INDEPENDENT BOARDS A MUST IN SPORT

Michael Sholly
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Last week saw some very worrying signs in world cricket. In Dubai the ICC met and voted on many issues that will have far reaching effects on the game worldwide. I know you may think this has little to do with the Vafa but bear with me.

Two important decisions were made. Firstly Zimbabwe was retained as a full member of the ICC after the Asian bloc, led by India, opposed any move to take membership away from the African country. They have withdrawn from the World twenty/20 Cup in England next year however demoting Zimbabwe from full member status should have been an open and shut case but not in the self-interested corridors of the ICC.

The second was the staggering decision to change the result of the 2006 Test match at the Oval from a forfeit to a draw. To jog your recall of the Test match, this is the one where Darryl Hair docked Pakistan 5 runs for ball tampering. Pakistan refused to come onto the ground after the tea interval and match was awarded to England.

Michael Holding, well respected former West Indian fast bowler resigned his post on the ICC Cricket Committee stating: "When you take certain actions, you must be quite happy to suffer the consequences. That game should never, ever be a draw. A lot of things that are happening I don't want to be involved with, so I've moved on."

You can read into that statement as you will but unfortunately the people making the decisions vote on "party lines".

The ICC Board consists of a delegate from each of the 10 full member countries. Unfortunately, in the ICC the ten representatives are the current President or Chairman of each countries Board. In an atmosphere where the weight of a countries currency is of the utmost importance, votes are able to be won on aligning yourself with the most powerful country.

All decisions voted upon are based on the self interests of each of the countries. The Asian bloc countries all vote together giving them total power in the Board room. And within that Asian bloc there is one country that seems to control that power.

The AFL changed from a similar club delegate system in 1990 to a commission when they moved from the VFL.

The relevance to the Vafa is that on our Board has 12 elected representatives from the 70 member clubs and it is their responsibilities to act on behalf of all clubs. When they are appointed to the Board they no longer act in any official capacity at their original clubs. Of course all members have a vested interest in Vafa football and have come from club life which is only sensible.

Whilst the Vafa's board certainly doesn't have the same political issues as that of the ICC, the principles remain the same. It is imperative that our Board are independent and make decisions for the betterment of the competition taking out any personal or club allegiances.

Fortunately the health of the Vafa is in a far better shape than that of the ICC. We need the input of our members to ensure the Board remains close to our clubs however we must be aware of the big picture when making decisions.

A SECTION

by Jonathan Horn

I wonder what odds you could have got on Uni Blacks to beat Xavs? The thing is, the smart money would have been on them, given that it was a highly emotional day for the club (they unveiled an honour board for Brendan Keilar, who was shot and killed in the city last year) the fact that they fielded their strongest team in many a year and the added incentive of their annual ball that night. Looking at A Section footy over the years, nothing gets a team up like a big social function that night! The key man was former bomber Judd Lalich, who repelled countless Xavs moves down back, while Marty Pask was right on song with seven. Mark Bolton, Hugh Symons and Bruce Shaw were other standouts. Xavs pegged back a hefty margin and had a number of chances to get up but the Blacks held firm. Tim Clarke and Tim Fleming, both of whom are having vintage seasons, did the business but it was one that got away. At both the pointy and blunt end of the ladder, the result had massive ramifications.

So too, did the events at Pine Lodge. Old Ivanhoe were still smarting after throwing in the towel against Collegians. Seven days later, top side Old Scotch copped the full brunt of their frustration. For a side that has for so long painted with the "too slow" brush, Ivanhoe are pretty bloody quick at the moment, with small forwards Ricky Jessop, Evan Spargo, Tim Hosking and Adrian Delmonte carving up a Scotch side that was probably due a loss. Jarrold Geischen, Hayden Heta and Brett Negal dominated on the ball for Ivanhoe while Angus Gray and Sam Thompson got the job done for the Cards. The boys in brown seemed to have worked the locks – question is whether they've left their run too late. De La, particularly their esteemed and charming assistant coach, were none too happy that I tipped Collegians to win by 10 goals plus but the odds really did seem stacked against them, with Shields, Corin, Sherman and Morel all sitting it out. To their credit, the home side really threw everything at the Lions and were unlucky not to get the four points. Tom Moloney did a stellar job on the big Furgburger and Luke Jarvis and Nathan Roberts were key 'ins'. For Collegians, Damien Adkins carved them up all day, Shura Taft was at his slippery best and Brock Mooney, who kicked off his senior VFA career 13 years ago, made a welcome return. In the context of what transpired all around town, this was one of their most important wins in a long time.

As if the other Saturday games weren't enough, then there was the game out at Brindisi St. Uni Blues fielded a hot line up, including Andrew Lowcock and David Paton. And with their season on the line and all their guns firing, the Blues really threw the kitchen sink at St Bede's/Mentone but got overrun in the end. Peter McGettigan again stood up when it counted and Jack Hellier had another belter. As with the game at Melbourne Uni, this game meant so much – St Bede's are now a red-hot chance for the double chance and it's Good Night Irene for the Blues. Still a very handy team however and not a side you'd want to come up against in the run up to the finals.

The Sunday game was just as important in the grand scheme of things. A Brighton loss would have been a calamity while there were more than a few De La boys dreading a Trinity victory. As it played out, Trinity had their noses in front for much of the day, before the Beach Boys clawed their way to a vital win. Luke Mann played his best game for '08 and mainstays Perrett, Gadsden, Hendra and Phelen were all crucial in a tense last quarter. Brendan Iezzi was again a shining light for Trinity – he is a gun youngster who hopefully won't be picked up by one of those pesky cash paying clubs out that way. Tom Ecklersley and Andrew Hooke were others to get a mention.

Today

Anyone tipping Old Xavs here? Lose this and they almost certainly kiss the double chance goodbye. In years gone by, this was usually incentive enough to get 'em up and going. But they were bruised and battered last week and they venture to hostile and unfamiliar territory today. Should be an absolute belter – St Bede's by a goal.

Earlier this year, Uni Blues pulled down the pants of their Black rivals and the promoted team were none too happy about it. The Blues have been harder to follow than a Jim Steinmann song and might be a bit flat after throwing everything at the Tigers last week and just falling short. The Blacks are hungry for the team and really fancy their chances – let's go for the team in the away strip by two points.

In the other games, I really like De La against Brighton, given their fantastic record against the 'Tonners and the fact that Brighton will still be without their guns Ainley and Bruin. I reckon Collegians, with key players trickling back in dribs and drabs and the lure of the double chance dangling in front of them, might have a bit too much in the tank against Scotch at Camberwell. And Old Ivanhoe, one of the in-form teams in the competition and still a fluker's chance of playing finals, should be too slick for Old Trinity at Bulleen.

Should be a great round – flip you on the seaside!

MILESTONES

Old Ivanhoe would like to congratulate Chris Georgiou and Mark Luxon on reaching 100 games this week.

Chris is a tough versatile player who can play both ends of the ground, has a strong leading style and has been a valuable player for both the Seniors and Reserves. Mark, a member of the 2005 Section B premiership side, is blessed with explosive pace and a booming left foot, which has enabled him to turn a game around on quite a few occasions.

B SECTION

by Matt Cosgriff

The Sharks were literally a fish out of water when they came up against a rejuvenated OEG at Sportscover Arena. From the first bounce the Essendon boys had control of the game and match was virtually over at quarter time as OEG led by a huge 49 points. James Condos made his form consistent with another 5 goals along with Daniel Cooper who contributed the same in a best on ground performance. Trent Skurrie continues to defeat his opponents with ease as he kicked another 4 goals and David Forrest was instrumental all over the park. The call up of Jono Edmeades from the reserves for Beaumaris in the ruck was a positive move as he was extremely competitive and Scott Gowers continues to improve at Centre Half Back for Beauy. Is it no McLaren, no Marcellin? The Eagles were soaring yet again but this time it was downwards and not up. In a match that was tipped to be a contest between two equally matched teams the scores throughout the match and the final result was worlds apart from the judges and St Bernard's returned back to the winners enclosure by 57 points. A number of inclusions for St Bernard's made a severe impact on the scoreboard and the return of Callan Potter was evident as he kicked 4 majors and Joey Indomenico returned back to the goal kicking list with 2 goals himself. Marcellin fell to fourth place on the ladder from second after one of their worst performances of the year and had no multiple goal scorers amongst them. Tommy Caven starred in his best game of the year for St Bernard's.

Marc Secuccl celebrated his 250th game for Old Haileybury with a contribution of 4 goals as the Bloods put the defeats of last month behind them and continue to be a major force defeating Old Melburnians by 44 points. On a day that was simply perfect for Amateur football the Bloods were never headed all match as Old Haileybury were lifted to third place on the ladder thanks to the languishing effort of Marcellin. The inclusion of Stewart Loewe back into the line up paid instant dividends as he was another key target up forward continued to test the Melburnians attack. Laz Siapantas was best on for the bloods with a valuable 2 goals from him as well while Timmy Davis' effort all day for Melburnians was unquestionable in a losing side.

St Kevin's who were looking to get the monkey off their backs from recent efforts and sent a loud and clear message to the rest of the competition smashing Caulfield Grammarians to the tune of 61 points. Queries that have surfaced this season about the goal power of SKOBS were dashed as they posted their first 20 plus goal kicking performance of the season and posting by far and away their best score for 2008. Eleven goal kickers contributed to the carnage with Josh Mahoney, Mark Giansiracusa and Nicky McArdle all kicking 4 goals each. As Caulfield continued to improve their game on recent efforts and Ben Carboni kicked 6 goals, the effort just could not close the gap all afternoon on the rampaging SKOBS.

Old Camberwell had to come from behind to tame the Carey Express lately that seems to have no signs of stopping. Once again Camberwell begun well to lead at quarter time but the next two quarters had Old Carey gaining the ascendancy and leading by 10 points at the final change. Kent Kingsley found the form that we all know he is capable of and finished the day with 4 goals that coincided with his team's victory of 16 points. The final quarter was a tremendous contest with both teams showing no mercy for their respective opponents and for Old Carey the 3 goal effort of Julian Rowe was exceptional with Tommy Evans kicking 2 himself and the stand out player on the ground in the dark gurnsey. The loss put a savage dent on the hopes of Old Carey making the finals this year and Old Camberwell now have a two game break on the three teams down in the relegation zone.

TODAY'S B SECTION MATCHES

MARCELLIN v BEAUMARIS
ST BERNARDS v CAULFIELD GRAM.
OLD MELBURNIANS v OLD CAMBERWELL
OLD CAREY v OLD HAILEYBURY
ST KEVINS v OLD ESSENDON

TODAY:

OLD CAREY v OLD HAILEYBURY: Looking to bounce back from the win that got away from them, Old Carey must win this game to keep the September dream alive. With Old Haileybury now in third spot and looking for a top two place on the ladder I feel that this may be the game that finds out Old Carey and possibly end the dream. Old Haileybury by 28 points.

OLD MELBURNIANS v OLD CAMBERWELL: Kingsley for the OC kicked 6 goals last time these two teams met in a game where Camberwell ran out convincing winners. Despite the recent additions to the Melburnians line up Old Camberwell are taking all before them while the OM's are battling to rise off the bottom of the ladder. Old Camberwell by 39 points.

MARCELLIN v BEAUMARIS: I am not for a second becoming convinced that the Marcellin of last week is the performance that we can expect here again today. Although both teams lost last start and kicked identical scores for the match I believe that the Eagles will rebound back to the form of old. Expect improvement from both teams but its Marcellin by 30 points at the final siren.

ST BERNARDS v CAULFIELD GRAMMARIANS: The wheel has turned for St Bernard's with key players back in the team. Caulfield showed a lot more promise last week but have to raise the bar yet again to be competitive against the second placed Doggies. Caulfield forward line looks a lot more functional but the likes of Pearson and Potter will be too much for the Caulfield boys to handle. St Bernard's by 17 points.

ST KEVINS v OLD ESSENDON: St Kevin's have found great form leading into this match and will have to maintain the precedent if they are to defeat the premier side of B Grade. The last time they played was in Arctic conditions and Old Essendon won narrowly despite kicking less goals. Played at St Kevin's College I can respect the fact that St Kevin's will give OEG a run for their money but not for four quarters. I go with the favourite and it's OEG by 19 points. Enjoy the game! ## M I MILESTONES NEWS

Marcellin Old Collegians Football Club would like to congratulate Stephen Theisz who plays his 200th game with the club this week. 'Roy' is a true legend of the club – an U19 B&F in 1994 and a member of the 1997 C section and inaugural 2001 A section premiership sides. All at Marcellin would like to thank Roy for his contribution over the years and we wish him all the best for Saturday and the future.

Old Essendon congratulates Corey Innes who plays his 50th game this week. A strong backman who never takes a backward step. We look forward to Corey playing many more games for the Grammar.

Old Haileyburians' congratulate Tom Chisholm on playing his 50th game for the Bloods this week against Carey. First played 2005, Under 23 All Australian Representative 2006 and member of A Section premiership team that year. Tom is one of the fiercest tacklers in the Ammos. Well done 'Chis', we all look forward to many more milestones in the future.

This week sees Chris Williams, a reserves best and fairest winning midfielder, plays his 50th game in the black, gold and blue after more than 100 for old Camberwell.

Last week saw Brett Andrews notch up his 100th game for Old Carey. A while in the making due to a string of serious shoulder injuries, B.A. has kept on persisting through these setbacks. Congratulations. Congratulations also to Glen Parker, Joel Newnham and Simon Wood who also played their 50th games recently.

Everyone at Beaumaris congratulates Mark 'Dougie' Ensor on becoming our second player to achieve the milestone of 200 VAFA games. Mark's list of achievements since joining the club and playing his first U/19 game in 1997 is nothing short of inspirational. Well Done!

SOCIAL FOOTY "OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE"

Russell Barnes ~ Ormond Senior Coach

An important aspect of a successful football club is to have a healthy social life. Maintaining the involvement of the partners of players and officials at our level goes a long way to creating harmony amongst the group.

During the pre season the building of the social factor usually commences at the conclusion of the Friday session with a drink and a barbie as an introduction for new and old players alike. This is also important for the "new" coach who needs to take every opportunity to meet and get to know his new players.

Most clubs have structured social Calenders which commence with the "Seasons Launch" prior to Round 1. This is a great opportunity to introduce new players and sponsors to the club stalwarts.

Through out the season there are set nights such as "Past and Present Players Night". Which provides a good chance for new people to hear about the history of YOUR CLUB.

Sometimes the best functions are the unplanned nights where the group meet at the local hotel after the game to mingle and chat in the company of mates.

Late in the season whether fighting for finals or battling to avoid relegation the playing group can meet for dinner on a Tuesday evening at the local pizza place.

What all this socializing does is build spirit between the players and coaches. When this occurs it is hoped that when the crunch comes on the field the group pulls together to help each other achieve success. Hopefully this provides that extra 1% edge that every coach is looking for from their group.

Above all what a healthy social life does is provide something coaches sometimes neglect and that is ENJOYMENT. This is after all why most players play our great game.

Julian Gerner joined MHSOBFC in 1996 after stints at Old Melburnians and University Blues. Since that time Julian has gone on to play 150+ senior games with the Old Boys, winning a premiership in C Grade in 2004. Julian returned to play football, as the oldest player on the list, this year after breaking his leg in his 150th game in 2007 - a most courageous effort. Two weeks ago Julian elected to finish his distinguished career.

career, Julian's retirement was a sad day. For eleven years the football club was the epicentre, the place in which you made lifelong friendships, built camaraderie and tested yourself mentally and physically week in week out. Invariably Julian and/or Julian's pubs were very much at the epicentre throughout this period.

Julian's greatest strength in playing football is also his greatest strength in life, that is an assumption that he can and will do anything he sets his mind towards. This touch of arrogance is resented by some, but admired by most. There is much to debate about Julian's footballing prowess from warming the bench on occasion, to holding the modern record in A Grade for kicking 7 goals in a match against Old Ivanhoe. You can be assured that the memories of Julian's footballing career will improve with age.

Julian dedicated a significant part of his life to the success of MHSOBFC and we would like to thank him for his contribution. As the team seeks to turn around it's recent performances I would encourage the new guard to remember what they are playing for. Not just for themselves and the present, but also all those that have been there before them and contributed so much.

For Julian's team mates, in particular those that played throughout his Finally this ladder is starting to take some sort of shape as a top 7 and bottom three emerges. It's hard to see Rupertswood coming home so strongly to pick up the 3 wins they need to catch AJAX (or whomever ends up in 4th), so you'd have to think they'll be focusing on staying ahead of MHSOB for the remaining 6 rounds.

Up top, Hampton Rovers got back into the winners circle, and should be able to stitch up a finals berth this week, leaving the 6 teams below them to fight out for the other 3 places (not necessarily 2nd to 4th though). Must say there were no upsets as such this week, with the Parkdale win a real 50/50 proposition, and every other game going to expectations.

ROUND 12 REVIEW

Hampton's huge second term mauls Monash

Sadly, the Ashers were severely undermanned and ripe for the pickings against a fired up Rovers' unit, keen to get back on the winners' list at home....and did they do that or what? Monash never gave in, but were smacked in the centre and around the ground 50/50s. Ben Adamson, Chris Chant and Brendan Waldron were the best students, but they weren't much match for Daniel Corp (Frankston) in for his second game of the season and Jason Giasoumi (4 goals) and Alex Ross – both stepping up to make their senior debut for the club. Rob Alexander finished the game with seven goals at full forward while Mark Devereaux and Jay Ting dominated.

AJAX 'do the double' with Whitewash of Friars

For the first time this season AJAX was able to win games back to back, as both teams performed more effectively into the wind in the first half. For the Jackas, a fierce blast by coach Stuart Powell had the players fired up for the premiership quarter and they reacted holding the home side scoreless while adding five majors. AJAX again was plagued with inaccuracy also scoring eight behinds. Dukes and Chester were having a field day in the second half and a further six final quarter goals gave AJAX a comfortable 57 point victory. Ari Lewski in the midfield won plenty of the ball while Captain Jason Ritterman played his best game of the season.

Unicorns ebb, but the Krushers flow to another vital win

Oakleigh Amateurs went down by the riverside to do battle with Melbourne High School Old Boys and came away with the chocolates, but not before the home side put the wind up them. Two exceptional marks and goals from Tim Edwards put the Krushers 2 goals ahead at the final change, and the picked up the pace to edge out to a 5 goal buffer. Fighting for their very survival in this section, MHSOB were not done and clawed their way back to within a goal, but a Trevor Bromley bomb to the top of the goalsquare resulted in another major and a 12 point win. For Oakleigh, John Rutter and U/19 Shane Borlund, in his 1st senior game, were among the best.

Ormond jump Rupo and hold firm for final three terms

After getting away to a quick start and leading by 33 points at the first change Ormond basically held that margin for the rest of the game before finally winning by 5 goals. Matt Robbins played his best game for the club since being recruited from the Western Bulldogs kicking 9 goals and his partner in crime, the diminutive Bryce Deledio was also very good up forward with 6 goals of his own. Matt Martinov continued his fine season at centre half forward taking many telling marks and also kicking 4 valuable goals. Justin Hoggan also took many marks and had a huge influence on the wing and at half forward.

The Sunbury boys figured they must have won – as you rarely lose these days after kicking 20 goals! For the home team, Jarret Plummer worked hard in defence, with solid support from Niall McGovern around the ground and Lachy Baddeley and Aaron Silvester up forward.

Noddors nailed by Vultures

ROUND 13 PREVIEW:

Mazenod –v- Rupertswood

At home, this is one the Noddors simply can't afford to drop, given they're already a game and percentage shy of 4th spot. Still the Woodsman have a chance to shoot 2 games clear of 9th here, and will give it a real shake. Mazenod by 5 points.

Monash –v- Oakleigh

Simply can't see the Ashers getting close to the form team of the mid-season, even on the fearsome Frearson. Oakleigh, probably comfortably.

Hampton Rovers –v- MHSOB

If the Unicorns were hoping to catch Rupo this week, they may need to think again. The Rovers on their home deck are a good thing again. HR by 4 goals

Parkdale –v- Whitefriars

Probably the final chance for the Friars to keep their chances alive in '08. The Tribunal may have something to say here too (gulp). I can't see them containing the Vultures forwards at the Gerry Green for a full 100 minutes. Parkdale by 22 points.

Ormond –v- AJAX

A good rivalry here as these virtual neighbours face-off again in what should be a belter. The wet conditions predicted for this week have me leaning pretty heavily to the Monders again, as a chopped up EE Gun should suit them. Ormond by 26 points.

McGoos:

Rovers, Mazenod, Ormond, Oakleigh and Whitefriars.

M I L E S T O N E S
Oakleigh would like to congratulate David Counihan on his 100th club game and Chris Meyers on his 50th club game today against Monash Blues. From all team mates, members, supporters and sponsors at Oakleigh.
Gary Blieden reaches his first 100 this week against Ormond. "Blieds" has been an inspiration to his team mates and supporters since first playing in 2001 Under 19 in a successful premiership team and then a consistent senior member since. Fantastic effort "Blieds"
Sam Chester from Ajax finally reaches his 50th game this week. Hopefully we will see many more games from the speedster who has notched 11 goals in the last two weeks.
Old Camberwell congratulates Charles Hendrie on playing 100 games for the club in the Round 12 match against Old Carey. Charles joined the club through our Under 19s team in 2003, after previously playing his junior football with Camberwell Grammar & Greythorn Juniors. Old Camberwell would also like to congratulate Ben Atkinson and Caine Hillier on reaching 50 games!

D4 SECTION: KEW v OLD BRUNSWICK

ROUND TWELVE REVIEW

Aquinas OC's struggles continue, succumbing to Fitzroy Reds by 24 points at Brunswick Street Oval. The Reds were comfortably in control in the first half, but inaccurate kicking for goal gave the Bloods a sniff at half time. The visitors managed to whittle the margin to a couple of goals, but the Reds managed to hold them off and record another important win. Paul Maaskant gathered plenty of the ball in midfield for Aquinas, and got good support from wingman John Jess and the hard working Trent Harkin. For the Reds, wingman Ben Atherton was a stand-out, with the reliable Chris Meighan solid in the ruck.

Bulleen-Templestowe emerged triumphant in their crucial contest with Old Geelong at Como Park, taking the match by 26 points. Despite a six goal second quarter by the Oggers, the Bullants were the more consistent side during the day, and it cannot be said they did not deserve this particular win. Yarra Valley OB made a mockery of the experts (and me), defeating South Melbourne Districts by 31 points at Domeney Reserve. The much-vaunted Bloods attack never really got going, while the Bushrangers were at their best in the second and third quarters.

Peninsula OB made Old Mentonians work hard, and indeed were in front half way through the last quarter, before a late surge eventually got the Panthers home by 19 points in Mount Eliza. Not the most aesthetically pleasing of contests, but a good game to win nonetheless. Justin Costello, Danny Field and fourth quarter hero Tim Speers were crucial to the visitors' success.

North Old Boys/St. Patrick's College returned to the winners' list with a handsome 71 point win over Prahran at Gillon Oval. For the victors, Kyle Adams and Dan Tonkin split eight majors between them, while Chris Ford, Joe van Dyk and Damian Poulter were key performers in another well-balanced team effort.

ROUND THIRTEEN PREVIEW

NOB/SPC face off against Old Geelong at Gillon Oval. The Oggers were tipped out of the four last week and given some of the fixtures this week, it's uncertain to say if they'll bounce back in right away. The Cobbers won a thriller by 10 points back in Round Four. Both sides play a free-wheeling style of football which is pleasing to the eye, and would surely be enjoyable for the players as well. Plenty of experience and talent all over the park for both sides, and it may simply be a question of seizing the initiative early and fighting hard to keep it for all four quarters. The ladder suggests the home side have been able to do this more consistently, and that's good enough for me. Cobbers to win.

Fitzroy Reds travel to Lindsay Hassett Oval to defend the Bedford-Stephen Trophy against South Melbourne Districts. The last contest between these two sides was in Round Five, which saw the Reds prevail by a solitary point. It will be interesting to see how the Bloods respond to last week's defeat - was it merely a blip after their recent form, or will it be the beginning of a dip in form? The Reds continue to string together solid performances without immediately grabbing your attention - it's not until you look back at the week-by-week results that you can see how well their season has been thus far. As for this match, I think the Reds should be good enough to win today and retain the silverware.

Old Mentonians host Bulleen Templestowe at The Playing Fields. The Panthers made a long awaited return to the four last week and certainly have the goods to continue that momentum. Brent Fairbanks bagged a tidy half dozen goals in his first senior game of the season (after nine in the reserves the week before, his first appearance all up for the year), but will face a sterner test via the Bullants' defence, therefore the Panthers will have to exploit each and every option available to them up forward. The Bullants won by 18 points in the corresponding fixture back in Round Six, and I fancy today's contest to be just as close. Not easy to pick this, but I'll plump for the Panthers today.

An interesting game looms in Mount Eliza where Peninsula OB take on Aquinas OC. Whilst it certainly won't be curtains for the loser, it may well make survival that bit more difficult. John Rombotis has proved more than useful for the Pirates this season, despite the deficit in the 'W' column, and along with the likes of Thomas Rees and Will Coghlan, will be essential to the home side's efforts today. The Pirates won a low scoring affair over the Bloods by 34 points in Round Six, and I fancy a similar result again today. At home, I cannot go back the Pirates.

The match at Toorak Park between Prahran and Yarra Valley OB is similarly intriguing, despite the three game gap between the two sides. The Two Blues are still no certainties to avoid the drop just yet (though they are probably 75-80% safe in my estimation), and the Bushrangers will feel bulletproof after their breakthrough win last week. Round One was the last time these sides met, with the Two Blues prevailing in a high scoring shootout by 16 points. I'll tip the Two Blues on this occasion and give them that little more breathing space, if not 100% safety just yet.

Match reports can be sent to me via email at theqwill@hotmail.com.

I am keen to hear from all clubs and establish a degree of parity as far as publicity goes. Please keep your match summaries to around 100 words if possible (due to space restrictions), but I am certainly happy to take on board any other comments, be it about the match or other things. Remember, this is about your club, so make the most of it.

Good luck to your team today, and have a great VAFA weekend!

M I M I L E S T O N E S

Aquinas would like to congratulate Ash NAULTY on playing his 50th game this week. Ash joined the club as a 17 year old in 2006 playing his first year in the clubs U19s. The past 2 years Ash has played in the senior team and relished the role as either a key forward or ruckman. A quality player full of potential, we look forward to seeing you continue to develop and become one of the great players of the Aquinas Football Club. Congrats again.

The South Melbourne District Football Club would like to congratulate Paul Cheevers and Adam Ray on the reaching the 150 and 100 games milestones recently. Both boys have come up through our junior club and continue to serve "The Districts" with distinction. Paul and Adam are dual premierships players whose magnets are always amongst the first placed on selection night. Well done boys, we all hope there are many more to come!

CLUB WAREHOUSE RISING STAR

ROUND 12

CHRISTOPHER BELUSZAR

OLD XAVERIANS

Chris Beluszar joined Emmaus St. Leo's Old Collegians Football Club at the beginning of the 2007 season, and has played all games since in the seniors. A talented junior basketballer, Chris gave up on his basketball dream to play footy with his mates, being an ex-Emmaus College student.

In the Emmaus St Leos Senior team Chris is currently holding down centre half forward and having an exceptional season. He has an amazing vertical leap, a great set of hands and his goal kicking accuracy has improved immensely. Chris is a hard trainer, and I can't remember him missing a session for any reason. He is regularly first on the track and is still practicing his goal kicking when we have to drag him off the track for team meetings!

All at Emmaus St. Leo's are delighted with Chris' development and the leadership qualities he shows on and off the ground. A key part of an extremely young playing group, Chris is someone that all players look up to and his preparation and determination are a lesson for all. We look forward to Chris' further development as a player and person and to him joining the leadership ranks at our Club and playing an important role in our future success.

Chris has been added to the Under 23 squad after his 8 goal best on ground performance against Glen Eira last Saturday.

U19 Coach of the Month - June

Robert Moran – Aquinas

Robert Moran has been a club stalwart for over 12 years and after having played 150 games for the Aquinas OCFC in the competitive position of CHF / CHB was forced to retire early due to illness. Knowing the club was seeking someone for the vital role of U19 coach for 2008 he immediately made it known that he would love the challenge that this would bring and to keep involved with the club.

As it turns out, Rob's enthusiasm and organisational capacity in arranging for the set-up of all game day officials have shone through with the team not having lost a game to date. Rob has developed a wonderful rapport with his team and this is clearly reflected in his and the teams achievements thus far. Congratulations Rob on your recognition as VAFA coach of the month and for your efforts so far this season.

D2 SECTION

by Jono Healy

After round six I declared the final four set. What an idiot I look like now, with three teams battling it out for fourth spot on the ladder. I still expect Glen Eira to claim fourth spot, but Ivanhoe and Old Westbourne are probably playing better footy than the Saints at the moment. Good to see Bentleigh jump out of the relegation zone with a huge win over Therry Penola. Can they stay in D2 for 2009? And does St Marys/Salesian have anything left to give? There are a couple of huge games this week that will answer some of our questions.

Bentleigh $1.75 v Old Westbourne $1.95

Despite playing without two of their most important players – James Robertson and Chris Sharp – Bentleigh recorded an impressive 81-point victory over Therry Penola at home and will be keen to make it two in a row here. Chris Fidler and Paul Magnifico booted 11 goals between them up forward, while Scott Lawry was everywhere. Old Westbourne kicked eight goals to one in the final term to outgun Old Paradians by 23 points and now find themselves just one win outside the top four. I still have my doubts about Old Westbourne and whether they are a legitimate finals contender, so this game will tell us quite a bit. Bentleigh too has plenty to play for as they won't want to drop this one and find themselves back in the bottom two. The Warriors will need the Connors' brothers firing here if they are to win as I feel Bentleigh's younger brigade are starting to find their best form. Should be an enthralling game, with the edge given to the home side. Bentleigh by 14 points.

St Marys/Salesian $2.70 v Emmaus St Leos $1.40

The combine almost knocked off the top team last week and will fancy their chances of causing an upset here. Matt Robinson was the best big man on the ground against Werribee and Andre Bonnici was the best small man and the combine will need the duo at their best against Emmaus St Leos. The Animals are all but guaranteed the double chance come finals time and, after dismantling Glen Eira by 92 points last Saturday, they start short priced favourites in this one. Foxy Beluszar (eight goals), Ben Ellis (five) were in fine form and this pair are becoming one of the deadliest duos in front of goal in D2. In other positive signs for the Animals, youngster Pat McCluskey and Anthony 'Hands On Hips' Hickey were in fine form in the middle of the ground, while the ever reliable Phil Carey and Nathan 'Meatball' Baranello marshalled the back half in style. Emmaus St Leos still have a handful of their best players out of their side, while St Marys/Salesian will welcome back a few of their stars for this clash. The loss of James Rogers will be felt by the combine, but they still have enough quality to trouble the top teams at home. Definite danger game for the Animals, but they should have enough class to get the job done. Emmaus St Leos by 17 points.

Ivanhoe $1.80 v Glen Eira $1.90

Match of the round today is at Hoe Park, with fourth spot on the ladder up for grabs for the victor. Still no Angelo Pace in the Ivanhoe line-up, but the likes of James Collins and Travis O'Neill continue to get the job done. Glen Eira are faltering badly and were outclassed by Emmaus St Leos on Saturday and will need to re-group in this clash. With so much at stake, this is sure to be a hard fought game with plenty of hard hits and physical encounters. In the past, this sort of game would have suited Glen Eira down to the ground, but they have lost their way of sorts lately and will need the experienced heads of Chris Massis, Alex Tsirogiannis, Peter Rohr and Ryan Clark to lift. The Hoes do play their home ground well, but I have a sneaky suspicion that Glen Eira will hit back in this clash and can prevail. Providing Glen Eira can win the ball out of the middle, they should be able to sneak past Ivanhoe in a close one. Glen Eira by two points.

Therry Penola $2.40 v Werribee $1.50

Danger time for Therry Penola now, as they find themselves deep in the relegation zone and probably needing three wins from its last six games just to avoid the double drop in two consecutive years. Jarryd Hanlon tried hard across half back, while Ricky Skiathitis found plenty of the ball in the middle, but Therry were comprehensively beaten by Bentleigh last week and will need to lift considerably in this one. After an early scare, Werribee escaped with a three goal victory over St Marys/Salesian, with Jeremy Wallert and Andrew Cunningham impressive in the forward line, and Josh Bellegante and Sean Dean good in defence. Werribee are still missing a host of its best players, but are sure to regain the likes of Nathan Addamo prior to the finals. Therry Penola had Corey Bannister return to the senior side last week and he will need to fire in this one if the home side is a chance of prevailing. Werribee has so many match winners in its ranks and is hard to stop for all four quarters. Therry Penola will stick with Werribee early, but the visitors should kick away in the second half and record a comfortable victory. Werribee by 44 points.

Banyule $1.20 v Old Paradians $4.10

With the chance of a top two finish seemingly gone,

Banyule will look to regain some confidence against an Old Paradians side that has been playing some reasonably good footy of late. Old Paradians have won two of their past three matches, while Banyule has lost its last two, so this clash might end up being a lot closer than the betting suggests. Banyule went down to Ivanhoe in a cliff hanger last round, while Old Paradians were overrun by Old Westbourne in the final term after putting up a gritty display for the first three quarters. The form of Banyule's David Gayfer is ominous for opposition clubs and I feel he could be the difference in today's encounter. If Gayfer can be held and the likes of Mark Ryan, Allan Young and Carl Sage can fire, then the Raiders are chance of causing an upset. However, Banyule should be able to get their season back on track with victory. Banyule by 11 points.

TODAY'S D2 MATCHES

THERRY PENOLA v WERRIBEE
BANYULE v OLD PARADIANS
BENTLEIGH v OLD WESTBOURNE
IVANHOE v GLEN EIRA
ST MARYS/SALESIAN v EMMAUS ST LEOS

It would be great to hear from every club after each round to help me in writing my weekly column. Please send all match reports, social events, milestones and anything else that may be of interest to jonathan.healy@hotmail.com by 5:00pm on Monday.

M I MILESTONES E S

St Marys/Salesian would like to congratulate the following players on their achievements. Sean Logan 150 games, Cam Rose 100 games and Daniel Cope 50 games. Sean is the playing coach of the 'Super Saints' in Club XVIII South and his three-quarter time addresses have been likened to John Kennedy. Prior to coaching, Sean was a regular senior player known for his freakish skills and he has been a great servant off the field as well. Cam Rose has been a fine contributor over many seasons playing in the centre and is known for his hardness around the ball and his unique dress sense off the field. Daniel is a very reliable senior player and we look forward to many more games from him. Congratulations to Amir Banks on 100 games with Bentleigh. Banksy has filled a variety of roles from full back to ruck (although the smallest ruck in the league) but one thing you can count on is a 100 per cent commitment. The club wish you all the best on your milestone and good luck in the future. Congratulations to Cris Massis on reaching his 150th game with Glen Eira Saints. Cris has been an outstanding Sainter. Captain, Competition beat and fairest winner in C grade, Committeeman and great spit roast cook. Well done Cris.

Big V Recollections

Senior Squad Game, June 8th Vs AFL Sydney in Marrickville

By Nick Serafini

On a ridiculously hot day in February this year, whilst on a pre-season camp with the Old Xavs, we stopped our full ground drills for a quick breather and to grab some much needed water. We were ushered into the shade, took a seat and had a drink – it was one of those days where you feel the water run down your throat and into your stomach, such were the contrasting temperatures. The coaching staff started picking out players and asked them to outline their individual goals for the year. My mind raced through the fortunate years I have had at Xavs and one massive box remained unticked – playing Rep footy and pulling on the Big V. How could you play in the Ammo's and not have that goal at the back of your mind? In such a team environment I was a bit loathe to publicise my selfish goal, but in what seems now to be a significant moment in my pre-season, I can very happily say I have 'ticked that box'.

The benefits of VAFA Rep footy are countless, and this year in particular they were very tangible; a trip to Sydney for two nights, lavish hotel rooms (!), buffet breakfast, countless officials onboard and a sublime group of coaching staff ensuring that our minds were both primed for the game at hand, and for the rest of the season. Towards the end of the selection process the squad was a bit unlucky to lose some quality campaigners to injury, namely Mark Ainley, Tim Fleming and Andy Cultera – three of the senior leadership group who I was very keen to play with. In a strange way, I was most keen to play with Tim Fleming, our club captain and Old Xav through and through. I just felt that running out for the Big V with Flem leading us would have been a very enjoyable experience. That said, playing and training with the bunch of guys who played that day, many with AFL/VFL experience, and most with Big V experience, I learnt a truckload and grew as a player.

There were two moments during the game that standout in particular, other than the hugely enjoyable 5-point win itself. The first being when Andrew Lowcock faced a 50/50 ball and certain heavy contact if he went after it. Result - he went 110% at the ball, head over it, focus purely on winning possession for his team and the VAFA. The hit was a big one, Lowy injuring his shoulder badly enough for him to go off and get some medical attention. Even so, later in the game, he still wanted to come back on and give it another crack. It is efforts like that which earn my respect and signify what playing in that game means to the blokes who played, so Lowy well done. The other significant moment was when Tony Brown was near on knocked out when he stood his ground courageously. Tony later came back on and gave us the spark we needed to get over the line, so full credit to both those players. I haven't told him this yet, but it was actually my opponent who ran through him, so apologies Brownly! I think karma got me back as in the last quarter Tony's hip knocked my head hard enough to dislodge one of my contact lenses, forcing me to run around for the last five minutes with one eye closed. I also remember fondly the enjoyment that the win provided for all the staff associated with the game. Given the other two rep teams lost that weekend, and the Senior Rep Team hadn't won in a few years, it was even more enjoyable for us and the dozens of affiliated personnel who came in the rooms after the game. I think I might have even seen a tear in Tommy Brain's eye?! I always thoroughly enjoy that 30 mins after a great win (the rain only adding to the atmosphere of the day) and the Sydney trip was no exception.

After being selected in the U/23's squad last year, and missing due to a shoulder injury, I was dead-keen to make the team this year. I was very much encouraged by our club coach Simon Lethlean, himself a multiple rep game player, to give it my all and play if I could. He noted that training with those guys, and playing games at that intensity, serve us very well for the big finals and big games that Xavs have been lucky enough to play in recent times. He is spot on. So, thanks to all the coaching staff and VAFA hierarchy (especially for the Sunday night beers!) and all the other players involved. I certainly will be putting my hand up next year.

• U23 Representative Match at the Junction

For those unaware, next weeks U23 AAFC Representative Match against South Australia has been moved to Junction Oval. The move allows critical works to be conducted at Sportscover Arena including the relaying of turf in high traffic areas. Sportscover Arena, like most ovals in Melbourne, has suffered terribly from the drought and water restrictions and these works are crucial to the playing surface being suitable for VAFA finals. A renovation of the playing surface is planned for the end of the season, replacing the mainly winter season grass coverage with a drought tolerate warm season variety. The hope is that in the coming seasons, the surface of Sportscover Arena will return to one of the premier playing surfaces in Melbourne.

• 200 Games for Hawthorn Coach

Hawthorn Amateur's Coach Peter Tyson racks up 200 games as Senior Coach of Hawthorn AFC this weekend when his chargers take on Monash Gryphons. What makes this achievement even more meritorious is the fact that Peter played over 300 games for the club. An amazing effort considering the demands required to both play and coach our great game. That's around 25 years (minimum) of service as either a player or coach. Peter's achievements will be recognised at a special luncheon to be held this Saturday at Rathmines Reserve. Peter is a very passionate Hawthorn and VAFA man and our congratulations go to you on a marvellous achievement. Enjoy your day.

• Cystic Fibrosis Challenge

The VAFA Cystic Fibrosis Challenge has now concluded and clubs are now asked to return their collection tins in order that the amounts raised can be collated and announced. If you see a collection tin at your club this weekend, please make a donation as this weekend will be your last opportunity to give to this vital charity. Clubs who raise the most amount of money will be in the running to win a brand new BBQ, a new set of training jumpers or a weekend away for two at a country retreat.

• Dragons to Host Community Coaching Session

The Sandringham Dragons will hold the last of their community coaching sessions on July 23rd, aimed at assisting and educating coaches in player communication and retention. For those interested the details are –

When: Wednesday the 23rd July. 7:30pm

Where: Social Room, Trevor Barker Oval, Sandringham.

Cost: $20.00 per person

RVSP: Immediately to mediasd@bigpond.net.au or 0422 580 607.

• VAFA Tipping Comp Heats Up

With the competition within the sections heating up for finals places and to avoid the dreaded relegation, so too has the competition in the VAFA Online Tipping Comp. With the winner receiving $500 worth of fantastic prizes, there is a lot at stake. The top ten are as follows –

1	cowboy	8	8	9	9	7	6	7	5	5	7	77
2	Dr Mack	8	8	6	9	6	6	7	4	8	9	77
3	GAFFED	8	7	8	9	7	8	8	6	5	6	77
4	Iewis1	8	8	8	9	7	8	5	4	6	6	76
5	MartyS	7	8	8	9	8	8	7	4	7	5	75
6	Roscco	8	7	7	9	8	8	6	4	5	6	75

9	costanza86	7	7	9	9	6	7	6	4	6	7	73
10	Toyboy	6	8	5	10	6	7	8	7	5	6	72

Tipsters are required to select the winning teams from A and B Sections each week with the results from the last ten rounds listed in the table. "Cowboy", "Dr Mack" and Gaffed" head the table with 77 correct tips this season. In last place is "DRC" with 47 tips.

• Holiday Season

Not so long ago the football season was sacrosanct. Holidays were taken over the summer, or a sneaky little break was squeezed in during a mid-season bye. However, this school holiday break, a number of clubs have reported an alarming number of their players getting away for holidays, forcing one to forfeit and a number of others to get by with the bare minimum. With competition in the travel industry at an all time high, it seems people are now getting away for break whenever they can, not just when sport or other extra curricular activities dictate.

• VAFA Luncheons

The VAFA has two showpiece luncheons coming up which provide members of the amateur community the opportunity to network, entertain clients and enjoy a celebration of aspects of Amateur Football. The first luncheon is being run in conjunction with Stride Sports Management and is a celebration of the contribution women have made to football through 150 years. Special guests will include Glenn Archer, Samantha Lane and Gillon McLachlan. The luncheon will be held on Friday July 18th at Zinc, Federation Square commencing at 12.30pm and bookings can be made by contacting Pru Edmonds on 8623 2815. The second luncheon coming up is the Big V Reunion luncheon, which was held so successfully for the first time last year. Every player, official, umpire or trainer who has proudly served the Big V is invited to attend and share the memories of those momentous occasions. The luncheon will be held on Friday 15th August in the Olympic Room of the MCG, commencing at 12.30pm. Bookings can be made by contacting Olivia de Castres on 9531 8333.

... Retrospective

by Geoff Reilley

5 YEARS AGO - 2003

In C Section, it was still a very open competition with only St Leos Emmaus Wattle Park looking safe in the top four. Therry Penola hosted Mentone Vultures with a top four spot up for grabs depending on other results. Mentone boasted dangerous forwards and Therry would need to be at their best. Mentone got the jump on the home side in the first quarter and increased their lead to just over 5 goals by half time. Therry fought back keenly in the third term and were within a goal by three quarter time. The final term was an absolute cracker as Therry continued their challenge and finally forged ahead in the dying minutes to win by 5 points, 11.13 to 10.14. Best players – Callegari, Fenton, Clifton, Faroldi, Nancarrow, Henderson (Therry) and Dixon, O'Meara, P Sullivan, M Sullivan Rowley (4), Ogler (Mentone).

St Leos congratulated key forward, Brendan Vaughan, on reaching 200 games. 'Vaughny' began his illustrious career in 1992 and had topped his club's goal kicking a record 9 times out of 12 years, his strong marking and accurate kicking as good as anyone in the VAFA. He had also played in three premierships, was club captain in 2000 and 2001 and twice a VAFA representative.

C Section coaches were – Brett Marchant (Beumaris), Merv Keane (Caulfield Grammarians), Pat Hawkins (Collegians), Paul Beddoe (Glen Eira), Tony Macgeorge (Mentone Vultures), Michael Sigalas (Old Camberwell), Adrian Connolly (Ormond), John Ross (Pahran), Darren Turner (St Leos Emmaus WP) and Chris Bye (Therry Penola).

With a top two position the prize in D1 Section, AJAX and Old Mentonians met and Old Mentonians showed they meant business by controlling the game in the first quarter, 6.5 to 2.0. AJAX made up part of the difference in the second quarter and had taken the lead by 2 points at three quarter time. The lead see-sawed in the final term but at siren time it was all square, 13.8 each which saw Mentonians hold their second spot, only by percentage over AJAX. Best players – J Raleigh, A Wollner, Gelbart, Gutman, Blashki, Cooper (AJAX) and Palmer, Solley, Costello, Bournon (4), Basile, Mackay (Old Mentonians).

Matthew Austin, Old Mentonians' stalwart, completed his 200th game and was a man whose heart beat strongly for the cause both on field and off field. He had played in every key position and had even battled hard in the ruck against taller opponents when the club needed him to. Matthew was known to make the easy look impossible and the impossible look easy!

10 YEARS AGO - 1998

There were two E Sections, Blue and White and the main challengers in each of the two appeared to be identified. In E Blue, Caulfield Grammarians, Peninsula Old Boys and Old Camberwell seemed well ahead of the rest and Chirside Park and Oakleigh most likely to fight it out for fourth position. In E White, Old Carey and Richmond Central were clearly the main contenders and any one of five teams could scrap for the remaining two spots. Old Camberwell and Peninsula Old Boys had huge wins in the Blue Section, 28.15 to 2.1 and 20.17 to 3.11 respectively but Caulfield Grammarians received a huge shock to their system when they travelled to the Power House ground. It was muddy and not conducive to the Field's running game and Power House reveled in the conditions early to grab a telling two goal lead at the first break. At half time Caulfield had yet to score a goal while Power House scored another 2 goals by smart, yard by yard play and the upset was on track. Caulfield's line-up was revamped at half time and some of the 'top of the ground' players told in no uncertain terms to forget about getting their white shorts dirty and 'have a crack'. The Caulfield players responded and half way through the quarter 'broke their duck' and followed up quickly with three more goals to hold a 5 point lead going into the last term. Power House were not done and had the very heavy ball in their half for most of the term but were only able to force two behinds. Caulfield didn't score for the term but held on to take the points 4.9 to 4.4 and certainly need the 'wake-up call'. Best players – Lubransky, Cassidy, Stevenson, Cox, Horton, Millard (Caulfield) and Simpson, Horridge, Cavicchiolo, Leonard, Luckey, Sposato (Power House).

In the White Section, Old Carey travelled to North Brunswick, knowing it was a danger game in not so brilliant conditions and with North Brunswick's passion to play finals' footy maybe depending on this game. Seven minutes into the second term, North Brunswick held a 7 goal to 1 advantage and there was real trouble for Glenn Taylor's team. In the wintery conditions, the standard of play was exceptional by both teams as Carey rallied and answered the challenge. With Matt Cohen at his mercurial best (5 goals), Andrew Oppy roving as if it was a dry day and Sam Curry placing himself in the best position to both attack and defend, the C's commenced an incredible goal kicking blitz that realised no less than 17 goals 1 behind for the remainder of the game; exceptional stuff considering the conditions! Dean De Morton, Vin Larosi, Wayne Pretty and Joe Boudolph were great for the 'Northeners' but could not stop the brilliance of the Carey boys. Final score in Carey's favour 18.3 to 14.7 in a great game of Aussie Rules! Best players – Moulton, Woods, Sam Curry, Vasilopoulos, Busse, Everett (Old Carey) and Joe Boudolph, Dean De Morton (5), Lirosi, Famulari, J Tirchett, Hodgson (North Brunswick).

20 YEARS AGO - 1988

Old Xaverians made a clear point in A Section with a huge win over Old Paradians and in doing went a step closer to challenging for one of the top two spots. Paradians never got a look in and were 7 goals down by half time as the Curtain brothers held sway up forward. Although only 1 goal was scored in the third quarter, Old Xavs had the game by the throat and ran out winners 14.11 to 2.5. This win brought them within three games of Old Parade (second). Best players – J Mackay, P Curtain (4), Dann, Gooding, Atkins, Marks (Old Xavs) and P Wood, Fahey, M Wood, Caddy, Grills, Mansfield (Old Parade).

After the nail biting finish in B Section between Uni Blacks and Bulleen Templestowe, the top four may have been settled. With no more than a goal between them for the whole game, Bulleen Temp hung on by a point 8.6 to 7.11. The Blacks were now three games in fifth place behind Bulleen Temp. Best players – George, Espenchied, Fitt (3), Smythe, Mayne, Wilson (BT) and Gibney, Vaughan, Russell, Cook (4), Boyle, Gray (UB).

30 YEARS AGO - 1978

In C Section Old Xaverians consolidated fourth place despite a slow start against bottom placed Old Carey. Carey held the lead at the first break with some good footy but the Xav's all round strength told in the second quarter and they powered their way to a strong win 19.19 to 9.9. Best players – Jemerson (3), Cooksley (3), O'Sullivan, Cullinan, Nankervis, Caleo (Old Xaverians). Old Carey failed to make the deadline to have their best players recorded!

Leading goal kicker in A Section, Barry O'Connor, played his 150th game and had been a full back of note for many years and made the successful transition by being a fast lead, a great mark, a big kick and a sure ball –handler. "Kanga" had also been a great clubman.

40 YEARS AGO - 1968

Top team in Junior Section 1, Ormond, received a fright in their game against their main challengers Ivanhoe. Although Ormond held sway for most of the game, Ivanhoe's final quarter was full of fight and had the game gone longer, they may have taken the lead. Final score; Ormond 9.11 to Ivanhoe 8.11. Best players – Hamley, Bourne, Murphy, Carlisle, Mounter, J Gallivan (Ormond) and Laphorne, Rojo, Hughes, Snowden, Kelly, Coulter (Ivanhoe). Melbourne High School Old Boys congratulated Rick Harley on his 100th game. Rick had topped the A Section goal kicking on three occasions and had deserved his two Victorian guernseys. He was currently Vice-Captain of his club. 100 games also to Alphington's Geoff Brown; University Old Boys' John Barker, Parkside's Ray "Tiny" Ford and Paradians' Graeme Mansfield.

50 YEARS AGO - 1958

In C Section, Caulfield Grammarians, in a brilliant third quarter, completely overwhelmed a courageous National Bank team and ran out winners by 35 points. Caulfield were assisted by poor shooting for goal by the Bankers and were clearly a better long kicking team. Final score 14.6 to 6.19. Better players – Abbott, Ashbolt (6), Fletcher, Harrison, Higgs, Nation (Caulfield) and Mueller, Dagleish, Dunn, Strickland, Wall, Corby (National Bank).

Port Melbourne kicked an incredible 10.29 to overcome Murrumbeena in D Section who managed only 6.11. D Section captains were M Leslie (Elsternwick), P Wills (Fairfield), J Douglas (St Kevins), B Harrison (Port Melbourne), E Osborne (Melburnian Blues), W McGrory (Murrumbeena), L Rosenberg (AJAX), H Marston (Bellfield), T Baird (Footscray TOB) and G Rycroft (Preston).

Many good sides lose games they shouldn't mid season. I will never forget the day I went to coach my team against Whitefriars expecting to beat them in 2006. Boy, five minutes in and we were in all sorts of bother. They wanted it so much more and we coasted to a ten point loss. The riot act was read to the group round 5pm – but does it actually work? All that happened to me was to make a break on the drive home via the shops to acquire the fisherman's friend - as the voice was completely lost. Anyway, enough histrionics – the question is how does Peter Tyson feel after his sides thirteen goal mauling at Brens Oval. The day started badly and ended on the same note, with goals flying into the University High end with considerable ease. Lucas Gorringe bought his own footy for the afternoon whilst Kirk and Vance enjoyed great days kick thirteen majors between them. Hawthorn tried hard through Dave Pritchard and Paul Nunan but never looked likely. They have to re group quickly as the memories of their implosion from the second half of 2007.

The 'House made it three on the end this week ensuring they remain in the top four and are looking more comfortable than any other stage in 2008. This was a good hard fought win against the Turtles on Saturday, who came out and jumped Powerhouse in the first quarter but then the Slushies clawed them back in the 2nd, holding them out in the 2nd half. The little general Paul Sosic was vocal all day and he found troops to rally here – good signs here, the right names are in form. Eltham have been good all season, never conceding big scores and will be finals bound still, although a big few weeks for them to consolidate will ensue. Stockdale in defence and Stuart Murphy on a wing were Eltham's best

The wheels on the St Johns bus have come off now and it's season over style for them in 2008. They were away to Monash and with just the five majors by three quarter time in good conditions showed they don't have the depth to press for the top four. Monash through Dooley and Baxter operated the backline clinic superbly here were never troubled and remain a sticky opponent particularly at East Caulfield. Adrian 'AJ' Scroth controlled the 'members' wing at the ECR with the poise and prudence – good signs for the future. Monash still have to the Fearon and Rathmines Road so perhaps a 9-9 record is realistically on the cards for them – will that be enough?

I would think coach Grace would have been reasonably happy when his Elsternwick side was locked eight goals a piece with Williamstown away. But the home side was stung into action with an eleven goal last term where they were playing in front of the headlights at the end – I think a seventeen goal fourth quarter is near record stuff at Williamstown. Jimmy Wong is having a stellar season thus far and enjoyed himself on the forward line all day whilst the man mountain Dave Smith proved once again if he plays a full season for Elsternwick in 2009 he would kick about 150 goals! He is simply a must for their short term future. The Seagulls have a lovely two game cushion now to second and the run home is OK to be honest, first prize at the end of the home and away season is theirs it seems.

The battle of the cellar dwellers was tight as we all predicted and the home side here triumphed. Fair to say the Razorbacks are playing D4 footy in 2009 whilst the same fate is almost assured for Latrobe – miracles on all streets are require for them to post the required seven wins to avoid the drop.

TODAY'S D3 MATCHES

SWINBURNE UNI v WILLIAMSTOWN CYMS
ST JOHNS v LA TROBE UNIVERSITY
ELSTERNWICK v ELTHAM
HAWTHORN v MONASH GRYPHONS
POWER HOUSE v UHS-VU

PREVIEWS –

Elsternwick host Eltham here in a massive game for both clubs. The Turtles probably need to just post a good away win to get the belief back whilst the Elsternwick form lines are good and if they have fit players can shake this result being at home. I will go the Turtles by the whisker here with little surety. Hawthorn would like the beat the Gryphon's at home as it was this side that stole the points from them not so long ago. Hawks by 25 points and their top two spot then looks safer. St Johns host Latrobe and can end their season right here. Although their form is shaky at best the Joc's should win – say a five goal margin.

St James Park will be where Willy put on their clinic this week. I can see them kicking upwards of twenty five goals. Can Swinburne do the same? The good judges say no. The Seagulls by 59 points.

The game of the week is probably at Ross Gregory where University High head with confidence. The 'House are gunning for four straight wins and this will have massive bearing on our finals make up. The home side by a goal and shatter a few hopes in doing so.

MILESTONES

Two dashing half backs from Williamstown CYMS who give plenty of drive on and off the field, John 'Hondros' Digrazia played his 100th game last week and Cody McCracken his 50th three weeks ago; Codes is developing nicely and pressing for senior selection again. Supporting them further up the field is Michael Cavarra who reaches 50 games this week.

Dave Wouda is lining up this Saturday in the Reserves for his 200th game for Williamstown CYMS.

UMPIRES CORNER

by Steve McCarthy & Leah Gallagher

Milestones

This week we have field umpire Peter (Mr. Malaka) Angelis reaching his 100th VFA game (as an umpire). Peter has come from that strong recruiting avenue of being a past player and after an initial adjustment period (remembering not to chase the ball) has come on in leaps and bounds in just the short time with us since 2004. In his time Peter has played over 300 games with clubs Balwyn, Toora, Doncaster and VFA club Bulleen Cobras. He finally saw the light, joined us and in 2007 was appointed to his first A Section game. He's umpired 4 grand finals including the D4 Senior grand final last year. Peter is better known for slow playing pocket Aces, always having an Ace in his hand and if out early in poker you can be sure that something will be thrown across the room. All the best this week, Malaka. Yet another success story of a player picking up the whistle in retirement.

Quietly moving into big milestone territory, it's the 550th VFA game for fellow scribe Steve McCarthy, who is keeping it very low key this time and hopes to celebrate the big 600th in a couple of years time, if Cheryl lets him! Macca is enjoying running down the grades these days helping to develop the young up-and-comers. Looking forward to spending the day at the Gerry Green Reserve with his two good mates (Chillie and the Fireman) in the goals during the day and then into the night. Macca says that a milestone won't be quite the same without AD with him. A tribute to Macca below by his great mate and radio co-host Tom Brain:

MACCA gets to 550

"One of the VFA'S genuine nice guys Steve McCarthy today umpires his 550th VFA Game as a Field Umpire, that in itself a terrific achievement. After 6 years on the VFL Reserve Grade and Senior List, Steve started his umpiring career with the VFA IN 1984 and today some 24 years later still moves as smoothly as in his early days!!!!!!

24 years - 24 Grand Finals pretty consistent eh? Obviously the A Grade GF of 1998 rates very highly in Macca's list of career highlights. But a true test of his consistency is the fact that 2 B Grade and 5 C Grade Grand Finals has had him in our Top 6 some 8 times. Two Representative Games in South Australia of all places in 1998 and 2000 also figured highly in Steve's memories.

Over the last couple of years Macca has tried his hand at Coaching in a development role advising and helping out our group of young umpires something that he really enjoys and has been instrumental in the development of to name a few Justin Nooy, Joel Morrison, Tom Windlow, Michael Hooper, Lionel Katz, Peter Cahill etc.

This year due to our injuries and unavailability he has made a few returns to B Grade and has more than held his own and last week had the pleasure of umpiring Mark "Disco" Seccull from Old Haileybury in his milestone game with his co-scribe Leah Gallagher.

Behind every man there is a great woman and Macca would sincerely like to thank Cheryl along with Daniel and Stephanie for their support and encouragement for allowing him to do something he loves.

Congratulations today Macca from all your mates from the VFAUA and Amateur Football in general enjoy the game as you always do, and of course tonight when everyone is invited down to Parkdale Vultures to share a convivial or two with you.

And don't forget to listen to VFA Sunday on 88.3 Southern FM at 9.30 tomorrow morning when Tommy tries to do an in depth interview with Macca on his great career."

Thanks Tommy!

State Game

Still on the horizon is one more representative game (vs South Australia) to go and umpires are still pressing their claims to grab that elusive spot. Could The Rose bloom before September? Maybe Casper the ghost might make an appearance or from left field Shoeless Joe Jackson might appear, well who ever wants it, it's still up for grabs so keep pushing your cases. (Special prize if you can correctly name those three umpires!)

Trivia Night

Last week we had the annual trivia night with a portion of the Napoli clan taking out the winner's cheque. Well done to Mr Trivia Paul Jones who conducted the night and great to see some new faces rockin' into the night.

RESPECT THE UMPIRE – RESPECT THE GAME!!

D4 SECTION

by Duncan Palmer

'Le Roi est mort, vive le Roi !'

Those of you who don't understand French will have to log into Wikipedia or Google, however while the above is probably a gross overstatement it does reflect some of the "BigFooty" hysteria that has followed West Brunswick's start to the season.

West Brunswick are a very good football side, with strong leadership, and fully deserve their premiership favouritism, regardless of Saturday's loss to Kew. They have a potent forward structure, skilled on-ballers, and a dour defence. These strengths remain untarnished. What Kew did achieve though was twofold. They showed that they themselves are genuine challengers for the flag, and also demonstrated that West Brunswick is beatable. Where do the two sides go from here? It is fairly simple; Kew attempt to consolidate; West Brunswick shrug their shoulders, adjust slightly, and continue their fantastic season.

Four of the six games on the weekend were thrillers with the Xmen and the Snakes recording this section's first draw for the season. The game at Kevin Bartlett reserve was crucial for both with the double chance on the line for St Francis Xavier and Richmond Central attempting to edge back into the five. At first the Xmen were well on top with a polished display in the first half. Glen Pearson and Karl Russo were providing plenty of drive from the middle creating many opportunities for Ben Spencer and a multitude of crumbing forwards. At half time a lead of 22 points was possibly even flattering to the Snakes. In the third quarter though Richmond turned the game with a devastating blitz of sixteen scoring shots to four. Rury Liddie was dominating clearances, Sean O'Connor was strong in the air and on the ground, and Troy Whiting was awesome in attack. At three quarter time with Glenn Pearson injured, the result looked grim for The Xmen. Richmond gradually established ascendancy in the last quarter and looked set for victory until the efforts of the in-form Dimitri Dimakopoulos triggered a last minute blitz that saw the scores tied at the final bell. This result didn't truly help either side, but those two points may be crucial at the end of the season.

As mentioned above, Kew toppled the previously unbeaten West Brunswick at home. The match as expected was of a very high standard, and both teams were fairly evenly matched. The interesting pattern was that there were very rarely goals traded, rather one side would kick a few, then the other, each in a brief flurry of dominance. Kew relied on its on-ball division winning more of the tight contests, and Aaron Hawking responded with his best game for the season. For the Magpies Shannon Monagle and Robbie Saker were influential through the middle and in front of goal. At three quarter time the scores were tied, and the game seemed set for a thrilling finish until the Bears unleashed a dazzling period of football that saw them kick six goals, and put the game beyond reach despite another late Monagle inspired flurry from West Brunswick. Probably the biggest difference on the day was the forward line performance of both teams with Kew finding fourteen goals from best on ground Heath McDermott and Craig Horne whilst West Brunswick's key forwards only scored a few, relying more on flankers and on-ballers to kick their goals.

Box Hill North kept their fans hopes alive by the barest of margins with a one point victory over the inaccurate Nth Brunswick. I keep talking about North Brunswick's improvement and this game demonstrated it perfectly. Box Hill North were dominant initially with their size and the ilk of Corey Riscalla giving them an edge over the green and gold. As the match progressed, North Brunswick's run, and a few injuries to the home side took their toll, and when Mick Sorletto led a full assault on the Demon's defensive line, it appeared that North Brunswick would run all over Box Hill North. To the Demon's credit they held firm in adversity and will now have to replace a few injured players for another big game next week. North Brunswick will be hoping Brad "Moonface" Robertson will continue his good form for the rest of the season.

Eley Park initially jumped Mt Lilydale with some good running football, and the Sharks were taking full advantage of the missing Michael Rhodes by dominating through the midfield. At quarter time the mountain men adjusted and with Francis Varga finding the big sticks, quickly turned the game around and established a handy break at half time. The third quarter was very even with the "rebel without a cause" himself, James Dean, making an instant impact in his first game for Eley Park, but through some inaccurate kicking could not close the gap. In the last quarter Mt Lilydale turned on the after burners to consolidate their top five spot and stay within reach of the Xmen.

In the final two games, which were very light on for news, Albert Park continued their drive for a top three spot with Sean

TODAY'S D4 MATCHES

- BOX HILL NORTH v MT LILYDALE
- BULLEEN COBRAS v SOUTH MORNINGTON
- ALBERT PARK v NORTH BRUNSWICK
- SYNDAL TALLY HO v WEST BRUNSWICK
- ELEY PARK v RICHMOND CENTRAL
- ST FRANCIS XAVIER v KEW

ROUND 13 PREVIEWS

Match of the Round

There are another couple of blockbusters this week; however it is hard to go beyond second v third.

St Francis Xavier v Kew: Kew discovered the first chink in the Xmen's armour in round 5. Karl Russo and Greg Scott went head to head with both performing well and a re-match looms. Both sides appear to have lost key players to injury last round, so I am going to take the easy option and go with the home side by 5 points.

Box Hill North v Mount Lilydale: This could easily have taken top billing with so much at stake for both teams. Mt Lilydale will welcome back their ruckman Michael Rhodes and Box Hill North will be reeling from injuries. Despite the motivation and home ground advantage, Mt Lilydale by 23 points.

Eley Park v Richmond Central: The Sharks have been a little disappointing recently, but do not lack talent and will test Richmond. Richmond's season is on the line though, and they were very good last week. Centrals by 13pts.

Bulleen Cobras v South Mornington: South Mornington found some form last week but as oft stated do not travel well. Bulleen are not at the top of their game however lift markedly on their home turf. For these reasons the Cobras will salute by 19 points.

Syndal Tally Ho v West Brunswick: Hannemann and Cisco will try hard but this challenge looms a little like parting the Red Sea with a feather. Magpies by 84 points

Albert Park v North Brunswick: The lakesiders were upset first time around by North and will be fired up to prove a point. North keep improving however with Albert Park nearing full strength, may find this too big a mountain to climb. Falcons by 42 points.

Game reports please to deejaypalmer@bigpond.com by midday Monday.

MILESTONES

All at Kew congratulate Scott Norman and Jason Tong on each playing their 50th game today. A past winner of the club 'personality of the year' award we hope to see many more games ahead at Kew. Jason Tong, a pacey wingman joined Kew was a part of the successful U19 team of 2006 and soon made an impact with his silky skills and reading of the play. Well done Jason and good luck for the next 50.

Well done to Ben on reaching 50 games at North Brunswick. A running ruckman of the modern era he has become an integral part of the youth policy at Allard Park. Not overly tall he makes up for it with an outstanding leap and his power running to position. Also one of the leaders at the club everyone wishes him all the best for his first milestone in the Green & Gold.

U19 PREMIER

I like St Bernards coach Michael Mulkearns. I've never met the bloke or spoken to him on the phone (yet) but I did receive an email from him a while ago that was nice and welcoming but I can't say I'd recognise him if I bumped into him on the street. This doesn't matter; Mick and I have a bond. He may not realize it just yet but it's there. A bond between coaches who got home last Saturday night, kissed the missus hello on the way to the fridge to have a celebratory beer after finally cracking the duck egg in 2008. It's an exclusive club a few joined on Saturday, Mick, Me, the coach of Yarra in D1 (much to my mate Killer's disgust!), some may join it today, some may not get the chance to join it this year! Some bastards joined it in round 1 and don't know what it's like to thank their players for their efforts but keep your chins up...a win isn't far away.

One of these types is Stuart Grey, De La Salle coach and a bloke that would be very happy at the moment, although me thinks a little concerned. See, Stuey's mob won again (surprise, surprise) but thanks to marvelous efforts from Old Xavarians down at Stradbroke Park in Kew the Blue and Yellow are looking beatable. I don't mean to take anything away from the fantastic efforts of David De Luca, Luke Semmel and Ben Maloney for De La but this was an outstanding effort from the Claret and Stout who I had tipped to lose by a fair bit. At the end of the day though good teams win the close ones and the final margin of only 6 points suggests a healthy comp where the gap between the top team and those on the lower rungs isn't so huge.

Just ask Rob Viney, coach of the Maroon and the Blue (cyan really), as expected Rupertswood travelled out to Bulleen and came ready to play. My spies who saw this one can't agree, some say it wasn't pretty, others are saying it was one for the ages with both sides playing a high standard of U19 footy. Either way it was a tight one, decided by less than one straight kick as 50th gamer Tristan Murphy showed his class in the midfield and was well supported by down back by Matt Spiteri and Josh Hine for the Rupo crew. Marcellin was well represented by Stuart Kemp, Chris Libertino and Michael Viney but just couldn't get their nose in front when it counted.

St Bede's Mentone Tigers had a scare at the Pavvy last Saturday when a fired up Uni Blacks flexed some muscle after an ordinary day the week prior. Held for most of the day Patterson, Bell, Cooper and Co turned the tables on the Tigers in the last keeping them scoreless but it was to no avail as the St Bede's lead was too great. Set up early by the likes of Steven Grasby and Alex Kane, Pat Kean's 3 goals was the difference in the end as the Tiges went about retaining their 3 game buffer from Old Scotch in the standings.

Speaking of Old Scotch, word around the traps was that they were filthy with their loss at Marcellin the previous week and were heading into last weeks game against a resurgent Uni Blues heavily undermanned. The final score from the day makes a mockery of this theory as Dodd's youngsters in Furey, Clune and Hummerston, all elevated from the schools first 18 settled into the higher age group with ease. Add to that the magnificent contribution of gun on-baller Will Davis and you have the makings of a squad hungry to push the top two sides. Selection dilemmas face The Card's coach as the bulk of his squad return from Uni break, one of my spies noted in a direct quote from the Old Scotch coach when talking of their big win, "what this really does is put pressure on those players who were not available this week. By playing well this week, these players make it hard to bring players straight back into the team. I congratulate them on their top effort. There really is no one safe in the team; all spots are still up for grabs". While Uni Blues finished the game well with a 6 goal final term they will be ruing their inaccuracy in front of goal. Shining lights for the Blues were Sam Lovison and Michael Steinbach as they head back to the drawing board this week.

As mentioned earlier in this piece St Bernards finally got season 2008 started and did it in style smashing St Kevins at Hampton Road by plenty. Thomas Duyndham helped himself to 6 big ones as his side went on to kick a very healthy 17 17. Other Snow Dogs to get in on the action were Nick Cook and Josh Kassis in what was a great day for the Essendon West boys. St Kevs lick their wounds and head back to Righetti ready to fight another day but all of a sudden looking very shaky.

RUPERTSWOOD v OLD SCOTCH
ST KEVINS v UNIVERSITY BLACKS
MARCELLIN v ST BERNARDS
DE LA SALLE v ST BEDES MENTONE TIGERS

TODAYS GAMES

Match of the round –

De La Salle vs. St Bedes Mentone Tigers

Possibly the most anticipated game of footy in years, last time it was De La by 9 points. The Tigers want top spot and the psychological edge going into the 2nd semi final that surely will be contested by these two powerhouse sides. Will one coach, or maybe both choose to keep his cards close to his chest, not willing to give away tactical advantage to the opposition going forward? My tip here is that one side will go on to win well as the other shuts up shop willing to lose this battle as a means to win the war. I cannot pick the winner but expect a blowout in favour of the coach that blinks last.

Marcellin vs. St Bernards

While traditionally this is the time of the year where bottom sides can throw a spanner in the works for many finals aspirants there is too much on the line here for the Eagles who will bounce back well today. Marcellin by 5 goals.

St Kevins vs. University Blacks

Blacks need this big time and need to win well, 4 points and percentage away from Marcellin this is a must win. St Kevins can play the spoiler here but aren't giving the punters much confidence with their performances of late. Expect Blacks to over run a gallant St Kevs late in the game and win by a small margin.

Rupertswood vs. Old Scotch

While Rupo are up and about I think confidence in the Scotchies camp will be high, with plenty of competition for spots I would think the boys in Red will prove to be too much of a handful for the Sunbury lads today. Rupo are not without a chance though and I'd expect this one to go down to the wire. Old Scotch by 2 straight kicks.

University Blues vs. Old Xavarians

The Blues' leaky defence holds the key in this one, stand tall and Uni take the chockies, play anywhere below their best and watch the Xav's forwards bring home a much needed win. Won't be much in this but I think Old Xavarians can register another "W" today, by a kick.

GRIMA'S CORNER:

Round Rewind North (1):

Round twelve kicked off in sensational fashion as Manningham destroyed cellar dweller the Old Paradians by 74 points on home soil. The Sharks haven't been great this season and this win will certainly boost the morale around the place. Unfortunately the morale at Paradian headquarters must be shot to bits as they still have not registered a victory all season. Shane Den Elzen starred in a best on ground performance for the Sharks, whilst forward Dylan Robson-Long enjoyed the supply kicking five.

In a tight contest that went down to the wire, Old Carey managed to hold off a determined Old Essendon outfit by seven points. Interestingly, Carey kicked away in the third term to lead by 29 points at the last change; however Old Essendon fought gallantly and nearly pinched a remarkable win. Stefan Galbo and Scott Drysdale did their best to ensure the Essendon side were in the contest to the very end.

In yet another nail biting finish for the week, the Fitzroy Reds managed to hand Old Ivanhoe their first loss of the season with a fantastic five point win against all odds. In a low scoring affair it was the likes of Michael Lee and Chris Polidoras who got the job done for the Reds. Brodie Tieman was named best for Ivanhoe.

Old Trinity continued with their great season as they downed top four rival Banyule/Viewbank by 18 points. Brett Robertson and Eddy Morrison starred for the victors with their relentless attack on the footy.

James Massie was a solid contributor for Banyule/Viewbank.

As expected, Bulleen Templestowe were far too strong for Old Camberwell, running out winners by 48 points. Star player Nick Sargent was yet again best on field as his impressive season continues. Michael Pace was brilliant also in the victory, whilst Jason Edwards was named best for Old Camberwell.

TODAY'S U19 NORTH 1 MATCHES

OLD TRINITY v FITZROY REDS
OLD CAMBERWELL v OLD PARADIANS
BULLEEN TEMPLESTOWE v MANNINGHAM SHARKS
OLD CAREY v BANYULE/VIEWBANK

Old Carey v Banyule/Viewbank

Banyule/Viewbank look to have too much class here. TIP: Banyule/Viewbank by 35 points

Old Ivanhoe v Old Essendon

Old Ivanhoe will bounce back in a big way after last week's shock loss. TIP: Old Ivanhoe by 40 points

Old Camberwell v Old Paradians

Old Camberwell look to have this one covered and should gain some percentage. TIP: Old Camberwell by 25 points

Old Trinity v Fitzroy Reds

Old Trinity are flying and will continue to do so against a gallant Reds outfit. TIP: Old Trinity by 9 points

Bulleen Templestowe v Manningham Sharks

Bulleen are in a different class and should account for the Sharks here. TIP: Bulleen/Templestowe by 30 points

ROUND REWIND NORTH (2):

The first match of the round went as predicted... UGLY. A 162 point win to the Aquinas against bottom of the ladder Fitzroy resembled a year 12 school team taking on a primary schol mob. Stephen Mill was named best afield (along with every other Aquinas player) whilst Matty Aver continued to relish the supply given with six goals.

In an unbelievable result, Emmaus St Leos have continued with their rich vein of form as they knocked off a strong Old Geelong side by the barest of margins at the weekend. The 52-51 victory proves that they have turned things around and are heading on the right track with their development. Leading the way was Ben O'Neill and Paul Wise, whilst Timothy Bennett was best afield for Old Geelong.

Ivanhoe AFC proved why they are easily the second best team in this comp as they defeated a lack lustre Rupertswood side to the tune of 58 points. Ben "Mr Plow" Plowman was superb in the win as was Reece Cotter who continues to have a ripping year. Haydn Plumb worked tirelessly all day for the Woods in a disappointing result.

St Bernards were good enough to hold off a rampaging NOBS/St Pats lineup to run out winners by three points at the weekend. The magnificent victory was thanks to the likes of Peter Villani and Adam Stefano who drove the ball forward on numerous occasions. Johnny Hibbert played well for NOBS/St Pats in the loss.

In a suprising finish to the weekend action, underdog Therry Penola gave the Old Xaverians a football lesson in accountability as they ran out comprehensive winners by 68 points. Starring for Therry was Dean Valentino who played a cracking game, as did Mark Cameron Schwarz and Joel Kolep who booted five. Alex Macleod was a standout for the Xaverians.

NOBS/St Pats v Emmaus St Leos

After a gutsy win last week I believe that Emmaus St Leos can cause another upset and take the points here. TIP: Emmaus St Leos by 6 points

FITZROY REDS v THERRY PENOLA

St Bernards v Ivanhoe AFC

Ivanhoe are a good footy side and will account for St Bernards despite their great win against the odds last week.

Rupertswood AFC v Old Xaverians: Expect the Old Xaverians to bounce back here. TIP: Old Xaverians by 20 points

Aquinas v Old Geelong: Aquinas, Aquinas, Aquinas.

Fitzroy Reds v Therry Penola: Therry by plenty.

UNDER 19 SOUTH 1

Interesting results in and around the top four this week. Beaumaris who I will touch on later flung the door wide open at a fast rate of knots for Old Brighton and Collegians to step through. Ormond and OM's also recorded handy wins to keep their space up top.

Last week:

Caulfield had to fight hard to keep off a gallant Oakleigh eventually winning by 21 points. Oakleigh took it up to Caulfield who's kicking was not up to their lofty standards. Spinks won a lot of footy for Caulfield as did Parsons. The Krushers had good drive through Valentini and the Kurth pairing. Beaumaris what is going on? Egg on my face here after tipping the Sharks to win by 18 points, Collegians made light work of them saluting by a very comfortable 84 points. Beau were never in it with Corp running amok and Cutts and the Bird kicking 8 between them. For a disappointing Beau it was Breeuwer-Wrennall who tried his hardest to repel the boys in purple. Ormond kept the ball rolling in a forward motion with a comprehensive defeat of a Mazenod side that has lost the last four on the trot. Ormond best players were Lee and Clements. For the Nodders it was Daskalou again who tried his best. Melburnians outplayed Mentonians to the tune of 17 goals. Melburnians did as good sides do in getting the job done to keep in top spot a game clear. Gooley was handy for Melburnians as was Armstrong. Bardoel was best on for the Panther. Old Brighton has now strung a few together after defeating the Bloods by plenty. Kennett put 8 through the big pipes and Nash provided a lot of his opportunities. Haileybury had Hopping doing his best for their cause.

TODAY'S U19 SOUTH 1 MATCHES

MAZENOD v OLD HAILEYBURY
Central Reserve at 1.30pm
OLD MENTONIANS v BEAUMARIS
OAKLEIGH v COLLEGIANS
OLD BRIGHTON v OLD MELBURNIANS
CAULFIELD v ORMOND

This Week Round 13:

Mazenod v Old Haileybury: Should be back on the winners list this week at home the Mazenod lads. Mazenod by 47 points

Old Brighton v Old Melburnians: Vital clash, no question. Brighton going very smartly at present. But can't take anything away from OM's. OMs by 21 points in a tough clash.

Caulfield v Ormond: Im going match of the round for this one but I do think the Ormond are gain a little better than caulfield as they have been shaky for the last couple. Ormond by 32 points

Old Mentonians v Beaumaris: Beay to bounce back here. Good chance for Mentonians to give some cheek after Beay was not up to scratch last week. Beaumaris by 26 points

Oakleigh v Collegians: Collegians here. I hope Oakleigh is competitive but I just don't think they will be. Collegians by 90 points

UNDER 19 SOUTH 2

Peninsula and Parkdale Vultures were on song this week both recording victories against in my opinion, more fancied opposition. The ladder shapes with 3rd and 4th Position two games clear but Bentleigh is on and have many a winnable game on the way home. AJAX haven't got near Monash thus far and it looks as if the minor premiership is most likely theirs.

Last Week

Hampton Rovers got back on the winners list as well as kicking lots of behinds once again. 122 behinds in six rounds of footy is an effort in itself. An average of 20 odd a week....Ah yes that old cliché saying - Bad kicking is bad footy! But nevertheless the Rovers got home by 125 points. Ward was best on for Hampton. For the combine Hagen and Matherson tried their best. Bentleigh were too strong at home to De La after a tight tussle for the entire duration. Morrison will be pleased with his 7 and Rodwell was best on for Demons. De La best players were Dordevic and Harkins. Monash Blues continued on their merry way defeating their closest rival by 71 points. Monash unfortunately didn't enter best players and goal kickers. Freed and Fayman tried hard again for AJAX. Peninsula proved me wrong with a strong last quarter to defeat Melb High. Coy was best on for the pirates also dobbing 7 goals. Parkdale Vultures also will be pleased after an emphatic 50 point victory over the Tigers. Millar was sharp with 6 goals and Mccarthy was solid. For St Bedes Falkiner did his best.

TODAY'S U19 SOUTH 2 MATCHES

MHSOB v PARKDALE VULTURES
MONASH BLUES v DE LA SALLE OC
AJAX AFC v PRAHRAN/CAULFIELD
PENINSULA OB v BENTLEIGH
ST BEDES / MT v HAMPTON ROVERS AFC

This Week Round 13:

Monash Blues v De La Salle: Monash will win; will they get complacent at any stage this season? Monash by 38 points

AJAX v Prahran/Caulfield: AJAX to return into the winners circle here. AJAX by 60 points

MHSOB v Parkdale Vultures: I'll tip MHSOB here again on their home turf. Melb High by 22 points

Peninsula OB v Bentleigh: Bentleigh should be to strong. I do think this will be close however. Bentleigh by 10 points

St Bedes/Mentone Tigers v Hampton Rovers: Quony told me the goal kicking practice has got to work sooner or later. I don't think it will change the result though. Rovers by 45 points

On a serious note I would like to apologise to the Bentleigh AFC for a comment of which I made in last week's Amateur Footballer which may have been seen to be inappropriate. This was not my intention and was merely attempted humour.

CLUB XVIII SECTION
by Norm Nugent

Club XVIII (1)
 The final four seems all set but the race for the all important double chance is hotting up. Only one game separates the four teams with the win of Blues over the crocs dropping them from first to third. Disappointingly Old Scotch forfeited against Collegians but his was enough for them to rise one spot to head the table. Last season's grand finalists Prahran remain in fourth but are waiting to pounce.
 Match of round was between ladder leaders Old Xavs and Uni Blues at McHale stadium. It was a close game all day with never more than a goal and a bit in it. A tense and hard fought battle worthy a final precursor. Blues third quarter probably won the game although the home team kicked the first three of the last quarter and anyone could have won. Scores indicated a dour game but this was not the case. Best: for Xavs were Mark Davies and Luke Hardwicke and for Blues, El-Fakhri and McLachlan.

De La Salle defeated St Kevins for the second week in a row by, this time by 49 points. De La had built up a comfortable lead by half time and were never troubled. Kevin Smith and Jeremy Davies did best for De La whilst Ray Short and Antony Boonan battled hard for the SKOBers.
 Mazenod must have given themselves a real chance of getting their first victory of the season when the trailed the Old Xavs (2) by only 5 points at three quarter time. However it was not to be as Xavs piled on 5 unanswered goals for the term. Simon McCarthy kicked 4 goals and was lively around the midfield, he was supported by former A section premierships ruckman Richard Carey. Mazenod were best served again by Scott Azzopardi whilst Cuberes and Saunders had good games.
 In the final game Cooper kicked 5 and Farrell 4 as Prahran tied up fourth spot. Old Melburnians got off to a great start kicking three goals to one in the first quarter but this served to only sting the Two blues into action as the piled on 8 goals in the second term. Robert Lawler and Stuart Wettenhall played well for OM's whilst Ben Gardner and Dan Adams set up many forward thrusts.
 What a draw the Old Xavs have. This week they come up against ladder leaders Collegians followed in the final two games by Prahran. De La play Prahran and there is a possibility that if they win then the four can open up for them.
 It certainly is a peculiar draw when you have only 18 rounds and not all teams playing each other twice. For the record I will go for Collegians to stumble against the Crocs, neither the rest nor the defeat of the Xavs will do them any favours. Old Melburnians to defeat Mazenod, Blues to be too strong for Scotch, Xavs (2) to defeat St Kevins and to just close the gap De La to upset Prahran.

Old Brighton v St Bernard's: Old Brighton after going down narrowly to ladder leaders Monash Blues last week will tackle St Bernards with renewed enthusiasm but with Vassallo and Gilmore in good form in front of goal St Bernards should be too strong.
Caulfield v Uni Blacks: Caulfield now with a win along side it's name and their never give in attitude will be looking forward to playing Uni Blacks who failed to hold on to the top of the ladder and are just starting to look a bit shaky and if the Blacks take Caulfield lightly it could bring them undone.
Old Trinity v Box Hill Nth: Old Trinity who were outclassed last week now meet a Box Hill team that has gained some confidence after their good win over the Reds but a win to the home team would not surprise.
Fitzroy Reds v Old Scotch: These two teams have struggled for wins this season and are very evenly matched and with Grant kicking 3 last week for the Reds he may be the difference although Scotch worked hard last week to just fall short in the end, a toss up as to the winner of this?
Whitefriars v Monash Blues: Whitefriars kept their finals hopes alive with a big win over Trinity but against the new ladder leaders in Monash it will be their biggest test so far, however with Coughlin & Kruger in sparkling form for Monash they should account for a desperate Whitefriars.

Round 12

Marcellin continued their unbeaten run with a comprehensive 70 point win over last year's Prelim Finalist Bulleen Templestowe. Sam Morrison was named best for the Eagles also kicking 3 goals and the Armstrongs (Damon and Nathan) were also good on the day. For the Bullants, Andrew Cummings had his best game for the year and Jon Hickey slotted through 2 of their 4 majors for the day.

7th placed Box Hill North took it right up to 3rd placed Kew, going down by 14 points in front of a large home crowd. For BHN, Dean Nguyen was named best after coming back from their Section 2 side and was also their leading goal scorer with 2. For Kew, Nic Drago continued his good form and Daniel Perry slotted through 3.

2nd played 4th when NOBS/St Pats hosted Old Carey at Alec Gillon, with the combine running out convincing winners by 59 points. Chris Dynon was named best and also kicked two goals and Jeff Walker was a solid contributor all day for NOBS/St Pats. For Old Carey, Andrew Gates was named best and Luca Guerra had a solid day kicking 2 goals.

Therry Penola notched up their second win of the year when they defeated local rivals Old Westbourne in what was a tight tussle for most of the day. Therry broke away in the last quarter to record a 29 point victory, led by Mark Montgomery and Pat Tomkinson who bagged 3 for the day. Old Westbourne, who could only manage 3 points in the last quarter where best served by Club Treasurer Troy Dennis and Josh Lawn, who slotted through 2.

Round 13

Old Carey will be put to the sword this week when they take on the might of Marcellin. An Old Carey victory would sure up their finals berth and certainly give them confidence going into that series. But alas, I don't think it will be and the Eagles should prevail by 6 goals.

Box Hill North travel to Old Westbourne with only pride on the line for these two teams. Old Westbourne will be seething they let last weeks game get away from them and Box Hill North will be buoyed by their credible performance against Kew. I'm tipping the visitors to get home in a close on by 5 points.

Bulleen Templestowe will be desperate to keep their finals hopes alive when they host Therry Penola at Ted's place. Therry Penola tasted victory for only the second time last week and will be keen to taste some more, but the Bullants should keep them at bay and record a solid 5 goal win.

In the match of the day, North Old Boys/St Pats nick across town to take on Kew. Kew will be keen to knock off the combine and give themselves a shot at the double chance. NOBS/St Pats can also sure up that double chance with a win here and I think they do it, but not by much. A 10 point win to the Brunswick boys.

Club XVIII - South

The top four just continues to be a raffle with a top 2 spot on the line. Old Camberwell, St Bedes/Mentone and St Marys/Salesian all have to play each other in the run home which is sure to be a good guide come finals time to the depth of these three sides. The fourth placed Ormond however will be expecting to win their last 3 as they play sides only in the bottom four which makes them a huge chance for a top 2 spot in my opinion. Last weekend we saw the top 4 all win to keep the premiership a tight one. Old Camberwell gave Emmaus a touch up and some handy percentage. They never looked like losing eventually winning by 133 points. Hanson had a day out he won't forget kicking 10 goals, and had plenty of support Clay and Margetts. Unfortunately Emmaus didn't enter their Best players and goal kickers. Ormond were in a very tight battle with Beaumaris up until the final change with Beaumaris sticking with them at every change. A six goal to zero last quarter got the monders home. Smith and Fisher were vital in Ormond's victory. Edwards was good for Beauy with his 4 goals. St Bedes never looked headed as they defeated Old Geelong by 39 points. Jones and the Lynch duo were vital for the tigers and for Old Geelong Foster tried his best. St Marys/Salesian were too strong for Oakleigh coming home with a strong last quarter. The blokes with dread locks in Norman and Vercillo (well sort of dreadlocks) were good for the saints. Kitts and Bell were solid for the Krushers. This week should see Ormond too strong for Emmaus. St Marys/Salesian to account for Old Geelong. Match of the round in Old Camberwell v St Bedes/Mentone, I will tip Old Camberwell at home. Beaumaris to account or Oakleigh in a very tight encounter.

RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION HEARINGS

July 8, 2008

Caulfield Gr. and Marcellin charged with a minor melee which allegedly occurred in their senior match played on Saturday June 28 at Glenhuntly Oval.
Both clubs accepted the prescribed penalty. Marcellin $100 (first offence for a minor melee over the previous two year period) and Caulfield Gr. $150 (second offence for a minor melee over the previous two year period).

AJAX and Bentleigh charged with a major melee which allegedly occurred in their under-19 match played on Saturday June 28 at Gary Smorgon Oval.
It was alleged that other incidents occurred after the melee.

Charge proven for a minor melee. AJAX fined $300 (third offence for a minor melee over the previous two year period). Bentleigh fined $2000 of which $1250 is suspended for the under-19 side and will be an additional penalty if the under-19 side found guilty of any melee for the remainder of the 2008 and the 2009 season.

Old Essendon and Old Haileybury charged with two minor melees which allegedly occurred in their senior match played on Saturday June 28 at Essendon.
Charge proven as one minor melee. Both clubs fined $200.

Old Essendon charged with conduct unbecoming in that during half time of the above game and at the conclusion of the match Old Essendon coach, Adam Edwards used unnecessary and insulting language toward the umpires.

Old Essendon found guilty and fined $250 and placed on a good behaviour bond of $500 for the remainder of the 2008 season. Adam Edwards to write a letter of apology to the VAFAUA by July 15, 2008.
