EDITORIAL

Last week I attended a meeting of community football general managers and the new CEO of AFL Victoria, Peter Schwab, discussed the new proposals regarding the second tier of AFL football and other issues he will confront in the next few years.

Presently each state administrates a semi elite senior competition; however there has been a push for the AFL to reintroduce a reserve grade competition. A study is being undertaken and submissions are able to be presented to the AFL for consideration.

To give you some background information. The AFL took over the VFL in 1990 and football in this state since then has been administered by Football Victoria whose name has recently changed to AFL Victoria. They administer both the VFL and the TAC competitions. Neither of these competitions is self sufficient and relies heavily on major funding from the AFL.

The peak bodies in South Australia and Western Australia purchased AFL licenses in the 1980's however Victoria does not own an AFL license and therefore does not generate any income from football.

The West Australian Football Commission, owners of West Coast Eagles and Fremantle, are able to assist the WAFL competition and grassroots football as they share the profits from their AFL licenses. The South Australian National Football League, owners of the Adelaide Crows and Football Park, derive great commercial benefits from these operations. Accordingly both of these states have profitable businesses that can provide for football in their state.

At present the majority of funds that grassroots football in Victoria receives are through Talent Development Fees which is the new term for the clearance fees old VFL clubs paid their junior club. It is not a grant or a fund just compensation to the association/clubs for the player taken in the draft.

The Western Australian Amateur Football League receives approximately $220,000 from their commission as their share of the dividend. The commission also pays the wages of their full time umpire's adviser and other wages.

As Victoria doesn't own a license and doesn't have a revenue stream it is beholden on the AFL and the State Government through the VicHealth partnership for money. To put our state on level footing with the other states I believe there should be consideration for the AFL to grant AFL Victoria a license. One license that could become available is the North Melbourne Kangaroos. Why do we have to send another Victorian Club interstate when there is a need for the State of Victoria to own a license and the money derived from that business can be feed directly back to community football?

There is little question that the AFL have an obligation to football in Victoria to assist participants who number approximately one half of the countries total. All of the Melbourne clubs are owned by its members, except for North Melbourne who have a shareholders partnership. Part of this is already owned by the AFL. The AFL could purchase the rest of the shares and grant it to AFL Victoria to give them independence and an opportunity to create its own revenue.

Ten million dollars is to be spent on Arden St. What will happen to these premises if the Kangaroos depart for the Gold Coast? The AFL surely must have a master plan for the Arden St precinct if this happens.

Let's provide this solution – make North Melbourne the community football club. The facilities at Arden St, whilst still being the training base for North Melbourne FC, also provides the administration for AFL Victoria and the ground is able to be used by all community football clubs as a feature arena. Profits from the venture would be distributed totally through community football. An AFL club that is owned by the football community of Victoria – surely a great marketing opportunity.

Victorian football assets are our AFL clubs, who are able to derive income that could be used to ensure the viability of the game. And that means supporting the local clubs and players who not only keep the game alive in the community but are also the future parents of the next batch of AFL footballers.

Another Year, Another Raffle

It's going to be one of those years folks. One of those years where any team can win. One of those years where tipping becomes an exercise in Numbnuttery. One of those years where it's nigh on impossible to get a handle on who's in form. Take Ivanhoe, who were touched up by Brighton a week before and then went out and saw off a Collegians that had beaten De la by ten goals, who themselves then go out and flog a St Bernards team...well you get the point.

From all reports, Old Ivanhoe fielded their "biggest ever side" on Saturday, which, having seen some gargantuan Hoes over the years (so to speak) is really saying something. It's always a defining characteristic of their footy teams (perhaps accentuated by those bloody brown jumpers). And there's none bigger than their new ruckman Hayden Heta, a real "crash through or crash" type who steamrolled the Lions. Nick Butler was unstoppable up forward and Scott Curatolo fearsome at the contest. Tim Zimbachs and the old Home Bloke Brock Mooney were best for Collegians.

Old Brighton keep ticking along and winning fans. This time last year, if you'd told me they'd be playing Xavier in a match of the day, I would have walked out on you. Even when an all in brawl erupted in the final term (Brighton and Scotch hey? The last of the nutters!) Brighton held their nerve ensured another rousing win. Veteran Matt Gadsden was their best, while familiar names Jon Perrett and Adam Pirrie stepped up to A Section action with ease. Big Gerta again impressed for Scotch, together with another hefty unit, Tom Widmer and veteran Adam Nettleton, back playing good footy after a few years concentrating on his medical duties.

Uni Blues had a few question marks on the back of their loss to St Bernards but easily accounted for Old Trinity after the visitors jumped them at the start. Cracking games to David Paton and Henry Weddell were the highlights for the Blues – a red card to Quinton Gleeson (backhander) was the only blight. Trinity had a bit of a rotten day, losing key defenders Richard Burrows (Shoulder) and David Beardsley and having Andrew Ramsden harassed out of the contest. They fought admirably however, with the Big Cat Brent Walsh returning to form with five (after a few Nurfburgers questioned his form on the internet) and Brendan Iezzi, a 19 year old from Port Melbourne, who played a belter down back.

St Bernard's really hate going to De La. They hate playing against Benny Mannix as well, who always seems to have his full bag of tricks on show against the Snow Dogs. Tim Silvers and Rohan Buckley did well in their 200th and 100th games respectively, Mandy Moore looked a likely type up front and Old Moz patrolled the half back line like the ageing matador that he is. Bernards looked really off colour, though Callan Potter turned one up forward with five quality majors. Both teams looked as though they might some top ups in the key defender stakes.

And then there was Xaverians, who, given their recent history against Haileybury (and at Toorak Park), were no good things, but bamboozled the Badlanders with an awesome display of skill and strength. One glance at their 22 says it all – they've got a 20 year old who is a genuine 100-goal a season player guns on every line, depth aplenty, best coach in the comp. If we were laying bets, I'd have 'em at, say, $1.50 to win the big prize. It's no disgrace for Haileybury to lose to Xavs but they're right under the pump.

Previewing Today's Games

Well this will be interesting – Brighton versus the champs. Against anyone else, in any other year, I'd plop for the home side in the own wind tunnel. But this Xavier team is awesome – despite the fact that they sometimes switch off a bit early on in the year, it's impossible to see them losing.

Ivanhoe don't have a great record against Scotch but I'll Hoe Up in what looms as an interesting clash. Have to go for De La up against an injury depleted Trinity, likewise Uni against Haileybury. And I'm not too taken with St Bernards so I'll go for the B Section Premiers Collegians to roll them on Sunday at headquarters.

M I L E S T O N E S

Old Scotch congratulates Hamish Dick who notched up his 50th Game in Round 1, and Nick Allen and Sam Troon who reach this milestone today against Old Ivanhoe. These popular regulars in the senior side each week play the game with flair and intensity, which we look forward to enjoying for many more years to come.

200 Games up for Timmy Silvers Arriving at DLS in 1995 as a rangy wingman Tim has since developed into a key defender and latterly a strong marking / leading forward. Tim's played his 200th against St Bernard's last Saturday. His games comprise 16 U19, 20 Reserves and 164 (96 "A" 68 "B") senior appearances. Tim ranks his participation in the 2003 "B" Grade premiership as a career highlight. A true gentleman who always plays the game in the right spirit Tim has overcome a range of debilitating injuries to give DLS tremendous service. Congratulations and well done TS.

100 Games up for Rohan Buckley Bucks joined DLS in 2000 playing 4 U19 games in a season spent mainly with the Chargers. He made his senior debut the next year as a classy wingman whose overhead skills belied his height. Bucks was also a member of the 2003 "B" Grade premiership team. Rohan has now played 54 Senior (26 "A" 28 "B"), 41 Reserves, 4U19 and the solitary Club 18 game. Rohan's resurgence mid last season has continued into '07 with 2 superb games in defence. Rohan general skills delight all at DLS and we congratulate Bucks on his courage in overcoming serious injury to continue to provide excellent service to the Club. Well done Bucks.

What a difference a week makes as wet and slippery conditions greeted us for Round 2 none the less the games were still pretty good, with a pumped up St Kevin's certainly making me eat my words with a 500% turnaround.

REVIEW

Old Melburnians although forced to change a third of their side still had a good win over a very young MHSOB unit still minus a lot of their experienced players. It was an emotional day for the Unicorns with Drew Fairchild playing his 200th and final game for the club and that little maestro Michael Fererkranz cracking up his 300th. Well done Drew, a great career for a fine clubman.

Half a dozen or so pretty classy players certainly made a big difference to the SKOB unit who had a convincing win over the Tigers down at Righetti. Leigh Newton in the ruck had a major influence on the game setting it up for Dowd, Simpson, Ryan and co in the midfield. Whilst the return of Michael Giansiracusa certainly helped Plugger out up forward and James Keogh tightened up the defence.

As with most young sides turnovers can cost you plenty and this was the case for the Sharks out at PEGS in superb conditions. Took the Chokers until after half time to shake off their determined opposition to post a regulation 10 goal victory. Best players were Clutch Cargo Baddeley with 5 majors from the ruck, dour Daniel Ryan and the Sculpture Tommy Wilson. For the Sharks Nick Henry ran himself into a standstill, young Nick Lyall showed plenty up forward, and James Le Breton whose strength and finishing was refreshing.

Interesting game in the John Wilson tribute day at the Racecourse. Nothing in it up to _ time with first one side and then the other getting on top and so a point separated them at the final change. But then it was the Blacks relentless running, determination and superior fitness, they hate losing, that got them over the line in the end. Impressive unit the Blacks and a much improved effort this week from the undermanned Fields. Huw Lacey kicked 4 from the midfield was in terrific touch, the Shaw Boys set it up like their Maggie counterparts. Luke Batten was good in the ruck and Evans was fine at CHF. Brett Sinclair presented well all day, Widge and Day good around the packs and I thought Strainy tried hard down back

Ajax again defeated in a close one, they just can't seem to get themselves over the line when it matters most. 22 points up at the first change and it looked how far the Jackers but then Marcellin turned it around by doing the "one centerers" and continually attacking the footy. They then had to withstand a powerful fight back from the Jackers in the last stanza to hang onto a 5 point victory. Jack Symes was good in defence Jarrod Carlson in his return racked up the possessions Danny Cullinan always dangerous up forward while Matt Disco Turner made a great debut after a great pre season was rewarded with plenty of game time. Yaron Rapoport marked everything that came his way with usual suspects Ritterman and Isrealsohn also putting in good ones.

PREVIEW

University Blacks welcome St Kevins to MC Labour Park in what promises to be a good game. St Kevins will be buoyed with confidence after their showing last week and will be looking to take it right up to the home side. Blacks run the ball well and are fit and I think they can just get over the line. Congratulations to Brett "Maurie" Fields who plays his 50th game for SKOB today.

MHSOB at least won't be troubled by the size of the ground in their clash with St Bedes Mentone-Tigers at Brindisi Street today. Never pick against a wounded Tiger is a very profound statement and they would have been hurt by their performance last week and will be stung into action today. Until all their players return MHS will struggle a bit so it's Tigers for mine.

Five minutes away Beaumaris welcome Ajax to Shark Park where they will be looking to turn the tables on the Jackers from the practice match result. I think Beauy will get better as the season progresses but the Jackers apart from not getting any points haven't done much wrong and should take the points.

Caulfield Grammarians hopefully with Carboni and Tassel back in the side head north to visit Marcellin for the first time in many years. Gradually returning to last year's form, the Fields will need to be at their absolute best today to take the points against a home side who have done nought wrong. Marcellin to win.

And the magnificent Junction Oval sees Old Melburnians in their first big test against Old Essendon who will need to play 4 quarters of consistent footy to shake off their opponent. I think that the PEGS Boys can win it and stamp their mark on the Section as one of the flag favourites.

HANDY TIPS ON COACHING & TRAINING COMMUNICATION MANAGEMENT

Article compiled by Mike McArthur-Allen, Geoff Reilley and David McCormack, former Coaches in the VAFA.

1. At training or on game day never commence talking until you have all players' attention. If players lose concentration or are distracted, stop talking until they re-focus.
 2. Ensure players form a semi circle in front of you; never have players behind you
 3. Assemble the group side on to the sun so that neither you, nor the players are looking into the sun.
 4. Make eye contact when you speak and shift your gaze to include different players at times especially those players at the extreme edges of the group.
 5. Be alert to players on the fringes of the group who may be easily distracted by trainers, officials, supporters etc. Reinforce regularly that their attention is essential to ensure that there is no confusion in the instructions.
 6. Be aware on windy days that the wind will decrease the carrying power of your voice so that you need to speak louder to ensure that all players can hear clearly.
 7. Speak deliberately and distinctly – rapid fire speech will reduce effective communication.
 8. Inject variation in volume and tone to maintain interest levels. Monotone delivery will lose players' attention and concentration.
 9. Avoid vocalised pauses (ah, er, um etc.) and finishing every sentence with "OK" or "right?"
 10. Occasionally, at training, if you not convinced players are listening carefully, it is a good idea to speak softly which inevitably will result in players increasing their concentration level to hear clearly.
 11. If players' attention lapses during an address, stop mid sentence as a means to re-focus their concentration.
 12. Remain calm in adversity – players look to the coach to provide confident leadership.
 13. Remember information overload is an impediment to clear communication. Even if you have a number of points to raise, you need to be aware that in the pressure of a game situation players are extremely unlikely to recall more than 4 key points. Therefore, prioritise your list and carefully select 4 – 5 areas to focus on.
 14. Ask questions on key points to ascertain if players are able to restate the instructions. It also helps to reinforce the message to have it restated by another voice and players are more likely to pay closer attention in case they may be asked a question. Therefore, make sure that you ask a specific player a question, not just the group in general, and vary who you ask so that the same 2 to 3 switched on players are not always answering on behalf of the group.
 15. A further variation on asking questions of the group of players is to ask a question, then pause, then name the player you wish to answer. This makes all players think of the answer in case they are asked.
 16. Encourage the shy, self conscious player by occasionally asking him questions you know he can answer.
 17. Avoid embarrassing a player in front of his peers. Where possible, take the player aside if you need to be forthright with them.
 18. Many coaches tend to highlight what their players are doing wrong and skip over what they are doing right. Positive reinforcement of good play is invariably very effective. Keep it balanced.
 19. If the same players are always on the fringes of the group and are potentially not as attentive as you would like, form the semi circle in front of you then walk directly through the centre of the group and make them turn and face you. That way, the players on the outer fringes become the front line of that group. Be aware that you have not turned them to face the sun.
 20. On match days, break the group into 3 sub-groups: defenders, mid fielders and forwards. Allocate a leader of each group (team leaders can be utilised) and allow them a few minutes to discuss amongst themselves relevant information about their respective areas. If you have the officials, use your Assistant or Reserves Coach, and your Chairman of Selectors to liaise with each group and take one yourself. It makes more effective use of the limited time available at quarter and three quarter time.
 21. When introducing new drills at training, select a small number of players and rehearse them in a smaller version or use a small folder sized white board to outline the drill. Then allow the remaining players to see these players perform the drill slowly, even at a walk through pace if necessary. Then ask for questions to clarify before commencing the drill.
 22. When explaining a new drill or tactic on a white board, don't speak to the white board. Speak to the players, look at them, maintain eye contact.
 23. Use different coloured cones or markers to signify different aspects of a drill or different drills.
 24. Plan the layout of training drills so that there is a relatively smooth transition between drills without too much time wasted with players standing around whilst the next drill is being set up. Brief Assistant Coaches to collect cones and markers from previous drills or set up the new drill whilst you explain to the players the objectives of the drill.
 25. Use a whistle at training to jog in (1 whistle blow) or sprint in (2 whistle blows). It is the most effective way to grab the players' attention quickly. Possibly 3 whistle blows could signify to the players to bring all cones and markers in to assist.
 26. If restricted for ground space at training by having to share with other teams within the Club, negotiate different time usage so that, as long for part of the training session, you get complete use of the ground. For example, start the Under 19s at 5.15 p.m. or 5.30 p.m. then start senior training at 6.15 p.m. with the Under 19s to warm down and stretch by 6.30 p.m.
 27. Establish an agreed starting time for training and stick to it. Devise a Group 2 strategy for late comers so that they remain on the track for a further 15 – 20 minutes for additional training at the end of normal training. If consistently applied, it will reduce the number of players who are tardy at getting ready for training. The legitimate latecomers should never have a complaint about being required to complete some additional training. However, for this system to be really effective the extra work needs to be supervised and reasonably taxing and not just unsupervised goal kicking or simple skill work.
- Perhaps you have some ideas of your own on these topics that you could pass on to Your Coaches Association. We are compiling a collection of them to add to our Resource Centre. If you have any new ideas please forward them in writing to AFC/VAFA, Jeremy Bourke, VAFA, PO Box 359, Elsternwick, 3185 or jeremy@vafa.com.au or fax on 9531 6601.

Significant milestones were achieved by Michael Feferkranz (300) and Drew Fairchild (200) in last week's round against Old Melburnians. We are extremely proud of the efforts of these two great club players as not many footballers achieve milestones of this magnitude. We all hope the boys will play on and achieve further successes for MHSOBFC. Well done lads!

OUR AUSKICK PROGRAMME

Auskick is back and there go my Saturday morning sleep in's..... Yet for the kids I don't necessarily mind unless they all start bagging me because the Hawks have lost a game or 2! At the moment I am happy it's back for season 2007.

Some people might wonder what a High School Football club is doing running an Auskick Clinic, especially when said MHS itself begins at Year 9....

My response to those people that wonder is because we can, and it provides a valuable service to the local community of South Yarra, Richmond and Toorak.

The Melbourne Unicorns Auskick Clinic has been running for the past 7 years and I have been involved for the last 6 years as both Coordinator and Coach.

When we started our clinic back in 2000 there were only 6 or so kids registered, however each year since then we seem to have doubled our numbers and at our first session for season 2007 we had 85 kids sign up, which for us is fantastic!!

They say Auskick is where champions begin. I think that is very true, however for there to be champions there has to be some fun along the way and that is what Auskick is all about. We always try and make our sessions as fun as possible for the kids with a mini game at the end, which really when it comes down to it is all the young lads really want to do!

We try and use as many of our senior players as possible to help coach the kids over the season, however this year I have been fortunate enough to have had both the U/19 Captain and Vice Captain volunteer to help me on a permanent basis. This is an absolute credit to both Adam and Sean. I also have great support from Rob Coxon and Tim Harper on a fortnightly basis too. So thank you boys!

Senior players reading this don't think this will prevent you from helping out though.....your turn will come!

ROUND TWO REVIEW

Old Carey hosted Monash Blues at Dunshea Oval, with the Blues pushing the Panthers for three quarters, before the home side put the game out of reach with a seven goal to one final quarter, eventually winning the game by 39 points.

Central Reserve was the venue for the match between Mazenod and Rupertswood. The Noddors never really got going, and apart from a reasonable third term, were overwhelmed by the visitors, who won by 63 points..

Old Camberwell hosted North Old Boys at Gordon Barnard Reserve, with the home side winning by a comfortable 70 point margin. The scoreline was not reflective of the NOBs true talent and impact on the contest. The Wells never had a period where they blew the opposition apart, but accumulated their lead via steady process.

In other games, Parkdale Vultures met Whitefriars OC at Gerry Green Reserve, with the Vultures triumphing by 35 points, and Ormond recorded a comfortable road win over Fitzroy Reds at Brunswick Street by 41 points.

ROUND THREE PREVIEW

Some tricky ties here, the type that can make or break one's season in the tipping contest, but here goes.....

The first game up for preview see North Old Boys up against Parkdale Vultures at Gillon Oval. On paper, this looks to be a close contest. NOBs can take heart in an encouraging performance against Old Camberwell, despite the scoreline's indications. Conversely, Parkdale's victory last week will serve as an early boost to their confidence. This may well come down to a battle of the spearheads between the Vultures' Darren Rochford and NOBs' Michael Barker. I've got a gut feeling though, that the NOBs may just get up and mark their first notch in the 'W' column for the season. NOBs for me.

Ormond and Old Carey face off at E.E. Gunn Reserve in what promises to be an exciting game. The Panthers defence, led by James Wagner and Tom Howgate, will be fully stretched by an Ormond forward combination featuring a rampant Robert Chisholm. Ormond's Michael Miller, an early candidate for the L.S. Zachariah Medal, will also be looking to press home his credentials. The WWW combo of 'Jogger' White, Tom Wigney and ex-Uni. Blues man Ed Wilcox will look to maintain last week's form, especially given their side's current personnel issues. At home, and against a weakened Panthers line-up, I'll take the Monders today.

Monash Blues entertain Old Camberwell at Frearson Oval in what many non-partisan observers would claim to be a mere formality in favour of the Wells. Old reliables George Smyth, Brock MacKenzie and Tom Craven will ensure a four quarter effort from the Blues, and one thing I'll keep my peepers on is the likelihood of Blues' Shane Chapman returning from injury. Despite this possibility, the Wells have too much class in reserve. Their key defensive trio of Daniel De Sanctis, Trent Hobart and Gabriel Deane-Jones will prove hard to penetrate, and Ryan Chard and David Loats are more than capable of hatfuls of goals between them. Old Camberwell to take the points.

Fitzroy Reds travel to Sunbury for their match against Rupertswood. Rupo will want to start better than they did last week, where they opened with seven behinds before scoring their first major. The midfield should provide the main cut and thrust of today's battle, with Ryan Monzell, and Garreth and Justin Phillips looking to take control for the home side. At either end, look for the Killer B's of Daniel Burrowes and Lachlan Baddelley up forward and down back respectively. Salesian College has been something of a fortress for Rupo throughout their time in the VAFA, and I expect this trend to continue today. Rupo to win.

Finally, Whitefriars College is the scene for the Whitefriars-Mazenod contest. Not a lot of bright spots for the Nodders last week, apart from the performance of debutant Colby Dickson and the efforts of defender David Hose. For the home side, key forward David Crea looks to be the best bet to turn the game in his side's favour...if his on-ballers can get the ball to him enough. However, the Friars are yet to get on the board, and still look vulnerable at this early stage of the season. I'll go the Nodders, just.

SUPPORTS THE VAFA AFCA/VAFA COACH OF THE YEAR

SENIOR COACH OF THE WEEK:

SEIN CLEARIHAN – SOUTH MORNINGTON

Sein was first approached to coach South Mornington whilst working out in the local boxing gym. Sein is impressed with the enthusiasm at the club about entering the VAFA and the challenges they faced. Sein is a triple premiership player with Mornington FC. At the conclusion of his playing career, Sein took on the Assistant Coaching role to local legend Simon Goosey before switching the Mt Eliza as Assistant to former Demon Paul Hoppood. After putting his charges through an arguuous pre-season, including a training camp at Gunnamatta, Sein had his players ready for their debut in the VAFA and last week scored their first win in both Seniors and Reserves. Sein is assisted by Paul Bryan and Reserves Coach Dean Bowman, both ex Mornington premiership teammates.

CLUB WAREHOUSE RISING STAR NOMINATION - ROUND 2

Brendan Iezzi (Old Trinity)

Young Trinity Player In Good Form.

Brendan Iezzi is a young Trinity player who has begun the season in excellent form. Completing his VCE in 2005, Brendan played football at Port Melbourne in 2006 and played 2 played at Old Trinity as a released player. However, in 2007, Brendan has decided to join many of his school friends to play for Old Trinity.

Although eligible for Under 19 football, Brendan has quickly adapted to A Grade. He has impressed in his first 2 games against quality opposition in Old Xaverians and University Blues and has the capacity to play both on the ball, and down back. Brendan has demonstrated an ability to hold his ground whilst over the ball; attack each contest with real aggression and deliver to ball to accuracy.

All at Old Trinity wish Brendan a long and distinguished career at the club.

BIG V RECOLLECTIONS

Anthony MacDonald (1995)

VAF A 11.12:78 def VCFL 10.10:70

Anthony McDonald remembers he was running around “like a headless chook” when he first played for the Big V against Vic Country in 1995 in Morwell.

Given the job of playing in the guts, and spurred on by the occasion McDonald, who went on to play in the AFL for Melbourne, said he was trying too hard and was struggling.

“I was playing in the centre and I was so keen to do well I was running around like a headless chook in the first quarter,” McDonald said.

“I asked Jeremy Nicholls, who was assistant coach, I told him I was getting to every contest but couldn’t actually get a kick. With a wise head he told me to lessen the amount of ground I covered and pick a contest to go to and I would get the footy. From there I played ok then, I think.

“We had a really good side, but we were the underdogs. They were a lot bigger and stronger than us but we seemed to run the footy really well, and because of all the training we did we combined really well.

“We were a bit too fit and well organised for them. Barry Richardson coached us, and we just won (by eight points), and it was a thriller. And all the boys, even though we played against each other, we banded tighter and it was almost like a mini Grand Final. A lot of blokes from other clubs may not have played in a Grand Final and we celebrated long and hard, it was a big victory.”

A bit of good management as well as the lure of wearing the Big V jumper was behind McDonald’s time playing in the VAF A team.

“I would have been 22 and that year I was going to go and play somewhere else but Barry Richardson convinced me to stay and one of the things I wanted to do was play state footy, and play well in the state footy,” he said

“If you were in a representation game and you played well you hoped someone was looking over the bonnet of their car thinking you were going ok.”

It worked too, because McDonald was picked up by Melbourne a year later and went on to play 104 games for the Demons in a six-year AFL career. Not that looking after himself was part of his match-day plan.

“Because the VAF A do it so well and you do so much training that self-interest stuff is knocked out of you. It’s more about coming together as a team, and everything else is an after-thought. No-one says “I want to get 30 touches and dominate”, it was all a team focus,” he said.

How much it meant to McDonald is evidenced by the fact he still has his jumper.

“I still have my jumper hanging in the cupboard, it’s a great achievement and I’ll bring it out to show the young fella, when I get one,” he said

“At that young age you would aspire to play state footy, that was the next rung up the ladder, and when you got nominated to play you knew you were going to play at the best standard available. It was a real achievement.”

And continues to be for anyone deemed worth to wear the VAF A Big V.

Two Blues two from two

Despite some pre-season predictions of doom and gloom, the Prahran lads are off to a 'flyer' with two crucial wins over OMs and now Yarra Valley. The home side jumped out of the blocks with the first 4 goals, but the visitors defence, led by Jack Matherson, Dan James and Paul Nobbs, restricted Yarra's forwards after quarter time. I think last week I pumped up the wrong Kat, as Louey Katavalos upstage everyone with a half-dozen snags, whilst the evergreen Andre Pitts was terrific as a linkman on his wing.

Is anyone out there suffering from OP?

My spies were out watching the second half of a fluctuating game between Old Paradians and Therry, which ended in a real "nail biter". The home side held sway at the main change, but the visitors went bananas in the 3rd term kicking 9 goals to 3 and setting up a classic final term. Therry started well in the last before Parade pegged them back and took a four point lead with only minutes remaining. Corey Bannister was trying to carry his side over the line, but the Parade boys were able to rise to the occasion when it counted. No doubt a collective sigh of relief was heard from the Garvey Oval, but the boys from Oak Park had better get their skates on.

Oh My – it's the Billy & Blake show

Billy Biggs and Blake Carroll led the way off half back for Old Mentonians who had a few 'old timers' from their 1971 premiership side urging them on against the highly fancied Hampton Rovers. It was a high standard affair with the visitors surging to a 14 point lead with 10 minutes to go. Then the home crowd lifted the Mentone lads as Chad Twentyman's snap triggered a famous finish. The OMs bagged the last few majors to pinch the points and give the F reserve premiership players something to really talk about!!!

Elsewhere, the D2 grand final replay was won by Oakleigh whilst the 'Ants caused the upset of the round defeating the OGGs very comfortably and sending a stern message to their doubters.

Round 3

Many ardent fans of VAFA footy would say the end of the first month is about the time that we start to get a handle on who's a contender and who's going to battle. However, due to the delayed start and lack of facilities for proper pre-season preparation, it's probably too premature to start making big calls on the likely fortunes of the D1 sides.....so I will anyhow, just to kick a few clubs up the backside.

Yarra Valley and Therry Penola are looking about as glum as Paris Hilton on the steps of the Los Angeles Superior Court this week, and need more than a lenient appeal judge to get them out of their respective holes. They both face sides up and running (in Hampton Rovers and Old Mentonians), but at least Therry have the chance to open their account at home.

Hampton Rovers –v- Yarra Valley OB

The Yarra boys travel down bayside where the Rovers will be pretty keen to atone for last week's fadeout. I'm pretty confident Boss Reserve will be a bit of a fortress in 2007, and am tipping the home side to prove me correct by 37 points.

Therry Penola –v- Old Mentonians

Buoyed by their thrilling win at home last week, the Mentone lads have to travel cross town to face a Therry unit which will be ruing their inability to close the deal last weekend. The Mentonians have been playing and training on one of the best surfaces in town, and may find the conditions at John Pascoe Fawkner not quite to their liking. I have a feeling in my waters about this one, Therry in a big upset by 15 points.

Prahran –v- Bulleen Templestowe

If St KeV.....sorry Prahran can knock off the 'Ants at Toorak Park today, they will assume flag favoritism in my book. The Bulleen lads were terrific in belting the highly fancied Old Geelong and will be keen to rack up another win, this time on the road. In what I expect will be a bone-crunching Match of the Day, it's the home side by 3 goals for mine.

Peninsula –v- Old Geelong

The Pirates host Old Geelong who will have had a big week on the track after their ordinary performance in round 2. I'm still on the OGGs bandwagon, but it will be close. Geelong by 9 points.

Oakleigh –v- Old Paradians

Finally, the Krushers are flying and must be pinching themselves about their top of the ladder status with a massive percentage. Whilst Spinner managed to conjure a great win last week at home, traveling to Scammell Reserve (where most of my 'power-fades' from the Metropolitan GC practice fairway end up) is a completely different prospect. Krushers by Fore-ty four points.

MILESTONES

The Peninsula Old Boys Football Club would like to congratulate Simon "The Champ" McMahon on becoming only the second Pirate to play 300 games. The Champ debuted in the first round of 1987 against St Bedes Mentone and since then has become one of the Pirates greatest servants. Across 224 senior games he was a 5 time B&F runner-up and a league B&F runner-up. He was captain of the club in 1990, 92, 93, secretary in 1992 and is a life member. After his senior career ended he had played the most senior games for the club and has spent the last 5 seasons playing in the reserves which included the unbeaten reserve premiership team of 2003. He now sits second on our all-times games list and second on the senior games list. On top of his on field achievements he has been a great clubman and provided numerous classic moments over the years. The Peninsula Old Boys would also like to congratulate Andrew "Nobody" Atchison on playing his 250th game this weekend. Part of the famous class of '92, he played his first game in the blue and tan half way through 1993. Since then he has gone onto become arguably the clubs greatest player. As an under-sized ruckman he carried the ruck duties almost single handedly for more than a decade. Along the way he collected senior B&F's in 1997 and 1999 and was club captain from 2000-2004. Last season he became the club highest senior game player with 240 of his 250 games being in the seniors. To add to those achievements he has been a committee member for the past three years and secretary in 2006 and 2007. His tan has also been unchallenged for 15 years and counting! All Pirates salute the achievements of these two champions of our club.

Therry had 3 players reach milestones in Round 1 against Oakleigh. Congrats to our fearless captain Mark Faroldi on his 100th game for our club. Mark, one of the most respected and bravest players in the Ammos, has set himself for another brilliant season with yet another summer of hard work. Nathan Kenessey played his 50th for our Club. Nathan started with our Club 18 but in 2006 took his footy seriously and is now one of our most versatile senior members playing everywhere from the wing to the ruck. Bullocking Ben Toohey played his 50th game for our club since he moved to the big smoke. Well done to all the boys.

DO SOMETHING FOR YOUR CLUB AND FAMILY HOST AN EXCHANGE STUDENT

Take the game to the world by involving an exchange student in your club and family.

World Education Program (WEP Australia) is seeking warm and caring families who have a genuine interest in hosting one of their exchange students and introducing them to our national game. Students from France, Germany, Italy, Belgium and Brazil will arrive in July for periods of one term to one year to live with a volunteer host family, attend the local school and assimilate into the local community...and footy club.

Students bring a different culture and history, world understanding, foreign language, love and friendship and fun. They enrich the school classes, friendship groups, sports teams and home.

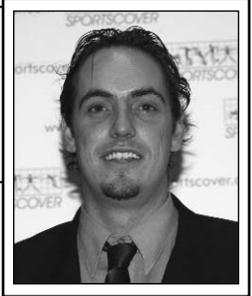

WEP Australia will make a generous donation to your club for each student that is hosted.

D2 SECTION

by Jono Healy

South Melbourne Districts and Banyule have put themselves in contention to make the finals with an undefeated start to the season. Can they match the Aquinas juggernaut come September? Is it too early to be calling the St Johns versus Salesian match a relegation dog-fight? Why can't Williamstown CYMS win the close matches? Will anyone give me even money ($2) on Chris Sharp to win the D2 goal kicking title? Is Jono Horn invincible on the table tennis table?

These questions might become clearer at 5:00pm this afternoon. Or I still might be pondering them at the same time next week. Who knows?

Emmaus St Leos $1.70 v South Melbourne Districts $2.05

Anthony Ballard has started the year in sensational fashion for Emmaus St Leos and he will once again be the key player in today's match-up. Against Aquinas he dominated in the ruck and at centre half forward and nearly got his team over the line. South Melbourne had a scare against St Johns, trailing at half-time, before a seven goal to one third term led by Andrew Hannan and Paul Cheevers kept their unbeaten status alive. This will be the true test for Districts, and will tell us if they are finals material or not. The Animals at home are always hard to beat, and I think the home side will get the points by 10 points.

Glen Eira $2.20 v Aquinas $1.60

I sense an upset in this match. Glen Eira have performed well against Aquinas in the past, and there is no reason why they can't knock off the premiership favourites today. The usual suspects of Alex Tsirogiannis, Brad Clements and Scott Diamond performed well for the Saints last week and they could have pinched victory against Bentleigh. Aquinas produced a workmanlike win over Emmaus St Leos, with Leigh Toomey and Ashley Naulty finding plenty of the ball in the midfield, while Paul Maaskant was excellent across half back and surely has to be the best player in D2 that wears the number 82 guernsey. Reigning D2 best and fairest Daniel Den Braber didn't play for Aquinas on the weekend and my mail is that the consistent Stephen Tibb is also in doubt. The early money during the week has come for the home side and I tend to agree with the punters. Glen Eira in an upset by two points.

Banyule $1.33 v Williamstown CYMS $3.10

Well Williamstown certainly know how to lose the close ones. A (correctly predicted) one-point loss to Werribee in what was a thrilling match, and surely a win for the boys from Willy is just around the corner. Banyule continue to impress, thrashing an undermanned Salesian outfit by just over ten goals, which sent a strong message to the rest of the competition. Ash Brown had another excellent game for Banyule, and he along with Tom Shepherd will be the key players to watch today. Willy will need Ben Hynes, Shaun McGuinness and Brendan Cocks to find plenty of the ball if they are to stand a chance. However, at R.J. Brockwell Oval it is hard to go past Banyule. Tempted to pick another one point loss for the visitors, but will select Banyule by 22 points.

Werribee $1.28 v Bentleigh $3.60

Werribee could easily be 2-0. On the other hand they could easily be 0-2. A poster from Darren Morrish got them the points against Willy and that is all that matters. Soldiers Reserve is the venue for an important clash against a Bentleigh side with plenty to prove. The Demons defeated Glen Eira in a close one with that man, Chris Sharp, proving as elusive as ever with eight majors, while James Robertson and Shaun Adaway continued their excellent recent form. The Tigers are playing good football and it wasn't surprising to see Trent Lee dominate up forward with four goals, Pat Keogh controlling the defence and James Norton and Michael Cunningham finding plenty of the ball in the midfield. I have a feeling this could be a blowout. The big ground may not suit the visitors and we have seen plenty of times before once Werribee get on top they can kick goals in very quick succession. Sharp for three goals, and Werribee to win by 61 points.

St Johns $1.80 v Salesian $1.90

This may seem like a strong statement, but I feel that if the Jocs can't win today, they will be playing D3 football in 2008. They were competitive against South Melbourne so they should go in to today's match expecting the four points. Salesian are struggling for form. Mick Hazell is yet to fire, Patty Dunne is contributing but yet to dominate and Andre Bonnici is slowly working into form. I still think they are a reasonably good side, and today's match will go a long way in deciding the fortunes of their 2007 season. If you are heading to Thomas Carroll Reserve, get there early to see the match-up between Matt Loughnan and Jeff Cotton in the reserves. It is sure to be an entertaining one. In the seniors, tough match to pick. Jocs will need big games from Cachia, Arnold and Peake, while Salesian will need Hazell to fire. Not sure which way to go. St Johns by five points.

Bentleigh Football Club

"We at Bentleigh Football Club wish a speedy recovery to Anthony "Stewie" Steward after his broken thumb injury in Round One. According to reports, operation was successful & there's hope of a return to the park in Round 13. Good luck & we look forward to seeing the no.40 wearing the red & blue with passion again."

M I MILESTONES E S

Aquinas would like to congratulate Dave Boland and Rob Chapman on reaching their 150 games. Rob has been a tough in and under player for many years; getting the ball from under the packs and making his other midfielders look good. A previous B&F winner, a terrific leader and provides a huge presence to the team. Dave has been an athletic, highly skilled backman who always gets the best opposition forward each week and loves the challenge. Although injury has slowed him down a fraction (and he's spent too much time on his dreamteam) he is still highly regarded and a valuable member of our attempts to play finals football this year. Both terrific personalities and clubman, and we look forward to many more games to come.

• VAFA NEWS

Anybody reading the VAFA website recently will have noticed daily stories from around the VAFA by new Communications Manager Russell Gould. Russell is an experienced journalist and a long time VAFA supporter. Anybody with stories from around the VAFA can contact Russell via email russell@vafa.com.au or on 0408 338298.

• MINISTER ADDRESSES LUNCHEON

The Minister of Sport James Merlino, an old boy of Mt Lilydale, unfurled their Club XVIII (2) flag. Guests also included his wife Megan, who is expecting her first child later in the month, and VAFA CEO Michael Sholly. President Michael Napoleone owns a local winery and some delicious wines from his Punt Rd collection were served with lunch. Unfortunately for Mt Lilydale they were unable to register their first win of the season but they have adapted well back in D4 and I am sure a win is not too far away.

• A CLUB FIRST FOR SOUTH MORNINGTON

South Mornington's hard fought win over Richmond Central on last Saturday not only provided the club with their first win in the VAFA, their victorious Reserves registered their first ever win in the club's history. South Mornington, having a long and successful history in juniors, entered the Southern Football League in 2005 with only a senior side. In 2006 they combined with Power House to enter an U19 side in the VAFA and then in 2007 where accepted into the VAFA in the D4 Seniors and Reserves competition. A big day for the club and I'm sure a big night of celebrations followed.

• TIGER CAREER IN DOUBT

A serious collision with a team-mate in last week's opening round could cost young St Bedes/Mentone player Michael Zahra his football career. Zahra, 26, remains in Sandringham hospital and is scheduled for an operation in the Alfred early next week after fracturing his pelvis and dislocating his hip in the Tigers reserves game against Caulfield Grammarians at Brindisi Street last week. Zahra, a regular player in the seniors in recent years, is still "flat on his back" and is expected to be on crutches for at least two months after the necessary surgery. A steady stream of Tigers players and officials have visited Zahra, a popular player who has played nearly 100 senior and Under 19 games with the club over the best part of a decade. The VAFA community wishes Michael a speedy recovery.

• FORMER BLUES STAR NOW A BLUES STAR

Former Uni Blues Best and Fairest Ross Young made his AFL debut last Friday Night after being promoted from the Carlton's Rookie List to replace Nick Stevens. Originally from Donald in country Victoria, Ross commenced in the U19's for Uni Blues before starring in the Senior side in their 2004 premiership year. Ross joined Carlton from the Northern Bullants via the 2007 AFL Rookie Draft as Carlton's third selection (number 32 overall) and at 23 years of age, he was the first mature age rookie to be selected in the AFL. Well done Ross and lets hope you have a long and successful AFL career.

• UPCOMING LUNCHEONS

Old Carey will be holding a luncheon on May 19th in support of the James Macready-Bryan Foundation. The James Macready-Bryan (JMB) Foundation has been established to provide support for the rehabilitation of James Macready-Bryan (OCGFC player 2005 & 2006) and others in similar necessitous circumstances. James incurred life changing injuries to his brain as a result of an assault where he fell and hit his head in October 2006. The Foundation aims to raise money and public awareness of the plight of many young people in our community who find themselves, through their disabilities, confined to unsuitable accommodation and with inadequate opportunity to receive appropriate rehabilitation and care.

Tickets are $25 and RSVP is essential by 17th May to Christine Howgate howgate@bigpond.net.au or 0418 373 387.

The University Blacks have dug deep into their illustrious history to add special significance to the pre match luncheon today at Princes Park. The Blacks won six successive A Section premierships between 1938 and 1949, with no competition being played from 1940-1945. Exactly 10 years as reigning A Section premiers in an unbelievable record. Amazingly, no fewer than 9 members of those teams are to attend the lunch and game. John Cordner, one of the authors of the soon to be published history of the Melbourne University Football Club, and his brother, Brownlow Medallist Don Cordner will be there. Joining them are captain Mick Dexter, Jim Eagle, Peter Bassett, Nigel Gray, Alan Cuthbertson, Bill Ross, and Laurie Muir. Team mates John Ball, Max Smyth, and Arthur Richards are also hale and hearty but were among the apologies. 1935 premiership captain Jim Peters is adding a touch of maturity to the gathering. The current Blacks players had the privilege in round one of being Ajax's first opponent following their celebration of their first fifty years as a club, and in round two of playing in Caulfield Grammarians tribute match to John Wilson. To follow up today and play in front of such celebrated players from the past will further re-enforce to them the enduring strength of Amateur football, and the richness of their own club's 148 year old history.

Retrospective

by Geoff Reilly

5 YEARS AGO - 2002

St Kevins met Old Ivanhoe at Elsternwick Park for their A Section clash. SKOBS gained the ascendancy early, never let go and were comfortable winners 17.17 to 8.13 and Old Ivanhoe's early season promise was halted to a degree. Best players – Ryan, Garvey, O'Keefe, Byrne, M Dollman, Bowles (SKOBS) and Oates, Young, Low, Orchard, Hope, Tully (OI).

In D1 Section, AJAX were surprised by Bulleen Templestowe, as was scribe Barry Hickey, with BT's 9 goal third term the major influence on their winning score of 17.12 to 13.8. Thompson was a star in the ruck for the winners and on-ballers Tulloch and Chivers also made life hard for the Jacka's. Michael Weisler, Brad Davis and Jona Segal had every reason to be satisfied with their personal efforts for AJAX.

St Leos Emmaus congratulated the decorated Anthony McKenzie on reaching 150 games. Macca joined the Animals in 93 and was U19 captain and best and fairest in 94. He then went on to play in the 95 senior premierships and won the coveted best and fairest in 99 and 01. He was an inspirational senior captain.

Early favourites in D2 Section, Yarra Valley, really dished it out to Kew, 30.21 to only 6.8. It was clearly over by half time when the Grammar boys booted 11.5 in the second term. Best players – Stone, Hancock, Cotsford (8), Middlin (8), Savage, L Taylor (Yarra Valley) and Blair, Looker, L Fitzgerald, Cullen, Tinetti, Wood (Kew).

D Section coaches were – Paul Dimattina (Bentleigh), Graham Burgen (Fitzroy Reds), Rohan Doherty (Kew), Brian Grills (La Trobe), Russell Bruerton (Oakleigh), Glenn Taylor (Old Carey), Mark Rowe (Parkside), Rod Kerley (Peninsula), Gary Connolly (Salesian) and Tim Kilworth (Yarra Valley).

10 YEARS AGO - 1997

Evergreen Barry Hickey was writing the E East Section column and was satisfied with the third week of perfect conditions. Barry's feelings were that Kew and Yarra Valley may be the stand outs at this early stage and Kew became the only undefeated team after 'smashing' Eley Park, 40.23 to 9.8. Greg Porte kicked 13 goals in an outstanding display for Kew. Best players for Kew were many but namely Porte, DiMasi, Wood, Gencarelli, Harrison, Furlan and for Eley Park, D Payne, M Payne, C McLean, Smith and Bruce battled gamely.

Mick James was writing about E Central Section and suggested that "Spin Doctor", Harry Costello, was trying to keep a lid on it as Uni Blacks had started the season magnificently and in this game showed no mercy to UHSOB. The final result, 23.23 to 10.7, was only marred by some inaccuracy in front of goals. Best players – Roberts, Henderson, Caccaviello (7), Barber, Hayes, Gullan (Blacks) and Skins, Talarico, Bunn, Caterall, Mazza, Davidson (UHSOB).

The 'terrible two', Ken Bremner and Tommy Brain were covering all aspects of E South Section and would again stir the pot during the season. There were two undefeated teams by the end of this round, Peninsula Old Boys and Southbank. Southbank were barely troubled in their game against St Pats Mentone winning 30.16 to a very disappointing 1.2. Peninsula met sterner opposition from Powerhouse but a great last term netted Peninsula an easy victory 13.10 to 7.8 after only being 9 points ahead at the final break. Best players – Aitchison, Landry, Bedford (8), Bowen, Cook, Briggs (Peninsula) and Hall, McCullough, Clayton, Pavlou, Scotland, Telford (Powerhouse).

20 YEARS AGO - 1987

A Section saw reigning premiers Collegians "break the ice" at the expense of Bulleen Templestowe who looked to be the chopping block at this early stage. Collegians winger, Dave Kerr, a relatively unknown, was great and Richard Herman kicked 7. Baum, Irvine, Williams and Lemon were also strong for Collegians. Wotherspoon, Rowe, Farley, Tsiotinas, Mayne and Collins were all 'triers' for the vanquished Bullants.

Old Camberwell and Old Ivanhoe fought out a thrilling draw in D Section. It was nip and tuck in the first half before the 'Wells raced away to a 5 goal lead at three quarter time. Old Ivanhoe had to kick 9 in the last quarter to match their opponents and Yarwood and Davies both converted frequently to allow them to make up the deficit before the siren sounded with 20.11 to both teams. Camberwell acknowledged Schieber, Collins (9), Kerkuliet, Inkster, Hodgson and Craw while Ivanhoe saluted Curtis, Yarwood (6), Howard, Karakaltsas, Stretton and Scott.

Tony Sheehan, a founding member of the LaTrobe University AFC, played his 300th game, a mighty effort. 80 of his games had been played for the club when it participated in the PHFL. Tony played and coached LaTrobe in the E Section premierships in 1976. He also played about 40 inter varsity games and came back to help the club in 1985 when they were struggling and then continued on.

30 YEARS AGO - 1977

In D Section, Power House won their first game for the season at the expense of St Kevins, 17.8 to 13.13 with Cross, Clarke (8), Rosewarne, Sarosi, Stewart and Newton were named as their best. St Kevins acknowledged D Reynolds, Fitzpatrick, J Corrigan, Lodge, B Campbell and Hart.

In E Section, ANZ Bank came from behind to defeat Brunswick 14.7 to 10.9. The bankers almost blew their strong start with poor second and third quarters but their old reliables, Gale, Karpavicious, May, Towan, Westcott and Harnetty stood up when needed. Brunswick's best were R Brown, Egan, Trotman, Madden, Watt and Sleanis.

In F Section the highly rated Bulleen Templestowe walloped Monash Whites 34.20 to 4.7. Best players – Pretto, Dawson, Murphy, D'Agostino (5), Dozzi (4), Miles (Bulleen Temp) and Rosenhain, Wright, Darling, Jennison, Ludeman, Curtain (Monash Whites).

MHSOB's veteran, John Cooper, played his 200th game. John's all round contribution to the club was an example for all to follow and all looked forward to his continued devotion to MHSOB.

40 YEARS AGO - 1967

In D Section, AJAX stayed on top undefeated when they trounced Old Ivanhoe 20.16 to 5.8. From quarter time AJAX did as they liked and played a great brand of football, especially Henry Jolson at CHF. Best players – Jolson (7), Perelberg, Goldfarb, Shostak, Janover, Schulman (AJAX) and Jeeves, Coulehan, Rule, McKenzie, Allender (3), Leckie (Old Ivanhoe).

In the E Section match of the day, AMP Society only drew away from Assumption OC in the final term to win 10.10 to 9.7. Best players – Sutton, Phelan, Ferrall, Coltery, Jenkin, Kunc (AMP) and Howe, G Howard, P Nugent, O'Connell (4), Jackson, McMahon (Assumption).

50 YEARS AGO - 1957

In A Section, Ormond won their first game for 10 matches when they created an upset to defeat Old Scotch by 14 points and Coburg defeated the more fancied Collegians by only 2 points. The Coburg versus Collegians game was at Olympic Park and was a hard and fast game. This proved to be the second match in a row where Collegians lost by the last kick of the day. Collegians were 1 point up at three quarter time, 6.11 to 6.10 and the final quarter was certainly thrilling. 11 points up at one stage in the last term, Collegians could be considered unlucky indeed. Hillyear and Park both scored goals for Coburg in the final minutes despite the best efforts of Collegians; final scores, Coburg 9.15 to Collegians 9.13.

A Section Umpires were Barker, Amey, Henderson, Nance and Wenker. B Section umpires were Horkings, Hughes, Quinn, Jackson and West.

D3 SECTION

by Stephen Clarke

It's rare that so early in a season I would make rash statements. But for a side to kick 50 goals already in this competition – as Old Westbourne have – we all need to stand up and take notice. Should I be declaring them as flag favourites and dismiss the nine other contestants? So far so good for the pace setting troops from Truganina!

Conversely it is a sad story for Ivanhoe Assumption. Not out of their depth in C Grade a handful of years ago, the club song is barely heard now . . . it's gloomy, doomy, near apocalyptic times for this grand old club. What has happened??

Powerhouse won a Premiership Cup in 2006 – but they are a side that badly needs some premiership points! In a pre season focused on fitness and speed, they are not keeping up in this opening act of the show. Should I be writing of the Piranhas? Their supporters think they much better . . . this little black duck is not convinced.

The 'Wicks went north of the river to Brunswick and came home with a casualty list and a coach searching for answers. Coach Grace held high hopes but they were dashed with not one but two players were taken to hospital! Although he had some warriors, this is a true lesson that the whole army is needed to win battles.

Kew kicked 13 majors in the second half in their win over Ivanhoe, running home like the 'Diva at the end of her third Melbourne Cup! Jamie McKerrow bagged a lazy nine, Woodhouse and his hammys are fine after three goals the 'grim reaper' himself Wes Death made a fine contribution in his first senior outing!

Although the Razobacks were belted it is the season for milestones. Christopher Walsh playing his 50th game for the Razorbacks this week and is the current club captain and chief financial officer. Good luck this week!

It's good to see some quality chargers running round for Hawthorn these days. Matt Stonehouse one day played under my guidance, and he is one young man who worries about how he looks. Stoney, keep the hair blonde and the disposal fancy!

Great win over the 'House this week and they can progress from there.

Latrobe and Monash was the close one as I called. This Gryphons side are not going to lie down at any stages and clearly are taking no prisoners. Needing 6 last quarter goals to have any chance they got them, but conceded one and just fell short. Two good sides clearly, both are humming along nicely.

PREVIEWS –

Kew to host Westbourne. I am on the West Express here but am weary they have a journey to an improving team in the brown and gold. The away side by a few goals.

Ivanhoe to Monash and it's a no for me. The Gryphons to seize their opportunity against a still undermanned and underperforming Ivanhoe by just 20 points.

The Razorbacks led upfront by Mary Higgins can win one against his old side from years ago. This is the close one folks, make no mistake. Home side by 4 points.

West Brunswick can think themselves a grand chance at Rathmines Road and this is the away upset I am tipping. Their forwards can trouble the Hawks enough to win it.

Latrobe to Elsternwick's ground. Their paddock compared to this card table sized deck does make me think they might take time to adapt. I'll take the home side but being nice after last week's emergency room antics. One goal the margin at the death.

UMPIRES CORNER

by Steve McCarthy & Leah Gallagher

Vale – Ken Brewer

For those that may not be aware, unfortunately one our long-serving field umpires Ken Brewer, passed away on Friday of last week. Ken suffered a heart attack on the weekend, but after an operation to remove two blockages from his arteries he passed away. He was 53 years old.

Ken will be sadly missed by the umpiring group and no doubt by the many clubs he umpired in the north-west region of Melbourne over the years. Ken was one of our foot soldiers who enjoyed his game as well as a beer. Ken was also well-known as a cricket umpire during the summer months.

He umpired his final match which was the D4 game between UHS-VU & Syndal Tally Ho with Michael Forde in Round one.

We at the VAFAUA wish to pass on our condolences to the Brewer family at this sad time.

The umpiring group will all be wearing black armbands today as a mark of respect to Ken.

R.I.P. Kenny! Well run!

Putting Spring in his Bounce

We all have our own interesting ways of training and keeping our skills up in the off-season. A certain A Section grand final field umpire decided that the perfect place to practice his bouncing was in the Bird Cage at Flemington on Derby Day. Someone threw him a Sherrin (don't we all take a footy to the races?), and as usual he sent it up perfectly straight much to the amusement and admiration of all the young ladies watching. All this, while looking resplendent in his suit. Could we suggest that he was possibly fairly well "hydrated" at the time? Being November his skills weren't too "rusty".

Well done, PIP!

Young former VAFA goal umpire Steve Piperno umpired his first VFL game (Werribee v Coburg Tigers) recently. Steve was promoted to the VFL list last year after umpiring the 2005 VAFA A section grand final at the age of 17. There's no doubt we'll see him waving the flags in the big time pretty soon.

Blood Challenge

Not too late to attend, so if you're interested in donating this Tuesday (May 15th), please arrive at Elsternwick Park a little earlier than usual and see our Captain Blood, Brendan Corcoran who will give you all the details in relation to our group booking at the Blood Bank.

BLOOD SERVICE

Trivia Night

Is on tonight, back at the rooms if you're on a table good luck. If however you didn't organize a table still rock up to see if there are any seats left or just hang at the bar for a couple of cold ones.

Annual General Meeting

The VAFAUA's Annual General Meeting will take place after training on Thursday May 31st. President Rob Mayston urges as many umpires as possible to attend. It's your association, get involved!

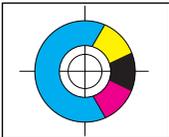

Thanks Tim, from Leah

To Tim Sutcliffe, thanks for filling in and I'm back from the US of A, a country whose idea of football requires helmets, pads, long shorts, umpires with caps / yellow hankies from their back pockets and huge paychecks. Just to compare the game to ours, while I was over there the NFL conducted the national draft and here are a few facts:

- Two days to complete four rounds of picks.
- First round of draft picks was concluded in record time of 6 hours and 45 minutes, just beating last year's effort.
- First pick of the draft can earn $54 million the 22nd pick (still in round one) will earn $8 million

And Tim, of course a plug for the VAFAUA website at <http://www.vafaua.asn.au/>

RESPECT THE UMPIRE – RESPECT THE GAME!!

D4 SECTION

Review

The boys from South Mornington win their first Ammo's game whilst St Mary's prevail in a game likely to be battled out a few more times before season end. And what about the Syndal boys? Preseason gloom shrugged of as they get on the board!

Only 6 points separated St Mary's and Eltham as they slugged it out in an arm wrestle. The lead changed plenty of times before the Saints managed to get their noses in front. Murphy starred around the ground whilst the Silky Slowman was dangerous all day. Blagrove on the ball and my mate O'Malley in defence were the Turtles best.

Great win for Sth Mornington as the Kemp boys dominated whilst Bowman and Ryan finished the work up field with 5 goals each. The ever reliable Nuske was the best for Richmond.

Another solid win for Box Hill North as they accounted for Eley Park. Martini was again good with four goals whilst the elusive Langley is starting the show the form he is capable of. The Sharks were well served by Cavell and Broadbear.

Albert Park got on the board and how as they accounted for an undermanned Bulleen. Eighteen goal wins are hard to come by and the Falcons have now their season up and running. Ryan in the ruck and dangerous forward Thompson were the stars for the winners whilst Mann and Rob Mundy were Bulleen's best.

A great win for Syndal as they got over the line against an inaccurate North Brunswick. Conrau continues to stamp himself as one of the best in the grade whilst Hannemann was also good for the Sinners. Adams was North's best.

Finally, Uni High overcame a 5 goal half time deficit to record a good win over a gallant Mt Lilydale. What the Uni boys lack in height they make up for in run and with Maumill and Ford starring; they have had a great start to the year. McKenzie was the best for the mountain men.

Preview

Match of the day sees Box Hill North welcome Albert Park to the Elgar. Nothing outlandish from the home side to date, just getting the job done, a hallmark of 2006 D4 coach of the year, Peter Armstrong. They will need to be on their game though. The Falcons got over a horror start in round 1 to show some real class last week. Not going to jump off the bandwagon, Box Hill for me.

A derby of sorts as Eltham hosts Mt Lilydale. Not the worse loss for the Turtles as it will reinforce that the season needs plenty of hard work to be successful. They had a great start to 2006 before the wheels wobbled and wont fall for the same thing again. Mt Lilydale has been competitive against two better placed sides however meet up with on of the best. Eltham by 6 goals.

Uni High will be buoyed by their start to the season under Scott Whyte. Huge turnover over the preseason however two wins is always a great start. On the other hand, North Brunswick has been disappointing in losing two winnable games. Hard to see much improvement just yet for the Brunswick boys so the students for mine.

A game that will be a great season's guide when Syndal host Sth Mornington. Both sides have been better than expected and this will give us an indicator to where they are at. The House of Sin has always been a tough one to get the four points at and I fancy Syndal should make it two in a row.

Two completely different stories as Bulleen welcome St Mary's. Bulleen would have their eyes on finals action however will now be wondering where the first win will come from. It will be interesting to see how the Saints go on the expanse of Koonung Reserve however suggest will suit as they make it three in a row.

Finally, Richmond welcomes Eley Park down to the KB. The Sharks are having to go through hard yards as their home is repaired. It was a high class game against Box Hill last week and whilst no doubt Richmond has improved, maybe not enough just yet.

Congratulations to 'Lewis' on reaching 300 games at North Brunswick. At one stage lost to Allard Park he saw the light and returned to his spiritual home. James has been an integral part of the club. James is noted as being the practical joker at the club although that has been tempered; this season has seen him be appointed as Reserves Coach. Always an in and under player his attack on the ball has never been in doubt. A natural leader he is held in high regard throughout Amateur Football. Well done to James and may there be many more games & a successful coaching career.

UNDER 19 PREMIER

Another cracking week of Premier section footy. Four teams are now unbeaten and no surprise to see Old Xavs remain with the ascendancy on top.

Review

Xavs put away Carey quite easily. The game was closer than the score indicates, with the home team having a red hot go all day- tiring towards the end. Fairly physical game and the word is Carey are close to a win. Best for Xavs was David Farley, while Grant Hodges and Thomas Macready-Bryan were handy for the losers.

Rupo notched up another win, this time against an improving blacks outfit. After a good start and then control of the first half, Rupo lost their way and Blacks climbed back into the match. Rupo just escaped and where best served by Campbell Allport and Tim Neely once again. The Blacks brigade of Matt Thompson and Sammy Orton were brave in defeat.

Marcellin lambasted a very disappointing Scotch to the tune of 6 goals. My sources tell me soul-searching central at Scotch this week, with some very meek performances. Let's not dwell on that too much, Marcellin were disciplined with better players being Andrew Viney and Eamon Jenkins. Oliver Baxter in the ruck for the losers was handy all day.

In other games De La pumped St Kevin's and continued their merry dance, while St Bernard's cracked the Blues at home.

Preview

Some big games this week and I expect Blacks to break the duck against St Kevin's. It's a big one on the Uni Main, enjoy it lads! Old Scotch should bounce back against Rupo, don't let me down lads. In other games, St Bernard's, Old Xavs and De La will continue their run at the top and increase the great divide.

The lock wasn't far off last week. Tipped the pies, but who would have guessed the margin. This week the lock will be the Blockbuster at the G. Blues v Pies, either team under 15.5 points. Thanks to the weekly contributors and feedback to beatoncharles@hotmail.com before 10am each Monday. Happy punting!

U19 SECTION 2

Importantly, before we consider this week's games I hope every player remembers that this Sunday is Mothers' Day. Buy some chockies or flowers for your mum. Remember you wouldn't be on a football field without her.

Review

From annihilator to annihilated, Old Camberwell have felt the highs and lows of a season in only two weeks. The latest side to hit the Tiger juggernaut would have been confident going into the game; however the stifling confines of Brindisi St and a lack of player depth were huge factors in the Weller loss. Andrew Hudson, & Dougal Yencken worked hard all day for the winners, whilst a lack of report from St Bedes Mentone makes it difficult to praise individuals for the Tigers, though

Mitch Bodinar bagged another 6 goals.

Beumaris are firming as the early challengers to St Bedes, with huge depth, quality, skill and an equally daunting home ground advantage; it is easy to see why. Walking onto Banksia reserve has been likened to stepping onto AAMI stadium, hostile and intimidating. This week was no different, and Michael DeFontenay, Anthony LaRocca and Alex Chinery were standouts in a very even performance against a determined Collegian unit who did not stop trying.

Old Brighton rebounded strongly against Banyule, with a ten-goal win, whilst Old Melburnians just edged an improved Whitefriars outfit. I have received no info from either of these games, and no scores or reports from the Old Paradian-Caulfield match. Players, coaches, supporters, get those reports coming in if you want to see more information in these articles.

Tips this week

St Bedes Mentone by 45, Old Brighton by 27, Old Camberwell by 17, Collegians to break their duck by 11 pts, and Beumaris by 21 pts at Banyule.

Review

It is a very unusual system, where three teams are unbeaten and five yet to win a game, however with a bye and a draw, this section is probably far closer than the early ladder suggests. Fitzroy Reds and Emmaus St Leos fought out a close encounter at Bennetswood – possibly the hardest ground in Victoria to kick a goal on. A sweeping gale blows to the Burwood Rd end, however even with the breeze the football swings late with little predictability. The Reds and the Animals both found the wind difficult to deal with, and a huge third quarter for Fitzroy was the difference in the end. Emmaus St Leos are not far off the mark and with some consistency are sure to trouble most teams this year. Ben Barclay in defence, Anthony McCann, and Ed Jones were all excellent performers for the two blues.

 the primary edge group

Complete marketing solutions

Rupertswood and Therry provided a thriller, as we saw the season's first draw. Therry were better early, and led by three goals at half time, however Matthew Spiteri, Joshua Styles and Jarred Taylor lifted the intensity, and helped Rupertswood edge in front at the final change. More accurate kicking by Therry in the last, with three goals straight, saw them tie the scores with the inaccurate Rupertswood. This was a fantastic effort by both sides who showed great endeavour in a hard but fair encounter.

Old Xavs ran over the Warriors in a dazzling second half, De La trounced St Bernards, whilst NOBSPC enjoyed the bye.

Tips this week

Old Xavs by 6 goals, De La Salle narrowly by 3pts, Old Westbourne to rebound by 15pts, and the Reds by 23 pts in a local derby.

Quote for the Week

'If you're trying to achieve, there will be roadblocks. I've had them; everybody has had them. But obstacles don't have to stop you. If you run into a wall, don't turn around and give up. Figure out how to climb it, go through it, or work around it. 'Michael Jordan

UNDER 19 SECTION 3

Some egos were burnt, and some of the more fancied teams in the race for this year's flag were given a touch up, as the dust settled over Round Two. La Trobe, Old Ivanhoe and Old Trinity put their hands up for flag favouritism in victories that may have inspired the Cats to pump my beloved Tigers the following day at the Telstra Dome. I'm also looking for new residence after losing my house following a huge wager on Old Mentonians who I declared were unbeatable (they lost by 16 goals).

Review

Food poisoning contributed to a MHSOB team that was more potent in the toilet than out on the field as they were out-muscled to the tune of 121 points by the Eagles. Coach Elder may well advise the youngsters to stay away from Victoria Street on a Friday night as they managed to only boot four goals with inspirational skipper Adam Grinholz again best for the Unicorns. For the Eagles, Ahearn was dominant up forward fizzing through five and was ably supported by good mate Beaton.

Chelsworth Park is becoming a fortress as the Hoes dispatched a disappointing Bentleigh to run out big winners. Delmonte kicked eight to take the challenge up to Bulleen Templestowe cult hero Nathan Manaco while Hondromatidis was busy racking up stats in a four quarter display.

La Trobe must have ignored my advice on the zero percent chance I gave them of winning as they were Devito against the Panthers. Kibby tried hard for Old Mentonians with three majors but he had little support.

Ormond had more moves than a cobra as they managed a tight 7 point win over the Ants.

Old Essendon relished the chance the opportunity to play on their school oval which actually has grass and turned a two goal half time lead into a twelve goal margin by the final siren.

Bulhakow was tireless and delivered it up to McGorry who kicked a six-pack.

Preview

La Trobe University ($2.05) V. Old Ivanhoe ($1.75)

Old Ivanhoe don the white shorts for the first time and I'm inclined to think they are the real deal so they should get the chocolates.

Bentleigh ($1.90) V. Old Mentonians ($1.90)

Have the house on the Panthers, wait I don't have one left after last week so I'll have my loose change on them, don't let me down boys.

Old Essendon ($1.60) V. Ormond ($2.30)

Both undefeated so far, it will be a cracking encounter but the trip to the wrong side of the Yarra will prove a daunting one for the Monds, Bombers by six goals.

Bulleen Templestowe ($3) V. Old Trinity ($1.33)

Eagles are flying, pardon the pun, and will give the Ants a nigh on shellacking.

MHSOB ($4.25) V. Oakleigh ($1.16)

Oakleigh will win but it will be a hollow victory as the Unicorns have been simply decimated by injury.

UNDER 19 SECTION SOUTH

My tipping fortunes have plummeted quicker than Casey Donavon's career with only a half out of four this week. All the games were tight tussles, a little less exciting than jelly wrestling, but still highly engaging as we saw our first draw and Prahran/Caulfield get its maiden win.

Review

The local derby at Brindisi Street saw Hampton lead at quarter time before losing their way in a three goal loss to the Tigers. In an inability to adapt to wet weather football, the Rovers dropped once they expected to win with wingman Matt Law and Lachie Batt on a half back flank admiral in defeat. Seven-goal hero Ryan was the main man for SBMT who play their home ground extremely well.

Looking like a team that would be the whipping boys for 2007, Prahran/Caulfield took heed of my inkling of a major upset by having a fantastic one point win against the Sky Blues. Matt Raymond was simply electric all day with support from tough nut Ollie Hagen smashing packs and Tim Maya putting in a four quarter effort. Mazenod kicked 27 goals last week, this week they were goalless at half time as Ajax thrived in greasy conditions to record a 17 point win. Even with Fayman injured, the Jackas found a replacement in Schwartz who marked strongly up forward. Bamblett-Furner fitted his name on the team sheet to be amongst the best for Mazenod.

In the final game of the round, Peninsula and Old Haileyburians took turns all day in the lead but neither could manage to rush through a behind as the first draw of the year was the final result. Clarke again backed up last week's performance for the Pirates while Baptist kicked three for Old Haileyburians who played with only eighteen players.

Preview

Monash Blues ($5.25) V. Ajax ($1.08)

Skinny odds but the Jackas will prove inspiration to their disappointing senior team with a resounding thumping of the Uni boys.

Mazenod ($1.80) V. Hampton Rovers ($2)

The Rovers hope to celebrate the birth of their coach's baby but at home I think Mazenod will sneak home in a tight one.

Parkdale ($1.60) V. Peninsula ($2.25)

The Pirates have the best player in the competition so far in Clarke who will inspire an away win with Peninsula to win by three goals over a sleepy Vultures outfit.

Old Haileyburians ($1.33) V. Prahran/Caulfield ($3.10)

Back to home turf, the luxury of having players on the bench will equate to a victory over an improving Prahran/Caulfield.

CLUB XVIII SECTION

by Norm Nugent

Round 2 matches were played in varying conditions including much needed rain. The results, which revealed more changes to the status quo, were much more favourable to this scribe whose success rate rose to 77%

REVIEW OF ROUND 2

Section 1

The Prahran juggernaut continued on its winning way with a one hundred and thirty four point victory over Mazenod

University Blues wasteful kicking prevented them seriously challenging Old Melburnians, who won their encounter by twenty one points.

Old Scotch just took the points from De La Salle, who failed by five points.

Even at this early stage, there is evidence De La Salle could fail to qualify for the finals.

Old Xaverians 2 set up their victory over St Francis Xavier in the first half as the Kew based side led by thirty nine points at the long interval. In the rain the Beaconsfield boys had the better of the third quarter before the Xaverians regained the ascendancy in a low scoring last quarter to gain victory by forty two points. Best for the Xaverians included: Matt. Flekker, Matt. O'Hanlon and Vice Captain, Peter Ockleshaw. For St Francis Xavier, Captain Xavier Gargan and the Russo brothers: Karl and Nicholas were best.

In the afternoon match, Old Xaverians proved far too good for St Kevin's, whose official reticence in providing the scores caused a lot of effort by many to obtain the necessary details. Best for the Old Xaverians in their eighty two point victory was their Captain, Vin. Perry.

Section 2

The Emmaus – St Leo's versus Monash Blues game was a fast and close checking one in which Monash gradually overcame the persistent home side to record a sixty eight point win. The three best Monash players; Stringer, Smibert and Butler were all defenders.

Old Brighton defeated a very inaccurate St Bede's/Mentone Tigers by twenty eight points in a low scoring game.

Collegians continued on their winning way by defeating the inaccurate St Bernard's by the Heinz margin... fifty seven points.

Caulfield Grammarians were too big and fast for Old Trinity, who never looked like overcoming Caulfield, who won by ninety nine points.

Old Scotch had a successful afternoon's football as they defeated University Blacks by fifty two points.

Superior forward line skill enabled Fitzroy Reds to defeat Kew by fifty points. Best for the Reds were: Coach Andrew George, fellow forward, Crowe, Morgan and Trigg. Best for Kew were: Oldmeadow, Wang, Carman and Rees.

Section 3

Bulleen Templestowe were too strong for North Old Boys/ St Patricks as they won by twenty five points.

Old Geelong started their season successfully with a thirty three point victory over Old Westbourne.

Therry Penola were not equal to the task of defeating Old Carey, who won by thirty two points on the Fawkner Oval.

Old Scotch proved clearly superior in talent to Oakleigh as they were untroubled to win by sixty four points.

After one week the Marcellin hopes were dashed by Whitefriars, who were favoured by the elements as they built up their twenty seven point winning margin. Best for Whitefriars included: Clint Collins, Hagen Shaw and Ben. Atkinson.

Beaumaris had the Bye.

PREVIEW OF ROUND 3

Section 1

Old Xaverians should inflict the third consecutive defeat on De La Salle, where ever the match is played

Old Xaverians 2 should record another comfortable win over Mazenod, who appear to be struggling this season.

The match of the round should be that between Prahran and Old Scotch, each of whom is undefeated in 2007. Each was a finalist in 2006 and each seems to have altered its team structure judging on Round 1 information. I select Prahran who are playing at home.

University Blues need to be more accurate in finding St Francis College than they were at finding the Crawford Oval goals or they will be in deeper difficulty than after two rounds. The Beaconsfield Boys have impressed so far despite going down to Old Xaverians 2 last week. At home I reckon they will have too much talent for the Blues.

Old Melburnians could be the big improvers this season and today they should win again by defeating St Kevin's, who seem to lack the talent of season's past.

Section 2

At home I favour Monash Blues to defeat the improving Old Brighton after a close encounter.

St Bernard's host Old Trinity as each team strives for its initial win in 2007. St Bernard's inaccuracy has been a concern but they have two things in their favour; they are at home and Old Trinity have struggled in their two outings. St Bernard's are my selection.

Caulfield Grammarians impressed last week and today they should continue on their winning way by defeating Kew, who are still team building.

Another match of seasonal significance is that between Collegians and Old Scotch, neither of whom has tasted defeat in 2007. I favour Collegians at home as I suspect their form has been the more impressive (I calculate)

Fitzroy Reds play University Blacks and victory will keep the reds in the top bracket while defeat for the Blacks will see them fall further down the ladder. In this round of the battle between red and black, I favour Fitzroy Red's Captain, Andrew George to hold the "Stendhal Silver" at the end of the game.

St Bede's/ Mentone Tigers, who have disappointed so far, have the opportunity to break the ice today at the expense of Emmaus/ St Leos. I believe they will do so.

Section 3

I favour Whitefriars to defeat Old Geelong on the wide wings of Como Park.

Fitzroy Reds should return to the winning list by defeating Beaumaris at McHale Stadium.

Box Hill North will meet stern opposition from Marcellin, who may prove too tall for the newly formed "Dragons". Pace could offset Marcellin's strength but I still favour the "Eagles".

Old Carey buoyed by a win face Old Scotch at Victoria Road, a ground familiar to both teams. I suspect Old Scotch will take the points through greater depth of talent.

North Old Boys/ St Patrick's journey west to play Old Westbourne, who have not looked like winning during the first two Rounds. North Old Boys/ St Patrick's, though winless have been competitive and I favour them to win today.

Bulleen Templestowe should win well over Therry Penola, who seem set for another "winter of discontent" Oakleigh has the Bye.

Hundred Up at Old Trinity.

Finally after 14 seasons of endeavour, punctuated by interruptions of work and injury, Old Trinity stalwart, Stuart Cade played his one hundredth game last week against Caulfield Grammarians. Stuart's games have been played in the Under 19, Reserves and Club XV111 sides. Well done Stuart. May your next 100 games come more quickly! The Cade Family has made a significant contribution to the efficiency of the Old Trinity Football Club. Stuart as well as his brothers Tim and Jonathan contribute on the field while parents Jenny and the late Mike have been heavily involved off the field. This season Jenny doubles as a trainer and interchange steward as the Trinity Club XV111 tries to notch its first victory.
