense start out at GBO. The Rovers' defence had the task of locking down the Wellers key forwards from the get-go, and they recovered from a slow start winning crucial stoppages and providing good delivery to their own forward line. A few positional changes at the first break robbed Hampton Rovers of their ruck dominance, allowing the Wellers runners, led by Paul Byrne, to swoop into their forward-line to kick 5 majors for the term. After the main change, Old Camberwell kicked into top gear kicking 9 goals to one for a 71 point lead, including 3 from Andrew Clarke. The last quarter saw Hampton Rovers add respectability to the end result, but they're back to the drawing board this week

STBMT -v- Fitzroy Reds

It wasn't for the first time this season that the Reds had to play catch-up footy, trailing by 4 goals midway through the first term at Brindisi Street. The loss of Tiger wingman Paul Groves signaled a Roy Revival as they slammed on the next 5 majors to lead at the first change. With a few choice words of encouragement behind them, the home side lifted their intensity in the second term with Aaron Sawers and Damian Waters leading the way. Andrew Scafid and David Kinsella were the main beneficiaries of the Tigers' midfield's largesse, converting the numerous opportunities provided as the home side eased to a 9 goal win.

Ormond -v- Old Paradians

Unlike St Kilda, who always play poorly in milestone games, the same could not possibly be said of Old Paradians who saluted one of their greatest (if not the greatest) servants, Peter Brabender with a gritty 20 point win at The Gunn. Trailing just before halftime, the Parade boys flicked the switch with the next 4 biscuits to take a 16 point lead into the main change. The Monds wasted crucial chances in the third as the game looked to be slipping away with the visitors hold a 28 point lead at the final change. Derham was always dangerous up front for Parade, ably assisted by Godfrey and Curran around the ground. In the end, despite the efforts of Simon Keleher and Bryce Deledio, the Paradians finished strongly enough to ensure the away rooms were pumping at 5pm.

NOBS -v- Parkdale

The Vultures swooped on the Combine in the close one at the Gillon. It was nip 'n' tuck all day, with less than 2 goals separating the sides pretty much throughout. Unfortunately, despite a gem from Heath Maplestone and 4 large ones from Mick Barker, the Combine have slipped further down the slope. Parkdale were suitably served by Team Sullivan, whilst Rock 'n' Rowley were the major goal scorers in a critical away victory.

Tips

No time to lose here as the season is fast approaching the first main break. As I suspected, Parade are starting to piece things together, and a home game against Hampton Rovers (set your alarms early boys, it's a good hour trip!!!) should see Parade string two wins together. Parade by 3 goals. Parkdale host a resurgent Monash and I reckon the Students are a good thing at the moment. Monash by 31 points. The Marquee Match-Up has to be STBMT versus Old Camberwell at Mentone Reserve, where I think the visitors will put up a good fight, but fall 16 points short. The Jackas at the Wick are usually a good thing, but Ormond will be seething. Expect a quick, exciting tussle here, with the Monders home by 5 points. Finally, the RebNob Cup is up for grabs at W T Peterson, I managed to inspect the surface there during the week, and it definitely will suit the home side. Fitzroy comfortably, well by 5 goals methinks.

ROUND FIVE REVIEW

In a close game at Keysborough, Old Geelong narrowly prevailed (by seven points) over a persistent Old Mentonians, whose newly endowed Centurion Rowan Ball was amongst their best players. It was close all day, with the OGs just that little but stronger in the final term. Matt Vasey was the last quarter hero for Old Geelong with four goals in the fourth stanza.

Prahran found it difficult to breach the Bulleen-Templestowe defence, succumbing to the Bullants by 44 points at Toorak Park. The visitors also exploited the wings at Orrong Road to great effect, the result evident on the scoreboard. Matty Bain's collection of freakish goals for the Bullants was worthy of any highlight film.

Another nail-biter, this time in heavy conditions at John Pascoe Fawkner Reserve, saw Rupertswood take the bacon by a seven point margin over Therry Penola. Not one for the aesthetes, with both sides making basic skill errors on a regular basis, frequently turning over the ball. Rupo in particular failed to show full efficiency in front of the posts, and it was their backline, featuring the likes of Timmy Boxall, David Collins and Kurt Shaw that led the way.

Out at Bennetswood, Old Carey established a healthy lead at the half time break, and it was pretty much even from then on in, as the Panthers beat St. Leo's Emmaus by 32 points. Again, not necessarily great to watch as a spectacle, despite relatively good conditions. Josh Carr was a shining beacon of skill for Carey, while for the Animals, Anthony Ballard battled hard in the ruck before being moved with greater effect to centre half forward.

Finally, yet another thriller saw Banyule get up by six points against Yarra Valley.

ROUND SIX PREVIEW

Bulleen-Templestowe host Old Mentonians at Ted Ajani Reserve, having eased themselves into the four. The Bullants should be reasonably confident of their chances, although the Panthers have been competitive for the greater part of their season so far. Jordan Wise and Greg Chivers continue to exhibit their class at this level for the home side, while players at Old Mentonians could do worse that follow the lead set by the ever reliable Danny Field. Winning form is good form however, and it's hard to overlook Bulleen-Templestowe today.

Prahran make the journey to Warringal Parklands for their match against Banyule. The Bears have started to get their season back on track with wins in the last two weeks, and will fancy their prospects of squaring their win-loss ledger against the struggling Two Blues. Michael Radywonik will be a key figure for the Two Blues, but I'm not confident in their ability to capitalise on the opportunities he'll provide in the ruck contests. I'll take the Bears today.

Yarra Valley OB take on Emmaus St. Leo's at Domeney Reserve in a game between two teams in the ladder's nether regions. Valley are seventh on the ladder, but have only one win after five rounds. The Animals are still seeking their first win of 2006, and I'm sure will see this as a great opportunity to break their duck. At home, and with the likes of James Kearn setting the pace, it's the Valley boys for me.

At Como Park, it's Old Geelong versus Therry Penola between two of the better teams so far this season. Whilst some may say that the wheels are beginning to fall off the Lions bandwagon, they are in the midst of a very difficult part of the draw. Both sides have been very sound defensively this season, and have certainly had their moments up forward. If it eventuates, a head-to-head duel in the midfield between Mark Vickers-Willis (OG) and Darren Goodwin (TP) will be one to savour. If they play to their full capacity however, then there is no reason why the OGs shouldn't win.

Finally, the undoubted match of the round takes place in Sunbury, as Rupertswood square off against Old Carey. Both teams have yet to lose a game between them, and must be certainties for this year's finals on current form. Both sides are stacked with talented youngsters, have ironclad backlines and fit, hard-running midfielders. Rupo's ability to win the close ones has been extraordinary, and this could be advantageous. Old Carey are still awaiting the return of regular senior players, and despite having done well with an understrength line-up, this may be a bridge too far. Tough call, but at home, I'll throw my lot in with Rupo.

Please submit any match reports, milestones, social notes, etc. via email to both Peter.PS.Williamson@centrelink.gov.au and theqwll@hotmail.com (as I have no idea where I'll be each Monday!), ideally by 5pm Monday (please take into consideration our space limitations). Have a great VAFA weekend, "The Quill"

M I L E S T O N E S

Old Mentonians wish to congratulate Rowan Ball and Justin O'Brien, who played their 100th and 50th games for the club respectively in last week's game against Old Geelong. Rowan came up via the U/19's, playing for the VAFA rep. team and is now a valued member of the senior side. He has come a long way since his verbal stoush with Austen Tayshus at Elsternwick Park. Justin, work commitments permitting, and when he's not at the gym building the body beautiful, is a consistent and important member of the reserves. We look forward to many more games from these two great clubmen. Well done Ballsy and Juzzie. Congratulations also to the Old Geelong duo of Charlie Atkins and Tim Carey. Hardworking midfielder Charlie played his 50th game against Old Mentonians last week after joining the Ogs in 2003, winning the Reserves B & F in his first year and playing in the Reserves premiership in 2005. Tim also joined in 2003 and is due to play his 50th this weekend. Tim has been a consistent, reliable defender in the reserves who's also known for sneaking forward for the occasional goal. Congratulations Hollywood and TC from all at the Oggers.

CLUB WAREHOUSE RISING STAR NOMINATION

ROUND 5

MATTHEW HANDLEY (OLD XAVERIANS)

Old Xaverians full forward, Matthew Handley, is the nominee for the Club Warehouse Rising Star Nomination for Round 5. Has anyone had a better start to their Amateur career than Matthew?

In the Round 1 game against University Blues he began the game on the bench in the seconds. With seconds remaining, on the boundary line he snapped one from 40 metres to give his team a three point win. He followed this up with bags of 10 and 7.

In Round 4, Matthew was promoted to the seniors and didn't disappoint. His first six kicks in A Section were all majors and he finished off his debut with 7.

Last Saturday, in a best on ground performance, he had 5 by quarter time and finished the day with a lazy 9. In five matches he has kicked 36 goals after winning last year's Under 19 goalkicking with 65. Matthew is 6' 4" in the old terms, has a quick lead and is able to hold out an opponent with his strength and excellent judgement. He certainly won't be missed by the umpires with his blond hair and athletic features.

Well done to Matthew and we may be seeing a new generation of glamour forwards in the VAFA.

D2 SECTION

by Jono Healy

Top played bottom last Saturday and Willy gave Peninsula a good run for their money. It shows that D2 this season is very even. Saying that and due to popular demand, here is my premiership market.

- $ 3.20 - Peninsula OB
- $3.80 - Aquinas OC
- $6.50 - Salesian AFC
- $8 - Oakleigh AFC
- $12 - Werribee AFC
- $21 - La Trobe Univeristy AFC
- $41 - St John's OC
- $51 - Glen Eira AFC
- $81 - Williamstown CYMS
- $101 - Ivanhoe Assumption AFC

My tipping improved last week with four correct from the five games. On to today's games:

Aquinas OC $1.40 v Werribee AFC $2.70

Long road trip for the boys from Werribee here, but with three wins in a row, they will go in full of confidence. Aquinas have been playing well too, and with their only loss so far this season to St John's by one point, coach Mike Glassborow fears no other club in the competition. Youngsters Shane Cooper and Sean Leonard were good for Aquinas in their hard fought 33 point win against Glen Eira last Saturday along with Andrew Barrie at centre half back and the ruck later in the match. The Lee boys were in the goals for Werribee in their 101 point demolition of La Trobe, and Dean Whitten and Andrew Tedeso continued with their good seasons thus far. Aquinas at home should be too strong here. Experienced Aquinas on-baller Glen Whitehead will get his side over the line here by 30 points.

Ivanhoe Assumption AFC $1.80 v Glen Eira AFC $1.90

Ivanhoe Park is the venue for a crucial match today between two clubs who could be staring down the prospect of relegation this season. The Hoe's were never in the hunt against Oakleigh last Saturday, and after in form ruckman Chris Hunter went down injured in the third term, their task was made even harder. Hunter remains in doubt for today's game, and his presence will be missed if he does not pull the boots on. Hoe's backman Andrew Wood impressed in his third senior game for the club as did Dave Neilson and Steve Graham. Glen Eira started their match well but were overrun by a determined Aquinas outfit. It was the usual suspects of Massis, Tsirogiannis and Sheedy which kept Glen Eira in their game and this trio will need to find plenty of the ball today if they are to take the four points back to Carnegie. Tough match to pick. I think it will be tight. If Hunter plays, I think the Hoes will get the points. Ivanhoe by 7 points.

La Trobe University AFC $1.33 v Williamstown CYMS $3.10

La Trobe were on the wrong side of a 101 point drubbing against Werribee in round five, and will be happy to be back playing in Bundoora today. Willy's form on the road this year has been quite good, as shown by their tight tussle against Peninsula last week. It was great to see inspirational skipper Tim Wheeler back in the side and his six majors almost got his side over the line. La Trobe will need big games from Pruscino, Waterman and Fehring if they are to bounce back to some good form here while Willy will fancy their chances at this ground as they have won here before. If McGuinness and Cocks can win the ball in the midfield and get it down quickly to Wheeler one out, then we could see an upset here. However, at La Trobe I have to side with La Trobe. The students to win by 19 points.

Salesian AFC $1.70 v Oakleigh AFC $2.05

This local derby at Bosco Street will surely see some fireworks. Both sides had big wins last Saturday and this match may be crucial come the end of the season. Salesian were strengthened by the return of Adam Davey and Liam Kelly into their backline in their 61 point win over St John's, and along with Andrew Thain up forward, they proved far too strong for St John's. Oakleigh thrashed Ivanhoe Assumption with star Trevor Bromley snagging five goals for the match including four in a row in Oakleigh's nine goal second quarter. Bromley will once again be the key man if Oakleigh are to get the four points today, and his midfield matchup with Aaron Stevens or Shane Oldfield will go along way in deciding who takes the points. Should be close. Salesian by 12 points.

St John's OC $2.20 v Peninsula OB $1.60

Two losses on the trot for the Jocs' and a must win game for them today against ladder leaders Peninsula. St John's played well for two quarters last Saturday against Salesian but couldn't hold off Salesian for the whole match. Peninsula were made to work hard for the four points against a desperate Williamstown outfit, and today's match will be no easier for them. Powerhouse forward Matt Phaedonos, and the lanky Aaron Abela can pose opposition backmen big problems if they are on song for St John's, and they will need to be on top of their game today if they are to knock off the premierships favourites. Payzey snagged a lazy six last Saturday for Peninsula, however St John's have many options to man up on him. Reed Powney is due for a big game today for Peninsula and I expect them to get the points by 23 points.

FOR THE LOVE OF THE GAME...

• VFA Representative Squads trimmed

The Representative Squads for this year's games were this week shortlisted from those originally announced. The squads are listed on the VFA website.

• VFA U23 v Western Australia

Just a reminder to VFA followers to get down to Sportscover Arena next Sunday (June 4th), to see the cream of the VFA's young talent take on Western Australia. The two sides are both locked at 4 points each at the top of the AAFC table. The winning side from the Tri-Series (over three years) receives the most representation of players for the forthcoming tour of Ireland in 2007. The VFA is not only keen to see that our strong tradition of success continue in AAFC games, but as many of our boys as possible receive the chance to represent Australia on the Ireland tour. So get behind the "Big V" on June 4th and show your support for the rising stars of the VFA.

• Cystic Fibrosis "Bangers and Cash"

Over last weekend, clubs were asked to collect money for Cystic Fibrosis Victoria in the annual "Bangers and Cash" promotion. We are looking forward to tallying sizable donations to this worthwhile cause from our member clubs. The "Bangers and Cash" Challenge is run as a lead up to the Cystic Fibrosis Community Cup on June 10th between the VFA and the Southern Football league. The club that raises the most funds between the two leagues will win a sensational new BBQ from Barbeques Galore. Club Secretaries are asked to bring in their Collection Tins with them to the VFA Secretaries meeting on Monday June 5th. All tins must be returned as we have registered their numbers with CFV.

• Certificate of Merit

Barry Hickey

In his 16 years in official capacities with both Old Carey GFC and the VFA, there aren't many roles Barry has not undertaken. Since joining the OCGFC Committee in 1990, he has been Secretary, Minute Secretary, Football Manager and VFA Member. For the OCGFC Football Department he has been Fitness Coach, Back-up Reserves Coach, Sports Trainer, Chairman of Selectors and Team Manager for the Seniors, Reserves and Club XVIII sides.

Barry has always had an active involvement in not only the running of his club, but also with the running of the Association as a whole. For the VFA he has undertaken the voluntary roles of Amateur Football Scribe for 14 years, Finals Duty Officer for 7 years and Investigations Committee Member for 5 years. He also assisted the VFA Representative Sides as Properties Officer and Interchange Steward for 3 years running.

Barry was recently an Executive Member of the VFA from 2003-2005 as well as a member of the Administrative Committee of the Executive during the same period.

Barry has been a loyal servant of the OCGFC and the VFA in whatever role he has undertaken and has been awarded Life Member of the OCGFC.

The VFA would like to thank Barry for his contribution to both his Football Club and the Association as a deserved recipient of a VFA Certificate of Merit.

• Bonus for Beaumaris

Beaumaris Football Club were delighted to see John Condon from Elite Financial Solutions (EFS) attend their game a few weeks ago. John brought with him a cheque for $1020 to donate to their club after one club member took out a housing loan using his business. EFS became a sponsor of the VFA this season and your club could be the winners. "We are delighted to be part of the VFA," said John. "This is the first loan to have been generated by a VFA club and we are pleased to be able to give some money to the clubs which support us.

I'm sure Beaumaris will be delighted to have an extra $1000 to assist in the administration of their club." If you need to get finance for a housing loan or compare rates, ring John at Elite Financial Solutions on 9375 4259. The Sharks players repaid the favour with a nail biting victory over St Kevin's.

• Inaugural VFA Ladies Lunch

The hard working women behind the VFA clubs are holding a luncheon in the Ebeling Room at the MCG on Friday June 16. Get a table together or come by yourself to listen to the stories from ABC journalists, Angela Pippos and Jane Clifton. Angela is the author of The Goddess Advantage and Jane is passionate about women in local sport and is a regular guest on Red Symon's breakfast program. $65 per head gets you a two course meal and drinks. For more information contact Executive Member Davina Connors-Calhaem on 0425 724 351.

• From Pit to Palace

The VFA were hosted at St Bernard's for their clash against University Blues last Saturday. No longer do visitors have to put up with cramped rooms, concrete floors cold showers and visitors from the local marshes. The state of the art complex has multiple change rooms, medical rooms for both teams and an entertainment area that boasts a better view than the Medallion Club at Telstra Dome. If you are watching your team play there this year, be sure to get up to the afternoon tea at half time of the main game, the best $5 you will spend. Seems like everyone is happy at the pit, with their Seniors sitting nicely on 4 wins with victories over Old Haileybury and Uni Blues on their home patch.

• Class of '63

St Bernard's are also holding a reunion this weekend for their 1963 Seniors and Reserves E Section Premiership sides. A big day is planned for the members of these sides and I'm sure by the end of the day the stories will be bigger than Ben Hur. Sadly, a number of players from these teams are no longer with us and the boys will have plenty of fond memories of those times. The Senior match promises to be a beauty with the in form St Bernard's unit taking on the undefeated Old Scotch side. Some of the "family friendly" stories from the day may appear in next week's issue.

• Bollywood comes to the VFA

There will be an extra bit of excitement this Sunday at Sportscover Arena with a Bollywood film company filming some scenes during the match between Old Haileybury and Marcellin. The story revolves around the "Hero" taking his love interest to a game of Australian Rules Football. Australian extras have been hired by the company to boost the atmosphere – extras that have knowledge of our game and know the appropriate time to cheer. The Film will acknowledge the support of the VFA and the clubs in their credits and some of the action may even make it into the movie, to be viewed by millions of people.

• Joke of the Week

A dietician was addressing the VFA Representative Team during the week.

"The material we put into our stomachs is enough to have killed most of us sitting here years ago. Red meat is awful. Soft drinks erode your stomach lining. Chinese food is loaded with MSG. Vegetables can be disastrous, and none of us realizes the long term harm caused by the germs in our drinking water.

But there is one thing that is the most dangerous of all and we all have, or will, eat it.

Can anyone here tell me what food it is that causes the most grief and suffering for years after eating it?"

Peter "Agate" Harris in the front row stood up and said, "Wedding cake."

... Retrospective

by Geoff Reilley

5 YEARS AGO - 2001

Old Essendon were shaping as the main threat to Collegians' leadership in C Section and they also boasted strength in their reserves' team who were sitting second with a strong percentage. At home, Essendon held off a persistent Glen Eira to win 14.17 to 11.13 but Glen Eira were certainly proving worthy of the fourth place on the ladder. The main difference in the game was Old Essendon's 8 goals into the wind compared with Glen Eira's 1. Best for Essendon were Oxnam, Heritage, Healey, Wollington, D Flaherty S Fleming and big Hakim kicked 4 goals. Glen Eira acknowledged the efforts of Massis, King, Pinniger, Gilmore (4), Thursfield and Astapenko.

In D1 Section, Old Carey fell at the last hurdle against Old Geelong who looked well beaten 20 points down into time on. OGGs then kicked 4 in as many minutes and their final score line, 16.4 to Carey's 14.13, on a windy day, was testament to the value of accuracy in front of the big sticks. For OGGs, Will Paul was sensational and Redlin put in a huge effort all over the ground. The other two Pauls, J & T were also most effective. Chris Battle was a rock in defence for Carey and Cal Phillips and Andrew Kent were good contributors.

Eivion Bowen was writing for D2 Section and was of the opinion that Mentone Amateurs had already confirmed their superiority over the rest of the grade. His reasoning, and fair enough, was Mentone's comprehensive victory over previously undefeated Salesians, 20.11 to 11.12. Tony Macgeorge kicked his usual bag for Mentone but still didn't make the best – O'Heara, Ogier, Dixon, M Barr, Rowley and Stephens got the nod. Nannes, Canavan, Bobetic, Gaspari, Sutherland and R Stevens were best for Salesians.

D2 Section coaches were Serge D'Angelo (Kew), Andrew Sutherland (La Trobe), Tony Macgeorge (Mentone), Russell Bruerton (Oakleigh), Laurie Zarafa (Parkside), Chris Gawne (Peninsula OB), Peter O'Connor (Power House), Matt Sexton

(Salesian), Paul Cook (West Brunswick) and Darren Williams (Williamstown CYMS).

In 'Umpires Corner', their scribes, Dianne Whiteley and Anthony Simpson, congratulated Leah Gallagher, Paul Dineen and Luke Moncrieff for 'breaking the ice' and umpiring their first B Section game.

10 YEARS AGO - 1996

Phil Stevens spoke of the Junior sections in his editorial and announced that due to unprecedented numbers, a fourth division of U19 football had been introduced in this season. The new teams were Aquinas, De La Salle (2), Old Haileybury, Old Paradians (2), Old Trinity and Yarra Valley OB. Phil also stated 'it is worth noting that six of the present Section 1 junior teams are linked to A Grade clubs', confirmation to those of us who expounded the virtues of striving to have your junior teams play at the highest levels! Phil also paid tribute to the outstanding work of executive member, Max Lyon, who after an outstanding 9 year contribution to the welfare of the U19 competition was taking a well earned rest. For the 1996 season, the role previously handled by Max was to be assumed by a sub-committee of seven!

Paul Luby was writing for B Section and predicted that we may see a century goal kicker in the section as it rained goals in fine weather. At the home of the VAFA Old Ivanhoe was the home side and hosted Old Brighton in a key game for both clubs. As predicted it was an enthralling contest with Old Ivanhoe jumping out of the blocks with 6 first quarter goals to hold a 17 point lead. Douglas (3), Pidoto (5) and Lachlan McLean (4) were very dangerous forwards for Ivanhoe and caused a headache for the Brighton defenders all day. Brighton rallied in the second term and matched Ivanhoe in the third as Perry (5) and Murch (7) stamped their mark on the game. The final quarter was fast and furious, to the extend that umpire Graeme Thwaites handled the whole game in the second half due to his partner's "hammy" giving way. It looked as though Ivanhoe would hold on until Simon Lennox snapped brilliantly for Brighton in the dying moments (32.20 to be exact) and the Tonners got home by 5 points. Rikarby was outstanding in the ruck for Brighton. Pappas, Parker and Tully were added to Ivanhoe's best.

20 YEARS AGO – 1986

In A Section Ormond kept in touch with the top four when they defeated De La Salle at East Malvern. Ormond had to stage a comeback after De La played an excellent third term with 6 goals to 1. In a tight last quarter Ormond found enough to beat the fancied D's 12.13 to 10.12. The enigmatic Joey Young kicked 5 for the Monds and was joined by Tobin, Kingston, Ross Tonkin, Nash and Phil Mehrten in the best players. For De La the best were Cooke, Deveson, Ryan, Maher, Campbell (4) and Donlen.

All at Banyule congratulated Martin Legge on his 100th game. Martin was also known as an excellent basketballer and fine cricketer and had all round qualities in football as an on-baller and goal scorer.

30 YEARS AGO – 1976

De La Salle, the previous season's B Section premiers, suffered their first defeat in A Section when they went down to Old Trinity 7.10 to 6.7. De La held on to top spot by percentage, closely followed by St Bernards and North Old Boys. Trinity held sway for the whole game and their best were Hansen, Beck, Bill Peers, Rob Peers, Emerson, Weir and Dawson slotted three goals. Dunn, Cook, Wright, Lyons, R Halassa and Loft were De La's better players.

Old Scotch, top in B Section, played bottom team Old Carey and were in for a bit of a shock early on as Carey jumped the Scotchies to hold an 8 point lead at the first change. Scotch then took control and with Peter Sherwen dangerous up forward maintained their stronghold for the remainder of the game before running out winners, 15.14 to 7.9. King, Kefford, Speer, Marx, Cox and Sherwen (5) for good players for the ladder leaders. Rowe, Glenn, Rooney, Tappas, Yeo and R Elliott worked hard for Carey.

Geelong identity, Jim Fidge, was previewing D Section and was the leading tipster for the season to date. Syd Whitfield, covering E Section, was really 'dragging the chain' with only 8 wins, plus a draw from 20 games!

40 YEARS AGO – 1966

In B Section, Kew continued their unbeaten run, this time at St Kilda CBC's expense, 15.12 to 12.11. Mullin, Blay, Crowe, Bennet, Gartner and Warner were Kew's best players and Milner kicked 4 goals. Carey, P Dankert, T Dankert, Egan, Hoy and Vermay were CBC's best and B Quirk kicked 3 goals.

Personality of the week was Power House legend, Les Gordon. Les' last two hundred games of his total 260 had been consecutive and he was regarded as knowing the "Ross Gregory" like the back of his hand. Les was also senior coach at Power House.

50 YEARS AGO – 1956

National Bank moved into second place in E Section with a strong performance against Brighton, 18.20 to 11.5. The bankers' best were Dick (5), Drummond, Willoughby, Morris, Wooley and Lewis. Brighton said that Linke, Murray, Tunks and Boland all "showed tons of determination".

Great contest in the Junior Section between Ormond and Hampton Scouts with the winner taking fourth spot and the loser staying outside the top four. Hampton started better and retained a 7 point lead at half time in a low scoring affair. Ormond kicked 4 goals to 1 in the third term to gain the ascendancy and held of the fast finishing Scouts with the final result, 8.10 to 8.6 in the Monds' favour. John Taylor did a great job at half back for Ormond and was supported by Barry Mann and Kevan Chalker. No mentions from the Scouts' camp!

In Social Notes, a very interesting passage from Uni High School Old Boys – 'Notice of motion for next UHSOB committee meeting – no player or official shall participate in any wedding ceremony between the hours of 2.00pm and 6.00pm on any Saturday between April and September without the written consent of the committee. If necessary the said committee will provide a suitable substitute for such ceremony!

With the Swans winning on the weekend, pundits are placing them as flag favourites, however, I feel Bentleigh are still front runners, and am on West Brunswick's bandwagon to be a major challenger. I see the Wickers and the Warriors fighting it out for the other place.

Review

Kew's horror season continued with a comprehensive win by Bentleigh. Much interest surrounded the debut of former Collingwood player Andrew Dimmatina for the Demons, but it was teammate Chris Sharp stealing the show, booting 11. For the Browns, John Simpson's boy "Mutts" was good again while the "Moore Dog" won plenty of hard balls.

Match of the season saw South Melbourne and Elsternwick at Sportscover Arena under lights. In an ugly first half, little separated both sides, and it was still only 3 points between them at orange break. The Wickers superior fitness should have seen them through, however South proved us all wrong with what could be a season defining quarter, as Cheevers went to town to deliver an impressive 23 point win for the Bloods.

West Brunswick easily accounted for UHS-VU by 14 goals. The win was not without its price, with 4 dislocated/broken fingers to two Magpie players. For WB Jarrod Sudholz impressed and set up an intriguing battle next week.

St.Mary's season of woe continued, going down to Monash. Another lapse in concentration for the Saints proved costly. Harrison and Schembri were brilliant at both ends of the ground pulling down marks to give Michael Learmonth some hope to turn it around. For the Gryphons it was Nick Rutherford who set it up in a stellar performance.

No official report from the Old Westbourne/Swinny game, however, some of my Warrior buddies said they were happy to sneak away with the points after trailing late in the match at a ground they had not won at previously.

Preview

My two favourite D3 sides do battle at "the House of Pain" in an intriguing battle of the Westies. Both teams have shown plenty this season, though I think the Magpies go into today's match as deserved favorites. However, as has been the case in their many previous encounters, form counts for little and a close result can be expected. I am particularly looking forward to a potential encounter between Fairfield and Smythe who have had a lot to say to each other in previous encounters. For my tip, I cannot jump off the Magpie bandwagon as I pick them to win a thriller against my old club.

It is "Australia Post Day" at the Postage Stamp as the club's with the two smallest grounds in D3 battle it out for the "Philatelist Cup". Elsternwick are in danger of losing touch with the top four coming off two tight losses in a row should they go down today and will be looking to the return of stars

Greene, Cotter and Mason to turn it around. Unfortunately for the Saints, I cannot see them breaking the duck today even with Cam Armstrong and Luke D'Astoli continuing their good form. My tip is, Wickers by plenty.

Today's match between Kew and Swinburne presents Swinburne's last chance to dance with the D3 big boys, while it provides Kew with an opportunity to pull itself away from the bottom two. It is a tough one to call as the Razorbacks were impressive last week, however I think we will witness the continually improving Kew register win number two and some much deserved breathing space for coach Rohan Doherty.

With a bit of breathing space, and not much chance of making the finals, I am finding it hard to know where the Gryphons will find motivation as they face a Demons side baying for blood. With small men Brad Meehan and Scott Lawry covering more ground than the early settlers and one of the best taggers in D3 in Marn Soufan blanketing Gryphon star Nick Rutherford, it will be Bentleigh by a sizable margin.

Top versus bottom as the South Melbourne juggernaut host UHS-VU in a match that can only go one way. I am anticipating plenty of fireworks as the students pile the numbers behind the ball, but these tactics will just stave off the inevitable as the Swans march on to win by plenty.

Special Mention

The VAFA spirit was shown in the Bentleigh v Kew Reserves game on Saturday. After a severe head clash, the Kew player came to the Bentleigh rooms complete with ice pack still on his own head to check on the progress the Demon who had come off much the worse for wear (broken nose, fractured cheek bone etc).

M I M I L E S T O N E S

Elsternwick congratulate Wade D'Andrea and Joel Washington for their milestone games against South Melbourne last week, 100 and 50 respectively. This week Daniel "Chubba" McGee plays his 200th game. Daniel has been at the club since 7 years old and now hitting 30+ he is an invaluable member of the club.

Elsternwick also congratulate their Jack Neil on his 100th game. Jack recently returned from a two year stint in Wales. On his return he told of how he would go running in the rain after work. His lovely wife would look out at the sleet and snow and ask "why do you do it to yourself?" Jack's reply was that the only thing keeping him going was the thought of coming back to play for the Wickers and he needed to keep himself fit. His hard work paid off, and for the first time he took out the best and fairest in last year's premiership season (after coming runner-up a record 67 times). All wish the big man well.

Cult figure John 'Choc' Liliakis also plays his 100th game this week for the Wicks. This year, Choc put in a massive pre-season. He was duly rewarded with a fit new body, which unfortunately was not enough to qualify him for Big Brother. His nous around goal and sublime skills will ensure that he kicks many a bag this year. Good luck Choc.

Ben "Wildman" Prior plays 100 games with Swinburne this week. A committee member and premiership player, Ben plays an important role in the Swinburne Senior Leadership Group and is always a strong contender for the club's Best and Fairest. Congratulations "Wildman".

South Melbourne congratulate Wade D'Andrea and Joel Washington on playing 100 and 50 games in Red and White respectively. Well done guys, your hardness and loyalty is well respected by every member of our club. Good luck and play well.

ELSTERNWICK PARK GATES

The main gate (Glenhuntly Road) is open every match day.

The rear gate (off St. Kilda Street) will only be open when there are no matches scheduled for Elsternwick Park No. 2 Oval.

When parking in the area behind the grandstand please park in a manner that would allow cars around you to be able to leave.

Players and officials who do not produce tickets at the gates will be counted and the club invoiced accordingly.

Clubs are issued with an appropriate number of tickets for players and officials.

It's the Simpsons!!

No, it's not Homer, Marge, Bart, Lisa and Maggie. It's the VAFA Simpsons – Anthony, Peter, Matthew and Graham.

In an absolute Simpsons extravaganza last Saturday at Toorak Park, the four of them teamed up to umpire a combined total of 1,000 VAFA games. Father Graham, who started in the 1960s, umpired 304 games. Son Anthony (ex-goal umpire), debuted in 1993 and was a field umpire in game 278. Older son Peter (ex-field umpire) who debuted in 1988 ran the boundary in game 323. And Peter's son Matthew (ex-goal umpire) who debuted in 2001 was the other field umpire in game 95. Second time retiree Peter tells us– “The bloke who started it all, Dad tossed the coin in the centre of the ground before the game and the obligatory photos were taken, sun reflecting perfectly off Santo's scone! After the half-time break when Matt called up Bulleen-Templestowe by yelling out from the middle of the ground (as you know the away rooms at Toorak Park are way over the other side of the ground out of site & ear shot). After 3/4 time when I got tired of waiting for the fieldies to do something, the boundary umpires Santo and I decided to whistle up the teams ourselves. Of course they both broke up straight way. Santo and I were getting thirsty by then.

The game having 4x20 minutes and little time on, finishing at 4.20pm ie 1st Crownies at 4.25pm! I then very comfortably slipped back into retirement again, body well and truly shot!

The 'after match' included Dad being presented with the match ball, signed by both coaches.

The Simpson family would like to thank both clubs, and in particular Neil 'Bubba' Wallmeyer and Prahran for hosting us on the day, going well into the 5th quarter.

We would also like to thank the many umpires, families and friends who came to the game and/or joined us for dinner that night. Special thanks to Gavin Roberts, Dom Napoli & Santo Caruso for being a big part of the day out on the ground.”

An absolutely sensational umpiring dynasty that surely must be a record! (Norm Nugent?) A great advertisement for the family that plays together stays together. Simmos – we're all proud of you here at the VAFAU.

Milestones

Congratulations to Anthony (AD) Damen on 350 games. Secondly to Jamie (Pretty Boy) Kvins reaching 250 (at Uni Blues v Old Trinity). Jamie, the fastest man to reach 50 games then the longest to get the other 200 games.

Boys, a few questions to please the readers:

Tell the funniest thing you have seen on the field of play?

AD: Really muddy day, spectator bagging me all day from the fence and I'm on my own in my first season. Late in the last quarter, boundary umpire throw-in slipped and both ruckmen charged and punched the waterlogged ball HARD straight into the mug spectator's face. Knocks him over and when he gets up his face is completely covered in mud, just his eyes showing (like the Three Stooges). All the players and I p---ed ourselves laughing. Had to stop play.

JK: There was once a very attractive football supporter run out on the ground and kiss the umpire during a break in play . . .

Best sledge from a supporter (be careful, AD)?

AD: In front of the club rooms at Glen Eira, spectator yells to me at a boundary throw in, “Hey Ump, I bet I know what you do for a living - you're an airline steward aren't you?”

JK: My friends in the scoreboard at St Bernard's always make me laugh with their comments (not always directed at me!). Helen Kenna from Old Xavs regularly offers me the use of her dog to help with my decision making.

Which amateur player could make a good umpire and why?

AD: There are plenty of players that umpire every game they play in, but Steve Polan (Super), No. 21 of Mazenod actually called decisions correctly more often than not, and from 40-50 metres away whilst standing near the second umpire! Plus he knew every trick in the book so he would know what to look for, where to look and when!

JK: Former players: Bob Girdwood & Anthony Parkin - always forthright with suggestions for the correct way to pay frees but after the match they are happy (more so than some umpires) to receive the feedback for why they might not have the decision right. . . .

Current: Nick Mitchell - he would always make sure the full forwards "finally" get a fair go!

First game: with who and the teams?

AD: Wayne Henry, St Kevins v State Bank D section. I had umpired State Bank the week before in the twos against Powerhouse. The State Bank runner ran past me during the second quarter and said “I don't know why the other ump is trying to teach you. You're killing him!”

JK: At the Brens Oval, UHSOB vs Brunswick. Single umpire in 1989 - I had only umpired country footy to then and wondered if I had the right venue - there were no utes with filled eskies backed up to the boundary fence!!

Thankfully no old ladies with umbrellas either!

Is there anything you wish to still achieve in umpiring?

AD: And if not that, 400 games, and if not that, the ability to ignore the ratbag supporters who get personal with their abuse, be able to report them and make their club responsible for their behaviour.

JK: My wish would be to encourage more players to take on the challenge of umpiring. Former players make for great umpires for so many reasons. Returning their experience to the playing field would really help our great game to grow.

Thank you, Salesian OC Football Club

To Salesians a thank from fellow umpire Paul Tuppen for the way that as a club you look after the umpires during the game & at the after match but also their offer the same warmer welcome to his wife every time she goes to a match when he is umpiring at Salesians home games. Thanks to the club. The hospitality shown by most clubs is greatly appreciated by the umpiring group.

RESPECT THE UMPIRE – RESPECT THE GAME!!

D4 SECTION

by Ed Sill

Yet another intriguing round of D4 footy! Cries of 'I almost tipped this' as North Brunswick had a great win over Syndal. Watch out, here they come! Eltham have now graduated to the 'hotpots' whilst Eley Park continue to confound!

Review

The Eltham Hawthorn duel was top notch up until half time, at which point the Turtles slipped into overdrive, with a 9 goal third quarter. Runco of half back starred whilst Coach Blagrove was a handful up forward with 7 goals. Runnalls was best for the Hawks.

An upset occurred when North Brunswick accounted for Syndal by a mere three points. Recruits McLaughlin and Wall were the winners starts whilst Richardson was the Sinners best.

It was raining goals as Edwards continued his domination of the Power House forward line as he slotted 17 goals. The countdown is on for the magical 100 mark already! He was well supported by Grahek whilst Speakman was again good for Richmond.

Bulleen revved up their form, this time at the expense of Box Hill North. A great start meant they were never really troubled despite a late surge from the home side. Arcoraci again kicked goals up forward whilst Daley was again in good form. One of my favourite D4 players, Riscalla, was good for BHN.

Finally, another great result for Eley Park as they comfortably accounted for Albert Park. Cresswell was in everything for the Sharks whilst the Albert boys were well served by Bennett and Baker.

Preview

Another intriguing round however my bet is that it will take until at least the half way mark before clubs sort themselves out in this grade.

In what a few weeks ago shaped as a mismatch, Eltham welcome North Brunswick. The Turtles were very impressive last week and have been installed as flag favourites. It was great to see North hit back however luck is against as they hit the in form side of D4. Hard to go past Eltham.

Box Hill North makes the short trek across to Eley Park in what could provide to be a pivotal game for the visitors. No doubt the Box Hill boys have improved however they will need to convert some improvement to wins shortly. Eley Park has been the surprise packet with most pundits expecting them to be lower table this year. I haven't gone for them too many times this year however they have me convinced, Eley Park for me!

A close tussle is predicted as Bullen host Power House. Both sides were highly fancied at the start of the year and this game was pencilled in early as a big one. The House have some good form on the board whilst Bulleen have been a touch inconsistent but did return to form with a good win last week. No surprise that Edwards holds the key to this game however I fancy that Bulleen might be able to exert a little too much pressure in the midfield and hence cut down the supply line. Bulleen for me.

Syndal Tally Ho was disappointed to lose to North Brunswick, a game they had pencilled in. They travel to Albert Park in a game that has had me chopping and changing. Expect this to be a close one (like most of the Sinners games this year) however have not written the Sinners of just yet, Syndal for mine.

Finally, Hawthorn will be looking to return to the winners list as they travel the short trip to Richmond for a local derby. Once again, Richmond were more competitive last week however it is hard to see them winning this one, especially as the Hawks welcome back Broomhall and Garlick into their line up.

North Brunswick congratulates Ben McCallum on reaching 100 games. It has been a while in coming for this well respected young man. Probably the only player at Allard Park who owns a suit, he is regarded as a solid defender at Centre Half Back. His courage and attack on the ball & his opponent can never be questioned. Always the consummate clubman, his regular attendance at club functions is well noted by all his peers. Well done to Ben and whatever the future holds, everyone knows that he will put his heart and soul into achieving his goals.

North Brunswick also congratulates Cameron Twaddle on reaching 50 games. A typical left footer, his long penetrating kicks either at goal or deep into the forward line always advantage the Green & Golds. His commitment to making the ball his is there for everyone to see. His hard running trying to make position ensures that his teammates will always look for his searching leads. A joy to coach, his attitude on the track and in games cannot be faulted.

Time for a little nibble, time for a mini mid season review. Lets take it from the bottom.

BV – Yet to win a game...getting mighty close though. Expect big things from Round 18 onwards. SKOBS – Disappointing - the boys are already planning the footy trip from what I can hear. Collegians – Not even the appearances of several celebrities in the Club 18 can save these guys. "Its time to go..... Collegians". Marcellin – two from five and my former premierships favourites (MFPFs) are on the way down. Train like you play boys and don't get spanked by 20 goals again! Old Scotch – Gave the snakey ones a good run last week. Much improved, but you need to do more than that for me. Midfield at best. Rupo – Team of the year I reckon. Just outside the four and ready to pounce. Forget about the blues last week. Eye on the ball fellas. Blues – Record of 4 and one speaks highly. A real Litmus test this week. Will they turn blue or red? St Bernards - After crawling around in the snakepit, they seem to have found their niche. Percentage to play for this week will see them hungry for spot number two. Xavs – Brilliant. Lovin' it. De La – Too big, too skilful, playing with arrogance. I love that sort of stuff.

And the winners of round 6 are.....:

Rupo at leafy, Xavs to humble Blues, De La to smash Marcellin, SKOB, and Bernards to beat an improving BV.

Section 2

The match of the year left Carey behind the stick, saying "we can't kick." The OM's v Panthers bout was close, but looking at the scoreline, Carey's kicking was as indirect as one of Danny Green's punches. (14 behinds). Bull could only muster 2, while Code kicked two for the OM's. 9th defeated 3rd as Brighton recorded their first win against the Raiders. Michael Dewar held Parade sharpshooter, Solomon to a goal and starred in the 16 point win. Brosnahan was strong at CHB, while midfielders Gunning and Jack Geddes powered through the guts delivering to James Sest who kicked with 5. Redmond and Cox were good for the Raiders. The Sharks beat the Fielders in a nail-biter with Shark Doug Pritchard slotting 4. The Wellers made a mess of the T's, pantsing them by 123. And in a 46 point thumping, the Blacks touched up the Friars, who are currently lost in the wilderness. Jess and Linley starred for Blacks.

Caulfield will go down to the beach, playing Brighton who will by high after last week and close to full strength. Their next 3 weeks are against lower ladder sides, so they will be looking to gain momentum. After disposing of the bottom side the Wellers will be looking to do the same against the Sharks, and will by 6 big ones. 10th vs 1st this week and I don't think I will say any more. OM's by a lot.

The Friars host the Panthers. Both sides are coming off demoralizing losses but the Panthers should bounce back by 25 points. In this week's showdown, the Raiders host the Blacks. Parade has surprised me a few times this year but the Blacks have been solid. Visitors by 7 points. bernechich@netspace.net.au

Section 3 Review

St. Bede's Mentone and Oakleigh remain undefeated so far this season after both again won convincingly last weekend. The clash between SBMT and Benteleigh did not live up to its billing with St. Bede's Mentone proving they are a force to be reckoned with even when playing away. They held an eight goal lead at half time thanks to the good work of Chris Mouritz and Robert Swayn and cruised to an 85 point victory, with gun forward Mitch Bodinnar kicking 8 majors. Lee Barrand and Tim Edwards helped themselves to 6 goals each as Oakleigh had little trouble disposing of MHSOB, with Daniel Wills and Michael Doyle providing Oakleigh with plenty of drive. Old Ivanhoe thrashed a hapless Emmaus St. Leo's, while Ormond held off a very determined La Trobe by just 15 points. A cracker of a game was played out between Old Essendon and Ajax with little separating the two teams all day, with Old Essendon holding on by just two points to celebrate their first win of the season. Skipper Huw Wilson led from the Round 6 should be named the Blockbuster Round, for each game's result could go either way. The only team that should be a certainty to win is Ormond at home against Old Essendon, and while I think they will, the boys from Essendon Grammar will be buoyed by the confidence boosting win last week. The two undefeated teams of Section 3 finally meet this week in a salivating clash between Oakleigh and St. Bede's Mentone at Scammell Reserve, and one of these teams will be tasting the bitterness of defeat for the first time come Saturday. Both teams have an even spread of talent and rarely rely on one or two players to get across the line, however saying that, Bodinnar has been a goal kicking machine for SBMT this season and will be a man Oakleigh would need to nullify if they are to get the points. In a tough one to tip, I will stick with SBMT in a close one. Ajax host MHSOB in a very winnable game for them and with David Selzer in top form I am tipping them to take the points at home. La Trobe travel out to Emmaus St. Leo's in another tough encounter for Coach De Bono's troops, however, they have showed so far that they like a scrap and should take the points home with them. Old Ivanhoe versus Bentleigh is another blockbuster that will round out the weekend's games, and with Old Ivanhoe's Daniel Geilings and Mitchell Bodycoat providing the opposition with plenty of headaches, they should get the points at home. U19 Blue Review

The Monash Blues have entered the top four for the first time with an impressive away win against Hampton on the weekend. Monash's Tom Johnstone, Matt Sutherland and Kade Collins took Hampton apart in the first quarter with an 8 goal to 1 start, and they were never headed on their way to a 50 point win. Nick Lyall was one of very few winners for Hampton on the day, and while I have stuck with Hampton in recent times, their time for showing what they can do is fast running out. Parkdale Vultures showed they may be improving with a commendable showing against undefeated Mazenod, but they couldn't get enough of a score on the board. Nicholas Bogar was again Mazenod's best player, with Luke Castledine and Peter Stanley providing him with plenty of support. Liam DeGeorge's 5 goals helped Oakleigh Clayton to thrilling 3-point win against Powerhouse/Sth Mornington, while Old Haileybury remained undefeated with an away win against Old Mentonians. De La had a bye.

Preview

In a mouth-watering Round 6 clash, Mazenod take on a well rested De La Salle this weekend at Central Reserve in what will give us a glimpse of two teams destined to play finals. This is nearly impossible to tip as both teams are yet to taste defeat, however, I will stick with Mazenod only because it is being played at their home ground. Old Haileybury's Chris Casey and Stefan Martin should again be ones to watch as they take on and beat Parkdale at home, while an intriguing couple of clashes make it a tipping nightmare for my good self. Monash Blues play host to Oakleigh Clayton, with both teams coming off confidence boosting wins, but with Sutherland kicking goals and Monash back at their familiar surrounds, they should win in a close one. Powerhouse/Sth Mornington welcomes Old Mentonians in the battle of the byside teams, with both teams in a similar vein of form. Old Mentonians Brad Norton and Jacob Moon were shining lights last week in their lose to Old Haileybury as were Sam Wright and Ben Price for Powerhouse/Sth Mornington in their close one against Oakleigh, so in a tight affair, I will stay with Old Mentonians in a very close match. Hampton has a bye, a week to have a good hard look at where they are at. Send match info into al_vafa@hotmail.com

U19 Red

Section RED is becoming as unpredictable as Chris Tarrant's kicking with two huge upsets on the weekend. Therry took care of a derailed Rupertswood with a comfortable six goal win. Classens and Page were solid in the middle while Costello, Conboy and Jack Walker kicked 3 each. New boys, Old Xavs have definitely found their footing, destroying an Aquinas side that should be hovering around the top of the table. Tom 'Motley Crue' Lee kicked 4 while Austin Ley starred for Xavs. The Bullants won by 9 points but had 9 more scoring shots than the Old Boys. Bad day in front of goal. The Voglis cousins kicked 3 each, while Ford and Kyle Adams were good for the visitors. The Reds walloped early ladder leaders Kew as Chris Ligris registered 5 majors. I might have to start re-thinking this top 4 pretty soon. This week, two teams I'd never think to tip against will go down. Firstly, the Old Boys host Kew and the latter have left me asking questions about their final's chances. NOBSPC in an upset that'll go down to the wire. Second, a lack-luster Aquinas will go down to the Lions, who are on fire at the moment and will take it by 4 goals. Xavs, who are running hot in Section RED, will topple the Bullants who were unconvincing winners last week. Xavs by 23. While the Reds will take Westbourne to the cleaners in a 40 point + demolition at Jock McHale Stadium. Rupertswood go to the pub. berneckich@netspace.net.au

CLUB XVIII SECTION

by Norm Nugent

The big question arising from Round 5 results is; how could I pick the card in Sections 1 and 2 yet only select one winner in Section 3?? In racing terms I would be swabbed! My success rate of 73% was good enough to enable me to look straight ahead at Jonathan Horne (he of 80% success).

REVIEW

Section 1

Prahran continued its upward ascent with a 25 point win over an accurate Old Scotch.

University Blues regained winning form with a 36 point victory over Mazenod.

In the clash of the Old Xaverians at Righetti Oval, the leaders "The Crocodiles" defeated the "Thirds" by 11 points to give further proof to my assertion that intra Xaverian games are closer than inter college clashes.

St Kevin's had a percentage building 102 point win over St Bede's Mentone Tigers, who are struggling to reach the required standard of play.

Second placed De La Salle triumphed over Old Melburnians by 40 points.

Section 2

St Bernard's scored an 87 point win over Therry Penola, whose players tried hard but whose defenders did not always clear the ball with thought. Best for the winners included Tristan McGlade, Travis Carrick and Xavier Cox. Former Fitzroy, Footscray and Victorian footballer Peter Foster came off the bench to score a goal for St Bernards. Therry Penola were well served by Jonathon Brosnan, Andrew Pipinias, Shaun Hayes and the consistent, Dean Boden.

Mt Lilydale had a day out in the hills against Marcellin who fell short by 128 points in the final analysis.

Whitefriars came from 25 points down at the long interval to defeat University Blacks by 8 points in a game where the ascendancy fluctuated in a tense final term. Best for the winners were full back Atkinson, the consistent Travis Jackson and midfielder Hennessy.

Fitzroy Reds defeated the inaccurate Collegians by 26 points at the Peterson Reserve. Their best were Daniel Flanagan and Damian Hannam while Collegians' Captain Matthew Day was their best.

Monash Blues gave another powerful display when they accounted for Old Brighton Grammarians by 140 points. Monash, who were well served by Phil. Arnott, John Gaffney, Luke Richardson and Tom Haines (8 goals) increased their lead in each quarter.

Section 3

Emmaus/ St Leo's found winning form quickly as they bounced back to defeat Old Trinity by 11 points. My early premiership favourites Caulfield Grammarians slipped from first to second through their 16 point loss to the improving La Trobe University. Old Geelong faltered against Old Scotch when they lost by 12 points. North Old Boys/ St Patrick's triumphed at Beaumaris when they defeated the home side by 28 points in a high scoring game. Fitzroy Reds went to Section leadership when they defeated a lack lustre Old Essendon Grammarians by 16 points at McHale Stadium. Old Essendon can blame their scoreless first quarter as a primary reason for their defeat. Their best were Hughes, Poulton and the evergreen John Chapman.

from the leaders, Old Xaverians. After today I expect the Xaverians will be a game ahead as they will prove too experienced and talented for the students.

Old Xaverians 2 should be able to record their first win of the season by defeating St Bede's/ Mentone Tigers at the T.H.King Reserve.

Long standing rivals St Kevin's and De La Salle should play another closely contested match, which will be a test of talent for each team. To the winner will go the Anthony Molan Cup in honour of the late St Kevin's player. I favour St Kevin's because of their form over the last few weeks against Old Xaverians and Mazenod. It seems the greater the pressure, the better St Kevin's play.

Old Scotch at home, should prove talented enough to defeat Mazenod.

Prahran, with their perennial stars now returning to their zenith should win again over Old Melburnians.

Section 2

The two winless sides in Marcellin and Old Brighton meet in Bulleen Park. Old Brighton have scored more over the five weeks and as forwards win matches, I select them albeit without much confidence.

Therry Penola could spring an upset by defeating Mt Lilydale at Oak Park, where many visiting teams have crashed over the seasons. Mt Lilydale are an enigma; lions at home and lambs away as their scores indicate. I select them solely because I know Therry Penola are not the strong side they once were. Is this enough ammunition, Bob?

Whitefriars were impressive last Saturday as their well balanced side overcame the Blacks. Today, at home, they should account for Collegians, who will find Donvale a strange environment.

The academic clash at Monash between the all conquering Blues and the Melbourne Blacks should be a cerebral affair from which a lot of players should emerge livid. The Blacks threw away their chances last week and today they will find the Blues just as talented. I select Monash Blues to win again.

The contest between leaders Fitzroy Reds and would be finalists St Bernard's at the "Snake Pit" should be one of high standard and one which could determine the real strength of each side. Luke Vassallo is a bonus for St Bernard's who field several former A Section players along with a sprinkling of youth under the experienced tutelage of Andrew Vincombe, Brian Moon and now Peter Foster. I doubt the Reds can match this, especially in the unfamiliar St Bernard's environment, which has intimidated many sides.

St Bernard's should win.

Section 3

Caulfield Grammarians, who faltered on the big ground last Saturday, should be able to defeat Old Geelong at Glenhenty.

Emmaus/ St Leo's are a week to week proposition according to their erratic record. On the other hand, La Trobe University is enjoying a successful season. It is virtually an "eight point" game for La Trobe as Emmaus St Leos is their main challenger for fourth place. I can't win with the Combine; they lose when selected and win when not. I select them again, purely because the game is at Bennettswood.

Old Essendon have the chance to regroup against the rising in confidence, North Old Boys/ St Patricks, who won well last round. Old Essendon were not impressive early last week and to be sure of victory they must play out the full four quarters. Old Essendon are my selection.

Old Scotch should comfortably defeat Beaumaris, who languish in tenth place.

Fitzroy Reds, who show more skill each week should defeat Old Trinity on the Hudson Oval, whose size will not intimidate the Reds and whose enthusiasm and team work should see them emerge victorious.
