

Inside the VAFA

by Cameron Noakes

A COUPLE of years ago AFL coaching great David Parkin was quoted as saying he would rather watch A-section amateurs than an AFL game.

Now this was coming from a man whose entire life had practically been spent in the VFL/AFL, collecting four premierships as a player and coach along the way. Needless to say, Parkin is very well respected in his thoughts about all sport, especially football, and when he talks people listen.

For him to come out and publicly acclaim the amateurs is a massive pat on the back to everyone involved in the VAFA...players, coaches, administrators, umpires, everyone.

And why the amateurs is praised so highly is not simply just about the quality of football.

Obviously, in all sections there are some seriously talented players that have either played at the elite level or certainly could if their circumstances were different.

But what Parkin was really talking about was the fact that in amateur football we still see pack marks, contested possessions (which are the current hot topics about our great game) and football skill that was and is at a very high level.

I'm not sure some of these issues about the style of football are as important as they might seem at the moment and I still do, as we all probably do, love watch a cracking game of AFL.

But since I started writing about the amateurs a few years back now for The Sunday Age what has impressed me the most about the games I've seen is the spirit in which they're played and the spirit in which they're supported.

Yes, I like the talent and intensity, and there are some beautiful grounds just to go to and watch football, but there is an intangible quality about the amateurs which I put down to intelligent footballers and intelligent supporters.

Clearly, you will always have a little bit of white-line fever but that is the nature of good athletes playing any game at a serious level. At the end of the day there is still a game to be won.

But it is how that goal is achieved that impresses me. And I'm usually impressed by the supporters as well.

In fact, when I do hear some particularly vocal supporters being abusive, quite frankly I'm surprised. Certainly, in some leagues the ugly supporter is the norm but in the VAFA it is the unusual and that all adds up to making a day at the VAFA a good one.

Finally, I would just like to thank the people that I have met and the people that have spoken to me about the VAFA in the past few years.

I think every league and club benefits from having a relationship with the media and I'm very happy to contribute to the VAFA in my own small way but I do need people to pass on information.

Promotion of the association in any form is important. That may mean at times there are stories that we don't want to read or hear but the game always soars higher than any controversy and at the end of the year people only remember and talk about the premier.

I look forward to my ongoing association with the VAFA and to hearing from all of you in the future. Let's bring it on and may the best teams win.

A SECTION

How, in the name of Jiminy Jesuit, did the Xavs win that?

Twenty minutes into the final term and all is la-dee-da. Blues up by 27 points, Mark Graham reported and sent off, Scotty Mollard getting in a blue with some bloke in the crowd, yours truly warms up the car and prepares to leave.

All of a sudden, as is their way, the red and blacks turned up the wick, going goal, goal, point, point, goal, goal, point before John Pasceri (who missed a spot in last year's Grand Final side) threw the ball on his boot from fifty to register a behind (just) which prompted an almighty love-in in the forward pocket.

On a day when County Tyrone snared the Sydney Cup, I suppose anything can happen!

A few things to emerge include....

1. Uni really are an attractive team to watch. Given the choice of watching Uni play Xavs and the pile of dog's bollocks served up by that dwarf Clarkson and his side the night before, you'd choose the former any day. The Blues play a bit like the Western Bulldogs, though like the Dogs, you suspect they're a bit susceptible to sides that go one on one and shut them down. Like Xavs.
2. Lots of new faces. Cassall, Cordy and Jarrot from NOBS all looked up to A Section standard. Joe Sturrock made a welcome return after a long lay off. Chris Baumgartner (Boomer), formerly of 'Pit lane, played his first game for the students after a year off with Osteo pubis.
For Xavs, Mark Graham worked hard across half back and NSW recruit Simon MacCue looked every inch an A Grade ruckman.
3. Memo to spectators. Don't pick fights with Scott Mollard. Like McEnroe, little spottfires seem to get him going and he certainly helped turn the tide after his little tiff.

4. The Blues held their Pimps and Hos night at the Pavvy following the game. Fair to say there would have been a few poe-faced pimps walking around that night...

In the Others....

Bernards comfortably saw off Ivanhoe, who I believe resorted to flooding at one stage. I'm sure it won't take off, but if this becomes a trend in A Section, I'm off to become a marbles correspondent. Darren Ballerín was best for the Bernies, Julian McVilly did well in his first senior game and Gary McIntyre made a welcome return after a year off. Former Warrnambool rover Chris Sutherland had a cracking debut for the Hoes, while Marcus Toovey looked menacing before twanging a hamstring.

Marcellin finally shook off Trinity, who squandered countless first half opportunities. Cameron Woods and little Ron Bonnici clone Adrian Papaluca were best for the Eagles while Trinity's Andy Cultrera was a real nuisance all day up forward.

Scotch easily won the Australian Rules Cup, which saw 15 players playing their first A Section game. Though Scotch always had it in the bag, OMs may not be quite the pushover I predicted last week. Still some handy players there, including Lacey, Kennedy and Harrison, while James Beaumont WILL play in 2006, despite reports to the contrary!

And finally, Haileybury saw off a pesky De La side with SANFL recruits Heath Hopwood and Mark Brewer stamping their class with match winning final quarters. De La's Benny Corin and Jeff Morel (Moz, fresh from Dubai) were the standouts for the home side. The upshot? Looks a very even comp this year and the relegation battle could be an absolute raffle.

Trivia Question

Going back to 1995, how many times have Xavs won their first round game? First correct answer to Jonathan_g_horn@yahoo.co.uk wins a six pack of Cascade Premium and a copy of "Wide Of The Crease – The Carl Rackerman Story"

Today

Tough.

Scotch, Trinity, Marcellin, Blues & Bernards.

M I MILESTONES E S

Old Ivanhoe would like to congratulate Andrew Tieman and Zach Keane on reaching 100 and 50 games respectively last week against St Bernards.

Andrew a strongly built defender who can easily switch to an on-baller role, was a member of the 2001 B-Section premiership team and has a reputation for bravery second to none. In fact his almost kamakaze assault at the ball has led to a few injuries without which, would have had him closer to 150 games rather than 100.

Zach, a classy tall forward, has come up from the U/19's and Reserves to now cement a place in the Seniors and looks set for a great career.

GREAT START TO THE SEASON REVIEW

Beaumaris were pretty keen to start well against a full strength Old Essendon. But by quarter time they were already 2 goals behind and were playing catch up, which forces you to attack and make errors and result in turnovers, allowing the opposition to score goals. Despite the loss, they were not too disappointed with their effort and can only improve. Chris Graham did a terrific job on Big Hakim, Adam Coote presented all day and covered more ground than Burke and Wills, Ensor and Duggan also good.

A good game to kick off the season at the well grassed High saw Old Brighton after a tough and pretty even first three quarters then run away to a comfortable 20 point victory. New lads Chris Tolj, and Tom Jakobi made fine debuts and added plenty of bite, Blair Mason started the season in great style with the match highlight being Andy MacGillivray's set snap from the boundary when on umps orders he began his approach by running a metre down the embankment slope.

SKOB held sway for the first three quarters against Uni Blacks and at the orange break looked the winners. But someone forget to tell the Blacks this and with their Ressies players booming support behind the goals they booted 6 goals to a solitary point in the last stanza to record a satisfying first up win. Sibia was an ever present danger up forward, the Kempton's were good against their old side. For SKOB none were better than young Charles.

Whitefriars and Collegians were impressive in disposing of Mazenod and Caulfield Grammarians respectively.

PREVIEW

Even after Round 1 Collegians have stamped their mark as perhaps the side to beat. Beaumaris were not disgraced last week and have a couple to come back in, and in front of their parochial crowd at Shark Park will be no easy beats. But at this stage can't go past the Lions.

Old Brighton and Old Essendon actually clash at a club home ground, both pretty impressive victories last week so it promises to be a good contest. Home ground advantage is a huge asset for the Tonners and this will get them home in a close one.

Don't write off Mazenod just yet - they met a pretty good side first up, but Whitefriars are obviously better than we thought and have surprised the pundits with last week's good win. At home the Noddies will acquit themselves better but winning form is good so it's Friars for me Disappointed Caulfield Grammarians and SKOBS clash at Glenhuntly Park. Not a good start for either of these well fancied sides but redemption looms for one of them today. Which one will it be? The Fields at home - just.

Although it is long gone, unfurling a premiership flag is a big event as it inspires emotions and this coupled with their sparkling finish last week has the Blacks getting another vital 4 points on the board as they build to send Parko off in style.

PLAYING IN THE RUCK- PART 2

Player positions – rover, ruck rover, centremen

Centre bounce

On ballers start behind – One of the usual approaches is for the three on ballers to start behind you, when your run up and approach is directly towards the goals, to enable the on-ballers to run onto the ball and towards the goals. The on-baller located directly behind you would stay for a back-door palm, should the ball go over your head (poor bounce, windy day).

Back door – the back door option has the advantage of shortening the distance between you and your on-baller, so the ball should be able to be palmed directly into the hands of your team-mate. – this enables quick hands/feet from the on-baller to deliver the ball up field.

Man up – all on ballers man up on each opponent. This approach is used if you are being beaten in the ruck at the centre bounces or where there is a run on from the opposition. A run on is usually upwards of 3 goals scored in quick succession. (less than 5 minutes). In this situation your option is to punch the ball a long distance to your advantage, so it makes the CHF line.

Wingman to rove – in man up situations, where you may have called for it OR where the opposition has manned up your on-ballers, an option is to inform your wingers that you will be smashing the ball towards the wing. They will then be your rovers coming straight from the white line. This will enable your on-ballers to restrict the opponents within the centre circle while your wingman becomes the new rover.

Boundary throw ins

Regardless of your position around the ground, your on-ballers should be standing in a line from the boundary line to an area equal to your run-in. This ensures they are facing towards their goal for an offensive play OR standing between their opponents and their goal line (defensive).

For offensive play, where you are located forward of the wing position you have two options – palm to the boundary line to the rover to hit on the full, for quick hands/feet delivery. The second option is for the back door, this palm or hit should be some metres in length to open up the area for the on baller to gather the ball.

For defensive play, where you are located in the backline, you must hit the ball towards the boundary every time, either for the rover or a 10-20 metre punch oblique to the boundary line so that another boundary throw in can be achieved. This is working the ball around the boundary line.

Technique

The front position is always preferred, as coming from behind can be impeded by other players in the vicinity of your run-up. You will need to make a note of how far the umpire has been throwing the ball in so you make this front position. To get a better run-up come from an oblique angle rather than directly in front – this will also enable you come in from the side of your opponent.

If wrestling cannot be avoided (crowded area, limited run-up i.e. forward pocket), approach from their preferred side and get your shoulder under theirs to provide improved leverage to upset their balance. Always make sure both of your arms are in front and not grabbing or tangled with your opponent as this then reduces your effectiveness.

OUR NEW SENIOR LEADERS

All at MHSOBFC extend a very warm welcome to our new Senior Coach Mark Murray, a 300 game player from Mazenod.

Mark takes over from David Skinner who had three years as the senior coach.

Mark's enthusiasm during a hard pre-season will ensure the seniors are well prepared for the hard season ahead. When all senior players return from overseas the line up will provide a good deal of experience mixed with youthful endeavour. A nice balance.

Club stalwart and VAFA representative Ewan Thompson is the senior captain, with Anthony Cassell and Michael Brain as his deputies.

50 Game Milestones for MHSOBFC

Congrats to Tim Dunne and John Aitken

on playing their 50th games for the club. Last week against Old Brighton Tim reached his milestone and this week against Uni Blacks full forward John Aitken flags up his milestone.

Well done to both of you. May there be many more milestones in the future for MHSOBFC.

ROUND 1 REVIEW

First round at the wind swept Monash Uni sports grounds saw the youthful Wellers up against Monash. After the Camberwell McGoos notched up a good win, the seniors hit the park and stepped on the proverbial shovel, which immediately hit them in the face. Kicking into the breeze, Monash dominated on the ball and mounted a 37 point break at the first change. Camberwell re-set at the first change and started to deliver to Loats up forward, squaring the quarter and hitting the sheds 39 points adrift. The vibe in the visitors rooms at the main break was positive, and the pretty much matched it with Monash for the remainder of the day. However, the gap was too great to bridge, despite good efforts from Jordan Heffernan down back, as well as former U19s Greg Tolson and Daniel De Sanctus.

The Monds travelled to Gillon Oval and were 3 goals shy at the first break, with the benefit of a strong breeze to follow. With Dave Beckett playing his 150th match, the Ormond players were keen to start building a lead and they banged on 4 quick ones to set NOBSPC back on their heels. With Miller and McConville controlling the midfield, Ormond should've been further in front at the half time bell. NOBSPC let the match drift away in the 3rd term, as they failed to pass Upstill and Cove bar once, whilst letting Ormond in for 3 majors, and a handy 4 goal lead. That was more than enough as Martin and Robbins feasted on some good ball in the final term to deliver the visitors a well-earned 4 points. Given this was a meeting of 2005 B and D graders, Tim Kilworth's boys have a power of work to do in the coming weeks.

Down bayside, the Hampton Rovers were outrun by a St.Bedes Mentone Tigers outfit chock full of talent and enjoying their home dung heap. It started off well enough for the green and golds, who kicked the opening major, and played a solid first half with Greenwood and Crisp prominent. However St Bedes clicked up a gear or two after the main break with youngsters Brett Collins and James Tyquin leading the way. Paul Wintle has returned to complete the Wintle Trio, who will be playing loud and proud throughout season 2006, and Saturday was the start of their Wintle Winter Tour. Andrew Hayes proved a handful for the Rovers with three handy goals whilst Tim McColl provided plenty of drive.

The Reds unfurled their flag and then handed out a 10 goal belting to the shell-shocked Old Paradians who haven't done anywhere near enough work but should be better for the hit out. Whilst Boudy was handy for Parade, all of C section are hereby on notice. Tim Davis will make any key forwards' day a nightmare if given the job of minding them. Davis was outstanding at CHB for Fitzroy, setting up their forward forays and controlling proceedings in front of the adoring Redders crowd, led by VAFA Personality of the Year in Peter Hille. The motor has been cranked, the bandwagon has shifted into first gear, time to get on board.....

Finally, way down south the Jackas faced their annual pilgrimage with justifiable trepidation as they have a woeful record against Parkdale. It wasn't quite the start they wanted!!! Parkdale certainly came to play and the Jackas reckon they consumed too much unleavened bread during Passover, resulting in a matzos hangover!! No doubt goal kicking practice will be the order of the day this week, as both the Jackas seniors and reserves struggled to find the big sticks. I have no news from either sides so the scoreline itself must tell the story, and Parkdale will be laughing loudly at my pre-season prediction I'm sure!! Better AJAX players were Routman and first gamer Corey Jankie.

ROUND 2 PREVIEW

Absolution will be the aim for one of NOBSPC or Hampton and I'm leaning towards the Boss Reserve Boys as Tregear will head a pack of handy inclusions. At hom, it should be enough for a 4 goal win.

Ormond will face a bouyant Monash at EE Gunn, which everyone knows is the toughest ground to secure 4 points on in the VAFA. I reckon Monash are almost up to the task, but will need to improve on last week's one-quarter effort to go close. Ormond by 7 points.

No joy out at Bundoora for the Paradians who face the Tigers juggernaut and will need a couple more weeks to fine tune things. The St Bedes boys are irrepresible and should notcheup a 33 point win.

The Wellers will not been disappointed too much at their first up efforts, and have something to work with. Hosting Parkdale will be a stern assignment, and I think the wily old Vultures should hold sway in the end, but only just by 11 points.

The Match of the Day will see the Jackas out for blood at Sportcover Arena. The Reds may well take this as an opportunity to scope out The Wick for future reference, but I'm sure the coaching staff won't be getting ahead of themselves. I'm thinking Reds by 22 points.

McGoos: NOBSPC, Ormond, St Bedes, Camberwell, Ajax

M I MILESTONES E S

The Ormond Amateur Football Club congratulates David Beckett for playing his 150th game for his club in round one. David began his junior career with Chelsea and moved to Ormond in 1996 to play in the Under 17's. He went on to win their Best and Fairest in that year. Promoted to the Senior side the following year, he won the Best First Year Player. The big strong forward (and sometime backman) played 87 consecutive games and scored more than 100 goals before being sidelined by injury. Also a keen cricketer, David will be awarded an OAF 150 plaque in their change room. Well done to David from all at the Club.

AJAX AFC- Adam Sacks played his 100th game against Parkdale. A committed player and loyal clubman, Adam has been one of the characters around the Club since he played Under 19 in 2000 and has been a regular in the reserves over the last three years highlighted by being named Coach's Player of the Year 2005.

150 Senior games - Julian Smith All those at Monash Blues congratulate Club captain Julian "Spider" Smith, on playing his 150th club and senior game last Saturday against Old Camberwell. Julian has done it all throughout his illustrious amateur career, including being a dual premiership player, dual club best and fairest winner and club captain since 2000. He has also represented Victoria on numerous occasions and been captain of the C-D4 team for the last 3 years. Renowned for his leadership and courage, we hope to see him grace the Frearson Oval for many years to come.

Review

Therry Penola turned the tables on many an early season prediction when they easily accounted for the much fancied Prahran at Toorak Park by 82 points. Key forwards Corey Bannister and Matt McWhinney starred for the Lions with a dozen goals between them, and Ricky Skiathias was also another key contributor for the visitors.

Old Mentonians comfortably defeated Emmaus St. Leo's by 64 points at The Playing Fields in a game the home side really took by the scruff of the neck after half time. "Chicken" Palmer, Chad Twentyman with eight goals, and Blake Carroll on the half back line stood out for the Panthers.

Old Carey overcame Yarra Valley by 33 points in a scrappy affair at Domoney Reserve. Despite having only two players from last year's final series (many missing due to the wedding of club stalwart Chris Battle), OC came away with the four points, with newcomers Laurence Basell in the ruck, and on-baller Josh Carr amongst those to impress against a Valley side who performed better than pre-season rumour would suggest. For the home side, James Keem did well up forward.

Rupertswood survived a tough introduction to D1 football, defeating Banyule by eight points at Warrigal Parklands.

Old Geelong had a nice away win, beating Bulleen-Templestowe by 50 points at Ted Ajani Reserve. Henry Legoe starred for the OGs, while O'Brien and Bayles with seven goals between them were also hugely influential.

Preview

First up, Emmaus St. Leo's host Bulleen-Templestowe at Bennettswood Sports Ground, both keen to atone for disappointing losses in the opening round. Both teams

I'm sure have aspirations of sorts to make finals, and starting off 0-2, with the quality of opposition still ahead will make things even tougher. I expect the likes of Greg Chivers and Jordan Wise to play a significant role for the Bullants, which will hopefully be enough to get them over the line. BTAFC, just.

Next, two highly fancied outfits, Old Carey and Prahran square up at Carey Sports Complex. OC should expect an influx of players after last weekend, but given their win and the performance of some of their new players, it should be an interesting time at the selection table. It will be interesting to see how the Two Blues respond after their first round effort. I'm sure they'll be more competitive this time around, but I still reckon the home side will be too good today. Old Carey to win.

For the second week in a row, Banyule take on a promoted side from D2, this time traveling to Como Park for their match against Old Geelong. Banyule were perhaps a tad unlucky to lose last week, but the OGs showed in their opener that they mean business in 2006. Look for the likes of 'The Hyphen' Mark Vickers-Willis, Nick Casboul and Henry McCarthy to have an impact this week, and give themselves a solid platform for their 2006 finals quest. OGs for mine.

Old Mentonians make the long trek to John Pascoe Fawkner Reserve for their clash with Therry Penola OB. Tough call, as both side had convincing wins to begin their seasons. I expect a real catfight, as the Lions certainly won't make things easy for the Panthers. After all the gossip pre-season, I will be interested to see if Therry can defy the naysayers, or are just one-week wonders. With much caution, I'll put my hard-earned on Old Mentonians (not that I condone betting on VAFA football.....)

FOUR'N TWENTY

Finally, Rupertswood entertain Yarra Valley OB at Salesian College Sunbury. This shapes up to be an intriguing contest between the home side, new to this level of football, and the visitors who've been at D1 for a while, but whose star has fallen (according to some). Rupo are capable of doing well at this level with their running game and multiple forward options, while Valley should take some positives away from their game against Carey. Should be close, but I'll plump for Rupo today.

Please submit team reports, details of social functions, milestones, etc., by 5pm each Monday, via email to either Peter.PS.Williamson@centrelink.gov.au, or theqwill@hotmail.com. I would like to hear from every team, every week, and give each team equal time in the publicity stakes. I extend my thanks to those of you who have already been in contact with me.

Until next week, enjoy your VAFA weekend, "The Qwill"

Well it's great to be back amongst the Ammo cut and thrust and thanks for the many emails and messages of support, interest, participation and threat. The first winner of the Hille Competitions was Drifters Prez John "Creedance" Fogarty who correctly nominated 13 clubs out of the 14 required within the 7 sets of 4 nominated. John wins the slab and I will be delighted to share the prize with him at a date of mutual convenience. The Drifters were not as fortunate going down to the Clydesdales in the Up & Down Cup at the Big E last Sunday but the slab is some consolation.

Monica, Mokbel and Monash Blues

Great to see Glenn Scarborough from 98.9 (Getta's weight at primary school) taking out the media award at the Ammo season launch last week – a great supporter of the Ammos and keen at repartee. Media itself included the stirring offensive form Defence Minster Horatio Nelson which may well inspire the Sailors to improve on their first up effort over the Sparks; the fighting victory of Petro which will give heart to Mario's Knights and possibly the Metrognomes; and the ban on sugary drinks which will no doubt rock the Stationmasters canteen on platform 5. Neale Daniher drew inspiration from the movie Kokoda whilst a bunch of ammos will raise money for One-In-Five by actually doing the K-track – nice point of difference and supported by that Beyond Blue leader of sartorial splendour who has followed the lead of the Socialists and appointed an Arts Manager at the Hawks nest. Meanwhile, with the Sword Swallowers in Melbourne and Monica heading to Darwin even Chelsea's dad has an interest downunder. The other big story was Colosseum resigning from the Heathens to build a roofed stadium at Anzac Cove for Barnsy & Farnsy in 2007.

2006 Top 4 Predictions Update

Got 17 of my finalist predictions up last week. As well 6 lost to other predictions. So my early concerns are about the following who lost to teams not included in the Big Fours :

Threesomes, Foamers, Chapels, Understandables and Governors.

Impressive performances by the Uncannies, Barrells, Clydesdales, Merry Oldes, Philanthropists, Socialists, Triads, Brewers and Backyard Boys who resembled Dizzy in the Desh.

This week's competition : Identify the 5 losing predictions in round 1 and win a slab. Winner will be first correct email to phille@iprimus.com.au

D2 SECTION

by Jono Healy

A good start to the new season with Peninsula confirming their premiership favouritism and Oakleigh, Aquinas, Salesian and St John's posting good first up wins. I am looking for another five from five in the tips again this week. On to the games:

Werribee AFC $1.40 v Glen Eira AFC $2.70

Both clubs will be disappointed with their performances in the first round but a week is a long time in football and both clubs have the opportunity to bounce back here. Glen Eira were outplayed at Packer Park last week by Peninsula, with Bongo and Ayub Hassan amongst the better players. The Tigers too were disappointing against an impressive Oakleigh outfit and senior coach Paul Beddoe will demand a more tenacious effort today at Soldiers Reserve. Werribee's home ground was a fortress for them last season in D3 and I expect them to be hard to beat there during the year. The Lee brothers should be on top of their game and ready to fire, and Glen Eira will need another good match from Tsirogiannis if they are to be competitive. However, at home I am tipping Werribee by 45 points.

Peninsula OB $1.18 v Ivanhoe Assumption $4.50

Premiership favourites Peninsula were mighty impressive last week and will look to build on that performance today at Harry McDonald Oval. The Hoes were competitive in patches last week but lacked the finishing polish to knock off Aquinas. I doubt that Peninsula would have lost last week with Shaun Payze's 150th game regardless of whom they were playing but the inspirational skipper only managed a half before getting injured. He remains in doubt for this week, but Peninsula have a plethora of talent at their disposal with class acts such as Kayde Bannister, Tommy Rees and Timmy Madder. The Hoes will be expecting solid performances today from Keiran O'Dwyer and Chris Hunter who were amongst the best last week, while experienced duo playing coach John Garrard and ex Collingwood player Shane Watson will be required for plenty of drive into the forward line if the Hoes are to prevail. Peninsula by 62 points.

La Trobe University $1.33 v St Johns OC $3.10

A decent road trip here for the boys from Doveton travelling out to Bundoora to play La Trobe on the biggest football ground in Australia. The boys from La Trobe were a bit disappointing last week against Salesian but will be hard to beat here back to the confines of their home ground. The Joc's had a good win in their first game in D2 for a few seasons, with Potter doing well in the midfield and with skipper Arnold scoring the winning goal the Joc's were happy boys when the final siren went. However, this week will be a completely different test for them. La Trobe at La Trobe are always hard to beat. Walks will have to continue to give the Joc's plenty of drive out of the backline and Spider will have to get his hands on the ball in the midfield. La Trobe will be able to play their usual game plan on this big ground and will rely on Pruscino and Buttigieg for continual scoreboard pressure. As I have mentioned a few times already, La Trobe are always hard to beat at home and I think they will defeat St John's by 36 points.

Aquinas OC $1.50 v Salesian AFC $2.40

Two teams that had good first up wins take battle at Aquinas College in what should be a good clash. Aquinas did enough to defeat Ivanhoe Assumption by 4 goals, but will certainly be able to improve from their first round clash. During last weeks match they had four players who were sent from the ground for undisciplined acts, and new playing coach Pickles will want to make sure there is no repeat of that this week. Salesian were most impressive in a dominant performance over La Trobe Uni at Bosco St last week with Nannes, Oldfield and Bonnici dominant in the clearances all day. My spies from Bosco St last week tell me that a youngster to keep an eye on is Harmit Singh. He has come up from the under 19's last year and can play forward or back and he will continue to improve with more senior experience under his belt. Today's game should be closely fought but I expect Aquinas to get the four points. Brabs and Timmy O will be key players for Aquinas while Patty Dunne and Ashley Ross will need to be on top of their game in the backline for Salesian to get the points. Aquinas by 28 points.

H u g h   L y o n

Williamstown CYMS $1.60 v Oakleigh AFC $2.20

The boys from Willy are still scratching their heads trying to work out how they lost last weeks match against St John's after being up by 3 goals with just 10 minutes left. However, as we all know footy is played until the final siren sounds. Oakleigh were impressive with a good win over Werribee with youngster Mick Harold continuing his good form. Willy at Fearon Reserve are usually a different team and skipper Timmy Wheeler will have his troops fired up for this one. The midfield between Trevor Bromley and Brendan Cocks will be worth the admission fee alone here, and Willy will expect more drive from Ben Hynes at Centre Half Back. I expect Willy to bounce back and win this one by 9 points.

SOCIAL

St John's will be having a ladies night at the clubrooms after today's match, commencing at 7:30pm.

M I M I L E S T O N E S

The P.O.B.F.C congratulate favourite son and club captain Shaun 'Struts' Payze on reaching the 150 game milestone last Saturday. Few have worn the Pirates jumper with more distinction than Payze - winner of four club best and fairests and last years D2 medal on the back of a 102 goal effort at CHF. The great mans on field legend grows by the week but sadly the #27 off field antics have slowed considerably. Great work Horny.

Dave Waters plays his 100th game for St John's this weekend. Muddy played in both the 2002 and 2005 reserve premierships and has been a past committee member. All the club congratulate Muddy on his achievement and hope there is many more to come.

CLUB WAREHOUSE RISING STAR NOMINATION ROUND 1

TRENT COLLINS (STBEDE'S/MENTONE TIGERS)

17 year old schoolboy sensation Brett Collins is the inaugural nomination for the Club Warehouse Rising star Award FOR 2006.

Brett, a Year 12 student at Haileybury College, blitzed the Hampton Rover defense kicking 7 goals and gathering 40 possessions. Not only is Brett a talented footballer but he played in successive Dowling Shield premierships and played 5 matches for St Kilda in the Twenty20 cup in Premier Cricket. Brett has decided to combine playing school football for Haileybury with St Bede's Mentone Tigers rather than play for Sandringham in the TAC Cup as he prefers the club atmosphere in the VAFA. Brett's ambitions are still focused on the AFL with his coach Luke Beveridge keeping a watchful eye on him for his father who is the Recruiting manager at St Kilda. Well done to Brett and I'm sure he is hoping the APS competition has a bye on Queen's Birthday weekend so that he can play in the VAFA rep match against AFL Queensland.

• TRUST IN YOUR PREPARATION

Guest speaker at the VFA Season Launch on the 19th April was the Australian Hockey Team's Goalkeeper, Stephen Mowlan. Stephen spoke of the sacrifices made to achieve the successes of Athens and the recent Commonwealth Games. Of particular interest was his account of the Olympic Final against the Netherlands. It had been 48 years since the Kookaburra's had achieved Olympic success and after an extremely taxing first half, found themselves 1-0 down at halftime. Instead of addressing his players, Coach Barry Dancer simply entered the room and wrote "trust in your preparation" on a whiteboard. He then left the room. He knew his players had done the work needed to win and felt nothing more needed to be said. The Kookaburra's famously went on to take the match in extra time.

• SEASON LAUNCH

With around 400 people in attendance, the VFA's Season Launch last Wednesday (19th April) was a night enjoyed by all.

Presentations made at the event included:

Certificate of Merit Award

- Sharon Ericksen
- Barry Hickey
- Tony Naumoff
- Rick Western
- Steve McCarthy
- John Bradley
- Russell Englander

Press Correspondents' Award

- Rob Hess
- Michael Walsh
- Phil Skeggs

2005 Media Award

- Glenn Scarborough

2005 Personality of the Year

- Peter Hille

Also acknowledged on the night was Brett Connell for his invaluable service to the VFA over many years. Brett departed the VFA last year to further his career and he left an indelible mark on the VFA over his time with the Association.

Highlight of the presentations was the "off-the-cuff" speech from Peter Hille, who had no idea he was to be presented with such an award.

• NO RSVP

There was one guest who was unfortunately turned away at the door because of his failure to RSVP. Whilst filming a "Street Talk" segment in front of AFL World at the Coaches' Night, our "Sam Newman" invited his interviewee along to the Season Launch in jest. Much to the surprise of our intrepid reporter, the man (complete with tracksuit and runners) approached him at the bar ready for a big night. "Sam" let him down gently.

VALE

John White

All those associated with Monash Blues Football Club and the VFA, regret the passing of John White. John made an enormous contribution to the club over many years and fulfilled numerous roles, ranging from president (1998-2001) to avid supporter. John was a man of courage, integrity and humour and made a lasting impression on all those who met him. His passion and interest in the club was evident right to the end and he will be sorely missed by all in the VFA community. Our sympathy and thoughts are with his family.

• GREAT START FROM PROMOTED TEAMS

Of the 12 teams promoted in 2006, seven began the season successfully and the other five contested close matches and will be looking optimistically at their chances of playing finals. Both A Section teams, Old Ivanhoe and De La went down in close matches whilst Ormond and Fitzroy Reds had authoritative wins in C Section. Uni Blacks, Old Geelong, Rupertswood, St John's and Elsternwick all look like having successful years after victories in their new sections.

• CERTIFICATE OF MERIT

Sharon Ericksen

Sharon began her time at Old Mentonians in 1977 whilst her brother played for the club, originally assisting the Club Trainers at the time. She is now embarking on her 29th season as a Trainer with the club.

In that time she has rarely missed not only games but practice matches and training nights. It is estimated Sharon has acted as Trainer for over 1000 matches. She has seen over 30 coaches come in and out the door and has, over a long period of time, been the first to arrive and the last to leave from training and games.

Sharon has been recognised with Life Membership and also was made the first female member of the Old Mentonian's Society. She was awarded the VFA 2005 Trainer of the Year as well as numerous club awards over her time.

Congratulations and well deserved Sharon.

• GAME TIMES

Much to the pleasure of some supporters (and some Executive Members with the initials Tom Brain), the bars at some games were able to open much earlier, due to shorter games than previous years. The VFA this year has introduced the AFL guidelines on timekeeping, reducing the quarters to 20 minutes plus time-on. If timekeeping is done correctly, quarters should last between 27 to 32 minutes (without stoppages for injuries). The shortest quarter over the weekend was 23 minutes and the longest was 39 minutes. The average over all sections for the seniors was 27.6 minutes. Timekeepers must ensure they are fully aware of the new guidelines.

... Retrospective

by Geoff Reilley

5 YEARS AGO - 2001

CEO, Phil Stevens, informed all amateur followers of devastating news for the Syndal Tally-Ho AFC who, in their 35th year, lost irreplaceable memorabilia, their team premiership flags, photos and practically everything in the club's possession from a fire at their headquarters. Phil asked all ammo followers to help Tally-Ho in any way they could and the result was overwhelmingly generous to the stricken club.

Round 2 experienced wintry, wet conditions but Collegians had their game against Prahran sown up by half time with a 9-2 goal lead. The scoring rate slowed in the second half but Collegians had done the damage early to run out winners, 13.15 to 6.14. Best players – Cotton, Unsworth, Hocking, P Davis, Mooney (4), Johnson (Collegians) and Beattie, Rhodes, St Clair, McClintock, Taseff and Pitts (Prahran),

In Section D1, renowned scribe, Barry Hickey, told how he nearly committed the 'heinous' crime of dropping his beer when told of Yarra Valley Old Boys shock victory over the fancied Monash Blues. The Yarra boys did their homework, applied 100% commitment to the cause, listened intently to the wise words of Coach Tim Kilworth and got the points. Tim Hancock (4) at FF and in the ruck, was outstanding. Tim Fyffe won many hard balls in the middle and Matty Laing (3) was his usual busy self up forward. The Blues had a day they would rather forget. 'Bomber' O'Neill across half back was aided in the main by Webster and Newman.

(Mentone Amateurs), D3 Section – Patrick Jackson (Fitzroy Reds), D4 Section - Leon Fairchild (OldWestbourne).

10 YEARS AGO - 1996

In the Editorial for round 2, David Burnes, VFAA President, was asked by CEO, Phil Stevens, how the VFAA, now in its 103rd year of competition, sat in the Victorian football scene. David commented thus – 'Whilst I concede that the newly formed VFL is the strongest competition within Victoria, I feel that the VFAA has a good argument to say it should be ranked No.2 with consecutive victories against the VCFL'. Another of David's statements in this article – 'I firmly believe that the level of talent that exists in the VFAA is one of the best kept secrets in football', was certainly a truism and it remains to this day. Simply take our B Section or C Section and compare the standard to other competitions' second or third divisions and there can be no doubt of David's assessment!

B Section scribe, Paul Luby, was quick to praise the early leaders in his section, Old Trinity, as they 'thumped' Old Ivanhoe, 25.9 to 3.11. Hatfield, Dalrymple, Norman, Kennedy, Anderson and Ramsden (4) were outstanding players for the winners. Bit of a struggle to find good players for the vanquished but Paul Donaldson was their best trier and Jenkins, Pappas, Weddle, Parker and Mansfield were honorable. B Section field umpires were – D Anderson, C Donlon, R Simon, M Bushfield, M Pinney, G Ridd, G Thwaites, D Dalglish, C Segota and W Henry.

Damien Ryan with 9 goals for St Kevins was the leading goal kicker for the day in C Section. His effort saw SKOBS total 12.16 to Hampton Rovers' 8.4. Other good performers for the winners were Burden, Mount, Farquharson, Garvey and Kennedy. Best for the Rovers were Denver Artz, Tyrell, Drew Anderson, Fletcher, Mason and Blick.

20 YEARS AGO – 1986

The news and views column in 'The Amateur Footballer', titled "From Over The Fence", offered a comprehensive report of the extensive VAFA Reinstatement Guidelines. FOTF also reported on the very successful, annual Members and Secretaries Dinner held at the Southern Cross Hotel. Paul Jennings, a very fine impersonator and an ex De La Salle man, entertained the members and guests including Alan Schwab (AFL), Brooke Anderson and Keith Webb (VFA), Brian Molony and Mark Patterson (VCFL), Doug Mills (VMFL) and Ed Biggs (NFL).

Old Xaverians firmed as early favorites in B Section with a comprehensive win over Fawkner although it would have been noted that Fawkner were without a number of key players from suspension in round 1! Best players – P Curtain, Benton, Bourke, Wilson, Klein (6), Metzner (Xavs) and Copley, Weir, G Buust, Ruggero, Tymms (Fawkner).

30 YEARS AGO – 1976

The weather was still fine and the high scoring remained. Power House scored the least in C Section with a reasonable total of 12.9 and consequently lost to Fawkner whose poor kicking for goal, 18.29, cost itself valuable percentage. Duggan, F McMahon, Foley, J Teasdale, Ferguson (6) and E Wilson led the charge by Fawkner. Upton (4), Peters, Clarke, Drough, Whitmore and Alexander were valiant for Power House.

Old Brighton overcame their disappointment from a round 1 defeat by annihilating Brunswick, 28.18 to 6.13. Best for Brighton – Holmes (12), McClure, Devine, Thomas, Jones (5) and Kemp. Brunswick named their best as Witheridge, Burchell, Fagan, Palmer, Hughes and Hanlon.

Two 150 games milestones for Mal Titshall (Old Brighton) and Lloyd Oakley for Old Camberwell. Both stalwarts also served their club well off field over their respective journeys.

40 YEARS AGO – 1966

Coburg veteran, Ian Merrick, lined up for his 300th game. Ian was a great acquisition for the VAFA and had earned a place in Victorian representative teams on a number of occasions. He won various club awards (including 6 B & F's) and had always been an excellent clubman. All Coburg supporters hoped there would be many more games to come from one of their favorite sons.

Kew defeated Old Melburnians in the main B Section game, 5.11 to 4.8, a relatively low scoring affair. Best for Kew – Gartner, Taylor, Finlay, Stokes, Hayes and Milner. For OM's – Miller, R Payne, Thompson, Beer, I Smith, D Smith.

50 YEARS AGO – 1956

Caulfield Grammarians were on a high. Having been relegated from B Section after 1955, they were on top of C Section, undefeated, following round 2. They easily accounted for E S & A Bank, 23.23 to 5.13. Best for Caulfield were Ron Ashbolt, B Dixon, H Ford, Rob Harrison, J McFarlane, Bill O'Halloran and I Sitch. The bankers were very disappointed having suffered their second loss but were pleased with the form of Russ Eccleston, Doug Page, Mick Tuohy, Peter Strang and Bruce Melling.

In D Section, De La Salle and Old Geelong had been promoted from E Section and after two games, both were continuing their good form from 1955 and were undefeated in first and second position. De La's best players against St Pats OC were Jim Smith, Danny Faulkner at CHB, John Gilfedder and the D's expected big things from "Occer" once he gained full fitness. In the Geelong winning team, Joe Breadmore gave a fine display of high marking and accurate kicking, Noel Rundle's creative centre play provided lots of drive and Ian Peake in the BP was a 'delight to watch'.

An interesting round with results going as expected. A four out of five in my tipping was a good start for the VAFA tipping awards.

Review

The match of the day saw a tight, tense first half between Westbourne and Kew. However, in the second half, it was "Jucka" Horsburgh who stood up for the Warriors to guide his side to a deserved 31-point win.

The Gryphons got off to a great start with no less than ten new players in the senior line up. It was big man Chris Leeton who blew the game open for Monash, and while UHS-VU fought the match out gallantly, it was not to be as the Gryphons recorded a 34 point win.

South Melbourne employed some "shock and awe" in their ambush of D3 newcomers St.Marys, and had four goals piled on before the Saints had time to blink. Though Dwyer tried hard to keep up with the Swans, it was not to be as the Saints were given a 21-goal hiding.

The Bentleigh versus West Brunswick went as expected though I think I can take out of the match that the Magpies are not as underdone as I first thought. With the pasta shop left in capable hands, Paul Dimmatina was in full flight for Bentleigh, however his side were tested for much of the match by the likes of Shannon Monagle and Bill Irving aka Morgan. Ultimately the class of the Demons shone through in a good win.

After unfurling their 2005 flag, Elsternwick went on to show that there is room for improvement in the D3 transition. With Craig and Brian Mahony the only triers in the first half for the Wickers, Swinburne was right in the match at the major break. However, Elsternwick showed why I had them in my top four predictions as they ran away with it in the second half.

Preview

UHS-VU host Elsternwick in a match that most will be predicting will be one sided the way of the Wickers. Personally, I am not so sure. With a game under their belts, the student version of "Dad's Army" of Cracknell, Langendorf and Gorringe will need to be countered for this to occur. Combine them with newcomers Fazakerley, Wright and Lyness and an upset could be brewing. However, for my tip I am sticking with Danny Byrne and James Convery to assist Elsternwick continue their successful D3 transition with a solid win.

West Brunswick showed last weekend that they are going to be up there this season, and will be keen to now back this up with a first up win at "the House of Pain". Kew, on the other hand, will be hoping to atone for last week's loss. With the "Silver Fox" Blair playing well and Guiseppe Bortone in form after assisting Tony Mokbel off to Brazil, Kew will threaten. For my tip though, I am going for the Magpies by a single digit margin.

I may have misjudged Swinburne in my assessment last week, as their showing against one of finals fancies Elsternwick, demonstrated that they will take some beating and at home that is doubly true. On the flip side, the Saints were disappointing and perhaps the jump to D3 is larger than they may have originally thought. For my pick, I am going with the Razorbacks to stick it right up me with a 3-goal win.

The Warriors move on to their long awaited new home ground and host Monash who put in a good showing last week. Westbourne's win last week have sent a strong message to D3 that they are a side to be reckoned with, and with new skipper Mick Christo leading from the front, and "Juice" Huntington setting up the play, they will be tough to beat, especially at home. However, with great pickups like Brad Senior at full back and Ross Hedley on the ball it will not be all one-way traffic for the Warriors. For my tip, I am sticking with Westbourne to win a close one.

The South Melbourne and Bentleigh is a tough call as the silence has been deafening from both camps. I guess I will have to stick with my preseason favorites in Bentleigh for my tip, but I am expecting the Swans to go with them for much of the game.

Correspondents

I had quite a few critics last week and this is fine as I am happy to hear anything you have to say, be it positive, negative or indifferent and take it all on board. So please get your reports to gavanflower@hotmail.com as they are all gratefully received.

M I L E S T O N E S

Kew congratulate nippy onballer Matty Glen on playing his 50th game today against Old Westbourne.

St Marys wishes Paul Harrison all the best for his 100th game this week against Swinburne. Paul a former club captain, has a never say die attitude and plays tough uncompromising football. A very good team man the club hopes he can lead them to their first points in 2006.

New look

The opening round saw the unveiling of the new look umpires uniform. A big thanks to the VAFAUA President Rob Mayston for making this venture possible. Rob worked on this tirelessly from start to finish. The guys looked smart and were happy not to run with the weight of last year's potato sack gear on.

Award Winner

At last week's VAFA Season Launch (PSM Night) at the Carlton Crest in Melbourne, my co-scribe Steve McCarthy was awarded the VAFA Certificate of Merit.

The Certificate of Merit is awarded to people who have made a significant contribution to the VAFA over a number of years.

Steve's contribution to the VAFA has been exceptional. He started with the Association in 1984 and has since umpired 497 games including 22 grand finals.

The highlights of his umpiring career have been the 1998 A Section Grand Final, and being awarded the VAFA's Umpire of the Year in 2004.

Steve's contribution to the VAFA has extended beyond the field of play. He regularly entertains (?) supporters of Amateur Football with his radio show on Southern FM with Tommy Brain and his comical stories (?) in Umpires Corner.

Steve was honoured to receive the award and celebrated the certificate with a few beers.

- Leah.

Milestones

While on the subject of my co-scribe (Macca), he will be umpiring his 500th VAFA game in Round 4 (May 13th.) To celebrate and acknowledge this occasion, a dinner will be held that night at the Umpires' Function room at Elsternwick Park. On this evening we will also be honouring his great mate Anthony Damen who will be chalking up game number 350 around that time. We're sure Macca and AD would love as many people (especially from the clubs) to help celebrate with them. Tickets are $20 for dinner with drinks at bar prices. Any interested parties should contact Leah at Sue_Leah@dodo.com.au, Simon Stokes at simonstokes@hotmail.com or Macca Steve.McCarthy@infotech.monash.edu.au

Goal Umpires

With the new goalies' advisor comes new methods of training for goalies, the introduction of two nights training (where do they get the energy?) and what would be best described using 30 men within the 45m arc as Auskick at the G at half time with all the portable goal posts scattered about. They even kick goals like the Auskick kids.

Bounce V Throw

The option of bouncing the ball or throwing up reared it's ugly head again last week when poor Tim Sutcliffe was asked by a player after a few less than average throw ups to try bouncing the ball to improve that aspect of his game. Tim (who was first to adopt this rule due to his less than perfect bouncing) quick as a flash was to reply, "Have you seen me bounce?" We reckon Tim you should have bounced just to prove a point.

End Game

What a great innovation the 20min Quarters were last week, players were going hard at it and not tiring but the best aspect was the earlier finish. New field umpire Craig Brajtberg enjoyed the earliest finish that we know of at 4:00pm but did he get home any quicker? Did the wife know?

Get Glasses

Andrew Rechtman, doing his bit by observing the boundaries last week might need glasses after struggling to recognise the blond field umpire running with Leah at De La Salle. The blond happened to be our very own grey-headed and distinguished Mark Gibson. Doc, you work at a hospital maybe you should get an eye test done.

Guru Bob

Just to leave you with this quote from Guru Bob: "A player who keeps both feet on the ground, cannot remove his shorts" think about that!

RESPECT THE UMPIRE – RESPECT THE GAME!!

D4 SECTION

by Ed Sill

The football gods did their best to remind us that football was a winter sport as they turned downed the thermostat to present us with mid season styled weather. Didn't matter too much though, footy is back!

Too early to get a feel for the first round other than no major surprises.

Eitham started the season in good form with a solid win over the 'promoted' Eley Park. It was close early before the midfield generals of Galvin and Turner took over for the Turtles whilst Viola provided headaches up forward for Eley Park.

Great game of footy at Box Hill where Hawthorn managed to hold of a much improved home side. Both clubs would have come away thinking their sides have improved in 2006. Saulle was the Hawks best.

Great win for Albert Park as they accounted for North Brunswick. Venables and Thompson starred up forward whilst Fehring held sway down back for the Falcons.

Big win for Bulleen as they accounted for Richmond. Badanjek and Cookson were again the key for Bulleen who would have been happy with their start. Tough one first up for Richmond, plenty of solace in that it was a better performance than in the corresponding fixture last year.

Finally, Power House won an arm wrestle against Syndal. As usual, tough encounter however the House stamp themselves as one to watch in 2006.

Preview

A few games that will give us a pointer as to where D4 is heading this week with the stand outs being the D4 beaten finalists last year taking on the demoted D3 clubs.

Syndal host Bulleen in what promises to be a clinker. Bulleen would have been happy to get their season heading in the right direction whilst Syndal were left to muse what might have been. Leap of faith on this one. Details on Syndal are still a little patchy and with that being the case might take Bulleen to make it two in a row.

Power House acts as hosts as Hawthorn await the delivery of Glenferrie Oval for the 2006 season. Both sides had solid wins last week and would be eyeing each other off as potential rivals. Historically these games have been tough encounters and no doubt it will be the same this week. Home ground advantage might be the key here, Power House for me.

FOUR'N TWENTY

The VAFA Choice in...

PIES, PASTIES & SAUSAGE ROLLS

Albert Park makes the trek to Eltham no doubt full of confidence after their first up win. Problem is they face a home side also buoyed with confidence and one always tough to beat at home. Based on that, fancy the Turtles might be too good.

North Brunswick welcomes Box Hill North. Disappointing start for Brunswick whilst Box Hill would have been disappointed with the result but happy with style in their close defeat. Some tall timber up forward is supplemented with the cagey Penny who is dangerous at all times. Like what I saw of Box Hill North, fancy them here to get their season rolling.

Finally, Richmond welcomes Eley Park with one side to record their first win for the season. It is always a big step up from Club XVIII however the Sharks know the score and will be too good for Richmond.

Four out of ten this week from the clubs was some what of a slow start although allowances will be made for the 'long' weekend. No sides as yet on the dirty list. Anyway, either call on 0418348723 or else via ed.sill@locker.com.au

North Brunswick - 100 Games Mick Sorleto

Well done to Mick on reaching 100 games. Due to work commitments it has taken a few years for him to reach the target.

When available his outstanding pace & his ability to read the play makes him an automatic selection in the seniors. His clearing dashes & ball carrying ability makes him exciting to watch.

A popular figure at Allard Park he is well respected by everyone.

Hopefully he will be able to make more appearances to boost his tally of games & make a major contribution to the Green & Gold cause.

Under 19-1

One week is a long week in football. After tipping only three out of five games correctly, I found myself eating humble pie as I came to grips with a splitting hangover from too many amber refreshments after punting at the local TAB on Saturday afternoon.

And it was with an almighty arctic blast that we began round one with a bang.

Review

Scotch and dry handed out a ripe old flogging to St Kevins. Their run through the midfield, and some strong on-field leadership must have pleased new coach Ray Leethem.

Marcellin gave Uni Blues a lesson in defence 101. Neck and neck for the first quarter and a bit, the away team took over (back half especially) thereafter. Matt Nash, James Winstanley and Anthony De Mastro were prominent for the winners, while Scott Houghton and Matt Maltman were brave in defeat for the Blues.

Xavs lived up to my early prediction and thumped a hapless Banyule (who did not live up to my early prediction!). Ritchie Benson smashed up the bears all over the ground. Premiership favouritism is written all over this well drilled team from the savery.

In other games, De La took to Rupertswood with a dirty wet towel. A real percentage booster. While St Bernards proved my wooden spoon prediction to be nothing but the prediction from hell.

Preview

Tough round for tipping again but I'm going for Collegians (to bounce back), Marcellin (match of the round against the drink with dry), St Bernards (Aarhh), Uni Blues (do something - go and ravage the bears) and Old Xavs (continue on their merry way) Until next week, happy punting! beatonc@tabcrop.com.au. Any submissions must be received by Monday night.

Under 19-2

OK, clearly the ONLY correct prediction I made last week was that Section 2 is always UNPREDICTABLE.

In a physical encounter, the Wellers jumped the visitors and left them without a bench. Although a convincing win, the Friars took consolation in first-gamers Mark Stafford and Josh Hill. Also, talented forward Simon Allemant returned fit from a recent confrontation with a truck on the Ring Road. The Fields had a first-up scare as the freshly promoted Raiders came close. Uni Blacks took a strong first step into Section 2, victorious over a dismal Beaumaris. Brighton continued their poor form as the Melburnians presented a strong new front for 06. Finally I watched Carey stamp their claim as league leader, first up against the T's, with a solid 47 point win at Hudson Oval.

This week the impressive Uni Blacks will continue to sink the Tonners ship and win by 27 points. Parade, with a tough first two weeks will come close to the Wellers, but will fall before a team who seem to have the goods, winning by 5 goals. Last week's surprise, the OM's will test the Fields, but will go down by a matter of points in this week's showdown.

Carey will dispose of the Sharks in much the same way that they did the T's. 48 points

The Friars should have the Trinity's measure this week, with their capable big men Mirrabella, Torney and Keogh showing promise in Round 1.

Under 19-3

Review

Round 1 did not produce too many surprises for the U19 pundits except for the size of some of the victories. Oakleigh demoralised newcomers Emmaus St. Leos by 230 points, Benteleigh and Ormond had comfortable wins with Ormond young gun Keane kicking 5 goals, 4 of them in the game breaking second quarter, while Ashton was in everything down back. Melbourne High held off a determined La Trobe Uni and in a result that wasn't unexpected, St. Bedes again showed that they will be tough to beat with a 41-point away win against Old Ivanhoe.

Preview

Forget the AFL game this Friday night, head down to Sportscover Arena to watch two very good teams go at it when Benteleigh take on Ormond. Both teams will be confident after good Round 1 performances, and in a tough game to pick, I will stick with Ormond by only the barest of margins. An intriguing round sees St. Bedes play host to improvers La Trobe, a match in which La Trobe Coach De Bono will find out a lot about where his team stands. St. Bedes are a tough assignment home and away and should account for La Trobe by 30 points. Oakleigh will be riding high after their massive win and should account for Old Ivanhoe by 36 points in a more competitive match, while Melbourne High should beat Emmaus St. Leo's comfortably by eight goals. Ajax play host to St. Leo's which should see them get the four points at home by five goals.

U19 Section Blue

Review

There were just as many highlights in Round 1 as at a David Gray concert, plenty, with match of the round Hampton and De La living up to its top billing. In a see-sawing affair, the lead was shared throughout the game with Hampton's CHB Lachlan Batt and on-baller Kyle Pinto providing much of Hampton's drive, however, De La held on gamely by just 10 points. A great performance from Adam Kovarik with 5 goals in his first game of Under 19 football. Mazenod easily accounted for Monash with Seenen and Smith playing well in a solid team effort, while Old Haileyburians showed newcomers Powerhouse what to expect at this level. Oakleigh Clays illustrated that they will be far more competitive this season with a good win over Parkdale while Salesian forfeited to Old Mentonians.

Preview

In an exciting Round 2, Mazenod host Hampton at Central Reserve in what will be a torrid affair, with both teams expecting to be playing at the business end of the season. While Hampton full back Thom McCarthy will provide Mazenod with a headache or two, Mazenod's Lewton, Bogar and Johnson should provide their team with enough opportunities to kick a winning score, taking the points by three goals. De La faces a rejuvenated Oakleigh Clays but should win at home comfortably, while Old Haileyburians should notch up their second victory against Monash. The Parkdale Vultures will be looking for their first win of the season, however, will face a fired up Old Mentonians. Their round one match was a win due to a forfeit by Salesian and after taking the Max Lyon Cup in the preseason, they will be raring to go and should account for the Vultures by 38 points. Not sure if Powerhouse/South Mornington will have a game this week against Salesian, so for the sake of a tip, they will win.

Under 19 Red

ANZAC Day Weekend has produced some great battles and has hinted at a very unpredictable top 4 come August.

The Lions welcomed the Xavs back to RED, sneaking in by a kick. Midfielders Jack Walker and Ben Harding provided swift delivery to forwards Costello, and McKibbin (3). Rupertswood have thrown their hat in the ring as a contender with a tough 7 point win against the Bullants. The highly anticipated Aquinas-Fitzroy shootout delivered the close match that was expected; but it would have been a blowout had Aquinas kicked a little straighter. In the only landslide, a straight kicking Kew disposed of the home side, running away by 69 points in front of a gloomy Westbourne crowd.

This week:

The New-Old Boys NOBS/St Pats re-enter in Round 2 against a Westbourne side needing to bounce back. But NOBS by two goals.

In the first of this week's showdowns, Bulleen Temp hosts Aquinas. Bullant captain Andrew Fabris needs that first win and should take the four points by no more than that number. Second, Fitzroy have Therry and I could go either way on this, but the Reds should just take it by 11 points. Rupertswood will be a tougher challenge for yardstick Kew, but the Woodsmen should go down by 27 points.

Old Xavs have a rest.

CLUB XVIII SECTION

by Norm Nugent

As expected Round 1 results were surprising in part; yet the more results surprised, the more the status quo was kept. A 73% success rate has given me renewed confidence for the games ahead !

Review

Section 1

Marginal inaccuracy prevented reigning premiers St Kevins from winning against the always competitive Old Scotch who triumphed by three points.

Newcomers St Bede's Mentone Tigers started on a winning note with a nine point margin over Mazenod, whose Club confidence was severely dented in Round 1. Best for the winners were: Kelly, Flavelle and Borella.

A rejuvenated University Blues recorded a fifty five point victory over Old Xaverians. Blues Coach, Andrew Waxman led from the front with a best on ground display. He was well supported by Liam Quin and Marty Kelly. For the Xaverians, Speakman, O'Hanlon and Langdon were best.

De La Salle proved too strong for Prahran, who went down to their fellow Darling Park tenants by fifteen points

Old Xaverians quickly showed their talents when they defeated Old Melburnians by one hundred and two points. An interested spectator at this game was Kevin Sheedy, who doubtlessly would have been impressed by Andrew Hall's coaching. Nick Rathgaber was a stand out player for the winners.

Section. 2

Fitzroy Reds, despite inaccuracy in front of goal, were too talented for Old Brighton Grammarians who finished sixty eight points in arrears.

Whitefriars were able to defeat Therry Penola by forty three points despite wet and slippery conditions. Peter O'Brien (7 goals), defender Ross Gibson and Paul Hennessy were best for Whitefriars.

My judgment of Marcellin and Monash Blues was exceptionally wide of the mark. A depleted Marcellin proved no match for a seemingly much stronger Monash side who won in a canter by one hundred and sixty three points.

An accurate Mt Lilydale started with a win when they triumphed over University Blacks by twenty nine points.

St Bernard's, who won their comeback game against Collegians by forty eight points, did not have it all their own way as Collegians contested valiantly. Best for St Bernard's included: Mitchell, Peart, Vassallo and Creasy.

Section. 3

North Old Boys/ St Patricks proved competitive against Emmaus St Leos, who won by fourteen points.

Fitzroy Reds and Old Geelong played a close game from which the Reds emerged victorious by twelve points.

Caulfield Grammarians showed their potential strength through a fifty six point win over Old Scotch.

Old Trinity, after a closely fought and high standard game, lost by seven points to Old Essendon. Old Trinity was again well served by the consistent Arrowsmith.

Beaumaris forfeited to La Trobe University.

Preview

Section. 1

Leaders Old Xaverians travel for the first time to Mentone to play St Bede's Mentone Tigers, who will be confident after their initial success. Today, I believe they will come back to reality as Old Xaverians will prove far too talented.

Last season's Preliminary finalists, St Kevins ad Prahran meet on Righetti Oval. Again I favour St Kevins to win as I suspect their fitness and persistence will overcome Prahran.

Old Scotch should make it two wins in a row today by defeating Old Xaverians 2 , who may take a while to adjust to the required standard of the Section.

I favour University Blues to win again at the expense of Old Melburnians, who certainly did not start well last week.

De La Salle should also win two in a row at the expense of Mazenod, whose initial outing was not of the required standard.

Section .2

University Blacks will be stronger at home today against Old Brighton Grammarians, whose optimism was dented last week. I select the Blacks.

The comparative strength of Collegians and Mt Lilydale will be better known after today's game. At home Collegians will be stronger, while Mt Lilydale will be unaccustomed to Albert Park conditions. For these reasons I select Collegians.

Whitefriars buoyed by their away victory will find St Bernards offer strong opposition. At Domeney Oval, I favour Whitefriars to record a narrow win.

Monash Blues should record another big victory against Therry Penola, who face a long trip to play.

Fitzroy Reds should be able to win well against Marcellin, who must put last week out of their collective minds.

Section. 3

Beaumaris, at home should be able to record their first victory by defeating Old Geelong, who will be playing at Banksia Reserve for the first time.

Old Essendon should prove talented enough to defeat La Trobe University at Keilor.

North Old Boys / St Patricks will be tested by Old Trinity, who played well in Round 1. An unknown factor, to me, is how many Under 19 players bolstered the Combine last week against Emmaus St Leo's ? Urged by the editor to be daring, I therefore punt on North / St Patrick's taking the points.

I suspect Emmaus St Leo's will prove too strong for Old Scotch even at St James Park.

Fitzroy Reds will test Caulfield Grammarians in the contest between the two top placed teams. I suspect Caulfield grammarians will possess enough skills to narrowly defeat the Reds even on their own turf.

Team managers

I am happy to submit your match details to our Editor BUT I need them from YOU !! My telephone number is 9467 2857 and my email address is nknugent@bigpond.com By 1 p.m. Monday please.

Ball Brief

Veteran "Crocodile" Peter Conquest forsook his Old Xaverian jumper for the whites and whistle against Old Melburnians. Peter found the challenge of umpiring harder than he imagined as there are many other factors than being first to the ball, involved in umpiring. Well done Peter in making the transition and it is hoped you persevere and that other recent retirees respond to help their Club in like manner.
