by Cameron Noakes

IT IS around this time of the season that the depth of a football club is tested.

Let's face it, football is a tough sport and injuries happen. Some of you may have been feeling the pinch from the start of the year but for some of you the injury list might be starting to build and that could be hurting your results. Combine that with a few absentees and that's when a high quality reserves team is invaluable.

Usually, when you look at a ladder you expect to see the top clubs in the seniors leading their reserves competition as well.

In D4-section, Eltham and Power House AFC hog the top two spots of the seniors and the reserves but the order is reversed in the seconds.

In D2-section, Aquinas is second in the seniors but tops the reserves and in D1-section Old Geelong heads both competition ladders.

In B-section and C-section, it is currently all about Collegians and St.Bedes/Mentone Tigers respectively.

Both clubs are ladder leaders in the four competitions with St.Bedes/Mentone Tigers reserves on top with a whopping percentage of 505.19.

I don't think I can recall ever seeing such a massive percentage. This weekend's clash with second-placed Ormond should be an interesting reserves game.

In A-section the story is a little different and a tad surprising.

A-section scribe Jonathan Horn has already commented on this in The Amateur Footballer but, quite frankly, it is bizarre to see the flag favourite and ladder leader of the seniors on the bottom of the reserves.

Old Haileybury has had one win in the reserves and has a percentage of just 36.45. It could not be further apart from the senior team which has had just one loss for the season.

What this means for the Bloods, I am not sure, but I would feel reasonably confident of putting a couple of coins on all those clubs with a strong reserves outfit to be claiming a flag this year.

It is not surprising to see the University Blues, St.Bernard's and Old Xavier all winning A-reserve flags in recent years when the seniors have also been winning.

And Xavs reserves have won six premierships since 1995 and we all know what the seniors have been doing during that same period.

I'm sure Old Haileybury is capable of winning its first A-section flag this season and bucking the trend. But if its reserves were on top, the Bloods would just about be unbackable favourites at this stage.

The odds of Collegians moving into A-section next year are very skinny and expect all the clubs that are leading the seniors and reserves at this stage to be thereabouts deep in the spring.

The one thing that is certain at the moment is that there will be more teams tested by injury and absentees.

And what that means is there will be more upsets to come, especially when some teams are playing to keep their heads above water. Have a look at last weekend.

The three bottom teams of A-section all won against teams who were playing for a top four spot and in B-section the second and third-bottom teams were also able to claim four points.

We all know anything can happen in football but now is the time for the clubs with depth to shine.

I Beg Your Pardon?

Just when you think you've got this Amateur footy caper more or less sussed, up pops a round like last week. Why don't we start with Marcellin; I mean, what odds could you have got on an Eagles victory at the 'Varsity? Then again, shrewd tipsters would note that Marcellin have a good record against Uni in recent years, particularly at Parkville.

Very significant that Brett Dobson was best on ground. Can't kick, too slow, over-rated, some say. But like his Uncle Tony Shaw, he just keeps getting the ball, is brilliant in heavy conditions and starts everything with his handballs. He's piped the likes of Rice, Dinneen, Cox and Cullinan for multiple B&F honours in the past and would be a shoe in to win this year's award. A few more years like this and he may even get a state jumper. Big Ford dealer Gian Romanin and Jarrod Frazer's mate Richie Frisina both had days out up forward.

And suddenly Uni is in the relegation mix. This is Uni, with state players galore and premiership players on every line. This is Uni, with the 2nd highest percentage in the competition, a team that many sides have dubbed the best in the business (ask anyone from De La or Trinity). Jason Cordy kicked six and Luke North made a welcome return but John Kanis must be going batty.

If Marcellin are going to fight tooth and nail to stay up, you can bet your bottom dollar that their Bulleen neighbours Trinity will follow suit. They have knocked off three premiership aspirants at home and are a seriously handy team. Damien Buttler is having a superb season off half back, Tom Ecklesley (two last quarter goals) is a real livewire in the Cultrera mould and Dave Beardsley touched up Gerstman. Scotch were ordinary again but went in without the services of Matt Flynn, Ben Doherty and Andrew Pugsley. Andrew Quail is having a great year and was their best again.

And then we have OMs. When I heard this result, I almost sparked an eight car pile up, Frank Drebin style. Unfrickingbelievable but full credit to Dean Rice and the Grammar who were well served by Josh Russo and Will Sangster (formerly of the Sydney Swans and Noble Park). Perhaps the day's most extraordinary development was the tirade unleashed by St Bernards' Neil Loughlin on North West FM that night. Live from his weekly dialysis session, Neil teed off at the entire club, from head to toe. No way a club with supporters like that will ever go down to B Section...they'd be far too scared!

Despite what I thought two months ago, there's no way Ivanhoe are headed back down, indeed they're right in the mix for finals. Small man Luke Lochran is one of the form players of the comp and must be a show for on-ball duties in the state side while Sam Geilings and Sjouke Price were also good. In many ways, Ivanhoe are the turn up of 2006.

And at the Badlands, Haileybury totally snuffed out Xavs, with David Mason, Paul Corrigan and El Disco all starring. What other amateur side of recent times could boast a top ten to match this... Heath Hopwood, Carl Steinfort, Laz Siapantas, Brett Trollope, Paul Corrigan, Mark Corrigan, Mark Seccull, Kynan Ford, Andrew Jenke, and Brett O'Farrell. The long term loss of O'Farrell is the only lingering question mark, otherwise the Bloods are spot on for their first ever A Section flag.

Preview

Holy Moly, it's ten years since De La beat Old Xaverians. Round 3 2006, Elsternwick Park, your humble scribe's first senior game in the Amateurs. I remember our captain Damien Toohey took us into the showers to belt out the club song as close as possible to our despised foe. That's about all I remember however; Xavs' captain Matt Hanneberry knocked me out and I spent the next 2 days singing "Whip it" to an increasingly concerned girlfriend.

A decade on and the stakes couldn't be higher for De La. A win today would

b/ cement them as a serious A Section side and c/ put Xavs right back in the pack.

Toorak Park = House of Horrors for Xavier these days. De La by a point.

Very hard to tip against the Badlanders at Camberwell. Can't imagine Chelmsworth Park will do any favours for Uni and you'd have to tip Ivanhoe.

I'll go for the 'Pitters against Marcellin, with considerable trepidation.

And Trinity by a furlong over OMs

Which A Grade club pulls the biggest crowds? Email jonathan_g_horn@yahoo.co.uk. No prizes, just interested in your thoughts.

Last week's answer was.....deep breath.....Barry Richardson. Though as the prizewinner Rob Gross (Old Scotch) pointed out, Ivanhoe's Gerard Sholly has a bit of the Fletch about him as well.

by Tom Brain

Another Round completed with Collegians remaining unbeaten and St Kevin's still winless. Will this scenario change in the coming weeks or do I throw one at you from left field, "Is it the year of the Bomber???"

REVIEW

University Blacks, fighting for survival, surprised the pundits with an excellent away win at Friar Park. They were able to kick enough goals as big forwards Luke O'Connell and Matt Savige came good, as did Daniel Costello down back who was unlucky to miss selection in the Under 19 Rep side.

My Mazenod scribe has been promising me some key forwards for weeks and on Saturday he finally delivered with the return of a couple, allowing them to kick more than 5 goals and give themselves a chance of victory. Playing against MHSOB coached by Mazenod Legend Mark Murray, the boys lifted and came away with a well deserved victory. Best for the Noddors were Appolonio in his first game for the year, Bonner and Nelson. For the High Ewan Thompson was superb, Rhys Limbrick solid and 18yo Steve Villani made an impressive debut.

The Fields came out of the blocks hard looking to claim OEG'S scalp but inaccurate kicking early spoilt their assault. Guru Handley worked some magic with his troops at the long break as they totally controlled the second half kicking some 11 goals to their visitors 3. Best players for the Bombers were Thong Towner, Rough-Cuts, Goulet and the re-invigorated Jordan Leask. Twin Towers, Hakim and Playfair were dangerous with 9 between them. Ben Carboni, Andrew Strain and Josh Wright all tried hard for the Fields.

SKOB's, with the best side they have put on the park for the year, hit the Trott with some form of confidence but by the first change were already 3 goals in arrears. This situation continued throughout the day as the Lions with Jono Dixon marking strongly, young Marty Williams giving drive from the ruck and skipper Unsworth in good touch as well, Collegians were just too strong. The Markologist with 6 twins was best for SKOB.

Another still day at South Road saw Old Brighton and Beaumaris play an exciting draw. Both sides had their chances throughout the day to snatch victory but couldn't do it. Andy M was befuddled with the Tonners inability to use Tom Mentiplay to their advantage. Toby Ewart was easily Brighton's best and was fantastic in the ruck, while Andy MacGillivray and Pirrie were dangerous in the goal mouth. David Teasdale with 5 was good for the Sharks as was Sean Coote at CHF and Luke McNicholas in the ruck.

PREVIEW

Beaumaris welcome MHSOB to Shark Park. Been in pretty good touch of late Beauy and are adapting to Barney's style pretty well while MHSOB have had a disappointing fortnight and are missing a few players. At home in front of their own I think the Sharks can keep their momentum going and win.

SKOB at Sportscover welcome Whitefriars. The Friars can't even win at Friar Park of late so you wouldn't back them today with bad money. SKOBS get another couple of names back as well I believe to strengthen the unit that I believe will greet the judge for the first time.

Mazenod, full of restored confidence, welcome the Bombers to Central Reserve. Under Darren Handley, OEG have found some consistency missing in previous years and are looking impressive. The Noddors will be competitive but will find the class of OEG just a bit much.

Likewise University Blacks back at home will be keen to have a real crack at Old Brighton who reckon I should get off their bandwagon now. But have been impressed with the Tonners during the year and while perhaps lucky to take 2 points last week should get 4 today.

Caulfield Grammarians will be primed to make amends from their poor showing last week as they welcome the all conquering Collegians to Glenhuntingly. I'm sure Pat Hawkins would be keen for the Lions to go through the first 9 games undefeated and will leave no stone unturned to ensure this happens. Promises to be a beauty in front of a big crowd, winning form is good form so it's the Lions for me.

M I MILESTONES E S

All Caulfield Grammarians congratulate, Andrew Will as he plays his 250th game this Saturday. Club captain, dual B&F winner, premierships player, VFA representative, "Willos's" accolades are too numerous to mention. He is a credit to himself and his family in the manner in which he has conducted himself throughout his playing career, which does not include a single reserves game which in itself is a fantastic achievement.

We also congratulate Joe Sayers on his 50th CGFC game. Jumping Joey has developed into a fine senior player and in our second season back in B Grade, Joe has had to compete against much bigger ruckmen, which he has done admirably. Well done to you both, from all of your mates at The Fields.

TO PLAY OR NOT TO PLAY, THAT IS THE QUESTION - PART 2

...It's often a case of "how long is a piece of string?" when making the decision about whether to be a playing coach, and to be honest, your gut feel is probably the right one.

However, should you choose to go down the path, there are a number of areas that can be addressed that may assist in being a successful playing coach (continued from Round 8 edition):

2. Training

Not negotiable is having training organised to the minute. You must know exactly what is going to happen at training, who is responsible for what and ensure the players are clearly aware of what will happen. This allows you to participate and allows the support staff to assist in giving feedback etc.

3. Video/Feedback

This is critical as it allows you to watch without necessarily having a pre conceived idea of what may or may not have gone wrong. Experience tells me when I've viewed a game after playing in it, I am a lot more objective than if I had coached from the sidelines. This can result in superior feedback to the team as a collective and the players.

4. Communication with players

It must be understood that you have two distinct roles in this side. One as the coach, the other as a player. You must be accountable for your own performance, and an option is to have an honest and open line of communication with your Chairman of Selectors and accept any decisions they make with regard to your performance. This then allows you to speak freely to your players as they know you too will be held accountable for not delivering on your expectations as a player in the side.

It is also imperative that you empower your players to be responsible for the trademark behaviours of the group, and that they feel responsible for both the establishment and implementation of these. If this is done effectively, many of the discipline issues within the club can be dealt with effectively by the playing group, another headache avoided.

5. Pre-match

Pre-game, it is imperative that you have communicated with the team as to the game plan, the tactics and the contingencies. It's imperative then to check in with each player clarify their understanding of their roles and responsibilities for the day. You then hand the bulk of responsibility over for the day to their line coach and the COS.

6. Research/Opposition

As a playing coach you must do more research than the opposition coach because you cannot coach "on the fly". This I believe is an area that can make or break you. As mentioned, contingencies should be discussed with the off field coaching group, so they understand exactly what may happen and can generally respond in accordance to your thoughts. This helps with continuity of message to the playing group and avoids delineated lines of communication.

No matter what decision you make, anyone taking on the role as a playing coach should be admired because it's a massive responsibility. If you think about the pressures you have as a coach week in week out without worrying about your own form, performance, the feedback of others, then it gives you an insight into the enormity of the task.

However I honestly believe there is place for playing coaches in football. Whether it be to lead a side through to a famous victory based on sheer football ability or being able to provide leadership to a group that may be emerging in this area, there is definitely a place for it.

Whether that's for you or your club remains a question for debate!

U19 VAFA STATE REPS

MHSOBFC is very proud of its two representatives in the VAFA U19 state side that played against the QFC U21 on the Queen's Birthday weekend in Brisbane.

Joshua Richmond (left) was the state captain and Lachie Evans an on-baller.

It is seldom a club gains two representatives in the one Under 19 side and we believe it was a fitting tribute to the excellent performances both players have exhibited in the senior side this year.

Lachie Evans, our U19 captain, has only played one game in the U19s, the rest being in the seniors; Josh Richmond has yet to play an U19 game. Our senior trainer, Kylie da Fonte, was also selected in the Victorian side as trainer and we are also very proud of that.

Congrats to all three on achieving this rare honour.

Matt has great ability and will develop into a very useful senior player. We all wish Matt well today and best wishes for the next 50.

ROUND 8 REVIEW

AJAX -v- Old Paradians

A rather efficient Jackas outfit took full advantage of the loss of key Paradian David Bouny, smashing the visitors after quarter time to win by 62 opints . With Bloom and Anthony Rosen combining for 9 goals up front, the Jackas ran hard out of their backline all day, safe in the knowledge that they would get reward for effort. It was another great team performance, led by their gun midfielders in Lewski, Israelshon, the Jankie brothers and Jason Ritterman. For Old Paradians, it was certainly a dirty day, but Matthew Godfrey, Adrian (La) Paglia and Brett McAllister could hold their heads up high.

NOBSPC -v- Old Camberwell

Despite early dominance by the visitors, who held a commanding 4 goal lead in the first term, a desperate NOBSPC managed to chime in with the next three to hit the first break only 5 points adrift. North's fleet of small runners were scouting the packs well & starting to cut up at the stoppages. This, combined with some strong defence on the last line, produced enough opportunities up forward for the home side to take a slender lead to the main change. For most of the third quarter it was nip & tuck, with both sides moving the ball swiftly in the midfield by hand & foot. The Wellers' were well served by Mark Jury, who took several important defensive grabs, as well as Ben Atkinson, as both teams' defences were worked over time. North struck a couple of important blows late in the quarter, to grab a lead of 20 points at the last break. After Old Camberwell kicked the first couple to get within striking distance, NOBSPC switched back into a miserly defensive game plan to secure the vital 4 points and keep in touch with the main pack.

STBMT -v- Monash

In almost perfectly still condition, the Tigers were able to push the pedal down in the last 10 minutes to final shake off a persistent Monash side. Frankly, StBMT should've shut the visitors out of the game earlier, but their achilles heel remains converting in front of goal, and it was only in the final term that they started to find the big sticks. Monash employed their trademark "strangle" to good effect, going man-on-man and limiting the Tigers' run. Still, key Tiger James Tyquin was able to maintain his relentless running, and Luke Terrell gave good support to Paul Wintle up front. Meanwhile, in his 150th game for Monash, Christian Gregory was simply brilliant. If not for a shot which hit the post after the siren signalled the end of the third term, Monash would have the lead at the final change. As it turned out, once Monash kicked the first goal of the last quarter, StBMT finally clicked into action and slammed home 5 of the next 6 goals with Beveridge, Zakic, Groves, Hayes and Terrell putting icing on the cake.

Fitzroy -v- Ormond

The break couldn't have come at a better time for the Reds'

2006 campaign. The Riot Act was formally read out to the playing group by the coaching staff and they responded brilliantly on the weekend. The return of several players from injury also helped, but the old Redders were back in town defeating Ormond by 11 goals. They home side started slowly, as Dan te Hennepe and Simon Keleher led the way for the visitors. However, Fitzroy took over in the middle and surged ahead to lead by 13 points at the main change. It was more of the same thereafter with Louis-Gleeson, Grossman and Zika leading the way as Fitzroy confirmed their dominance over the brown 'n blues. With several more key players set to return over the next few weeks the Reds are ready to make their move!!!

Parkdale -v- Hampton Rovers

We're a tad light on for information on this one, save that it was a very tight game throughout the day, with the home side prevailing by 7 points in a minor upset. Please see right for the sum total of information I have to hand!!!!

Tips

A bouyant Fitzroy Reds outfit will travel to Hampton Rovers chock full of confidence. I think this one will be tighter than most might presume, but the Reds should sneak in by a couple of goals. The Vultures book the charter flight up to Bundoora, where Parade will be licking their wounds and keen for retribution. Can the Vultures continue their move up the ladder? Methinks yes, by 27 points. The Monders are coming of a spanking, but host the all-conquering Tigers. More pain, no gain, Tigers by 7 goals. I have little doubt the Monash list will remain intact, despite the commencement of varsity holidays, so they should take care of NOBSPC by 31 points. Finally the wide spaces of GBO should suit AJAX, who will secure a vital road win over the Wellers by 16 points

M I L E S T O N E S

Old Paradians congratulate Peter Brabender on playing his 300th Senior VAFA game (353 in total - no Reserves games) joining an elite group of only eight other VAFA footballers. Peter commenced in the Under 19's with the club in 1987 and his many achievements in VAFA football have been detailed only recently. 'Pluggie' has been a great club servant over two decades and the Old Paradians AFC looks forward to many more 'pack marks' and goals.

Old Paradians also congratulate Dean Loney on his 150th VAFA game. Dean commenced in the Under 19's with the club in 1998 and is now the club's vice-captain. 'DL' has been a great club servant over many years and the Old Paradians AFC look forward to many more tough rugged games from him.

Congratulations again from old Paradians to David Boundy on playing his 100th VAFA game. David commenced in the Under 19's with the club in 1999 and is the club's captain. David has represented Victoria in the past two seasons as an All Australian player, Victorian captain, Club Best & Fairest and many other achievements - too many to mention here. The Old Paradians AFC looks forward to many more great games from 'Rowdy' and the continued fantastic support from all the Boundy family.

Fitzroy Reds congratulate Paul Diacogiorgis, who played his 100th game for the club last Saturday against Ormond. A triple-premiership player and premiership captain, "Dacca" has played a major part of the Reds' surge up VAFA ranks. He has developed his game from a chubby young forward with uncanny goal sense and a deadly kick for goal to a sleeker midfielder with rare ability to win contested ball. Out on the field, there is no better defender of the cause and of his team-mates and the Reds look forward to many more like the first hundred. Well done Dacca.

REVIEW

Old Geelong scored a convincing 75 point win over fellow final contenders Rupertswood at Como Park, climbing to the top of the tree in the process, and sending their rivals down to third. An impressive team performance against quality opposition by the Ogs, with Henry Legoe starring in the ruck Yarra Valley beat Old Mentonians by 13 points in a hard fought contest at Dorney Reserve. Despite the Panthers hitting the front with 10 minutes left in the game, the Bushrangers were the better side on the today, and deserved the four points. The ultra consistent Blake Carroll, along with Nick Fisher and Justin Costello, stood out for OM.

Therry Penola returned to the winners' circle, beating Banyule by 36 points at R J Brockwell Oval in former captain and Best and Fairest winner Dennis Castaldi's 300th game for the Lions. Fellow Therry B & F winner Rick Bannister also bought up his double ton of games for the visitors.

Bulleen Templestowe won the Bulleen derby, beating Old Carey by 38 points at Ted Ajani Reserve.

Emmaus St. Leo's made it two wins in a row, winning by 57 points over Prahran at Toorak Park. The Animals had scored eight goals to none in the first half, but the Two Blues' defence, led by Scicluna, Centra and James helped stem the flow after the main break.

All teams in the top four are now 6-2 after eight rounds, with less than 22% between first and fourth, with Therry, two games back in fifth, having the second best percentage overall in D1.

A belated congratulations also to Therry Penola's Justin Crotty, Bulleen Templestowe's Greg Chivers, and Old Carey's Al Parton on being part of the VAFA (A-D4) rep team's win over the Southern FL during the Queen's Birthday weekend. Good to see there is plenty of depth in the VAFA, especially in the middle and lower divisions, and playing at such a level is nothing to be scoffed at, especially based on performances such as this. Well done again, fellas!

PREVIEW

Emmaus St. Leo's, gunning for a hat trick of wins, will have it all to do as they host Old Geelong at the BSG. Jimmy Paul and Matt Vasey will look to continue their form from last week, while the Animals defence will be kept busy by the likes of Colby O'Brien, Tom Fallaw and Will Paul. I'm also interested to see where Mark Vickers-Willis will line up. However, I didn't give the Animals much of a chance against Rupertswood recently, and ended up with egg on my face, eating humble pie. Ergo, this game is a potential banana skin for the Hoops. OK, enough of the food analogies. Old Geelong to win.

Old Carey return to the confines of Dunshea Oval, and will look to get back on the winners' list in their clash against Banyule. The Panthers have not been able to put their strongest team on the park in recent weeks, but look to be gradually resolving this situation. Banyule meanwhile are lurking close to the relegation zone, but can be dangerous on their day, and have quality players like James Tsigaras at their disposal. With veteran "Scratcher" Gray playing his 200th game, the Bears will have an extra source of motivation. Talent-wise though, Carey are as complete as any team in the competition, and I don't see them having two bad games in a row. OC for me.

Yarra Valley OB make the journey to John Pascoe Fawkner Reserve, where they taken on Therry Penola. Both teams are currently 4-4 (two games outside the four) with percentages over 100. Therefore, with Rupo and BTAFC also playing each other, the landscape around the fringes of the four could be quite different come 5pm Saturday afternoon. Look for the home side's Mark Farelodi and Justin Crotty to continue their good form in the middle of the park, the latter a good shot for the LS Pepper Medal in my opinion. For the Bushrangers, Phil Valoppi in his 150th game will be looking to make it an extra special day, and I'm sure his teammates will not want to let him down. Rob Drew will also give the home side a run for their money. Two similarly matched teams, but at home, I'll take the Lions today.

Old Mentonians face Prahran in Keysborough, with the latter still seeking their first win of the season. The Two Blues can take some encouragement from their second half performance last week and use that as a stepping stone to salvage something from a season that may be a write-off in terms of finals aspirations, but there is still the chance of avoid the drop to D2. However, I think the Panthers will want to continue putting pressure on the teams above them, and push closer to a finals position. This may be a bridge too far, barring the teams above them collapsing. However today, I choose the Panthers to win.

Finally, it's Rupertswood versus Bulleen Templestowe at Salesian College Sunbury, with the home side looking to reverse their mini slump, and their visitors riding high after a key win last week. With both teams separated only on percentage, there is plenty to be gained, both in terms of material advantage, and also psychologically. Rupo are usually near impossible to beat, and it's hard to see them losing two in a row up at Sunbury, though the Bullants will push them all the way. West and Brennan (Rupo) squaring up against Chivers and Wise (BTAFC) is just some of the talent on display in what should be a cracking match. Tough call, but Rupo, just.

M I L E S T O N E S

Banyule congratulate Mick "Scratcher" Gray on reaching the milestone of 200 games. Younger brother of club legend Stephen "Hoota" Gray (333 games this week), Scratcher epitomizes the Banyule spirit. A no-nonsense half back flanker with great evenness, he has thrived under the new coaching regime after a few years in the wilderness. As the only current firsts player with over 100 games, his experience is significant. Well done Scratcher, and also to recent 50 gamers Michael Christian, Mark Morgan, Paul Adams and Jason Szeremata, from all at Banyule.

Well done also to Yarra Valley stalwart Phillip "The German" Valoppi who reaches the 150 game mark this week. A rare combination of in and under ball winner, hard runner, and precise foot skills, Phil has, amongst other accomplishments, captained both the seniors and U19s, played in premierships for the seniors and U19s, won a Best and Fairest for the seniors and U19s, and a Max Lyon Medal for BOG in an U19 Grand Final. His presence in the Yarra Valley midfield has been instrumental to their success. Congratulations Phil from all at the Bushrangers.

CLUB WAREHOUSE RISING STAR NOMINATION

ROUND 8

JOSHUA ROSS (OLD MELBURNIANS)

Old Melburnian midfielder Joshua Ross is the nominee for the Club Warehouse Rising Star Nomination for Round 8 after his best on ground performance against St Bernard's last Sunday.

Joshua came to Old Melburnians last season following his former coach Fab Gatti from Werribee. Whilst Fab has gone onto Old Westbourne, Joshua stayed as he wanted to achieve his goals by becoming a consistent performer in A Section.

Joshua, 20, has played the last four games in the seniors and was the main instigator in OM's fight back in the third quarter. St Bernard's kicked five straight after half time to lead the OM's by two goals but it was through the tough play of Joshua that OM's were able to steady the ship and go onto win the match. Joshua got over twenty possessions in the second half and it was his ability to get the contested footy in the middle of the ground that was the difference in the teams.

Congratulations to Joshua and we wish him and OM's well in the second half of the year as they endeavour to stave off relegation.

Peninsula confirmed their premiership favouritism while Williamstown had their first win of the year. On to today's games:

Williamstown CYMS $1.90 v Salesian AFC $1.80

Willy's dreams of staying up in D2 are still alive. Six goals from skipper Timmy Wheeler and another six from Michael Cini proved the difference in their easy win over Ivanhoe Assumption. Salesian too are coming off a good win, with an easy win over Werribee at home. Ivan Bobetic continued to show his good form for Salesian, and they will go into today's match full of confidence. Willy's home form at Soldiers Reserve has not been as good as their away form this year, so I am not sure which way to go on this match. If Cocks, McGuinness can get the footy down to Wheeler quickly today then Willy might be able to sneak another win. Willy by 2 points.

La Trobe Uni $1.40 v Ivanhoe Assumption AFC $2.70

Both clubs are coming off bad losses and will be keen to get back in the winners circle today. La Trobe were outplayed by Aquinas whilst Ivanhoe Assumption were never in the hunt against Williamstown. Terry Ludeman had a good game for La Trobe against Aquinas and he will need to be on top of his game again today. Ludeman, Pruscino and Coulter will need to be up and firing if the students are to get the points. The Hoe's were jumped early against Willy, and it was not until Matt Wilson was moved into the ruck until they started to win some clearances. John Garrard will need to kick a few goals up forward today for the Hoe's, but I think La Trobe will win by 17 points.

Glen Eira AFC $2.10 v Oakleigh AFC $1.65

Packer Park will be the venue for what should be a spirited local derby. Glen Eira had a great come from behind victory over St John's with Steve Vamvakas unstoppable up forward with seven goals. Meanwhile, the Krushers were competitive with Peninsula until tiring in the last quarter. Mick Harold continued his good form whilst, Bromley and McKenzie were relatively quiet. Big danger game in this derby for Oakleigh. Glen Eira have shown that they can be competitive with all teams. McKenzie to kick eight. Oakleigh by 7 points.

Peninsula OB $1.40 v Aquinas OB $2.70

Another top of the table clash for Peninsula today. Reed Powney was on fire against Oakleigh snagging four majors in a best on ground performance, as Peninsula led for most of the day. Aquinas had a huge second quarter to kick clear of La Trobe with Ash Naulty the main destroyer kicking seven, and marking anything that came his way. Justin Box was terrific around half forward whilst Michael Glassbarrow returned to some good form in the back pocket. Both teams will be full of confidence for today's match. Glen Whitehead will need to have a good match for Aquinas if they are a chance of getting the win. However I think Peninsula will be too strong. Peninsula by 29 points.

Werribee AFC $1.20 v St John's OC $4.10

Werribee were jumped in the first half against Salesian last Saturday, but will be happy to be back at Soldiers Reserve today. Luke Carson and Nathan Addammo tried hard for the Tigers in the backline, but other winners for the day were hard to find. St John's are on a bit of a slide after their strong start to the season. They were overrun in the last quarter in a fiery clash against Glen Eira with Kane Arnold and Glen D'Oliveira amongst the best players for the Joc's. Could get ugly for the Joc's today I feel. They will need to win the clearances and Phaedonos will need to mark everything up forward if they are going to be a chance. Werribee are 'Smooth Jono's Lock of the Week'. Werribee by 72 points.

M I M I L E S T O N E S

Werribee - Matt Keogh plays his 100th game of amateur football with the club today. After a long junior career, Matt was part of the first under 19 season in 1999 and then had a year off before returning in 2001 and has played in the seniors since. A hard working on baller who always puts his body on the line Matt has be rewarded with best and fairest awards as well as club captain in previous seasons. We wish Matt all the best today and hopefully that ultimate success is not to far away.

Aquinas OCFC congratulate Daniel DenBraber on playing his 100th game against Peninsula this week. Brabes started with the Bloods in the Under 19's in 1999 after spending several years at the Eastern Ranges. He won the Senior B&F in 2002 and then captained the club in 2003 & 04. Brabes has also been selected 4 times in the VAFA representative squad.

Next week I'll review my Top Four predictions as we reach the half way mark of a season typically tight in most sections with only Purple Hearts, Triads and Artists unblemished.

• Inaugural Ladies Lunch well supported

The Inaugural Women in the VAFA Luncheon was held on Friday June 16th in the Hans Ebeling Room in the new MCC stand of the 'G' and was a great success. Forty-five women from numerous clubs across the grades joined together to enjoy good food, wine and company. We were thrilled that our CEO Michael Sholly was able to join us; and he looked every bit as much at home in a room full of ladies as he does with the usual scenario of an audience of men.

ABC Sports broadcaster Angela Pippas who has just released her first novel "The Goddess Advantage" addressed us and was very impressive indeed. She talked us through her career as a journalist to date, the politics of the ABC and the journey that lead to the publishing of her book (which incidentally is for sale through the VAFA at the very good price of $22.95, check the website).

Michael also addressed us acknowledging the great work of the very many women in amateur football and added in a little humour, which was well received.

The day provided us with an opportunity to meet like women from a variety of clubs from all over Melbourne and share our challenges, successes, passions and frustrations. It is hoped that it is the start of more occasions where we can get the very many women that work behind the scenes and are passionate about their clubs and amateur football together, whether it be in a lunch format or something different and I am keen to hear from any ladies that are interested in being involved in planning for future events.

• Ormond Coach gets Brazilian

Adding to the international flavour of club recruiting is Ormond, who recently added Brazilian Student Raphael Maireze to their list. Raphael recently arrived in Australia and instead of playing the game he knows (and is very good at) in Soccer, decided to contact Football Victoria seeking assistance in finding an Australian Football Club to join. After being given contact details for a number of clubs, he decided on Ormond AFC where he has fitted in perfectly. Raphael still has a lot to learn about our game, although all at Ormond are impressed with his commitment (he catches 2 trains to get to training) and the speed of his improvement given the first time he saw a Sherrin was a couple of months ago.

• Therry Players Rack Up The Milestones

A number of Therry Players have achieved significant milestones over the last 2 matches. One of their favourite sons, dual Premiership player Mick Elliot, played his 250th game against Bulleen Templestowe. Mick is renowned for his ferocious attack on the ball, strong marking and powerful kicking. Against Banyule, Dennis Castaldi achieved the significant achievement of playing 300 senior games for the club. Formerly a feisty rover/wingman he has been able to reinvent himself in recent seasons as a dashing backman who can still push forward to kick a vital goal. Another dasher who played his 200th game against Banyule is Rick Bannister. Rick has been a super quick onballer for Therry Penola and it has been a great effort to get to the 200 considering the amount of injuries he has had over recent years. Dual Reserves Premiership Captain Joe Sacco played his 150th game also. Joey, although not as quick as in younger days, is still a ball magnet who is always one of the most influential players on the ground in the Reserves and deadly around the goals. Congratulations to all players on achieving these significant milestones.

• Reds Honour Legends

The Fitzroy Reds honoured two legends of the club in an emotion-charged day at Brunswick St Oval on Saturday as Stephen Drury and Todd Clarke announced their retirements. Steve played his 200th and last game in the Reds' stirring win against rival Ormond last Saturday, whilst Todd played his last game against Monash Blues in Round 7 where he suffered a fractured skull. Both have been at the heart of the Reds' surge up the grades in recent years and have been nothing short of inspirational clubmen.

Steve debuted with the Reds in 1994 as an 18 year old and was part of the 1994 Reds' reserves premiership. With uncanny judgement, magnificent kicking and rare courage, Steve could well have played at a higher level, but his love of the Reds ensured that he went on to be senior captain for five years, win three senior premierships and win four best and fairest. Steve is only the second player at the club to reach 200 games, with current games-record holder and assistant coach Darren "Ragsy" Kane remains safe on 210 games.

Tributes flowed during the week, at a packed pre-game luncheon and at a dinner that evening at Haskin's Restaurant at the North Fitzroy Arms where his outstanding leadership and football ability was acknowledged by his friends, coaches and team-mates. Tears were flowing when Coach Graham Burgen presented Steve with a 2.5m x 1.5m air-brush portrait of the six players who have been part of the three senior premierships in the last five years. The magnificent portrait was done by Paul Orton, a current Reds and Coburg VFL player. Congratulations Steve on a magnificent career and for the astonishing contribution you have made to the Reds.

VAFA forwards can now rest easier with the news that Todd 'Human blanket' Clarke has retired. Todd has claimed many a forward scalp with his belligerent but scrupulously fair style, and was brilliant in his ability to shut down players, and turn opposition forward thrusts into Reds forward thrusts. He often beat taller or quicker and in the midfield or forward line. He is also a creative and attacking player, but has been the linchpin of the Reds' outstanding backline in recent years. Todd played over 100 games from the late 90s, all of them in the seniors, was part of three senior premierships, won a best and fairest and was captain. An outstanding and selfless leader, Todd put his body on the line for the club week-in week-out, and his team-mates will miss that re-assuring (and constant!) voice from the back half.

The VAFA and Fitzroy Reds congratulate both players on their achievements.

• "Tugger" Turning Japanese

For the second year running, umpire Peter "Tugger" Pullen has paid his way to Japan to umpire the 6 team Narita Cup in Tokyo, Japan. It was mid summer; however 12, 20 minutes games on the Saturday plus 3 finals on the Sunday were no problem for Tugger who umpired 15 of a possible 18 games. The tournament was again a huge success with 3 all Japanese teams, an expat Japanese team from Osaka, the Tokyo Goannas and Box Hill North from the VAFA competing for the Cup.

Football development was not forgotten with Box Hill North and Tugger doing a footy clinic for an all Japanese Primary school in Osaka (with photo of Tugger and story appearing in the main Osaka newspaper the next day). Finally, on the morning of the finals, an umpiring clinic was held and 53 turned up! Well done Tugger.

• Message of Thanks

Old Paradian's Captain & Champion Player David Boundy was injured late in the match against AJAX on Saturday in his 100th VAFA game. At the time it appeared to be a very serious ankle injury which of course provided great concern to David, his family and all at Old Paradian's AFC however fortunately the latest medial reports appear far more positive.

Old Paradian's would like to thank the AJAX Football Club and their medical experts, the VAFA Administration, its Umpires and the Metropolitan Ambulance Service for their concern, assistance and fantastic support after the injury occurred. It was much appreciated by all concerned at Old Paradian's AFC and confirmed again what a great Association the VAFA and its member clubs form.

... Retrospective

5 YEARS AGO - 2001

C Section scribe, Tom Brain, declared that the top four was all but settled at the half way point of the season, and so, said Tom, were the relegation selections! (Strong call by Tom at such an early stage but subsequently proved to be correct). Hampton Rovers (equal top) and Bulleen Templestowe (equal bottom) would have seemed to be a foregone conclusion but the Rovers did not have it all their own way. At three quarter time the Bullants were only a few points down but the Rovers showed their class in the final term to run out winners 17.21 to 14.9. Best players – Zampaglione, S Anderson, Woods, D Anderson, Power (4), Boyd (Hampton) and O'Donnell, Tulloch, L Thompson, Burridge, Matthews (3), Tehan (Bulleen).

In D1 Section Banyule had been taking all before them and were two games clear on top of the ladder before this round started. Banyule travelled to the spacious Como Park but their opponent, Old Geelong, jumped out of the blocks to establish a 4 goal lead at the first break. As all top sides do, the Bears bounced back in the second quarter to lead by 2 points and it increased it marginally to 3 points at 'orange time'. The final term was terrific footy with the OGGS hanging on for a surprising victory over the ladder leaders. Best players – Jaugietis, Malpas, J Paul, W Paul, O'Brien, Kemp (OGGS) and although Banyule failed to nominate their best, section scribe, Barry Hickey was on the job (as usual) to acknowledge in his regular column the efforts of Tim Egan, Michael Natoli, Blair Moxon and Troy Chapman.

D4 coaches were Joe D'Angelo (Bulleen Cobras), Darren Hawley (Eley Park), Brian Dowdy (Eltham Old Collegians), David Keast (Mt Lilydale), Craig Fox (North Brunswick), Jeff Wilson (Old Westbourne), Ken Balmer

10 YEARS AGO - 1996

Match of the day in E East section was Eley Park at home to Yarra Valley Old Boys; both teams firmly placed in the top four. The visitors started well and finished even better to run out winners 23.14 to 15.13. Best for Yarra Valley were Koenan, Dodwell, Fung, McVean (4), McIntyre and Rees (4) and for Eley Park Conte, Trotter, Hill, Hawley, Cadwell and Storey.

North Brunswick hosted Old Essendon in E Central and both teams were currently in the top four. Essendon went to a four goal lead early in the second term but North Brunswick, courtesy of forwards Moore (7) and Ongaro (5), were four goals up by the main break. North increased their lead slightly by the final siren, 18.11 to 12.11 with their best being Moore, Grimaldi, Bulman, Grey, Kaadan and Fox. Essendon's best were Hexter, Conlon, Barr (3), Capodiferro and McKenzie.

In E South fifth placed Oakleigh made the journey down to Peninsula Old Boys' quaint School Oval and took it right up to the ladder leaders. Peninsula had a long hard look at themselves at half time. All of a sudden in the third term they really cranked it up kicking 9 goals to 2 and lifted again in the last to kick another 8 and finish easy victors 24.15 to 12.5. Bowen, Cook, Poole (5), Trewhitt, Marshall and Dentry were the Pirates' best although they left out Warne-Smith who had kicked a casual 6. Oakleigh were very happy with the performance of Blenkiron, Gec, Walsh, Ferguson, Marshall (3) and Taylor and also left their leading goal scorer, Grubich (4), out of the mentions!

20 YEARS AGO - 1986

Preston were outright leaders in D Section after travelling to Old Ivanhoe and demoralizing the opposition 23.7 to 9.13. Best players – D Kievan, N Maynard, S Ryles, I Bliss, J Prowse, A Hepburn (5) for Preston and D Veal, V Karakaltsas, D King, G Beith, L Strutton, S Ball for Old Ivanhoe.

Who would stop Bulleen United in E Section who were undefeated, two games clear on top and then demolished third placed Peninsula 20.9 to 12.8. Best players – Empey, Morley, Quarrell, Diviriglio (4), Robbins and C Walker (Bulleen United) and Warner, Krohn, Parker, Knight, Sampson and Burns (Peninsula).

30 YEARS AGO - 1976

North Old Boys were not only the ladder leaders in A Section but their stocks for the future were looking great as their Juniors were undefeated and on top of the Junior Section 1 ladder. Their senior team had little trouble dealing with Reservoir Old Boys 20.14 to 9.13 with Horan, Wilson, Haratsis, B O'Connor, Holland and Leeack all combining beautifully in the winning team with Murray kicking 5 goals. R Shepherd, Bates, Dowell, T Byrne, Martin and Kennedy were best for Reservoir.

A Section coaches were Graham Warfe (Coburg), Bernie Sheehy (De La Salle), Bill Harding (Monash Blues), Shane Maguire (North Old Boys), Alec Gardiner (Old Trinity), Ian Cameron (Ormond), Brian King (Reservoir), Gus Mitchell (St Bernards), Peter O'Donoghue (Uni Blacks) and Alan Salter (Uni Blues).

The 36 man squad had been named for the upcoming Victorian Carnival team as follows – M Ritterman (AJAX), T Fankhouser (AMP Society), P O'Dwyer (Assumption OC), G Fletcher, J Griffiths, J Butcher (Caulfield Grammarians), N Leckie, P O'Brien (Coburg), I Rice (Collegians), I Davis (Geelong), J Gartner (Marcellin OC), R Silberberg (MHSOB), R Booth (Monash Blues), B Anderson, S Maguire, M Welch (NOBS),

40 YEARS AGO - 1966

Old Geelong maintained their top spot in D Section with a strong victory over third placed Parkside 16.9 to 6.6. The strength and skill of the OGGS, especially Cox, Levisohn, Richmond, Fraser (6), T Brown and Mitchell completely brought the Parkside team undone despite the efforts of their best; Johnson, D Gleeson, Edgar, Willoughby and Winnacott.

Personality of the Week was Mick Murphy, one of the originals at St Patrick's Old Collegians. Mick was the highly motivated founding member in 1964 who became first club skipper. Still playing, Mick had previously been ruckman and captain of the college side in 1961. A tireless worker for his club, most often the first to arrive and the last to leave, Mick had played over 40 games to date and was expected to feature in many more before hanging up his boots!

50 YEARS AGO - 1956

Jack Fullerton, VAFA Secretary, was quick to announce in the 'Amateur Footballer' that another milestone was reached. A full quarter hour session on Radio 3XY for the news and views of Amateur Football commenced on this day, courtesy of the generous sponsorship of Andrew (Boston) Blackie, well known, leading stock car driver and used motor vehicle dealer.

'Personal Pars' recorded that Mick Peppard (Old Xaverians) had decided to hang up his 'boots and saddle' for good. Since 1946 Mick had been one of his Club's best players and a member of the 1948 premiership team and had played in A, B and C Sections.

Monash vs Swinburne

No Higgins and Murchie, no Swinburne the cynics may claim, but nothing should be taken away from the impressive form of the Gryphons. From the opening bounce, the relentless pressure Monash placed on the Razorbacks rendered them unable to hit targets or play direct football. The Gryphs welcomed back Tim Bourbon to the side after a 6 week injury and he impressed with five goals. Whilst "The Rutherford Boys", Nick, Pete and John were in everything, James Gordon and Ben Prior fought hard for Swinburne.

Bentleigh vs UHS-VU

Bentleigh's form is harder to pick than a broken nose at the minute. One week they play the best football in the competition the next they are humbled. Last Saturday against Uni High they showed their good form with constant run through the midfield from the likes of Pearce and Adaway and completely humiliated the boys from Parkville who were unable to put through a major until the last quarter. First year player, Lachlan Taylor was the only UHS-VU player to earn his keep.

South Melbourne v West Brunswick

The Bloods made a successful return to the Lindsay Hassett Oval with a convincing 14 point win over West Brunswick. With top spot up to play for it was South Melbourne who came out ore prepared to play. While never quite getting away, 28 scoring shots by South to 19 probably gave a fair reflection of the game. Traditional West Brunswick nemesis, Cheevers (2 3rd quarter goals), and Aquilina were good for the Swans while Ben Batters tried hard for the Pies.

St Mary's v Old Westbourne

With a grey day greeting the teams at Ferndale Park, the boys from the west were a little apprehensive early in the week as they were a few good players down on full strength. These fears soon faded as the Warriors stuck to Fabs game plan to share the ball around on the small ground and thus controlled the game. To the saints credit, they never gave up all day.

Kew v Elsternwick

Kews coaches called for commitment on Thursday night, the players delivered in spades and at half time held a 10 point lead. Coach Grace reshuffled his deck, played his hand and finished up holding all the aces. The third quarter was played all in the Wicks half as Shane Mahony rucked and roamed. Elsternwick keeping Kew scoreless for the quarter. The wicks coming up trumps by 63 points.

Preview

Elsternwick vs Monash

Throw out the formbook when these two sides meet. For the past 15 years, The Gryphs and The Wickers have staged gladiatorial battles in the "local derby" and given supporters of both sides their money's worth. Today's game should be no exception. The form of the Gryphs has been consolidating much of the season and with few injury worries meet an Elsternwick side minus colossal Ruckman, Jack Neil. Monash may be able to exploit this hole unless Elsternwick once again throw "The Forgotten Mahoney", Shane, into the guts like last week. Elsternwick will do well to mitigate Monash's rising young star, Kye Cherian, who looks to have the goods across half-forward, still the Wickers have impressed in nearly every department this season and deservedly start favourites. Wicks by 16 in a fiery contest.

West Brunswick v St Mary's

While only losing by a couple of kicks last week, the evenness of the competition saw the Magpies drop from 2nd to 5th. A win this week will see them return to the 4 at the half way mark, and equal on points with 2nd. While St Mary's are yet to salute this year they have shown glimpses of potential. Unfortunately I can't see it happening this week as the Pies have too much to play for.

Swinburne v South Melbourne

Sitting a game clear on top it is hard to see South giving any other sides a look in by dropping a game that they are expected to win. Swinburne will be bitterly disappointed after last weeks smacking by Monash and will be looking to keep any flicker of hope alive by causing the upset of the year. Swinburne are a 6 goal better side at home, and this should close the gap, but for me the Bloods by 5 goals.

Westbourne v Bentleigh

They don't get much bigger than this. For the victor, a place in the 4 at half way, and for the loser 5th and the likelihood of having to win 8 of their last 9 to make the finals. The best defence (Westbourne) v the best attack (Bentleigh). With both coming off big wins against the bottom two sides it is hard to split them. So in my experience, if in doubt, go the home team, Westbourne by 9 points.

UHS-VU v Kew

UHS-VU host Kew today to try and climb out of the relegation zone. Picking a winner would have been easier if the zoo crew had not beaten St Marys. The browns have more depth of talent and perhaps some courage at selection time may be the answer. The Vultures have an uphill task to survive relegation if they let todays game slip. Kew to win and step back from the edge of the drop.

Gav's Tips

I am back next week, but these are my tips for this round. West Brunswick, Westbourne, Kew, South Melbourne and Elsternwick.

M I M I L E S T O N E S

Bentleigh congratulates Brad Meehan on 50 games. Brad is one of a group of under 19 players making their way into senior football at the club. With sure ball handling a great skill, Brad is one of a small man brigade that run all day. Well done Brad, the Committee, supporters and team mates look forward to many games more.

Bentleigh also congratulates Adam "Charlie" Pittito on 100 games. All who saw Charlie's shocking accident on the football field would agree it's great to see him back on the field and playing well. Always a straight ahead and courageous player, Charlie is a member of the famous Dimattina tribe that serves and supports our club, well done Charlie from all at the club.

Monash Gryphons congratulate Vaughan Coffey on 50 games. A tireless worker in the reserves who give his all each time he runs out on the field. Also playing 50 games is Reserves Captian Geoff Still, who is a general in the midfield and possesses sublime skills. Both play their 50th against Elsternwick today. Well done.

ELSTERNWICK PARK GATES

The main gate (Glenhuntly Road) is open every match day.

The rear gate (off St. Kilda Street) will only be open when there are no matches scheduled for Elsternwick Park No. 2 Oval.

When parking in the area behind the grandstand please park in a manner that would allow cars around you to be able to leave.

Players and officials who do not produce tickets at the gates will be counted and the club invoiced accordingly.

Clubs are issued with an appropriate number of tickets for players and officials.

Congrats

One appointment that went unannounced last week was the first A grade game for Rob O’Gorman. Rob has had a great year continuing on from his outstanding effort last year culminating in his appointment to a representative game a couple of weeks ago. Rob is the next breed of young umpires coming through the ranks but we will need a lot more of the young guys to push up if we want to get the average age of the senior squad below 40.

Anyone got a coin?

Former Old Scotch player and now VAFA umpire Jon Kerr, last week had to revert to the old “which hand has the whistle?” when he and his partner forgot a coin for the toss. It’s very hard to explain to the captains that we have control when we are blaming each other for the error. (Ed Note: “Kerrie” reckons that our other former Old Scotch player Simon Stokes is a better umpire than a player.)

TV adds 10 pounds

Last week Channel 31’s Southern Footy Show replayed the SFL v VAFA game with our own Grant Joyner umpiring the game. But Grant if you are going to be on TV you need to get rid of that extra tyre that’s hanging around.

French Open

At the recent French Open (tennis) it had its share of grunTERS but we think our own Mark Gibson could give some of the Russian girls a run for their money. Mark puts everything into his bouncing including the loud grunt so beware ruckman.

Sense of direction?

We know that all boundary umpires have to do is follow the white line and they will get to where they are going. But of course, you must be able to find your way to the right football ground first. Elise van Grondelle obviously just quickly glanced at her umpiring appointment last Thursday night. That may explain why she arrived at Melbourne University rather than Melbourne High School.

Where’s the centre?

This query seems to come up at about this time every year, so we thought we would refer to “Laws of Australian Football” number 3.4 to clear it up. Relocation of Centre Square. Where a Controlling Body is satisfied that the area within the Centre Square and Centre Circle will prevent the bouncing of the football or is otherwise in an unsuitable condition, it may direct the relocation of the Centre Square and Centre Circle. In the VAFA, on particularly wet grounds, with a muddy cricket wicket area, the 45 metre square can be moved towards one wing so that the centre of the square is on a drier surface. The square is not to be moved ridiculously towards any one wing. If clubs are not able to clearly mark this “new” square and centre circle before a match, the ball can be thrown up on a drier spot away from the centre of the marked square.

Confirmation that Box Hill North is the real deal whilst the pacesetters make it 8 straight!

Review

Box Hill North got of to a great start and continued to extend their lead over Syndal. Garret and Ball were the best for BHN, who will have also been heartened to see the good form of Odza. Most impressive was the even spread of goal kickers, vitally important as the season progresses. Syndal were well served by Captain Cachia with 4 goals and Robinson.

Bulleen had a tight encounter with North Brunswick. The home side held sway most of the day but weren't able to cast adrift a persistent North. Familiar names of Daley and Conn for the winners whilst Pizzari and Robertson were the best for North.

Eltham made it 9 straight against Richmond, however Richmond again showed their improvement this year, kicking 12 goals. Of course, they too were unable to control Galvin in the middle, who once again dominated whilst McClaren up forward for the Turtles was great, slotting 9 goals. Nuske and Dautovic each contributed 4 goals and were Richmond's best.

Hawthorn took on an injury ravaged Eley Park. A good first quarter set the tone for the day as the Hawks were able to run away comfortable winners with Lauletta and Jackomos starring up forward. Cresswell and Payne were again good for the Sharks.

Finally, Power House kept on keeping on as they had a solid win over Albert Park. A good mix of names in the best for the House again with Burnside and Moresi this week stars. Albert Park was best served by McIndoe in the ruck and Fehring.

Preview

Nine in a line is the aim for the pacesetting Eltham was they welcome finals contender Bulleen to their den. Simply can't fault the form of the Turtles all year, they continue to get the job done week in week out. Bulleen have mixed form a bit, some good wins along with some surprise losses. The return of Skipper Badanjek as well as star midfielder Arcoraci will serve them well but not this week, Turtles to have a clean sweep on the front 9!

Almost do or die when North Brunswick host Eley Park this week. A loss would see the gap to the four become fairly large and perhaps the first signs of dropping off would kick in. Might go with home ground advantage here, North for me.

After a fairly torrid few weeks, Syndal will be looking for a morale boosting wins as they take on Richmond. An absolute must win for the Sinners as a loss would see them slip further from finals contention. Hard to see Richmond prevailing here, Syndal for mine.

Albert Park trek to Glenferrie Oval to take on Hawthorn. The Hawks form has picked up in recent weeks, although a low injury count hasn't hurt their chances. Albert Park continues to be consistent without quite getting the job done. Have a feeling this might be a close one, however Hawthorn by a couple.

Finally, a ripper sees Power House host Box Hill North. Power House are the Adelaide of D4, no fanfare but good consistent hard footy. The pre season hype around Box Hill North has proved to have some substance however this is a big test. These are the sorts of games that a gruelling pre-season is built around as the opportunity for the club to test itself with some of the best is on offer. Also likely to be close, however can't go past Power House.

UNDER 19-1

Didn't quite nail the margins. Five tips nonetheless, on fire all the same. And as winter broke into full stride Melbourne stayed classy, bringing out the finest batch of dew seen in quite a while. With an enormous amount of interest, U19-1 sorted itself into the battle sure and the battle weary. With one game to go until the mark of half greats, a certain pattern is appearing stronger than the smell of a roast goat wafting from my kitchen (thanks Peter).

REVIEW

In match of the round, Xavs put pay to Bernards by 7 goals. Up by only 3 points at half time, a different side came out after the break. Tim Dynon BOG again, while Rory Harbeck was also outstanding. BV put in an ultra brave performance against Rupo. Going down by only 22 points, their patient supporters sure to be pleased with that performance. Matt Holmes and James Mugavin impressive for the losers. De La just couldn't shake a previously meek Scotch, eventually winning by six goals. Jake Gotch best on while Jeza Poustie was also handy. Over at the Crawford Oval, Blues put away Collegians comfortably while keeping in touch of the four. The soccer across on Priny seemed more interesting at times, but I'm sure Blues were pumped with the win. In the last game of the round, Marcellin beat SKOBS by a point. What a match, James Delahunty bagging three.

PREVIEW

The battle of the top four teams this week. De La play St Bernards, while a rampaging Old Xavs play Rupo at home. De La should get over the line while Xavs, lead by Richard Benson (averaging 4 goals a match) should be too strong for Rupo. In other games, Old Scotch will most likely defeat Collegians, BV will notch win number two against Marcellin and Uni Blues will make half way in style with yet another win. Lock of the week Aussies to beat Croatia 2-1 rolled into Collingwood over 15.5 against the Swans. Any feedback to beatonc@tabcorp.com.au. Happy punting!

UNDER 19-2

OM's crumble as the Sharks feed on league leader... Beaumaris have done the impossible, and now sit pretty in 5th. But Melburnians are their own worst enemy, scoring 21 behinds and totalling 12 more scoring shots than their opponents. Bad kicking is bad football. In the round's other upset, Trinity registered their first win, giving the Tonners a 68 point hiding. 5 key returns - including Brendan Iezzi from Port Melb - injected a dose of run for the T's, complimenting consistent performers; Banfield, Fisher and Delphine. The Raiders continued their charge for top spot, thumping the Friars by 102. Daly, Rendina, Cox and Kieran O'Brien provided first use for Sage (7), Solomon (4) and Andrew Cunningham (3), back from injury. Camberwell were strong in their 22 point home win over the book-wormed Blacks. While Carey took care of Caulfield in a 55 point walkover, as Bull added another 7 to his tally. Those doing the fixture for 06, must have been psychic as Round 9 sees 1 vs 2 and 3 vs 4, 10 weeks early. "And I can assure all, both games will be as big as Ronaldo's waistiene." Carey host Camberwell and the Wellers will be looking to prove their resolve away. Panthers should have too much, running home by 23 points. 1st vs 2nd for the second time this year, Spinner's Raiders will go in firing, knowing their opponent can be beaten. Across the board, Parade have no weak links and will stretch the OM's hiccup another week. 6 points in the year's biggest and best blockbuster. The Sharks, who have found that winning feeling, travel to Brighton and will be too much. The T's take on a Blacks side needing to get out of study mode, but Uni by 2 goals. Whitefriars should take care of the Fielders. Torney and O'Meara proved two lonely lights against Parade and should bring home the bacon this week.

Review

One cracking game, one surprise result and three games as expected is how Round 7 finished on return from the break. MHSOB kept in touch with the top four in an easy win against Emmaus St. Leo's, Old Ivanhoe had little trouble with Old Essendon and Oakleigh continued on their merry way with a win against Ajax. The top four clash between Ormond and St. Bede's Mentone lived up to expectations with a close game all day. One goal separated the two teams at the last break, however the tough SBMT unit held its nerve to clinch an impressive two point win. Gavin 'Rowdy' Brown was best afield for SBMT, while Samuel Ashton and Simon Te Hennepe were gallant in a losing side. The surprise result of the round saw La Trobe score an emphatic victory over Bentleigh, and while Coach De Bono's troops got off to a slow start, the boys from Uni were able to get their third victory of the season.

Preview

An enthralling Round 9 awaits and a tipping nightmare as the season starts to head towards the business end. St. Bede's Mentone should have it all their own way against Emmaus St. Leo's, while Bentleigh are expected to rebound against Ajax after their disappointing loss last week against La Trobe. The ever-confident Oakleigh host an unlucky Ormond, with both teams showing they are a force in this section. However, with the likes of Wills, Barrand and Derks-Revere constant for Oakleigh, I can't see them dropping this game. Old Ivanhoe are going for 7 wins in a row this weekend against an in-form MHSOB, and should take the points, with Hondromatidis and Rosenlis confident after recent performances. La Trobe claimed a scalp last week beating Bentleigh, but goal kicking should be on the agenda at training after kicking 10.23. They take on Old Essendon and while the Essendon boys are a tougher proposition at home, La Trobe should be too good. Please send all match reports to al_vafa@hotmail.com

UNDER 19-BLUE

Preview

It was billed as the clash of the titans, but nobody told Old Haileybury they were in for a contest as they stamped their class and authority on a hapless Mazenod. Old Haileybury were always in control, with Rhys Johnson kicking three goals and Chris Casey and Stefan Martin providing great drive around the ground. Hampton's season went from bad to worse with another loss to Old Mentonians. While the bigger bodied Hampton players tried to physically take it to their opposition early, Old Mentonians' impressive skill level came to the fore in the second half, and they ran out 39 point winners. Jesse Prowse was in everything and bagged 5 goals while Brad Norton and Matthew Lumsden were clear winners on the day. The Monash Blues won a 2 point thriller against an improving Parkdale Vultures, while a West Coast-like comeback from De La saw them take the points from a gallant Powerhouse/South Mornington. Coming off two straight losses, this game was a must win for De La to consolidate their position in the top four, but they didn't start like a team with much to play for. South Mornington held a 5 goal lead early in the 3rd quarter and a likely loss to bottom side beckoned. It was the younger brigade in Danny Reid and Luke Semmel who really lifted the team and De La held on to win by 12 points.

Review

As gallant as Powerhouse/South Mornington were last week, they now face a fired up Mazenod looking to put their loss to the ladder leader well and truly behind them. The likes of Jessy Stanley and Sam Wright nearly pulled off the upset of the season last round, and while the team will be confident after their great performance, Mazenod should win at home. De La used up one of their get out of jail cards against Powerhouse and I'm tipping they won't start in such a lacklustre way against Monash this weekend. Back in their own surrounds, De La should consolidate their top four spot with a good win. Parkdale have only won once this season but they have a winnable game against Hampton this week. Hampton is a proud club and my heart thinks they might take the points, but there is no way I will tip them until they have shown they can win again. Parkdale's form has been good and I think they will be too strong at home. Oakleigh Clayton has had two week's rest and while the boys had good form going into the break, they will find Old Mentonians too tough a proposition at home. The undefeated Old Haileybury has a bye. Please send all match reports to al_vafa@hotmail.com

U19 (RED)

The dominant Reds and Xavs have done everything, but FACE OFF. After a solid start the Woodsmen have slumped to lucky last on the ladder. Saturday saw the Reds beat Rupo into a 79 point submission. Ruckman Matthew Biggs starred, kicking 4 majors, while Ligris (4), Dance, Donato (3) and Jesse Boyle (3) were outstanding, never letting Rupo in. Aquinas demoralized the Westies by 62. Josh Stewart (4), Sweeney (3) and Cross (3) kicked 10 of Aquinas' 14 majors. The rampaging Xavs took care of the Old Saints by 28, though not as convincing as previous wins, NOPSPC had 2 more scoring shots, suggesting they squandered opportunities. "Motley Crue" Lee (4) and Justin Di Stefano were standouts for Xavs. Finally the Lions overcame a Kew side who would have to be soul-searching at this point. Theiry old-hands; Costello (6), and McKibbin (4) were good while Kane Robertson proved best on the park. This week the Old Saints host the Lions and the Saints will win after a commendable performance against Xavier. Aquinas host the Woodsmen and the former will win by 5 goals. Rupo are in all sorts, due to their midfield run and conversion falling down the well. The refreshed Bullants host Westbourne at Ted Ajani. With some solid weeks on the track the home side should run home convincing 30 point winners, cementing a position in the four. To the top of the table clash. All that separates Fitzroy and Xavs is 30.66%, so one will claim 1st for their own and unfortunately for the Xavs it'll be Fitzroy. The Xavs are the only side not to have felt the Reds Wrath and will get a reality check this week. Kew get a much needed Saturday off to compose themselves before the next 9 weeks. # CLUB XVIII SECTION

by Norm Nugent

As we pass the half way mark of the season, results become a little more expected as the ladder position of each Club becomes more important as the number of remaining games lessens. My result last week yielded me 80% success.

REVIEW

Section 1

Old Scotch overwhelmed St Bede's/ Mentone Tigers to record victory by 123 points. Better players for St Bede's / Mentone Tigers were: Kelly, Mattingly, Mifsud and De Groot.

Old Melburnians continued their good form when they proved too strong for Mazenod , who went down by 37 points.

St Kevin's maintained fifth position when they easily defeated Old Xaverians 2 by 92 points.

The accurate Prahran were beaten by Old Xaverians by 20 points.

Leaders, De La Salle defeated University Blues by 66 points. The Blues are showing less form as the season progresses.

Section 2

Yet to win Marcellin gave a good account of themselves against Collegians, who won by 25 points but who could never control the game. The veteran Brendan Hains was star for Collegians, while team stalwarts Pezzimenti and Michael Symes did well for Marcellin.

Monash Blues report that their game against Whitefriars was of a high standard and that the fast finishing Whitefriars gave Monash their biggest fright of the season as they held on to win by 7 points. Best for Monash were Luke Woods, Jarrod Parsons, Steve Mentha and Rick Davies. From a Whitefriars perspective, their slow start meant they had to play catch up football. Their best were Cunningham, Jackson and Andrews.

University Blacks consolidated their top four billing by inflicting a 41 point defeat on Therry Penola, whose team is in a rebuilding stage. Captain Ben Toohey, Rod. Eglestone, Dean Boden and Paul Jones were all good Therry Penola players.

Third placed Mt Lilydale inflicted the first loss on Fitzroy Reds, by a margin of 44 points.

Old Brighton Grammarians emerged with victory by the minimum margin over St Bernard's at West Essendon. Old Brighton really came north to play whereas the home side played spasmodically in the hope victory would come. Luke Vassallo kicked seven goals for St Bernards whilst Couch, Creasey and Saleme played well throughout the match.

Section 3

Old Trinity jumped to third place after defeating Old Geelong by 143 points.

North Old Boys / St Patricks left the bottom rung of the ladder by defeating the inaccurate Old Scotch by 23 points.

Leaders Old Essendon led throughout to defeat a very inaccurate Caulfield Grammarians by 8 points. Old Essendon players applied a lot of mid field and defence pressure to cause a lot of the Caulfield inaccuracy. Best for the winners were Sam Evans, veteran Luke Eddy, Dean Podger and Paul Barry. Fitzroy Reds moved into second place through their 124 point win over the goalless La Trobe University. Emmaus St Leo's led Beaumaris at the end of each of the first three quarters. However they were unable to withstand the fast finish by Beaumaris, who won by 12 points. Beaumaris were well served by Troy Boreham, Cohan Gasperino and Tim. Cotter. For the Combine, Daniel Manton, Kim Findlay and Simon Carson were best.

PREVIEW

Section 1

Prahran, who make their first trip to St Bede's/ Mentone Tigers, should return up the Nepean Highway with the four points.

It is first versus fourth when Old Scotch visit De La Salle. De la Salle have done little wrong this season and despite Old Scotch's recent good form I select De la Salle to win.

St Kevin's should remain in touch with the leaders by defeating the seventh placed University Blues, who are struggling at this point of the season.

Old Melburnians should win again at the expense of Old Xaverians 2, who are not enjoying a successful season.

I expect Old Xaverians to comfortably defeat Mazenod.

Section 2

Mt Lilydale, who are showing great improvement, face a tough game against Old Brighton Grammarians, who seem to always do well at home. Victory by Mt Lilydale would really cement their place in the top four, whereas Old Brighton are two games behind the fourth placed team. To select the winner is difficult. Mt Lilydale have the form but I have a sneaking suspicion Old Brighton will do better at home and just take the points.

University Blacks should prove too consistent for St Bernards who rely on too few to do too much and who consequently find themselves in sixth place.

Collegians are my selection to win against an improving Therry Penola at Harry Trott Oval.

Whitefriars have acquitted themselves well against the top sides and today should defeat Marcellin, who are showing improved form of late.

In a preview of the second semi final, Fitzroy Reds will be at home to Monash Blues. Monash, who are the highest scoring team in the V.A.F.A., have had two narrow escapes after six resounding wins, whereas the Reds crashed against Mt Lilydale on that small eastern oval. At home on the big ex V.F.L. ground, I select Fitzroy reds to bounce back and inflict Monash Blues first loss of the season.

Section 3

Old Geelong should score a much needed win at the expense of La Trobe University, who have lost all form over the past weeks.

Third placed Old Trinity face a danger game at Beaumaris as the home side has now won three in a row and now eyes a top four spot. I will go against the trend and select Beaumaris as Old Trinity will face a long trip and strange surroundings.

Old Essendon should record another home victory by defeating Emmaus/ St Leos.

Caulfield Grammarians should be able to win against North Old Boys/ St Patricks even on the wide expanses of the Gillon Oval as many of the Caulfield players are more comfortable on a smaller ground.

Fitzroy Reds should consolidate second place with a comfortable win against Old Scotch.

Team Managers.
