

Chairman's Report

by Nicholas Bourke

Representative Football

Representative Football is once again looming large on the VAFA calendar, 2006 being one of the busiest years with four games to be played through June and July.

On Sunday June 23, our U/23 team play Western Australia at Sportscover Arena. With Frank Dunell at the coaching helm, the team is sure to be primed for the contest. This is the second of a three year Round Robin contest. Currently Victoria and Western Australia share the lead on four points, with South Australia yet to have a victory.. As an added bonus, players who perform well give themselves every chance at being selected in the AAFC team scheduled to tour Ireland in 2007. Unlike the last tour, the team will be selected from games played over a 2 year period, commencing with this match.

The VAFA Board has for some time been seeking a suitable representative game for our U/19 team. Unfortunately this age group has presented a number of problems for other competitions and as such, finding a team has been difficult until now. Much to our delight, we have been able to arrange a match against the AFL Queensland U/21 team to be played at the Gabba as a curtain-raiser to the Brisbane v. Adelaide match. This should be an enormous thrill for those players selected and will no doubt provide a lasting memory.

Ex AFL and VAFA player and coach Justin Pickering won the coveted coaching position and judging by the size of their squad, he is enthusiastic to select the best we have for the June 10 game.

Back in Melbourne on the same day, George Voyage once again does battle with the Southern Football League as our A-D4 rep side battles for the Cystic Fibrosis Cup. The game will be played at the Clayton Football Ground. Over recent years this contest has provided a highly competitive close result. As always, George and his contingent of assistants will be thoroughly prepared for the encounter.

The final match on the representative calendar this year will be again at Sportscover Arena, on Saturday July 15 when South Australia heads to Victoria for the second round of U/23 AAFC Championship matches.

The VAFA have a proud and long history of representative football dating back to 1925. More often than not for those who have been selected to wear the 'Big V' it is the highest standard of football they will experience. The memories of such an encounter and friendships created can last a lifetime, as has been witnessed at recent reunions of past Victorian teams.

On behalf of the VAFA Board may I offer our full congratulations to those selected and wish you all every success in your endeavours.

A SECTION

by Jonathan Horn

From Hollywood Handley to Bollywood Nicho

It's funny, amateur footy. The stars of A Section generally fall into two categories. The bloke who teeters on the edge of AFL, comes back, trains hard, takes it very seriously and becomes a stalwart of his club. Guys like Dinneen, Ockleshaw, Blood and Ramsden. Then there's your more enigmatic type, the sort of player who may not have played a heap of juniors and who sometimes leave you scratching your head as to how they didn't make it at a higher level. Think Jordan, Mannix, Gerstman. Guys who could only bob up in the VAFA. Not necessarily percentage players and hair tearing material for their coaches, but great to watch nonetheless.

Xavier's Matthew Handley undoubtedly falls into the latter category. Watching him for the first time on Saturday, casually slotting three goals in a quarter against an Ivanhoe side that floods back relentlessly, you couldn't help but think of Dan Jordan. Big, laconic and deadly accurate. He's still very much an unknown quantity but he may well hold the key to A Section footy this year. But enough of Handley; Old Ivanhoe played top shelf footy to knock off the reigning premiers. Nick Butler in the ruck, Luke Lochran at his feet and Rowan Weddle up front all impressed. The Hoers are in this comp right up to their ears: they're rugged, push back hard and never give in. Toovey and Branigan are still to return.

Has the world gone completely topsy-turvy? Peter Nicholson and Chunky Dobson featuring in a Bollywood film? Well it happened on Sunday as Sportscover Arena provided the backdrop for an all singin', all dancin' Mumbai hoo-ha fest. The plot was infinitely more complex on the field however, as Marcellin doggedly fought back after an early Haileybury Blitzkrieg. Just as the Eagles looked as though they could run over them, backman Brett Carson, who I can't remember even having kicked a goal, snagged four in fifteen minutes to put the result beyond doubt.

Very significant that Haileybury slotted Brett Trollope and Mark Corrigan into their line up.

Both are a little underdone but their mere presence spells all sorts of danger for the rest of the comp. They also blooded one of the more intriguingly named players of recent times, a youngster from Beaconsfield by the name of Tobias Godberhere. Full credit to Marcellin, who showed a lot of pluck to peg back a six-goal quarter time deficit. Jake Symes, Daryl Marson and Brett Dobson were all good.

What about De La? Where do they stand in the scheme of things? One thing's for sure, Damien Rayson is definitely living up to the hype, while Jarrod Maloney's stocks have risen considerably. And a ten goal final term emphasises just how fit they are. Will Ray and Mark Hawkins tried their hearts out for the Grammar.

Quarter time on Saturday and Uni were staring at a 1-5 start.

Couple of hours and 18 goals later, they're back in the hunt. Barometer players: Gleeson, De Crespigny, Lowcock, all dominated. Alex Popko, from up Albury way, is the latest youngster to slot into the side. The draw gets a little easier for the Blues in June so they're still very much in the mix.

And then there's Scotch. In the off season they lost Woodrow medalists, AFL players, Best and fairest winners, club captains, state players, you name it. "Nighty Night Scotchies", we said. They replied by winning six on the trot. Barry Price and Rob Gross have definitely toughened them up, though they've retained their flair up forward. Josh Kitchen, who returned via the reserves, should adapt to the new style of game nicely.

Bernards were OK but missed some absolute gimmies in front of goal. Josh Madden and Daniel Janides impressed again but they lose Chris Liberatore, who is off to Germany to savour some World Cup action.

Today

Tipster's nightmare as many sides will lose players to the rep side. Like Bernards. Given that Potter and Madden will both play for the Big V and in light of their scratchy record at Trinity,

"..." results weren't received. Any discrepancies may be due to non-submission of results by clubs.

I'll go for the home side in a massive upset. Ivanhoe may meet their match in the Badlanders. De La will lose Rayson and possibly Sherman but will be suited by Marcellin's spacious ground and should win. Bowen and Colbert will miss for Xavs, Routledge and Tallent for Scotch. Call that Even Stevens. Has to be the undefeated home side doesn't it, especially at the Colleege? Not so Mary Joe – I'll go for Xavs in another boiler. I may be going a bit batty but I reckon OMs are due to pull one out at the Junction. Not this week though, the Blues should be far too strong.

Marcellin OC congratulates Damien Theisz on 150 games with the club. DT is a dedicated clubman, a terrific person and is passionate both on and off the field. A courageous and attacking defender, 'Tigger' has played in four Reserve Grand Finals (including three in A Grade). He was captain of the Reserves in 2005 and continues to provide leadership and direction to the young playing group. All the Marcellin community wish him well for his big day and for the future.

Old Haileyburians congratulate David Mackenzie on 100 games for the Bloods. David first played Under 19's in 2000 and was vice-captain in 2001 playing the last 5 games in the seniors that year. David was responsible for the original launch and hosting of the OHAFc Website and we all thank him and his father John for keeping us all posted. Well done "Macca".

Old Trinity congratulate two popular players in reaching milestones. Justin Kenna notched up 50 games in the seniors against De La Salle after coming to the club in 2003 and being an U19 vice-captain. Well Done "Jack Knife".

Reserves VC Michael Donahoo, layed his 100th match against Uni Blues after coming from Loyola College in 2001. An astute off-field leader as well, Michael joined the club Committee in 2006 and has also made a great contribution in that regard. Congratulations to both boys. The Old Scotch Football Club congratulates Tim Hosking on his 100th game against St Bernards in the reserves. 'Hos' is a great club man. He is reliable and determined and is knocking on the door for senior selection. Well done Hos from all your mates at Scotch.

• Blood Bank Challenge – Round 5 Winner

Firstly, the good news – the Blood Bank has recorded a slight increase in donors from the VAFA for the same period last year. The bad news – there are still many clubs who have not registered a “Captain Blood” with the Blood Bank and many clubs do not have any registered donors.

Back to the good news – the Round 5 winner of the challenge, that is the club that has the most donors as a percentage of their membership, is Parkdale Vultures. Parkdale will receive 2 Sherrin Footballs for their efforts in achieving a donor rate of 10.8% of their membership. Parkdale managed to pip Peninsula Old Boys who had a donor rate of 10% of their membership, followed by regular winners and enthusiastic supporters of the Challenge in Caulfield Grammarians, who achieved a donor rate of 8.8%. For a full list of the Round 5 tally, go to the VAFA website (www.vafa.com.au).

• The only way is up

Obtaining major sponsors is always a difficult thing, and convincing a company to make such a financial commitment can be like extracting blood from stone. Geotechnical Engineering has not only made this commitment to one club, they have signed up as a major sponsor for two clubs, St. Kevin's and Williamstown CYMS. Although Geotechnical are extremely happy with the sponsorship, both teams are yet to win a game. Hopefully both or a least one of these club will be able to share a victory with their sponsor soon.

• International Flavour

Glen Eira AFC has 6 players with Somalian backgrounds playing with the club this year. They started in the U19's 4 years ago when current Senior Vice Captain Scott Diamond was teaching them at High School. After missing a year in 2004, they started playing senior football last year, with Mahad Farah (The General) being promoted to the Seniors at the end of last season, receiving BOG honours against Ormond in Round 18. This year Mahad has played all Senior games, while Abdi Diyre, Ayub Hassan (Tarzan), Abdirahman Farah (Boss) and Iliyas Adem have played a combination of Senior and Reserve games, with Hassan Hussien playing in the Reserves. The boys came to Australia as refugees from Somalia after being sponsored by Uncles. All are now Australian residents and all are studying tertiary courses at the moment. Mahad is studying Mechanical Engineering, Iliyas and Abdirahman studying Civil Engineering, Ayub Hassan studies Biological Science, Hassan studies Construction and Abdi is completing his Muslim studies.

Matt D'Zilva, President of Glen Eira says, “We are privileged to have them at the club as we are able to learn about their culture while teaching them our game which plays a large part in our culture. They have become valuable and much loved members of our club both on and off the field”.

• Grandson of a gun makes debut

Ned Morrison, Grandson of Magpie's legend and football personality Lou Richards, made his debut for Old Melburnians last week and made an immediate impact. Ned kicked the first two goals for OM's against De La Salle and received the post match award for OM's best player. Ned was Captain of Melbourne Grammar's First 18 last year and narrowly missed being drafted. He was also pictured last year modelling Collingwood's Heritage Round Jumper for the media.

• Themed Matches

FLOTG would like to know of any themed matches which have been organised between clubs. FLOTG would like to promote these games and include stories based around the personalities involved and history behind the games. One such clash involves the Caulfield Grammarians and Beaumaris Clubs, who, since 1996 play each other for the Ken Criswick Shield. Ken was a player and coach at Caulfield and a junior coach at Beaumaris and the shield was struck to strengthen relations between the two clubs. Ken is currently a member of the VAFA Executive. The Shield adds a little more interest to the game when these clubs meet and it epitomises the amateur spirit.

• Certificate of Merit

John Bradley

John Bradley joined Kew Football Club in 1984 when his sons (Lee and Craig) commenced their playing careers there. Previously he had involvements with Bellfield as a player in the VAFA (playing over 50 games) and Alphington Junior Football Club where he was awarded Life Membership.

John's involvement has not diminished over this time and he continues today to fulfil duties that are required every weekend. These include Team Manager, Duty Officer and Match Day Official. On top of this, John is currently Registration Secretary, VAFA Member and Committee Member. He has previously held the roles of President (1999-2003) and Chairman of Selectors. John has also been a member of the VAFA Tribunal Investigations Panel in 2004 and 2005.

John has been awarded Life Membership of the Kew Football Club in 2004 and received a “Certificate of Recognition for Volunteer Involvement” from the Victorian State Government in 1995.

John is highly respected by everyone at Kew and the VAFA community and is a deserved recipient of a VAFA Certificate of Merit.

• Joke of the Week

A child custody case was held in court. The judge felt that the mother and father were both fit to be parents and therefore couldn't decide who he should grant full custody to. So he asks the little boy, “Would you like to live with your mother?”

“No.” said the boy.

“Why not?” said the judge.

“Because she beats me.”

The judge says “Okay, then you'll go live with your father.”

“Oh No,” cried the boy, “He beats me too.”

Dumbfounded, the judge asks “Okay who do you want to live with?”

“I want to live with the Carlton Blues!!”

“Why?” asks the judge.

“Well, they never beat anybody.” Replied the boy.

REVIEW

Old Essendon started to deliver the results their list promises, with a strong win over the Friars who nonetheless impressed with their never say die approach, but OEG held the ascendancy all day. Chris Gouillet racked up heaps of possessions and was the standout followed by Leask, young Tanner, boom recruit Clifton while Twin Towers Hakim was among the goals.

A great second half by the Lions as they found plenty of new avenues to goal to completely decimate the young Blacks with a 13 goal to 1 half. Richard Hosking played a great game across half back, Dick Henebery was terrific around the packs and Patty is pleased with the development of young ruckman James Jorgensen. Blacks were happy with competitive performances from Judd Lalich who was everywhere, and onballer Sheldon and Yeomans down back.

Tremendous game at Old Brighton - sunny and not a breath of wind: I'd like to believe that! The Tonners well on top early with a 7 term opening stanza that was to prove the difference in the end. The Fields pegged that lead back and put the nose in front in the last only to be headed by the home side who won by 10 points in a great game of Ammo Footy. Callan Buckley played a ripper, Antony Bristow ran well out of defense, Blair Mason good early. Tassell, Evans and Gale were all good for Caulfield, Macca and Jamesy also impressed.

The Sharks opened well and had the Noddors under pressure from the start. Mazenod defended very well and were still within range at the main break. Despite a blast from their coach, the visitors could not muster another effort as Beauy took charge of proceedings to record their best performance of the year in perhaps Mazenod's worst. Adam Catlin gave the Sharks his best game for years. His attack on the ball and disposal was first class. Coote and young Heath also good. Dave Hansen again was the Noddors best supported by undersized ruckman Scott Veltman.

St Kevins again put in an honest effort before going down to the fast running MHSOB. But for how long can they tolerate honourable defeats? MHSOB are gradually improving and will trouble some of the others in the ensuing weeks. Tim Dunne was excellent up forward for the High as was Ryan Chard for SKOBS, and old timers Ewan Thompson, Roger McIntyre, Luke Mahoney and Marcus Dollman were good for their clubs.

PREVIEW

Mazenod welcome Old Brighton (and me) to Central Reserve today.

Ladder positions can be put aside here as the Noddors record against the Tonners in previous years has been pretty good so they will certainly go in with a bit of confidence. But their form is not that good and Brighton's is, so visitors for me.

University Blacks beat Beaumaris 4 times in 2005. Can they start a repeat of that dose at the Uni Oval today? Both sides have had personnel changes since though, which makes for a different scenario. Beauy have had less and have a couple of handy inclusions coupled with better form at the moment has me selecting the Sharks.

Whitefriars usually invincible at home welcome Collegians. Pretty classy unit the Lions and while missing a couple to Rep Duties have the depth to replace them, which makes life no easier for the home side. Have been competitive the Friars but will need to be ultra that today if they wish to greet the judge today but will just fail.

SKOB need to dig deep and get angry if they are to break their run of outs no more honourable defeats. OEG have a few on Rep duties but my friend "Smooth" tells me they still have a few to add so at the home of Amateur Football it's Old Essendon for me.

Glenhuntly Park should see a terrific contest between Caulfield Grammarians and MHSOB. The Fields just failing last week and the High pretty good both very evenly matched and play similar games. I'm tempted to have a crack at the visitors but just feel the home ground and home crowd will get Caulfield home.

Beaumaris FC congratulate Brayden Haynes on 100 games. Brayden was an accomplished junior footballer with the Sharks before graduating to captain the Prahran Dragons in 1998. He then returned to Beauy where he won consecutive senior club championships while still eligible for the U/19s. He also played senior representative footy in 1999 and was named in the VAFA All-Stars team in 2000. A stint at Sandringham saw him win their Reserves B & F before returning to the Sharks for another Club Championship in 2003. He played in the C Grade Premiership in 2003 and was awarded the Gardiner Medal for his B.O.G. performance in a game he had dedicated to his great mate, Damien Guidolin, who had passed away earlier in the year. Off the field he is a member of the senior committee helping with social and fundraising activities. We all congratulate and thank Brayden, for his fantastic contribution to the Beaumaris Football Club, and we certainly hope the boys can reward him with a victory today.

Caulfield Grammarians congratulate Simon Widjaja on playing his 150th game this week. Being one of the most popular players at the club, "Widge's many accolades include, B&F winner, VAFA rep, U19 captain and premiership player. Simon epitomises courage and tenacity, and often competes well above his weight. The Field's also congratulate Chris Hammond on his 50th game. After playing senior footy whilst still U19 last season Hammo hasn't looked back, as all at CGFC look forward to his next milestone.

PLAYER EXPECTATIONS

Each season a Player Manual is produced and distributed to every player at the Club. This season, my first at North Old Boys/ St Pats College AFC, was no different. Below is an excerpt from that booklet, outlining my expectations of the playing group in order to achieve an orderly approach to both game day and training.

PLAYER EXPECTATIONS

All players are expected to attend every training session, unless injury physically prevents their attendance.

Players unable to make training due to work, study or family commitments are expected to contact the Senior Coach or their respective grade Coach at least 1 hour before each session commences.

Injured players are expected to attend training, unless they are seeking professional assistance with their injury, or have been directed by one of the Coaches to undertake an alternative form of training. A rehabilitation group will operate each evening and will be supervised by a member of the coaching staff.

Failure to be at the match day venue by 10.30 a.m. for the Reserves and 12.30 p.m. for the seniors, without having advised the reason for your inability to be on time, will result in you starting the game on the interchange bench.

Player appearance is important, particularly in games. Sponsor badges, numbers, etc. must be sewn on correctly and in the correct position. Good quality football wear and equipment is essential to maximizing performance. The Club has produced some top quality game day apparel for purchase. Ideally these will be worn by players and supporters highlighting us a Club of strength and unity.

Where possible, each player should have two pairs of boots (in good condition) and bring them to each and every game. Runners, bathers, towel and mouth guards should be in your bag for every training session.

All players must be financial paying members by the third game of the season. Make a commitment to the Club Treasurer now!

Take care of the facilities and equipment provided for your benefit (in particular footballs).

Thursday night is team selection night – all players are expected to attend the announcement of the teams and enjoy the meal provided by the Club. You should view this as an integral part of Thursday night training.

Warm ups are an essential part of every training session. All players must complete a 10 – 15 minute warm up. The team warm up will commence at 6.15 p.m. sharp.

Players wishing to seek clarification regarding team selection should speak to the Senior Coaches or to the other grade coaches.

It is expected that all players will support the entire Club on match days and Club social functions, where possible. Non attendance must be communicated to the Senior Coach or the respective Grade Coach.

THE POWER OF 2s

Often described as the measure of any successful football club, MHSOBFC is no different when it comes to rating the importance of its Reserves side. So far this year 44 players have played in the Reserves with many of them going on to play Senior football.

some recent good form, are confident of bettering their fourth place finish in 2005.

Current captain Adam Lust (left) is ably assisted by former captain Nick Orchard and new deputy-vic-captains Mark Bowen and Robert Coxon

Mirroring the game plan of the Senior side, the Reserves is essential in providing fringe players and those returning from injury, the opportunity of pushing for Senior selection.

in providing experience for many of the Club's former Under 19s who are coming through the ranks.

Under the guidance of playing coach Tim Wright, (right) the team has had a mixed start to the season but after

The inclusion of the Villani brothers, John Cameron, Mark Neilson, David Cassell and others will hopefully add the necessary ingredients to see this year's side go those few steps further in 2006.

ROUND 6 REVIEW

Let's cut to the chase here, Hampton Rovers are the most annoying club to tip, because they travel some 40km north to face Old Paradians, then rip several VFL stars out of nowhere and record their first ever win at the Garvey Oval to well and truly upset my tipping appletart!!! Nick Greenwood's 6 goals were an obvious highlight as the visitors overtook the Raiders in the final term thanks in no small part to Mark Devereaux, Paul Adams and Guy Martyn. The Parade boys will be scratching their heads over this one but the familiar names keep cropping up and they need better support.

The John White Memorial Shield was up for grabs for the first time at Parkdale where Monash took the points in another impressive display. The match was memorable for many things, including celebrating John's contribution to both clubs, but Monash's first ever win at Parkdale has certainly cemented them in the top 4. Despite conceding the first 3 goals of the game, Monash responded with 5 of their own to lead by 10 points at the first break, and then extended it slightly as Parkdale frittered away opportunities. In the second half, Brock Mackenzie and Luke Creamer took control and Tom Craven plucked everything which came his way. An early home side rally in the last quarter was snuffed out by the Ashers who cruised to a comfortable 6 goal win.

The Wellers' boat was never really af-Loat (get it?) as the Tigers put paid to another challenger at home. SBMT wore their kicking boots for a change and skipped away to a 5 goal lead at the first change, with the coach deciding to hit the paddock for the first time in 2006. Matthew (BOG)Hilton and Peter McGettigan were having a field day up forward, whilst Nick Corda racked up 17 possessions in the first half from half-back. Not content with just winning the game, the Tigers went for the throat on the road home with all Wintles, Anstey, Tyquin and Groves running amok. Old Camberwell could only keep plugging away with Steven Derry valiant in the ruck, Damian McGuigan holding his own down back and Daniel De Sanctis kicking 3 goals.

There was no doubting the southerly zephyr, with old Sportscover Arena northern (Glenhuntly Rd) end seeing more scoring action, as a Jason Ritterman-led AJAX prevailed over Ormond. Ormond really could've set up a handy lead in the third term, but wasted valuable chances, and still trailed by 4 points at the final chnge. The McConville -v- Raleigh battle was probably won by the young buck and this proved handy for the home side, as Lewski, Routman and Markov received plenty of service around the ground, particularly in the final quarter. With Antony Rosen starting to find form next to Aaron Bloom, the Ormond defenders had their hands full after the final change, as they fell 26 points short. Not to be disgraced were Michael Miller, Wayne Cove and Simon Keleher for the Monds. Finally, NOBSPC simply made too many skill errors to seriously challenge Fitzroy at home, handing the RedNob Cup to the Brunswick St Boys. Kane Maghamez bagged 5 twins and Todd Clarke and Simon Keleher were busy little Red men, whilst Sammy Edmunds controlled his wing all day. Given the Redders had plenty of players unavailable, to sneak away with a 22 point victory was a pleasing result. Meanwhile, Killer has plenty of problems as I understand the injury list at the Gillon is nowhere as long as the results would suggest

Tips

As that large Austrian bodybuilder, who is now in charge of the 5th largest economy, once said "if it bleeds, we can kill it". Unfortunately, I think the only blood likely to be drawn at the Gillon this weekend will be in the home rooms after the Tigers maul the Combine by 12 goals. Down at Boss Reserve, both sides will meet on the back of some improving performances, with the victor stealing a break on the chase pack. I'm leaning to the AJAX boys by 2 goals. Ormond have been stumbling lately, but back at home, they should be able to outlast Parkdale by 19 points. The other blockbuster has to be out at Clayton where the Reds try to vault into the top 4 at the Ashers expense. Exams may be on the horizon - but school's still in at Monash - home side by 22 points. Finally Paradians' chances at GBO will depend on who stands in the home goalsquare. Word is it'll be empty again this week, so I think a minor upset is on the cards - Raiders by 7 points.

Monash Blues:	All at the Frearson Oval warmly congratulate the following players on reaching their 50 game milestones:
Luke Leviston, Rowan Shields, Matt Pay, Ameet Bains and Peter Westbrook.	All except Bainsy have graduated from our Under 19 breeding ground in recent seasons. Well done to all the lads and thanks for your fine contributions so far at Monash Blues. Monash Blues also congratulate Matthew Tinkler who recently played his 100th senior game in his favorite turquoise & silver jumper on the Frearson Oval. A tough and skillful onballer in the Greg Williams mould, Tinx is a fantastic contributor to our Club, a very popular clubman (for a paid up corporate club member) and a fierce competitor in any situation. Well done on this special achievement Matthew from all of your many mates at Monash who are always happy to have you in the trenches.
Old Paradians	congratulate Wayne Connolly and Travis Girovski on playing their 50th VAFA games. Wayne commenced with the club in 2002 and we look forward to many more games and some new music on the IPOD. Travis commenced with the club in 2003 and we hope for many more games from you at OP's.

OLD XAVERIANS vs OLD IVANHOE

by Peter Williamson

REVIEW

Emmaus St. Leos started well in their match against Yarra Valley OB at Domeney Reserve, before the home side started winning the centre clearances, which their forwards, especially James Keam, took full advantage of, to run out winners by 64 points. Anthony Ballard continued his recent good form for the Animals.

In the top of the table clash at Sunbury between Rupertswood and Old Carey, it is now Rupo who are now in outright first position, beating the Panthers by 59 points. Rupo got off to a flyer in the first term, showing more run and desire for the game's duration, with Monzell and skipper Collins prime examples. Glynne and Parker tried hard for OC.

Prahran fell to Banyule by 51 points out at Heidelberg, with the Bears in control all day. The second half was an absolute goalfest, with Banyule edging it by the odd goal in 23(!). John Thwaites in the centre did well for the Two Blues, as did defender Jack Matheson and wingman Hamish Hodgson.

Therry Penola lost another heartbreaker, this time at Como Park against fellow contender Old Geelong. The Lions had held a slight advantage all day until a four goal to two in the Hoops' favour got them over the line. That man Corey Bannister starred up forward again with eight majors, while Andrew Forster-Knight was influential up back for the Lions. Old Mentonians returned to the winners list, scoring a handsome 35 point win over Bulleen Templestowe. The Panthers' backline was fantastic, while Michael Basile's return to form with seven goals from centre half forward was also a great sign for the visitors.

As an aside, OMFC's Gareth Snow suffered a serious injury, requiring the attendance of an ambulance. Fortunately he is OK and will be back playing shortly. The Old Mentonians would like to acknowledge the help and support given to Gareth and the OMFC training staff by the Bulleen Templestowe club, their trainers and doctors. It was greatly appreciated.

PREVIEW

Old Mentonians take on Banyule at the playing fields. Both teams are floating along in mid-to-lower table obscurity, in that vacuum between finals and relegation, so these matches against other teams in similar positions take on extra meaning. Despite them both recording convincing victories last week, I can pick only one winner.....egads.....I'll pick Banyule, as they seem to have more momentum carrying them at the moment.

Emmaus St. Leo's have an ominous task on their hands as they face Rupertswood at the BSG. The Animals have struggled to put together four quarters in a row (well, in the same game anyway) this season, while Rupo have shown their ability to win both the close ones and the blowouts. Current form suggests the latter, but complacency has been the curse of many a top side. Having said that, it would be fatuous to say the home side would be relying on Rupo taking it easy. All across the board however, Rupo deserve their current spot on top of the ladder, and it's hard to see that changing. The Animals will give it a good shake, but I think Rupo should win comfortably.

Yarra Valley OB travel to Toorak Park for their match against Prahran. Valley scored their first win for a while last week, while the Two Blues are still looking for their. Having already lost six from six, finals will be nigh on impossible for the home side, so I imagine they will have an eye on consolidating their D1 spot this season and strengthening the side for 2007. The Bushrangers are in a slightly better position at the moment, but again need to keep winning. Valley Boys for me.

Therry Penola square up Bulleen Templestowe at John Pascoe Fawkner Reserve in an 'eight pointer' as far as strengthening each side's finals ambitions. Greg Chivers (BT) and Justin Crotty (TP) should be an entertaining duel in the middle, as should the contest between Bullants forward 'Waxy' Williams and Lions backman Andrew Forster-Knight. Just a gut feeling, but I reckon that Thery can return to the winners' circle today.

Old Carey and Old Geelong face off at Dunshea Oval. Always one to look forward to, and I'm sure many D1 observers had this circled in red ink when the draw was first released. Both look shoo-ins for the finals at this stage, and will be keen to strike a psychological blow against each other along the way. A surfeit of class on both sides with Casbout, Vickers-Willis, O'Brien (OG) against Parton, Kent, Carr (OC) providing plenty of entertainment no matter who you support. I'm gonna tip Old Carey today.

Yarra Valley OB congratulate Rob Drew, who will reach the 100 game milestone this week. The third and final member of the club's most famous family, Robbie burst onto the scene in 2001, making an immediate impact. One of the side's more skilful players, Robbie complements this with supreme courage and run, and has recently added co-vice-captaincy to his other accolades, including a Best and Fairest, a premierships, and a Nosebag Award. Well done Rob from all at the Bushrangers.

The milestone madness continues at Emmas St. Leos, with Stephen Ronchi playing his 200th game in Round 6. Roncha started in the seniors in 1992, unfortunately injuring his knee and missing that year's flag side, before returning the next year in the club's inaugural U/19s team. Through the years, he has been a tower of strength, his efforts reward with premierships in 1995 and 2002, continuing his on-field service off the field in his current capacity as club president. Simon Mescher played his 100th game in Round 2, having started with the Animals U/19s in 1998. The Mesch Machine continues to bob up every year to flash those ever expanding biceps. Terrific work Roncha and Mesch from the rest of the Animals.

SUPPORTS THE VAFA AFCA/VAFA COACH OF THE YEAR

May Coach of the Month

Seniors – Shane McLauchlin (Rupertswood, D1 Section)

Shane McLauchlin – Shane was appointed Senior Coach of Rupertswood Football Club in 2005, finishing Runner-up to Old Geelong in the D2 Section Grand Final. Promoted to D1 Section for 2006, Rupertswood have yet to record a loss after Round 6. Shane has had a long involvement with Rupertswood, coaching a number of teams within their Junior Club, playing and coaching at Club XVIII level and as Assistant Coach / Reserves Coach to Tony West from 2001-2004. In 2004 he successfully led the Reserves to a premiership before being appointed to the Senior role. Shane played at Dousta Stars and Sunbury before taking on a playing Coach role at Lancefield. Shane is a well respected tactician and motivator and is the perfect leader for Rupertswood to continue the climb up the grades.

CLUB WAREHOUSE RISING STAR NOMINATION

ROUND 6

DAMIEN RAYSON (DE LA SALLE)

De La Salle on baller Damien Rayson, is the nominee for the Club Warehouse Rising Star Nomination for Round 6 after kicking 5 goals in a best on ground performance against Old Melburnians last Saturday.

The form of Damien has coincided with that of his team and it began three weeks ago when Damien kicked another bag of 5 in a best on ground performance against Old Melburnians.

Damien has always been known as a goal sneak but his game developed after being selected in the Australian Amateur Under 23 Team. This gave him the confidence to run harder, attack the ball aggressively at the stoppages and therefore pick up more contested balls.

If De La is going to make an impact in the finals this year then the club will be looking at Damien to continue his outstanding form over the past month.

Peninsula continue to show out as favourites for the Premiership, but Oakleigh and Werribee are certainly in form and should be around the mark come September. I am still inclined to say that no team is out of contention for a berth in that final four though. Three from five from my tips last round. A better showing is guaranteed today.

Williamstown CYMS $2.05 v Aquinas OC $1.70

Good chance here for Willy to notch their first win of the year. Timmy Wheeler continues to impress and his five majors nearly got his side over the line last week. Craig Taylor chimed in with three of his own goals but it was not enough to get the four points. Aquinas were leading for most of the day against Werribee but were overrun in the last stanza. Dave Boland and Anthony Williams continued their good form this season and will need to have good games once again. I think Louie might get the Willy boys over the line here. Willy by 8 points.

Glen Eira AFC $1.85 v Salesian AFC $1.85

Another match featuring two sides coming off losses. Glen Eira were unlucky not to force a draw in the dying stages against Ivanhoe and will come out firing today. Danny Race was on fire all day for the Saints, along with the help of Tsirogiannis and Massis, but to no avail as Ivanhoe proved too strong. Salesian were close all day but could not overhaul a determined Oakleigh lineup. Harmit Singh had another good game, and boom recruit Ash Ross showed signs he will be a welcome addition to the lineup for the rest of the season. Crucial match for both clubs here. Salesian by 2 points.

Peninsula OB $1.20 v La Trobe University AFC $4.10

Peninsula showed what they can do, thrashing St John's while La Trobe had a good win over Williamstown last Saturday. The Pirates were never in trouble and booted thirteen goals to one in the second half to demoralise St John's. Stephen Pruscino kept the Trobers in the game early against Willy, and Campbell Marx was on fire up forward with five majors of his own. Peninsula at home are always hard to beat, and they are building confidence up as each round passes. Will we see Timmy Braden in the senior lineup today after two best on ground performances in a row in the twos? I think so. Peninsula by 55 points.

Werribee AFC $1.18 v Ivanhoe Assumption AFC $4.50

Some would say that Werribee are the form team of the competition, and it is hard to argue with that after their victory away from home over Aquinas. Aaron Taylor and Aidan Murphy provided plenty of drive from half back and from the middle of the ground as Werribee ran away with the points over Aquinas. Not to be out done, Ivanhoe had another one point victory over Glen Eira. After a slow start the Hoes clawed back to take the lead midway through the last quarter with coach John Garrard one of the stars with five goals including a monster goal which was kicked through from the wing. Centre Half Matt Wilson had a fine match too. I have a feeling that this could be a big win for Werribee though. Look for the Hoes to be competitive in the first half, but run out of gas, and for Werribee to notch their fifth consecutive victory by 82 points.

Oakleigh AFC $1.33 v St Johns OC $3.10

Three straight losses for St John's, and a must win game for them if they are to keep in touch with the top four. Oakleigh sit nicely second on the ladder, after a strong victory over close rival Salesian last Saturday. Danny Zula and Shaun Briggs both had big games proving that coach Gately certainly does have plenty of talent at his disposal. I am not sure why Trevor Bromley was missing last week, but I am sure Oakleigh will welcome him back into the lineup today. Oakleigh are in form and I expect them to get the points. McKenzie could get a bag too. Krushers by 72 points. Keep those match reports coming in to me. My email address is jonathan.healy@hotmail.com preferably by 5:00pm Mondays.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Ivanhoe Assumption are holding their ever-popular Man 'O Man night at the Ivanhoe Park clubrooms tonight (Sat. June 3), starting at 8.30pm. Entry is $5 for ladies and $15 for guys, with the first champers or beer free. (Any female that brings five girlfriends gets free entry.) This night is always a favourite with the ladies as six of the hottest bods at 'Hoe Park' vie for the coveted title of Miss Universe in Reverse. A DJ will keep the joint jumping until 1am, with lucky door prizes and raffles to be won.

The Peninsula Old Boys Football Club congratulates Marc Barron and Ben Luizzi on reaching 50 games for the Pirates. Bazz first joined the club in 2003 straight out of school, and the following season was co-captain of our inaugural Under 19 side. A hard running and long kicking defender he was able to become a regular senior player last season, and we look forward to him being a senior player for the club for many years to come. Benny also joined the club in 2003 from Mt Eliza, and became a premierships player that season as part of the undefeated reserves juggernaut. He became a regular ones player the following season before heading off OS. He is now back at the club and we look forward to him playing for many more years in the blue and tan.

by Tom Brain

The VAFA Under 23 Representative side eagerly await their clash with the WAAFL at Sportscover Arena today.

The first two clashes between these talent laden sides have resulted in a comprehensive victory in Melbourne to the Big V in 2004 while last year in unusually cold and windy conditions over in the West, the Vics again took the points in a much closer and more competitive game.

The Swans are seeking revenge in this contest with an experienced team led by All Australian Mitch Holbrook and supported by vice captains who are also All Australian plyers, Tim Hall and Dave Winter. All three of these players are over 6'4" in the old measure so the Vics will have to be mindful of their match ups. Mitch Holbrook, in particular, can be very dangerous up forward and it wouldn't surprise to see him kick a bag for the West. His opponent is likely to be Adam Routledge and it could be this clash that decides the outcome.

The Victorians are no less experienced with their leadership team also containing three All Australians in Tim McKinnon, Ari Lewski, and Huw Lacey. The strength of the Vics seems to be in their great on ball depth and if Frank Dunell can get his rotations working correctly then the running machine of Victoria will be hard to shut down.

So what does today hold I wonder? The WAAFL Coaching staff under the control of Wayne Langbourne have been very diligent in their endeavours to select a side that will be most competitive against the Big V, while the Victorians know they are the "hunted" and have worked just as hard to put a competitive side on the park.

It will all start in the middle where Williams and Baddeley will need to be at their best to stop Winter, Taylor and Robinson feeding the ball to the WA mosquito fleet.

Imagine Lewski, Lacey, Beaumont, Rayson and Goulet up against Loxley, Piccoli, Riemann and McGinnity. It ensures that the game promises plenty and the defences of both sides are sure to be under plenty of pressure.

The balance and abilities of both sides will provide a fantastic spectacle with Representative Football being the winner. Let's hope the weather is kind to us but try as they might, I just cannot see our visitors taking the points against a Victorian side in front of their families and friends who will be so determined to win.

The Neil Judge Medal for the player of the match will be awarded in the entertainment area after the match and my tip is Damien Rayson who is in sparkling form for his club side, De La Salle, this season.

Enjoy your day.

... Retrospective

by Geoff Reilly

5 YEARS AGO - 2001

CEO Phil Stevens, proudly wrote in the forward to the 'Amateur Footballer', of the recognition of the VFA's long serving treasurer, Noel Rundle, as a recipient of the Queen's Birthday Honors. Noel had been awarded an OAM (Medal of the Order of Australia) for his services to Australian Rules Football and the community. Phil's summary, 'Take a bow N C Rundle OAM – we salute you', was an ideal salutation. There is no doubt the late Noel Colin Rundle was a great administrator, an outstanding player and on-field leader, tough and courageous in his convictions, infinitely loyal to the ideals of amateur sport and a fine raconteur, possessed of a boundless knowledge of sport in general. I "crossed Noel's path" on a few occasions but admired him immensely and humbly took over his column following his sad passing.

Fitzroy Reds and St Johns OC were clear leaders in D3 Section as neither had been defeated. In their game against Albert Park, the Reds had the most points (65) scored against them for 7 rounds. The Reds' 20.18 to Albert Park's 10.5 was still a resounding victory. The better players in this game – Addicott, Drury, Ronchi (6), Byrne, J Parsons and Bennie (Fitzroy) and McLellan, Storey, Dowdle, Smith, S Allen (6) and Robilotta (Albert Park).

Syndal Tally-Ho (undefeated) and Bulleen Cobras (6 from 7) were well out in front in D4 Section and there were five teams behind them (Mt Lilydale, Eltham, Swinburne, Werribee and North Brunswick), all on 4 wins. Bulleen Cobras remained in second spot when they easily accounted for Eley Park 23.15 to 7.9 and named their best as Gencarelli, Bowen (7), Macleod (4), Pasinati, McLaren and May, Blake, Morrison, D Murray, Nelson, M Payne and Trotter were the Park's best.

One of the VFA's greats, Sam Birtles, had passed away and there was a substantial tribute to Sam in the 'Amateur Footballer'. Sam was described as "a big personality and a man who stood for all the qualities admired in an outstanding amateur footballer". Sam had been a bomber crew member in WW11, was shot down over Germany and spent a few years as a prisoner of war. On his return he joined Hampton Rovers and created a brilliant record with that club including the J N Woodrow "A" Section B&F in 1949. He played in the AAFC team in 1950 and was a leading member of the Rovers' A section flag in 1951. Sam became a VFA umpire after retiring from playing and such was his standing that he was one of the field umpires in the Australian Rules Exhibition Match at the 1956 Olympic Games. Sam also went on to coach Hampton Rovers and Monash Blues. In later life, after first suffering partial amputation of one leg and later the other leg due to diabetes, Sam continued to play golf. Sam Birtles remains one of the true legends of the VFA.

10 YEARS AGO – 1996

C Section coaches were Rod Morgan (AJAX), Don Scarlett (Hampton Rovers), Bruce Ferguson (Marcellin), Trevor Poole (Old Geelong), Bert Calvert (Old Mentonians), Paul Beddoe (St Bedes Mentone Tigers), Tim Hart (St Kevins), Terry Walsh (St Kilda South Caulfield), Allan Fleming (Thomastown) and Des Meagher (Whitefriars).

St Kevins versus Marcellin was the 'match of the day' in C Section. St Kevins started strongly and had the game sown up by half time. Marcellin fought back in the final term with 5 goals to 2 but were still well behind at the final siren, 17.17 to 12.12. Best players – Chapman, Garvey, Morgan, Gross (3), Doherty and McGuinness (St Kevins). Marcellin were very disappointed with the result, so disappointed in fact that they failed to name any best players!

Is it a first for the VFA? asked The Rover in his "Tap Outs" column. Thornbury Cougars in E Central reserve section had females filling the following roles – Goal Umpire, Boundary Umpire and Time Keeper. The Rover regretted that Sharon Alger and Leah Gallagher had not been appointed as Field Umpires for the game which surely would have created a record for all football!

Michael Szeitz, past senior captain and coach of the club, had returned from interstate to impart his knowledge to a young reserves side and in doing so recorded his 250th game for his club. A tireless worker on and off the field, "Sizzer" received congratulations from all at ANZ.

20 YEARS AGO – 1986

In B Section, Old Xaverians consolidated their position at the top of the ladder with their second nail biting win in a row. This time it was against Old Paradians although Gerard Sholly, coach of Paradians, would have been seething over the inaccuracy of his side. At three quarter time Paradians held a 5 point lead but had 10 more scoring shots, 4.13 to 5.2. Things had not improved for Old Paradians at the final siren as they added only a further 3 behinds while the Xavs kicked 2 straight goals for a 3 point win. Best players – Paul Curtain, Dalton, Somers, Klein, O'Shaughnessy, Greetham (Xavs) and S Exton, Peter Wood, McCann, Powick, B Exton and Fahey (Paradians).

30 YEARS AGO – 1976

The Old Melburnians were looking to be the main challengers to the unbeaten Old Haileyburians in C Section with a resounding victory over Kew, 31.29 to 8.7. Had they kicked straight, the OM's may have broken some records. Kew's first quarter was promising and they finished the term with 4.6 although OM's kicked more accurately with 5.2. After that, it was simply a 'stroll in the park' for OM's as Robertson (9), Dick (6), Corder (5) and Urquhart (4) snagged them from everywhere. Pisarski and N McMullin were also damaging players for the winners. Pnschenjak, Mitchell and Blay were the only Kew players considered to be worthy of a mention in the best. The OM's were now 2 games and much percentage clear of the third and fourth teams.

Interesting note in the "Umpire's Corner" column stating that the West Australian Football League had introduced "two field umpires" into their competition. Was this the first instance of more than one man in white in charge?

40 YEARS AGO – 1966

In C Section two top four teams, North Melbourne CBC and Preston met with North being the home team. With not much more than a goal separating the two teams throughout the afternoon, the fast finishing Preston just failed to 'take the chocolates' going down by 2 points in the final score of 7.11 to 7.9. Elderfield, L Murray, Huggins (3), Vereker, L Carrey and Connaught were North's best. Chettle, Jones, Stapleton, Cope, Ledda, and R McDonald (3) were Preston's best.

The Victorian Amateur Team had been announced to play in Adelaide against South Australia at the Adelaide Oval – Harvey Atkinson (Old Scotch), John Bowen (Old Xaverians), Geoff Cayzer, David Williams and Alan Chaffey (Caulfield Grammarians), John Crapp (Uni Blues), Vin Crowe (Kew), Ray Edwards (Commonwealth Bank), Bruce Ferguson (Collegians), Euan Fleming and Peter Sinclair (Uni Blacks), Alan Graham (Ormond), John McKenzie (Old Scotch), Don McQueen (Commonwealth Bank), Julian Nance (De La Salle), Bernie O'Brien (Old Paradians), Rod Payne and Rob Thompson (Old Melburnians), Graeme Wharfe (Coburg), Spence Williams (Old Paradians) and Manson Russell (Old Scotch) as Manager, Bob Sinclair (Coburg) as Assistant Manager and Frank Dunin (Uni Blacks) as coach.

50 YEARS AGO – 1956

The closest result in A Section was between Ivanhoe and Old Melburnians with Ivanhoe eventually running out winners, 9.7 to 8.7. Ivanhoe were equal third with Ormond and Uni Blues but needed to lift their percentage in the coming weeks.

Power House Green were the big winners in B Section, 20.12 to Brunswick's 8.4 and The House were now a game clear in third spot. Barry Hanger kicked seven goals for the winners and Peter Chalmers, Doug McLean, Brook Turner and Don Cameron were also key players. John Wood, Peter Stokes, Bob Coon and Bob Semple were best for Brunswick.

Results continue to go largely as expected, but get this, I have picked four out of five in each of the six rounds so far. Creepy!!

Review

The minor upset of the round was Swinburne sticking it up me (again!), this time knocking off Kew. With 18 scoring shots to six Kew's way at halftime, the match should have been over, however, the Browns were at their frustrating best. Higgins stared up front again for the Razorbacks to keep their faint finals chances alive.

With the AFL's world famous runner back in the side, Bentleigh easily accounted for Monash. A six goal to one first quarter set the tone for the day and the Demons never looked back. With Lochlan Tangas having a blinder on the wing, and Charlie McFadden winning plenty of the ball around the ground the result was never in doubt.

I was at the battle of the Westies at the "House of Pain", and it was the home side who took out the honors. In a dour struggle, it was the Warriors who got an early jump with "Big Nix" doing well across the backline, however, the Magpies through "Jim" Morgan and Jarrod Sudholz quickly turned it around and were never really threatened as the West Brunswick juggernaut continues to gain momentum.

Not much to say about the Swans demolition of UHS-VU other than it was a consistent team effort from South Melbourne who continues to firm as premiership contenders.

Finally, the Saints as expected went down to Elsternwick, thought not as easily as some would have thought. With Ben Richardson in everything and Lachlan Armstrong resolute in defence the Saints kept up with their more fancied opposition to be 3 points ahead at halftime. However, after the break the game was blown open, though coach Michael Learmonth now has something to build on to try and break the drought.

Preview

Bentleigh travel to Candlestick Oval keen to keep the Wickers outside of the four. Demon coach Troy Lupoi must be happy with his boys when he can have players the calibre of Chris Sharp down on their game (mind you he still kicked 8 last week!), and yet register 100+ point victories. Throw the "Brothers Dimm" into the mix and it is a formidable proposition. Picking a winner is tough, as I have a suspicion that the Demons may struggle on the smaller ground, however, I will stick with my preseason favorites in Bentleigh today.

I'll tug the reigns of the Maggie bandwagon and direct it to "The Pen" to take on a Razorback outfit who continue to answer their critics. Today however, is D-day for the club if they are to make the transition from "Surprise packet" to "Contender". West Brunswick Coach Hamilton keep throwing around the clichés about his side as he attempts to "fly under the radar", however, this side is a true contender and for this reason will again deliver albeit by a slender margin.

What a match we have in store at "Arctic Park II" where Westbourne take on a rampant South Melbourne. The Warriors have had their fair share of critics, with many saying they are overrated. Having been at most of their games this year, I would partially agree. The team has certainly struggled in its transition to the new coaching style of Fab Gatti and to me, it has lacked spark, particularly across half forward. For my selection though, I am sticking with my beloved Warriors to cause an upset and finally register a win against one of the "Big Five".

Word on the street is that there is trouble-a-brewing at UHS-town and today could be the perfect opportunity for the Saints to take advantage and open their D3 account. With the students continually having to rely on the old guard of Gorringe and Cracknell, things are going from bad to worse. My prediction is it will not get much better today as the Saints keep their faint chances of staying up alive with a good win.

Kew's season is like an episode of "Lost", as in, where has their 2005 form crashed to? On the flip side, the Gryphons are a tough bunch to work out, with their magoos on fire, yet their seniors playing mediocre football at best. Picking today's winner is akin to playing a game of two up, but with the home

Old Westbourne congratulates Justin "Jucka" Horsburgh on his 200th club game today. Juck started his career as an 18 year old in 1994 and it did not take him long to progress to senior ranks. It is mainly as a star forward that he has made his mark, with flying leaps and booming punts! He has won a senior B&F, Senior Premiership member and topping the ton in '04, VAFA team of year and is the all-time leading goalkicker at the Warriors. There are many more games and goals in store and the club salutes you.

Jarrold Tanner plays his 50th club game for Old Westbourne, having spent 3 years with the U19s. A player with good pace and skill, the club congratulates him on his first milestone.

A belated recognition of 50 games is passed on to Old Westbourne's Jarred Mason for Round 1. An absolute goer, this is Maso's 4th year at the club and he is now back in the ones after a nasty injury in '05. Good luck with many more games to come.

St. Mary's congratulates Roger Allen finally reached his 100 games last week. Despite a near career ending knee injury a couple of seasons ago, "Mr Versatile" has come back and played some great footy in the seniors and now as a stalwart in the reserves. A great fellow to have in the club, as he will always goal umpire, man the scoreboard or mark the ground without exception. Well done from all at St Marys.

The main gate (Glenhuntly Road) is open every match day.

The rear gate (off St. Kilda Street) will only be open when there are no matches scheduled for Elsternwick Park No. 2 Oval.

When parking in the area behind the grandstand please park in a manner that would allow cars around you to be able to leave.

Players and officials who do not produce tickets at the gates will be counted and the club invoiced accordingly.

Clubs are issued with an appropriate number of tickets for players and officials.

UMPIRES CORNER

by Steve McCarthy & Leah Gallagher

Congrats.

Well done to Dash Peiris on umpiring his first A grade game last week, Dash, after along battle of knocking on the door has finally crashed it down and taken his opportunity. On the boundary, also for his first A grade game was Alex Koutsoukis. Alex, the start of the young breed of boundaries coming through, performed well on the big stage and will not look out of place come September. Logan Smith has progressed to a senior game after toiling in the U/19, welcome to senior footy Logan and enjoy the after match.

Time trials

The goalies under their new advisor are now being subjected to time trials. Three one-lappers of the park on the clock was enough to shock the guys into the new regimen, the last thing that was timed in the goalies training was the tunnelball competitions. The three laps were enough to make some sick to the stomach (which we think one was).

Thanks

Jamie Kvins would like to thank University Blues (especially Bob Girdwood) for their hospitality whilst helping him celebrate his milestone game of 250 last week. Although Jamie was still considerably fresh after the game, (Leah had run most of the game as she did with Macca a couple of weeks back) he was still able to re-hydrate during a fine effort at the after-match "skol".

Anthony Damen celebrated his 350th at the ground where it all began for him – the Ross Gregory Oval in the South Melbourne Districts vs UHS-VU match. For those who may be unaware, Anthony was a legendary Powerhouse player in his younger days and later on commenced his umpiring career umpiring the "house two's. After the game last week he was able to trot over to the nearby Trott to have a few celebratory bourbons.

Well done boys.

Also, due to last week being such a newsworthy week the interview with JK and AD had to be trimmed. Here's the remaining questions that didn't make it to print last week.

Best umpire to shower with after the game?

JK: None really stand out but I reckon the old showers at St Bernard's were great. Sharing them with the players provided a kind of immediate feedback but being naked always broke down the barriers and I guess almost allowed us umpires to be seen as human.

Is there anything you wish to still achieve in umpiring?

AD: 400 games, and if not that, the ability to ignore the ratbag supporters who get personal with their abuse, be able to report them and make their club responsible for their behaviour.

JK: My wish would be to encourage more players to take on the challenge of umpiring. Former players make for great umpires for so many reasons. Returning their experience to the playing field would really help our great game to grow.

Thanks guys and well done.

D4 SECTION

by Ed Sill

You could throw an old dressing gown over the mid table of D4 with no less than 6 sides on 12 points. The great cliché 'percentage is important' could not be more pertinent.

Perhaps the grade is breaking off into 3 distinct groups with the two pacesetters stealing a break and the bottom two falling off the pace? Still plenty of time to go, but the finals race looks to be a corker. Whilst the current ladder suggests 9 wins and a good percentage will get you into the finals, my hunch is that at least 10 games will be needed. Some simple maths for most clubs to contemplate!

Review

The most eye catching win was probably by Power House as they came out after half time firing to win comfortably against Bulleen. Some of the familiar names in Taylor, Sosic and Grahek were good for the House whilst once again; Cookson starred for Bulleen and was well supported by Dunn.

The acid was on Box Hill North this week as they took on well fancied Eley Park. It was tight all day however the Hillmen managed to get away in the last quarter. Small forward Dan Penny was again in the goals, this time with 9 whilst his partner in crime, Thoi, chipped in with 5. Ball was also good again. For Eley Park, Bowen and Roll were the best.

Eltham made it 6 in a row as they accounted for North Brunswick. A tight defence was they key as the Turtles allowed only 1 late goal to be scored. Conole, Hargraves across half forward and Runci off half back were the Turtles best. Savannah battled well for North.

Low profile Albert Park had their best win for the season as they accounted for highly ranked Syndal. The respective forward and back flanks were controlled by Borley and Haynes whilst Collins celebrated his return to footy with a strong showing up forward. Robinson was the best for Syndal.

Finally, Hawthorn returned to the winners list as they easily accounted for an undermanned Richmond. Pritchard, Rice and Mundy were among the better players for the Hawks whilst Speakman and Nuske battled hard fro Richmond. Plenty of grind for Central for the rest of the year however they have a longer term plan and are sticking too it.

Preview

North Brunswick should make it 2 for the year as they welcome Richmond. I still think that North are a wildcard and whilst the 9 games required from here for finals action might be a tough ask, don't be surprised if they make a steady tilt. Anyway, home side for mine.

The first of two classic '8 point games' occurs when Albert Park venture across town to Box Hill North. It is fair to say that Albert Park have been below my radar for most of the year however last weeks win said a lot about their chances this year. Box Hill also is coming off a good win, one that got their season back on track. Hard to judge but maybe home ground advantage gives BHN the edge.

The second '8 pointer' occurs when Hawthorn welcome Bulleen to Glenferrie oval.

The disruption to their home ground, whilst a long term blessing, has caused the Hawks some grief, having lost all three of their 'reversed' games. Bulleen are still missing some big names and even if they return this week might be a little under done. Hawthorn for mine.

"..." results weren't received. Any discrepancies may be due to non-submission of results by clubs.

Eltham travel to Syndal looking to be in seventh heaven by the end of the day. Hard to fault them at any level at this stage as they continue to warm in premiership betting. Syndal will have been disappointed with the past two games. A great start to the year has been converted into a reasonable start. Unlikely to become any easier this week as Eltham should prevail.

Finally, Power House host Eley Park. The House are consistently getting the job done this year and are clearly in the silk department of D4. The Sharks have been steady after their promotion however this is a big task and Power House should prevail.

U19 SECTION

Section 1

All tips correct this week, on fire. Time for a Review: De La gave Marcellin a fair touch up. Stewart and Nethersole were brilliant in the ruck, while it was great to see Nicko Stewart return to his best form. A very happy camp at De La! Rupo did it again to beat Scotch by the solitary. Matt Quigley and Hayden Spinner were best for the winners (four games out of six – good one boys). No doubt a few Austin McCrabs on Saturday night in celebration? Xavs took Blues to the slaughterhouse, the result – a mess. A seven goal third quarter was the difference. Jon Mercuri was on fire with six sausage rolls, while Alexander Ross ripped everything to shreds around the ground. In other games, SKOB won their first game over fellow cellar dwellers Collegians and St Bernards put to pay BV.

Preview:

Match of the round sees Rupo playing how's your father to St Bernards. Tough call but I tip the away side. Sorry Rupo, I do love you guys. Marcellin will trot all over Collegians, BV will follow in SKOBs' footsteps and beat them to win game 1 for the year. Best of the rest - Xavs to extinguish Scotch and De La to call the shots against Blues. Any feedback, beatonc@tabcorp.com.au. Happy punting and get on the pies tonight under 39.5 points.

Section 2

The rampant Raiders took control from the start, belting a lacklustre Blacks by 103 after a solid week on the track. Parade had first use through Chris Khoury and Tim Gibbons, while Carl Sage (5) and super-boot Marcus Soloman (7) were unstoppable up forward. Brighton beat Caulfield by 31, never looking threatened. Sest continued with 6 majors, while midfielders Finlayson, Geddes and wingmen Ward and David Jennings were standouts. Ben Hyland shone for Caulfield. The OM's crushed bottom side Trinity by 89, even after a mini 3rd term revival. Tom Bennison and Ben McKie were on fire for the OM's. Carey improved their kicking, toppling the Friars by 43. While the Wellers paddled the Sharks by 76. Hillier (6) and Wright (6) kicked more than half the Wellers' majors.

In this round's upset, the T's will register their first win against the Sharks by 14. Brighton will get a reality check from the Wellers, who are finally showing some good form and looking good in 4th posi. 5 goals.

The Blacks should scrape back some confidence against the Fielders this week after their embarrassment last week. The Melburnians will take care of the Friars. OM's by 41 points. Top billing will go to the Panthers, Raiders tussle this week. Both sit 2nd and 3rd respectively. Watch for the 2 form forwards, Bull and Soloman squaring off at opposing ends. The Panthers - in an epic. berneckich@netspace.net.au

Section 3 - Review

Oakleigh have stamped their class on Section 3 by defeating second placed St. Bede's Mentone by 41 points to stand alone at the top of the ladder without a loss. Oakleigh held a 3 goal lead at half time, yet through the constant run of Michael Doyle and Skipper Daniel Wills, and the goal kicking of Chris Meyer who booted 7, Oakleigh took the game in the second half. Ormond beat Old Essendon easily with Orry Lack in great form kicking 7 and Vice-Captain Luke Duthie in everything, kicking 3. MHSOB had a good away win against Ajax, with Adam Littlehales helping MHSOB to a healthy half-time lead. Josh Smith was Ajax's best in a disappointing result. Old Ivanhoe are the form team besides Oakleigh winning their fourth in a row against Bentleigh. Mitchell Bodycoat continued his form, supported by Alex Bolzan and Hayden Dekretser. La Trobe also had a good away win against Emmaus St. Leo's.

Preview

For the third week in a row Bentleigh play a team in red hot form. They host the undefeated Oakleigh, and last week showed they are a 41-point better team than second placed SBMT. While Jamie Vlahos will be confident after last weekend's showing for Bentleigh, he will need his teammates' help in a game Oakleigh should win. Old Ivanhoe travel to La Trobe looking to chalk up their fifth straight win. While La Trobe had little trouble with Emmaus St. Leo's last week, they will find Old Ivanhoe a different kettle of fish and the Hoers should have a win. SBMT will see last week's first loss as a minor hiccup and will be looking to take out their frustration on Ajax. Daniel Lynch and Chris Mouritz will help SBMT's cause, however, Jesse Osowicki will be trying his best to get his Ajax teammates firing. SBMT to win. Two tough ones to close the round sees MHSOB host Ormond. MHSOB returned to winning form last week and will be tough to beat at home, however, one win doesn't mean much if they can't back it up, and against an in form Ormond, they might struggle. Old Essendon host Emmaus St. Leo's, and with David Benson playing well and the game being played at Essendon Grammer, Old Essendon should win their second game for the season. U19 (Blue) - Review

In the clash of the titans, De La Salle travelled to Central Reserve to tackle Mazenod, with expectations high after a week's rest. The 1st quarter was a tense affair, with De La leading by the solitary goal at the first break. From the 2nd quarter Mazenod got their running game going and started to relish the opportunity to play on the main oval. They held a 23 point lead at the half and then after the break they went whoosh and the game was over. Mazenod's intelligent play and willingness to share the ball was shown in the 12 different goal kickers, lead by Stefan Davis and Nicholas Graham with 4 each. Mazenod was lead ably by Cameron Smith and Kieran Seenan. A close game between Monash and Oakleigh Clayton saw the Clays hold on by 14 points with Chris Phillips playing well and kicking 4 goals, while Old Haileybury had a clinical win against Parkdale with Anthony Wright bagging 6 goals and Bradley Dolman continuing his good form. Old Mentonians were miserly in defence with their 61 point win against Powerhouse/South Mornington, with Skipper Jake Moon again very good, as was Matthew Wilton.

Preview

De La Salle must go on to play the other undefeated team in Old Haileybury. While lion hearted ruckman Tom Kovarik will be trying his best to get De La over the line, the juggernaut that is Old Haileybury will continue on its way as they win in a tough contest. Oakleigh Clayton hosts the refreshed Hampton Rovers, and the Clays will be chock-full of confidence after their away win last week. Daley Jones and Josh Carstensen will be helping the Clays cause with both in good form and I am tipping Hampton to win and to get their season back on track. With the likes of Ben Dwyer and Kyle Pinto running around with fresh legs, Hampton should have the slight edge, however, this is their last chance! Old Mentonians should have Monash's measure at home, while an interesting game between Parkdale and Powerhouse/South Mornington presents itself this round. Both teams share a lot of similarities and this game could go either way, however, with Josh O'Meara in good form and the game being played at Gerry Green Reserve, I will tip Parkdale in a nail-biter. Mazenod have a well earned rest.

Please send match info into al_vafa@hotmail.com. Thanks to Shane Regan and Paul Lourey for their regular reviews.

U19 (Red)

Coming home with a wet sail in a 6 goals to 1 last quarter wasn't enough for Kew, who forgot to play the middle 2 quarters. The Old Saints charged to a commanding 40 point lead by the final break and an eventual 13 point victory, as NOBSPC players Kyle Adams, Jordan Molloy and Sam Richardson delivered the home side their 3rd win and Kew's 3rd loss. Aquinas got back into winning form knocking off the Lions by 57 after a 2nd quarter domination. Ashley Naulty and Josh Stewart kicked 3 each.

In a high scoring affair at T.H. King Reserve, the Xavs (170) were too strong for the Bullants (107). For Xavs, Tom "Motley Crue" Lee (7) and Trent Preece (5) took control up forward. Bulleen-Temp's Rob Illingworth slotted 7, while Cam Azer worked hard in the middle. Top of the table, Fitzroy trounced bottom Westbourne in a 90 point pantsing. Always consistent contributors, Barnett (5), Ligris (3), and Matt Biggs (3) were top notch while Drew Olarenshaw was also in the best for the REDS.

This week's winners are Xavs, BT, REDS and Rupo. Kew host Xavs and the former will continue to slip as the inform Xavs will run home 26 point winners. Bulleen Temp play Therry and I'll say the Bullants by 19 points. Illingworth and Meadows are looking to be formidable unit in that forward line. The Reds, the new team to beat, will put an end to the Old Saints run, putting them away by 5 goals. Westbourne host a fresh Woodsmen side. Rupo after some trying weeks before the bye should have the legs to take out the home-side by 4 goals and get back that winning feeling. Aquinas have a sleep in.

Round 7

In the fullness of time the results of Round 6 could well be the defining ones in the season's story, as many well placed teams played each other. We now have a better idea as to comparative strengths, which did not help my success rate which fell to 66%.

REVIEW

Section 1

Leaders Old Xaverians showed their superiority over fourth placed University Blues with a 66 point victory.

Old Xaverians (2) opened their winning account with a 25 point win over St Bede's/ Mentone Tigers.

Despite marked inaccuracy, De La Salle were able to defeat St Kevin's by 10 points and so gain the Anthony Molan Cup named in honour of their late player. Their loss of points through an ineligible player continues to haunt St Kevin's, who now are a game behind the leaders.

Old Scotch defeated Mazenod by 38 points.

Prahran, with a sprinkling of youth assisting the senior players, were largely untroubled to defeat Old Melburnians by 30 points. Prahran were well served as usual by Dave Butterworth, and Nigel Macpherson in game number 100. For the Melburnians, none tried harder than mid fielder Stuart Wettenhall

Section 2

Old Brighton won their first game when they defeated Marcellin by 45 points.

Mt Lilydale kicked the highest score of the round when they overran Therry Penola by 126 points. This may prove the catalyst for the Mt Lilydale players to continue to play consistently and to hold their newly acquired top four spot. Collegians triumphed at Donvale over Whitefriars by 16 points. Collegians opened an early lead which was gradually whittled away but their slow start really told against Whitefriars in the final analysis. The win kept Collegians in the finals race whereas their loss tipped Whitefriars from the leading bracket. Whitefriars' best were Andrews and Murphy, while Perkov did well for Collegians. In the clash of the academics, Monash Blues received their greatest opposition of the season when University Blacks finished only 19 in arrears. Monash, who are the highest scoring team in the V.A.F.A. saw their percentage drop by over 100.

Fitzroy Reds proved me a poor tipster when they triumphed against St Bernard's by 32 points. The "Aspirationalists" set up their victory with a devastating opening burst, which left the "Bernies" floundering in their wake. St Bernard's, who had good players in: Mick Hande, Couch and Stapleton, did fight back to cut the Red's margin to a more respectable total.

Section 3

Caulfield Grammarians regained Sectional leadership through their 33 point victory over Old Geelong.

Emmaus/ St Leo's moved into the top four with a 41 point win over La Trobe University.

After another slow start, Old Essendon Grammarians regained winning form when they defeated the competitive North Old Boys/ St Patrick's by 16 points. Best for Old Essendon were Sam. Evans, the consistent John Hughes, Callum Knox and Blair Carriss. For the Combine, Jonathan Maher, David Muscat and Nick Tonkin did well.

Beaumaris won their first game when they defeated Old Scotch by 25 points.

"." results weren't received. Any discrepancies may be due to non-submission of results by clubs.

Old Trinity provided the surprise of the Round when they defeated leaders Fitzroy Reds by 90 points. After the first change the Reds were never in the game. Their defeat saw the Reds drop to third. Trinity's best were: Romeo Ullangara, Tom Herrod and Sam. Di Pasquale.

PREVIEW

Section 1

I expect Prahran to continue on their winning way at the expense of Mazenod .

Old Xaverians should be able to record another comfortable victory at the expense of Old Scotch.

University Blues face a danger game at Mentone against St Bede's / Mentone Tigers, who will ensure a tough initiation to Brindisi Street for the Students. However on the form of each side over six weeks, I must select University Blues.

Second placed De La Salle should continue on their winning way by defeating Old Xaverians 2.

I select St Kevin's to regain winning form at the expense of Old Melburnians, who will be competitive but who I doubt are as talented as St Kevin's players.

Section 2

Mt Lilydale should retain fourth place by defeating St Bernard's who face the long trek east. This match, which could be a final preview should reveal the comparative strength of the third and fourth placed sides.

Old Brighton should make it two wins in a row as they should prove too talented for Therry Penola especially at Brighton Beach.

University Blacks should regain winning form by defeating Marcellin, who languish last without a win.

For a potential final preview, Monash Blues journey to Collegians. Although Collegians are a force within the Section and will prove fiercely competitive, I cannot go past Monash Blues, whose form has been of a very high standard. Monash will win.

Whitefriars face another "eight point" game against Fitzroy Reds. Victory to the undefeated Reds would see Whitefriars still at least a game outside the top four, whereas victory to them could see Whitefriars return to the leading bracket. Having said all that, I favour the Reds to win

Fitzroy Reds should return to the winning list by defeating North Old Boys/ St Patricks.

The match of the Round should be that between La Trobe University and Old Trinity. For the winner, a place in the finals could be the prize. For the loser, finals football could be a pipe dream. Trinity have the talent to beat most teams as they displayed last Saturday whereas La Trobe faltered last week after many consistent performances. I select Old Trinity.

Emmaus/ St Leo's seem to have recaptured winning ways, so I select them to defeat Old Geelong on the wide spaces of Como Park.

Leaders, Caulfield Grammarians should win again at the expense of Beaumaris.

Old Essendon will appreciate their return home and will celebrate with victory over Old Scotch.

M I MILESTONES E S

Against Old Melburnians, Nigel Macperson became the second Prahran Club XV111 footballer to play 100 games. Nigel, who was a top class junior athlete, is noted for his dashing play from the back line through the midfield. He epitomizes the Prahran Club XV111 spirit through his dedication and camaraderie with his fellow players. Well done Nigel. Your friends hope to see you in many more games as you chase that elusive final's victory. Mention of Nigel's contribution, would not be complete without acknowledging the support of his mother, Pam, a former champion hurdler, who is a fixture at Prahran games where she keeps time, operates the score board, and advises coach and umpire alike with her incisive interpretation of the match situation.

Climbers have been in the headlines this week (lost, found and left behind) and VAFA's Climbers continue to make inroads in Mt B. The Swingers' former Pres would be pleased belatedly with the Land Tax relief via the Wild Horse but the White Horse had already bolted. The Humphreys kicked what is probably the highest ever score in the ammos and the Clydesdales close to their lowest. 25yo Victor Anggono has cracked the Da Getta Code with a discovery about communication across brain cells whilst former Redder Charles Kovess spoke passionately and publicly of the need for 75yo workers – could we see Barry Hickey make a comeback to these pages ? Denise Drysdale, the patron saint of timekeepers, had a falling out as did the Uncannies who are yet to convince the judges that they'll take two although Katie Fischer certainly has. The Angelas look the goods and could rise through a few grades over the next few years as 5 star ski lodges rise through the Himalayas. Blades are out at Arden Street and in at Top Taste cakes – just check your arvo tea carefully over the next few weeks Munners !!

The FNQ proposal for a Lib-Nats merger prompts thought about potential ammo get-togethers – perhaps in B Beach Boys (good win) with Wind Farmers (back on track) to form the Windsurfers; in D1 Brewers (needed a loss) and Winos (crack the bubbly) to form the Fosters; in D4 the Artists (invest now) with the Protesters (still unsure) to form the Kerouacs. Across grades the Briefs (falling down) and Hestias (pushing upwards) would give us the Underwears whilst the Single Malts (very neat) and Two Shots (back on course) would be the Chasers. The Station Masters would get a huge boost merging with the Barrels to form the Dining Cars.
