

REP REPORT

by MICHAEL SHOLLY

Since the completion of Round 7, the VAFA have had sixty-six players from thirty-six clubs represent the competition in three matches. Whilst not all of the results have gone our way, the competition we have encountered has certainly improved and we need to respond to re-establish ourselves as the premier community football competition in Australia.

The highlight of the games was the outstanding victory of the A-D4 team against the Southern Football League. All plaudits must go to their coach, George Voyage, who has reigned supreme for ten years. It hasn't been as if these matches have all been one sided affairs. In this match the only time we were ahead was after the last kick of the match. Vice Captain, Al McQueen-Parton (Old Carey), who earlier in the week had been ruled out by the physios, marked in the goal square and kicked truly to put us ahead for the first time. Congratulations also to Captain David Boundy (Old Paradians), who continues to represent the competition so admirably at State level.

In regard to the Under 23 match against the WAAFL, may I quash some ill-informed statements regarding the timing of this fixture. Unfortunately the Western Australian and Victorian long weekends do not coincide, therefore once every three years we play a match during a round to allow them to travel during their long weekend. Last year WA missed a round when they hosted the VAFA on our Queen's Birthday weekend and this year we reciprocated.

WAAFL are to be congratulated on their outstanding improvement over the past few seasons. They were soundly beaten by us two seasons ago and have placed huge emphasis on rebuilding their name in the football community. They are heavily supported by their Commission and the West Coast Eagles and they repaid them with their first ever win in Melbourne. I am sure our coaching staff and players will respond to this loss when we play South Australia during the A and B Section bye on July 15.

The third match was held in Brisbane between our Under 19's and the AFLQ's Under 21's. Whilst we were defeated in this match, our players put up a spirited performance against a team that was considerably stronger and more experienced than us. They had played rep footy together as they progressed through their Talent Identification Programs in the Under 16's and Teal Cup. Whilst it was disappointing to have the match transferred from the Gabba due to heavy overnight rain, the ground at Coopers provided excellent playing conditions for all players to display their skills.

These matches have provided our players with the privilege of representing their state and showcasing their talents on a grander scale. We trust that they will resume with their clubs today wiser for the experience and with added maturity to assist their club in reaching its goals for the season.

Finally, the VAFA Executive extends its thanks to all the volunteers who have worked so diligently to ensure that all players are given the best opportunities to perform at their best in the matches.

THE AMATEUR FOOTBALLER

THE JOURNAL OF THE VICTORIAN AMATEUR FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION

June 17th, 2006 Price: $2.00 Vol. 06 No. 08

White Shorts – White Hot

It's 26 years since someone kicked 100 goals in Amateur football. 1980. The age of Pac Man, Dallas, Blokes swaggering into Amadeus nightclub in thin leather ties. In 1980, Matthew Handley was five years away from being a twinkle in his dad's eye. In 2006, this young Xaverian, barely heard of a month ago, is a serious chance to reach the ton (shortened quarters and all!)

Had my first proper look at him last Saturday and yes, the boy can seriously play. Like many guys who didn't play a heap of junior footy, he plays a remarkably uncomplicated game: Lead, mark, goal, iron out anyone in your way.

Some of the hits he received from further afield were extraordinary. Travid Ruyg in particular seems to have a real affinity with the big full forward and landed some doozies on his chest while Tim Ockleshaw was in sparkling form, despite several quality opponents. At times last year, you had to wonder whether Tim would ever play again but he's back and fit and as dangerous as ever. Lucas Harry made a solid debut in the ruck, relieving the swarthy David Sappupo. Also liked the game of the blood-nut James Scanlon.

And Scotch? They were so bad that you had to wonder if it was a deliberate foxing ploy to give away nothing to a team that they will surely have to beat in a finals game to clinch a premiership. I mean, they were really, really bad. At least the school side won.

Win of the round had to be Trinity, who were in rotten form before their clash with Bernards but came out smoking and never gave the 'Pitters a sniff. Big plaudits to Tom Eckersley, who managed four while Rambo and The Big Cat both turned one on. The Ts are going to be a real nuisance this year, particularly at Bulleen. As club secretary and tipster in torment Fraser Cameron keeps insisting, they won't be going to B Section without one mighty fight.

Marcellin, on the other hand, are in all sorts. The Eagle is well and truly stranded. De La skipped away to their fourth consecutive win, with Aaron Shields and Jezza La Ragy doing as they pleased. The game next week against Xavs is one of the most important in De La's recent history and will give us a better indication of where they're at.

The Blues versus Grammar game was a rout. David Paton, a very handy pick up from the Tallangatta district (the home of bushranger "Mad Dan" Morgan) booted nine for the students. And OMs, well they didn't go very well at all.

Preview

Haileybury v Xavs. It's a bit like U2 v Nickleback (or Nichoback) on one of those Triple M smackdowns. A nightmare to tip this one, simply because the Bloods are virtually impossible to dislodge at the Badlands, while the Xavs haven't lost in white shorts for a helluva long time. Not sure who'll play full-back for Haileybury but buddy, I hope you've got insurance (and a decent shrink). Home side in a toss of the coin.

De La v Ivanhoe is similarly tough but I'll go for the away side, who are sure to be suited by the sartorial splendor of the De La home ground. Again though, it's an absolute raffle this one.

Has to be Uni over Marcellin, expect the Cardinals to bounce back against Trinity and Bernards by as much as you like over the cellar dwellers on Sunday.

Which A Section coach resembles (in this scribe's opinion) former Wentworth Detention centre prison guard Jim "Fletch the Letch" Fletcher from the 80s show Prisoner? M I L E S T O N E S

It's been a milestone frenzy at Trinity in recent weeks. Chris Amiconi, Zac Williams and one of our senior Vice-Captains Brent "Big Cat" Walsh each chalked up 50 games in the past couple of rounds, whilst Robert Gamble, David Cristiano and Toby VanderVene passed the 100 game mark. The Gambler has been locking down A reserve key forwards for many years since finishing at the school in 1997 whilst "Woofa" has been transformed from a leading U19 goalkicker into a versatile reserves defender who has a knack of towelling taller opponents. Both players were pre-season standouts, and are a great example to their younger teammates. Finally, our other senior Vice-Captain Toby VanderVene came back to Trinity from Collegians in 2001 and has been one of our prime midfielders for the past 6 years. Toby is a much loved member of our senior side. Congratulations to all boys on their milestones.

De La Salle congratulates Richie Marks on 100 games. Richard started at De La in 1998 with the Club 18 Division 1 team. He has since played 50 games with the Warriors, 42 games with the Reserves and 8 Senior games, making his Senior debut in 2003. A very consistent, fit and hard running player, who was the Warriors best in finals in 1999, Richard is a great personality around the Club. Congratulations on your 100 games achieved last Saturday against Marcellin and all the best for the next 100 Richie!

A well earned break should see us all back and firing and ready for action again today as we head into the last two rounds of the first half.

REVIEW

Up at the Uni Oval, Beaumaris broke a year long drought against their hoodoo side Uni Blacks. Pretty close game up to three quarter time, then Beauy with big Mick Matulick down forward marking everything in sight took total control to totally demoralise the Blacks who are really looking forward to the break and a chance to regroup. Brayden Hynes in his 100th was terrific for Beauy, first gamer Kelvin Barnes made a nice debut and Michael Atkins controlled the back half. Matt Kempton is playing beautiful footy for the Blacks, Luke O'Connell and Luke Van Kempen also good.

Tough encounter at headquarters for OEG as they took most of the game to shake off a desperate Skevvies. They have been competitive all season and are unlucky to find themselves in this difficult position. Top efforts for OEG from a rejuvenated Cory Innes, Captain Courageous Leask, Boomer Clifton and Chief Wilson saw the Bombers go 5/2.

Another tough game at the office for Mazenod against old rivals Old Brighton. Full credit to the Tonners, who although not at full strength are playing as a pretty good unit. Andy MacGillivray with 8 and Adam Pirrie with 4 made it tough for the Noddors' defence. Callan Buckley and Nick Williams also pretty good. Best players for Mazenod were captain Ben Chamberlain Dom Dunne who disguised himself as a Ruck Rover and first gamer Tom Bailey.

Great first half by the Lions where they blew Whitefriars totally out of Friar Park. Jono Dixon and Shura Taft were dangerous up forward and the backline of Hosking, Roach, Mooney and Rowston are all providing plenty of drive. An improved second half by the Friars added some respectability to the score with Hilton, Cunningham and day all battling hard.

At Glenhuntly Park the Caulfield Grammarians proved too strong for MHSOB.

PREVIEW

Old Brighton welcomes Beaumaris to South Road. They would be well advised not to take the Sharks lightly as the players are really adapting to Russell Barnes' style of football and are a pretty competitive unit. But the break will have given a few of the Tonners' injured players a chance to recover and at home they will take the points in an entertaining game.

Old Essendon welcome Caulfield Grammarians to Penleigh and what a beauty this promises to be. Second playing Third, so the winner will take the psychological advantage and bragging rights. Both in pretty good form and have plenty of good players, so picking a winner is tough but the old advantage of home ground sways me "Smooth" to stick with the Bombers.

The hapless Skevvies make a short trek across town to tackle the classy Lions. Try as they might, and their plight is certainly not due to their lack of desperation, the visitors will just no be able to match all of the Lion's match winners and will unfortunately go 0-8.

Whitefriars await the Blacks at Friar Park. Both would have enjoyed the week off and the chance to regroup and look forward to their clash today. It is always hard to pick against the Friars at home and I won't be doing that today as they return to the winning list.

Mark Murray and his new side welcome his old club to the High School Oval. No quarter will be given or taken here as they all try really hard to impress each other. MHSOB have certainly been the best performed side of the two but if the Noddors can get a couple of forwards back in they could provide a bit of cheek. But the High at home should and will win.

M I MILESTONES NES

Whitefriars OCFC congratulates Chris Wood on reaching the 100 game milestone recently. After missing almost 2 full seasons of football due to serious injury, Woody made a welcome return to the fold this year. A great favourite of the Friar supporters, all at the club hope that the next 100 is achieved in double quick time.

All of us at Beumaris congratulate a truly great clubman in Nick Kennedy for reaching the 150 game mark against Uni Blacks last week. Nick followed in the footsteps of his father Gerry when he joined the club in 1996 as a sixteen year old. Nick played juniors and then U/19s for two years before being selected for his first senior game in 1999 and since then he has been a very committed member of the senior squad both on and off the field. His 150 games are evenly broken up between U/19s, Resgies and Seniors and he has represented the club with pride at all levels. It was terrific to see him win a premiership medallion with the reserves last year after the disappointment of missing out with the seniors in 2003 because of a business trip to China. Well done Nick!

TO PLAY OR NOT TO PLAY, THAT IS THE QUESTION

The concept of a playing coach in football is slowly becoming more and more antiquated.

In modern football, many coaches are becoming more and more like Executive Managers – surrounding themselves with Assistants and delegating tasks to those with specific areas of expertise (ie forward coaches, midfield coaches, defensive coaches).

So if this is the case, and we are just empowering people to do our job, is it that difficult to go out and have a kick if we are going to contribute to the side?

The upside can be:

- Gives you an extra leader on the ground who knows exactly how the game plan should be implemented
- Gives you a leader to exhibit the behaviours expected to meet your trademark,
- Will most likely be a significant contributor to on field performance.
- Provides massive care factor - a coach has the most to lose, so more than any other is likely to leave his heart out there.
- Can implement change on an immediate basis.
- Can take it upon himself to lift the side when the game is slipping away, particularly with an inexperienced or introverted group.
- Empathy with the playing group because you're doing not just telling.

The negatives can be:

- May miss subtle tactical changes from the opposition
- Concentration on own task
- Potential for injury or distraction during the game
- May limit flexibility in game plan
- May cause hierarchy of communication issues
- Loss of control over tactical and basic match day decisions
- Form – playing coach will be the first one targeted when things go wrong

The decision is a difficult one, and should be based upon the leaders you have at your disposal, the quality of your side, the impact you can have as a footballer as opposed to others, your ability to communicate and your attitude to coaching. It's often a case of “how long is a piece of string?” when making the decision about whether to be a playing coach, and to be honest, your gut feel is probably the right one. However, should you choose to go down the path, there are a number of areas that can be addressed that may assist in being a successful playing coach.

1. Off field Structure

You must have support staff with clearly defined roles An example is:

a. Chairman of Selectors

Should be empowered to make moves on match day to suit tactical issues that arise as well as responding to external factors such as injuries, blood rules etc. It is critical that you and he are in sync though.

Should also be a big contributor on the track, communicating areas for improvement to players etc while allowing the coach to train and look at the bigger picture.

b. Runner

Your runner is critical, and it is imperative that he is involved in all selection meetings so he understands not only the game plan, the tactics to be employed for the week but also to understand the contingencies or Plan B's & C's that may need to be employed. He needs to be able to communicate to you quickly and effectively of moves that have been made and the options that are available. He also needs to be able to communicate anything not negotiable that you want to happen without usurping the power of the Chairman.

c. Assistant Coaches/Playing leaders – Defence, Midfield & Forwards

This person could be a player, could be you, or could be a non playing assistant who is empowered to make decisions on the ground (or through the Chairman of Selectors). This person should also be responsible for taking some time at training with the defensive group to work on targeted areas that fit in with the overall game plan Probably the most difficult of these is the midfield, and probably best practice would be to have the Chairman of Selectors if not in full control, heavily involved with assisting in this area as it is most likely the place the most unnoticed rotations will occur to you as a coach.

MAINTAINING A QUALITY CLUB

As part of its commitment to providing a safe and enjoyable environment, MSHOBFC has adopted a number of enforceable policies that govern the behaviour and conduct of its players, supporters, members and officials.

Amongst these are the Racial and Religious Tolerance Policy which prohibits any conduct that offends, humiliates, intimidates, vilifies or insults another person on the basis of race, religion, colour, descent or national or ethnic origin.

The club has also adopted a Smokefree Policy in recognition of the effects of passive smoking and with a desire to promote a healthy family environment at the club.

A mandatory and enforceable Code of Conduct has also been implemented that relates to accreditations for coaches, as well as the general behaviour and demeanour of all players, supporters and officials.

The club formally adopted these in April 2006 and has emphasised their importance through the distribution of documents to all members and a series of talks held over Thursday night dinner in the clubrooms by VP Colin Johansen

MHSOBFC is committed to these policies and in providing a quality environment for anyone associated with the club. Full support is needed from all.

ROUND 7 REVIEW

It seems such a long time ago now, thanks to the near mid-season break, but there were some pretty exciting round 7 matches as the ladder starts to take shape.

St Bedes Mentone Tigers -v- NOBSPC

The home side took it up to the league leaders, showing plenty of passion around the packs and benefiting from ordinary conversion by SBMT. After a chance to re-assess, the visitors delivered a brutal 9 goal to zip second term, taking the wind out of the Combine's sails. Sam Anstey racked up 24 touches to halftime, but didn't return after the main change. Led by erstwhile veteran Scotty Sleep, NOBSPC rallied in the third term, kicking 5 goals whilst SBMT struggled to find the uprights, and there was less than 5 goals in it at the final turn. However, with Luke Wintle on fire down back and Hilton chiming in with 4 goals, the heavyweights showed why they're unbackable at present, putting NOBSPC away by 8 goals in the end.

Monash -v- Fitzroy Reds

At a cracker of a game at Monash, the Reds failed to get over the line "on the road". Some of the Reds play was simply scintillating, but it came in patches only. Monash were solid all day, with the 'bookends' of Michael Davidson (regularly out-marking Kane Maghamez) and Tom Craven (jagging 6 snags) epitomizing the Ashes' diligence. It took a major on the siren, the 3rd from 2004 Fisher Medallist Ameet Bains, to narrow things back to a 1 point Reds' lead. Unfortunately, the loss of key Redder Todd Clarke, plus the squandering of several Fitzroy opportunities, meant the first four goals of the last term went the home side's way. Full credit to Monash who keep racking up the wins, though this was a 'tough day at the office'!

Hampton Rovers -v- AJAX

The Jackas hadn't won at Roverland for 28 years and things looked ugly early!! Jeremy Yelland kicked the opening two goals for the Rovers in quick succession. It was more of the same in the second term as The Chief, Lambert and Carr kept getting first use of the pill at the stoppages. Trailing by 34 points at the main break, the Jackas had to make some positional changes, and this triggered a great revival. They focused on their tackling and suffocated the Rovers, restricting them to 3 scoring shots in the second half. Jason Israelsohn was back to his best providing a springboard from defence, whilst Jason Seidl matched the Chief, and Elliot Janover got amongst things too. Their superior intensity won the day, and AJAX can look forward to a return to HQ this week.

Old Camberwell -v- Old Paradians

On another fine day at the GBO, Old Paradians won a heart-stopper (or heart-breaker) over the Wellers by 2 points. The 2nd quarter became an open-range shoot out as each team moved the ball swiftly into their forward lines, with OC ruckman Stephen Derry giving good service to the on-ballers and Andrew Salipas running hard of his back flank. Down by 10 at the main break, Old Paradians nailed the first 3 goals to take the lead. To their credit, with Hardenberg, Hendrie and debutant U19 Damien McCabe stepping up, the Wellers recovered in the final few minutes to square the term. Again the game see-sawed, first seeing to Parade, but not sawing enough back to the Wellers who missed a long attempt to grab the lead before time expired with the ball deep in their attack again. A critical away win for Parade, who well may be a factor yet!!!

Ormond -v- Parkdale Vultures

Ormond bounced back from 3 successive losses to record an 84 point win over Parkdale Vultures at the Buxton Oval on Saturday. Ormond struggled early to open up any sort of break as Parkdale flooded back into the Ormond forward line causing a very low scoring and even first half. After the main break, the floodgates certainly opened!! Ash Russell, playing his first game of the year, capped off a great day kicking 6 goals for the game, and certainly received good service from Simon Keleher, Wayne Cove, Leigh Deledio and Dave Robbins in the midfield.

Tips

Almost at the halfway mark and things are still tight all the way from 2nd spot downwards!! NOBSPC simply have to win against Old Camberwell at the Gillon, but I simply can't see it happening!! OC by 15 points. Hampton Rovers hike down the freeway to face Parkdale, and should return with the chocolates by 22 points. The Top Two face off at Brindisi

Street, and Monash will be pumped for this one. I just see too many options up forward for the Tigers to drop this one, but it will be a classic. SBMT by 9 points. The Jackas host the improving Raiders at HQ and it will also be a humdinger – Jackas by 2 goals. Finally, the D Grade GF replay is a Brunswick Street, where I'm expecting a reversal of the result, Ormond by 4 goals.

M I L E S T O N E S

Old Camberwell congratulates Anthony Hardenberg who played his 100th game for the club against Old Paradians. Anthony joined the club in 1993. He was an integral part of our 1993 Senior Premiership Team. After a period of playing in the VFA/VFL, Hardy returned to the club in 1999. Appointed Club Captain this season, Hardy has always shown a level of strength and leadership on the field. Since his return, Hardy has battled a string of injuries which have exhibited his good humour and patience. Congratulations Hardy on finally reaching this mark.

MONASH BLUES: 150 GAMES - Christian Gregory plays his 150th game this week in a magnificent Amateur football career at the Frearson Oval. Gregors has immense natural talent and has inspired his teammates, thrilled VAFA supporters and confounded his opponents, as well as frustrating several coaches along the way! Like Ablett senior, sometimes it is worth coming to a game just to see him work his magic. As a forward, onballer or sometime defender he can do anything, including high marks and freakish goals. All at Monash thank Christian for his magnificent efforts over the years, particularly when he could easily have succumbed to pressures to play in a higher grade but stuck with the Club. We also thank his proud parents Alan & Beryl for their great support of Christian and the Monash Blues. Well done Gregors. 100 GAMES: 100 games this week to Andrew "The Scalpel" Hickey, who has graduated from the Under 19s to become a senior premiership player in 2003 and a class act with his damaging and accurate left boot setting up many forward thrusts. A young veteran, Hicks is a major part of the Club's challenge for promotion in 2006 and future success. Congratulations to Andrew on reaching this significant milestone from all at Monash.

ROUND SEVEN REVIEW

Emmaus St. Leo's scored their first win of the season in most emphatic style, winning by 35 points at the BSG, but more impressively being the first side to defeat Rupertswood this season. Paul Baranello and Nic Robin in particular stood out amongst a great team effort from the Animals.

A consummate display of D1 football was on show at Dunshea Oval as Old Carey's superior touch in front of goal got them over the line against Old Geelong by 16 points. Parton and Tiras split a dozen between them for the Panthers, while Tom Betts performed well in the ruck for the Oggers. Both teams however lost key players in Jogger White (OC) and Mark Vickers-Willis (OG).

Yarra Valley beat Prahran by 12 points in a tough encounter at Toorak Park. A controversial free kick awarded to Prahran right on three quarter time looked to give the Two Blues much needed momentum, but the Bushrangers managed to hold strong. Rob Drew in his 100th game starred for Valley, while Wil Walford stood out at both ends of the ground for Prahran.

Therry Penola once again fell on the wrong side of a narrow margin last week, losing to Bulleen Templestowe by one point at John Pascoe Fawkner Reserve. A dramatic finish saw Therry whittle down the margin from three goals, before being unable to score from a 65 metre shot after the siren.

Old Mentonians scored a fantastic win at the Playing Fields, defeating Banyule by 108 points. Midfielders Kade Murphy, Rowan Ball and Justin Field were particularly damaging, with Michael Basile and Chad Twentyman causing havoc up forward and Justin Vick and Anthony Palmer holding things together in defence.

Preview

Yarra Valley OB host Old Mentonians at Dorney Reserve. With both teams 3-4, they would still harbour finals aspirations. That may be a way off at this stage, but they will be happy to even their win-loss record first. Both team have their share of class players, but it may well be the second- and third-tier players who decide the outcome today. The Panthers' Palmer and Vick will have their hands full trying to contain the likes of James Keem. Could go either way, but at home, I'll throw my lot in with the Bushrangers today.

Emmaus St. Leo's travel to Toorak Park for their match against Prahran. With just one win between them, this is your classic relegation scrap. Eighth placed Banyule are two games and a healthy percentage clear of the drop zone, so this game is crucial to both sides' ambition of preserving their D1 status for 2007. The Two Blues will need to make the most of the chance created by Michael Radywonik in the ruck, while the Animals will need another collective effort from their forwards like last time out. I'm so impressed by their last result that I'll pick the Animals today.

Banyule take on Therry Penola at Warringal Parklands, with both teams looking to return to winning ways. Therry's Corey Bannister was well held last week and I can't see him being down for two weeks straight, while Justin Crotty continues to impress. Also look for Jason Harmes to build on his performance from last week. The Bears may like their chances at home, but a 108-point defeat is pretty hard to rebound from right away. I'll plump for the Lions this time around.

Two top four clashes to finish with. Firstly, the Bulleen derby between Bulleen Templestowe and Old Carey takes place at The Ted. Although the Bullants may have been less than impressive at times so far this season, their two game break over fifth place Therry tells its own story. As for the Panthers, a gutsy win over fellow finals contender Old Geelong has restored them to top spot, and perhaps flag favouritism (we'll see what they say on the D1 forum on "BigFooty.com"). I'll pick Carey in a close one.

Finally, Rupertswood trek down to Como Park for their clash against Old Geelong. Both teams are certainly not lacking in talent and this should be another entertaining contest. Interesting to see how Rupo react after their first loss of the season, especially considering that it was against unlikely opponents, and they have a tough opponent away this week. On the surface, Vickers-Willis looms as a key loss, but the Hoops have plenty of talent to cover his absence, especially if Colby O'Brien and Nick Casboul continue to perform to their usual high standards. Old Geelong for mine.

M I L E S T O N E S
Old Mentonians' Justin Vick finally celebrates his 50th game this week. Work and injury has meant that he's taken longer than normal to reach this mark, but is a valued member of the club nonetheless. Having played in various positions in previous years, he has found a niche in defence this season, featuring regularly amongst the best players. Congratulations Vicker from all at Old Mentonians. Here's to many more games, and hopefully a Panther/Bulldog double this week. Tom Fallaw also notched up his 50th game for Old Geelong in the last round against Old Carey. Tom joined the Oggers in 2003 and has firmly established himself in the seniors' forward line. He was in the 2005 premiership side, and is known for his trademark leap and grab. Well done Tommy from all at Old Geelong.

SUPPORTS THE VAFA AFCA/VAFA COACH OF THE YEAR

May Coach of the Month

U19 – Christian Neeson (Old Melburnians – Section 2)

Christian Neeson – Chris was appointed Coach of the Old Melburnians U19's this year in a move designed to focus on building senior club strength through youth development. Chris has many years of experience dealing with youth through his role as a School Teacher and also his previous roles as Operations Manager and Fitness Adviser at the Sandringham Dragons. The move has paid dividends for OM's with the side sitting unbeaten on top of the ladder after Round 7. Chris played junior football with Ormond before playing with Sandringham in both the TAC Cup and VFL Competitions. He joined OM's in 1999 and retired as a player last year, moving into his role as U19 Coach. It's great to see clubs entrusting the development of their young players to suitable candidates within their own club, and Christian's appointment shows how successful the relationship can be.

CLUB WAREHOUSE RISING STAR NOMINATION

ROUND 7

MICHAEL HAROLD (OAKLEIGH)

Oakleigh on baller Michael Harold is the nominee for the Club Warehouse Rising Star Nomination for Round 7 after his best on ground performance against St John's last Saturday.

Michael, still eligible for Under 19, is an extremely courageous on-baller who can really hurt sides with his use of the footy. Very dangerous when forward either kicking goals or setting them up!

Mick Harold is seen as a future captain of Oakleigh who plays with amazing courage and determination. He inspires the whole team with his lack of care about his own safety. For an U19, his professional attitude and commitment to the club is very impressive and will impact the rest of the playing list over the next few years.

Round Seven was a round for the favourites. All five saluted. The ladder is starting to take shape. Tough lot of games today.

Aquinas OC $1.33 v La Trobe University AFC $3.10

Aquinas were lucky to get over the line against Williamstown last round. Willy led for most of the day, and Aquinas kicked six goals in eleven minutes against the breeze to record a nine point win. Sean Leonard was good in the ruck for Aquinas, as were onballers Daniel Denbraber and Leigh Toomey. La Trobe were competitive against Peninsula but ultimately fell 29 points short. No doubt Aquinas will need to play better today, than they did last week if they are to get the points. Wooden could be due for a bag of goals for Aquinas, and I think they will get the points. I am not sure where the goals will come from for La Trobe. They will need big games from Coulter and Pruscino. Aquinas by 23 points.

Ivanhoe Assumption AFC $1.50 v Williamstown CYMS $2.40

Ninth plays tenth today at Hoe Park, and if Willy cannot get the points today, their season is doomed and they will be playing D3 next season. They were unlucky last round (as they have been in many rounds) but the bottom line is that they did not register the win. McGuinness was on fire in the midfield, and Wheeler was providing a great target up forward, but they did not receive much help. The Hoes were competitive all day against Werribee, and could have nearly pinched the win. Chris Traeger and Matt Wilson were outstanding all day in defence, and forward Dave Nielson marked strongly, and converted three majors. Traeger probably gets the job on Wheeler today. Hoes by 19 points.

Salesian AFC $1.65 v Werribee AFC $2.10

Big game for Salesian at Bosco Street today. They were lucky to get the points over Glen Eira with a goal by Ivan Bobetic on his non preferred foot with twenty seconds left in the match putting them in front and giving them the four points. Andrew Campbell was good all day for Salesian as was Singh of the half back line and Bonnicci on the ball. Werribee did enough to defeat Ivanhoe Assumption by 40 points but will need to play better today to get the points. I expect another good game from Andrew Tedesco today, but I expect Salesian to get the four points by 7 points.

St John's OC $1.70 v Glen Eira AFC $2.05

The Joc's will be happy to be back at Thomas Carroll Reserve today, and they know that if they lose today they will be brought back into the relegation scrap. Kane Arnold has been playing well all year, and will need another good performance today if the Joc's are to scrape over the line. Glen Eira have had combined losses of one and two points in the past two rounds, and are due for a change of luck here. Brad Clements and Luke Pryde impressed in their two point loss to Salesian, and if these two can hold their form, expect Glen Eira to be more than competitive today. Should be a fiery clash today, with a lot at stake for both clubs. Could be a kick in it either way. Joc's by 4 points.

Oakleigh AFC $1.85 v Peninsula OB $1.85

First versus second at Scammell Reserve, and what a match we should have on our hands. I may have to make an appearance at the ground today, to see the two premierships favourites in action. Both clubs are coming off good solid wins. Peninsula by 29 points over La Trobe and Oakleigh by 40 points over St John's. Daniel Zula had a good game in the ruck for the Krushers and John Rutter impressed in his on ball role. The Pirates were not overly impressive but got the job done, but I expect them to play a bit better today. It should be a shootout at either end with Payze and McKenzie, both noted goal scorers, but I feel the winner of this match will be decided in the midfield matchups. Zula v Ferguson will be a good battle in the ruck, as will the on ball battles between Rutter and Bromley from Oakleigh against Murphy and Falkiner from Peninsula. Not sure who to go for here. Peninsula by 9 points.

FOR THE LOVE OF THE GAME...

• 1 out of 3 for Representative Sides

Mixed results for the VAFA Representative Sides over the last two weekends with one win for the VAFA out of the three matches contested. On Sunday June 4th, the VAFA U23's lost to the WAAFL for the first time in Victoria when they went down by 38 points at Sportscover Arena. It was only the third time Western Australia has beaten Victoria in over 70 years of competition and a win they thoroughly deserved through their intensity, run and will to win.

The VAFA U19's were also beaten in their clash with Queensland AFL U21's in Brisbane last Saturday. Facing a physically stronger and more experienced outfit, the Vics acquitted themselves exceptionally well, going down in the end by 30 points in wet and slippery conditions in Brisbane. After early disruptions to travel plans (their flight was delayed due to fog), the Vics preparations were further disrupted with the AFL not allowing the game to go ahead at the Gabba as planned, transferring the game to a nearby oval. The Vics matched it with the Queenslanders for most of the match before tiring and being overrun late in the game. One of the highlights of the day was a pre-game pep talk from Brisbane Lions star Jonathan Brown whose heart will always be with the "Big V".

The A-D4 Representative side literally snatched victory from the jaws of defeat when they surged late in the game to down the Southern Football League by 5 points. All looked lost for the VAFA when they trailed the SFL by just over 3 goals late in the final term, but goals to Taft, Groves and Davis brought them to within a point with less than a minute on the clock. A desperate passage of play saw the Vics work the ball forward before a David Boundy (Captain) snap fell into the arms of Al McQueen-Parton (Vice Captain) in the goal square to ensure the VAFA's unbeaten record against the SFL remained intact. A fantastic game of football was rewarded with an exciting finish that had the large crowd on the edge of their seats (although none were seated) and had everybody commenting on the high standard of the game.

The VAFA has one more game of Representative Football remaining for 2006 when the U23's take on South Australia at Sportscover Arena on July 15th. Let's hope the boys can square the win-loss record for Rep. Games this season and move back to the top of the AAFC Tri-Series Ladder.

• Ex-CEO Punk'd

A couple of the U19 boys in Brisbane had a little fun with Ex-CEO Phil Stevens' phone on Saturday Night. Phil, who was acting as Team Manager, had left his phone unattended when some enterprising young footballers managed to get hold of it. They proceeded to send a message to every female name in his contact list. The message read something like "In Brisbane and missing you. I wish you were here with me – Love Phil". The females in Phil's contact list included his wife, ex-wife, sister, many friends and a receptionist who started work with Phil's company last week. Needless to say that once the prank was discovered by Phil some quick calls were made with an explanation.

• 90 Years Young

The President, Committee and Players of Mt Lilydale Old Collegians Football Club, would like to extend their warmest congratulations to Mr Ron Wilson (known also for his avid support of De La Salle) on his 90th Birthday milestone. Ron has been a wonderful supporter of Mt Lilydale Old Collegians Football Club since their first game in 1997, and look forward to seeing him at many more games in the future. All the best Ron, from all in the VAFA community.

• Northern Boys making an Impression

Often during winter it's a case of us southern types flying north to escape the cold winters. However, recent additions to Old Trinity's playing list would suggest the opposite is occurring in 2006, with great benefits to the club's culture. Pictured above are Mark Lee Thompson & Anne, Mick Hodges (holding Mark and Anne's son Michael), Hector Tipungwuti, Wayne "Jo Jo" Pilakui, Romeo Ullangara, and Samson Purutatameri. The five pictured have been warmly welcomed into the Trinity fold, together with Damien Zammit (a former captain of Darwin Buffaloes) and Matthew Duggan (Lower Plenty/Bullants).

All the boys have hit the Bulleen playing fields with great success in the past few weeks and have impressed the Trinity faithful with their silky skills, committed approach, and enjoyment of the game. The Trinity fans are grateful for the contribution these boys have made thus far, and certainly hope they will all go on to become seasoned players in the years to come. Who knows, it may be the start of an ongoing winter/summer football exchange program!!

• Joke of the Week

A successful businessman was accosted by a vagrant who asked for some money for a meal.

"Here, have a cigarette", said the businessman

"No thanks, I don't smoke", replied the vagrant

"Then let me buy you a drink."

"No thanks, I don't drink."

"Then let me give you this lottery ticket."

"No thanks, I never gamble. Couldn't you just spare some money for a decent meal?"

The businessman looked at him for a moment. "I can do better than that," he said, "you can come home with me and I'll cook you the biggest meal you'll ever see."

"Wouldn't it be easier if you just gave me some money?"

"Easier, yes," replied the businessman, "but I want to show my wife what happens to a man that doesn't drink, smoke or gamble!"

... Retrospective

by Geoff Reilley

5 YEARS AGO - 2001

It had been 35 long years since MHSOB had been on top of the A Section ladder. Their win over Old Scotch created this opportunity again for the proud club that had provided so many fine players and administrators. The 'High' could easily have blown it however with some very wasteful kicking for goal, 8.22 to 8.10 being the final score. It had been a great effort to win without star on-baller, Ewan Thompson, who unfortunately had his jaw broken, and subsequently wired, in the previous week's State game. Simmonds, Joseph, Fairchild, Simpson, White and Newton were the stars for MHSOB. Holt, Nettleton, Robinson, McCarroll, Gnatt and H Thomas were the Scotchies' best. Umpires were Tim Sutcliffe and Jason McNiece.

Although not mentioned in the best six in the win over Old Scotch, MHSOB's courageous skipper, Jayden Pertzelt, picked a great day to play his 100th game. Jayden's skill, leadership and dedication were greatly valued by all at MHSOB and he remained an ideal example to all younger players on and off the field.

Local rivals, Therry and North Old Boys, played out a dogged affair at Brunswick. NOBS' first quarter of 5.5 to 2.2 was critical in the heavy going. Only 4 more goals were scored in the remaining three quarters and although NOBS kicked 1.10 after half time they won by 24 points 7.14 to 4.8. Yandel, Vogels, Amor, Collins, Roach and O'Farrell were best for NOBS. Christofolt, S Boyle, Edwards, Cacamo, O'Sullivan and Mills led the way for Therry.

AJAX were delighted to place a notice in The Milestones section of the footy record to honour John Brustman who was officiating in no less than his 600th VAFA game as goal umpire. John, a Club Life Member, was in his 43rd year with AJAX. He was also in his 17th consecutive season as Honorary Secretary and had been on his club's committee for an amazing 41 years. This outstanding clubman had been acknowledged back in 1977 by the VAFA with a Certificate of Merit.

10 YEARS AGO - 1996

Kew and Beaumaris fought out a great contest at Victoria Park (Kew) in D Section before Beau just got over the line by 2 points, 14.9 to 14.7. The visitors had an excellent 5 goal last quarter. Kew's failure to utilize the strong breeze in the first term may have been its undoing. Best players – Nicholson, Quinn, O'Riley (7), Han, Taylor and McNicholas (Beaumaris) and Harrison, Pulvirenti (5), Chandler, Bailey, Lacranchi and Bruno (Kew).

There were two D Section 100 gamers in this round. Firstly Andrew (The Doc) Inkster from Old Camberwell, a goal kicker extraordinaire with legs the size of tree trunks and a loyal heart to boot. Secondly Darren Lowe at Caulfield Grammarians was back where he belonged at Caulfield and was a welcome addition with his long, raking left foot and great instructive talking during the game.

In Umpires Corner, Steve McCarthy and Anthony Damen were informing us of happenings within the umpiring fraternity. They started this week providing a 'building update' on the changes to the old grandstand at E Park. The changes involved a complete rehash of the area to house the new Umpires' Clubrooms. The establishment of a permanent home for the Umps was considered the most important event in the 71 year history of the Umpires' Association. I well remember visiting Elsternwick Park during that time and observing Wayne "Chuck" Hinton straddling the steel beams way above the ground while completing much of the construction work. It must have been all that manual labour that has allowed Chuck to retain his great mobility, enabling him to remain one of our top umpires even today.

20 YEARS AGO - 1986

In C Section it was a critical game between AJAX and Old Haileybury with a spot in the top four at stake. AJAX jumped out of the blocks early and after a competitive first term held a 10 point lead. OH came back strongly early in the second quarter before AJAX steadied again for a 17 point lead at half time. AJAX went from strength to strength in the second half and swamped Haileybury to win 15.12 to 9.12. Best players – Basser, R Marks, Feldy, Freidman, Zelinski (6), Levy (AJAX) and Baxter, Orton, Kingsley, Schmidt, Gerny, Paul (Old Haileybury).

30 YEARS AGO - 1976

AJAX confirmed their top spot in D Section with a strong performance over Old Geelong, 19.21 to 12.9. Ritterman, Lemish, Rozen, Fayman, Bialek (5) and Rosner had plenty of the ball for the 'Jackers'. Hunter, Thompson, Steve and Stuart Anderson, Hood and Ross were acknowledged for OGGS and surprisingly Bradshaw's 5 goals did not rate him in the top six. AJAX were undefeated to date but so were Old Xaverians who were too strong for Elsternwick, 14.16 to 8.7. Xavs best were Romanin, Browne, Pucilowski, Nankervis, Higgins and P McNaughton. Again, a goal kicker, Warming, with 5 did not make the best. The coaches, if they were nominating the best, must have been former defenders! Elsternwick's best contained the names of a number of their longest serving and greatest players – Rosewarne, A Ramsay, Grace, Blythman, Watson and Rigg.

St Kilda CBC wrote of their 250 gamer, Tony Sherman, thus "In less settled times, Shermo had a spell of 3-4 years in the Reserves but in keeping with his dedication has fought back to be a top liner with the Seniors once more". Parkside's captain-coach, Danny "Ferrett Head" Gleeson also recorded his 250th games for the Red Devils. Danny was considered was of Parkside's best ever players.

40 YEARS AGO - 1966

In D Section, Fairfield (fifth) met St Patrick's Old Collegians (fourth). It was a critical game and Fairfield ensured that the gap did not widen, rather they drew level on points with well earned victory, 10.9 to 6.14. It was Fairfield's great first quarter (5.3 to 1.4) that was the difference as goals were hard to come by for the remainder of the game. Fairfield's best were Day (4), Mason, Williams, Keane, Phinikarides and Kenney. St Pat's relied mainly on Armstrong, Ball, Doherty, Allen, O'Brien and Litaize.

In E Section AMP Society made their fourth place more secure by easily defeating the improving Reservoir Old Boys 11.13 to 7.15. Best players – Crompton, Ferral, Horskins, Hobson, Harrington, Coltery (AMP) and Horne, Imbery, Martin (3), Scott, McLaughlin, Jarvie (Reservoir).

50 YEARS AGO - 1956

Match of the Day in C Section was between Hampton Rovers and Caulfield Grammarians and it was the Rovers who came out on top, 10.10 to 7.16. On the first real heavy ground for the season, Rovers' best were C Adamson (4), Bogie, Lennie, Kerrigan, Shaw and Kelton. Caulfield's reaction was a poem that included a tribute to their skipper – (and this is only one of their five verses!)

We're going to miss captain-coach Ron Ashbolt,
Whose play and character are hard to fault,
Ron, we'll miss your inspiring play,
For the period you'll be away,
Hope you'll be back before the end of the season,
If not we will understand the reason.

Review

There were some interesting results from the weekend that have created a gap between the "Big Five" and the rest. Looking ahead a few rounds, there are some exciting match ups coming up making "D3 the place to be!"

Review

Perhaps the biggest upset of the round was not so much the result, but the margin as Elsternwick demolished the highly fancied Bentleigh at Candlestick Park. Minus "the brothers Dee", the Demons were jumped early and never in the hunt as Jack Neill dominated the ruck, creating first use for Brian Mahoney and Lachy Beddingfield who delivered in spades. After weathering a bit of a storm, the Wicks pressed the advantage in the final quarter to finish up by a massive 108 points.

In their best win of the season, the Gryphons made a step towards maintaining their D3 status with a win against a disappointing Kew outfit. With coach Steve Bourbon placing the onus back on his players after last week's drubbing, the Gryphons responded accordingly, and led by Leigh Dooley and Lee Wells it was a game to savour for the students.

The West Brunswick match at "the Pen" against Swinburne has shown that taking the points against this season's surprise packet is going to be a task not to be taken lightly. While the Magpies had to work all day for the win as the likes of Rob "The Pest" West went to town, Swinburne never said die. However, the difference in the end was the effort of Skipper Sam "Peach" who has claimed two of D3's biggest scalps in consecutive weeks, this time keeping Higgins for one as the Westies firmed in premiership betting with a narrow win.

No report from the Westbourne/South Melbourne match, however, I was in attendance for the first half, and it was a pretty entertaining match despite the blustery conditions. The Warriors delivered for Jucka in his 200th match and it was he who starred as the Warriors answered their critics with a gutsy win.

No report from the UHS vs St.Mary's match either, however, the result was surprising given the Saints recent form, and it must now be panic stations down at "the Stamp".

Preview

Bentleigh thankfully return to their home ground after last week's thumping and will be keen to wreak some payback against the visiting UHS-VU side. The students stood up and delivered last week and will be confident they can have some say in shaping the top four, and today provides no better opportunity to do this.

The likes of Charlie McFadden and Brad Meehan will need to lift their teammates today if the Demons are to remain in contention and for my tip, I am expecting this to happen as the Dees bounce back in a good win for the club.

Swinburne have continued to impress this season, however, they will be tested today as they travel to Monash meeting a side who are full of confidence. And why wouldn't they be confident when you have the likes of former back pocket Peter Rutherford kicking goals like it is going out of fashion? It may seem obvious, but the key to this match will once again be Higgins for the Razorbacks.

He really is the thermometer for the side. Hold him, and the students are a big show, let him loose and it will be how far Swinburne. In a tough game to tip, I am sticking with the home side to deliver in a close one.

The Warriors travel to the "Postage Stamp" in a match that is always a danger game for the club. With Westbourne only having won once before at the ground, the Saints will have to rate themselves a chance, albeit an outside one. However, they will have to restrict the Westbourne tall timber if this is to occur. I think though that this will be a match where someone like Stewie Balloch will shine and as such the Warriors should get home by a comfortable margin.

Kew host Elsternwick in a match that can only go one way. The season has gone from bad, to worse, to disaster for the Browns and I find it difficult to see where they can improve enough to challenge the "Big Five". Elsternwick however, continue to impress and with a number of star players still sitting on the sidelines, the signs are ominous for the rest of D3. My tip is the Wicks by plenty as they approach the halfway mark full of running.

What a match we have in store at "Cygnet Palace" as the Bloods host a West Brunswick side that can no longer take the line of "genuine underdog". The Magpies are undoubtedly the real-deal however the Swans on the rebound will be a difficult proposition. The prize for today's win is heading into the break knowing you team will be rounding the turn entrenched into the four, while the loser is back in the pack. For my tip, I am staying well and truly on the Pies bandwagon backing them for a win in a cracker of a match.

CORRESPONDENTS

I am currently in Germany for the World Cup (you can check out my progress at <http://aussieworldcup.blogspot.com/>). In the meantime, I will have three guest writers next week, so if you could get your reports into gavanflower@hotmail.com as soon as possible it would really help coordinate the copy for next round.

Monash Gryphons - Reserves forward Darren "Dazza" Grenfell plays his 50th game this week against Swinburne. Darren has been a more than handy ruckman in the twos over the past few seasons since coming to us to finish off his career. Well done from everyone at the Gryphs.

St. Mary's Football Club congratulates Adam Lane on finally reaching 100 games with the club. A tireless worker in defence, Adam gives everything he has every week, constantly backing into packs without a seconds thought. It has taken some time for Adam to reach this milestone due to injuries, but never has this man's love for the game wavered. Off-field, the man they call 'Dylan Bang' is larger than life and his legend will live long after he has hung up his boots. Well done Adam from all at St. Mary's.

The VAFA Choice in...

PIES, PASTIES &
SAUSAGE ROLLS

Well done to the Rep Umpires

To our representatives who umpired the state/representative games over the last couple of weeks, we congratulate them and hope they had great experiences, with these games being highlights of their careers. These umpires were as follows:

At Sportscover Arena, VAFA U23 v WAAFL U23 – Robert O’Gorman (F), Shane Mackintosh (E), Damien Anthony & Adam Rogers (B), Bernie Hoare and Daniel Scully (G).

At the Gabba in Brisbane, VAFA U19 v AFLQ U21 – Russell Davidson (F).

At Clayton Football Ground, SFL v VAFA for the Cystic Fibrosis Cup – Grant Joyner (F), Peter Monotti (B), Daniel Brooks (G).

We now look towards the next big lot of big appointments for the game vs SAAFL on July 15.

50 games

Peter (Petros) Angelis who umpired his 50th game last round is another footballer who has returned from the dark side to see the light and has found success in the middle. Peter is not only an ex-footballer (Bulleen United), but we have also converted him from the round ball to the funny shaped oval one. Siharitiria & bravo, Panayotis. (Congratulations & well-done, Peter).

Past Ump

Past umpire Peter Simpson fronted up to Macca’s function last month and it was great to see him again, but it’s amazing how quickly former umpires lose their “match” fitness. Simmo, on the way home, took 4 travellers, (as it’s a long trip north) opened the first traveller, took a couple of sips and proceeded to fall asleep. Oh how the mighty have fallen, pick up your game Simmo. What would Laddy think? He’d suggest something about softness.

A different card game

Poker seems to have become a very popular pastime for many of our umpires (and players) after training during the week of recent times. But there seems to be a little bit of confusion about the cards we use on the weekend, so here’s the brief version of how it all works.

A YELLOW card will be held up by the umpire towards the coach’s box and timekeepers indicating that a player has been sent from the ground, but has not been reported under the audible obscenity rule. This signal indicates that the player can be replaced. The player sent from the field may return when 15 minutes playing time has elapsed.

A RED card will be held up by the umpire towards the coach’s box area and timekeepers indicating that a player has been sent from the ground and reported for a reportable offence under the rules of the VAFA. This player cannot be replaced until 15 minutes of playing time has elapsed. The reported player may return to the field after that time period.

A BLACK card will be shown to the coach’s box and timekeepers indicating that a player has been sent from the ground and reported for a serious reportable offence under the rules of the VAFA. The player cannot be replaced until 15 minutes of playing time has elapsed. The player sent off cannot return to the field for the remainder of the match.

RESPECT THE UMPIRE – RESPECT THE GAME!!

The break was no doubt eagerly awaited by players and officials alike, however the hardy bunch of coaches would be having none of that! Will it disturb our momentum, will we lack zip after a week off, and will the fitness levels drop! They wouldn't even have a game to spy on. Anyway gents, back to it this week!

Review

Box Hill North had a great win, one that propelled them into the four as they accounted for Albert Park. It was close at half time before BHN was able to gradually pull away. Martini was a handful up forward with 6 goals, and Currie and Odza were also good. Thompson with 4 and Thomas were Albert Park's best.

The other '8 point' game saw Hawthorn work overtime to defeat a desperate Bulleen. It was a hard fought affair with Bulleen again suffering from a long injury list. Runnalls was again superb down back for the Hawks who were also well served by Pat McKenna. Bulleen were ably led by Conn in the back line along with Singleton and Fradkin.

Eltham managed to make it seventh heaven as they accounted for Syndal but not without a fight. The game was a cracker with the lead constantly changing throughout. Coach Blagrove with 4 goals, the ever reliable John Galvin and Chapman were the best for the Turtles whilst Mackenzie kept the Sinners in it with 5 goals.

Power House also had to work hard for the points against Eley Park. Once again, it was tight all day, however the House was ultimately able to prevail. Taylor up forward, Brady on the wing and swingman Edwards helped the winners.

Finally, North Brunswick made it two wins for the year as they accounted for a gallant Richmond. Bit quiet on the information front for the winners, however Richmond again listed Nuske with Smart also good.

Preview

Interesting mix of games this week as the top 5 take on the bottom 5. If results go as per ladder positions, we might just see the first signs of a break away! Other than top against bottom, exactly four positions on the ladder separate this week's opponents. Sad, Ed, very sad.

Top meets bottom as Eltham head down to Richmond. A bit of a scare last week for the Turtles however the mark of a good side is the ability to win ugly.

Once again, an encouraging show from Richmond last week as they managed to pile on double figures. Still, the juggernaut should roll on with the call of eight straight to be heard from the Eltham boys!

Now or never for the rejuvenated North Brunswick as they wander up the Eastern to play Bulleen. It is not a stretch to suggest that North could get to the half way mark 4/5 and a finals sniff. Problem is that Bulleen will have welcomed the break with the opportunity to bring back some big names. Bulleen should have the edge.

Box Hill North are excited to be in the top four however understand fully that crunch games such as this week's against Syndal are crucial to their finals aspirations. The Sinners have lost form in recent weeks, having dropped the last 3 in a row. BHN seem to be the real deal and should cement their top four spot.

Hawthorn travel to Eley Park as the rivals of yester year meet. Despite losing the last two, Eley Park have been ultra competitive and gave the House a lot to think about last week. The Hawks finally made onto home soil last week and will be looking forward to playing the 8 of 10 at home. Maybe the Hawks.

Finally, second placed Power House makes the small walk up the road to play 6th placed Albert Park. The House have very easily slipped into the role of quiet achievers this year and definitely have a no fuss approach about them. Their rivals are mixing their from a bit therefore hard to go against the Power that is the House.

Marcellin emerged 10 goal winners against the battling Collegians. Still in touch, MOC found the form they have searched for 2 months to find. Ged Hogarth on fire for the winners with three. BV took my advice and beat a hapless SKOB. Good work BV.... The two Matts (Little & Holmes) reportedly super for BV. Rupo stamped themselves as the "in form team of the comp" beating third placed ST Bernard's by a comfortable five goals. Great win by the battlers from Sunbury. Matt Quigley made his mark, booting five. In other games, De La accounted for Uni in a low scoring affair (captain Michael Kerkesks proving the difference), while Old Xavs gave Scotch a dose of look who's coming to dinner at Sportscover Arena. James Glen was handy for Xavs.

Preview

Match of the round, and it's a private school affair, how cosy. Xavs will be keen to throttle St Bernard's, but not without a fight. Xavs by two goals. Watch for "Dynamite" Dynton to impress.

In all honesty, I can't envisage too many more cracker jack games. Far too many good teams playing those lacking depth, confidence and want. This can be turned around though. I know these teams have the fight, they just need to re-discover it.

Dare I say the following: Marcellin by 52 over SKOB, Uni by 60 over Collegians, De La by 80 over Scotch and Rupo "oh Rupo" by 90 over BV.

Some floggings but nonetheless, has to be done.

Parade suggest a 3-horse race, putting Carey in their place. With second spot up for grabs, the two Titans delivered the EPIC we were hoping for, with 11 goals in the 1st. The competition's power forwards Bull and Solomon were prominent at either end and ironically, eventually played on each other in the guts. But, the Raiders ran hard, toppling the Panthers in a classic. Coach Spinner must feel confident that his boys shared the goal kicking duties, not relying on specific targets. Midfielders James Donald, Alex Asdagi and backmen Gibbons and Seneca were solid. The Blacks sunk the Fielders' ship with a 47 point trouncing and Nick Waters kicking 4. The Sharks continued Trinity's winless season, registering their 3rd win, in a walloping at Banksia Reserve. Brighton accounted for the Wellers, who are constantly up and down. Finally the undisputed leader, the OM's made an example of the Friars in a 44 point domination.

Section 2 resumes after a much needed long-weekend to recharge the batteries. The Sharks will be no match for the rampaging OM's. Caulfield will face the music against a Carey, who will need to bounce back after the Parade debacle. Marshall Bull will be looking to further that goal kicking tally. Brighton, who are only a game and percentage out of the four, will continue Trinity's winless streak.

Two teams on par early in the year, currently seem worlds apart, Parade over the Friars by 38 points. In this week's showdown, Camberwell over the Blacks in a thriller. I'm saying the Wellers tentatively, because I know they are capable of doing a complete 180.

Five tips out of five puts me near the top of the VAFA scribes' tipping competition, with all results going my way. Oakleigh continued on their winning ways with a convincing win over Benteleigh by 56 points, Ormond held sway in a tight game against MHSOB by 16, while Old Essendon enjoyed their second win of the season against Emmaus St. Leo's. Other results saw Old Ivanhoe have a good away win against La Trobe Uni and while St. Bede's Mentone looked like they flogged Ajax, for three quarters it was quite a close affair. Ajax had only 19 players and were physically undersized against their SBMT opponents, however, their fierce tackling and determination to win the ball would have pleased their coaches and supporters. Dean Simon, Aaron Freedman and David Selzer were best for Ajax, however, the SBMT players' ability to kick goals in 'red time' saw the margin blow out with 10 goals to 1 in the last 15. Daniel Atkins, goal kicking dynamo Dean Francis and Thomas Clegg all starred for St. Bede's Mentone, a team that will be a force come finals.

The Season so far...

Oakleigh: Early premiership favourites living up to their billing. Unbeaten and will be very hard to beat from here on in. Beat second place SBMT by 41 points last week, and their closest result came when they beat La Trobe away by just 5 points. St. Bede's Mentone: Going very well indeed. Big, strong bodied side that will be Oakleigh's biggest danger when finals come around. Only loss this season was against Oakleigh. Ormond: 2005 U19 Blue Premiers travelling very well with only one loss so far this season to Old Ivanhoe. Had some close results but got through every time. Will play finals. Old Ivanhoe: Preseason they were touted as big improvers and they have performed extremely well under Brad Shadbolt. Two losses to Oakleigh and SBMT, they should take the fourth spot. Bentleigh: Started the season well, but have struggled against the better teams. Will be the only challenge to Old Ivanhoe for the fourth spot, but they will need to take a few scalps. MHSOB: Hard team to follow at the best of times. Can challenge a good team one week, get flogged the next. Will be competitive. La Trobe: Honest team under Coach De Bono but finds it hard to win. Always has a crack and rarely loses by much. Will shape the final four. Old Essendon: Two wins have been against teams below them, will try and take a scalp. Ajax: Only one win, but form isn't has bad as ladder suggests. Emmaus St. Leo's: Winless and I can't see where their first win will come from. Young lads should try and get some fun and form from remainder of the season.

Tips round 8: MHSOB, Old Ivanhoe, Oakleigh, Bentleigh, Ormond. Send info into al_vafa@hotmail.com

Under 19-Blue Review

Old Haileybury look unbeatable, and though there is no such thing in football, they demolished De La Salle. Anthony Wright bagged 5 goals for the victors, while Lyle Smitsdorff displayed a best afield performance. Great team effort saw Old Mentonians beat Monash comfortably with John Thompson leading from the front, while Robert Layton kicked 8 majors to see Parkdale win their first game for the season against Powerhouse/Sth Mornington. Robert Horler and Ashley Wood were also very good for Parkdale, while Powerhouse's Ricky Wood battled hard all day. A great game from behind win by Oakleigh Clayton saw them steal victory off Hampton by 3 points, with Daley Jones and Nathan Naiou solid performers for Oakleigh. Mazenod had the week's rest.

The Season so far:

Old Haileyburians: Taken on all before them and yet to taste defeat. Deserved premiership co-favourites, with Round 8 clash against Mazenod the match of the season.

Mazenod: Premiership co-favourites, also undefeated. Will get two week's rest before facing Old Haileybury and their form before the break was vintage football. De La Salle: Two hefty losses to top two teams has derailed their season after great start, but proud club will bounce back and play finals football in 2006. Old Mentonians: Haven't beaten much and struggled against the top teams, yet still find themselves in the top four. This newly formed team won the preseason Max Lyon cup and can have a say in the finals, but will need to improve to compete against top two. Oakleigh Clayton: This section's big improvers having claimed some good wins and could battle Old Mentonians for coveted fourth spot. Round 9 clash between the two teams will provide many answers. Monash Blues: Solid team that has seen them win two games this season, one of them against Hampton. Will be competitive against teams situated in the middle/lower half of ladder. Hampton: Biggest disappointment of the season so far, only had one win against Powerhouse. They must try and salvage something from the season, and while they promise so much they have failed to deliver in a big way. Parkdale: Newly formed team finding their feet in the section. Their win last week will boost their confidence, but might continue to struggle. Powerhouse/Sth Mornington: Another new team struggling in this section. Will find it tough to win from here, but I hope they get one somewhere.

Tips round 8: Monash, De La, Old Mentonians, Old Haileyburians

Westbourne suffocated the Woodsman's running game, winning by 59. Daniel Sidwell kicked 4 for the home side while Brenton Spiteri and Haydn Templeton were also strong. Rupo players Quinn and Tristan Murphy tried. The Bullants got back on the winners list against Therry in a 68 point drubbing. Voglis dominated out of the middle while Dan Tonelli kicked 5 last quarter goals to total 8 for the day. Illingworth also chimed in with 5. Not sure what's going wrong with Kew, but they got hammered by a dominant Xavs side. Tom 'MC' Lee added another 5 to his tally in a 65 point toweling of the once thought finals contenders. The victorious Reds got a scare from the Old Saints who at half and three-quarter time were less than a kick behind. Ligris (4) and Olarenshaw were good for the Reds while Anthony Torpy (3) and Chris Ford were solid for the Old Saints.

After a week off, Therry host Kew and the latter will be looking to find some form after being nudged out of the four by the Bullants. Kew by 4 goals. Rupo host Fitzroy, but the drive down the Calder will not hamper the flying Reds one bit. Reds by 7 goals. The two newly initiated teams finally face off and I'm tipping the Xavs to dominate and destroy the Old Saints by 37 points. Westbourne host Aquinas who need a win to stay in touch with the top two sides. I think this one will be closer than most people think, but Aquinas should take it by 16 points. The Bullants have another week off. bernech@netspace.net.au

Round 8

The glorious uncertainty of football was again demonstrated in Round 7 when the unexpected became the expected once again. Selection of winners is certainly more difficult in 2006 than it has been for many, many seasons. My rate in Round 7 was 73%.

Review

Section 1

Prahran won a close encounter with Mazenod by 13 points. The "Two Blues" now sit second and 2006 could see their long awaited success in a final series become reality. For the first time since the 1995 Grand Final, Old Scotch was victorious over Old Xaverians. Although the Xavs had more scoring shots, the greater Old Scotch accuracy saw them triumph by 9 points. True to my forecast, St Bede's/ Mentone Tigers did provide a tough initiation for the University Blues at Brindisi Street. Apologies to David L'Huillier and his team as I did not have the courage to select you in what loomed as a danger game to the former top four side, University Blues, who lost by 45 points. They won't be the last to suffer such a fate in Mentone! Best for the winners were Travis Laver (2 weeks in a row) Matthew Hecker and Matt McGraw. None was better for the University than Captain Chris Waxman, Nathan Freeman and Josh Pointer. De La Salle now head the ladder after comfortably defeating Old Xaverians 2 by 40 points. Old Melburnians showed their recent form was their true when they defeated St Kevin's by the minimum margin to severely dent the reigning premier's finals' aspirations. The Old Melburnians finished with a seven goal burst to snatch the four points virtually on the siren.

Section 2

Mt Lilydale continued on their high scoring way with a 98 point win over St Bernard's, who slipped to fifth as a result. For Mt Lilydale, Michael Rhodes and Justin Roberts were prominent. Martin Byrne did well for St Bernard's. An accurate Old Brighton defeated Therry Penola (who had more scoring shots) by 38 points in a high scoring game at Brighton Beach Oval. University Blacks kicked a very high score against the yet to win Marcellin, who lost by 175 points. The win lifted the Blacks to fourth. Inaccuracy kept the Monash Blues' margin over Collegians to 8 points in the Monash side's closest game of the season. Monash were behind at the last change and had to show their fighting qualities for the first time this season to run out winners. Their best were: Paul Coghlin, Hugh Batrouney and Joe O'Dwyer. Undefeated Fitzroy Reds came from behind in the second half to defeat a disappointing Whitefriars by 29 points. The "Friars, who now find themselves a game behind the leaders, face a big task to re enter final four calculations.

Section 3

Fitzroy Reds defeated North Old Boys/ St Patrick's by 42 points. Old Trinity maintained its threat to the top four with a 39 point win over La Trobe University. Ryan Hillas did well up forward for Trinity. An accurate Emmaus/ St Leo's defeated Old Geelong by 21 points. Beaumaris showed improved form to down leaders Caulfield Grammarians by 21 points. Caulfield dropped to second as a result. Old Essendon Grammarians regained the Sectional leadership through their 52 point win over Old Scotch. Old Essendon built up a commanding lead early in the game and were never seriously threatened, although the Scotch inaccuracy in front of goal did not help their cause. Best for Old Essendon were; John Hughes (again), Sam. Evans, Chris. Jones and Hugh Lovell.

Preview

Section 1

I expect Old Scotch to defeat St Bede's/ Mentone Tigers at Camberwell even though the Mentone based side will give a good account of themselves. Now that Old Melburnians have found winning form, I expect them to maintain it today by defeating Mazenod on Central Reserve. It would seem that University Blues just fall short of being a top side, when judged on their results. I expect more evidence for my theory today when they fail against leaders, De La Salle. In a finals preview, Old Xaverians visit Prahran. The star studded Prahran side seems to have been bolstered by new blood and the Xaverians, with two defeats in seven matches have not played to their standard of previous seasons. Prahran have not played well under pressure and their running fitness is suspect (especially on a big ground) despite their officials being critical of my assessments over the years. The Xaverians will be all out to win today and I select them to do so despite strong opposition at least early in the game. St Kevin's should be able to regain winning form by defeating bottom side Old Xaverians 2.

Section 2

Collegians should be largely untroubled to defeat bottom side Marcellin at Bulleen. At home I select Monash Blues to continue on their winning way against the unpredictable Whitefriars, whose form must be a nightmare for Coach Norman Elliott. They came from behind to defeat the Blacks yet they faltered when ahead against the Reds. Who knows what today will bring? University Blacks, despite exams, should consolidate their top four billing by defeating Therry Penola at Oak Park. The contest of the Round will be at Mt Lilydale where the home side meet the undefeated Fitzroy Reds. The small and damp ground will suit the home players better and I select them to inflict the first defeat on the Reds. St Bernard's have promised a lot but have not yet produced a consistent effort despite their early success. Winning takes effort and won't happen by right so the "Dogs" will have to work to defeat Old Brighton, who are coming off a win. I believe your boys can win at home, Andrew and Brian!!

Section 3

I select Emmaus/ St Leo's to defeat the improving Beaumaris at Bennettswood and so consolidate their position in the top four. The two top placed teams meet in Glenhuntly when leaders, Old Essendon meet second placed Caulfield Grammarians. The Caulfield players disappointed last Round whereas Old Essendon rectified their slow starts with a winning burst in the first quarter. I will select Old Essendon as I wonder about the Caulfield fitness against sides who run hard and move the ball quickly. Fitzroy Reds should be able to account for La Trobe University even on the wide wings of the University Oval. Old Trinity should continue on their winning way at the expense of Old Geelong who appear to again be a middle of the ladder team. Old Scotch have an excellent opportunity today to win against last placed North Old Boys/ St Patrick's.

Team Managers; Thanks to those who supply details From Round 7, I received reports of 5 matches plus the 2 halves I saw so my coverage is increasing. Please contact me by telephone 9467 2857 or e mail nknugent@bigpond.com by 1.00 p.m. Monday.

M I I MILESTONES E S

Monash Blue's stalwart, Mark (Shooter) Dods played his 150th game against Collegians. Mark and his family have given great service to the Blues for many seasons. Mark's strong play across the backline regularly puts him in the Club best players.

Magic's 50 at St Kevin's. All at St Kevin's congratulate Dave "Magic" Petrou who played his 50th game against Old Melburnians. "Magic" came from the College in 2002 and is a cult figure around the Club with his hallmark dreadlocks and "Magic" Johnston singlet. In 2004 "Magic" played in the Under 19 Section 1 Grand Final and in 2005 he achieved premiership success, in Club XV111. "Magic", who is of diminutive stature, has a heart bigger than him and has built a reputation as a fearsome tackler. Well done "Magic". All your friends look forward to your next 50 games.
